The Readers' Version presents the meaning in modern English. The Literal Version helps readers examine the wording of the source languages. The two versions are designed to be read together.

This translation is still a draft. The overall draft version is shown above; the end of each book shows the Readers' Version book revision or the Literal Version set release, or both in the parallel edition.

Preliminary preface

It is our prayer that the Open English Translation of the Bible will give you a clear understanding of the accounts and messages written by the god-inspired Biblical writers.

Note: This is still an early look into the unpolished text of the Open English Translation of the Bible. Please double-check the text in advance before using in public. Some things (like capitalisation of 'him' referring to Yeshua, or of 'father' referring to God) in the OET-RV haven't been decided yet so we're still testing both ways.

Introduction

The OET Literal Version (OET-LV) is a technical document that presents the Hebrew and Greek texts to the English reader in words of their own language. It's not especially nice to read, but every original language word is represented in the text so you can focus on the exact words that were written (and the exact numbers and units that were used if you're tracing Biblical symbolism, etc.). It's like holding an English magnifying glass over the original documents, and sometimes these technical details are important.

In contrast, this OET Readers' Version (OET-RV) is designed to help you see the big picture. Remember that one of Jesus/Yeshua's strengths was using stories and word-pictures to help his listeners understand spiritual truths. Remember that as we look back to the real-life stories of Biblical characters like Abraham and Isaac, Mosheh and the exodus from Egypt, Yonah/Jonah and many others, we can see that those narratives were also prophetic and taught about the coming messiah. So when you read this Readers' Version, we want you to be able put aside the magnifying glass and stand back and focus on the stories and the big picture, and then on what effect they should have on your chosen lifestyle. We want those stories and their deeper meanings to stick in your mind so that you'll be excited to share the Good Message with others via gripping stories that they can relate to.

Goals and intended audience

The OET has the following goals:

The primary goal of the Open English Translation is to make the Bible more accessible to this current generation with the best of a free-and-open, easy-to-understand Readers' Version alongside a faithful Literal Version so that readers themselves can checkout what was said and what is interpreted by the translators.

Part of the motivation comes from our work on the street and door-to-door where we worked hard to explain the Good Message about Yeshua to people without any church background. The Readers' Version strives to replace jargon and terminology that's only heard at church with words and phrases that should be understood by modern English speakers.

A further goal is to expose more people to some of the background of where our Bibles come from and how translators make decisions, i.e., to teach a little more about original manuscripts and to challenge a little more about English translation traditions (some going back to the 1500's) that can possibly be improved.
Finally, we also want a translation that can be read by Christians with many years of Bible reading experience, but who might benefit by reading the accounts in slightly different words that make it fresh and interesting, and hopefully it will provoke deeper thought into what the original speakers or writers likely meant.

Distinctives

The OET has the following distinguishing points:
An easy-to-understand Readers' Version alongside a very Literal Version.
A generous open license so that the Open English Translation can be freely used in any Bible app or website, or printed in your church Bible-study notes without any verse limits and without even needing to request permission.
This Readers' Version speaks like people around you. Because the history and legacy of English Bibles now goes back for hundreds of years, many things have been carried over that readers don't even realise. For example, we all smile at Yoda saying, "Strong is the force." That's because naturally we would say, "The force is strong." So think about "Great is your faithfulness." We don't normally talk like that in natural English. (At least Miles Coverdale improved it in his version in 1535 if you look carefully.) But our aim isn't at all to criticise those who came before (because we very-much build on their shoulders)—we just want our readers to be able to share the Good Message of Yeshua the messiah with others, without them thinking that Christians speak like dinosaurs (or Yoda)!
The Readers' Version has section headings and cross-references and most of the other features that help modern Bible readers.
The Readers' Version uses modern units for all measurements (easy to understand and visualise), whereas the Literal Version retains the ancient units (useful for historical and symbolic studies).
The Readers' Version uses well-known figures of speech, or if the original figure of speech is not readily understandable, explains the point that the author appears to be trying to express. On the other hand, the Literal Version retains the original figurative language (even if it's not a figure of speech that most modern readers are familiar with).
Up and down in the original languages (and thus in the Literal Version) refer to uphill and downhill (which you might expect in cultures where most people walked or rode animals). However, in the Readers' Version, up and down are used to refer to north and south respectively as per our modern norm (with computerised maps).
The Readers' Version is less formal than most modern English Bible translations, for example, we would use contracted words like we'll and didn't, especially when it's in direct speech. (Always remember that the Bible was written in the languages of the common people.)
The Readers' Version uses section headings which are very helpful to skim through when trying to locate a certain passage. However, you'll quickly notice that they are formatted in such a way as not to break the flow of the narrative or letter. This is to visually help the reader to appreciate the full context of the part they're reading, and avoid breaking the connections with what came before and what follows.

We've also tried to focus our section headings on principles that are being taught, rather than just focusing on the events happening at the time.
We also provide a list of these section headings that you can quickly skim through (including extra, alternative headings to help with searches for familiar words like 'leper' and 'scribe' which we don't use in the OET-RV).

Being a 21st century translation done in an era when there is much more effort in general to respect speakers of other languages (including the languages of ethnic minorities in our own countries) and to pronounce their names and placenames correctly, the OET attempts to do the same for Biblical names and placenames. (All this is a little complex when we have both Hebrew and Greek versions of names and placenames—more below.) Certainly by showing a little more respect for Hebrew names, we hope to make this Bible translation a little more 'Jew-friendly'. If you have difficulty following the names in the Literal Version, you can always look across to the Readers' Version. (Most English readers looking at names in the Bible all the way from Jericho to John would have no idea that there's no J letter or sound in either Hebrew or Greek, plus there's absolutely no such name as James in the New Testament manuscripts—it's a historical accident carried through from the Latin from an inconsistency by John Wycliffe—see www.biblicalarchaeology.org/daily/biblical-topics/bible-versions-and-translations/james-or-Jacob-in-the-bible/ for example.)

In addition to wanting to get names and placenames more accurate, we've also attempted to modernise and simplify the spelling (transliterations) of these names to make it easier for readers to pronounce them as they come across them, e.g., using f instead of ph, so Epafras instead of Epaphras. (Oddly, even traditional English Bible translations surprisingly do use Felix and Festus.) However, we sometimes choose to leave the traditional ph spelling in words that are well-known in secular history, e.g., Euphrates.

With regular words, we've tried to do the opposite, i.e., to use less Greek rather than more wherever possible. So a word like baptise (which is an adapted transliteration of the Greek verb), actually gets translated, so this example becomes immerse.

Italics are only used for emphasis, not to indicate added words as historically done in older translations due to limitations of the original printing processes. The OET fixes the problem where most modern typesetting uses italics for emphasis whereas older Bibles use italics for the words which should actually be deemphasised, i.e., the words which actually aren't in the original manuscripts! (We use a lighter colour for added words.)

Bolding is used for nomina sacra. This is a feature of the early Koine Greek manuscripts that isn't marked in most Bible translations (or even in most Greek New Testaments). Nomina Sacra (which is Latin for 'Sacred Names') appears to be a scribal marking that usually indicate words that the scribes considered to refer to God.

The English Christ is an adapted transliteration of the Koine Greek word Kristos used for the original Hebrew messiah. (It's not Jesus'/Yeshua's surname!) It seems to make sense to only use one word consistently rather than using two words for the same thing (just because they came from two different languages), so the OET has elected to only use messiah. However, these words actually have a meaning, just as President is not just a title, but someone who presides over governmental meetings. So going a step further, we have chosen to use the contemporary meaning of the word in the Literal Version. The original meaning is one who is anointed (by pouring a hornful of oil over them), but we use the extended meaning which is one who is selected/chosen (by God).

Most readers living in modern democracies have never been familiar with the concept of an ancient king or lord who has the power of life and death over them. Thus the title Lord Jesus/Yeshua is easily said, yet relatively few actually live with Yeshua as the lord of their thoughts and actions and daily activities. (Just think how many would embarrassingly rush to turn off the video they're streaming if Yeshua appeared in the room.) As a reaction to the word Lord seemingly becoming so cliché for many Christians, we use the translation master as a way to get readers to at least think a little more about what the concept might mean. (The word boss felt a little too informal.)

The Literal Version tries to add as little as possible that's not actually there in the original manuscripts. Of course, we add spaces between words so we can read it faster, and we add capitals at the start of sentences as per standard, modern English, but we don't capitalise words like Kingdom of Heaven or even He when it refers to Jesus/Yeshua, because the concept of capital and small letters didn't even exist when original manuscripts like the portion visible at GreekCNTR.org/manuscripts/images/1G20001/1G20001-262r.jpg were written. (Our policy has more to do with accuracy and education than it does with 'lack of respect' or any such thing. Often this goes against religious tradition of the last few centuries, but just because something is traditional, does not necessarily mean that it is correct or even helpful.)

Most dialects of modern English don't distinguish between you (singular) referring to just one person, and you (plural) referring to a group of people. However, the original languages clearly distinguish these, so in order to indicate this to our readers the Literal Version uses you_all for the plural form (although we are aware that some modern dialects now prefer y'all or yous).

Because the Literal Version so closely follows the original languages, it's important to remember that words often don't match one-to-one between languages. This is one reason why the OET-LV reads strangely: because we try to avoid using different English words if we can; knowing that the OET-LV will not be natural English. Again, this is because we want the OET-LV to be a window into what's actually written in the original languages. For fluent English (like in the Readers' Version) the same Greek word might require several different translations when used in different contexts. For example, the Greek word translated raise in the OET-LV would likely require the following changes:

to raise from sitting, we'd want: stand up to raise from bed, we'd want: get up to raise from the grave, we'd want: come back to life to raise an object, we'd want: lift up to raise a person, we'd often want: exalt or praise

Alert readers might be aware that there's a play on words here in the gospels. When Yeshua talked about himself being raised up, it was deliberately ambiguous because his hearers didn't understand until right near the end that he was going to be executed. So we, looking back in history, know that he was talking about coming back to life, but at the time, they were just very confused and didn't understand what he meant. But amazingly, as well as referring to his resurrection, raising also refers to his crucifixion as the victims on the stakes were also raised up from the ground. (See John/Yohan 3:14.) Sadly, it's not usually possible to make a translation easy to read and understand in our current times, without losing some of the underlying meaning or ambiguities or word-plays that were presented to the original hearers. That's exactly why it's good to have two different translations right there side-by-side in front of you!

These particular pages use British spelling, but American spelling will also be available in the future.

Our preference in most editions is to place The Gospel according to John/Yohan before Matthew. This has a couple of advantages:

The Old Testament starts with "In the beginning, Elohim created..." and the New Testament starts with "In the beginning was the Messenger...".

Acts ends up right after the first book by its author Luke.

It just reminds readers that the order of the 'books' in the Bible is not set by sacred degree—only by tradition.

Some do complain that the traditional order of the first four gospel accounts represent the lion, the calf, the man, and the eagle of Rev 4:6-7 which allegedly match with the banners (not described in the Bible) of the four divisions of the tribes of Israel mentioned in Numbers 2.

Beware of some traps interpreting the Literal Version. Because it's not designed to be used alone (but rather alongside the Readers' Version), it's much more literal than most other 'literal versions'. You'll quickly notice lighter colours that mark the deemphasis of words that had to be added to make the English sentences even make sense. But there's at least two other things that aren't necessarily changed in the English Literal Version:

Other languages use the negative differently, especially when it's doubled or tripled in the sentence. If you don't understand this, you could easily think that the original means the opposite of what the words actually appear to say. For example the double negative: "You are_ not _caring_about no one." (adapted from Matthew 22:16). In natural, fluent English, we would have to reverse the second negative to get the expected meaning, ending up with anyone as you'll find in the Readers' Version. But in Greek, the second negative adds emphasis rather than reversing the first negative. So our Literal Version shows you the words that are actually there (in the Greek in this case).

Other languages may omit (or elide) words which are clearly implied to the original reader, but which the modern English reader finds strange, e.g., a son may be divided against his father, and a daughter her mother. The elided words are 'may be divided against' which should follow 'daughter'.

Note: always check the Readers' Version carefully for how it is translated into modern, idiomatic English before jumping to any conclusions of your own about what the original language or the Literal Version says or doesn't say (especially if you're not very familiar with the culture around the original language, and its idioms).

The account of Yeshua's ministry by

Yohan (John)

Introduction

Author

This account about the works and teachings of Yeshua (Jesus) was written by Yohan (John), brother of Ya'akov (mistakenly known in older English Bibles as James). Both of them were in the small group of twelve close followers of Yeshua that he selected as his apprentices and who accompanied him around as he taught. Out of the twelve, Yohan was the one that greatly loved Yeshua, and his closeness gave him much of the insight that he includes with his description of Yeshua's actions and teaching. The two brothers were the sons of Zavday, and all three of them worked as fishermen on Lake Galil.

This account

The Open English Translation places Yohan's account before the others because it begins with the eternal existence of Yeshua the messiah. Not only is Yeshua the godly messenger, he was also the creator who has now descended from heaven as a man. Omitting any mention of the baby Yeshua, Yohan does however tell us about Yohan-the-immerser who came before Yeshua to prepare the people for the arrival of the promised messiah.

In chapters two to twelve it's written how the various miracles that Yeshua did showed that he was the promised messiah who would offer life without ending to anyone who would accept that he had been sent by God and trust in his teaching. Although there were indeed many who did believe in him, many others were unable to come to that point and ended up opposing Yeshua at every turn.

In chapters thirteen to seventeen, Yeshua's compassion towards his followers is described. He also told them in advance of his impending brutal death.

In the final few chapters, we read about Yeshua's arrest and trial, then his being fastened to a pole and giving up his spirit, his coming back to life, and how his followers saw him and spoke with him again during that period.

Yohan is careful to explain how to receive life without ending by means of believing that Yeshua came down from heaven and obeying his teaching. Yeshua himself is the path and the truth and the life (14:6).

Readers' Version

The arrival of the true light

1:1 In the beginning was the message,[1][2] and the message was with God, and the message was and is God. 2 He, the message, was with God even at the creation of the universe. 3 Everything came into existence through the messenger[3]—there's not even one thing that came into existence that wasn't made by him.[4] 4 He holds life, and that life is the light of humankind. 5 And that light is shining in the darkness, and darkness cannot overcome him.

6 A man arrived who had been sent by God. His name was Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes).[5] 7 He came as a testimony to tell about the light so that everyone would believe the light. 8 Yohan himself wasn't the light—he was merely the announcer of the light. 9 The true light which enlightens every person was coming into the world.

10 He was in the world and he's the creator of the world, and yet the world didn't even know him. 11 He came to his own chosen people, but they wouldn't accept him, 12 however anyone who would accept him and trusted in his authority, he gave them the right to become children of God— 13 not physical children and not coming from human actions, but children of God.

14 And the message became a human and lived here among us and we saw his greatness[6]—the greatness of an only child of the father—full of grace and truth.

15 Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) explained about him and loudly told everyone, "He's the one I meant when I said, 'There's someone coming after me, yet who came before me, because he existed before I did!' "

16 Because he has so much, we all received grace and then even more grace. 17 The commands came to us through Mosheh (Moses), but grace and truth came to us through Yeshua (Jesus; Grk.

Yesus) the messiah. 18 No one has ever actually seen God, but the human son born from God the father and in close touch with him, he was the one to explain God to us.

The interrogation of Yohan-the-immerser[7]

19 Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) explained some of this when the Jewish leaders sent out priests and temple workers from Yerushalem (Jerusalem) to ask him, "Who are you?"

20 He didn't flinch from the truth and so he told them, "I am not the chosen messiah."

21 So they asked him again, "Are you Eliyah (Elijah) come back to life?"[8]

And he answered, "No, I'm not."

They asked, "Are you the prophet?"[9]

Again he answered, "No, I'm not."

22 So they asked him, "Who are you then? We need to give an answer to the ones who sent us. How do you describe yourself?"

23 So he said, "I am a voice shouting[10] in the wilderness smooth the path of Yahweh,[11] as the prophet Yeshayah (Isaiah) said."

24 Some of the ones sent out were members of the Farisaios party. 25 These ones asked Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), "So why are you immersing people then if you aren't the messiah or Eliyah (Elijah) or the prophet?"

26 He answered, "I'm immersing people in water, but somewhere here among us all there's someone you don't know— 27 the one coming after me, and I'm not even good enough to untie his sandal straps!"

28 All this happened in Beyt-Ania (Bethany) on the east side of the Yarden (Jordan) River where Yohan was immersing people.

Yeshua gets publicly revealed

29 The next day Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) saw Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) coming towards him, and said, "Hey! Here's the sacrificial lamb of God

who's come to take away the sin of the world.[12]
30 This is the man I was talking about when I said, 'There's someone coming after me, yet who came before me, because he existed before I did.' 31 I didn't know who he was but nevertheless I came and immersed people in water so that this man could be revealed to all Yisrael (Israel)."

32 And Yohan further explained, "I saw God's spirit come down and settle on him. 33 I didn't know which one was him, but the one who sent me to immerse people in water said, 'When you see the spirit coming down and settling on someone, he is the one who will immerse people with God's holy spirit.' 34 And I have seen that, and so I can assure you that he is God's son."

Yeshua gets a few followers

35 The next day, Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) was back there with two of his apprentices 36 and noticing Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) walking nearby he said, "Look! There's the sacrificial lamb of God."

37 When his two apprentices heard him say that, they left him and followed Yeshua. 38 But Yeshua turned and saw them following him, and asked them, "What do you two want?"

And they said to him, "Teacher, where do you live?"

39 "Come and see," Yeshua replied. So they went with him and saw where he lived, and then they stayed there that night, because it was already late afternoon.

40 Andreas, the brother of Shim'on (Simon) Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) was one of those two who heard Yohan and then followed Yeshua. 41 As soon as he found his brother, he said to Shim'on, "We have found the messiah—God's chosen one," 42 and led him to Yeshua. When Yeshua saw him, he said, "Ah, you are Shim'on, Yohan's son, but from now on you'll be called Kefa which means stone."

And Yeshua replied, "Actually I saw you under that fig tree before Filippos had even called you."

49 Netanel exclaimed, "Great teacher! You are God's son! You're the king of Yisrael (Israel)!"

50 Yeshua responded, "So you believe this because I said that I had seen you under the fig tree. The wine miracle

2:1 On the Tuesday,[14] there was a wedding in Kana in Galil, and Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') mother was there 2 and Yeshua and his apprentices were also invited. 3 When the wine ran out at the wedding, his mother said to him, "They haven't got any more wine."

4 Yeshua answered, "What does that have to do with us, mother? It's not the time for my ministry yet."

5 But his mother told the servants, "Just do whatever he tells you."

6 Now there were six empty stone water jars there that are used for Jewish purification ceremonies. (Each one could hold over 70 litres.) 7 So Yeshua told them to fill the jars with water, and they filled them up. 8 Then he said, "Okay, now take a sample out and give it to the MC." So they took some 9 and when the MC tasted the water that had now turned to wine, not knowing where it had come from he called the groom 10 and exclaimed, "Most people supply the best wine at the beginning of the reception, and the cheaper stuff when people are a bit tipsy. But you've kept the best wine until last!"

11 This event in Kana, Galil, was the first of the miracles that Yeshua did, and it revealed his greatness and his followers believed that he was from God.

12 After that, Yeshua and his mother and brothers and his followers travelled east to Kafarnaoum (Capernaum),[15] but they only stayed there a few days.

Yeshua disturbs the temple traders[16]

13 By then it was getting close to the time of the Jewish Festival of the Passover,[17] and Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went down to Yerushalem (Jerusalem). 14 There in the temple, he discovered merchants selling cows and sheep and doves, and money-changers sitting at their tables. 15 Yeshua formed some cords into a whip and drove the sheep and cows out of the temple grounds, and he overturned the tables—spilling the coins of the moneychangers onto the ground. 16 He scolded the ones selling doves, saying, "Get them out of here! Don't be making my father's house into a market." 17 That reminded his followers of the scripture: "I'll be filled with zeal for your temple."[18]

18 Then the Jewish leaders responded, "Do a miracle to show that you have the authority to do these things."

19 But Yeshua answered, "Well, destroy this temple and I'll raise[19] it again in three days."[20]

20 The leaders smirked, "This temple took forty-six years to build, and you reckon that you can raise it again in three days?"

Yeshua does miracles and knows thoughts

23 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was at the Passover Feast in Yerushalem (Jerusalem), many believed in his authority because they saw the miracles that he was able to do. 24 But Yeshua never fully entrusted himself to them, because he knew what people are like. 25 (He didn't need anyone to tell him what people are like because he could see what any person was like on the inside.)

Yeshua tells Nikodemos about the need to be reborn

3:1 After dark one evening, a Jewish leader named Nikodemos who was a member of the Farisaios party 2 went to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and said, "Teacher, we know that God has sent you as a teacher, because no one could do those kinds of miracles if God wasn't with him."

3 Yeshua responded, "I'll tell you frankly that no one can get to see God's kingdom unless he's reborn."

4 Nikodemos questioned, "How can an adult be reborn? A person can't just return into their mother's womb and then get born a second time!"

5 But Yeshua continued, "Honestly, I'm telling you: unless a person is born from both water and the spirit, they can't enter God's kingdom. 6 Someone that's born from a body is flesh and bone, but someone that's born from God's spirit is spiritual. 7 So you shouldn't be surprised that I told you that everyone needs to be reborn. 8 The wind blows wherever it wants, and you can hear its sound but you can't actually see where it's coming from or where it's going to. So too with everyone who's born from God's spirit."

9 Nikodemos replied, "How can all that even happen?"

10 "You're a Jewish teacher," Yeshua answered, "and yet you don't know all that? 11 It's true that we just teach what we know, and explain what we've seen ourselves, but you people aren't accepting our testimony. 12 If I tell all of you earthly things and you don't believe them, how will you ever believe if I explain heavenly things to you?

13 None of you have ever gone up into heaven, but I, the son of humanity, have come down from heaven.
14 "Just like Mosheh (Moses) lifted up that bronze snake on a pole in the wilderness,[21] it's also necessary for the son of humanity to be lifted up,[22] 15 so that everyone who believes in him won't die, but will live forever.[23] 16 Because[24] in that same way, God loves the people of the world enough to cause his only son to be born, and to give him to the world, so that everyone who believes that won't die, but will go on to live forever.
17 "God didn't send his son here to condemn people, but rather to save them. 18 Anyone who trusts in me won't be condemned. However, anyone who doesn't believe this has already been condemned because he rejected the authority of the only son that God fathered. 19 And this is the verdict: that light has come into the world, but some people love the darkness more than the light because they do evil things, 20 because everyone who does evil things hates the light and doesn't come to the light so that their actions won't be exposed. 21 But anyone who does what is right, comes toward the light so that their actions can be revealed as being done with God's help."

Yohan approves of Yeshua's popularity

22 After this, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and his followers went down to Yehudah (Judah), and stayed there and immersed some believers. 23 Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) was also immersing people at Ainon near Saleim because there was plenty of water there and people would come to him to get immersed. 24 (At this point in time, Yohan had not yet been put in prison.)[25] 25 Then a debate about

13 Yeshua responded, "Everyone who drinks this water will get thirsty again, 14 but anyone who drinks the water that I give them will find a well springing up inside them—springing into eternal life."
15 So the woman said, "Okay, then. Give me some of that water so that I won't get thirsty and won't have to keep coming out here to the well." 16 Yeshua said, "First, go and get your husband and then come back here."

said was true."

19 "Mister, I can see that you're a prophet," the woman reacted. 20 "Our ancestors worshipped on this mountain, but you Yehudim (Jews) claim that people should only worship there in Yerushalem (Jerusalem)."

21 Then Yeshua told her, "You need to believe that I was sent from God, woman, because a day is coming when everyone will be worshipping him neither on this mountain, nor in Yerushalem. 22 You people in Shomron (Samaria) don't even know who you worship, but we do, because people will be saved by means of us Yehudim. 23 But a time is coming, starting even now, when the true worshippers will be worshipping the father in spirit and truth, because those are the ones that he is wanting to worship him. 24 God is spirit, and the ones worshipping him must worship in spirit and total honesty."

25 The woman said, "I'm aware that the messiah is coming—God's chosen one. Whenever he appears, he'll teach us everything."

26 "I am the messiah," Yeshua responded. "Yes, he's speaking to you!"

27 After this, his followers arrived back, and they were astounded that he was speaking with a woman. However no one dared ask her, "What are you after?" Or to ask him, "Why are you talking with her?"

28 So the woman left her water jar there, and went back into the town where she told the people, 29 "Come and see a man who knew as much about me as I know myself! He must be the messiah!" 30 So they went out from the town to go and see Yeshua.

31 Meanwhile, Yeshua's followers encouraged him, "Teacher, here, eat."

32 But he said, "I've had food to eat that you don't know about."

33 This made his followers ask each other, "Did you see anyone bring him something to eat?"

34 "Obeying God who sent me is like food to me, and I plan to finish his work," Yeshua explained. 35 "Don't you all have a saying about needing to wait four months for a harvest? But I'm telling you that you all should open your eyes and look at the fields, because they're already lightening up as harvest time approaches. 36 The harvester gets paid with a harvest that will last forever so that the ones who plant and the ones who harvest can all celebrate. 37 There's truth in the statement that one person plants and a different person harvests. 38 I've sent you all out to harvest where you haven't worked before—others did the groundwork and you benefit from their work."

39 And many people of Shomron (Samaria) came out of that town and believed that Yeshua is God because the woman had told them that he knew everything about her. 40 So when they all came, they asked him to stay in their town and they stayed on there for a couple of days.

41 As a result of his teaching, many more believed 42 so then they told the woman, "We no longer believe just because of what you said, but now that we've heard him for ourselves, we can see that he really is the saviour of the world."

Yeshua heals the official's son

43 After his two days in Shomron (Samaria), Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) continued on up to Galil. 44 He himself had told them that no prophet gets honoured in his own home town.[31] 45 When he got to Galil, the people accepted him, having seen everything that he'd done at the feast in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) because they had also been down there.[32]

46 So he went again to Kana there in Galil where he had made the water into wine.[33] Now there was a royal official there, whose son in Kafarnaoum (Capernaum) was ill. 47 When the official heard that Yeshua was coming up from Yehudah (Judea) to Galil, he went and asked him if he would come and heal his son who was dying. 48 Yeshua said to him, "You people won't believe unless you see miracles and other marvels."

49 But the official begged him, "Sir, please come before my child dies."

50 "Go back there and see," Yeshua responded. "Your son will recover."

The man believed what Yeshua had told him, and so he started off. 51 On his way, his slaves met him and reported that the boy was alive and well.

52 So the official asked them what time it was that he got better, and they replied that the fever had subsided around 1pm. 53 The father knew that that was the time when Yeshua had told him that his son would recover, and as a result his whole household believed that Yeshua came from God.

54 This was the second miracle that Yeshua have done after leaving Yehudah (Judea) and going to Galil.

Yeshua heals a man at the pool

5:1 After all this, there was another Jewish feast, so Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went down to Yerushalem (Jerusalem). 2 In Yerushalem at the Sheep Gate, there's the Beyt-Tsayda pool that has five alcoves 3 and a large number of sick, blind, lame, and paralysed people lie there in them. 4 ◘ 5 One man had been there for thirty-eight years, 6 and when Yeshua noticed him and knew that he'd been there for so long, he asked, "Do you want to get better?"

7 "Yes mister," the sick man answered, "but when the water starts moving, I don't have a companion to lift me into the pool, so someone else always get there before me."

8 Then Yeshua said, "Stand up and pick up your bedroll and start walking." 9 The man immediately stood up, picked up his gear, and started to walk.

However, this was the weekly rest day. 10 So the religious leaders said to the man, "Hey! It's against the law for you to carry your bedding on the rest day!"[34]

11 But the man answered, "The man who made me better told me to pick up my bedroll and start walking."

12 "Oh. Who was it that told you to take that stuff and start walking?"

13 But the man who had been healed didn't even know who it was, because Yeshua had quickly left when a crowd had formed.

14 Later on, Yeshua found the man in the temple and told him, "Look, you're better now so don't go on sinning, because you don't want anything worse to happen to you."

15 The man then went and told the leaders that it was Yeshua who had made him better. 16 As a result, the leaders started harassing Yeshua because he had done this on a rest day. 17 But Yeshua just replied, "My father is working today, and so I'm also working."

18 Because of this, the leaders became determined that he must be put to death—not just because he broke the rules for the rest day, but most of all because he was calling God his own father, thus making himself equal to God!

Authority over life is given to the son

19 So Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) responded to them, "I want to tell you all something: The son can't initiate anything by himself. He can only do what he sees his father doing, because whatever his father is doing, he also does things like that. 20 You see, the father loves his son and shows him everything that he's doing. In fact, he'll be showing him even greater things than what he's done already, so that you all will be amazed. 21 Because the father brings the dead back to life, giving them new life, so too the son can give life to anyone who he wants. 22 The father won't be judging anyone, but has already given that task to the son, 23 so that the people might honour the son like they honour the father. But anyone who is not honouring the son, is also dishonouring the father who sent him.

24 "I assure you that anyone who hears my message and believes that I was sent by God, will live forever and will not be condemned, but has moved from death into life. 25 I can also assure you that a time is coming, and in fact is here already, when the dead will be hearing the voice of God's son and that voice will bring them back to life. 26 As the father is the source of life, he gave the power of giving life to the son 27 and gave him the authority to be the final judge, because he is the son of humanity. 28 Don't be surprised at this, because a time is coming when everyone in their graves will be hearing his voice, 29 and the ones having done what is good will be given new life, and the ones having done what is evil will be con-

30 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) continued explaining to the religious leaders, "I don't do anything in isolation. Whenever I hear from him, only then do I judge and my judgement is correct and impartial because I'm not imposing my desires, but the desire of the one who sent me.

31 "If I just testified about myself, my testimony would not be correct or even valid. 32 However it's another one that's testifying about me, and I know that his testimony about me is true. 33 You sent people out to question Yohan (John; Grk. No, the one who'll accuse you is Mosheh (Moses) because he's the one that you're hoping to please. 46 The trouble is that if you actually believed what Mosheh wrote, you would believe me, because Mosheh was writing about me. 47 But since you don't really believe his writings, you're not at all likely to believe me."

Feeding 5,000 families[38]

6:1 After all this, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) crossed the lake in a boat.[39] 2 A large crowd followed him because they'd seen his miraculous healings of sick people. 3 Yeshua climbed a hill and sat there with his apprentices. 4 At that time, it was getting close to the Jewish Festival of Passover. 5 When Yeshua looked out and saw the large crowd coming, he asked Filippos (Philip), "Where can we get enough food from to feed all this crowd?" 6 But he was only saying this to test Filippos because he already knew what he was going to do.

7 Filippos answered, "To buy even just a snack for this many people would take several months' wages!"

8 Now one of Yeshua's apprentices, Shim'on (Simon) Kefa's (Peter's; Grk. Petros') brother, Andreas, said to Yeshua, 9 "There's a young boy here with five buns and two small cooked fish, but that wouldn't even start to feed this crowd."

10 But Yeshua told them to get all the people to sit down as there was a large grassy area. So they all sat down—some five thousand men were counted. 11 Then he took the buns and gave thanks to God, and started passing around both the buns and the fish, and everyone ate as much as they wanted. 12 Once everyone was full, Yeshua got his apprentices to collect the leftover fragments so as not to waste anything. 13 So they gathered the leftovers and filled twelve baskets with leftover bread.

14 The people who had witnessed this and other miracles said, "This really is the prophet that God promised to send!" 15 But Yeshua knew that they

Yeshua comes walking across the lake[40]

16 As it moved into evening, Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') apprentices went back down to the lake 17 and having boarded the boat, they set out across the lake toward Kafarnaoum (Capernaum). By then it was dark, and there was still no sign of Yeshua. 18 Then a strong wind hit the lake and the water got rough. 19 When they had rowed about five kilometres, they saw Yeshua walking on top of the lake and approaching the boat, and they were very scared. 20 But he told them, "Don't worry—it's me." 21 After that they were willing to let him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at their arrival place.

22 The next day, the crowd looked across the lake and saw that only one small boat had crossed, and they knew that only Yeshua's apprentices had boarded that boat and left, and not Yeshua himself. 23 Other boats came across from Tiberias near the place where they had eaten the bread after the master had given thanks. 24 So when all the people saw that Yeshua wasn't around and his apprentices had left, they went off looking for Yeshua in Kafarnaoum.

The bread that enables true life

25 When they found him there across the lake, they queried, "Teacher, how did you get here?"

26 "Honestly, I know that you're not looking for me because you saw God working miracles," Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) answered, "but because you all had plenty of food to fill you up. 27 Don't just work for the food which goes off, but for the food which lasts forever—the food which the son of humanity will give to you because God the father has put his mark of approval on him."

28 Puzzled, they asked him, "What should we be doing if we want to work for God?"
29 He answered, "Doing God's work is putting your trust in the one that he sent here."
30 "If so," they said, "what miracle will you do for us to see so that we can believe that you came from God? What can you do? 31 Our ancestors ate the manna[41] out in the wilderness, just like Mosheh (Moses) wrote, 'He gave them bread from the sky to eat.' "[42]
32 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) said to them, "Actually I can tell you that it wasn't Mosheh who gave them bread from heaven, but my father gives you the real bread from heaven, 33 because God's bread is the one who came down from heaven and who gives life to the world."
34 So they requested, "Mister, keep giving us that bread."
35 "I am the bread that gives life," Yeshua answered, "anyone who comes to me will never hunger, and the one believing in me, will never be thirsty again. 36 But as I said already, although you have seen me you refuse to believe me. 37 Everyone that the father gives to me will come to me, and I certainly won't turn away anyone who comes to me, 38 because I came down from heaven, not to do what I want, but to do what the one who sent me wants. 39 And what he wants is for me to not lose anyone that he's given to me, but to bring them back to life on the last day. 40 My father wants everyone who watches me and believes in me to live forever, because I will bring them back to life on that final day."
41 This little speech made the religious leaders grumble about him because he had said that he was the food that came down from heaven, 42 as they figured out, "This is Yeshua the son of Yosef (Joseph) and so we know his parents. So how can he say that he came down from heaven?"
43 Yeshua scolded them, "Don't be grumbling to each other. 44 No one can join me unless the father who sent me attracts them, and then I'll be bring-

52 At this point, the religious leaders began to argue with each other, "How could this man give us his flesh to eat?"

53 So Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) explained, "Indeed if you don't eat my flesh and drink my blood, you aren't truly alive! 54 Anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood will gain eternal life—I will bring them back to life on that final day, 55 because my flesh is the true food, and my blood is the true drink. 56 Anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me, and I will live in him. 57 The father is alive and sent me here, and I am alive because of Him, so also the person who eats me will be alive because of me. 58 Unlike your ancestors who ate that bread from the sky and then died, anyone who eats this bread that came down from heaven will live through to the next age."

Many people find the teaching too difficult

59 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) taught all of this in the Jewish meeting hall (Grk. synagogue) there in Kafarnaoum (Capernaum). 60 But even many of his followers who heard it said, "That's a difficult teaching—it's too hard to take."

61 But Yeshua already knew inside that his followers were grumbling about that and asked them, "Do you find that offensive? 62 What if you were to see the son of humanity ascending to where he came from? 63 It's the spirit that is the source of life, not the body. The concepts that I've taught you are all spiritual and life-giving. 64 But there are some here who don't believe me." Actually, Yeshua had already known from the beginning just who would believe and which person would betray him 65 so he said, "That's why I told you that no one can come to me unless the father has given them to me."

66 After this, many of his followers went back and no longer accompanied him around.

67 So Yeshua said to his twelve apprentices, "Don't you want to leave as well?"

68 "Master," Shim'on (Simon) answered, "if we went, who would we follow then? You're the only one who teaches about living forever. 69 We believe and know that you are the holy son of God."[44]

70 Yeshua responded, "Didn't I choose all twelve of you myself? And yet one of you is the devil."[45] 71 (He was talking about Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas), Shim'on Iskariot's son, because he was the one who would go on to betray him.)

Yeshua's sceptical brothers dare him to go public

7:1 After all this, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) travelled around Galil. (He didn't want to travel around Yehudah (Judea) because the leaders there wanted to execute him.) 2 As it was now getting close to the Jewish Feast With Tents,[46] 3 his brothers said to him, "You should leave this place and go down to Yehudah so that all your followers can see the miracles that you're doing. 4 If you want to become well-known, you don't do things out of the main stream. If you want to do miracles, go and show yourself to the wider world. 5 (You see, not even Yeshua's own half-brothers believed that he came from God.)

I'm not going to the feast yet because it's not yet the right time for me." 9 After saying this, Yeshua stayed up in Galil.

Yeshua starts teaching about authentic justice

10 But after his half-brothers had left to go down to Yerushalem (Jerusalem), Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) also went—not in the public limelight but just incognito so to speak. 11 However at the celebrations, the Jewish religious leaders were searching for him, and were asking around where he was.

12 Even among the crowds there was a lot of quiet banter with some saying that Yeshua is a good man and others complaining that he was misleading the people. 13 Either way, no one was speaking out in public about him, because they were afraid of the reaction of the religious leaders.

14 Finally sometime in the middle of the celebrations, Yeshua went into the temple and started teaching in there. 15 Even the Jewish leaders were surprised, asking, "How can this man know so much when he hasn't been trained as a teacher?"

