This book contains the account of the intense suffering of Job and of God restoring him. We call this book Job

Job and his family

1 In the land of Uz, there was a man named Job. He was a very godly and righteous [DOU] man, who was greatly respected and revered by God and always avoided doing evil things. <sup>2</sup> He had seven sons and three daughters. <sup>3</sup> He owned 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 1,000 oxen, and 500 female donkeys. He also had many servants. He was the richest man in all the area east of Jordan w of w the w w River.

4 Each year, Job's sons made feasts in their houses to celebrate their birthdays. Whenever each one made a feast, he would invite all his brothers and sisters to come and eat together. <sup>5</sup>

Like sheaves of grain continue to grow until it
is time to harvest them.

“My friends
and I have thought carefully
about these things, and we know that they are true,”

so pay attention to what I have said!
Job refuted Eliphaz’ claim

Then Job spoke
again, saying
to Eliphaz,

“If all my troubles and misery could be put on a scale
and weighed,

they would be
heavier than all the sands on the shores of the oceans.”

That is why
I spoke
rashly
without thinking
clearly
about
the
day
that
I was born.

6 And when the lamps above them were in the tents were extinguished, there will be no light in those tents.

7 For many years they walked confidently, but later when in his life he was with them though they stumbled and fell, because when they themselves did not heed the advice they gave to others.

8 It was though they walked into their own net for he fell into a pit that they themselves have dug.

9 It was though he was as a trap he grabbed their heels and held them fast [DOU],

worth more than
vases made from fine
gold.

18Wisdom is worth more than coral
or crystal/pure quartz;

the price of wisdom is higher than
the price of
pearls.

19The prices of
topaz/very valuable
yellow stones from Ethiopia and of
pure gold

are lower than
the price of
of wisdom.

20“So, where does
wisdom come from?”

Where can we find out how to truly understand
things?

21No living humans
can see it [MTY];

and birds cannot
see it while they are flying [MTY].

22w It is w as places go die as though the
 where people
 after they
 say [PRS],

‘ We have only heard rumors about w where w to find w wisdom.’

23God is w the one knows how to find wisdom;

h e knows where it is,

24because he can see things even in remote places on earth;

h e can see everything below the sky.

25When he decided how winds should blow, and how much rain would be in the clouds,

26and when he decided where rain would fall,

and lightning should take from clouds to ground, at that time he saw wisdom and decided that it is extremely valuable.

He examined it and approved it/said that it was very good.

28And when he said to humans, ‘Listen!’ To have an awesome respect for me is what I will enable you to become; wise; and to truly understand everything, you must first turn away from doing what is evil.”

Job ridicules the fathers of young men

30“But now men who are younger than I make fun of me—

men whose fathers I greatly despised, with the result that I would not have allowed them to help my dogs guard my sheep.

2They were old and weak/worn out;

so I could gain from them working me?/I would have gained nothing from them working for me. [RHQ]

3They were very poor and hungry, with the result that they chewed on roots w at night w* in dry and desolate places.

4They pulled up plants in the desert and ate them and warmed themselves by burning of broom trees.

5Everyone shouted at them as though they were thieves and expelled them from their areas.

6They were forced to live in caves in the hills, in holes in the ground, and in the sides of cliffs.

7In the bushes they howled like animals because they were hungry, and they huddled together under thornbushes.

8They were people without good sense,

whose names no one knows;
