Obadiah

1The vision of Obadiah; what the Lord w^s said about Edom:

We have heard that a report from the
the w^s Lord, a messenger has been sent among the nations;

Rise up, let us rise against Edom in battle!

I will make you small among the nations,

and despised all!

Your proud heart
has misled you,

you who live in the clefts
of the rock,

you who build on high your dwelling.

You say to yourselves,

‘ Who can bring me down to earth?’

4Though you build high as the eagle, though between the stars you set your nest, from there will I bring you down, says the Lord w*.

5If thieves had come, marauders by night would they not have stolen as they needed?

If grape-gatherers had come to you would they not have left some gleanings?

6Descendants of Esau, all your treasures are looted.

7To your border they have driven you, in the day when strangers carried away their wealth, and strangers entered into their gates, and over Jerusalem cast lots, you were as one of those strangers.

You should not have gloated over your relatives, in the day of their misfortune.

You should not have exulted over the land of Judah in the day of their destruction.

You should not have laughed loudly at their distress.

13 You should not have entered at the gate of my people in the day of their disaster.

You should not have gloated over their calamity, nor stretched out your hand after their wealth in the day of their disaster, to cut down their fugitives, nor should you have betrayed their refugees in the day of their distress.