16 Yeshua himself responded, "My teaching doesn't come from me, but from the one who sent me. 17 If anyone wants to do God's will, they'll soon figure out whether my teaching comes from God or if I'm just making it up myself. 18 Any person who just teaches their own thoughts is just seeking their own advancement, but anyone who wants to promote the one who sent them, this is authentic and there's no hidden self-interest. 19 Didn't Mosheh (Moses) write down God's commands for you, yet not a single one of you obeys them. Why are you wanting to execute me?"

20 "You must be demon-possessed," said some in the crowd, "Who would be wanting to execute you."

21 Yeshua responded, "I did one miracle and you were all amazed. 22 Mosheh gave you the command about circumcision[47] (even though it actu-

Could Yeshua be the messiah?

25 After this, some of the locals from Yerushalem (Jerusalem) started asking, "Isn't this the man they were wanting to execute? 26 Well, here he is teaching in public, yet they're not even confronting him. Perhaps the leaders know that he really is the messiah? 27 But we even know where this man is from. Surely when the messiah comes, no one would know his family background."

28 So as Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) continued teaching, he called out, "Indeed you all know me and my home and my family. But I didn't come here of my own accord, but the one who sent me here is truthful, even though you don't even know him. 29 I know him, because I came from him, indeed, he was the one who sent me here."

30 So now they really want to arrest him, but no one touched him because it was not yet the proper time. 31 Many in the crowd did believe that he was from God and they were saying, "When the messiah comes, would he be doing greater miracles than what we've seen this man do?"

Yeshua discusses leaving as they aim to arrest him

32 The Farisaios party heard the crowd muttering about these things and sent out some of their servants along with the chief priests to go and arrest Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus). 33 So Yeshua said, "I'll only be with you all for a short while longer and then I'll be going to the one who sent me. 34 You'll look for me but won't be able to find me, and you can't go where I'll be going."

35 The leaders wondered, "Where could he be going that we wouldn't be able to find him? Will

Yeshua offers living water to the crowd

37 On the final climax day of the celebrations,[50] Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) stood there and shouted, "Anyone who's thirsty, come here to me and drink.[51] 38 Anyone who trusts me will have rivers of living water flowing out from him just like the scriptures say."[52] 39 He was talking about God's spirit that the ones who trust him would receive in the future—not yet because Yeshua hadn't been lifted up to heaven yet.

The people are divided about Yeshua

40 When some in the crowd heard his teaching, they said, "He really is the coming prophet." 41 Others said, "He must be the messiah."

But some pointed out, "The messiah won't come from Galil. 42 Don't the scriptures say that he'll be a descendant of King David and that he'll come from David's town of Beyt-Lehem (Bethlehem)?"[53] 43 And so the crowd was divided about Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus). 44 Some of the Farisaios' servants wanted to arrest him, but decided to leave him alone for now.

The leaders distrust Yeshua and mock his followers

45 So when the servants returned back to the chief priests and the Farisaios, they were asked, "Why haven't you brought him?"

46 They answered, "We've never heard anyone speak like he does."

47 "Don't tell us that you've also been taken in by him?" the Farisaios asked them. 48 "None of our leaders or any of us Farisaios believe that he's from God. 49 But all these people ignorant of the scriptures are bewitched."

12 Because of this, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) told them, "I am the light for the world[57]—anyone who follows me won't walk in the darkness but will have the light that gives life."

The two witnesses of Yeshua's authenticity

13 Some from the Farisaios party argued, "You are testifying about yourself, so that testimony is invalid."[58]
14 Yeshua responded, "Even when I am testifying about myself, my testimony is valid, because I know where I came from and where I'm going. 15 You all are judging according to your earthly values. I'm not judging anyone. 16 But even if I was judging, my judgement would be correct, because it wouldn't just be me judging, but also the father who sent me. 17 It's even written in your own laws that the testimony of two men is valid.[59] 18 So that's me testifying about myself, plus the father who sent me also testifies about me."
19 "And where is your father?" they asked.
Yeshua answered them, "You don't know either me or my father. If you did know me, then you'd also know my father."
20 He explained all this while he was teaching in the treasury part of the temple, but no one arrested him because the time for his suffering had not yet arrived.

You can't go where I'm going

22 This puzzled the Jewish teachers, "Surely he's not going to commit suicide! What else could he mean about 'you can't go where I'm going to be going'?"

23 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) explained, "All of you are from the world below, but I'm from the world above. You all are part of this world, but I'm not part of it. 24 That's why I said that you'll be dying in your sins, because if you refuse to believe that I am God, you will indeed all be dying in your sins."

25 "So who are you?" they asked.

And he answered, "Still just the same as I've been telling you from the beginning. 26 I have a lot that I need to tell you all and to judge many of your actions, because the one who sent me is true, and it's what I hear from him that I speak to all people."

27 (They didn't realise that he was talking to them about the father in heaven.) 28 So Yeshua told them, "When you all lift up[60] the son of humanity on a pole, then you will know that I am God, and that I don't do anything by myself, but I say all this just as the father told me to. 29 And the one who sent me is with me—he didn't just leave me alone—because I am continually doing what pleases him."

30 After he'd said all this, many people believed in him.

Yeshua spars with the Jewish religious leaders

37 "Yes, I know that you're all descendants of Avraham, but you're trying to kill me because my message doesn't lodge in you. 38 Indeed I talk about what I've actually seen with the father, but you all are doing what you've heard from your father."

39 But they retorted, "Avraham is our father."[62]

And Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) responded, "Well, if you really were descendants of Avraham, you'd behave more like him. 40 But instead you're trying to find a way to have me killed—to kill the man who has spoken the truth to you—truth that I heard from God. Avraham never did that. 41 You're doing what your father wants you all do to."

But they shot back, "It's not us who was conceived by a couple that weren't even married! Anyway, we only have one father and that's God."

42 "If God was your father you all would be loving me," Yeshua responded, "because I came from God and for God. I didn't just come by myself, but God sent me here. 43 Why can't you comprehend what I'm saying? The reason that you can't stand listening to my message 44 is because you come from your father, the devil, and you want to do what your father wants. But he was a murderer from the beginning, and doesn't stick to the truth because there's no truth in him. Yeshua preceded, and is greater than, Avraham

48 The Jewish leaders asked, "Aren't we right in saying that you're from Shomron (Samaria) and that you have a demon?"

49 "No, I don't have a demon," Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) answered, "but I honour my father and you're dishonouring me. 50 But I'm not searching greatness for myself—my father is the one searching and the one judging. 51 I can assure you, that anyone who puts my teaching into practice can be certain to avoid death in this age."

52 "Now we know that you have a demon!" the Yehudim (Jews) said. "Avraham and the prophets all died, but you're saying that those who follow your teaching can be certain to avoid death in this age. 53 How could you be greater than our ancestor Avraham who died? Even the prophets died. Who do you think you are?"

54 Again Yeshua answered, "If I praise myself, my praise is worthless, but it's my father who praises me—the one who you say is your God 55 although in fact you don't even know him. But I have known him, and so I can't say that I haven't known him or I'd be a liar like all of you. But I have known him and I am putting his desires into practice. 56 Your ancestor Avraham would have been excited to see me here—in fact he did see ahead and was very happy about it."

57 Because of that, the Jewish leaders asked, "You aren't even fifty years old yet. How could you have seen Avraham?"[63]

58 Yeshua answered, "I can assure you that I am[64] before Avraham ever existed."

59 When they heard that, they picked up rocks to throw at Yeshua to kill him. But Yeshua became hidden from their sight, and went on out of the temple.

6 After he'd said this, Yeshua spat on the ground and after mixing some clay into a slurry, he spread it on the eyes of the man 7 and told him to go and wash in the Siloam Pool.[67]

8 Then the neighbours of the man and others who had seen him earlier, knowing that he was a beggar asked, "Isn't he the one who always sat and begged here?"

9 And indeed, some were saying, "Yes, this is him." But others were saying, "No, but he looks quite similar."

And the man said, "I am him."

10 So they asked him, "Well, how come that now you can see?"

11 "A man named Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) made a slurry," he said, "and spread it on my eyes and told me to go and wash at Siloam Pool. So I went and did it, and when I washed my eyes, I could see."

The Farisaios can't accept the healing of the blind man

13 Then they brought the man who had been blind to the Farisaios. 14 Now, it had been the Rest Day when Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. And he answered, "Well, he put a slurry on my eyes and when I washed them, I could see."

16 "Well clearly that man is not from God," some of them said, "because he doesn't respect the Rest Day."

However others said, "But if he's just a sinner, how could he do miracles like that?"

17 So they asked the man who had been blind,
"Well, what do you have to say because it was your eyes that he opened?"

"He must be a prophet," the man said.

18 But some of the Yehudim (Jews) weren't even sure that he really had been blind before and could now see, so they called for his parents 19 and asked them, "You two say that this is your son and that he was born blind. If so, how come that now he can see?"

20 His parents answered, "We know that he's our son, and we know that he was born blind. 21 But as for how come he can now see, we don't know that.
Nor do we know who healed his eyes. But ask him—he's old enough to speak for himself." 22 (His parents said these things because they were afraid of the Jewish religious leaders, because the leaders had already announced that anyone who said that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was the messiah would get banned from all religious ceremonies, 23 so that's why they had said, "He's old enough—just ask him.")

24 So the leaders summoned the man born blind a second time and commanded him, "Only praise God himself for this, because we know that that man is a sinner."

25 "Well, I don't know whether or not he's a sinner," replied the man. "All I know is that I used to be blind but now I can see."

26 "What did he do to you?" they asked again.
"How did he open your eyes?"

27 And he answered, "I already told you that, and you didn't even listen. Why do you want to hear it all over again? Do you guys all want to become his followers as well?"

28 Then they insulted him and said, "You might be a follower of that man, but we are followers of Mosheh (Moses). 29 We know that God spoke to Mosheh, but we don't even know where this other fellow is from."

30 "Wow, that's pretty amazing," the man responded. "That man opened up my eyes, and you teachers don't even know where he's from! 31 We know that God doesn't listen to sinners, but he listens to those who worship him and do what he wants. 32 In all the centuries past we never heard that a person could give sight to someone who was born blind. 33 If this man isn't from God, surely he wouldn't be able to do that!"

34 They reacted, "You're just an ignorant sinner, and you think you can teach us!" Then they had him thrown out of the room.

Spiritual blindness and hypocrisy

35 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) heard that they had thrown out the man who could now see, and when he found him, he said, "Do you believe that the son of humanity came from God?"

36 And the man answered, "Mister, who is he so that I can believe in him?"

37 "You've seen him and heard him and he's speaking to you right now," said Yeshua.

38 "I do believe, master," the man responded. Then he knelt down in front of Yeshua.

39 Yeshua said, "I came into this world to dispense judgement, so that the people who can't see will be able to see, and so that the ones who can see will become blind."

40 The Farisaios with him heard that and asked, "Are you saying that we're blind?"

41 "If you were blind," Yeshua replied, "you wouldn't be sinning, but since you all declare that you can see, then your sin remains.

The sheep know their true carer

10:1 "Honestly I can tell you: It's not the person that enters the sheep enclosure by the gate that is a thief and robber, but rather the one who climbs in a different way. 2 The one that comes in the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. 3 The gatekeeper opens up for him, and when he calls the sheep by name they listen to his voice and he leads them out. 4 Whenever he moves the sheep, he goes in front and the sheep follow him because they recognise his voice. 5 They would never follow a stranger because they wouldn't know his voice, in fact they'd run away from him."

Yeshua is the good shepherd

7 So Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) continued, "Honestly I will tell you that I am the entrance for the sheep. 8 The ones who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep didn't listen to them. 9 I am the entrance. Anyone who comes in via me will be saved, and will be able to go in and out and find pasture. 10 The thief only comes to steal and kill and destroy, but I came so that they could live, and live a full life.

11 "I am the good shepherd[69]—the good shepherd gives his own life for the sheep.[70] 12 The paid worker is not even the shepherd, because the sheep aren't his own and if he sees a wolf coming he just abandons the sheep and takes off and the wolf scatters the sheep and snatches some— 13 that's because he's just a worker and doesn't really care about the sheep. 14 I am the good shepherd and I know my sheep and they know me, 15 just like the father knows me and I know the father[71]—in fact I will give my life for the sheep. 16 I also have other sheep which are not in this field and it's appropriate for me to bring those other sheep also, then they'll be hearing my voice because there'll be just one flock with one shepherd.[72]

17 The father loves me because I am laying down my life so that I can take it back again. 18 No one is taking it from me, but I'm laying it down myself. I have authority to lay it down, and also authority to take it back again because I received this command from my father."

19 The Jewish religious leaders were again divided about Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') teaching 20 with many of them saying, "He's got a demon," and, "He's stark raving mad—why are you all even listening to him!"

21 But others were saying, "He doesn't sound like he's demon-possessed. And how could a demon make a blind man see?"

The Jewish leaders won't accept Yeshua's teaching

22 By then it was winter and the time for the Jewish Festival of Dedication in Yerushalem (Jerusalem). 23 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was walking in the temple in an area known as Shelomoh's Porch 24 when he was surrounded by the Jewish religious leaders and interrogated, "How long do you plan to keep us in suspense for? If you are the messiah, just tell us clearly."

25 "I already told you all," Yeshua answered, "but you didn't believe me. The miracles that I do with the authority of my father testify about me, 26 but you don't accept what the miracles point to because you aren't part of my flock. 27 My sheep listen to my voice, and I know them and they follow after me. 28 I give them life which will never end so they won't ever be destroyed, and no one will be able to snatch them away from me. 29 My father is the one who gave them to me, and he's more powerful than any other, so no one can snatch them away from him. 30 The father and I are one."

31 Again the Jewish leaders picked up rocks to throw at him to kill him 32 but Yeshua asked them, "I showed you all many miracles from my father. Which miracle do you want to kill me for?"

33 They answered, "It's not for any good deed that we think you deserve to die, but because you, a human, dishonour God by claiming to be him."[73]

34 Yeshua answered, "Isn't it written in your scriptures that God said, 'You all are gods'?[74] 35 Now the scriptures can't be wrong, and if the ones who heard teaching from God were called gods, 36 why are you telling the one that the father blessed and sent out into the world that I am insulting God because I said that I'm God's son? 37 If I'm not doing my father's work, then you don't need to believe that he sent me, 38 but if I am doing his work, even if you don't believe that he sent me, at least believe in what I do so that you all can know that the father is in me and I'm in the father."

39 That was enough that they tried yet again to arrest him, but he was able to get out and away from their influence.

40 Then Yeshua crossed the Yarden (Jordan) river to the place where Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) had immersed the people,[75] and he stayed there. 41 Many people visited him there, and they were saying that even though Yohan had never done even one miracle, on the other hand everything that he had said about Yeshua was true, 42 and many people there believed that Yeshua was from God.

Yeshua is aware of Eleazar' death from afar

11:1 Now there was a man called Eleazar (Lazarus; Grk. Lazaros) who lived in the village of Beyt-Ania (Bethany) along with his sisters Marta and Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam).[76] 2 (Miryam was the one who later poured fragrant oil over Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and wiped his feet with her hair.)[77] But now their brother was seriously ill 3 and so the two sisters sent a message to Yeshua saying, "Master, this man that you love is seriously ill."

4 However, when Yeshua got the message he said to those around him, "This sickness won't end in death but in honour for God, so that his son will also be honoured because of it."

5 Now it was true that Yeshua loved the three of them. 6 Yet when he heard that Eleazar was sick, he stayed in the place where he was for two more days 7 before he said to his followers, "It's time to head down to Yehudah (Judea) again."

8 But they double-checked, "Honoured teacher, the Yehudim (Jews) wanted to execute you, so do you really want to go back there again?"

9 And Yeshua answered, "There are twelve hours of light in the day. Anyone who walks during the daytime doesn't stumble because he is seeing the light that shines in this world. 10 But anyone who walks at night will stumble, because the light is not in them." 11 And he continued, "Our friend Eleazar has fallen asleep, but I'm going so that I can wake him up."

12 But his followers objected, "Master, it's good if he's sleeping because it helps with healing."
13 But Yeshua had spoken about Eleazar' death—not just normal sleep as they had thought.
14 So Yeshua told them plainly, "Eleazar is dead
15 and I'm glad that I wasn't there, because you all will benefit as your faith grows. Anyway, let's get moving."
16 Toma (Thomas) (nicknamed 'Twin') grumbled to the others, "Yeah, we might as well go so that we can get killed as well."

Yeshua is the resurrection and the life

17 So when they eventually arrived, Eleazar (Lazarus; Grk. Lazaros) body had already been in the burial chamber for four days. 18 The village of Beyt-Ania (Bethany) was less than three kilometres from Yerushalem (Jerusalem), 19 so many of the Yehudim (Jews) from there had come out to console Marta and Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) after the death of their brother.
20 As soon as Marta heard that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had arrived, she went out to meet him, but Miryam stayed behind where she was sitting in the house. 21 Marta cried, "Yeshua, master. If you'd been here, my brother wouldn't have died, 22 because I already know that anything that you ask from God, he will give it to you."
23 Yeshua responded, "Your brother will come back to life."
24 "Yes, I know that he'll come back to life at the resurrection on the last day," said Marta.
25 But Yeshua continued, "I am the resurrection and the life. Anyone who believes that I'm from God, even if they die they'll still be living, 26 and everyone who's alive and believes that I was sent from God, will not die in the next age."
27 Marta replied, "Yes, master, I do believe that you're the messiah, God's son, the one sent into this world."

Yeshua weeps with his close friends

28 After saying this, Marta went and quietly called her sister Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam), "The teacher is on his way and he wants to see you." 29 So Miryam quickly got up and went to find him. 30 At that stage, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) hadn't yet come into the village proper, but was still at the edge where Marta had met him. 31 The Yehudi (Jew) people who'd been sitting with Miryam in sympathy there in the house, when they saw her get up quickly and go out, they assumed that she was going to the cemetery to weep there.

32 But when Miryam found Yeshua, she knelt at his feet and said, "Master, if you'd been here my brother wouldn't have died."

33 Now when Yeshua saw her weeping there, along with the others that had followed also weeping, he himself was quite affected and groaned inside, 34 but he just asked, "Where has he been laid?"

"Master, come and see," they replied.

35 Then Yeshua broke down and burst into tears, 36 which made the others comment, "See how much he cared about him."

37 But some of them mocked, "This is the man who could make a blind man see again, yet how come he wasn't able to stop this man from dying!"

Yeshua calls Eleazar back to life

38 So Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) who was still holding back sobs, went to the cemetery. Eleazar' (Lazarus'; Grk. Lazaros') body had been placed in a cave with a stone blocking it, 39 and Yeshua instructed them to take away the stone.

Marta (the sister of the dead man) spoke up, "Master, the stink will be bad because it's already been four days."

40 But Yeshua responded, "Didn't I tell you that if you would believe, then you would see God's power?" 41 So they took the stone away and Yeshua looked upwards and said, "Father, I thank you that you listen to me. 42 Actually I know that you always hear me, but I said that for the sake of these people so that they will believe that it was you who sent me here." 43 After saying that, he shouted, "Eleazar, come out!" 44 Then the man who had died slowly shuffled out—still with linen strips wrapped around his hands and his feet, and a cloth wrapped around his face.

The leaders create a plan to execute Yeshua[78]

45 Because of that, many of the Yehudim (Jews) believed that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was from God after having followed Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) and seeing what Yeshua did. 46 But others went and told the Farisaios party what Yeshua had done. 47 So the chief priests and the Farisaios party called a formal meeting and asked, "What should we do because this man is doing many miracles. 48 If we allow him to continue like this, all the crowds will be believing he's the messiah, and then the Romaios will come and destroy both our temple and our governance."

49 But one of them, Kayafa (Caiaphas; Grk. Kaiafas) who was chief priest that year, spoke up, "You don't know anything. 50 Don't you all realise that it's better for all of us if one man dies so that the people and the nation won't be destroyed?" 51 (He didn't say this from his own thinking, but being chief priest that year, he was announcing God's message that Yeshua was going to die for the nation, 52 and not only for this nation, but for all of God's children scattered around the world to become united.)

53 As a result, from that day on they decided that Yeshua needed to be executed. 54 Because of that, Yeshua no longer walked around Yehudah (Judah) in public, but went out to the town of Efrayim (Ephraim) out in the wilderness and stayed there with his followers.

55 At that time, the Jewish Passover celebrations were approaching, and many people from the regions went to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) ahead of the celebrations to purify themselves. 56 They were looking out for Yeshua and as they stood around in the temple, they asked each other, "What do you think? Surely he won't come to the celebrations." 57 The chief priests and the Farisaios party had already announced that if anyone knew where Yeshua was, they must inform them so that they could arrest him.

Miryam sacrifices expensive fragrant oil[79]

12:1 Because of this, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went to Beyt-Ania (Bethany) six days before the Passover. This was where Eleazar (Lazarus; Grk. Lazaros) lived, the one he had brought back to life. 2 So they prepared dinner for him there and Marta was serving and Eleazar was among those sitting with Yeshua.
3 Then Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) took about 300g of very expensive nard oil and smeared it on Yeshua's feet, and then wiped off his feet with her own hair,[80] and the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil. 4 But Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas), one of Yeshua's apprentices (the one who would eventually turn him in) complained, 5 "How come this lotion wasn't sold for almost a year's wages and then the money given to the poor?"
6 But he didn't say this because he cared for poor people, but because he carried the purse for the group and used to steal from it.
7 But Yeshua responded, "Let her continue. She has kept this for the time of my burial. 8 You'll always have poor people with you,[81] but you won't always have me here."

The leaders also plan to kill Eleazar

9 When it was discovered that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was there in Beyt-Ania (Bethany), many Yehudim (Jews) started arriving, not only because of Yeshua, but also to see Eleazar (Lazarus; Grk. Lazaros) who'd been dead and Yeshua had brought him back to life. 10 But the chief priests decided in a meeting that they should also have Eleazar killed, 11 because many people were ignoring them and instead were believing that Yeshua came from God.

as they went to meet him. They called out, "Honoured saviour! The one coming in Yahweh's authority has been blessed by God.[83] This is Yisrael's (Israel's) king."

14 Now Yeshua had found a young donkey and rode it into the city just like it was written in the scriptures,

15 "Don't be worried you children of Tsiyon (Zion). Your king is coming mounted on a donkey's foal."[84]

16 (Yeshua's apprentices didn't realise all these things at the time, but it was later after Yeshua was lifted up to heaven that they were reminded that these things had been written about him, and that they had indeed happened to him.)

17 People in the crowd were telling each other about how they'd been with Yeshua when he'd called Eleazar (Lazarus; Grk. Lazaros) out from the burial chamber and brought him back to life, 18 So because of this, others also wanted to met Yeshua because they'd heard that he'd done that miracle. 19 So the Farisaios discussed this together, "We're getting nowhere with this. Look, it seems like the whole world wants to follow him."

Some Hellains want to meet Yeshua

20 And some Hellain (Greek) people were also going to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) to worship God at the celebrations 21 and they approached Filippos (Philip) from Beyt-Tsayda (up in Galil) and asked him, "Mister, we'd like to meet this Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus)." 22 So Filippos went and told Andreas, and the two of them went and told Yeshua.

27 Now, I'm very troubled. What else could I say other than, 'Father, let me avoid what's coming'? But it was exactly this that I came for. 28 Father, may your authority be honoured."

And a voice from the sky answered, "I've already brought honour to it and will do so again."

29 This caused some in the crowd standing there to say that they'd heard thunder while others said that a messenger must have spoken to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus).

30 "That voice wasn't for my sake," Yeshua responded, "but for all of you. 31 This world is about to be judged and its ruler will be thrown out, 32 and when I'm lifted up[86] from the earth, I will attract everyone towards me." 33 By saying this, he was indicating how he was going to die.

34 So the crowd queried him, "We heard from the scriptures that the messiah will stay until the end of the age[87] so why do you say that the son of humanity will be lifted up? And who is this 'the son of humanity'?"

35 Yeshua answered them, "The light will be among you all for just a little bit longer, so get walking while you have the light so that you won't have to deal with darkness. Anyone walking in the dark doesn't know where they're going. 36 While you still have the light, believe in the light so that you will become children of light."

Yeshua said these things and then after leaving them, he was hidden from them.

Many people refuse to stand for Yeshua

37 Even though Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had done so many miracles in front of the people, they didn't believe that he was the messiah. 38 This fulfilled what the prophet Yeshayah (Isaiah) wrote,

"Yahweh, who believed our report?
And who was Yahweh's power revealed to?"[88]

39 Because of this, they weren't able to believe, and again as Yeshayah wrote,

41 Yeshayah wrote this because he saw the messiah's greatness[90] and spoke concerning him.
42 Likewise, many of the Jewish leaders believed that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was the messiah, but they didn't tell others because they didn't want the Farisaios party to banish them from their services 43 as they valued the praise of people more than praise from God.

It's Yeshua's teachings that will judge the hearers

44 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) called out, "Anyone who believes that I came from God is not just believing in me, but also believing in the one who sent me, 45 and anyone who watches me working, is watching the one who sent me. 46 I came into this world as light so that anyone who believes in me won't have darkness residing in them. 47 I won't be judging anyone who hears my teaching and doesn't obey it, because I didn't come to judge the world but rather to save it. 48 Anyone who rejects me and doesn't accept my teaching does have a judge though—it's the message that I spoke that will judge them at the end of time 49 because I wasn't speaking from my own thoughts, but it was the father himself who sent me that told me what to say and what to teach. 50 And I'm fully aware that obeying his commands leads to living forever. Therefore whenever I speak, I just say whatever the father said to me."

Yeshua washes the feet of his apprentices

13:1 Even before the actual feast part of the Passover celebrations, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) knew that his time had come—the time when he would leave this world and return to the father. He loved his followers who were in the world right through to the end.

ner and the devil had already put into Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas) Iskariot's mind the idea of handing Yeshua over to the authorities. 3 Yeshua knew that the father had given everything to him, putting it under his control, and he knew that he had come from God and would return to God. 4 So he got up from the dinner table, changed out of his clothes, and wrapped a linen towel around himself. 5 Then he put water into the wash bowl and started washing the feet of his apprentices, wiping them dry with the linen towel that he was wearing wrapped around him. 6 After he'd washed a few, he got to Shim'on (Simon) Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) who asked him, "Master, are you going to wash my feet?"

7 "What I'm doing now," Yeshua answered, "you won't really understand, but in the future you will."

8 Kefa responded, "Well I'm never ever going to let you wash my feet!"

"If I don't wash them," Yeshua answered, "then you won't be included in my group."

9 "Well, if that's so," Kefa said, "don't just wash my feet but my hands and my head as well."

10 Yeshua responded, "Any person who's already washed themselves only needs to wash their feet now to be clean. And so you're clean, but not every one of you." 11 He said this last bit because he already knew who was going to hand him over.

12 So when he'd finished washing their feet,[91] he got dressed again and sat down and asked, "Do you know what I just did to you all? 13 You call me teacher and master, and so you should, because I am. 14 So if the master and teacher of you all washed your feet, then you also ought to wash each other's feet. 15 I have given this to you all as an example that you can also do to others. 16 I can assure you that a slave isn't greater than his master, and a missionary isn't greater than the king who sends him.[92] 17 If you can figure all this out and then do it, you will be blessed by God.

the scriptures must be fulfilled,
'The one sharing food with me, lifted up his boot against me.'[93]
19 So I'm telling you now before it happens so that when it does happen, then you'll all believe that I am the messiah. 20 I can assure you all that anyone who accepts any person that I might send, they're accepting me, and anyone who accepts me, is accepting the one who sent me."[94]

Yeshua indicates who will hand him over[95]

21 After saying these things, Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') thoughts were troubled and he said, "I can assure you that one of you will be turning me in."
22 This made his apprentices glance around at each other, puzzled about which one he was talking about. 23 One of them that Yeshua especially liked,[96] was leaning against him at the table. 24 So Shim'on (Simon) Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) nodded to him to find out who Yeshua had been talking about, 25 and he leaned back on Yeshua and asked quietly, "Master, who is it?"
26 "It's the one I hand this piece of bread to after I've dipped it in the sauce," Yeshua answered. Then after dipping his piece of bread in, he gave it to Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas) Iskariot. 27 After Yehudah accepted the piece of bread, Satan entered into him, and then Yeshua told him, "What you're about to do, do it soon." 28 But none of the others sitting around the table knew what Yeshua meant. 29 Some of them thought that since Yehudah held their purse, perhaps Yeshua was getting him to buy something they needed for the feast or to give something to the poor.
30 Anyway, having eaten the piece of bread, Yehudah went straight outside where it was already dark.

one loves me, they'll obey my teaching, and my father will love them and we will go to that person and live with them. 24 But anyone who doesn't love me, won't obey my teaching. The words that you hear from me are not my own, but come from the father who sent me.

25 "I told you all this while I have been here with you all. 26 But the holy spirit, the assistant who the father will be sending with my authority, he will be teaching you everything, and will be reminding you of everything that I told you all.

27 I will leave peace with you all. I'm giving my peace to you all, but what I'm giving isn't like what the world gives. Don't be upset or afraid. 28 You all heard me say that I'm going away and then will be coming back. If you really loved me, you'd be very happy that I'm going to the father, because the father is greater than me.

29 But I've told you now before it happens, so that when it does come to pass, you'll be able to believe that it was preplanned. 30 I won't have much more time to talk to you, because the ruler of the world is coming and he has nothing in common with me, 31 but he's coming so that the world can know that I love the father and whatever the father told me to do, I'm doing it.

The branches must stay connected to the vine

15:1 "I am the true vine and my father is the farmer. 2 He removes every one of my branches that doesn't bear fruit, but those that do bear fruit, he prunes them so they'll produce even more. 3 You are all clean already because of the teaching that I've given you. 4 Stay in me, and I will stay in you all, because just as a branch can't bear fruit in isolation when it's not connected to the vine, neither can you if you don't stay in me.

5 "I am the vine and you all are the branches. Anyone who stays in me will produce a lot of fruit—apart from me you can't do anything. 6 Anyone who doesn't stay in me will be thrown away like a branch, and will wither and be gathered together with others, and thrown into the fire to be burnt. 7 If you stay in me and my teaching stays in you, then you can request whatever you all want and it will be done for you. 8 My father will be honoured and praised when you produce a lot of fruit, and you all become my followers. 9 I loved you all just as the father loved me, so stay in my love. 10 If you obey my commands, you all will be staying in my love, just like I've obeyed my father's commands and I am staying in his love.

11 "I've told you these things so that I'll be happy with you all, and so that your happiness will be genuine and long-lasting. 12 So here's my request: keep loving each other just like I loved you all.[100] 13 No one has greater love than the one who gives up their own life for their friends. 14 You are my friends if you do what I am telling you. 15 I'm not calling you slaves, because a slave doesn't know his master's plans, but I'm calling you friends because I've told you everything that I heard from my father. 16 You didn't choose me, but I chose you all, and I assigned you to go and produce fruit and for your fruit to be permanent so that whatever you request from the father in my name and authority, he will give it to you. 17 I am telling you all this so that you can all love each other.

People will hate Yeshua-followers

18 "If the world hates you, you all know that it hated me before it hated you. 19 If you belonged to this world, then the world would love you as it loves its own people, but you don't belong to this world because I chose you out of it. wouldn't be considered sinners except that I came and spoke to them, so now they don't have any excuse for their sin. 23 Anyone who hates me, also hates my father. 24 If I hadn't done miracles among them of the sort that no one else has done, they wouldn't be considered to be sinners, but now they've observed me and hated both me and my father. 25 The writings of the prophets will certainly come to pass, that 'they hated me undeservedly'.[102]

26 "When the assistant arrives that I will send to you all from the father, the spirit of truth coming from the father, he will tell the truth about me. 27 You also will be able to tell the truth about me because you all were with me from the beginning.

16:1 "I've told you this so that you won't stumble. 2 First they will ban you all from their religious services, then there's a time coming when people will kill you thinking they're actually doing a sacred service to God, 3 but they'll be doing these things because they don't know either the father or me. 4 I've told you these things so that when they happen in the future, you'll remember that I've already told you about them.

The work of God's spirit

"I didn't tell you all of this right at the beginning because I was with you all, 5 but soon I'll be returning to the one who sent me. Yet none of you are asking me where I'll be going, 6 rather you are all just weighed down because I've told you these things. 7 But honestly it's for your benefit that I will leave here, because if I don't, then the assistant won't be coming to you. But after I've gone, I'll send him to you all. 8 When he comes, he'll scold the world about sin and teach them about righteousness and judgement— 9 about sin because they don't believe that I was sent by God, 10 about righteousness because I am going to the father and you won't be able to see me any longer, 11 and about judgement because the ruler of this able to handle it all right now. 13 But when the assistant comes, the spirit of truth, he will guide you in all truth because he won't be speaking from his own thoughts, but will tell you what he's been

A brief upset coming followed by happiness

16 "It won't be much longer and you won't be able to see me any more, and then a little while after that, and you'll see me again."
17 This got his followers asking each other,
"What's all this about seeing him for not much longer, and then seeing him again after a while?
And why does he say he's going to the father?"
18 So they were saying, "What's this about 'not much longer'? We don't know what he means." 19 However Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) knew what they wanted to ask him, and so he said to them, "You are trying to find out from each other what I meant when I said that you won't be able to see me after a little while, and then a little while after that you'll see me again. 20 I can assure you that you'll be weeping and mourning but the world will be elated. You'll be upset but then your upset will turn into happiness. 21 A woman giving birth has pains when the delivery begins, but when she hears that the baby is born, she doesn't remember those pains any more because she's so happy that her child was born. 22 So too with all of you: you'll be upset for a while but then I'll be with you again and you'll be so happy and no one will be able to take that happiness away from you.

ity, but after that time, you'll be able to make requests and they'll be answered so that your happiness will be complete.

A new era is coming very soon

25 "So far I've told you these things in parables, however a time is coming when I'll no longer be speaking in parables but will tell you things about the father quite plainly. 26 At that time you'll have my authority to request from the father. I'm not saying that I'll be asking him on your behalf, 27 no, because he himself loves you all because you have loved me and have believed that I was sent by God. 28 I was sent out by the father and I have come into the world, but I'll be leaving the world again and returning to the father."
29 Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') followers responded, "Ah, now you're speaking plainly and not using parables. 30 Finally we realise that you know everything already and don't need to ask anyone else, and so we now believe that you came from God."
31 "So now you all believe?" Yeshua answered. 32 "The time is coming and is here already when you will all be scattered in various directions and will leave me by myself, but I won't be alone because the father is always with me. 33 I've told you these things so that you can all have peace in me. You will have troubles in this world, but be courageous because I have overcome the world."

Yeshua prays for his current and future followers

17:1 After Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had finished speaking, he looked up to the sky and said, "Father, it's now the time for you to honour your son so that the son can honour you. 2 You already gave me authority over all people so that I could grant eternal life to everyone that you've given me. 3 And eternal life means knowing you, the only true God, and knowing me—Yeshua the messiah that you sent. 4 I honoured you here on the earth by completing everything that you gave me to do. 5 So father, now you yourself can honour me with the greatness that I had when I was together with you before the creation of the world.

to remove them out of this world, but rather to stop evil from overcoming them. 16 They don't be-

24 Father, I want those that you've given me to be with me wherever I am so that they'll be able to see my greatness—the greatness that you gave me because you loved me even before the creation of the world. 25 Righteous father, this world didn't know you, but I know you and these ones know that you sent me here. 26 I revealed your power and authority to them and will continue to do so, so that the love that you love me with might be in them, and I too might be in them."

Yeshua is arrested[104]

18:1 After he'd said all this, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and his followers left Yerushalem (Jerusalem) proper and over the Kidron stream towards a garden that he and his followers entered. 2 And Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas) (the one who would hand him over) also knew the place because Yeshua and his followers often met there. 3 Meanwhile Yehudah had met with the soldiers and servants of the chief priests and the Farisaios party, and they all started coming into the garden with lanterns and flaming torches and weapons. 4 Yeshua who already knew what was going to happen to him, came forward and asked them, "Who are you all looking for?"

5 And they answered, "Yeshua—the one from Nazaret."

Yeshua responded, "I am the one."

Yehudah, the one handing him over, was standing there among them. 6 But when Yeshua had said that he is the one, they backed away and fell to the ground.[105] 7 So he asked them again, "Who are you all looking for?"

And they answered, "Yeshua—the one from Nazaret."

8 Yeshua responded, "I already told you all that I am the one. So if it's me that you're looking for, let these others leave." 9 (In this way, the statement was fulfilled that Yeshua had said previously: 'I didn't lose any of the ones that you gave me.')[106]

10 Then Shim'on (Simon) Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) drew the sword that he was carrying and swiped at the servant of the high priest, cutting off his right ear. The servant's name was Malkos. 11 But Yeshua said to Kefa, "Put your sword back in its sheath. I need to proceed with the plan that the father has prepared for me—I can't just avoid the suffering."[107]

Yeshua is taken to Hanan

12 So the soldiers and their commander, and the servants of the Jewish leaders arrested Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and tied him up. 13 First they took him to Hanan (Annas; Grk. Hannas), the father-in-law of Kayafa (Caiaphas; Grk. Kaiafas) who was the chief priest that year. 14 (Kayafa was the one who had suggested that it was better for the people and the nation if one man should die for all of them.)[108]

Kefa denies being a Yeshua-follower[109]

15 Now Shim'on (Simon) Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and another apprentice were following Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), and since that other apprentice was known to the chief priest, he was allowed to enter following Yeshua into the courtyard of the chief priest 16 while Kefa waited outside at the door. Then the other apprentice who was known to the chief priest went back and spoke to the woman at the door and brought Kefa in too. 17 But the servant girl who was watching the door challenged Kefa, "Aren't you also one of the followers of that man?"

"No, I'm not," he responded.

18 Meanwhile the servants and attendants had made a fire and were standing around it warming themselves, and Kefa also went and stood there to warm himself.

Hanan tries to interrogate Yeshua[110]

19 Now the chief priest interrogated Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) about his followers and about his teaching. 20 Yeshua answered him, "I've spoken openly to the people. I always taught in the meeting halls and in the temple where Jewish people meet. I didn't speak in secret 21 so why are you asking me? Ask the people who heard what I told them—they're the ones who know what I said."

22 When he said that, one of the attendants standing there slapped Yeshua on the face and said, "You think you can answer the chief priest like that?"

23 But Yeshua responded, "If I said anything wrong, tell me my error. But if it was true, why are you hitting me?"

24 So Hanan (Annas; Grk. Hannas) sent him away, still tied up, to Kayafa (Caiaphas; Grk. Kaiafas) the chief priest.

Kefa again denies following Yeshua[111]

25 Shim'on (Simon) Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) was still standing by the fire warming himself when he was asked, "Aren't you also one of his followers?"

But he denied it, saying, "No, I'm not."

26 One of the servants of the chief priest who was a relative of the man whose ear Kefa had cut off said, "Didn't I see you in the garden with that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus)?"

27 But Kefa again denied it, and just then a rooster crowed.

Pilatos interrogates Yeshua[112]

28 Then they led Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) out from Kayafa' (Caiaphas'; Grk. Kaiafas') place and towards the residence of the governor. It was now the early hours of the morning and as Yehudim (Jews), they didn't enter the residence of the Romaios governor so they wouldn't become defiled and thus unable to eat the Passover meal. 29 So Governor Pilatos (Pilate) came outside to them and asked, "What charge are you all bringing against this man?"

30 "We wouldn't have brought him to you if he hadn't committed a serious crime," they answered.

31 So Pilatos said, "You just take him and judge him yourselves according to your own laws."

But the Jewish leaders responded, "We don't have permission to execute anyone." 32 (This happened to fulfil what Yeshua had said about the way that he was going to die.)[113]

33 So Pilatos went back into his governor's residence and called for Yeshua and asked him, "So you're the king of the Yehudim?"

34 "Are you saying this yourself," Yeshua asked, "or did others say it about me?"

35 Pilatos retorted, "Hoy! I'm not a Yehudi (Jew). It was your own people and the chief priests that handed you over to me. What have you done?"

36 "My kingdom isn't in this world," Yeshua answered, "because if it was, my supporters would have fought so that I wouldn't have been handed over to the Jewish leaders. But no, my kingdom isn't from here."

37 "So you are a king then?" Pilatos responded.

"You're saying that I'm a king," said Yeshua, "and indeed I was born to be a king. I came into the world so that I could testify to the truth."

38 "Yeah. What is truth?" said Pilatos.

Pilatos gives permission to execute an innocent man[114]

After he'd said this, Pilatos (Pilate) went back outside to the Yehudim (Jews) and told them, "I can't find anything that he's guilty of. 39 But you all have a custom here that the governor can release one prisoner during the Passover. So would you like me to release the king of the Yehudim?"

40 But they all yelled back, "No, not this one. Release Bar-Aba (Grk. Barabbas)." (Bar-Aba was a robber.)

19:1 So Pilatos took Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and had him flogged. 2 Then the soldiers twisted some thorn branches together into a crown and put it on Yeshua's head, and they dressed him in a royal purple robe. 3 They came up to him and said,

"Greetings, you king of the Yehudim," and then slapped him.

4 Then Pilatos went back outside and said to the Yehudim, "Look here. I'm bringing him out to you so that you all can know that I didn't find him guilty of anything." 5 So they led Yeshua out wearing the thorny crown and the kingly robe, and Pilatos said, "Look. Here's the man."

6 Now when the chief priests and their supporters saw him, they yelled out, "Execute him on a stake! Execute him on a stake!"

"Well you take him and execute him on a stake," Pilatos answered, "because I haven't found anything that he's guilty of."

7 The Yehudim responded, "We have a law and he should be executed according to that law because he said he was the son of God."

8 Now when Pilatos heard that, he became more afraid. 9 So he went back inside the residence and asked Yeshua, "Where do you come from?"

But Yeshua didn't answer him. 10 So Pilatos said, "Why don't you answer me? Don't you realise that I have the authority to release you and I also have the authority to have you executed on a stake?"

11 "You have no authority over me," Yeshua answered, "none at all, except what has been granted to you from above. Because of this, the sin of the person who handed me over to you is greater."

12 After hearing this, Pilatos wanted to release him but the Yehudim yelled out, "If you release that man, you're no friend of Kaisar. Everyone who claims to be a king is no friend of Kaisar's."

13 So now Pilatos, having heard all this, brought Yeshua outside again. Pilatos sat down on the judge's seat at a place called The Stone Pavement (and called Gabatha in Hebrew). 14 It was now about noon on the day when the Passover meal is prepared, and Pilatos said to the Yehudim, "Look. Here's your king."

15 They yelled back, "Take him away. Take him away. Execute him on a stake."

Pilatos asked them, "You want me to have your king executed on a stake?"

Yeshua is hung on a stake[115]

17 Carrying the pole[116] himself, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) arrived at the Place of the Skull (called Golgotha in Hebrew) just out of the city 18 where they secured him to a stake along with two others—one stake on each side and with Yeshua on the middle one. 19 Pilatos (Pilate) wrote out a title and put it on the stake: Yeshua from Nazaret, the king of the Yehudim (Jews). 20 Many Yehudim read this title because the place where Yeshua was executed was near the city, and it had been written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek. 21 But the Jewish chief priests complained to Pilatos, "Don't write 'The king of the Yehudim', but rather 'The one who said he was king of the Yehudim'."

22 However Pilatos answered, "What I've written, I've written."

23 After the soldiers had fastened Yeshua to the stake, they took his clothes and placed them in four piles, one for each of them. This left his robe, which had been woven from top to bottom in one piece. 24 So they said to each other, "Rather than tearing this, let's throw a dice to see who will get it." (This fulfilled what was written in the scriptures that said: they divided my garments among themselves and threw a dice for my clothes.)[117] So they went ahead and did that.

25 Meanwhile a group of women had stayed standing near Yeshua on the stake: his mother and his aunt, Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) the wife of Klopas, and Miryam from Magdala.
26 When Yeshua saw his mother and also the apprentice that he loved standing nearby, he said to her, "Look, he'll be your son." 27 And to the apprentice he said, "Look, she'll be your mother." And that apprentice took her into his own home from then on.

Yeshua gives up his life on the stake[118]

28 Having done this, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) knew that everything had been accomplished, and (in order for the scriptures to be fulfilled) said, "I'm thirsty."[119]

29 There was a container lying there full of vinegary wine, so they placed a sponge on a hyssop stalk, soaked it in the wine, and held it up to his mouth. 30 After Yeshua had sucked some wine out, he said, "It is finished." Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

Yeshua's side is pierced with a spear

31 Now because it was the preparation day[120] for the coming Rest Day, the Yehudim (Jews) didn't want the bodies to remain on the stakes after dusk (because it was even a special Rest Day.) So they asked Pilatos (Pilate) to command for their legs to be broken to hasten their deaths and then they could be taken down sooner. 32 So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the men on each side of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), 33 but when they got to him, they saw that he was already dead so they didn't break his legs. 34 Instead one of the soldiers stabbed his side with a spear and immediately blood and water came out. 35 The one who actually saw this happen[121] has testified this and his account is accurate so that you readers can also believe it, 36 because these things also happened to fulfil what was written in the scriptures, that 'none of his bones will be broken,'[122] 37 and in another place, 'they will look at the one that they pierced.'[123]

The wrapping and laying of Yeshua's body[124]

38 After all of this, Yosef (Joseph) from Arimathaia went to Pilatos (Pilate). (Yosef was a follower of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), but secretly because he was afraid of what the Jewish leaders might do.) He asked Pilatos for 39 Nikodemos (the one who had first visited Yeshua at night)[125] also came, bringing around 30kg of burial spices. 40 So they took Yeshua's body and wrapped it around with linen strips with the spices as per the Jewish burial customs.

41 There was a garden out at the place where Yeshua had been executed, and in the garden there was a new tomb that hadn't been used yet.
42 So because it was the preparation day and because the tomb was nearby, they laid his body in there.

The body is missing from the chamber[126]

20:1 The following Sunday, Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) from Magdala went out to the tomb very early when it was still dark, and she saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. 2 So she ran quickly and went to Shim'on (Simon) Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and the other apprentice that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) loved, and told them, "They've taken the master's body out of the tomb and we don't know where they've put it."
3 So Kefa and the other apprentice went out to the tomb. 4 They were running together, but the other apprentice was a bit faster than Kefa and so he got to the tomb first. 5 Without going in, he stooped down at the entrance and looked in and saw the linen strips lying there. 6 But Kefa came along behind him and went straight into the tomb and also saw the linen strips lying there. 7 But the piece of cloth that had been on the head wasn't lying there with the linen strips, but had been folded and placed separately. 8 So now the other apprentice who had arrived first also went inside and he saw it all and believed that Yeshua had risen. 9 (At that time they weren't yet aware of the scripture about him coming back to life.) 10 So they went back again to their homes.

Yeshua reveals himself to Miryam from Magdala[127]

11 But Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) had stayed there outside the tomb weeping. But when she stooped down and looked into the tomb, 12 she saw two messengers dressed in white sitting there—one at the head end and one at the feet end of the slab where Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') body had been lying. 13 They spoke to her, "Woman, why are you crying?"

"Because they've taken away my master," she replied, "and I don't know where they've put him."

14 Then she turned back around and saw Yeshua standing there, but she didn't realise who it was. 15 Yeshua asked her, "Woman, why are you crying? Who are you looking for?"

Miryam assumed he might be the gardener, so she answered, "Mister, if you took the body, tell me where you put it and I'll get it taken away for you."

16 Yeshua just answered, "Miryam."

She spun around and said, "My teacher!" ('Rabboni' in Hebrew.)

17 "Don't touch me," Yeshua said to her, "because I haven't gone back up to the father yet, but go and tell my brothers that I'm going up to my father and the father of you all, and my god and the god of you all."

18 So Miryam went and told the apprentices, "I've seen the master," and she told them what he'd said.

Yeshua appears to his followers[128]

19 On Sunday evening Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') apprentices had met together and had the doors locked because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders, but Yeshua arrived and stood in the middle of the room and said, "Peace to you all." 20 Then he showed them his hands and his side and they were so happy now that they had seen the master. 21 Yeshua continued, "Peace to you all. Now I'm sending you all out just like the father sent me out." 22 Then he breathed on them[129] and said, "Receive the holy spirit. 23 If you forgive anyone's sins, then they'll be forgiven but if you withhold forgiveness, then it will be withheld."[130]

Toma sees the evidence for himself

24 But Toma (Thomas), one of the twelve (nicknamed 'Twin'), wasn't with them when Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had come 25 so the other apprentices told him, "We have seen the master."

But he replied, "I won't believe that unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and I can put my finger into the marks and can put my hand into the gash on his side."

26 Eight days later, Yeshua's apprentices were again together inside, and this time Toma was with them. 27 Yeshua came and stood in the middle of the room even though the doors were shut, and said, "Peace to you all."

28 Toma spoke up, "My master and my god!"

29 "So you believe now because you've seen me," said Yeshua. "The ones who haven't seen me, but who believe anyway, will certainly be rewarded."

Why this document was written

30 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went on to do many other miracles in front of his apprentices which aren't recorded in this account. 31 But what has been written here has been recorded so that you might all believe that Yeshua is the messiah, God's son, and then by believing, so that you might have true life through his power.

The miracle of the net full of fish

21:1 After all this, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) revealed himself again to his apprentices at Lake Galil. It happened like this: 2 Shim'on (Simon) Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros), Toma (Thomas) nicknamed 'Twin', Netanel (Nathanael) from Kana in Galil, the sons of Zavday (Grk. Zebedaios), and two other apprentices had gathered together 3 when Shim'on Kefa said that he was going fishing and the others said _any you_all_may_forgive the sins, they_have_ _been_forgiven to_them, if of_any you_all_may_ _be_restraining, they_have_been_restrained.

24 But Thōmas, one of the twelve, the one being_ _called Didumos/[twin], was not with them when Ya^{y}sous came. 25 Therefore the other apprentices/followers were_saying to_him: We_ _have_seen the master. But he said to_them: If I_ _may_ not _see the mark of_the nails in the hands of_him, and I_may_put the finger of_me into the mark of_the nails, and I_may_put the hand of_me into the side of_him, by_no_means I_‹will›_ not _ _be_believing. 26 And after eight days the apprentices/followers of_him were again inside, and Thōmas with them. ~~the~~ Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʻa) Is_coming, the doors having_been_shut, and stood in the midst, and said: Peace to_you_all. 27 Thereafter he_is_saying to_ ~~the~~ _Thōmas: Be_ _bringing the finger of_you here, and see the hands of_me, and be_bringing the hand of_you, and put it into the side of_me, and be_ not _ _becoming unbelieving, but believing. 28 Thōmas answered and said to_him: - master of_me and ~~the~~ god of_me. 29 ~~The~~ Ya^{y}sous is_saying to_him: Because you_have_seen me, have_believed, blessed are the ones not having_seen, and_yet having_believed.

30 Many therefore on_one_hand other signs ~~the~~ Ya^{y}sous also did before of_the apprentices/followers of_him, which is not having_been_written in the this scroll. 31 On_the_ _other_hand these things has_been_written, in_ _order_that you_all_may_be_believing that Ya^{y}sous is the chosen_one/messiah, the son of_ ~~the~~ _god, and in_order_that believing, you_all_ _may_be_having life in the name of_him.

also _coming with you. They_came_out and they_ _boarded into the boat, and at that ~~the~~ night they_caught nothing. 4 But in_the_morning already becoming, Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʹa) stood on the shore, however the apprentices/followers had_ not _known that it_is Ya^{y}sous. 5 therefore Ya^{y}sous is_saying to_them: Little_children, you_ _all_are_ not _having any fish? They_answered to_him: No. 6 And he said to_them: Cast the net to the right side of_the boat, and you_all_will_be_ _finding them. Therefore they_throw, and was_ no_longer _able to_drag it because_of the multitude of_the fishes. 7 Therefore ~~the~~ apprentice/follower that whom ~~the~~ Ya^{y}sous was_ _loving is_saying to_ ~~the~~ _Petros: It_is the master. Therefore Simōn Petros having_heard that it_is the master, girded his outer_garment, because/for he_was naked, and throw himself into the sea. 8 And the other apprentices/followers in_the little_boat came, because/for they_were not far from the land, but from about two_hundred cubits dragging the net with_the fishes. 9 Therefore when they_got_out on the land, they_are_seeing a_charcoal_fire lying, and fish laying_on it, and bread. 10 ~~The~~ Ya^{y}sous is_saying to_them: Bring from the fish which you_all_caught now. 11 Therefore Simōn Petros went_up, and dragged the net to ~~the~~ land full of_ large _fishes a_hundred fifty three, but being so_many, the net was_ not _torn. 12 ~~The~~ Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʹa) is_saying to_them: Come, eat_breakfast. But no_one of_the apprentices/followers was_daring to_question him, who are You? Having_known that it_is the master. 13 Ya^{y}sous is_coming, and is_taking the bread and is_giving to_them, and the fish likewise. 14 This now the_third time Ya^{y}sous was_revealed to_the apprentices/followers, having_been_raised from the_dead.

15 Therefore when they_ate_lunch, ~~the~~ Ya^{y}sous is_saying to_ ~~the~~ _Simōn Petros: Simōn son of_ _Yōanna^{y}s, are_you_loving me more than these? He_is_saying to_him: Yes, master, you have_ _known that I_am_loving you. He_is_saying to_ _him: Be_feeding the lambs of_me. 16 He_is_ _saying to_him again secondly: Simōn son of_ _Yōanna^{y}s, are_you_loving me? He_is_saying to_ that they'd join him.

So they went off and got in the boat, but they didn't catch anything that night.[131]

4 When the dawn was approaching, Yeshua was standing there on the shore, but they didn't know that it was him. 5 He called out, "Hey, young fellas. Don't you have any fish?"

"None." they answered.

6 Then he said, "Throw the net out over the right side of the boat and you'll find some." So they did it and they caught so many fish that the net was too heavy to pull back in.[132]

7 Now the apprentice that Yeshua loved said to Kefa, "It's the master!" When Shim'on Kefa heard that, he put on his robe (because he didn't have it on), and jumped overboard into the lake. 8 The other apprentices followed in the little boat dragging the net behind them because they were only about 100m out from the shore. 9 When they went up the beach, they saw some bread there and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it 10 and Yeshua told them, "Bring some of the fish that you just caught."

11 So Shim'on Kefa went and dragged the net up onto the beach. Amazingly it hadn't torn even though it contained 153 large fish. 12 Then Yeshua said, "Now, come and have breakfast." But none of the apprentices dared to ask who he was, because they figured it must be the master. 13 Yeshua brought the bread to them and shared it around, and then likewise for the fish.

14 This was now the third time that Yeshua had appeared to his apprentices since he'd come back to life.

Yeshua questions Kefa

15 While they were eating, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) asked Shim'on (Simon) Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros), "Shim'on, son of Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), do you love me more than these?"

Kefa answered, "Yes, master, you know that I love you."

Readers' Version

Yeshua responded, "Feed my lambs." 16 Then he asked again, "Shim'on, son of Yohan, do you love me?"

Kefa replied, "Yes, master, you know that I love you."

Yeshua responded, "Shepherd my sheep."

17 Then he asked a third time, "Shim'on, son of Yohan, do you love me?"

Kefa was now upset that he'd been asked a third time if he loved him, and he answered, "Master, you know everything."

"Feed my sheep," Yeshua responded. 18 "I can assure you that while you are young, you dress yourself and go wherever you want to go, but as you age, you'll be stretching out your hands and others will dress you and will take you where you don't want to go." 19 When he said this, Yeshua was indicating how Kefa would die honouring God, and he told Kefa, "Keep following me."

20 When Kefa turned around he saw that the apprentice that Yeshua loved was following them—the one who'd leaned on Yeshua's chest during the supper and asked who the one was who would turn Yeshua over.[133] 21 Noticing him, Kefa asked Yeshua, "Master, what about that one?"

22 But Yeshua replied, "If I want him to stay alive until I come back, what business would it be of yours? You just stay following me."

23 As a result of that, a rumour went around the others that that one wouldn't die, but Yeshua never said that. (He only said, "If I want him to stay alive until I come back, what business would it be of yours?")

24 This author is the apprentice that testifies about these things—the one who wrote this down and whose account is true. 25 (There were also many other things that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) did, which if they were all written down then even the world itself wouldn't have room for all the books that would need to be written.)

The account of Yeshua's ministry by

Markos

Introduction

Author

This account about Yeshua's activities and teachings was written by Markos (typically shortened to 'Mark' in English), the son of a Jewish family who lived in Yerushalem/Jerusalem. His mother was named Miryam/Mary (Acts 12:12).
Many people think he was Yohan/John Markos, a cousin of Barnabas (Col. 4:10) who accompanied Paulos on his first long-distance trip to spread the good message about Yeshua the messiah (Acts 12:25, 13:13). We also know that Markos accompanied Kefa (1 Peter 5:13), and some consider that it might have been Kefa who narrated to Markos what Yeshua had done and taught.

This account seems to have been written for non-Jews, especially perhaps those familiar with Romaios customs. So he didn't use as much ink as Matay or Lukas explaining prophecies from the Jewish scriptures but he does however, take time to explain Jewish customs to help non-Jewish readers.
Markos explains here that Yeshua came to serve both God and the people, and he often refers to him as 'the son of humanity' (traditionally translated very literally from the Greek as the 'Son of Man'). We can see that especially in 10:45: "Even the son of humanity didn't come to be served, but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom to set many people free." Markos wants his readers to know that Yeshua did incredible things, but especially focuses on Yeshua's teaching. Markos confirms Yeshua's power and authority by telling about the miracles that he did, his healing of the sick, and his exorcism of demons.
The ending of this account is often disputed, and scholars are still debating about whether or not the longer ending (16:9-20) is original to Markos. The OET includes the disputed longer ending, but displays it in a lighter colour to indicate its debatable status.

Main components of Markos' account

Preparation for and arrival of the messiah 1:1-13
Yeshua's activities in and around Galil 1:14–9:50
The transition from Galil to Yerushalem 10:1-52
The final week in Yerushalem 11:1–15:47
Yeshua comes back to life 16:1-20

1:1 Here begins the good message about[1] God's son, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah:

The ministry of Yohan the immerser (The return of 'Eliyah')[2]

2 The prophet Yeshayah (Isaiah) wrote:
"Look, I'm sending my messenger ahead of you,
the one who'll be preparing your path.[3] 3 The voice out in the wilderness shouting,
'Get the path ready for Yahweh— make it smooth for him to walk on.' "[4]
4 Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) turned up in the wilderness announcing that people should get immersed in water in order to show that their sins have been forgiven, 5 and many from the Yehudah (Judea) region and from Yerushalem (Jerusalem) city went out to hear him, and asked Yohan to immerse them in the Yarden (Jordan) river as they confessed their sins.
6 Yohan was dressed in simple clothes made from camel hair with a leather belt around his waist,[5] and he lived on locusts and wild honey.
7 He also announced, "There's a greater man coming soon—in fact I'm not even good enough to bend down and untie his sandal straps. 8 I immersed you all in water, but he'll immerse you in God's holy spirit."

Yeshua gets immersed and then tempted[6]

9 Then one day Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) came from Nazaret (Nazareth) in the Galil region, and he got immersed in the Yarden (Jordan) river by Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes). 10 As Yeshua came up out of the water, he saw the sky being opened up, and God's spirit coming down on him like a dove. 11 And a voice came from the sky saying, "You're my son who I love and am pleased with."[7]

12 After that, the spirit sent him out into the wilderness 13 where he was tested by Satan for forty days. He was out there with the wild animals, but God's messengers[8] looked after him there.

The selection of the first followers/apprentices[9]

14 After Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) had been arrested, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went back up north to Galil, announcing the good news from God 15 saying, "The promised time is here, and God's kingdom is now near. Turn from your sins and believe this good news."[10]

16 As he went around Lake Galil, Yeshua saw two fishermen, Shim'on (Simon) and his brother Andreas, throwing a net into the lake 17 and he said to them, "Come with me and I'll make you into fishers of people." 18 So they left their fishing work and went off with Yeshua.

19 Then a bit further on he saw two of Zavday's (Grk. Zebedaios') sons, Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and his brother Yohan, in a boat getting the nets ready. 20 Yeshua called them and they too went off with him, leaving their father Zavday in the boat with the hired workers.

Yeshua drives out a demon[11]

21 They went on into Kafarnaoum (Capernaum) where as soon as a rest day started, he would go into the Jewish meeting hall (Grk. synagogue) and teach there. 22 The congregation was amazed at his teaching, because he taught like someone with authority, not like the regular teachers there.[12]

23 Then a demon-possessed man in the meeting hall suddenly yelled out, 24 "What are we to you, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) of Nazaret (Nazareth)? You've come to destroy us. I know that you're God's holy one."

25 But Yeshua scolded it,[13] saying, "Keep quiet!", and, "Come out of him!"
26 Then the demon threw the man into a convulsion, cried out loudly, and left him. 27 Everyone was astounded and asked each other, "What just happened? We haven't heard anything like this before—he has authority to command demons, and they obey him!" 28 So then the news about Yeshua spread all over that entire Galil region.

Yeshua heals many others[14]

29 After leaving the meeting hall, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went with Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) into the home of Shim'on (Simon) and Andreas. 30 Inside, Shim'on's mother-in-law was lying down with a fever, and the others spoke to Yeshua about her. 31 When he went up to her, and took hold of her hand and helped her up, the fever left her and she prepared something for them to eat.
32 That evening when the sun set, the people brought all those who were sick or demon-possessed to Yeshua. 33 It seemed like the entire town had gathered there outside the front door.
34 Yeshua healed many who were sick from a range of diseases, and he commanded many demons to leave—not allowing them to speak because they knew that he was the messiah.

Yeshua prays before going preaching[15]

35 In the small hours of the morning, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) got up and went out to a quiet place and prayed there. 36 But Shim'on (Simon) and the others came looking for him, 37 and when they found him they said, "Everyone's looking for you!"
38 "Well," Yeshua answered, "we'll be going into the other villages around here, so that I can also tell them. That's what I came here for." 39 Then he went preaching in all their meeting halls in Galil, and driving out demons.[16]

Yeshua heals a man with leprosy[17]

40 One day, a man with leprosy came to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) asking him, "I know that you could heal me if you wanted to."

41 Yeshua felt compassion for him, reached out his hand and touched him, and said, "Yes, I will. Get well." 42 Then immediately the leprosy disappeared and he was well again. 43 So Yeshua sent him away, but warned him: 44 "Don't talk to anyone—just go to the priest and show him that you're well, and as a testimony of that, make the offering that Mosheh (Moses) commanded so as to be declared clean again."[18]

45 But after the man left, he started telling lots of people and spreading the news—so much so that Yeshua could no longer come into the town but had to stay out in quieter places, and people kept coming to him.

Yeshua heals a paralysed man[19]

2:1 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went back to Kafarnaoum (Capernaum) after a few days, people soon heard that he was back in the house 2 and so many people turned up there that there wasn't any room left—not even in the doorway. Inside, Yeshua was explaining the scriptures to them. 3 Four men arrived, carrying a paralysed man to Yeshua, 4 but because of the crowd, they were unable to get close. So they climbed up onto the flat roof, removed a section, and lowered the paralysed man lying on a pallet. 5 Yeshua, observing their faith, said to the man, "Son, your sins are forgiven!"[20]

6 But some of the religious teachers were sitting there, thinking to themselves, 7 "Why's that fellow talking like that? He's seriously insulting God. There's only one who can forgive sins, and that's God himself."

8 Then Yeshua, knowing in his spirit that they were reasoning like that, said to them, "Why are you thinking that to yourselves? 9 Which is easier:

to tell the paralysed man that his sins have been forgiven, or to tell him to pick up his bedding and walk? 10 But so you all can see that the son of humanity does have authority here on the earth to forgive sins," he turned and said to the paralysed man, 11 "Listen. Get up, take your bedding, and go home!"

12 So the man stood up, and picked up his bedding, and went outside, where everyone saw him and marvelled and praised God saying, "We've never seen anything like that happen before!"

Levi's (Matthew's) calling[21]

13 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went back out beside the lake where crowds of people kept coming to him and he taught them. 14 As he was passing by the tax office, he saw Levi Halfay (Grk. Halfaios) sitting there and said to him, "Come along with me." So Levi stood up and followed Yeshua.

15 Yeshua ended up having a meal at Levi's place, and many other tax collectors and undesirables were sitting there also, along with Yeshua and his followers, because by then, many people were following him around. 16 When the teachers from the Farisaios party noticed that Yeshua was eating beside undesirables and tax-collectors, they asked his followers, "How come he eats with tax-collectors and other low-life?"

17 Yeshua overheard them and said, "Healthy people don't need a doctor—it's the sick ones that do. I didn't come here to help those who think they have no needs, but I came to call sinners."

The question of fasting[22]

18 Now the followers of Yohan-the-immerser, and members of the Farisaios party, regularly fasted. So a small group came to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and asked, "How come Yohan's (John's; Grk. Yoannes') followers and the Farisaios party fast regularly, yet your followers don't?"

19 "Can the groomsmen fast when they're celebrating along with him?" Yeshua answered, "No, as long as he's still there, they won't be fasting. 20 But in the future, the groom will be taken away from them, and then they'll be fasting.

Working on the Rest Day[23]

23 Then it so happened that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and his followers passed through some fields of grain on some days of rest. As they went through, they plucked off some heads of grain,[24]
24 and some members of the Farisaios party said, “Hey, it’s breaking the law to harvest grain on a rest day!”
25 “You’ve read yourselves,” Yeshua replied, “what David did when he and his men were hungry. 26 They went into God’s tent and ate the sacred bread representing God’s presence. Only the priests were allowed to eat that,[25] and yet David even gave some to his companions!” 27 Then he told the Farisaios, “The days of rest were created for people, not people for the rest days. 28 So I, the son of humanity, have authority also over the day of rest.”

The man with the curled-up hand[26]

3:1 Again at another time, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went into the Jewish meeting hall and there was a man there with a curled-up hand. 2 The religious leaders there were watching him closely to see if he would heal the man on the rest day, and then if he did, they would have a case against him. 3 Then Yeshua said to the man with the flawed hand, “Stand up there in the middle.” 4 And he asked the leaders, “Is it allowable to do good on the rest day, or only to do evil? To save life, or to kill?” But they didn’t reply.

Big crowds press against Yeshua

7 After that, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) withdrew towards the lake with his apprentices as well as a huge crowd of people from the regions of both Galil and down in Yehudah (Judea), 8 along with others from Yerushalem (Jerusalem), Idoumaia, from across the Yarden (Jordan) River, and from up near Tsor (Tyre) and Tsidon (Sidon). That huge crowd came because they had heard about the amazing things he had done. 9 So Yeshua asked his apprentices to organise a small boat to be there for him so he wouldn't be cramped by the press of the crowd.[27] 10 Virtually anyone who had any physical issues was pressing towards him to touch him, because he had already healed so many. 11 And the demons, whenever they saw Yeshua, they fell to their knees on the ground in front of him and yelled out, "You are God's son!" 12 However he regularly warned them not to reveal who he was.

Yeshua appoints his twelve representatives[28]

13 As Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) started going up a hill, he called the followers that he had selected and they went off with him. 14 He appointed twelve of them as his representatives so that they could stick with him, and be sent off to be proclaiming his message 15 and to also have authority to exorcise demons.

16 These are the twelve that he appointed: Shim'on (Simon) (but he appended the name "Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros)"), 17 Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and his brother Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) who were Zavday's (Grk. Zebedaios') sons (and he nicknamed them the "sons of thunder"), 18 Andreas, Filippos (Philip), Bar-Talmay (Bartholomew; Grk. Bartholomaios), Matay (Matthew; Grk. Matthaios), Toma (Thomas), Ya'akov Halfay (Grk. Halfaios), Thaddaios (Thaddeus), Shim'on from Kena'an (Canaan), 19 and

The two opposing spiritual powers[29]

20 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was approaching a house, but the crowd swarmed them again so they had no opportunity to eat. 21 The ones with him heard all the noise and came to get him, because they were wondering if he was crazy.

22 The religious teachers had come up from Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and were complaining, "He's possessed by the prince of demons. He can command them because he rules them!"[30]

23 But Yeshua addressed them: "How could Satan command himself? 24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom could never prosper. 25 If a household is divided against itself, that family will never prosper. 26 So if Satan attacked himself and was split, he couldn't possibly be powerful, but his time would be over.

27 On the contrary, no one can enter a strong man's house to clean out his possessions unless he first ties up that strong man—after that he can work on the goods.

28 Honestly, I assure you that any sins of a person can be forgiven, no matter how much they curse God. 29 But anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit can never be forgiven, but is eternally responsible for their sin."[31] 30 (He said that because they were saying that he was demon-possessed.)

Yeshua's mother and brothers arrive[32]

31 Now Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') mother and brothers came and were standing outside, and they asked someone to tell him that they were there. 32 Some in the crowd sitting around him told Yeshua that his mother and brothers were waiting outside for him.

33 But Yeshua answered, "Who is my mother and who are my brothers?" 34 And having looked around at the people sitting here, he said, "Actually, you all are my mother and my brothers, 35 because anyone who obeys God, that person is my brother and my sister and my mother."

The parable about planting seed[33]

4:1 Again Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) started teaching by the edge of the lake. A huge crowd gathered around him, but he had boarded a boat that was floating in the water, and all the people were there on the shore.[34] 2 From there, he taught them many different things in parables, including this one: 3 "Listen. Once there was a farmer who went to spread some seed. 4 As he spread it, some landed on the path, and the birds came and fed on it. 5 Some landed on a rocky part without a lot of soil, and it quickly sprouted in the warm, shallow soil, 6 but when the sun came up, it dried out because the roots weren't deep, and so it just withered up. 7 Some of the seed landed in a thistle patch, and the thistles grew and choked it out, so the plants never bore a crop. 8 But some seed landed in fertile soil and it bore a harvest—some of it multiplying thirty times, some sixty, and some a hundred times."

9 Then Yeshua added, "Anyone who wants to understand, let them consider it."

Why Yeshua speaks in parables[35]

10 Later when the crowd had left, the twelve apprentices asked him about the parables 11 and he told them, "You've been given understanding about God's kingdom, but for others, they'll get it in parables

12 so that when they look, they might see but not perceive, and when they listen, they might hear but not understand, otherwise they might turn from their sins and be forgiven."[36]

The ground where the seed fell[37] seed is spreading the good message, 15 and there are some along the path where the good message is being spread, who hear, but Satan turns up immediately and snatches the message that had been planted in them. 16 Similarly, there's some seed that falls onto rocky places where the people who hear the good message happily accept it, 17 but don't make strong roots—just temporary changes. So when they get mocked or attacked about accepting the good message, they quickly stumble. 18 Others are the ones where the seed was spread among the thistles. They heard the good message, 19 but contemporary topics, or the lure of money, or the appetite for other things, choke their good intentions and the message becomes unfruitful in them. 20 But lastly, the seed that landed on the good soil represents the people who hear the good message, accept it, and are fruitful thirty, sixty, or even a hundred times over."

The light will shine on everything[38]

21 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. 33 And so as much as they could handle it, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) shared the good message with them via many similar word pictures. 34 He never spoke without those illustrations, but he explained all of them to his close followers.

Yeshua halts the storm on the lake[45]

35 It was already becoming evening on that day, so Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) told his apprentices, "Let's all go across to the other shore." 36 Then after sending the crowd away, they got into the boat with him, plus there were some other boats with them. 37 Out on the lake, a big storm came up with strong winds, and the waves started breaking across the boat and filling it with water. 38 However, Yeshua was asleep on a cushion in the back, so they woke him, calling out, "Teacher, don't you care that we're all about to drown?"

39 Now awake, Yeshua scolded the wind and waves, "Quieten down! Stop that!" Then the wind died down and the lake became very calm.
40 Turning back to them he asked, "Why were you all afraid? Don't you have any faith yet?"

41 But now they were very afraid again, and asked each other, "Who could this man be that both the wind and the waves obey him?"

Yeshua sends the demons into pigs[46]

5:1 So they got safely to the Gerasainon region on the other side of the lake. 2 As Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) climbed out of the boat, a demon-possessed man came out of the tombs to meet him. 3 He lived in those tombs, and no one could tie him up, not even with chains, 4 because he had often been tied up in the past with shackles and chains but had always pulled the chains apart and smashed the shackles, and no one was able to subdue him. 5 All through the day and night, whether in the tombs or up in the hills, he was yelling out and hurting himself with stones.

6 So when he had seen Yeshua in the distance, he ran and as a sign of honour fell to his knees on the ground in front of him. 7 Then he called out very loudly, "What will happen between us, Yeshua—the son of the highest God? I beg you in God's name not to torment me." 8 Because Yeshua had already started saying, "Come out of the man you ungodly spirit!"

9 Yeshua asked, "What's your name?"

The man answered, "My name is 'Thousands' because there's many of us," 10 and he begged Yeshua not to send them out of the country.

11 It just so happened that there was a large herd of pigs being fed near the hill, 12 and the demons begged Yeshua again saying, "Send us to the pigs so that we can enter them." 13 Yeshua agreed to that, so the ungodly spirits came out of the man, went into the pigs, and the entire herd of some two thousand pigs rushed down the steep bank into the lake and were drowned.

14 The ones who had been feeding them rushed off and spread the news around in the city and the surrounding area, So the people hurried out to see what had happened. 15 When they arrived where Yeshua was, they saw the man who had been demon-possessed, fully-clothed and sitting there in full control of his senses. They knew it was the man called 'Thousands' and they became frightened. 16 Those who had seen it all happen described it all to the people—what had happened both to the demon-possessed man and to the pigs.

17 So then the people began asking Yeshua to go away from their region.
18 As Yeshua was climbing back into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed wanted to go with him. 19 But Yeshua wouldn't let him and told him to head back home to his own people, and explain to them what the master had done for him, and how he had been merciful to him.
20 So he went away and shared with the people in the Ten Cities region what Yeshua had done for him, and they were all amazed.

A woman healed as Yeshua goes to help a dying girl[47]

21 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had crossed in the boat to the other side of the lake, a large crowd of people came out to the lake edge to see him. 22 Then unexpectedly, one of the religious leaders named Yair (Jairus) came out, and when he found Yeshua, he fell to his knees in front of him 23 and pleaded, "My young daughter is critical and just hanging on for you to come and touch her so that she'll be healed and live."
24 So Yeshua went off with Yair. The large crowd followed also, and many were getting pressed against Yeshua.
25 Then a woman came who had been losing blood for twelve years, 26 and who'd endured much under various doctors despite spending everything she had. After all that, she'd ended up even worse, 27 but when she heard about what Yeshua had been doing, she worked her way through the crowd to the back of Yeshua and touched his clothes, 28 because she had told herself, "If I could even just touch his clothes, I'd be healed."
29 Immediately the bleeding stopped, and she knew that she had been healed. 30 Immediately also, Yeshua knew that power had gone out of him, and he turned back towards the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothes?"
31 But his followers said, "You can see all the people that were pressing on you so why would you ask who touched you?"

who had done it 33 when the woman, scared and shaking because of what was happening, came and fell to her knees in front of Yeshua and told him the whole story. 34 "Daughter, your faith has healed you," Yeshua said. "Go in peace and full health."

35 While he was still speaking, messengers came from the religious leader's house to tell Yair (Jairus), "Your daughter has died. Why bother the teacher any more?"

36 But Yeshua overheard them telling that to the leader and told him, "Don't be afraid—just keep believing." 37 Yeshua didn't allow anyone to accompany him other than Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros), and Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and his brother, Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes). 38 As they approached Yair' house, Yeshua saw a big commotion ahead of them, with lots of wailing and crying going on. 39 As he entered, he said, "Why are you all crying in distress? The child hasn't died—she's just sleeping!"

40 But they just ridiculed Yeshua, so he sent them all outside, just taking the father and mother of the child, along with three with him. He went in where the girl was, 41 and taking her hand, he said, "Young woman, I tell you: get up!" 42 Immediately she got up and walked around, and everyone marvelled at the amazing thing that had happened. (She was twelve years old.) 43 Yeshua repeatedly told them to keep this to themselves, and added that they should give her something to eat.

Yeshua's community can't believe he's from God[48]

6:1 So Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) left Kafarnaoum (Capernaum) and went back with his followers to Nazaret (Nazareth) , his birthplace. 2 It was now the Rest Day and when he started teaching in the Jewish meeting hall, many who heard him were astonished, saying, "Where did that man learn all that? How could he have such wisdom and be able to do those miracles? 3 Isn't that the carpenter, the son of Maria (Mary; Heb. Miryam; Grk. Maria/Mariam), and the brother of Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and Yosef (Joseph) CHECK and Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas) and Shim'on (Simon)? Don't his sisters live around here?" And they were offended by his teaching.

4 Then Yeshua told them, "A prophet is only dishonoured in his own home town, and among his own relatives, and in his own home."[49]

5 He wasn't able to do even one miracle there, except for placing his hands on a few sick people and healing them. 6 He was amazed at how they wouldn't believe him as he went around the villages teaching.

Yeshua sends his apprentices out in pairs[50]

7 Then he called his twelve apprentices and started sending them out in pairs and giving them authority over demons. 8 He insisted that they can carry a walking stick, but not to take food, a backpack, or money. 9 They could wear one pair of sandals, but not take changes of clothes, 10 and he told them, "Whenever you're invited into a home, stay at that one place until you all leave that town. 11 But if any places don't want you or don't want to hear what you have to say, just leave that place. As you go, shake the dust off your sandals[51] so they can see that you pass the responsibility of your leaving, onto them."

12 So the apprentices went off and started telling people to repent. 13 In addition, they drove out many demons, and anointed many sick people with olive oil and healed them.[52]

The execution of Yohan-the-immerser[53]

14 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was now becoming well known and King Herodes (Herod) Antipas heard about him. He thought that maybe Yohan-the-immerser had come back to life and that's why Yeshua was able to do miracles.[54]

15 But others thought it was the promised return of Eliyah (Elijah), and yet others thought he must be another prophet like the ones in the Scriptures.

16 But hearing about Yeshua, Herodes was telling people, "That Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) who I had beheaded, he must have come back to life!" 17 Because Herodes himself had had Yohan arrested and put in prison because he had married Herodias, his brother Filippos's (Philip's) wife.[55] 18 Yohan had been telling the king that it was wrong for him to marry his brother's wife, 19 and so Herodias resented him enough to want to kill him, but Herodes hadn't be able to 20 because he respected Yohan as a righteous and holy teacher and so he kept him alive. He often enjoyed hearing from Yohan and thought a lot about what he said.

21 However, an opportunity came at Herodes's birthday celebration, when he threw a feast for his top officials and generals, and for the leaders in Galil. 22 The daughter of Herodias came in and danced for them, and the king and his party guests all enjoyed it. So the king said to the young woman, "Just ask me for anything and I'll give it to you." 23 Then he promised her, "Even if you asked for half of my kingdom, I'd give it to you!"

24 So she went out and asked her mother what she should ask for. Her mother told her that she should ask for Yohan's head.

25 So going back into the party, she said seriously to the king, "I would like the head of Yohan-the-immerser right now on a plate!"

26 The king was really upset with that, but because he'd made loud promises in front of all his guests, he couldn't say no. 27 So he ordered an executioner to go out and return with Yohan's head. He went off and beheaded him in the prison 28 and brought the head into the party on a plate and gave it to the girl, and she gave it to her mother. 29 When Yohan's followers heard about that, they came and fetched his body and put it into a tomb.

they reported back everything they had done and what they had been teaching people. 31 Then he told them to head to a quiet place with him to take a break. That was because there were so many people always coming and going, and sometimes they didn't even have a chance to eat. 32 So they went away by boat to a quiet place by themselves.

33 But people from towns all around had seen them going and recognised who they were, so they ran around the lake on foot and got there ahead of them. 34 So when Yeshua got out of the boat, he saw a big crowd and felt sorry for them because they seemed like sheep without a shepherd,[57] so he started teaching them many things. 35 Then, when it was already getting late, his apprentices came up and said, "This place is pretty isolated and it's already late. 36 Send these people off now so they can go to the nearby settlements and villages and buy themselves something to eat."

37 But Yeshua answered them, "You give them something to eat."

They complained, "If we go, should we buy several months wages worth of bread so we can give all of them something to eat?"

38 But he asked, "Go and find out how much bread you all have."

When they'd found out they said, "Five buns and two fish."

39 Yeshua told all the people to line up in rows and sit down on the green grass. 40 So they sat down in rows of fifty to a hundred. 41 Then holding the five buns and two fish, he looked up to the sky and blessed God, and then broke up the buns and gave pieces to his apprentices so they could do likewise to the people, and he also divided up the two fish, 42 and all the people ate and were satisfied. 43 Then they collected the leftover pieces of bread, filling twelve baskets, as well as the leftover pieces of fish. 44 The headcount of men who ate that evening was five thousand.

sent his apprentices off in the boat to go across to Beyt-Tsayda while he sent the crowd home. 46 Then he said goodbye to everyone, and climbed the hill to pray. 47 Later in the night, the boat was out in the middle of the lake, and only Yeshua remained back there on the land. 48 He saw them struggling to row against the wind, and some time after 3am he came out to them, walking on the lake surface as if to walk past them. 49 But they had seen someone walking on the lake and thought it was a ghost, and they yelled out 50 because they had all seen it and were terrified.

But Yeshua immediately spoke to them and told them, "Hey, take heart, it's me, don't be afraid!" 51 Then he climbed up into the boat and the wind died down. They were all totally astounded 52 because they hadn't understood the implications of him feeding all the people because their minds were closed.

Yeshua heals many people around Gennaisaret[59]

53 After completing their crossing, they anchored at Gennaisaret. 54 When they got out of the boat, again people recognised Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) 55 and ran around that region, so next minute people began bringing all of those who were sick, carrying them on pallets to wherever they heard that Yeshua was. 56 After that, whenever Yeshua entered villages or cities, or fields or marketplaces, they laid the sick down there and were imploring him that they might even just touch the edge of his robe, and anyone who did so was healed.

Yeshua suggests obeying God, not tradition[60]

7:1 Some from the Farisaios party and some of the law teachers had come from Yerushalem (Jerusalem) to observe Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) 2 and noticed that some of his followers were eating their food without following their religious customs, i.e., without washing their hands. 3 (The Farisaios and, in fact, all the Jewish religious leaders don't eat without first ceremonially washing their hands as taught by their elders over the generations. 4 They won't eat at the market if they can't do that first, and have many other regulations about ceremonial washing of cups and jugs and copper containers.)

5 Then the Farisaios and religious teachers asked Yeshua, "How come your followers don't respect our Jewish traditions, but eat without the ceremonial washing of hands?"

6 "Yeshayah (Isaiah) got it exactly right," he answered, "when he expressed God's thoughts about you hypocrites and wrote:

'These people honour me with their lips,
but their real desires are far away from me.
7 Their worship of me is worthless—teaching man-made rules as if they are from God.'[61]

8 You've ignored God's commands instead accepting human traditions.

'Honour your parents,'[62]
and
'Anyone dishonestly slandering their parents deserves the death penalty.'[63]

Evil comes from inside a person[64]

"Can't you see that anything from the outside that enters your body doesn't make you guilty in God's sight, 19 because it doesn't enter your mind but merely goes into your stomach and ends up in the toilet." (By saying this he clearly showed that it was ok for Yehudim (Jews) to eat any food.)

20 "It's what comes out of you that makes you guilty in God's eyes," he continued. 21-22 "That's because evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery, greed, wickedness, deceit, arrogance, lust, slander, pride, and foolishness all come from inside people's hearts and minds. 23 So it's the evil that's inside a person and comes out that makes them guilty in God's eyes."

The bold faith of a non-Jewish woman[65]

24 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) left that place and went up north into the regions of Tsor (Tyre) and Tsidon (Sidon). He tried to enter a house without being noticed but didn't succeed, 25 and straight away a woman who had heard about him turned up. She knelt in front of him because she had a young daughter who was demon-possessed. 26 The woman was Greek from Foinikai in Aram (Syria), and she begged Yeshua to command the demon to leave her daughter.

27 "Let the Jewish children be treated first," he told her, "because it's not good to take the children's food and give it to the household dogs."

28 "Yes, master," she responded, "but the puppies under the table do get to eat the little crumbs that the children drop."

29 "Ha, go home now" he answered, "As a result of how you just spoke, the demon has already left your daughter."

30 And when she got home, the demon had indeed gone and the young girl was lying quietly on her bed.

Yeshua heals a deaf man who couldn't speak

31 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) left the Tsor (Tyre) region, passed through Tsidon (Sidon), and came down the eastern side of Galil Lake to the Dekapolis region. 32 The people there brought a man to him who couldn't hear or speak, and asked Yeshua to heal him. 33 So Yeshua took the man back away from the crowd, put his fingers in the man's ears, then he spat and touched the man's tongue. 34 Looking up to the sky, he sighed and said, "Open up!"

35 Then the man could hear, and his tongue was released and he began to speak properly. 36 Then Yeshua advised that they shouldn't tell anyone, but the more he said that, the more they seemed to spread it around. 37 The crowds were totally amazed, saying, "He can do anything—he makes the deaf able to hear, and enables those who couldn't speak."

Yeshua feeds 4,000 people[66]

8:1 Another time there was a large crowd again with nothing to eat. Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) called his apprentices and told them, 2 "I feel sorry for all these people because they've already been with us for three days and haven't had anything to eat. 3 I can't send them home because they're too weak to walk, and some have a long way to go."

4 "Where could anyone find enough food out here in the wilderness?" his apprentices queried.

5 "How much bread have you all got?" he asked.

"Seven buns," they answered.

6 So Yeshua instructed the crowd to sit down on the ground. Then he took the seven buns, gave thanks and pulled them apart, giving pieces to his apprentices to then distribute to the crowd. 7 They also had a few small cooked fish, so he blessed them too and got them to distribute them as well. 8 After all the people had eaten and were full, they collected seven basketfuls of leftovers. 9 There were some four thousand people there that day, and Yeshua sent them home after they'd eaten. 10 Then he and his apprentices climbed into the boat and headed for the Dalmanoutha region.

and started arguing with him. They were checking him out and wanted to see him do a miracle.[68]
12 Yeshua grieved inside and asked, "Why do you people need to see a miracle before you'll believe me? Actually, no miracle will be done for this generation."[69]
13 So Yeshua left in the boat again and crossed to the other side of the lake.

The apprentices miss the significance of what's happening[70]

14 But Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') apprentices forgot to take any food other than one bun that someone in the boat had. 15 He told them, "Watch out for the yeast of the Farisaios[71] and of King Herodes (Herod)."
16 They asked each other what it meant—was it because they forgot food?
17 But Yeshua knew what they were saying and asked, "Why are you all discussing about not having food? Can't you figure it out? Or are your minds completely closed? 18 You all have eyes but can't seem to see and have ears but can't seem to listen.[72] Have you already forgotten what just happened? 19 When I broke up the five buns to feed five thousand people, how many basketfuls of leftovers did you collect?"
"Twelve," they answered.
20 "And when we fed four thousand with seven buns, how many full baskets of leftovers then?"
"Seven," they answered.
21 "So how can you all fail to understand what's going on right in front of you," Yeshua asked.

Yeshua heals a blind man near Beyt-Tsayda

22 As they entered Beyt-Tsayda, the people brought a blind man to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and asked him to touch him. 23 So Yeshua took the man's hand and led him out of the village. Then he spat in his eyes, placed his hands on him, and asked him, "Can you see anything?"

Yeshua asks who they think he is[73]

27 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and his apprentices moved around the various villages of Kaisareia-Filippi (Caesarea Philippi). On the way, he asked them, "Who does everyone think I am?"
28 "Some say Yohan-the-immerser," they said, "some say Eliyah (Elijah), and some say one of the prophets."[74]
29 "And what do you all think?" he asked.
"You are the promised one sent by God," Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) answered him.[75] 30 Then Yeshua warned them not to tell others about him.

Yeshua's radical challenge to his would-be followers[76]

31 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) began teaching his apprentices that the son of humanity would need to suffer a lot, to be rejected by the religious leaders, and so to be put to death but to come back to life after three days. 32 He taught this very clearly, but Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) took him aside and told him off. 33 Yeshua turned back and looked at the others, then reprimanded Kefa, "Stand back, Satan—you're applying human values instead of considering God's plan."
34 Calling out to them and to the crowd, he said, "Anyone who wants to follow me must first put aside their own desires and then follow me—even through very difficult times.[77] 35 Anyone who worries about saving their own life will lose it, but anyone who gives their life due to following me and my teaching will save their life.[78] 36 No, it

Mosheh and Eliyah speak with Yeshua[79]

2 Six days later, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) took Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), and just the four of them went up onto a high hill. Then he was transformed right in front of their eyes[80] 3 and his clothes turned incredibly shining white—whiter than any bleach could make them. 4 Then Eliyah (Elijah) and Mosheh (Moses) appeared beside Yeshua and started talking with him. 5 Kefa said to Yeshua, "Teacher, it's good that we're here. Maybe we could make three shelters up here: one for you, one for Mosheh, and one for Eliyah?" 6 He said that because they were terrified and didn't know what to say.
7 Then a cloud shadowed them from the sun, and a voice came out of the cloud saying, "This is my dear son. Listen to him."[81] 8 When they looked around, they couldn't see anyone else there anymore, except for Yeshua himself.
9 As they came down the hill again, Yeshua told them not to tell anyone what had happened up there until after the son of humanity had come back to life.

about coming back to life, 11 so they asked Yeshua, "Isn't it written that Eliyah will be the first to return?"[82]

12 "Yes," he answered, "Eliyah (Elijah) is indeed the one to come first to start the restoration. But isn't it also written that the son of humanity will be despised and will suffer a lot? 13 You see, Eliyah has come already, and they treated him just however they liked, just like it was written that it would happen."

Yeshua drives out a stubborn demon[83]

14 When they got back to his other followers, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) saw that they were surrounded by a large crowd and the religious teachers were debating with them. 15 The crowd were very surprised when they noticed Yeshua and came running to greet him. 16 He asked them, "What were you all arguing with them about?"

17 One of the people answered, "Teacher, I brought my son here—he has a demon that prevents him from speaking. 18 Whenever it takes hold of him, it attacks him and he starts foaming at the mouth and grating his teeth and his joints lock up. I tried to get your followers to command it to leave but they couldn't."

19 "You're a faithless generation," Yeshua replied. "How much longer will I have to be here? How much longer can I tolerate you all? Bring him here." 20 So they brought the boy to him. When he saw Yeshua, the demon immediately caused him to have convulsions and fall on the ground—rolling over and foaming at the mouth.

21 Yeshua asked the boy's father, "How long has this been happening for?"

"Since he was small," he replied, 22 "and often it throws him into the fire or into water to try to destroy him. But if can do anything and you feel sorry for us, please help us."

23 Yeshua asked him, "If I can? A person who believes can do anything."

24 The boy's father cried out, "I do believe—help me to fight unbelief."

26 There was yelling and strong convulsions, and then the demon left him and the boy lay still as if dead, and many people thought he was. 27 However Yeshua took his hand and lifted it, and the boy got up.

28 When Yeshua and his apprentices had gone into the house by themselves, they asked him, "How come we couldn't drive it out?"

29 "That kind will only leave after prayer and fasting," he replied.

Yeshua talks again about being executed[84]

30 Then they left that place and were moving around Galil, because Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) didn't want people to know where he was 31 while he was teaching his apprentices. He told them, "The son of humanity will be arrested and executed, but after three days he'll come back to life."

32 But they didn't know what that meant, and they were too scared to ask him.

How to be the best[85]

33 Then they went to Kafarnaoum (Capernaum) and when they arrived at the house, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) asked them what they were discussing on the way.

34 But they didn't reply because while they were walking, they'd been talking about which of them is the best.[86] 35 So Yeshua sat down and called the twelve of them and explained, "Anyone who wants to be at the top, has to be at the bottom and help all the others."[87] 36 Then Yeshua called a young boy and stood him in the middle of them, and giving him a hug said, 37 "Anyone who welcomes young children on my behalf, welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me is not actually welcoming me, but welcoming the one who sent me here."[88]

Others are also serving Yeshua[89]

38 Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) checked with Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), "Teacher, we saw someone using your authority to command demons to leave, but we told him off because he wasn't one of us."

39 Yeshua responded, "No, don't stop him, because anyone who does a miracle using my name won't just quickly turn around and slander me. 40 Yes, anyone who's not against us is for us.[90] 41 Anyone who gives you water to drink because you're followers of God's chosen one and who does it because they're working for me, I can assure you that they'll receive their reward.[91]

Difficult teachings about disobedience[92]

42 "But anyone who causes a young person to falter from their trust in me, it would be better if they were thrown into the sea with a heavy weight tied around their neck. 43 If your hand causes you to disobey God, cut it off—it's better to enter eternal life being maimed, than to have two hands but to be thrown into the fire that never goes out.[93] 44 ◘ 45 And if your foot causes you to disobey God, cut it off—it's better to enter eternal life being maimed, than to have two feet but to be thrown into hell. 46 ◘ 47 And if your eye causes you to disobey God, gouge it out—it's better to enter God's kingdom one-eyed, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell[94] 48 where the worms never die and the fire never goes out.

49 "Everyone will be salted with fire.

50 "Now salt is good, but if it were to go bad, what would you season your food with then?[95] So keep yourselves like salt, and strive to get on well with each other."

It's God that joins husband and wife[96]

10:1 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) left Kafarnaoum (Capernaum) and went down to the Yehudah (Judea) area and across the Yarden (Jordan) river. Again the crowds followed him, and he taught them just like he usually did.

2 Some from the Farisaios party approached Yeshua to check him out and asked, "Does the law allow a husband to dismiss his wife?"

3 "Well, what law did Mosheh (Moses) give to you all?" he asked.

4 They answered, "Mosheh said that a husband is allowed to write a statement of divorce and dismiss his wife with it."[97]

5 "Yes, he wrote that law," Yeshua responded, "because he saw your stubborn desires, 6 but God made both men and women right at the beginning.[98] 7 As a result, a man leaves his parents and joins together with his wife[99] 8 and the couple become a single unit. So there's no longer two of them, but only one. 9 So if it's God who joins them together like that, no person has the authority to separate them."

10 Back in the house again, his apprentices asked about that, 11 and Yeshua told them, "Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another person, commits adultery towards his wife."[100] 12 And likewise, if the wife divorces her husband and marries another person, she's committing adultery towards her husband."

Yeshua encourages childlike faith[101]

13 The people were bringing small children for Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) to touch, but his apprentices scolded them. 14 However, Yeshua noticed it and was upset, "Just let those kids come. Don't prevent them, because God's kingdom consists of people like them. 15 Actually, you can't even enter God's kingdom unless you accept it just like a small child does."[102] 16 So he continued hugging the children and commanding a good life for them as he placed his hands on each one.

Leaving everything behind to be saved[103]

17 One time when Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was starting out on a trip, a man caught up to him and kneeling down in front of him asked, "Good teacher, what do I have to do to inherit eternal life?"

18 "Why do you call me good?" he asked. "No person is good—only God is. 19 You know God's instructions: don't murder,[104] don't commit adultery,[105] don't steal,[106] don't lie in court,[107] don't defraud others, and honour your parents."[108]

20 "Teacher, I've kept all of those since I was young," the man responded.

21 Yeshua looked up at him with genuine love and said, "There's one thing still to be done: sell everything you have and give the money to the poor—then you'll have wealth in heaven. After that, come and follow me." 22 But the man grew very sad when he heard that, and he went away upset because he owned many properties.

23 Yeshua looked around and told his followers, "It's so difficult for wealthy people to enter God's kingdom."

24 (His followers were a bit stunned at his teaching.) Yeshua continued, "Yes, it's certainly difficult to enter into God's kingdom. 25 It's easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter God's kingdom."

26 Now they were totally stunned, asking, "How can anyone possibly be saved then?"

27 Yeshua looked intently at them, "Yes, humanly it's quite impossible. But with God it's different—God can do anything!"

28 Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) said, "Well, we left everything and came and followed you."

29 "Yes, I can assure you all," Yeshua answered, "that anyone who left their home or farm, and left their siblings or parents or children because of me and my teaching, 30 they'll be rewarded one hundred times over with homes and farms and siblings and parents and children along with times of persecution, but gaining eternal life in the next era. 31 But many at the top now will be at the bottom then, and many at the bottom now will be blessed then."[109]

Yeshua's third prediction about his execution[110]

32 They were heading south on their way to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) with Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) in front, and his followers were a bit surprised and a bit scared. Yeshua took the twelve aside, and started telling them what was going to happen to him, 33 "We're on our way down to Yerushalem and the son of humanity will be turned over to the chief priests and the religious teachers, and they'll sentence him to be executed and hand him over to the non-Jews. 34 Then they'll ridicule him and spit on him before they beat him and execute him, but he'll come back to life again in three days time."

How to become respected in God's kingdom[111]

35 Then Zavday's (Grk. Zebedaios') two sons, Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), approached Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and asked, "Teacher, we'd like to ask a favour from you—please don't disappoint us."

36 "What do you want from me?" Yeshua asked.

37 They answered, "Allow us two to sit beside you in heaven—one of us on each side of you."

38 "You don't even understand what you're asking for," Yeshua replied. "Do you think you could endure the suffering that I have to go through? Or to be enveloped in the darkness that I have to go down into?"[112]

39 "Sure we can," they replied.

"And indeed you all will suffer like me and be enveloped in darkness like I will be," responded Yeshua, 40 "but as for deciding who will sit next to me, that's not my decision to make because it's already been decided."

41 When the ten other apprentices heard what those two had asked for, they were upset at Ya'akov (Jacob) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes). 42 But Yeshua called them over, "Listen, in most countries their rulers boss the people around and their leaders exert their authority over them.[113] 43 But it doesn't work like that with you—anyone of you who wants to be honoured must serve the others,[114] 44 and anyone who wants to become the most respected has to work like a slave does. 45 Even the son of humanity didn't come to be served, but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom to set many people free."

Blind Bar-Timaios gets his miracle[115]

46 They arrived at Yeriho (Jericho), and then when Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and his apprentices were leaving again with a large crowd following, they came across blind Bar-Timaios (Grk. Bartimaios) (Timaios' son) sitting beside the path begging. 47 When he heard that it was Yeshua from Nazaret going past, he yelled out, "Yeshua, promised descendant of David, help me please."

48 When several people told him to stop, he just yelled out even louder, "Yeshua, promised descendant of David, please help me."

49 Then Yeshua stopped and got the people to call the blind man. So they called him, "Hey, be confident! Get up and come because he's called for you."

50 So Bar-Timaios threw off his jacket, jumped up, and was led to Yeshua.

51 "Now, what do you want me to do for you?" Yeshua asked.

"My teacher, I'd like to be able to see," Bar-Timaios replied.

52 "Okay, off you go then," Yeshua responded. "Your faith has saved you."

Immediately Bar-Timaios was able to see, and followed along the path after Yeshua.

Yeshua is treated like a king entering Yerushalem[116]

11:1 As they got close to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and were passing Beyt-Fagey (Bethphage) and Beyt-Ania (Bethany) on the Mt. of Olives, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) sent two of his apprentices ahead. 2 telling them, "Go on to the next village and as you enter it, you'll see a young donkey that hasn't ever been ridden yet. Untie it and bring it back here. 3 If anyone asks what you're doing, tell them that the master needs it and he'll return it later."

4 So they went ahead and found a donkey tied up on the path just outside the door of a house, and so they went to untie it. 5 But some of the people standing around there said, "Hoy! What do you think you're doing untying that donkey?"

6 So they responded just as Yeshua had told them, and the people allowed them to proceed. 7 They brought the young donkey to Yeshua, placing their coats over it before Yeshua mounted it. 8 As Yeshua rode it into Yerushalem, many people laid their coats on the road, while others lay down leafy branches cut from trees in nearby fields. 9 Some went ahead and others came along behind, shouting, "This is the saviour who comes with the authority and blessing from Yahweh[117]— 10 the promised ancestor of King David who is blessed as he ushers in his kingdom—the blessed saviour from heaven."

11 And so Yeshua arrived in Yerushalem and went into the temple and looked all around, but because it was now evening, he went back out to Beyt-Ania (Bethany) village (Bethany) with his twelve apprentices.

Yeshua curses a fig tree[118]

12 The next day after they'd left Beyt-Ania (Bethany) village (Bethany), Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was hungry. 13 From a distance he noticed a fig tree that was in leaf so he went over to see if there was any fruit on it, but when he reached it there was only leaves because it wasn't the right season for figs. 14 So he spoke to the tree, "No one in this age will ever eat fruit from you again." (His followers heard him say that.)

Yeshua upsets the traders inside the temple[119]

15 Then they came back into Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and on into the temple where Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) started driving out the sellers and the buyers that were trading in there. Then he tipped over the money-changers' tables and the chairs of the ones selling doves, 16 and stopped others from carrying goods through the temple. 17 He taught them, "Isn't it written in the Scriptures,

'My house will be known as a prayer house for all the nations to use'?[120]
But all of you have turned it into a sanctuary for swindlers."[121]

18 When the chief priests and the religious teachers heard that, they started looking for a way that they could destroy him, because they were afraid of him and the way that the whole crowd marvelled at his teaching.

19 Every evening, Yeshua and his apprentices would go out of the city to stay overnight.

Yeshua gives a lesson on moving mountains[122]

20 As they entered the city again in the morning, Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') apprentices noticed that the fig tree was totally dead. 21 Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) remembered what he had said to the tree, and commented, "Teacher, that fig tree that you cursed has withered up."

22 "Use your faith in God, Yeshua responded. 23 I can assure you all that if anyone tells a mountain to go away into the sea, and doesn't doubt in their mind but believes that what they're saying will happen, then it will.[123] 24 So I tell you all that anything you ask God for in your prayers, if you believe that you have received it, then you will. 25 All of you, whenever you're standing praying, if you

The leaders question Yeshua's authority[125]

26 ◘ 27 They continued on into Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and on to the temple where they were met by the chief priests and the religious teachers and the elders. 28 They asked Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), "Did you have any authority to do what you did? If so, who gave it to you?"

29 "Okay, I'll also ask you something," Yeshua replied, and when you all answer me, I'll tell you about my authority to do that: 30 When Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) preached and immersed people, did the authority for that come from heaven or from people here?"

31 They discussed that among themselves, reasoning, "If we say it was from heaven, he'll ask us why we didn't believe him then. 32 But we can't say that it was just from people." (They said that because they were scared of the crowds, knowing that they believed that Yohan really was a prophet.) 33 So they answered, "We don't know."

"Well then," Yeshua responded, "I won't tell you about my authority to do those things either."

The parable about the tenants killing the owner's son[126]

12:1 Then he started telling them some parables: "A man planted a vineyard and put a fence around it, dug out a wine-pressing pit, and built a security tower.[127] Then he rented it out and went off travelling. 2 At harvest time, he sent a slave to go to the tenant farmers and get his percentage of the harvest. 3 But the tenants grabbed the slave and beat him up, then sent him back empty-handed. 4 The owner sent a second slave, but they insulted that one and struck him on the head. 5 So the owner sent a third slave and they murdered him. He sent many other slaves—some they just beat up and others they murdered. 6 But the owner still had his one, dearly loved son, so finally he sent him to go, thinking that they would now be convinced because it was his son. 7 However, those tenant farmers said to each other, 'Ah ha. This is the one who will inherit this land. If we kill him, we'll be the ones to control the estate.' 8 So they took him and killed him, and threw the body outside the vineyard fence.

9 "Now, what do you think the vineyard owner will do? Yes, he'll come and eliminate those evil tenants, and give the contract to others.
10 Haven't you all read this in the scriptures:
'the stone that the builders rejected became the important cornerstone 11 that was given by Yahweh, and we think it's incredible.'?"[128]

12 Then those leaders tried to arrest him because they knew that it was them that the parable was addressed at, but they couldn't do it because Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had the favour of the crowd, so they just left the area.

Yeshua answers about paying taxes[129]

13 Then the religious leaders sent some members of the Farisaios party and some of the political supporters of King Herodes (Herod) to try to catch Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) out. 14 So they flattered him, "Teacher, we know that you are honest even if it upsets others, and that you teach the truth about God without caring about people's opinions. Is it right for us Yehudim (Jews) to pay the poll tax to the Romaios emperor or not? How should we handle this?"

15 However, knowing their hypocrisy, Yeshua responded to them, "Why are all of you trying to test me? Bring me a coin so I can see it."

16 When they brought him a coin, he asked, "Whose image and inscription are on this coin?"

"The emperor's," they answered.

17 "Well then," said Yeshua, "give the emperor whatever is due him, but give God what is owed to God."

After that, they had to admit that that was an outstanding answer.

Yeshua explains that those who've died are alive[130]

18 Another time, members of the Saddoukaios (Sadducee) sect (which says that there's no resurrection),[131] came to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and asked, 19 "Teacher, Mosheh (Moses) wrote that if a man's married brother should die before his wife without having any children, then his brother should marry her to produce descendants in his brother's name.[132] 20 Now what if there were seven brothers and the first one got married and died childless. 21 So then the second brother took her in, but again died childless, and then too the third. 22 Eventually all seven brothers died childless, and finally the woman also died. 23 Now, at the resurrection of the dead, which brother will she be the wife of, because at some point, she was married to each of the seven of them?"

24 "Actually you're all quite wrong," Yeshua answered, "because you ignore the scriptures and also because you haven't experienced God's power. 25 When the dead do come back to life, they won't be getting engaged or married, but will be like the messengers in the heavens. 26 But as for the state of those who've died, didn't you all read in the scriptures about Mosheh when God spoke to him in front of the burning thorn bush and said, 'I am the god of Avraham and the god of Yitshak (Isaac) and the god of Ya'akov' (Jacob)?[133] 27 So God is not the god of the dead, but of the living. You Saddoukaios (Sadducees) are very wrong!"

32 The teacher replied to Yeshua, "Yes, teacher, you're quite right saying there's only one God and no other,[137] 33 and saying that we should love him with all our heart and all our intelligence and all our strength, and to be loving our neighbours like we look after ourselves, and all this is more important than all the required temple offerings and sacrifices."[138]

34 When Yeshua saw that he'd given such a thoughtful answer, he said, "You're very close to God's kingdom!"[139]

After that, no one else dared to ask Yeshua any more questions.

Yeshua asks about the messiah being David's descendant[140]

35 Later when Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was teaching in the temple, he asked the people, "How is it that the teachers here say that the messiah is a descendant of King David? 36 Because David himself said under the inspiration of the holy spirit,

'Yahweh told my master,
"Sit there in the position of honour

A widow's sacrificial donation[143]

41 As he sat down in front of the temple treasury, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) watched the crowd as they threw coins into the dish, and some rich people were donating quite valuable silver coins. 42 Then an impoverished widow came and threw in two small copper coins. 43 Yeshua called his followers and told them, "Honestly, that hard-up widow gave more than all the others. 44 You see, most people donate from their excess wealth, but this woman even gave some of the small amount that she needed to live on."

Yeshua predicts the temple's total destruction[144]

13:1 As they were leaving the temple area, one of Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') followers noted, "Teacher, look at those large, chiselled stones and those beautiful buildings that they've been made into."

2 "Yes, incredible buildings," Yeshua responded, "but the time will come when they're torn down—not a single piece of stone will be left sitting in its place."

Yeshua talks about coming hardships[145]

3 Later when they were over on the Mt. of Olives overlooking the temple, Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) and Andreas were with Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and asked 4 when all that destruction would happen, and what indications there would be that it would be about to happen.

others. 7 Also, whenever you all hear about wars or about battles about to begin, don't be worried—those things will certainly happen, but there's more to follow. 8 Countries will take up arms against other countries, and kingdoms against other kingdoms. There'll be earthquakes in many places and there'll be famines, but those will be just like the beginning of birth pains.

However, you'll be able to present your life stories to them[146] 10 and it's right that the good message first[147] be proclaimed to every people group. 11 But whenever they take you all along to hand you over, don't worry in advance about what you're going to say to defend yourselves, but wait until the hearing proceeds and speak what you are given then, because then it won't be you speaking, but God's spirit. 12 In those times, a brother will report on his brother to have him executed, and a father report on his child, and children will be encouraged to report on their own parents and then they'll be executed as a result. 13 Then every one will hate you all because they hate my name, but anyone who endures to the end will be saved.[148]

Yeshua warns about coming horror and deceptions[149]

14 "But whenever you all see the most horrible thing that drives people from God, standing where it shouldn't be[150] (and you readers should understand that), then anyone in Yehudah (Judea) should flee into the hills, 15 and anyone upstairs looking outside shouldn't come down into the bedrooms to get anything,[151] 16 and anyone working outside shouldn't go back inside to get a change of clothes. 17 It will be extremely difficult for pregnant women and for mothers who are breast-feeding their children in those days.

Readers' Version

18 Just pray that it won't happen in the winter, 19 because those days will be terrible like nothing that's ever happened before, all the way back to when God created the world, right until the present time, and won't ever happen again.[152] 20 If Yahweh hadn't shortened that time, no humans would even survive, but he shortened that time so that the chosen ones could be saved.

21 So don't believe it if you all hear someone say, 'Look, the messiah has arrived here.' or 'There's the one that God has sent.' 22 Plenty of fake messiahs and deceiving prophets will certainly come and even do things that humans can't normally do, so much so that even the chosen ones would defect if that were possible. 23 So watch out, but I've warned you in advance about all of that.

The universe collapses as the son arrives[153]

24 "After those very difficult times, the sun will go dark[154] and the moon won't shine at night.[155] 25 The stars will fall down out of the sky[156] and the powers in the heavens will be shaken up.[157] 26 Then the people will see the son of humanity in the clouds coming with incredible power and brightness.[158] 27 He'll send the messengers out to collect all the chosen people from the four corners of the world—from everywhere between the earth and the sky.

Watch out for the change in season[159]

28 "So learn a lesson from fig trees—whenever the branches green up and start sprouting leaves, then everyone knows that summer is close. 29 So too whenever you see all those things happening, you know that the end of this current world is close. 30 I can assure you all that the generation of people who see those things won't die off before those latter things happen. 31 The sky and the planet might collapse, but my teachings will never become irrelevant.

Stay alert for the coming of the master[160]

32 "But as for the date or time when all that will happen, only the father knows that—even the son and the messengers in heaven don't know.[161] 33 So watch out, observe current events, and be praying, because you won't know exactly when all this will happen. 34 It can all be compared to a man who was about to leave his home and go on a trip. Before he leaves, he gives certain jobs and responsibilities to his various slaves, and instructs his security guard to stay alert.[162] 35 So you all watch and stay alert, because you don't know when the master of the house might return—perhaps one evening or at midnight, or at dawn or maybe mid-morning. 36 You certainly don't want to be caught napping when he comes, 37 and what I'm telling all of you now, I tell everyone: stay alert and watch."

The leaders plan to eliminate Yeshua[163]

14:1 Now it was two days before the Passover Feast and the Flat Bread Celebration,[164] and the chief priests and the religious teachers were trying to figure out how they could have Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) set up so they could arrest him and have him executed, 2 but they knew that the Feast wouldn't be a good time because the people would protest in Yeshua's favour.

Breaking open the sealed flask, she poured the fragrant oil over Yeshua's head.[166] 4 Immediately some in the room started quietly grumbling about the extravagant waste, 5 then they scolded the woman because a flask of

Yehudah offers to hand Yeshua over[168]

10 Then Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas) Iskariot, one of Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yeshua's apprentices prepare the Passover meal[169]

12 On the first day of the Flat Bread Celebration when the lambs would be slaughtered ready for the special Passover meal, Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') apprentices asked him, "Where do you want us to get everything ready for our Passover meal?"

13 So Yeshua sent off two of them with these instructions, "Go into town and a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you there. Just follow him 14 until he goes into a house. Then find the owner of the house and tell him that the teacher wants to know the location of the guestroom where he and his apprentices can celebrate their Passover meal. 15 He'll show you a large, furnished room upstairs—that's where you can get everything ready."

16 So the two of them went off into the town, and everything happened there exactly as Yeshua had told them, and so they prepared the special meal there.

Yeshua shocks his apprentices at the Passover meal[170]

17 As the evening approached, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went in for dinner with his twelve apprentices. 18 As they were sitting around eating, he told them, "I'll tell you frankly that one of you eating with me here will hand me over to be arrested."[171] 19 That upset them, and several of them individually asked, "Surely it couldn't be me?"

20 Then he continued, "It's one of you twelve—the one who dips his bread in the sauce at the same time as me. 21 Indeed it's written in the scriptures that the son of humanity will be arrested, but on the other hand, what a tragedy it'll be for the one who hands him over—in fact it would be better for that man if he was never born."

22 As they carried on eating, he took some bread, blessed God, broke it apart and gave a piece to them, saying, "Take this bread—it's my body."

23 Then he picked up a cup, gave thanks to God, and passed it around so they could each drink from it, 24 saying, "That is the blood of my contract[172] that will be poured out for many people.[173] 25 I can assure you all that I won't drink anything made from grapes until I drink new juice in God's kingdom."

26 Then after they'd sung some songs, they left the town and went across to the Mt. of Olives.

Yeshua predicts Peters denials[174]

27 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) continued his teaching, "All of you will stumble because it's written in the scriptures: 'I'll strike down the shepherd and the sheep will get scattered.'[175] 28 But after I come back to life, I'll go on ahead of you all back to Galil."[176]

29 But Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) contradicted him, "Even if everyone else stumbles, I won't!"

30 "I can assure you," Yeshua responded, "that you'll renounce me three times this very night, before the rooster crows early tomorrow morning."

And all the others said similar things.

Yeshua, in distress, prays at Gethsaimanai[177]

32 They walked along until they came to a piece of land called Gethsaimanai where Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) told his apprentices to sit down while he prayed. 33 He took Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) further in with him where he stared off in a daze but was obviously very distressed. 34 He told the three of them, "My soul is deathly sad! You guys just stay here and keep alert."

35 He went ahead a little way, where he knelt on the ground with his head down and prayed—asking if it was possible to avoid what was ahead of him. 36 But he said, "Father, I know that you can do anything. Let me avoid this suffering, but yes I do know, it doesn't matter what I want but rather what you've planned."

37 Then he went back and found the others sleeping. "Shim'on (Simon), are you asleep?" he asked Kefa. "Couldn't you stay awake even for a single hour? 38 You all need to stay alert and be careful not to give into temptation. I know your spirits are enthusiastic on one hand, but it's still easy to give in to the moment."

39 Then he went further in again and prayed as before, 40 but when he returned again, he found them all asleep because they were tired, but they couldn't really find any excuse to give.

41 The third time that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) returned, he said to them, "Ah, you're all sleeping again and having a good rest. It's well-earned but look, the time has come for the son of humanity to be handed over to evil men. 42 Come on—get up—we need to go! Look, the one who'll hand me over is almost here."

Yeshua is arrested in the night[178]

43 Even while Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was still speaking, Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas) (one of his twelve apprentices) reached him, followed by a crowd that included some of the chief priests, the religious teachers, and the Jewish elders—many armed with swords and clubs. 44 Yehudah had prearranged a signal with them that the one he greeted with a kiss, they should grab that person and lead him away under guard.

45 So he walked right up to Yeshua and said, "My honoured teacher," and greeted him with a kiss. 46 Then the others with him grabbed Yeshua and secured him. 47 But one of the ones with Yeshua that was beside him, drew his sword and struck one of the chief priest's slaves—cutting off the man's ear. 48 Yeshua spoke to the crowd, "Did you all bring swords and clubs to try to capture me like you'd chase down a thief? 49 I was teaching there in the temple every day[179] and you could have arrested me, but it's happened this way to ensure that what's written in scriptures will be fulfilled."

50 Meanwhile, the others who'd been with Yeshua had taken off. 51 One young fellow was wearing a single linen robe, and when the crowd tried to grab him, 52 it came off in the struggle and he ran away stark naked.

The mock trial where Yeshua is sentenced to death[180]

53 The guards led Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) away to the chief priest's residence, and all the chief priests and the elders and the religious teachers gathered there also. 54 Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) followed along from a distance and went in as far as the courtyard of that residence, where he joined the servants who were sitting around the fire keeping warm. 55 Inside, the chief priests and all the council were trying to establish a case against Yeshua so he could be sentenced to death, but they weren't coming up with anything. 56 Several people were making up charges against him, but none of the accusers' stories agreed with each other.

57 Eventually some of them stood up and offered this false charge: 58 "We heard him say that he would demolish this temple made by many labourers, and within three days he'd build another one without any helpers."[181] 59 But even then, they couldn't get their accusations to align with each other.

60 Nevertheless, the chief priest in the middle of the council stood up and asked Yeshua, "Aren't you going to defend yourself? These men are accusing you of those things."

61 But Yeshua didn't say anything, so the chief priest asked again, "Is it true that you're the chosen one that God promised to send—the son of the blessed God?"

62 "I am." Yeshua replied, "and you'll all see the son of humanity sitting in the honoured position by the powerful God and coming through the clouds in the sky."[182]

63 Then the chief priest tore his own robe to show his disgust and shouted, "We certainly don't need any more witnesses now! 64 You yourselves all heard him insult God. What sentence does that deserve?"

So the leaders there agreed that Yeshua needed to be sentenced to death.[183]

65 Then various people started spitting on him, and blindfolding him and beating him saying, "Ha, tell us who that was!" Even the servants joined in to slap him.

Kefa disowns Yeshua[184]

66 Meanwhile, Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) was down in the courtyard when one of the chief priest's servant girls came outside, 67 and seeing Kefa warming himself, she looked more closely and said, "Hey, you were with that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) from Nazaret (Nazareth)!"

68 But he denied it, "I don't know him and I don't know why you think I would!" Then he moved away from the fire.

69 But the girl that had seen him said to some of the others standing around, "That guy's one of them."

70 But again Kefa denied it.

A little while later, some of those standing there said the same thing to him, "You must be one of them because you're from Galil."

71 Now Kefa started swearing and cursing and said, "I've never even met that fellow that you're all talking about!"

72 Right then the rooster crowed for the second time and Kefa remembered now what Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had told him—how he would renounce Yeshua three times before the rooster crowed—and he broke down and cried.

Pilatos tries to interrogate Yeshua[185]

15:1 First thing in the morning, the chief priests called a meeting with the elders and the religious teachers and all the council, and they ordered that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) be tied up and taken over to Governor Pilatos (Pilate). 2 There Pilatos asked him, "Are you the king of the Yehudim (Jews)?"

"You said it," replied Yeshua.

3 Then the chief priests started hurling accusations against Yeshua, 4 so Pilatos asked him again, "Don't you have anything to say? Listen to all those accusations they're making against you."

5 But Pilatos was astounded that Yeshua didn't answer any further.

Pilatos agrees to execute an innocent man[186]

6 Now at time of the Jewish Passover, at their request, Pilatos (Pilate) would normally pardon one prisoner for them. 7 There was another prisoner at that time named Bar-Aba (Grk. Barabbas), who was an activist arrested for murder. 8 By now the crowd had arrived, and asked Pilatos to release a prisoner as usual at Passover, 9 so he asked them, "Do you all want me to release the King of the Yehudim (Jews) for you?" 10 (That was because Pilatos was well aware that the chief priests had brought Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. larity.) 11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to start saying that it was Bar-Aba that they wanted released, 12 so Pilatos asked again, "Then what should I do with this man that you call the King of the Yehudim?"

13 The crowd yelled back, "Execute him on a post."

14 "What has he even done wrong?" Pilatos demanded.

But they just yelled louder, "Execute him on a post!"

15 Now Pilatos wanted to placate the crowd, so he had Bar-Aba released while he had Yeshua flogged and then handed over to the execution squad.

The battalion plays with their mock 'king'[187]

16 So the soldiers led Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) inside the palace that was the governor's residence, and called in the rest of the battalion. 17 They mocked Yeshua by dressing him in a kingly robe, and after someone twisted some thorns together into a mock crown, they pressed it onto his head, 18 and began saluting him, "Greetings, king of the Yehudim (Jews)." 19 They took turns whacking his head with a stick and spitting on him, while others knelt down in front of him and pretended to be bowing to him. 20 After they'd finished having fun mocking him, they took the purple robe off him, and put his own robe back on him. Then they led him outside towards the execution area.

Yeshua is publicly executed beside thieves[188]

21 As they walked out of the city, they came across a man coming in from the country. He was Shim'on (Simon) from Kurainai (Cyrene) (Kurainai—the father of Alexandros (Alexander) and Rufos),[189] and the soldiers forced him to carry the execution post, 22 and so they all arrived at Golgotha (which means 'Place of the skull'). 23 There the soldiers went to give some spiced wine to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), but he declined it. 24 So they carried out the execution, taking Yeshua's clothes and drawing straws to see who would get what.[190] 25 By now it was around 9am, and they affixed Yeshua to the post. 26 The charge had been written out and attached at the top: "The king of the Yehudim (Jews)." 27 That morning, two thieves were also executed there—one on each side of Yeshua.

28 ◘ 29 As people passed by on that path, they insulted Yeshua, shaking their heads[191] and shouting, "Hoy there! You who reckoned you could demolish the temple and rebuild it in three days,[192] 30 come down from that post and save yourself."

31 Similarly the chief priests and the religious teachers laughed together and mocked, "He did miracles for others, but he can't even save himself. 32 Now if that so-called 'chosen one' or 'king of Yisrael' (Israel) would just come down from there, then we'd be able to believe him."

Even the other two being executed with him were deriding him.

Yeshua breathes his last[193]

33 At noon, it got dark everywhere, until around 3pm, 34 when Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) shouted loudly, "My god, my god, why have you abandoned me?"[194]

35 Some of the people standing nearby thought he was calling the prophet Eliyah (Elijah). 36 One of them ran, and soaked a sponge in some sour wine, then put it on a stick and held it up for Yeshua to drink,[195] saying, "Hang on. Let's see if Eliyah does come to get him down."

37 But just then, Yeshua uttered a loud cry and exhaled his last breath.

38 (Back in the temple, the curtain tore down the middle from the top to the bottom.)[196] 39 When Yeshua died, the Romaios commander who had been standing back watching everything said, "That man was definitely God's son."

40 Further back, there was also a group of women observing everything. They included Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) from Magdala, Miryam the mother of young Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and Yoseh, and Salome,[197] 41 and others who had followed Yeshua around Galil and helped look after him, along with many others who had come down to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) with him.

Yosef boldly lays the body in a burial chamber[198]

42 As evening came, it was now the Preparation Day, i.e., the day before the Rest Day. 43 Yosef (Joseph) (who'd come from Arimathaia city and one who was waiting for the coming of God's kingdom), a prominent council member, steeled himself up and went in to see the governor to get permission to transfer Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') body. 44 Governor Pilatos (Pilate) didn't think he'd be dead yet, so he called an army commander to find out if Yeshua had indeed died. 45 As soon as he found out, he gave Yosef permission, 46 so Yosef and his companions went and bought some linen burial cloth and then, removing Yeshua's body from the post, wrapped it in the cloth and placed it in a burial chamber that had been chiselled into a rockface. Then they rolled a rock across the opening. 47 Others were watching and noted where the body had been laid, including Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) from Magdala and Miryam who was Yoseh' mother.

The massive shock at the burial chamber[199]

16:1 After the Rest Day was over, Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) from Magdala, Miryam the mother of Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos), and Salome, all went and bought some traditional burial spices that evening to take to the burial chamber and place with the body. 2 Then very early on Sunday morning they went to the chamber, arriving just as the sun was rising. 3 Then they realised that they didn't have anyone with them to roll the rock away that was covering the entrance. 4 However when they looked, they saw that the very large rock had already been rolled away, 5 so they went on into the burial chamber and were totally stunned to find a young man dressed in white, sitting in there at the side.

6 He assured them, "Don't be surprised. I know you're looking for Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) from Nazaret (Nazareth), the one who was executed on a post. But see there where his body was—he's not there, because he came back to life. 7 So you three should go and tell his apprentices, and Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) in particular, that he's going to go up ahead of you all to Galil and you'll see him up there, just as he already told you all."[200]

8 So they left the chamber and took off running, still stunned and shaking, and too scared to stop and talk to anyone.

The others don't believe that Miryam saw Yeshua[201]

9 After coming back to life early on Sunday morning, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) appeared first to Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) from Magdala. (She was the one that he had once commanded seven demons to leave.) 10 After leaving him, she went and told his followers who were mourning and weeping at his loss. 11 But when she told them that he is alive again and that she'd seen him, they simply didn't believe her.

Yeshua appears to two of his followers[202]

12 Later on, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) appeared in a different form to two of his followers on the path as they left Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and headed out to the countryside, 13 but when they hurried back and told the others, no one believed them.

Yeshua appears to his apprentices and instructs them[203]

14 Later again when the eleven apprentices were sitting around eating, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) appeared in the room and scolded them for not believing and for being so stubborn when they hadn't believed others who had told them that he'd come back from the dead. 15 Then he instructed them, "Travel around all the world and tell everyone the good message.[204]

Readers' Version

16 Anyone who believes and gets immersed in water will be saved, however, those who refuse to believe will be condemned to death. 17 Those who believe will be able to do miracles: they'll be able to use my authority to command demons to leave and to speak new languages, 18 and they'll be able to pick up snakes. If they drink anything poisonous, it won't hurt them, and they will place their hands on people and make them better."

Yeshua is lifted up to heaven[205]

19 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had finished speaking, he was lifted up into heaven[206] and seated in the honoured place next to God. 20 Then his followers went around preaching everywhere, and God worked through them and so they were able to confirm the truth of their preaching by doing miracles.

The account of Yeshua's ministry by

Matay

Introduction

Author

The writer of this document was known in Greek as Matay, in Hebrew as Levi, and is most commonly known in English as Matthew. He was one of Yeshua's twelve apprentices, and named by Halfay/Alphaeus his father. He was from Galil/Galilee but worked in Kafarnaoum/Capernaum as a tax-collector before he left that to follow Yeshua/Jesus. It's possible that it was Yeshua who changed his name from Levi when he became a follower, and named him Matay which means 'the gift of God' in Hebrew.

This account

Matay's account starts by listing the ancestors of Yeshua, and then describes Yeshua's birth, his immersion in water, and his temptation by the devil. He tells us about a lot of his preaching and teaching, and about how he healed many sick people in the Galil region. After that, Matay goes on to describe Yeshua's trip down to Yerushalem/Jerusalem and what happened to him there. Then he explains what happened in Yeshua's final week in Yerushalem, his execution on a stake, and his coming back to life.

This document tells how Yeshua is the messiah, promised by God to save the Yehudim/Jews, and all non-Jews who place their trust in him. So by means of him, God fulfills his promises to his people that were listed in the Old Testament.

This good message reveals Yeshua as the great teacher to explain God's law. Here in this document, Matay records five lengthy teaching sessions about God's kingdom: (1) The preaching on the hill about people's behaviour, their responsibilities, and what they might expect to receive in God's kingdom (chapters 5–7); (2) warning the twelve apprentices about their works (chapter 10); (3) the parables about God's kingdom (chapter 13); (4) the teaching concerning the way to become a follower (chapter 18); and (5) the teaching concerning the end of this age and God's kingdom which is coming. (chapters 24–25).

The Jewish ancestors of the messiah[1]

1:1 This is a genealogy of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah (Grk. Christ) a descendant of King David, a descendant of Avraham (Grk. Abraam).

2 Avraham was the father of Yitshak (Isaac), Yitshak the father of Ya'akov (Jacob; Grk. Yakob), Ya'akov the father of Yehudah (Judah; Grk. Yudas) and his brothers. 3 Yehudah was the father of Perets (Grk. Fares) and Zerah (Grk. Zara) through Tamar (Grk. Thamar), Perets the father of Hetsron (Grk. Hesrom), Hetsron the father of Ram, 4 Ram the father of Aminadav, Aminadav the father of Nahshon (Grk. Naasson), Nahshon the father of Salmon, 5 Salmon the father of Boaz (Grk. Boes/Boos) through Rahav, Boaz the father of Oved (Grk. Yobed/Yobel) through Ruth,[2] and Oved the father of Yishay (Jesse; Grk. Yessai), 6 and Yishay the father of David the king.

David was the father of Shelomoh (Solomon; Grk. Solomon/Salomon) through Uriyah's (Grk. Urias') wife, 7 Shelomoh was the father of Rehav'am (Rehoboam; Grk. Roboam), Rehav'am the father of Aviyah (Grk. Abia), Aviyah the father of Asa (Grk. Asaf), 8 Asa the father of Yehoshafat (Jehoshaphat; Grk. Yosafat). Yehoshafat the father of Yoram (Joram), Yoram the father of Uziyah, 9 Uziyah the father of Yotam (Jotham; Grk. Yoatham), Yotam the father of Ahaz (Grk. Akaz), Ahaz the father of Hizkiyah (Hezekiah; Grk. Hezekias), 10 Hizkiyah the father of Menasheh (Manasseh; Grk. Manasses), Menasheh the father of Amon (Grk. Amos), Amon the father of Yoshiyah (Josiah; Grk. Yosias), 11 Yoshiyah was the father of Yekaneyah (Grk. Yekonias) and his brothers, when they were deported to Bavel (Babylon; Grk. Babulon).[3]

12 Then after the deportation to Bavel, Yekaneyah was the father of Shealtiyel (Grk. Salathiel), Shealtiyel was the father of Zerubavel (Grk. Zorobabel), 13 Zerubavel was the father of Avihud (Grk. Abiud), Avihud was the father of Elyakim, and Elyakim the father of Azor, 14 Azor the father of Tsadok, Tsadok the father of Akim, Akim the father of Eliud, 15 Eliud the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matan, Matan the father of Ya'akov (Jacob; Grk. Yakob), 16 Ya'akov the father of Yosef (Joseph), the husband of Maria (Mary; Heb. Miryam; Grk. Maria/Mariam) who Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), the one called the messiah was born to.

17 So the generations from Avraham to David numbered fourteen, from David to the deportation to Bavel there were fourteen generations, and from the deportation to Bavel to the messiah there were fourteen generations.

The messiah's birth[4]

18 Now this is how the birth of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) came about: Maria (Mary; Heb. Miryam; Grk. Maria/Mariam) his mother was engaged to Yosef (Joseph).[5] But before they came together, she was found to be pregnant through the work of the holy spirit. 19 But her husband to be, Yosef, was a godly man, and not wishing to disgrace Maria, he decided to quietly divorce her. 20 But as he was pondering that, one of Yahweh's messengers appeared to him in a dream and told him, "Yosef, descendant of King David, don't be afraid to marry Maria, because the baby in her has been conceived by the holy spirit. 21 In due course she'll have a son and you'll name him Yeshua,[6] because he'll save his people from their sins."

22 Now all that happened in fulfilment of what Yahweh had said through the prophet, 23 "Listen, the virgin will get pregnant and she'll have a son, and they'll call him Imanu-El (Grk. Emmanuel) (in Hebrew) which means 'God with us.' "[7]

24 Then Yosef got up and did what Yahweh's messenger had commanded him, and he went ahead and married Maria, 25 but he didn't sleep with her until after she had given birth. Yosef named the boy Yeshua.[8]

Easterners come to worship the new king

2:1 After Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had been born in Beyt-Lehem (Bethlehem) in Yehudah (Judea) province during the time of King Herodes (Herod), watchers of signs arrived in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) from the east 2 and asked, "Where's the one born as king of the Yehudim (Jews)? We saw his star in the east and we came to worship him."

3 Now when King Herodes heard that, he was upset, and all of Yerushalem as well. 4 He gathered together all the chief priests and religious teachers and asked them where the Messiah was expected to be born.

5 "It'll be in Beyt-Lehem in Yehudah," they told him, "because the prophet wrote:

6 'You, Beyt-Lehem in Yehudah's territory, are not the most insignificant of the Yehudah's leaders, because a leader will come from you who will guide my people Yisrael (Israel).' "[9]

7 Then Herodes (Herod) sent for the watchers of signs and met secretly with them to determine when the star had first appeared. 8 Then he sent them on to Beyt-Lehem with these instructions: "Go on and carefully investigate about the child, and when you find him, report back to me so that I can also come and worship him."

9 So when the king had finished speaking, they departed, and the star which they could see in the east went ahead of them and stopped above the place where the child was. 10 Seeing that, the watchers of signs were very happy indeed. 11 As they entered the house, they saw the child with his mother Maria (Mary; Heb. Miryam; Grk. Maria/Mariam). They bowed low and worshipped him, then they opened their chests and presented gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

12 However, because they'd been warned in a dream not to return to King Herodes, they went home again to their own country.

gers appeared to Yosef (Joseph) in a dream and said, "Leave now and take the child and his mother, and flee to Mitsrayim (Egypt). Remain there until I tell you, because King Herodes (Herod) will soon search for the child in order to kill him."

14 So Yosef got ready during the night and took the child and his mother and departed for Mitsrayim. 15 They stayed there until Herodes's death, in order to fulfil what Yahweh had said through the prophet Hoshea (Hosea): "I called my son out of Mitsrayim."[10]

The slaughter of baby boys

16 When King Herodes (Herod) realised that he'd been tricked by the watchers of signs, he got very angry and gave orders that all the sons in Beyt-Lehem (Bethlehem) and its districts that were two years old and younger be killed, because that was the period that he'd found out from the watchers of signs.

17 That fulfilled what had been spoken through the prophet Yirmiyah (Jeremiah), who said:

18 The sound of terrible weeping and mourning was heard in Ramah; Rahel (Rachel) weeping for her children, and she didn't want to be comforted, because her children were no more.[11]

Yosef's family return to Nazaret

19 After King Herodes (Herod) died, one of Yahweh's messengers appeared to Yosef (Joseph) in Mitsrayim (Egypt) in a dream 20 and said, "Get ready and take the child and his mother back to Yisrael (Israel), because the ones wanting to kill him have died." 21 So Yosef packed up and took the child and his mother and went back to Yisrael.

22 However, when he heard that Arkelaos was now reigning over Yehudah (Judea) (instead of his father Herodes), and also having been warned in a dream, he left Yehudah and went north to the Galil area. 23 Once he got there, he settled into a town called Nazaret (Nazareth), and so what had been spoken through the prophets would be ful-

3:1 That was the time when Yohan-the-immerser started preaching in the Yehudah (Judea) wilderness, 2 telling everyone, "Turn from your sins, because the heavenly kingdom is close."[15] 3 This is the man that the prophet Yeshayah (Isaiah) was talking about when he wrote:

'The voice of one shouting in the wilderness

straighten his paths.'[16]

4 Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) himself wore clothes made from coarse camel hair, with a leather belt around his waist,[17] and he lived on locusts and wild honey. 5 People from Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and all Yehudah and all of the regions surrounding the Yarden (Jordan) River, went out into the wilderness to listen to Yohan, 6 and many confessed their sins and asked him to immerse them in the river.

7 But when Yohan saw many from the party of the Farisaios and from the Saddoukaios (Sadducee) sect coming for immersion, he told them, "You brood of snakes,[18] who warned you all to flee from God's severe anger that's coming? 8 Turning from your sins should be accompanied by evidence that you've changed. 9 And don't think that you can just tell yourselves that you're Avraham's descendants,[19] because I can tell you that God could turn these stones into descendants of Avraham. 10 The axe has already been placed at the He'll immerse you in the holy spirit and with fire. 12 He's already holding his fork so that he can clear his threshing floor—he'll work through the pile throwing it into the air, where the breeze will carry the chaff away, and he'll burn it with unquenchable fire, while the heavier grains of wheat will land in the pile to be brought into the barn."

Yeshua gets immersed in the river[21]

13 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) came down from Galil to Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) at the Yarden (Jordan) River to be immersed by him. 14 But Yohan refused, saying, "It's me who needs to be immersed by you, and yet you're coming to me?"

15 "Just allow it," answered Yeshua, "because we need to do what righteousness requires." So Yohan immersed him.

16 As Yeshua came up out of the water after being immersed, the sky was opened up and he saw God's spirit coming down like a dove and landing on him. 17 Then, wow, a voice could be heard from the sky saying, "This is my son that I love and I'm pleased with."[22]

The devil tempts Yeshua[23]

4:1 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was taken into the wilderness by the spirit, to be tempted by the devil.[24] 2 As he'd been fasting for forty days (and nights), he was hungry, 3 and the tempter approached him and asked, "If you're God's son, command some of these stones to turn into buns."

4 But Yeshua answered, "It's written in the scriptures that it's not just food that a person needs to

5 Then the devil took him to Yerushalem (Jerusalem), and stood him on the highest point of the temple 6 and told him, "Throw yourself down if you're God's son, because it's written in the scriptures that God will command his messengers to look after you and to carry you in their arms so that you won't bash your foot on a rock."[26]
7 "Yes, but it's also written," Yeshua answered, "that you shouldn't test your God Yahweh."[27]
8 Then the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the countries in the world, with all their splendour, 9 then told him, "I'll give you all of those if you get down on your face in front of me."
10 "Go away, Satan," Yeshua replied, "because it's written in the scriptures that you should worship your God Yahweh and must only serve him."[28]
11 Then the devil left him, and God's messengers came and looked after him.

Yeshua begins his ministry[29]

12 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) heard that Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) had been arrested,[30] he withdrew up to Galil. 13 Then he moved from Nazaret (Nazareth) across to Kafarnaoum (Capernaum) beside the lake,[31] in the regions that had been given to the tribes of Zevulun and Naftali (Naphtali), 14 so that what had been written by the prophet Yeshayah (Isaiah) would come true, 15 'Land of Zevulun and land of Naftali, had a light rise over them.’[32]

17 From then onwards, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) started preaching and telling people to turn from their sins because the heavenly kingdom is close.[33]

Yeshua calls his first four followers[34]

18 As Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) walked beside Lake Galil, he saw two brothers, Shim’on (Simon) (later nicknamed ‘Rock’/Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros)) and Andreas, throwing a net into the water because they were fishermen. 19 “Come and follow me,” Yeshua told them, “and I’ll make you into fishers of people.” 20 So they left their nets immediately and followed after him.
21 Going on a bit further, he saw two other brothers, Ya’akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), in the boat getting their nets ready along with their father Zavday (Grk. Zebedaios), and Yeshua also called the two of them. 22 So they too immediately left the boat and their father, and followed after him.

Yeshua’s healing is very popular[35]

23 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went around all of Galil, teaching in their Jewish meeting halls (Grk. synagogues) and announcing the good message about the kingdom, and healing all the people’s diseases and sicknesses,[36] 24 and the news about this went all the way up to Aram (Syria). So they brought all their sick and diseased people to him, as well as those who were suffering or demon-possessed, along with those who had seizures or were paralysed, and Yeshua healed them. 25 Large crowds from Galil and Dekapolis and Yerushalem (Jerusalem), and from all of Yehudah (Judea) and even beyond the Yarden (Jordan) River, followed after Yeshua.

Mosheh's law won't be broken

17 "Don't imagine that I came to criticise the prophets or Mosheh's (Moses) instructions. I didn't come to oppose the scriptures, but to fulfil them, 18 because I can assure you all that until heaven and earth reach their end, not one letter or mark will be taken away from those instructions until everything is fulfilled.[50] 19 Therefore anyone who breaks even a minor command, and teaches others to do the same, will be seen as one of the least in the heavenly kingdom, but anyone who practices and teaches those instructions will be considered outstanding in the kingdom. 20 Let me tell all of you, unless you're more godly than the religious teachers and the Farisaios, there's no way that you'll get to enter the heavenly kingdom.

Teaching about murder and anger

21 "You've all heard that your ancestors were told not to murder,[51] because any murderer will be sentenced. 22 But I'm telling you that anyone who gets angry at another will be liable for judgement, and anyone who calls another person a numbskull will have to face the court, and if you call them a fool, you're liable for hellfire. 23 So if you're there at the altar to offer your gift and remember that someone has something against you, 24 leave your gift there at the altar and go and sort that out first, before coming back to offer your gift.

25 "Resolve things with your opponent as soon as you can, hopefully while you're still on the way to the court, in case your opponent turns you in to the judge, and the judge to the officer, and then you'll end up in prison. 26 I can assure you that you won't get out of prison until the fine is completely paid.

by your own strength, because you can't even make one strand of hair grow a different colour. 37 Just say 'yes' when you commit to doing something, and 'no' when you don't, because going beyond that is actually evil.

Teaching about being taken advantage of[64]

38 "You've all heard it said that it's an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth,[65] 39 but I'm telling you not to resist those who want to hurt you. If someone slaps you on your right cheek, turn your left cheek towards them, 40 and to the person suing you in court and claiming your robe, let them have your coat as well. 41 And if someone forces you to walk a mile, walk two miles with them. 42 Give whatever others request from you, and don't turn away from anyone who wants to borrow from you.

Love your enemies[66]

43 "You've all heard it said that you should love your neighbour and hate your enemy, 44 but I'm telling you to love your enemies and to pray for anyone who's persecuting you, 45 so that you might become children of your father in the heavens, because he causes his sun to rise on both evil and good people, and sends the rain for both godly and ungodly people. 46 If you people just love people who love you, what reward would you expect for that? Don't even the tax collectors do that? 47 And if you're only polite to your own circle, how is that achieving anything? Aren't non-Jews just the same? 48 Instead you should all aim to be perfect just like your heavenly father is perfect.[67]

Giving to the poor

6:1 "You people should take care not to only obey God in front of others so they'll think well of you,[68] because if you do, you'll certainly get no reward from your father in the heavens.

2 "So when you're giving to the poor, don't make a big display of it like the hypocrites do in the Jewish meeting halls and in the streets so they'll get the people's praises. I can assure you that they've already received their reward in full. 3 But when you give to the poor, don't let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, 4 so that your giving will be private, yet your father who sees everything you do will give back to you.

Teaching about praying[69]

5 "Whenever you pray, don't be like the hypocrites who love to pray in the Jewish meeting halls and on street corners so everyone will notice them.[70] I can assure you that they've already received their reward in full. 6 Instead, when you pray, go into a private room and shut the door, then pray to your father who's not visible to you. Then your father who sees everything will reward you.

7 "And when you do pray, don't babble away like people of other religions who think they'll be listened to just because of how much they pray. 8 There's no need to be like them, because God your father already knows your needs before you even ask him. 9 So pray like this:

'Our father in the heavens,
we want your name to be honoured forever.
10 We want your kingdom to come and your plans to be fulfilled here on earth just like they are in heaven.
11 Give us everything we need today 12 and write off what we owe you as we also write off what others owe us.
13 Don't bring us to the point of being tempted, but keep us away from doing evil things.'

14 "Because if you people forgive other people's wrongs, then your heavenly father will also forgive your wrongs.[71] 15 But if you don't forgive other people's wrongs, then your father won't forgive your wrongs either.

19 Be_ not _storing_up treasures on the earth for_ _you_all, where moth and corrosion is_ _destroying, and where thieves are_digging_ _through and are_stealing, 20 but be_storing_up for_you_all treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor corrosion is_destroying, and where thieves are_ not _digging_through nor are_ _stealing. 21 For/Because where the treasure of_ _you is, the heart of_you will_be there also.

22 The lamp of_the body is the eye. Therefore if the eye of_you may_be healthy, the whole body of_you will_be bright. 23 But if the eye of_you may_be evil, all the body of_you will_be dark. Therefore if the light ~~which~~ in you is darkness, how_great is the darkness.

24 No_one is_able to_be_serving for_two masters, because/for either he_will_be_hating the one and he_will_be_loving the other, or he_will_be_ _upholding of_the_one and he_will_be_despising of_the other. You_all_are_ not _being_able to_be_ _serving for_god and money. 25 Because_of this I_ _am_saying to_you_all, be_ not _worrying for_the life of_you_all, what you_all_may_eat or what you_all_may_drink, nor for_the body of_you_all what you_all_may_dress_in. don't look miserable like the hypocrites, because they intentionally try to look awful so that everyone will notice that they're fasting. I can assure you that they've already received their reward in full. 17 Instead, when you fast, comb your hair and wash your face 18 so that no one will realise that you're fasting, other than your father who's not visible to you. Then your father who sees everything will reward you.

Wealth in heaven[72]

19 "Don't amass wealth for yourselves here on earth, where insects and corrosion destroy things,[73] and where it can be stolen. 20 Instead, store your wealth in heaven, where there's no destructive insects or corrosion or thieves or scammers, 21 because wherever your wealth is, your values will also be focused there.

The eyes[74]

22 "Your eyes are your body's lamps, so if your eyes are healthy, then your entire body will be bright. 23 But if your eyes are evil, your entire body will be dark.

God and wealth[75]

24 "No one can serve two masters, because they'll either hate one and like the other one, or else will support one and despise the other. So you people can't serve both God and money.

25 "So that's why I'm telling you all not to worry about your worldly life—things like what you'll eat or drink, or how you look and what you'll wear. Isn't life more than food, and the body more than clothing? 26 Think about the birds in the sky—they don't plant seeds or harvest crops or gather grain into barns, but it's your heavenly father who feeds them. Aren't each of you worth more than them? 27 Who can add an hour to their lifetime by worrying?

work or make fabric, 29 but I can tell you that not even King Shelomoh (Solomon) at the peak of his reign was dressed as well as the flowers.[76] 30 So if God dresses the plants in the fields that are here today and thrown away tomorrow, won't he care much more for you, you people with little faith?
31 "That means that you people don't need to worry about having anything to eat or drink, or having clothes to wear. 32 People with no trust in God try to obtain all those things, but your heavenly father already knows that you need these things. 33 So instead you should be striving to enter God's kingdom and to be guiltless in his eyes, and then all these other things will just follow.
34 Don't worry about tomorrow, because tomorrow can worry about itself—today's problems are enough by themselves.

Teaching about judging[77]

7:1 "Don't judge others, so that you won't be judged yourselves, 2 because you'll all be judged in the same way that you judge others. Whatever standard you use on others will be the same standard used on you.[78] 3 And why are you looking at the speck of sawdust in another person's eye when you have an entire board in your own eye? 4 How could you offer to get the speck out of their eye, when you still have the board in yours? 5 What a hypocrite! First get the board out of your own eye, and then you'll be able to see clearly so that you can help them with their eye.
6 "Don't give special things to dogs, and don't throw pearls to pigs, because they'll all just trample them underfoot, and then they're just as likely to turn and attack you.

one who asks for something will get something, fish, who would give them a snake? 11 So if evil people know how to give good gifts to their chil-heavens give good things to those who ask him?

12 "So in every area, whatever you'd like others to do for you, that's how you people should be treating them.[80] That's what Mosheh's (Moses) instructions and the prophets' writings were about.

The wide and narrow gates[81]

13 "Come in through the

a big gateway and a wide path that leads away to destruction, and lots of people go that way. 14 The gateway leading away to life is narrow, and the path has been kept narrow, and not many people find it.

Recognising the tree by the fruit[82]

15 "Watch out for false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inside they're swindling

The importance of foundations[87]

24 "Therefore anyone who hears these messages of mine and puts them into practice, they can be likened to a sensible person who built their house on the rock. 25 When the rains started and the floods came and the winds blew and battered that house, it was stable because its foundation was the rock.

26 "But anyone who hears these messages of mine and doesn't put them into practice, they can be likened to a stupid person who built their house on the sand. 27 When the rains started and the floods came and the winds blew and battered that house, it collapsed with a loud crash."

Yeshua's authority

28 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had finished sharing all these messages, the crowds were astonished at his teaching 29 because he taught like someone who had authority,[88] and not like their regular religious teachers.

Yeshua heals a man with leprosy[89]

8:1 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) came down from the hillside, a large crowd followed him, 2 and then a man with leprosy approached him and knelt down in front of him and asked, "Master, if you're willing, you're able to get rid of this disease."

3 "I am willing," said Yeshua as he stretched out his hand and commanded, "Be clean." The leprosy disappeared immediately, 4 and Yeshua told him, "Make sure that you don't tell anyone about this, but you do need to go and show yourself to the priest and make the offering required by Mosheh's (Moses) law as a testimony to the authorities."[90]

Yeshua heals a Romaios's slave[91]

5 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) arrived in Kafarnaoum (Capernaum), a Romaios army commander approached him and pleaded with him, 6 saying, "Master, I have a slave who's paralysed and has to stay in bed because he's being badly tormented."
7 "I'll come and heal him," Yeshua answered.
8 "But master," the commander replied, "I'm not worthy of you coming to my house, but just give the command and my slave will be healed, 9 because I'm also a man given a position under authority, with soldiers under me, and I tell this one, 'Come here,' and he comes, and tell my slave, 'Do this,' and he does it.
10 Yeshua was amazed when he heard that, and said to his followers around him, "I can assure you that I haven't discovered faith like that from any Israeli. 11 I'm telling you that many people from all over the world will come and join Avraham and Yitshak (Isaac) and Ya'akov (Jacob) at the table in the heavenly kingdom,[92] 12 but the ones who thought they were the true children will be thrown out into the distant darkness where there'll be crying and regrets.[93] 13 Then he said to the commander, "Go, then, and it'll happen according to your faith," and his slave was healed that very moment.

Yeshua heals the people[94]

14 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) came to Kefa's (Peter's; Grk. Petros') house, he saw Kefa's mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever. 15 Yeshua touched her hand and the fever left her. Then she got up and looked after her guest.
16 In the evening, the people brought many who were possessed by evil spirits, and Yeshua drove out the spirits with a command and healed all the sick people. 17 This fulfilled what the prophet Yeshayah (Isaiah) had written: 'He took our sickness and bore our diseases.'[95]

Some wanted to follow Yeshua[96]

18 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) saw the crowd around him, he told his apprentices to take him across to the other side of the lake. 19 One of the religious teachers came up to Yeshua and told him, "Teacher, I'll follow you wherever you go."

20 "Foxes have burrows," said Yeshua, "and birds have their nests, but the son of humanity doesn't even have a place to lay his head."

21 Another one of his apprentices said to him, "I'll follow you, Master, but first let me wait until I can bury[97] my father."

22 "Follow after me," Yeshua responded, "and leave the dead to bury the dead by themselves."

Yeshua commands the wind[98]

23 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and his apprentices followed him and got into the boat and launched it. 24 Then wow, a huge storm rose up on the lake, and the waves started coming into the boat, but Yeshua was asleep. 25 They woke him up and pleaded, "Master, save us, we're going to drown."

26 "What are you worried about?" asked Yeshua. "You people don't have much faith." Then he stood up and told the winds and the water to stop, and the lake became very calm.

27 The people were astonished and asked, "What kind of man is this that the winds and the lake just do what he says?"

Yeshua banishes demons into a herd of pigs[99]

28 And when Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) arrived in the Gadarainos region on the other side of the lake, he was met by two very dangerous demon-possessed men who were coming out of the cemetery. Because of them, some people weren't able to travel on that road. 29 Suddenly the two men yelled out saying, "Son of God, what's the connection between us and you? Have you come here to cause us pain before the designated time?"

30 Now there was a large herd of pigs grazing not far away from them, 31 and the demons begged Yeshua saying, "If you do drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs."

32 And he said to them, "Depart!" So they came out and went away into the pigs, and next thing, the whole herd rushed down the bank into the lake and drowned in the water.

33 Then the men who'd been grazing them took off, and when they got to the city they reported everything, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men. 34 Soon the whole city came out to meet with Yeshua, and when they found him they asked him to leave their region.

Yeshua forgives and heals a paralysed man[100]

9:1 So Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) got into a boat and crossed back over to his own city of Kafarnaoum (Capernaum). 2 Some people there brought a paralysed man to him lying on a stretcher. And when Yeshua saw their faith, he said to the man, "Son, be encouraged. Your sins are forgiven."

3 Immediately some of the religious teachers said among themselves, "This man's claiming God's authority."

4 But Yeshua knew their thoughts and said, "Why are you thinking evil things in your hearts? 5 Do you think it's easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Stand up and walk'? 6 But so that you'll know that the son of humanity has the authority here on earth to forgive sins," he said, "stand up, take your stretcher, and go home."

7 Then the man stood up and went off home. 8 The crowds were struck with fear after seeing this, yet they praised God for giving people such authority.

Yeshua calls Matay and they dine with 'sinners'[101]

9 And as Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was leaving there, he saw a man called Matay (Matthew; Grk. Matthaios) (also known as Levi) sitting in the tax office. He said to Matay, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him.

house, many tax collectors and sinners came in and sat at the table together with Yeshua and his apprentices.[102] 11 Some people from the Farisaios party noticed this and said to his apprentices, "How come your teacher eats with tax collectors and sinners?"

12 But Yeshua heard this and said, "People who are well don't need a doctor—only the ones with problems do. 13 So go and find out the meaning of this: I like mercy, not sacrifice.[103] After all, it's sinners that I came to call, not people who are considered righteous."

Yeshua is asked about fasting[104]

14 Then Yohan's (John's; Grk. Yoannes') apprentices approached Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and said, "How come we and the Farisaios fast regularly, but your apprentices don't fast?"

15 And Yeshua replied to them, "Surely the groomsmen aren't sad while the groom is with them? But the time will come when the groom has to leave them, and then they'll fast.

16 No one patches old clothes with new material, because the patch will shrink and the clothes would end up with a worse hole. 17 And they don't put new wine into an old container, otherwise the container could split and be ruined, and the wine would be lost. Instead, they put new wine into a new container, and both survive."

Yeshua raises a dead girl and heals a woman from bleeding[105]

But they ridiculed him. 25 However, when the crowd was moved out, he went in and took her hand, and the girl got up. 26 Then the news of this spread all around that region.

Yeshua heals two blind men

27 As Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) left the official's home, two blind men followed him and called out, "David's descendant, have mercy on us."

28 When he went into the house, the blind men went to him, and Yeshua said to them, "Do you believe that I'm able to do this?"

They replied, "Yes, master."

29 Then he touched their eyes, saying, "It'll happen in line with your faith." 30 Then their eyes were healed, and Yeshua told them, "Don't let anyone know about this."

31 But after they'd gone, the men told the whole region about him.

Yeshua heals a man who couldn't talk

32 As they were leaving, some people brought a man to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) who was demon-possessed and unable to talk. 33 After the demon was driven out, the man was able to speak, and the crowds were amazed, saying, "Nothing like this has ever happened before in Yisrael (Israel)."

Yeshua commissions the twelve[110]

10:1 Then, calling his twelve apprentices, he gave them authority over evil spirits so they could drive them out and heal every disease and sickness. 2 These are the names of the twelve: Shim'on (Simon) (nicknamed Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros)) and his brother Andreas, Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and his brother Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) (Zavday's (Grk. Zebedaios') sons), 3 Filippos (Philip) and Bar-Talmay (Bartholomew; Grk. Bartholomaios), Toma (Thomas), and Matay (Matthew; Grk. Matthaios) the tax collector, Ya'akov (nicknamed Thaddaios (Thaddeus), Halfay's (Grk. Halfaios') son), 4 Shim'on (the member of the Kena'anim (Canaanites)), and Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas) Iskariot (who eventually turned Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) in).

Yeshua sends out the twelve[111]

5 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. in Yisrael (Israel) before the son of humanity comes.

24 "An apprentice isn't above their teacher,[122] nor is a slave above their master.[123] 25 The apprentice is happy to eventually become like their teacher, and the slave to become like their master. If they accuse the home owner of being a devil,[124] then they'll do that even more to other members of his household.

Who to fear[125]

26 "Therefore, don't be afraid of them, because nothing's covered up that won't eventually be revealed, and nothing's hidden that won't be made known.[126] 27 Whatever I tell you apprentices in the darkness, speak it out in the light, and what you hear whispered, go and yell it out from up on the top porch. 28 Don't be afraid of anyone who can kill your body but who can't touch your soul, but rather work to please the one who can destroy both soul and body in fire. 29 Aren't two sparrows sold for almost nothing? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your father being involved. 30 For you apprentices, even the hairs on your head have been counted, 31 so don't worry about things, because you're more valuable than any sparrows.

Acknowledging the messiah[127]

32 "If someone acknowledges me in front of others, then I'll acknowledge them in front of my father who's in the heavens, 33 but if anyone disowns me in front of others, then I'll disown them in front of my father who's in the heavens.[128]

Don't expect peace[129]

34 "Don't imagine that I came to bring peace to the earth. No, I came to bring war, not peace, 35 because I came to divide a son against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law, 36 and peo-

2 When Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), who was in prison, heard about what the messiah was doing, he sent some of his apprentices 3 to ask Yeshua, "Are you the promised one, or should we be waiting for someone else?"

4 "Well," Yeshua answered, "go and tell Yohan everything you're hearing and seeing: 5 people who were blind can see now, lame people are now walking, people with leprosy are 'clean', deaf people can now hear,[137] dead people have been brought back to life, and the good message is being declared to poor people.[138] 6 Anyone who's not embarrassed by me will be blessed."

7 As Yohan's apprentices left, Yeshua started talking to the crowd about Yohan: "What was it that you crowds went out to the wilderness to see? A reed being blown around by the wind?"[139] 8 Yes, I'm asking you all, what did you go out to see? A man wearing fine clothes? People in palaces wear fine clothes. 9 So why did you go out there? To see a prophet? Yes, I'm telling you that he is a prophet, and even more important than the prophets. 10 He's the one that was written about: 'See, I'm sending out my messenger ahead of you, and he'll get your path ready for you.'[140] 11 I can assure you that no person who's ever been born is greater than Yohan-the-immerser. But even the least important person in the heavenly kingdom is greater than him. 12 From the time of Yohan-the-immerser through to the present time, the heavenly kingdom has been opposed, and the opposition is grabbing at it.[141] 13 All the prophets and the law prophesied before Yohan came, 14 and now, if you crowds are willing to believe it, he's Eliyah (Elijah)—the one who would come in advance.[142] 15 Anyone who's willing is to strive to understand this.

16 "So what should I liken this generation to? It's like young children sitting in the town centre who are calling out to others 17 and saying, 'We played lively music for you but you didn't dance. Then we played sad music, but you didn't mourn.' 18 After all, when Yohan came, he wasn't eating or drinking, and they said, 'He's possessed by a demon!' 19 Then the son of humanity came, and he was eating and drinking, but they said, 'Look at this fellow—he's a glutton and a drunkard—a friend of tax collectors and immoral people.' But wisdom is only recognised with hindsight.

Cities that rejected the messiah[143]

20 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) began deriding the cities he'd done most of his miracles in, because they hadn't turned away from their sins. 21 "Korazin, you're doomed. Beyt-Tsayda, you're doomed. Because if the miracles that were done in you had been done in Tsor (Tyre) and Tsidon (Sidon),[144] they would have shown their turning away from their sins by wearing coarse cloth and showering themselves with ashes. 22 However, I'm telling you cities that it'll be more tolerable for the people of Tsor and Tsidon on judgement day than it will be for you. 23 Same with you, Kafarnaoum (Capernaum). You won't be lifted up to heaven, but instead you'll be sent down to hell,[145] because if the miracles which were done in you had been done in Sedom,[146] that city would still be here today. 24 However, I'm telling you, Kafarnaoum, that it'll be more tolerable for the people of Sedom on judgement day than it will be for you."[147]

The discussion about rest days[152]

12:1 At that time, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was going through some fields of grain on a rest day, and his apprentices were hungry and began to pluck some heads of grain and crunch them.[153] 2 But some people from the Farisaios' party saw them and said, "Look, your apprentices are harvesting on a rest day, when it's not permitted."

3 "Haven't you read about what David did when he and his fighters were hungry?" Yeshua responded. 4 He went into God's tent and they ate the Bread of the Presence,[154] which none of them were allowed to eat—only the priests.[155] 5 Or haven't you understood that when the priests work in the temple on the rest day, it's against the law, and yet they're innocent?[156] 6 But I'm telling you that someone greater than the temple is here. 7 But you Farisaios should have known that what I want is mercy rather than sacrifices[157]—you shouldn't have convicted the innocent, 8 because the son of humanity is the master over the rest day.

The man with the clawed fist[158]

9 After leaving that place, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went into the Jewish meeting hall, 10 and look, there was a man there with a clawed fist. So the people there asked Yeshua if it was permitted to heal people on the rest days.

11 "Which of you," Yeshua responded, "if you owned a single sheep and it fell into a pit on a rest day, wouldn't then grab hold of it and lift it out?[159] 12 Now a human is worth much more than a sheep, so then it must be permissible to do good on a rest day." 13 Then he said to the man,

"Stretch out your hand."

The man stretched his hand out, and it was restored—now just as healthy as the other one, 14 but the Farisaios went out and requested legal advice because they wanted to ruin Yeshua.

Yeshua was chosen by God

15 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) knew what they were trying to do, so he left that place. A lot of people followed along after him, and he healed them all 16 but warned them not to reveal who he was, 17 in order to fulfil what the prophet Yeshayah (Isaiah) had written:

18 'See my servant who I chose, the one I dearly love and who my soul takes pleasure in.
I will place my spirit on him and he will bring justice to the nations.
19 He won't be arguing or yelling out, and no one on the roads will hear his voice.
20 He won't break off a bruised reed, and certainly won't extinguish a smoldering wick, before he sends justice forward into victory.
21 The other nations will put their hope in his name and authority.'[160]

Yeshua accused of being the leader of demons[161]

22 Then a man possessed by evil spirits was brought to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus). He was blind and unable to speak, but Yeshua healed him so that he could both speak and see. 23 All the people were amazed and were saying, "Surely this must be the promised descendant of David?"

24 When the Farisaios' party heard about that, they said, "That man's only driving out demons by the authority of Beelzeboul, the demons' leader."[162]

25 But Yeshua, knowing their thoughts, said, "Every kingdom that's divided against itself is doomed, and any city or household that's divided against itself will self-destruct. 26 If Satan's driving out Satan, then he's divided against himself,

A tree is recognised by its fruit[165]

"Teacher, we want to see a sign from you."[170] 39 "It's an evil and adulterous generation that's looking for a sign," answered Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), "and no sign will be given to it apart from the sign of the prophet Yonah (Jonah).[171] 40 Just like Yonah was in the belly of the huge fish for three days and three nights,[172] in the same way, the son of humanity will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41 The inhabitants of Nineveh will stand up and condemn this generation on judgement day, because they turned away from their sins when Yonah preached,[173] and look, now there's someone here who's greater than Yonah. 42 The queen of the south will get up and condemn this generation on judgement day, because she travelled a great distance to hear King Shelomoh's (Solomon) wisdom,[174] and look, now there's someone here who's greater than Shelomoh.

The demon's revenge[175]

43 "Whenever an evil spirit comes out of a person, it goes through arid lands looking for a place to rest, and doesn't find any. 44 So it says to itself, 'I'll go back to the house I just left.' Then when it gets back, it finds that it's not only unoccupied, but it's been swept and tidied up. 45 So it goes and finds seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they all go to live there, so that person is worse off than they were at the beginning. So now, it'll be just like that for this evil generation."

The mother and siblings of Yeshua[176]

46 While Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was still talking to the crowd, his mother and siblings stood outside, wanting to speak to him. 47 Someone told him, "Look, your mother and your siblings are outside, waiting to speak with you."

The parable about spreading seed[177]

13:1 That same day, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went outside and sat by the lake. 2 A large crowd gathered around him, so he got into a boat and sat there while the crowd remained standing on the beach.[178] 3 From there, he told them many parables, saying, "Listen, a farmer went out to plant seed at the right time of the year. 4 As he was spreading the seed, some of it fell beside a path, and the birds come and ate that seed. 5 Some fell on stony ground where there wasn't much soil, and it sprouted immediately because the thin layer of soil was moist and warm, 6 but when the sun rose high, it was scorched, and not having any deep roots, it withered up. 7 Some seed fell in a thistle patch, but the thistles grew over them and choked them out. 8 However, some seed landed on the good soil, and it grew to bear a harvest—some a hundred times more, some sixty times, and some thirty times. 9 Anyone who wants to hear should strive to understand this."

Yeshua's use of parables[179]

10 After this, his apprentices came to him and asked, "Why do you speak to the people in parables?"

11 "You guys have been permitted to know the heavenly kingdom's mysteries," replied Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), "but not those other people, 12 because anyone who already has will be given more, and they'll end up with plenty, but anyone who doesn't have, even what they do have will be taken away from them.[180] 13 That's why I speak to them in parables, because when they look they don't see, and when they listen, they don't hear or understand, 14 and so the prophecy written by and when you look you will see, but you certainly won't perceive anything, and they shut their eyes so they can't see with them.

Otherwise they might see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and then return to me, and then I would heal them.'[181]

16 "But your eyes are blessed, because they can see, and your ears also, because they can hear,[182] 17 because I can assure you guys that many prophets and godly people wanted to see what you're seeing, but they didn't see, and they wanted to hear what you're hearing, but they didn't hear it either.

The meaning/salvation of parable concerning the planting[183]

18 "So now listen to the meaning of the parable about the person spreading seed. 19 Everyone who hears the message about the kingdom and doesn't understand it, the evil one comes and snatches what was sown in that person's heart. That's the seed that landed by the path. 20 The seed that landed on the rocky ground, that's the person who hears the message and is immediately happy to accept it, 21 but doesn't have any roots of their own, so it's just fleeting—they stumble as soon as there's any difficulties or persecution because of the message. 22 The seed that landed among the thorns is the person who hears the message, but the world's worries and wealth's seductiveness choke out the message and it becomes unfruitful. 23 The seed that landed on the good soil is the person who hears the message and understands it and goes on to bear fruit—some people producing a hundred times more, some sixty times, and some thirty times."[184]

The parable about the bad wheat

24 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) told them another parable, saying, "The heavenly kingdom is like a farmer who's planted good seed in his field. 25 But while everyone was sleeping, his enemy came and spread black-grained 'wheat' seeds around his wheat field and left again. 26 Then when the wheat grew and produced grains, the poisonous 'wheat' could also be seen. 27 The farmer's slave came and told him, 'Master, wasn't it good wheat seed that you planted? So why is there so much false wheat?' 28 'An enemy must have done this,' the farmer replied. 'So should we go and pull out the bad stuff?' asked the slaves. 29 'No,' said the farmer, 'because pulling that out might also pull up some of the wheat plants. 30 Let them all grow together, and then at harvest time I can just tell the harvesters to pull the false wheat plants out first and put them in bundles to be incinerated, and then harvest the wheat to go into my barn.' "

The parable about the small mustard seed[185]

31 Another one of his parables went like this: "The heavenly kingdom is like a mustard seed that a man planted in his field. 32 Even though it's a very small seed, it grows larger than most garden plants, and becomes such a large bush that birds even come and nest in its branches."

The parable about the yeast[186]

33 In another parable, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) said, "The heavenly kingdom is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in a month's worth of flour, and eventually all of it rose."

The reason Yeshua used parables[187]

34 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) told all these things to the crowds in the form of parables. In fact he said nothing that wasn't a parable, 35 so that what had been written by the prophet would be fulfilled:

'I will be saying things that have been hidden

31 Another parable he_set_before to_them saying, the kingdom of_the heavens is Similar to_a_seed of_mustard, which a_man having_taken sowed in the field of_him, 32 which on_one_hand it_is smaller of_all the seeds, on_the_other_hand whenever it_may_be_grown is greater than the garden_plants and is_becoming a_tree, so_that the birds of_the sky to_come and to_be_nesting in the branches of_it.

33 Another parable he_spoke to_them: the kingdom of_the heavens is Similar to_leaven, which a_woman having_taken, hid_in in three satons of_wheat_flour, until all of_which was_leavened.

34 ~~The~~ Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʻa) spoke all these things in parables to_the crowds, and he_was_speaking nothing to_them without a_parable, 35 so_that the message may_be_fulfilled having_been_spoken by the prophet saying: I_will_be_opening_up the mouth of_me in parables, I_will_be_uttering things having_been_hidden from the_foundation of_the_world.

Yeshua explains about the false wheat

36 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) left the crowd and went into the house. His apprentices followed him in and asked him for the interpretation of the parable about the poisonous black wheat in the field.

37 "The farmer spreading the good seed," Yeshua answered, "is the son of humanity, 38 and the field is the world, and the good seeds are the heirs to the kingdom. The false wheat seeds are the evil one's apprentices, 39 and the enemy who planted them is the devil. The harvest is at the end of this age, and the harvesters are God's messengers. 40 Therefore at the end of this age, the false wheat plants will be gathered and incinerated. 41 The son of humanity will send out his messengers to remove all the temptations out of his kingdom, as well as everyone who doesn't obey God's law, 42 and they'll throw them into the incinerator, and there'll be crying and a lot of anguish. 43 Then the godly people will shine as bright as the sun in their father's kingdom. Anyone who's interested in hearing, let them listen.

The parable about the treasure in the field

44 "The heavenly kingdom is like a field that had had treasure hidden in it. When someone found the treasure, they hid it again, and with great excitement went and sold everything they had so they could buy that field.

The parable about the valuable pearl

45 "The heavenly kingdom is also like a trader wanting to buy beautiful pearls, 46 and when they found one outstanding pearl, they went and sold everything they had so they could buy that pearl.

The parable about the dragnet

47 "The heavenly kingdom is also like a dragnet that was thrown into the lake and picked up everything from under the water. 48 When it was full, they pulled it up onto the beach and sat and sorted the catch—throwing the good catch into containers and throwing out the bad stuff. 49 It'll be just like that at the end of this age—God's messengers will come out and separate the evil people

51 "Did you all understand all of that?"

"Yes," his apprentices answered.

52 Then he said to them, "Because of this, every teacher who's been trained about the heavenly kingdom is like a home owner who gives presents of both new and old things of out their valuables."

Those from Nazaret cannot accept the messiah[189]

53 After Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had finished explaining the parables, he left that place, 54 went to his hometown of Nazaret (Nazareth), and taught the people in the Jewish meeting hall. They were amazed at his teaching, asking each other, "Where did this fellow get his wisdom and his ability to do miracles? 55 Isn't he the son of Yosef (Joseph), the carpenter? Don't we know his mother Maria (Mary; Heb. Miryam; Grk. Maria/Mariam) and his brothers Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and Yosef and Shim'on (Simon) and Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas)? 56 Aren't his sisters still here in town? So where did he get all these abilities?" 57 As a result, they didn't have any respect for him.

But Yeshua said to them, "A prophet is not dishonoured except in his own hometown and among his own household."[190] 58 So he didn't do many miracles there because of their disbelief.

The beheading of Yohan-the-immerser[191]

14:1 Around that time, King Herodes (Herod) the Tetrarch heard the news about Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), 2 and he said to his slaves, "This must be Yohan-the-immerser having come back from the dead, and so that's why he can do all these miracles!"

3 Herodes said this because he'd previously had Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) arrested and put in prison because of Herodias, his brother Filippos's (Philip's) wife.[192] 4 Yohan had been saying that it was against God's law for Herodes to take his brother's wife. 5 Herodes had been wanting to have Yohan executed, but he was afraid of the crowd because they considered Yohan to be a prophet.

6 However at Herodes's birthday celebration, Herodias's daughter had danced in front of them all and had pleased Herodes so much 7 that he promised with an oath to give her anything she requested.

8 The young woman was urged on by her mother to tell Herodes that she wanted Yohan-the-immerser's head on a plate.

9 The king was upset, but because of his oaths in front of the other guests, he commanded it to be so 10 and sent his soldiers to behead Yohan in prison. 11 So then his head was brought in on a plate and given to the young woman, who then took it to her mother. 12 Hearing the news, Yohan's apprentices went to the prison and collected his body and buried it. Then they went and told Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus).

The feeding of 5,000 families[193]

13 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) heard what had happened to Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), he got a boat to take him to a quiet place by himself, but the crowds from the cities heard about it, and followed him around the lake's shore on foot. 14 So when he got out of the boat, he saw a large crowd of people, and he felt compassion towards them, and he healed the sick people they'd brought.

15 As evening was approaching, his apprentices came up and requested, "This place is quite isolated, and it's already late. Send the people back into the villages so they can buy themselves something to eat."

16 "Oh, there's no need to send them away," Yeshua answered. "you apprentices give them something to eat."

17 "We don't have anything here" they responded, "except for five buns and two cooked fish."

18 "Bring them here to me," Yeshua instructed, 19 then he told the crowds to sit down on the grass. He took the five buns and two fish and, looking up to the sky, he said a blessing, broke the buns, and gave the pieces to his apprentices to distribute to the crowds. 20 Everyone there ate enough to be full, and then the apprentices picked up twelve baskets of leftover bread. 21 There were about five thousand families there.

Yeshua and Kefa walk on the lake[194]

22 Straight after that, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) instructed his apprentices to board the boat and to head back to the other side of the lake while he dismissed the crowds. 23 He sent them all back to their homes, then climbed up a hill by himself to pray. 24 By then the boat was in the middle of the lake, but it was being beaten by the waves because a strong wind had come up.

25 In the early hours of the morning, Yeshua went out to them on the lake, walking on the surface. 26 When his apprentices saw him coming over the lake, they were worried, thinking it was a ghost, and yelling out in fear.

27 But Yeshua answered them immediately, saying, "Be brave, I'm here, don't worry."

28 "Master," called Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros), "if it's you, command me to come to you on the lake."

29 "Come!" he said. So Kefa climbed over the back of the boat and started walking across the lake towards Yeshua, 30 but when he looked around at the wind, he lost his nerve and started sinking, and he yelled out, "Master, save me!" 31 Immediately, Yeshua stretched out his hand and took hold of Kefa and said to him, "Your faith is weak. Why did you doubt?"

32 Then as soon as the two of them climbed into the boat, the wind died down 33 and everyone in the boat knelt down in front of Yeshua, saying, "You certainly must be God's son!"

The sick are healed just by touching Yeshua's clothes[195]

34 So then they finished crossing the lake and got out at Gennaisaret. 35 The people there recognised Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and sent news to the whole surrounding region. So the people brought all their sick relatives to him 36 and begged him even to just let them touch the edge of his robe, because everyone who did

15:1 Then some people from the Farisaios' party and some religious teachers from Yerushalem (Jerusalem) arrived and asked Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), 2 "Why do your apprentices break the traditions handed down by our elders? They don't do the hand-washing ceremony before eating."

Obeying God versus tradition[196]

3 "Well why do you break God's command because of your tradition?" Yeshua responded. 4 "God told us to honour our fathers and mothers,[197] and also that anyone who speaks evil about their father or mother deserves the death penalty.[198] 5 But if someone tells their father or mother that whatever help they may have expected from them is now given away as a gift, then you people say 6 that they're not actually dishonouring their parents. So by saying that, you're overriding God's message with your own tradition. 7 You hypocrites! The prophet Yeshayah (Isaiah) was right about you people when he wrote:

8 'These people honour me with their lips,
But their hearts are far away from me.
9 Their worship of me is useless,
They teach human ideas as if they're commands.' "[199]

True 'dirtiness'[200]

10 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) called out to the crowd, "Listen carefully so you can understand this: 11 It's not what goes into your mouth that defiles you, but rather, it's what comes out of your mouth."

12 His apprentices then came up to him and told him, "You know that the Farisaios were offended by what you just said?"

13 "Every plant," Yeshua answered, "that wasn't planted by my heavenly father will get pulled out. 14 Just ignore them. They're blind guides, and if a blind person's leading another blind person, both of them will stumble into a pit."[201]

15 But Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) asked him, "So explain your saying to us."
16 "Can't you figure it out yet?" Yeshua replied.
17 "Can't you apprentices see that everything that goes into your mouth then goes down into your stomach, and eventually ends up in the toilet?
18 But the things that come out of your mouth are coming from your mind, and that's what defiles a person.[202] 19 After all, lust, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, stealing, falsely accusing, and slander, these all come out of the mind. 20 It's those things that defile a person, not eating without ceremonially washing your hands."

The non-Jewish woman with amazing faith[203]

23 But Yeshua didn't even answer her. So his apprentices came up and suggested, "Send her away, because she's still yelling out back there."
24 Yeshua answered, "I was only sent to the lost sheep that descended from Yisrael (Israel)."
25 But she came and knelt down in front of him, begging, "Master, help me."
26 "It's not good," Yeshua responded, "to take the children's food off them and throw it out to the puppies."
27 "True, master," she said, "but even the puppies eat the little crumbs that fall off their masters' table."
28 "Dear lady" Yeshua answered, "you have lots of faith, so what you asked for will become reality." And so her daughter was healed that very hour.

The feeding of 4,000 families[204]

32 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) called his apprentices and told them, "I feel sorry for this crowd because they've been out here with me for three days and haven't had anything to eat, but I'm not happy to just send them away hungry, in case they collapse on the way home."

33 "Out here in the wilderness," replied his apprentices, "where could we possibly get enough bread to feed a crowd this size?"

34 "How many buns do you have?" asked Yeshua.

"Seven," they replied, "and a few small fish."

35 Then, instructing the crowd to sit down on the ground, 36 he took the seven buns and the fish, and gave thanks. Then he broke them apart and gave the pieces to his apprentices to distribute to the crowds. 37 Everyone ate, and when they were full, they collected seven baskets full of the leftover food. 38 There were about four thousand families there.

39 After sending the crowds home, Yeshua got into the boat, and they went to the regions of Magadan.

The yeast of the Farisaios and Saddoukaios[208]

5 Now Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') apprentices had crossed the lake, but they forgot to take any bread, 6 and Yeshua told them, "Watch out for the yeast from the Farisaios and the Saddoukaios (Sadducees)."[209]

7 This caused a discussion among them, trying to figure out if he was scolding them for not bringing any bread.

8 But Yeshua knew what they were saying, and asked them, "You people with little faith, why are you talking to each other about not having bread? 9 Haven't you understood what's going on here yet? Don't you remember that there were twelve baskets of leftovers when five buns were used to feed 5,000 families?[210] 10 And then seven baskets of leftovers when seven buns were used to feed 4,000 families?[211] 11 How can you fail to understand that I wasn't talking to you about bread? of the living god."[214]

17 Then Yeshua answered, "You are blessed, Shim'on BarYonah, because it wasn't any person that revealed that to you, but rather, my father who's in the heavens. 18 And I can add that you're Kefa (meaning 'rock'), and I'll build my assembly on that rock, and hell's gates won't be able to hold it back. 19 I'll give you the heavenly kingdom's keys, and whatever you restrain on the earth will be restrained in the heavens, and whatever you free on the earth will be freed in the heavens."[215]

20 Then he instructed his apprentices not to tell anyone that he's the messiah.

Yeshua talks about future suffering and death[216]

21 From that time onwards, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk.
Yesus) began showing his apprentices that he needed to go to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and to suffer at the hands of the elders, chief priests, and religious teachers there, before being executed and then coming back to life on the third day.

22 But Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) took him aside and started telling him off, saying, "Goodness gracious, master, this certainly won't happen to you."

23 Yeshua turned towards Kefa and said, "Get behind me, Satan. You're tempting me because you're not thinking in a godly way, but only in human terms."

24 Then Yeshua told his apprentices, "If anyone wants to follow me, they need to suppress their own desires and be ready to sacrifice and to suffer, and then follow me,[217] 25 because anyone who wants to save their life will lose it, but anyone who loses their life on my account will find it.[218] 26 What help would it be to a person if they gain everything in the world, and yet lose their soul?
Or put another way, what could a person give in exchange for their soul? 27 The son of humanity is going to return displaying his father's splendour,

Yeshua's face shines brightly[221]

17:1 After six days, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) took Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros), and Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and his brother Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), and they went up a high hill by themselves, 2 and Yeshua was changed in front of them so that his face shone like the sun and his clothes became as white as the light. 3 Then look, Mosheh (Moses) and Eliyah (Elijah) appeared, and the three apprentices could see them talking with Yeshua. 4 Then Kefa spoke up and said to Yeshua, "Master, it's good that we're here. If you want, I could make three shelters here: one for you, one for Mosheh, and one for Eliyah."

5 While he was still speaking, a bright cloud came over the top of them, and wow, a voice came out of the cloud saying, "This is my dear son that I get great pleasure from.[222] Just listen to him."[223]

6 When the three apprentices heard the voice, they lay face down and were extremely scared. 7 But Yeshua went across to them, and touching them, he said, "Get up now and don't be afraid," 8 and when they looked around, they didn't see anyone other than Yeshua himself.

9 As they started heading down the hill, Yeshua instructed them, "Don't tell anyone what you saw until after the son of humanity comes back to life."

10 So his apprentices asked him, "Why do the religious teachers say that Eliyah (Elijah) has to come before the messiah?"[224]

11 "In a way, Eliyah is coming," he said, "and he'll 13 Then the apprentices realised that he was talking to them about Yohan-the-immerser.

Yeshua drives a demon out of a boy[226]

14 When they got back to the crowd, a man approached Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and knelt down in front of him, 15 saying, "Master, show mercy to my son, because he has seizures and isn't well, often falling into the fire or the water. 16 I brought him to your apprentices, but they weren't able to heal him."

17 "Oh you unbelieving and depraved generation," Yeshua answered, "how much longer will I have to be with you people? How much longer can I tolerate you people? Bring your son here to me." 18 Then Yeshua rebuked the demon and it came out of the boy, who was healed that very hour.

19 Later, the apprentices went by themselves to Yeshua and asked him why they hadn't been able to drive away the demon.

20 "It's because your faith is so small," he told them, "because I can assure you that if your faith was as big as a mustard seed, you'd be able to command a mountain to move, and it would move, and then there'd be nothing that you apprentices couldn't do."[227]

Yeshua speaks again about his forthcoming death[228]

21 ◘ 22 Another time when they were all together in Galil, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) told them, "The son of humanity is going to be handed over to the people, 23 and they're going to kill him, and then he'll come back to life on the third day." Those listening were very upset.

the tax-collectors collecting the poll tax[229] approached Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and asked him, "Isn't your teacher going to pay the tax?"

25 "Yes, he will." replied Kefa.

Then when he went inside the house, before he could say anything, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) asked him, "What do you think, Shim'on (Simon)? Do this world's kings extract taxes from their own children, or from strangers?"

26 "From strangers," answered Kefa.

"So surely the children are exempt?", Yeshua responded, 27 "but so that we don't offend them, go down to the lake and throw in a line. Pull out the first fish that you hook, and when you open its mouth, you'll find a coin that'll be enough to pay the tax for both of us."

Who is the greatest?[230]

18:1 Around that time, Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') apprentices approached him and asked him, "So who'll be the greatest in the heavenly kingdom?"[231]

2 Yeshua called in a small child, stood the child in the middle of the room, 3 and said, "I can assure you all that if you don't change to become like a small child, you certainly won't enter the heavenly kingdom,[232] 4 so anyone who makes themself humble like this small child is greater in the heavenly kingdom. 5 Anyone who accepts a small child like this in my name is accepting me.

The importance of forgiveness

21 Then Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) approached Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and asked, "Master, how often can someone sin against me and I'll still have to forgive them?"[241]

22 "I won't say seven times," Yeshua answered, "but seventy times seven times![242]

23 "It's because of this that the heavenly kingdom can be likened to a king who wanted to settle accounts with his slaves. 24 So when he began the process, a man was brought in who owed him tens of millions, 25 but since he had no way of repaying it, the master commanded for him and his wife and children and all their possessions to be sold to help pay off the debt. 26 Then that slave dropped to the ground and prostrated himself to the master, saying, 'Master, give me a little more time, and then I'll be able to repay it all to you.' 27 So the master felt sorry for that slave and sent him away and forgave his loan.

28 "But when the slave got outside, he found one of his fellow slaves who owed him a few thousand. He grabbed him and was strangling him with his hands, saying, 'Give back what you owe!' 29 The fellow slave dropped to the ground and begged him, 'Give me a little more time and I'll repay you.' 30 But the other wasn't willing, and he went and had the man thrown into prison until he repaid what he owed. 31 The other slaves who'd observed all this were very upset, so they went and informed the master about what had happened. 32 So then the master called in the slave that he'd forgiven and told him, 'You evil slave! Yeshua answers about divorce[243]

19:1 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had finished saying these things, he left Galil and went to the Yehudah (Judea) regions on the other side of the Yarden (Jordan) River, 2 and large crowds followed him, and he healed them.

3 Some people from the Farisaios' party approached him to test him by asking, "Is there any cause for which a man can dismiss his wife?"

4 "Haven't you read," he replied, "that God made them male and female from the beginning?[244] 5 And then how he said, 'A man will leave his parents and be joined together with his wife, and then the two of them will be a single body'?[245] 6 So then, they're no longer two but are now one body, therefore don't let any person separate what God has joined together."

7 "So why did Mosheh (Moses) allow us to give her divorce papers and then send her away?" they asked him.[246]

8 "It was because of your hard hearts that Mosheh allowed you to send away your wife," Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) answered, "but it wasn't like that at the beginning. 9 Now I'm telling you that anyone who divorces his wife, except in the case of sexual immorality, and then remarries, is responsible for sexual cheating. Also, if the woman who was sent away remarries, then she's responsible for cheating, too.[247]

10 His followers made the point, "If that's the 11 "Not everyone can accept this," Yeshua responded, "but only those with a special gift.

12 There are some men who are born without testicles, right from their mother's womb, there are some who've been castrated by others, and there are some who castrate themselves because of the heavenly kingdom. Anyone who's able to accept this can accept it."

Yeshua blesses the children[248]

13 Then some small children were brought to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) hoping that he would place his hands on them and pray for them, but the apprentices scolded them. 14 But Yeshua intervened, "Be patient with the children, and don't stop them from coming to me, because it's ones like these that make up the heavenly kingdom."

15 Then, after placing his hands on them, he left that place.

Answering the rich man[249]

16 And look, a man approached Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and asked him, "Teacher, what good thing do I need to do in order to have eternal life?"

17 "Why are you asking me about what's good?" Yeshua responded. "Only one is good. But if you're wanting to enter into life, you should obey God's commands."

18 "Which ones?" he asked.

"Don't murder,"[250] Yeshua answered, "don't mess with another person's spouse,[251] don't steal,[252] don't lie in court,[253] 19 honour your parents,[254] and love your neighbour like yourself."[255]

20 "I've kept all of those," the young man said, "so what else do I need to do?"

21 "If you want to be perfect," answered Yeshua,

25 When his apprentices heard that, they were very surprised and asked, "Well, who can be saved then?"
26 Yeshua looked them in the eyes and answered, "It's impossible for humans, but with God, everything is possible."
27 "Hey," Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) reacted, "we left everything to follow you, so what'll happen to us?"
28 "I can assure you," Yeshua told them, "that after the world is remade and the son of humanity sits down on his splendid throne,[256] you apprentices who followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, ruling over Yisrael's (Israel) twelve tribes.[257] 29 And everyone who left their houses, or brothers or sisters, or father or mother, or wife or children, or farms, on account of my name and commission, will be repaid a hundred times over, and will inherit eternal life.

around midday, and again at 3pm, and did the same. 6 When he came out around 5pm, and there were still people just standing around, he asked them, 'Why have you been idly standing here all day?' 7 'Because no one has hired us,' they said. So he also sent them off to work in the vineyard.

8 "In the evening, the landowner instructed his manager, 'Call the workers and give them their wages,[259] starting with the last to start work, and ending with the first.' 9 The ones who'd started late afternoon each received the day's wage that the first workers had been promised, 10 so those first ones expected they'd receive more, but they all got the same day's wage. 11 When they got theirs, the first workers started grumbling about the landowner, 12 and complained, 'These last ones only worked an hour, and yet you paid them the same as us who worked the entire day right through the scorching heat!' 13 'Buddy,' he said to one of them, 'I'm not cheating you. Didn't you agree to work for me for the usual daily wage? 14 Take what we agreed on and go, but I wanted to give these last workers the same amount. 15 Or aren't I permitted to do what I want with my own money? Or do you look at me maliciously just because I'm generous?'

16 "So that's how the last will be first, and the first will be last."[260]

Yeshua tells a third time about his death[261]

21 "What is it that you're wanting?" Yeshua asked.

"Promise that my two sons will be able to sit beside you in your royal court," she said, "one on the right and one on the left."

22 But Yeshua answered, "You people don't realise what you're asking. Do you think you'll be able to bear the suffering that I'll have to suffer?"

"Yes," they replied, "we can."

23 "Well, you will indeed share my suffering," Yeshua responded. "But on the other hand, sitting on my right and my left is not my decision to make—it's for the people my father's prepared those places for."

24 Now the other ten, who'd heard all this, resented the two brothers, 25 but Yeshua called them over and said, "You apprentices know that the rulers of other nations practice total control over their people, as do other powerful people.[263] 26 But among you, it shouldn't be like that. Instead, anyone who wants to become important should be your servant,[264] 27 and anyone who wants to be first should be your slave, 28 in the same way that the son of humanity didn't come to be served, but to serve others and to give his life as the cost of freeing many people."

29 When they all left Yeriho (Jericho), a large crowd followed after him. 30 Then, look, two blind men heard that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was passing by, so they yelled out, "Show mercy to us, master, David's descendant!"

31 The crowd warned them to be quiet, but they just yelled out even louder, "Master, David's descendant, show mercy to us!"

32 At that point, Yeshua stopped and called them over and asked, "What is it that you're wanting me to do for you?"

The jubilant entrance of Yeshua into Yerushalem[266]

21:1 When they were getting close to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and arrived at Beyt-Fagey (Bethphage) on the Mt. of Olives, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) sent two of his apprentices ahead, 2 telling them, "Go ahead to the next village, and in front of you you'll see a donkey tied up, and her colt near her. Untie the donkey and bring them back here to me. 3 But if anyone says anything to you, just tell them that the master needs them, and they'll let you take them."
4 "All this is happening so that the message that was written by the prophet will come to pass:
5 'Tell the daughter of Tsiyon (Zion):
"Look, your king is coming, gentle, and riding a donkey, and a colt, a donkey's offspring." ' "[267]
6 So the two apprentices left and did what Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had told them. 7 They brought back the donkey and the colt, and they put their coats on them, and he sat on them.
8 Then some people in the huge crowd spread their coats on the road, while others cut branches off trees and spread them on the road. 9 The crowd that walked ahead of him and the crowd that followed along behind all yelled out, "David's descendant, honoured rescuer! Blessed one who comes in Yahweh's name! Supreme honoured rescuer!"[268]
10 As they entered Yerushalem (Jerusalem), everyone in the city was stunned, asking, "Who is this?"
11 The crowds responded, "It's the prophet Yeshua—the prophet from Nazaret (Nazareth) in Galil!"

Anger aroused in the temple[269]

12 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) dismounted and entered the temple. He threw out everyone who was buying and selling in the temple, and he knocked over the moneychangers' tables and the dove-sellers' seats, 13 telling them, "It was written that my house will be called a house of prayer, but you're making it a hideout for robbers."[270]

14 The blind and lame people in the temple approached Yeshua, and he healed them. 15 But the chief priests and religious teachers, having seen him do miracles, and having heard the children in the temple yelling out 'David's descendant, honoured rescuer!' became angry 16 and accused him, asking, "Can't you hear what they're saying?"

"Yes, I can," Yeshua responded. "Didn't you ever read where it says 'You caused praise to come from the lips of infants and babies'?"[271]

17 Then he left the temple and Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and went and stayed overnight out at Beyt-Ania (Bethany).

Yeshua kills the fig tree[272]

18 In the morning, as he headed back into the city, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was hungry. 19 He saw a single fig tree near the road, but when he got close, it only had leaves on it, so he told it, "You'll never bear fruit again," and immediately the fig tree withered up.

20 His apprentices who saw this happen were amazed and asked each other, "How did that tree instantly wither up?"

21 "I can assure you apprentices," Yeshua answered, "that if you have faith and don't doubt, not only could you do that to a fig tree, you could tell this hill to move itself into the sea, and it would happen.[273] 22 You'd be able to do everything—anything you request in prayer, believing that it'll happen."

The source of Yeshua's authority[274]

23 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went back into the temple and started teaching the people, the chief priests and the Jewish elders came and challenged him, asking, "What authority do you have to do these things?"

24 "Well, I have one question for you first," Yeshua answered. "If you answer it, then I'll tell you all about my authority to do these things. 25 So, where did Yohan's (John; Grk. Yoannes) practice of immersion come from?"

They discussed this among themselves, saying, "If we say from heaven, he'll ask us why we didn't believe Yohan. 26 But if we say it was a human idea, then the crowd might revolt against us, since they consider Yohan to be a prophet." 27 So they answered, "We don't know."

"Well then, nor will I tell you about my authority to do these things," Yeshua answered.

The parable about obedience

28 "But what does it matter to you people, anyway? There was a man who had two children, and he went up to the first one and told him, 'Son, go and work in my vineyard today.' 29 'I can't,' he answered, but later he regretted what he'd said and went and did the work. 30 The father also approached the other child with the same instruction. 'I will, master,' this one answered, but he never went. 31 Which of the two did what the father wanted?"

"The first one," they answered.

"I can assure you," Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) continued, "that tax collectors and prostitutes will enter God's kingdom ahead of you lot, 32 because Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) came to you teaching the way to become right with God, but you didn't believe that he was sent by God. Yet the tax collectors and prostitutes believed him, and still, even when you saw that, you didn't later show regret, change your minds, and believe.[275] vineyard and fenced it, and he carved a wine-pressing pit into it and built a watchtower.[277] Then he rented it out to tenant farmers and moved away. 34 At harvest time, he sent some of his slaves to the tenant farmers to bring back his share of the harvest. 35 However, the tenants grabbed his slaves and beat them. They killed some and threw rocks at others. 36 So the owner sent a larger group of slaves, but the tenants did the same things to them.

37 "Next, he sent his son, because he thought his son would have influence over them. 38 But when the tenant farmers saw the son, they thought, 'Hey, this is the heir of the estate. If we kill him, then the inheritance will be ours.' 39 So they grabbed the son, dragged him out of the vineyard, and killed him there outside.

40 "Now, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what do you think he'll do to those tenant farmers?"

41 "He'll brutally destroy those wicked tenants," they answered, "then he'll rent the vineyard out to other tenant farmers, who'll give him his share of the harvest."

42 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) said to them, "Haven't you ever read this in the scriptures? It says:

'The stone which the builders rejected,

The parable about the wedding reception[281]

22:1 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), still answering them, told another parable: 2 "The heavenly kingdom is like this: A king prepared his son's wedding reception, 3 and he sent out some of his slaves to remind the people who'd been invited, but they didn't want to come. 4 So he sent out some other slaves, instructing them, 'Tell the people who were invited: Listen, I've prepared the dinner, including some of my grain-fed beef, and everything's now ready. Come to the wedding and celebrate.' 5 But they ignored the message and went their various ways—one went off to his field to work, and another went to deal with his business. 6 Still others grabbed the slaves and mistreated them, and even killed them.

7 "Now the king was angry and sent in his soldiers to destroy those murderers and burn their city. 8 Then he told his slaves, 'Well, the wedding reception is ready, but the people who were invited aren't worthy to come. 9 So spread out on the roads and invite everyone you find to come to the reception.' 10 So those slaves went out onto the roads and invited everyone they found—both evil and good people, and then the seats at the wedding reception were all full.

11 "But when the king came in to meet the seated guests, he saw a man there who wasn't dressed in the proper clothes for a wedding, 12 and demanded, 'Friend, how did you get in here without the right clothes?' But the man had nothing to say. 13 So the king told his servants, 'Tie up the man's hands and feet, and throw him outside into the darkness, where there'll be weeping and a lot of anguish.'[282]

14 Certainly, many people are invited, but only a few are selected."

The question about paying tax[283]

18 But Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) knew how wicked they were, and asked, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? 19 Show me the coin used to pay the poll tax." So they brought a coin to him. 20 Then he asked, "Whose image is this on the coin, and whose inscription?"

The question about marriage in heaven[284]

23 On the same day, some people from the Sadoukaios (Sadducee) sect (who claim people won't rise back to life after dying)[285] approached Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and asked, 24 "Teacher, Mosheh (Moses) wrote that if a married man dies childless, his brother should marry the widow and in that way raise children for his deceased brother.[286] 25 Well, there were seven brothers amongst us, and the first one got married and then died childless. So his brother married the widow. 26 The same happened for the second brother, and the third, all the way to the seventh. 27 Finally the woman died. 28 Now then, if people rise back to life, which of the brothers will she be the wife of, since they were all married to her?"

29 "You've got it wrong," Yeshua answered, "because you don't understand either the scriptures or God's power. 30 When people come back to life, there'll be no marrying or getting engaged, because they'll be like the messengers in heaven. 31 But as for coming back to life after dying, isn't it written in the scriptures that God said, 32 'I am

The most important command[288]

34 But when the Farisaios party heard that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had silenced the Saddoukaios (Sadducees), they decided to work together, 35 so a lawyer among them tested him by asking, 36 "Teacher, which is the most important command in Mosheh's (Moses') instructions?"

37 "You should love your God Yahweh with your whole heart, your whole soul, and your whole mind.[289] 38 That's the first and most important command. 39 The next is similar to it: You should love your neighbour the way you love yourself.[290] 40 Everything in the Torah and the prophets' writings just follows on from those two commands."[291]

The question about the messiah[292]

41 Since everyone from the Farisaios party was gathered together, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) asked them a question, 42 "How do you interpret the scriptures about the messiah? Who will he be a descendant of?"

"A descendant of King David," they answered.

43 "Then how could David," he continued, "inspired by God's spirit, call him 'master' when he said,

44 'Yahweh said to my master:
"Sit there at my right until I conquer your enemies"?[293]

45 So if David calls him 'master', how could he be his descendant?"

46 No one was able to answer his question, and after that day they didn't dare ask him anything else.

23:1 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) spoke to the crowds and to his apprentices, saying, 2 "The religious teachers and the Farisaios party claim Mosheh's (Moses) authority. 3 Because of that, do everything they tell you to do, and obey all the commands they tell you to obey. However, don't copy what they do, because they're only good at telling, not doing. 4 They package up unbearably heavy loads and put them on the people's shoulders, while they themselves won't even lift a finger to help. 5 Everything they do do is only done to be a public display in front of the people,[295] so they have big prayer boxes[296] and fancy robes.[297] 6 They love the best places at dinners and the best seats in the Jewish meeting halls. 7 They love being greeted in the marketplaces and addressed as 'my great one'. 8 But don't let anyone call you 'my great one', because you only have one leader, and you're all brothers and sisters, 9 and don't call anyone here on earth your 'Father', because you only have one father—a heavenly one. 10 Don't let anyone call you their mentor, because you only have one teacher, and that's the messiah. 11 The most important person will be everyone's servant,[298] 12 and anyone who praises themself will be humbled, and anyone who humbles themself will be praised.[299]

Yeshua reveals the hypocrisy of those who are religious[300]

13 "You religious teachers and Farisaios are hypocrites and will have a bad end, because you're actually keeping people away from the heavenly kingdom—you don't enter yourselves, and nor do you allow others to enter.

17 You're both stupid and blind, because which is gold sacred? 18 And you say that if anyone makes a Punishment for mistreating prophets[304]

29 "You religious teachers and Farisaios are hypocrites and will have a bad end, because you rebuild the prophets' tombs and adorn the tombs of godly people, 30 and you tell yourselves, 'If we'd lived back in our ancestors' time, we wouldn't have had any part with them in killing the prophets.' 31 By saying that, you're admitting to yourselves that you're the descendants of the ones who killed the prophets— 32 actually you're just the same as your ancestors. 33 Bunch of snakes! Brood of vipers! How are you planning to escape being condemned to hell?[305] 34 Because of that, listen, I'm now sending more prophets and wise preachers and teachers to you people. You'll kill off some of them and have others executed on posts. You'll flog some of them in your Jewish meeting halls, and you'll persecute others from city to city, 35 so that the judgement for the deaths of all the godly people around the world will fall on you people. This includes the blood of innocent Hevel (Abel)[306] all the way through the centuries to the blood of Zekaryah (Zechariah; Grk. Zakarias) (son of Berekyah) who you people murdered between the temple and the altar.[307] 36 Yes, I can assure you that all these things will happen to this generation.

Yeshua's concern for Yerushalem[308]

37 "Yerushalem (Jerusalem), Yerushalem, the city that murders the prophets and throws rocks to kill those who are sent to her. How often I wanted to gather your inhabitants like a mother hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you didn't want that. 38 So listen, now your temple will be left uninhabited,[309] 39 because I'm telling you that you certainly won't see me again until you can say, 'The person coming in Yahweh's name has been blessed.' Yeshua foretells the destruction of the temple[311]

24:1 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) left the temple, his apprentices approached him and pointed out the temple buildings. 2 In response, he asked, "Do you see all this? I can assure you that it'll be torn down so thoroughly that not a single stone will be left on top of another."

Future calamities and persecution[312]

3 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was sitting on the Mt. of Olives, his apprentices came up to him by themselves, asking, "Tell us when all those things will happen, and what the signs will be of your arrival and of the end of this age."

4 "Watch out in case other people mislead you," Yeshua answered, 5 "because many will come claiming to be me, saying that they're the messiah, and misleading many people. 6 You'll observe wars and hear reports about wars further away. Don't be alarmed, but keep watching, because these things need to happen, although that's not yet the end. 7 People groups will turn against each other, and countries rise up against one another, and there'll be famines and earthquakes. 8 But all of those things are just like the beginning of labour pains.

9 "Then they'll hand you apprentices over for persecution, and some of you will be killed. All the people groups will hate you because of my name.[313] 10 They'll cause many people to stumble and hand each other over and hate each other. 11 Also, many false prophets will appear, and they'll mislead many people, 12 and as a result, lawlessness will increase, and many people's love will cool off, 13 but anyone who lasts until the end will be rescued.[314] 14 This good message about God's kingdom will be proclaimed right around the world as a witness statement to all the people groups, and then the end will come.

However, because of the chosen people, those days will be shortened.

23 "At that time, if anyone says, 'Look, here's the messiah' or 'Here he is', don't believe it, 24 because false messiahs and false prophets will emerge, and they'll do amazing miracles that would, if possible, mislead even the chosen people. 25 Listen, I'm telling you apprentices before it happens.

Watch the fig tree[326]

32 "So learn the parable about the fig tree: whenever its branches green up and leaves start to sprout out, you know that summer is coming. 33 In the same way, when you see all those things happening, you'll know then that the end of this age is very close. 34 I can assure you that that generation won't pass away until all of those things happen. 35 The sky and the earth will pass away, but my messages will certainly not pass away.

The day of his return isn't known[327]

36 "No one knows the exact day or time—not even the messengers in the heavens, or even the son—only the father knows it. 37 The son of humanity's arrival will be just like it was in Noah's time.[328] 38 In the days leading up to the flood, people were eating and drinking, and marrying and getting engaged—right until the very day that Noah got into the barge. 39 They didn't realise that something was coming until the flood came and took everything away.[329] It'll be just like that when the son of humanity comes. 40 Two people will be working out on the farm—one will be taken and one left behind. 41 Two people will be grinding grain—one will be taken and one left behind. 42 So keep watching, because none of you know exactly when your master will return. 43 But you do know that if a home-owner knew when a thief was going to come, he'd be there watching, and not allow the thief to break into the house.[330] 44 Because of that, you apprentices should also get ready, because otherwise you won't realise when the son of humanity is coming.

The watchful servant and the slacker[331]

45 "As a result, we'll see who the faithful and watchful slave is—the one who the master appointed to run all of his household affairs. 46 That slave will be rewarded if the master finds him working faithfully when he arrives suddenly. 47 I can assure you that he'll appoint the slave to supervise everything that he possesses. 48 But if the evil slave says to himself, 'Ah, the master won't be back for a long time yet,' 49 and starts beating his fellow slaves, and spends time eating and drinking with drunks, 50 then his master will arrive when he's not expecting it 51 and will torture him and send him off with the hypocrites to where there'll be crying and a lot of anguish.

The parable about not being prepared

25:1 "The heavenly kingdom can also be likened to ten young women in a wedding party who took their lamps and went off to meet the groom.[332] 2 Five of them were harebrained and five were sensible. 3 The less clever ones took their lamps but didn't take any oil for them, 4 whereas the sensible ones had oil in containers along with the lamps. 5 When the groom was delayed, they started nodding off and napping.

6 "But in the middle of the night there was a shout, 'Look, the groom's on his way! Come out and meet him.' 7 So all the young women got up and trimmed the wicks on their lamps, 8 and the less sensible ones asked the others, 'Here, give us some of your oil, because our lamps are starting to splutter.' 9 But the sensible ones answered, 'We don't have enough for everyone. You need to go to the stall and buy some for your lamps.' 10 However, while they were still away buying oil, the groom appeared, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding, and the door was shut.

11 "Later, the other young women arrived and called out, 'Master, master, let us in!'[333] 12 But he answered, 'I can assure you that I don't know you.'

13 "So then, be watchful, because you apprentices don't know the day or the time.

The parable about using what you're given[334]

14 "It's like a man who was leaving on a trip. He called his slaves and shared his savings among them for them to manage.[335] 15 He gave five bags of silver[336] to one, two bags to another, and one to the other, according to each slave's ability, and then he departed. 16 In his absence, the one with five bags of silver used it for trading and gained five more bags. 17 Similarly, the one with two bags gained two more bags. 18 But the one who received the one bag, he went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's silver.

19 "Eventually the master of those slaves returned, and he called them in to settle up their accounts. 20 The slave who'd received five bags of silver approached, also bringing the other five bags, and said, 'Master, you entrusted me with five bags, and look, I gained another five.' 21 'Well done, good and faithful slave,' said the master. 'You were faithful with a few things, so I'll put you in charge of a lot more things. Come and join your master in celebrating.' 22 The slave who'd received two bags approached and said, 'Master, you entrusted me with two bags of silver. Look, I gained another two.' 23 'Well done, good and faithful slave,' said the master. 'You were faithful with a

26:1 After Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had completed his teaching, he told his apprentices, 2 "The pass-over celebration is in two more days,[343] and the son of humanity will be handed over to be executed on a stake."

3 At that time, the chief priests and the local elders were gathered together in the courtyard of Kayafa (Caiaphas; Grk. Kaiafas), the chief priest, 4 and they plotted together to devise a way to arrest Yeshua so they could execute him. 5 However, they decided not to do it during the celebrations so it wouldn't cause a big public disturbance.

10 But Yeshua knew what they were saying and responded, "Why are you all causing problems for this woman, because she did something beautiful for me. 11 You'll always have the poor with you,[346] but you won't always have me around. 12 This woman put this lotion on my body in a sense as a burial spice. 13 I can assure you all that wherever the good message about me is retold anywhere in the world, this woman and what she did will also be mentioned as a memorial to her."

Yehudah agrees to turn in Yeshua[347]

Yeshua gets ready to celebrate Passover[349]

17 On the first day of the Flat Bread Celebration, the Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') apprentices approached him and asked, "Where do you want us to prepare the pass-over meal for you?"

19 So the apprentices did as Yeshua had instructed them, and then they prepared the pass-over meal.

20 That evening as Yeshua was sitting with the twelve, 21 he said to them while they were still eating, "I can assure you that one of you is going to turn me in."

22 They were very upset and one by one they asked him, "Surely it won't be me, master?"

23 "It's the one who dipped his bread into the bowl at the same time as I did," Yeshua answered. "He's the one who's going to turn me in.[350] 24 It's true that the son of humanity is going to suffer what has already been written about, but on the other hand, the end won't be good for the man who turns him in, in fact it would have been better for him if he'd never been born."

25 "Surely it won't be me, honoured teacher?" asked Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas), the one who would hand him in.[351]

"You said it," he replied.

Yeshua shares the bread and the wine[352]

26 Then during the meal, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) took some bread and blessed it, then he broke it into pieces and gave it to his apprentices, saying, "Take this and eat it—it's my body."

27 Then he took a cup of wine and after giving thanks, he shared it with them saying, "Everyone drink some, 28 because this is my blood[353] of the agreement[354] which is about to be poured out for the forgiveness of the sins of many people. 29 I can assure you all that I certainly won't drink this pass-over wine again until I'm able to drink it together with you all in my father's kingdom."

30 Then they sang some songs before heading out of the city to the Mt. of Olives.

34 "I can assure you," responded Yeshua, "that you'll disown me three times tonight before the rooster crows in the morning."

35 "Even if I have to die with you," said Kefa, "I'd certainly never disown you," and all the other apprentices said likewise.

Yeshua prays at Gethsaimanai[358]

36 Then they went together to a property named Gethsaimanai where he told his apprentices to sit down while he went on a little further to pray. 37 He took Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros), Ya'akov (Jacob), and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) with him, and then he was struck by feelings of sorrow and distress 38 and told them, "My soul is deathly sad. Stay here and look out for me."

39 He went on a little further, and knelt with his face to the ground, saying, "My father, if it's possible, let me avoid this suffering. However, it's not what I want because I want to do what you want."

40 Then he went back to the apprentices, but found them napping and said to Kefa, "Weren't you even able to stay awake for an hour for me? 41 Stay alert and pray so that you all don't fall into temptation. Your spirits are eager, but your endurance is lacking."

42 Then he went off a second time and prayed, "My father, if this can't be done any other way than me having to suffer, then I'll submit to your will." 43 Returning again, he found the apprentices sleeping because they were very tired.

44 So he left them there and went back a third time, praying in the same way. 45 Then he went back to his apprentices and told them, "You're all sleeping to get some rest? But look, it's time now, and the son of humanity is about to be handed over to sinners. 46 Get up—we need to move. The one about to turn me in is coming."

Yeshua is arrested[359]

47 While he was still speaking, Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas), one of the twelve, came and he was accompanied by a large crowd from the chief priests and local elders, and they were carrying swords and clubs. 48 The one who was turning him in had prearranged a sign that he would kiss the one that they should arrest.

49 He walked straight up to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and said, "Greetings, my honoured teacher," and he kissed him.

50 "Friend," Yeshua asked, "why have you come?"

Then they came up to Yeshua, and grabbed and arrested him. 51 But wow, one of Yeshua's group put out a hand to stop them, then drew his sword and struck at the chief priest's slave, cutting off his ear. 52 "Put your sword back in its sheath," Yeshua said, "because those who fight with the sword, die by the sword. 53 Don't you realise that I could just ask my father and he would place over a dozen divisions of heavenly soldiers here in front of me, 54 however then the scriptures that tell what will happen wouldn't get fulfilled."

55 Then turning to the crowds, Yeshua said, "So you all came out with swords and clubs as if you were arresting a thief? 56 I was sitting, teaching every day in the temple[360] but you didn't arrest me there."

Kayafa (Caiaphas; Grk. Kaiafas) the chief priest, where the religious teachers and the local elders had gathered together. 58 Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) followed along from a distance, and went inside to the chief priest's courtyard, where he sat with the attendants and waited to see what would happen. 59 The chief priests and the whole council tried to find people who would bring false accusations against Yeshua so they could sentence him to death, 60 but even though many people wanted to try, they couldn't find anyone suitable. Eventually, two others came up 61 and said, "We heard this man say, 'I'm able to demolish God's temple and rebuild it in three days.' "[362]

62 So the chief priest stood and asked Yeshua, "Don't you have any respond to what these men are accusing you of?" 63 But Yeshua stayed silent, so then the chief priest asked him, "I order you by the living God to tell us if you're the messiah, the son of God."

64 "You said it," Yeshua responded. "However, I can tell you all that from now on, you'll see the son of humanity sitting beside God in the position of power and coming in the clouds in the sky."[363]

65 Then the chief priest tore his robes and said, "He belittled God. Why would we need more witnesses after that? See here, you all heard him slander God. 66 What do you all think now?

"He should get the death penalty,"[364] they answered.

73 A little while later, another person stood up and went to Kefa, "You must be one of them because we can tell by your accent."

74 Kefa began to curse and promise, "I don't know that man." Just then the rooster crowed 75 and then Kefa remembered that Yeshua had said that he would deny him three times before the rooster crowed. He left the courtyard and went away and bawled in shame.

Yeshua is taken to Pilatos[367]

27:1 By now it was early morning, and all the chief priests and local elders discussed and agreed on their plans to have Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) put to death 2 then they tied his arms and led him away to be handed over to Pilatos (Pilate), the Romaios governor.

Yehudah' regret and suicide[368]

3 When Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas), (the one who had turned him in) saw that he was being sentenced to death, he regretted his actions and returned the payment to the chief priests and elders 4 saying, "I've sinned and turned in an innocent man."

"What's that got to do with us?" they asked. "You sort out your own problems."

5 Then Yehudah threw the money down on the temple floor and went off and hanged himself.

6 The chief priests took the money and decided, "We can't legally deposit the money to the temple treasury because it's blood money." 7 They got advice and decided to buy the potter's field that was for sale to make it a cemetery for people from out of town, 8 so that place got called 'The field of blood'[369] until today.

9 And so the message which had been written by the prophet Yirmiyah (Jeremiah) was fulfilled, 'They took the thirty silver coins, the price of the one who was sold, the price set by the Israelis,

Yeshua faces Pilatos[371]

11 Meanwhile Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was stood in front of the governor and the governor asked him, "Are you the king of the Yehudim (Jews)?"

"You said it,", responded Yeshua, 12 but when he chief priests and the elders brought their accusations against him, he didn't say anything.

13 Then Pilatos (Pilate) asked him, "Can't you hear all the evidence against you that they're listing?"

14 But he didn't respond, not even a single word, and this greatly surprised the governor.

The guiltless Yeshua is sentenced to death[372]

15 It was the time of the Passover celebrations, and a tradition had been established that the governor would release one prisoner to the people—whoever they chose. 16 At that time, there was a well-known prisoner named Bar-Aba (Grk. Barabbas), 17 so when all the people had gathered, Pilatos (Pilate) shouted down to them, "Who would you all like me to release: Bar-Aba or Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) who's also being called the messiah?" 18 He said this because he knew that Yeshua had been arrested because of the jealousy of the Jewish leaders.

19 But while Pilatos was still making his judgement, his wife sent a note to him, saying, "Don't touch that guiltless man because I was very distressed by a dream I had about him."

20 Meanwhile the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to request that Bar-Aba be released and that Yeshua should be sentenced, 21 so when the governor asked them, "Which of these two men should I release?" they called back, "Bar-Aba."

22 "So what should I do to Yeshua who's called the messiah?" Pilatos asked.

"Execute him on a stake!" they all responded.

23 "But what crime has he done?" demanded Pilatos.

But they just kept yelling loudly, "Execute him on a stake."

24 When Pilatos saw that it was going nowhere other than to turn into a riot, got a bowl of water and washed his hands up there in front of the crowd,[373] announcing, "I'm innocent of the blood of this man who has done nothing wrong. It's your responsibility now."

25 "The responsibility for his blood will be on us and on our children," the people shouted back.

26 Then Pilatos commanded that Bar-Aba (Grk. Barabbas) be released. He commanded that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) be flogged and then he handed him over to be executed.

'King' Yeshua is mocked by the soldiers[374]

27 The governor's soldiers took Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) to the courtyard of his residence and called together all the soldiers in the unit. 28 Then they stripped Yeshua and placed a royal scarlet robe around him. 29 They twisted together a crown made of strips of thorns and plonked it on his head and made him hold a reed as a staff. Then they knelt down in front of him and mocked him, saying, "Greetings, your majesty, King of the Yehudim (Jews)." 30 They spat on him then snatched the reed away and used it to whack him on the head. 31 When they'd finished mocking him, they took the robe off him and dressed him in his own clothes again before they led him away to the place where he'd be executed.

Yeshua and robbers placed on stakes[375]

32 When they got out onto the street, they grabbed a man who turned out to be Shim'on (Simon) from Kurainai (Cyrene), and they forced him to carry the stake. 33 When they arrived at the place called Golgotha (which means 'Place of the skull'), 34 they gave Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. 51 Then, wow, the curtain inside the temple was torn apart from the top to the bottom,[386] and there was an earthquake and splitting of rocks.
52 Some tombs came open and many bodies of godly people came alive again 53 and leaving the tombs after his resurrection, they went into God's city where many people saw them.
54 The Romaios officer and his soldiers who were guarding Yeshua were very frightened when they felt the earthquake and saw what happened, and said, "This man really was a son of God!" 55 There were many women watching all this from a distance—they were those who from Galil who had followed Yeshua and looked after him,[387] 56 including Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) from Magdala, Miryam the mother of Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and Yosef (Joseph), and Zavday's (Grk. Zebedaios') wife—the mother of Ya'akov and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes).

Yeshua's body is placed in a tomb[388]

57 As it moved into evening, a wealthy man named Yosef (Joseph) from Arimathaia came—he'd also been one of Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk.
Yesus') apprentices. 58 He went to Pilatos (Pilate) and requested Yeshua's body, and Pilatos commanded the soldiers to release it. 59 Yosef took the body and wrapped it in clean, linen cloth 60 and put it in his own tomb which had been newly carved into the rock. Then he rolled a big stone into the door of the tomb and left it. 61 Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) from Magdala and the other Miryam sat there in front of the tomb.

Guards are assigned to the tomb

62 The next day was the day after the Passover preparation day and the chief priests and the Fari-saios went together to Pilatos (Pilate) 63 and told him, "Master, we were reminded that that deceiver when he was still alive said that he would come back to life after three days[389] 64 so you should command that the tomb be secured until

65 "Well you all guard it," answered Pilatos, "and keep it secure as you say."

66 So they went and secured the tomb by sealing it and placing guards there.

The women encounter the messenger and then meet Yeshua[390]

28:1 After the days of rest during the first light of Sunday morning, Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) from Magdala and the other Miryam went out to visit the tomb. 2 Then, wow, there was a massive earthquake because one of Yahweh's messengers had come down from heaven and approached the tomb. He had rolled away the stone and was now sitting on it. 3 He looked as if you were watching lightning and his clothes were extremely white. 4 The guards at the tomb shook with fear when they saw him and then they fainted.

5 Then the messenger spoke to the women, "Don't be scared because I know that both of you are looking for Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) who was executed on a stake. 6 He isn't here, because he came back to life just like he said he would. Go inside and see the place where his body was lying 7 and then leave straight away and go and tell his followers that he's come alive again and will go ahead of you all to Galil. You'll see him when you get there. Listen, I've told you now."

8 So they went off quickly with a mixture of fear and incredible happiness, and ran back to tell Yeshua's followers.

9 Then, wow, Yeshua met them on the path and greeted them. The two women went close and knelt down and took hold of his feet and lowered their heads. 10 Then Yeshua spoke again, "Don't be scared. Go now and tell my brothers so they'll go up to Galil and then they'll see me there."

The guards are paid to lie

11 After they'd left, some of the guards from the tomb went into the city and told the chief priests everything that had happened, 12 so they met together with the elders and after some discussion, they gave a generous amount to the soldiers 13 and told them, "Tell everyone that his followers came in the dark and stole his body when you'd fallen asleep. 14 If the governor hears about it, we'll butter him up so that you won't need to be afraid of getting punished."

15 So they took the money and did what they had been asked.

Yeshua commissions his apprentices as missionaries[391]

16 The eleven apprentices travelled up to Galil to the hill that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had previously told them to go to,[392] 17 and when they saw him there, they immediately bowed down to the ground, even though their minds weren't sure that it was really him. 18 Then Yeshua came closer and told them, "I have been given authority over both heavenly and earthly affairs 19 so I want you to leave here and go and train followers in every country,[393] immersing them in water with the authority of the father and the son and the holy spirit. 20 Then teach them to do everything just like I instructed all of you. And listen, I will be with you all every day right through until the end of this age."

The first account by Lukas

being the account of Yeshua's ministry

Introduction

Author

This account about the works and teachings of Yeshua was written by Lukas, one of the later followers of Yeshua. Lukas was believed to be a medical doctor and although many have assumed him to be a Greek, there's also a good case that he was Jewish. He was good friends with Paulos and accompanied him several times as they travelled to various places to spread the good message about Yeshua the messiah. Lukas was also the author of the account of the beginnings of the Christian church known commonly known as Acts, and unlike most other Bibles, the Open English Translation places these two successive accounts one after the other.

This account

This account was written to Theofilos who is said to be an honoured person from Romai. He starts his account with the prophesied birth of Yohan-the-immerser and then of Yeshua right through until he's lifted into the clouds. Lukas also explains how that Yeshua is the messiah promised by God to save Yehudim and all non-Jews who put their trust in him. It's also told here in this document about Yeshua's mercy towards troubled people and sinners, his healing of many who were sick or possessed by demons, his bringing dead people back to life, and his teaching. Recurring themes here include God's spirit, prayer, forgiveness of sins, the women who helped Yeshua with his work, and how believers should prepare for his return.

Introduction

1:1 Several people attempted to write an account about the events that we're personally certain of 2 as the ones who were eyewitnesses and hearers of these accounts from the beginning handed them over to us. 3 So since we had followed all these events so carefully, it seemed like a good idea to write this account for you, honoured Theofilos, 4 so that you could know the definite background behind what you were taught.

The messenger foretells the birth of Yohan-the-immerser

5 It started with the priest Zekaryah (Zechariah; Grk. Zakarias) and his wife Elisheva (Elizabeth; Grk. Elisabet) at the time when Herodes (Herod) was the king of Yehudah (Judea). (Zekaryah was in the priestly division of Aviyah,[1] and Elisheva was also a descendant of Aharon (Aaron).) 6 God considered them both good and blameless as they followed his instructions and obeyed his rules. 7 Elisheva had never been able to have a child, so there was just the two of them as they were now getting older.

8 One time as he was taking his rostered turn to serve God along with his division, 9 he was chosen by lot (this was how the priests assigned tasks) to light the incense in the temple, and so he proceeded inside. 10 A lot of people would be praying outside the temple at the time when the incense was burnt. 11 At that moment, a messenger from God appeared to Zekaryah, standing right there at the right of the incense altar. 12 Zekaryah got a big fright at seeing him there and started to tremble. 13 But the messenger spoke, "Don't be scared Zekaryah, because your request has been listened to, and your wife Elisheva will give birth to a son and you'll name him Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes). 14 He'll bring a lot of happiness to you and you'll be proud of him—in fact many people will be glad. 15 He'll be considered special in God's eyes, but he won't be allowed to drink wine or spirits.[2] Even while he's still in his mother's womb, he'll be filled with God's spirit. 16 He will turn many Israeli people back to Yahweh, their God. 17 And he will go

18 Zekaryah asked the messenger, "How will I know if you're telling the truth, because I'm an older man and my wife is also getting old?"

19 Now the messenger rebuked him, "I am Gavriel (Gabriel)[4] who stood right in front of God and was commanded to come here and talk to you, and to tell all of this to you, 20 so listen to this: Because you didn't believe my message, you'll be made silent and unable to speak until the day that all of these things happen, and they certainly will happen at the proper times."

21 Meanwhile, the people outside were expecting Zekaryah to come back out, and were wondering what could be holding him up there inside the temple. 22 But when he did emerge, he wasn't able to speak to them. They wondering if maybe he'd seen a vision in the temple, and he nodded to confirm this although he remained mute, 23 and after he'd finished his rostered days in the temple, he returned home.

24 As time went on, Elisheva (Elizabeth; Grk. Elisabet) became pregnant and secluded herself away for five months, saying, 25 "Yahweh has done this for me. At this time he's looked down at me and taken away the public shame of my being childless."

God's messenger comes to Maria

26 When Elisheva (Elizabeth; Grk. Elisabet) was six months pregnant, God sent his messenger Gavriel (Gabriel) to Nazaret (Nazareth), a city in the Galil region. 27 Gavriel went to a young woman named Maria (Mary; Heb. Miryam; Grk. Maria/Mariam) who was engaged to be married to Yosef (Joseph), a descendant of King David,[5] 28 and entering the room, spoke to her, "Hello there. Yahweh is with you and he's chosen you to be honoured." 29 Maria was very puzzled by the statement and wondered what kind of greeting it could be 30 as the messenger continued, "Don't be scared, Maria, because God is showing his favour on you, 31 and listen, you'll conceive a baby and go on to give birth to a son, and you must name him Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus).[6] 32 He'll be very special and will be called 'the son of the highest one', and Yahweh God will give him the throne of David, his ancestor.[7] 33 He'll reign over Ya'akov's (Jacob's) descendants throughout the ages, and his kingdom will never end."

34 "How would this work," Maria asked the messenger, "because I've never slept with a guy?"

35 "The holy spirit will come over you," answered the messenger, "and the power of the highest one will overshadow you, and so the holy child that'll be born will be called God's son. 36 Also, your relative Elisheva (Elizabeth; Grk. Elisabet) has also conceived a son in her old age—the one who was called barren is now six months pregnant 37 because with God, his statements always come to pass."[8]

38 "Listen," said Maria, "I'm Yahweh's servant girl. May everything you said come true." Then the messenger left her.

Maria's visit to Elisheva

39 Several days later, Maria (Mary; Heb. Miryam; Grk. Maria/Mariam) determined that she'd go to the town in the hills of Yehudah (Judea) 40 where Zekaryah (Grk. Zakarias) and Elisheva (Elizabeth; Grk. Elisabet) lived. She entered the house and greeted Elisheva, 41 and as soon as Elisheva heard the greeting, her baby in her womb kicked, and she was filled with the holy spirit 42 and she called out loudly, "Out of all women, you have been blessed and the baby in your womb has been blessed. 43 How could this happen to me—that the mother of my master would come and visit me! 44 You see, as soon as I heard your greeting, the baby in my womb kicked with excitement, 45 and the woman who believed that everything Yahweh told her will happen, she will be blessed."

Maria's song of praise

46 Maria (Mary; Heb. Miryam; Grk. Maria/Mariam) said,
"My soul praises Yahweh,
47 and my spirit is so happy about God, my saviour,
48 because he noticed his humble servant girl.[9]
Look now, all the future generations will consider that I was blessed 49 because the powerful one treated me incredibly, and his name is holy.
50 He shows his mercy to multiple generations;
to those who honour him.
51 His arm is powerful;
he scatters those who are proud in their hearts.
52 He knocks kings off their thrones, and praises those who are humble.[10] 53 Those who are hungry, he fills with good things, but those who are rich, he sends away empty handed.
54 He took good care of his servant, Yisrael (Israel), to be reminded of mercy 55 as he spoke to our ancestors, to Avraham and his descendants,[11]
at the right time."
56 So Maria (Mary; Heb. Miryam; Grk. Maria/Mariam) stayed with Elisheva (Elizabeth; Grk. Elisabet) for about three months before returning back to her own home.

The birth of Yohan-the-immerser

57 When Elisheva's (Elizabeth's; Grk. Elisabet's) nine months were up, she gave birth and produced a son 58 and her neighbours and relatives heard that Yahweh had shown great mercy to her, and so they celebrated along with her.
59 When the baby boy was eight days old, it was the time to circumcise him,[12] and the relatives at the ceremony started calling him Zekaryah (Grk.

Zakarias) after the name of his father, 60 but the baby's mother spoke up and said, "No, he's going to be named Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes)."

61 "None of your relatives have that name," they said 62 and they signalled to the father to tell them what name he wanted for the baby.

63 So Zekaryah requested a writing tablet and wrote, "His name is Yohan." Everyone was amazed 64 and then suddenly his mouth and tongue were freed and he was able to speak again and started praising God. 65 Everyone who lived nearby was a bit unnerved by all this, and the story about what happened was discussed in all the homes around the hills 66 and those who heard about it were thinking to themselves, "Who's this young child going to turn out to be?"

Zekaryah' prophecy about Yohan

67 Then the boy's father, Zekaryah (Grk. Zakarias), became filled with the holy spirit and prophesied, 68 "Blessed is Yisrael's (Israel's) God Yahweh, because he visited us and made a way for his people to be freed from slavery.

69 He brought us a voice that would lead to our salvation, us citizens of the nation of King David, his servant

70 (as he spoke via the mouths of his holy prophets through the ages).

71 He saved us from our enemies, and from the power of all the ones hating us,

72 to show mercy to our ancestors and to remind them of his holy agreement,

73 that he had promised Avraham, our ancestor, that he would give us.

74 He rescued us from the power of our enemies, so we could serve him without fear,

75 committed to obeying him for the rest of our lives.

76 And you too my little child, will be called a prophet of the highest one—going before Yahweh to prepare his paths,[13]

77 to give knowledge about salvation to his people

80 The young boy grew and his spirit was also strengthened, and he lived in the wilderness until he started his ministry to the people of Yisrael (Israel).

Yeshua's birth in Beyt-Lehem[15]

2:1 At that time, Kaisar Augustus sent a decree that everyone throughout the empire needed to register in a census. 2 (This census was conducted when Kurenios (Quirinius) was the governor of Aram (Syria).) 3 Everyone had to officially register in the city where they were born.
4 Because Yosef (Joseph) was a descendant of King David, he left the town of Nazaret (Nazareth) in the Galil region and went down to David's town of Beyt-Lehem (Bethlehem) in Yehudah (Judea)
5 to register along with Maria (Mary; Heb. Miryam; Grk. Maria/Mariam), his pregnant fiancée. 6 While they were in Beyt-Lehem, the time came for her to give birth 7 and so Maria bore her first son and wrapped him in strips of cloth and slept him in an empty feeding trough, because they had missed out on the guest room.

The shepherds and the messengers

8 In that same area, there were some shepherds staying out in the fields where they kept watch over their flocks at night. 9 A messenger sent by Yahweh approached them, and Yahweh's radiance shone around them, and they were very frightened. 10 "Don't be scared," the messenger told them, "because I'm bringing you a good message that will bring great happiness to all people 11 because a saviour for all people was born today in David's town. He's the messiah, Yahweh, 12 and this is how you'll know him: you'll find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth and sleeping in a feeding trough."
13 Then suddenly lots of heavenly soldiers joined the messenger, praising God and saying, 14 "Let all honour be given to God in the highest, and peace on earth to all people along with good will."

15 Then as the messengers left them and went up into the sky, the shepherds said to each other, "Well, we'll certainly go into Beyt-Lehem (Bethlehem) so we can see what this was about that Yahweh has let us know about."

16 So they hurried into town and asked around to find Maria (Mary; Heb. Miryam; Grk. Maria/Mariam) and Yosef (Joseph), and also the baby sleeping in the feeding trough. 17 When they met them, they explained what they'd been told about the young baby. 18 Everyone who heard this was amazed at what the shepherds told them, 19 but Maria treasured all of these messages in her heart and often thought about them. 20 Finally the shepherds returned back to their fields—they were worshipping and praising God for what they'd heard and how they'd seen it exactly like they'd been told.

The child is named Yeshua

21 When the baby was eight days old and hence the time for his circumcision,[16] he was given the name Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus)[17] as instructed by God's messenger even before he was conceived in the womb.

Yeshua is dedicated in the temple

22 Then when the time of the mother's purification was fulfilled as per Mosheh's (Moses') instructions, they took him down to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) to be dedicated to Yahweh 23 to follow what is written in Yahweh's law: Every firstborn male is set aside for Yahweh[18] 24 and hence a sacrifice has to be made, which according to that law is a pair of turtledoves or a pair of young doves.[19]

25 Now listen, there was a man named Shim'on (Simeon; Grk. Sumeon) in Yerushalem and he was godly and committed, waiting for God to rescue Yisrael (Israel). He was full of the holy spirit 26 and the spirit had told him that he wouldn't die without seeing Yahweh's messiah. 27 He had come

33 The baby's parents were amazed at the things being spoken about him, 34 and Shim'on blessed them and said to Maria (Mary; Heb. Miryam; Grk. Maria/Mariam), "Listen, this boy has been chosen to cause both the rise and the fall of many people in Yisrael, and sent as a sign but one which many people will oppose. 35 Also even as you experience incredible grief in the future, it will allow the thoughts of many hearts to be revealed."

36 Also there, was a prophetess named Hanah (the daughter of Penuel from the tribe of Asher). She was very elderly, having been married for seven years 37 and then had been widowed for eighty-four years. She was always at the temple, serving night and day in prayer and fasting. 38 She also approached the baby around the same time, and praised God and spoke about the boy to everyone in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) who was waiting for God to free them.

Your father and I have been frantic looking for you!"

49 "Why did you all need to look for me?" he answered. "Didn't you both know that it's good for me to be in my father's house?" 50 But they didn't really understand what he meant.

51 After that, he went back to Nazaret (Nazareth) with them and continued to be obedient to them, 52 and so Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) continued to grow wiser and taller, and in favour with both God and the people.[23]

Yohan-the-immerser's preaching[24]

away from disobeying God and requesting forgiveness 4 just like the prophet Yeshayah (Isaiah) had written:

'The voice shouting in the wilderness prepare Yahweh's road, make his paths straight.
5 Every valley will be filled up, and every mountain and hill will be levelled off.
What's crooked will be made straight, and the rough roads will be made smooth.
6 and everybody will see God's salvation.'[25]

7 Because of that, he was telling the crowds that went out there to be immersed by him, "Bunch of snakes![26] Who warned you all to flee from the severe anger that's coming? 8 So then start demonstrating the qualities that show you have actually turned from your disobedience. And don't start by telling me that you're descendants of Avraham,[27] because I can tell you all that God could make descendants out of these stones here. 9 The axe is already sitting at the base of the trees, so that every tree that doesn't produce good fruit will be chopped down and thrown into the fire."[28]

10 "What should we do then," the crowds asked him.

11 "If you've got two jackets, give one to someone who doesn't have one," he replied, "and similarly if you've got food."

12 Even some tax-collectors came to be immersed,[29] and they asked Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), "Teacher, what should we do?"

13 "Don't collect any extra on top of what you've been told to collect," he said.

14 "And what about us too," some soldiers inquired.

"Don't bully people or falsely accuse anyone," Yohan answered, "and be content with your wages."

15 The people were expecting that the messiah might come to save them and started wondering in their minds if maybe it was Yohan 16 but he explained to them all, "I've been immersing you all in water, but there's one coming who's greater than me, in fact I'm not even worthy to unlace his sandals. He will immerse you all with the holy spirit and with fire. 17 He'll hold the winnowing fork so he can clear out the threshing floor, gathering the wheat into his barn and burning up the chaff with a fire that never goes out."

18 Yohan preached the good message to the people and also encouraged them to change for the better. 19 He scolded King Herodes (Herod) (who was the ruler of the Galili quarter) about marrying his own brother Filippos's (Philip's) wife Herodias.[30] Herodes had also been scolded by him about many other evil things that he'd done, 20 and then he added to his evils by having Yohan locked up in prison.

Yeshua's double baptism[31]

21 One day along with all the other people being immersed, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had come and been immersed, and while he prayed, the sky opened up 22 and the holy spirit came down onto him in the bodily form of a dove, and a voice came from the sky, "You are my son that I love and take pleasure in."[32]

Yeshua's ancestry back to God[33]

23 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was about thirty when he started his ministry. He was the son (as it was thought) of Yosef (Joseph), son of Eli, 24 the son of Matat, the son of Levi, the son of Melki, the son of Yanai, the son of Yosef, 25 the son of Matityah (Mattathias), the son of Amos, the son of Nahum (Naum), the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, 26 the son of Ma'ath, the son of Matityah, the son of Semein, the son of Yosek, the son of Yoda, 27 the son of Yohanan, the son of Resa, the son of Zerubavel, the son of Shealtiyel, the son of Neri, 28 the son of Melki, the son of Addi, the son of Kosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er, 29 the son of Yeshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Yorim,

4:1 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), full of the holy and was led into the wilderness by the spirit

2 where he was tested by the devil for forty days.

ple don't live just on food."[35]
5 Then the devil brought him up to a high point and in just a moment of time, showed him the vista of all the kingdoms of the world, 6 and he said, "I'll give you this entire domain and the status of these kingdoms because it's been given to me, and I can give it to anyone I want, 7 so just bow down in front of me and it'll all be yours."
8 "It's been written," Yeshua answered, "that we should only bow down to Yahweh our God and only serve him."[36]
9 Then the devil led him to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and they stood on the highest part of the temple, where he told him, "If you're God's son, throw yourself down from here, 10 because it's written that God will command his messengers to guard you 11 and they will carry you in their hands, so you won't even hurt your foot on a stone."[37]
12 "It's been written," Yeshua responded, "that we shouldn't test Yahweh our God."[38]
13 So after completing every temptation, the devil withdrew from him for a time.

Yeshua begins his ministry[39]

Yeshua isn't appreciated in Nazaret[40]

16 When he got to Nazaret (Nazareth) where he grew up, he went into the Jewish meeting hall as usual on the Rest Day and stood up to do the reading. 17 The scroll of the prophet Yeshayah (Isaiah) was handed to him, and opening up the scroll, he found the place where it was written,

20 Then after rolling up the scroll and giving it back to the attendant, he sat down to give his commentary and every person in the room was studying him 21 as he began to speak, "Today this scripture that you've just heard has been fulfilled."

22 Later everyone was telling others about him, and they were marvelling at his messages displaying God's grace, and they asked each other, "Isn't this Yosef's (Joseph's) son from down the road?"

23 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) answered them, "I'm sure you'll all be telling me that parable about the doctor who needed to heal himself, because you'll be wanting me to do here in my hometown what I did in Kafarnaoum (Capernaum). 24 I can assure you all that no prophet is accepted by his own hometown.[42] 25 There were certainly many widows in Yisrael (Israel) in the days of Eliyah (Elijah) when God stopped the rain for three and a half years and caused a terrible famine.[43] 26 But Eliyah wasn't sent to any of them—rather he was sent to a foreign widow in Tserefat in the Tsidon (Sidon) region.[44] 27 Also there were many people in Yisrael with leprosy in the days of the prophet Elisha and none of them were healed, but only Na'aman from Aram (Syria)."[45]

The demon-possessed man[46]

31 After that, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went to Kafarnaoum (Capernaum), another town in Galil, and taught in the meeting hall there on the Rest Days. 32 They were amazed at his teaching, because he presented his message with authority.[47] 33 One week there was a man at the Jewish meeting hall with a demon spirit and he yelled out, 34 "Ha! What do we have in common with you, Yeshua the man from Nazaret (Nazareth)? Did you come here to destroy us? I know who you are—you're the holy one from God."

35 Yeshua rebuked the demon, saying, "Be quiet! Now come out of him!" Then the demon threw the man to the floor right in the middle of them, and came out of him, and left him feeling perfectly fine.

36 This amazed everyone and they started asking each other, "What is this command that has such authority and power that he orders evil spirits around and they come out?" 37 After that, the reports of what he'd done were passed around to every part of the surrounding region.

Yeshua heals many people[48]

38 After getting up and leaving the Jewish meeting hall, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went to Shim'on's (Simon's) home where Shim'on's mother-in-law had been struck with a high fever and they asked Yeshua about it. 39 Going over to where she was lying, Yeshua rebuked the fever and it left her, and she stood up straight away and got them something to eat.

40 In the evening, anyone who had a relative with any kind of disease brought their sick relatives to Yeshua and he placed his hands on each one of them and healed them. 41 Also demons came out from many people, yelling out, "You are God's son."

But he rebuked them and didn't allow them to speak because they knew that he was the messiah.

Yeshua's preaching in Yehudah[49]

42 The next day, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went off to a quiet place, but the crowds were looking for him and followed after him and insisted that he didn't leave them, 43 but he told them, "I also need to preach this good message about God's kingdom in other towns, because that's why I was sent here." 44 So then he went down to Yehudah (Judea) and preached in the Jewish meeting halls there.

The huge catch of fish[50]

5:1 One time when the crowd was pressuring Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) that they wanted to hear God's message as he stood by Lake Galil, 2 he saw two boats at the edge of the water, but the fishermen had left the boats so they could wash their nets. 3 Yeshua hopped into one of the boats which turned out to be Shim'on's (Simon's), and asked him just to row out a little way from the land. Then Yeshua sat there in the boat and taught the crowds from there.[51]

4 Once he'd finished his speaking, he told Shim'on, "Go out to the deeper parts and lower your nets to catch some fish."

5 "Master," Shim'on answered, "we worked all through the night and didn't catch anything,[52] but ok, I'll do what you say and lower the nets."

6 When they lowered the nets, they quickly netted a huge catch of fish,[53] so much so that their nets began to rip 7 and they had to signal to their companions in the other boat to come and help. When they got there, they filled both boats with so many fish that the weight began to sink them. 8 When Shim'on Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) had a moment to realise what had just happened, he knelt in the boat in front of Yeshua and said, "You must leave me, master, because I'm just a sinful man."

9 Kefa and all those with him were stunned at the size of the catch, 10 including Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) (Za-vday's (Grk. Zebedaios') sons) who were his fishing partners. Then Yeshua told Shim'on, "Don't be afraid—from now on you'll be catching people."

11 When they got the boats up onto the shore, they left everything there and followed after Yeshua.

Yeshua heals a man with leprosy[54]

12 In one of the towns that they visited, a man covered in leprous lesions lay face down in front of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) when he saw him, and implored him, "Master, if you wanted you'd be able to heal me."
13 Yeshua reached out his hand and touched him, saying, "I do want it. Be free from this." Immediately the man was clear of leprosy. 14 "Don't tell others," Yeshua instructed, "but go directly to the priest with the offering commanded by Mosheh (Moses) and show yourself to him for clearance and as a testimony to them."[55]
15 However the news about Yeshua was spreading all around, and large crowds were gathering to listen to him and to be healed from their diseases, 16 but then he would regularly withdraw into the wilderness to pray.

A paralysed man is lowered through the roof[56]

17 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was teaching one day, and some from the Farisaios party and some religious teachers were sitting there listening. They had come from villages all around Galil and Yehudah (Judea), and also from Yerushalem (Jerusalem), and the power of Yahweh was there enabling Yeshua to heal people. 18 Then, look, some men turned up carrying a paralysed man on a stretcher, and they tried to bring him inside and place him in front of Yeshua 19 but because of the crowd they couldn't find a way in. So instead, they went up the stairs to the flat roof and removed some tiles in order to let the stretcher down right in front of Yeshua. 20 When he saw their faith, he said, "Man, your sins have been forgiven."
21 "Who's this guy who's insulting God?" the teachers and Farisaios started to say among themselves. "Only God is able to forgive sins."

22 But Yeshua knew what they were thinking and saying, and answered them, "Why are you reasoning about this in your minds? 23 Which is easier to say: 'Your sins have been forgiven,' or 'Stand up and walk'? 24 But I'll demonstrate to you that the son of humanity does have the authority to forgive sins here on earth." Then he turned to the paralysed man and told him, "Listen to me. Stand up and pick up your stretcher, then go home."

25 Immediately the man stood up, right there in front of them all, picked up what he'd been lying on, and headed off to his home praising God. 26 Everyone was astounded and they too praised God. But there was also a feeling of fear and they said, "We've witnessed something out-of-the-normal today!"

Levi follows Yeshua and hosts a banquet[57]

27 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went outside after that and he saw a tax-collector named Levi sitting in his office and told him, "Come and follow me." 28 So Levi left everything and went and followed Yeshua.

29 Then Levi prepared a large meal in his home for Yeshua, plus there were also a lot of tax-collectors and others who were sitting with them. 30 Some from the Farisaios party and religious teachers grumbled at Yeshua's followers, complaining, "Why are you all eating and drinking with tax collectors and other low-life?"[58]

31 But it was Yeshua who answered, "Healthy people don't need a doctor—only those who are sick. 32 I didn't come to call those who are 'righteous', but to call sinners to come and turn away from disobeying God."

The question about fasting[59]

33 Then the religious leaders complained, "Yohan's (John's; Grk. Yoannes') followers often fast and bring their needs to God, as do the Farisaios, but your followers are eating and drinking."

ding," Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) responded, "not while the groom is with them. 35 But yes, there will be a future time when the groom will be taken away from them, and then they'll fast."

36 Then he went on to tell them this parable, "No one repairs their old clothes by putting on a patch of new material. If they did, the new patch will likely tear off again, plus it wouldn't look right anyway. 37 Similarly, no one puts new wine to mature into old wineskins. If they did, the new wine would certainly burst the old wineskin and it would all pour out and the wineskin would be ruined as well. 38 New wine needs to be put into a new wineskin. 39 And no one who's used to the old ways wants the new, because he'll claim that the old is good enough."

Master of the Rest Day[60]

6:1 One Rest Day, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was walking through some fields of grain and his followers were plucking the heads of grain and rubbing them apart in their hands, then chewing the grains.[61] 2 But some from the Farisaios party asked, "Why are you doing that? It's prohibited to harvest on a Rest Day."

3 "Haven't you read about David," Yeshua answered, "when him and his men were hungry and what they did? 4 "He went into God's temple and took the 'bread of the presence' and ate some and gave some to his men, even though it's only priests that are allowed to eat that."[62] 5 Then he added, "The son of humanity is the master of the rest days."

Yeshua heals the deformed hand[63]

6 On a different Rest Day, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went into a Jewish meeting hall and was teaching the congregation. There was a man there with a deformed right hand 7 and the religious teachers and Farisaios were watching Yeshua closely to see if he might heal the man on the Rest Day so they'd have something to accuse him of. 8 But he knew their plans and spoke to the man with the de-

So the man got up and stood in front of them. 9 "I want to ask all of you," said Yeshua, "whether or not it's allowable to do good on the Rest Day, or only evil—to save life or to destroy it?" 10 Turning slowly and looking at them all, he then said to the man, "Hold out your hand." The man did it and his hand was healed, 11 but the religious leaders were mad with anger and discussed among themselves about what they could do to Yeshua.

Yeshua chooses twelve to be missionaries[64]

12 One day Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) climbed a hill to pray, and then he spent the night there praying to God. 13 In the morning, he called together his followers, and chose twelve of them that he then called 'missionaries': 14 Shim'on (Simon) (who he also named Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros)) and his brother Andreas, Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), Filippos (Philip) and Bar-Talmay (Bartholomew; Grk. Bartholomaios), 15 Matay (Matthew; Grk. Matthaios) and Toma (Thomas), Ya'akov (Halfay' (Grk. Halfaios') son), Shim'on (the one known as a Zealot), 16 Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas) (son of Ya'akov), and Yehudah Iskariot (who eventually betrayed him).

The crowds want to touch Yeshua[65]

17 Then coming down the hill with them, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) stood on a flat area along with a large crowd of his followers. There was also a large number of people from all around Yehudah (Judea) and Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and from the coastal areas of Tsor (Tyre) and Tsidon (Sidon) 18 who came to hear what he had to say, as well as getting healed from their various diseases. 19 All the people in the crowd wanted to touch him, because power would come out from him and he was healing everyone.

The two house-builders[77]

46 "So why do you all call me 'master, master,' yet you don't do what I say? 47 Everyone who comes to me and listens to my messages and puts them into practice, I'll show you who that person is like: 48 That person is like a man building a house. He dug and drilled and laid a foundation on the rock, and then when there was a flood that dashed against that house, it didn't shake it because it was built well. 49 But the person who listens but doesn't put the message into practice is like a man that just built his house on the ground with no foundation, and when the flood dashed against it, the house immediately collapsed and broke into many pieces."

Yeshua heals the centurion's slave[78]

7:1 After Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had finished sharing those messages with the people, he entered the town of Kafarnaoum (Capernaum). 2 A Romaios army commander there had a slave that he valued, but who was sick and expected to die. 3 He had heard about Yeshua, so he asked the local Jewish elders to talk to Yeshua on his behalf and to ask him to come to heal his slave. 4 When the elders got to Yeshua, they earnestly implored him saying, "The man you'd be helping is worth it 5 because he loves us Yehudim (Jews) and he built the local Jewish meeting hall for us."

6 So Yeshua went with them but as they got closer to the house, the commander had sent some friends to tell him, "Master, don't trouble yourself because I'm not worthy enough to have you enter my home 7 and that's why I never came to you personally. However, just issue a command and then my boy will be healed 8 because I'm appointed under authority and have other soldiers under me. When I tell one of them to go, he goes,

Yeshua brings the widow's son back to life

11 The next day, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went to a town called Nain, and his followers went with him as well as a large crowd of people. 12 As he got near the town gate, look, a dead boy was being carried out to the cemetery. The mother was now a widow and he had been their only son, and a large number of the local residents were with her. 13 When he saw her, the master felt sorry for her and said, "Don't cry." 14 Then he went up closer and touched the coffin, and the pallbearers stopped. Then he spoke, "Young man, I'm talking to you: get up." 15 The dead son sat up and started talking, and Yeshua led him to his mother. 16 Everyone felt a bit apprehensive and they praised God saying, "A powerful prophet appeared among us," and "God has been here with his people."

17 Then the news about Yeshua spread all around Yehudah (Judea) and all the surrounding area.

Yohan checks out the messiah[79]

18 The apprentices of Yohan-the-immerser reported all these things back to him and he choose two of his apprentices 19 and sent them to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) to ask, "Are you the promised one, or should we wait for someone else?"

20 So when they got to Yeshua, the two men told him, "Yohan-the-immerser sent us here to ask you if you're the promised one, or should we wait for someone else?"

21 While they were still there, he healed many people from their diseases and difficulties, as well as evil spirits and some blind people being able to see again, 22 so then he answered them, "Go and tell Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) everything that you've seen and heard here: how blind people can see again, lame people are walking now,[80] people with leprosy are clear, some dead have come back to life, and the good message is being preached to the poor.[81] 23 God will bless those who don't misjudge me."

24 When Yohan's messengers had left, Yeshua started asking the crowds about Yohan, "What did you all go out into the wilderness to see? A reed waving in the wind? 25 Yes, but what did you all go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? Well, those in nice clothes and living in luxury are in fine homes. 26 So what was it that you went out to see? A prophet? Yes, I'll tell you that he is more important than any old prophet. 27 He is the one that was written about: 'See, I'm sending my messenger ahead of you and he will prepare your path before you get there.'[82] 28 I'm telling all of you, no one who's been born from a woman is greater than Yohan, yet the lowest person in God's kingdom is greater than him."

29 (When all the people and the tax-collectors that had been immersed by Yohan heard that, they concurred that God's way is fair,[83] 30 however the Farisaios and the lawyers who had not been immersed by him, they rejected God's plan for them.)

31 "So what can I compare this generation with?" asked Yeshua. "Who are they similar to? 32 They're like little children sitting in the marketplace and calling out to each other, 'We played the flute for you all but you didn't dance, then we played a sad song but you all didn't weep.' 33 Because Yohan-the-immerser came and he didn't eat bread or drink wine, so you all said that he has a demon. 34 Then the son of humanity came and ate and drank and you all said, 'Look, he's a glutton and a drunkard—a friend of tax-collectors and those who disobey God.' 35 But wisdom is justified by all her children."

The woman who anoints Yeshua's feet

36 Another time, someone from the Farisaios party invited Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) to go to his place for a meal, and so he went there and reclined on a flat couch. 37 Then wow, a sinful woman from the city who knew that he was reclining in there, came into the room carrying a beautiful carved stone flask of scented skin-cream.[84] 38 She stood weeping behind Yeshua's feet, wetting his feet with her tears. Then she used her hair to wipe off the tears and kissed his feet and rubbed the lotion into them. 39 When the Farisaios who had invited Yeshua saw this, he said to himself, "If that man was a prophet, he'd know who she is and what kind of woman it is that's touching him, because she breaks God's laws."

40 "Shim'on (Simon)," Yeshua asked him, "I need to tell you something."

"Tell me, teacher," he replied.

41 Then Yeshua told him this story: "Once there were two people who had borrowed from a money lender: one borrowed five-hundred coins and the other borrowed fifty. 42 But neither of them was able to repay him, so he wrote-off both of their debts. Now after that, which one of them do you think would appreciate him more?"

43 "I suppose," answered Shim'on, "that it was the one who was forgiven the biggest debt."

"You're right," said Yeshua. 44 Then looking at the woman he said to Shim'on, "You see this woman? I came into your house but you didn't give me any water to wash my feet, yet she wet my feet with her tears and then wiped them off with her hair. 45 You didn't kiss me when I entered, but this woman hasn't stopped kissing my feet since I came in. 46 You didn't offer olive oil for my head, but she anointed my feet with this lotion, 47 so that's why I'll tell you this: Her many sins have been forgiven because she showed a lot of love, but the one who has been forgiven little, is loving little."

48 Then he said to the woman, "Your sins have been forgiven."

49 The others who were reclining in the room started to ask to each other, "Who does he think he is to be able to even forgive sins?"

50 "Your faith has saved you," Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) said to the woman, "Go in peace."

The team spreading the good message

8:1 After that, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) started travelling around all the towns and villages—preaching and sharing the good message about God's kingdom. His twelve apprentices were with him 2 along with some women who'd been healed from evil spirits and sicknesses: Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) from Magdala (that seven demons had come out of),[85] 3 Yohanah (who's Kuzas's wife and one of King Herodes's (Herod's) managers), Shoshanah (Susanna), and many others, who used the group's assets to look after their needs.

The parable about spreading seeds[86]

4 A large crowd gathered around Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), including many who'd travelled out from the city, and he told them this parable:

5 "One day a farmer went out to plant some seeds. As he spread the seeds, some of them fell along the path where they got trampled on, and the birds ate them. 6 Some of the seeds landed in a rocky area where they sprouted, but then they withered up because they didn't have enough moisture. 7 Some of the seeds landed in a patch of thistles, and as the plants started to grow, they were choked out by the thistles. 8 Some of the seeds fell onto good soil, and then the plants grew up to produce a harvest of one hundred times as much."

As he was saying this, he was also telling them, "Anyone who wants to hear, listen carefully."

The reason for parables[87]

9 After this, his apprentices asked him, "What's that parable all about?" 10 "You're permitted to know the mysteries of God's kingdom," responded Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), "but the others get parables so that when they look, they won't see, and when they listen, they won't understand.[88]

The meaning of the parable about the seeds[89]

11 "So this is what the parable means: the seeds are God's message. 12 The seeds along the road are those who hear the message, but afterwards the devil comes along and snatches the message away from their hearts, so that they don't believe or get saved. 13 The seeds among the rocks are those who happily accept the message but don't put down any roots, so they believe for a short time, and then when temptations come, they pull back from God. 14 The seeds among the thistles are those who heard the message but get choked under worries and wealth and the good life, and so they never reach maturity. 15 But the seeds in the good soil are those good people with good hearts and after hearing the message, they follow it, and produce fruit from their endurance.

The light will expose what's hidden[90]

16 "No one lights a lamp and then puts a cover over it or puts it under a bed, but rather it's placed on a lampstand so that everyone coming into the room can see the light.[91]

17 "Similarly, nothing is hidden that won't eventually become visible, and nothing is secret that won't become known and exposed.[92]

18 "So take care in what you listen to, because anyone who has now, will be given more, and anyone who doesn't have, whatever they think they do have will be taken away from them."[93]

Yeshua's mother and siblings[94]

19 Then Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') mother and brothers arrived but they couldn't get close to him because of the crowd. 20 "Your mother and brothers are standing outside," someone told him, "and they want to see you."

21 "My mother and my brothers," Yeshua responded, "are anyone who's listening to God's message and who put it into practice."

Yeshua's power over the wind and waves[95]

22 One day Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and his apprentices got into a boat and he asked them to go across to the other side of Lake Galil. So they set off 23 but once they were moving, Yeshua fell asleep. Then a big storm descended onto the lake and the boat was being swamped by the waves and they were in danger of sinking. 24 The apprentices went and woke Yeshua, "Master, we're going to drown!"

Now awake, he spoke sternly to the wind and the waves in the lake, and they stopped and it became calm. 25 "Where's your faith?" he asked them.

From being terrified, they were now astounded and asked each other, "Who is this guy really? He can just tell the wind and the water what to do, and they obey him!"

Yeshua drives many demons into the pigs[96]

26 Then they sailed across to the region of the Gerasainon, which is across the lake from Galil. 27 As they got out of the boat, a demon-possessed man who'd come out of the city met him there. He didn't live in a house, but lived in a cemetery, and he wasn't wearing a lot. 28 He yelled out when he saw Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and knelt down before him, and spoke loudly, "What business do you and I have together, Yeshua, son of the highest God? I beg you, don't torture me." 29 He said this because Yeshua had commanded the evil spirit to come out from the man. The demon had animated him many times and he'd needed to be put in chains and shackles, but he would break them off and the demon would drive him into the wilderness.

30 "What's your name?" Yeshua asked.

"Thousands," he answered, because many thousands of demons had entered him 31 and now they were pleading with Yeshua not to command them to go back to the bottomless pit.

32 They could see a herd of pigs being fed on a hill, and they requested Yeshua to let them go into the pigs, and he agreed to that. 33 So the demons rushed out of the man and into the pigs, and all the pigs then rushed down the steep bank into the lake and drowned.

34 When the workers feeding the pigs saw this happen, they took off and told everyone in the nearby town and round about. 35 So lots of people went there to the edge of the lake to see for themselves, and they found the man who'd been demon-possessed now dressed and sitting at Yeshua's feet with his full faculties, and they were frightened. 36 The people who'd seen it happen told the new-comers how the demon-possessed man had been healed. 37 Then all those people from the Gerasainon region asked Yeshua to leave the area, because they were quite terrified, so he got back into the boat and they headed back to the other side.

38 The man who the demons had come out of had asked Yeshua if he could go with him, but Yeshua sent him away, saying, 39 "Go back to your house and tell them there about what God has done for you."

So he went around the town telling everyone what Yeshua had done for him.

The leader's dying daughter plus the woman haemorrhaging[97]

40 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) got back to the other side of the lake, the crowd there had been waiting for him and welcomed him. 41 Then, wow, a man named Yair (Jairus) came and knelt down in front of Yeshua. He was the leader at the local Jewish meeting hall and he pleaded for Yeshua to come to his house 42 because his only daughter, a twelve-year old, was dying.

Then while Yeshua was on his way squeezing through the crowd, 43 a woman who'd had internal bleeding for twelve years and who couldn't be helped by any doctor, 44 worked her way up behind Yeshua and touched the edge of his robe. Immediately her bleeding stopped 45 and Yeshua stopped and said, "Who touched me?"

No one owned up, and Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) said, "Master, there's people all around you and they're pressing against you."

46 "Someone touched me," Yeshua responded,

"because I felt power going out from me." 47 When the woman now saw that she wouldn't get away with it, she came to Yeshua shaking, and knelt down at his feet. She told him in front of all the people why she'd touched his clothes and how she'd been immediately healed. 48 "Lady," Yeshua said, "your faith has healed you. Go in peace."

49 While he was still speaking, someone came from the Jewish meeting hall leader's home and told him, "Don't bother the teacher any further. Your daughter just passed away."

50 But Yeshua heard this and turned to Yair (Jairus) and said, "Don't be afraid. Just believe and she'll be healed."

51 So they continued to the house, but Yeshua didn't allow anyone inside other than Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) and Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos), along with the girl's parents. 52 Everyone was weeping and mourning for her, but he said, "Don't cry. She isn't dead—just asleep."

53 But they ridiculed Yeshua because they knew that she'd died. 54 He took hold of her hand, and called, "Girl, get up." 55 Then her spirit returned and she got up immediately, and he told them to give her something to eat. 56 Her parents were astonished, but he instructed them not to tell anyone what had happened.

Yeshua sends out his twelve apprentices[98]

9:1 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) called together his twelve apprentices and gave them power and authority over all the demons and to heal diseases, 2 and then sent them out to preach about God's kingdom and to heal those who were sick. 3 "Don't take anything for the journey," he told them. "Don't take a walking stick or a backpack or food or money or spare clothes. 4 When someone invites you into their home, stay in that one house until you leave that place, 5 but when the people don't want to hear from you, shake the dust off your feet as a testimony to them[99] that God will punish them for not receiving his messengers."

Herodes is confused by the news[100]

7 Herodes (Herod) the ruler of the Galili quarter heard about everything that was going on and was completely puzzled, because some people said that Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) the immerser had come back to life,[101] 8 while others said that Eliyah (Elijah) had been spotted, and others that one of the other ancient prophets had come back to life. 9 "I beheaded Yohan," King Herodes said, "so who is this man that I'm hearing so much about?" So he tried to find a way to see him.

Yeshua feeds 5,000 families[102]

10 When the twelve apprentices returned back to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), they reported back to him everything they'd done. Then he took them to the town of Beyt-Tsayda for some private time, 11 but the crowds saw where he went and followed after them, so he welcomed them and taught them about God's kingdom as well as healing those who needed it.

12 As the day was coming to an end, the twelve approached him and said, "Send the crowd away so that they can go into the nearby towns and countryside to find somewhere to stay and something to eat, because this place is very isolated."

13 But Yeshua told them, "You all give them something to eat."

"We don't have anything more than just five breadrolls and two fish, unless we go and buy some food for all these people." 14 There were about 5,000 men (not counting women and children).

Then he told his apprentices, "Sit them down in rows of about fifty each." 15 So they did that and everyone sat down. 16 Then Yeshua took the five breadrolls and the two fish and looking up to the sky, he blessed them and broke them into pieces to give to the apprentices to distribute to the crowd. 17 Everyone ate until they were satisfied, and then twelve baskets of leftover pieces were collected up afterwards.

Kefa's recognition of the messiah[103]

18 Later when it was the time to pray and Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and the twelve moved away from the crowd, he asked them, "Who do the crowds say that I am?"

19 "Some say Yohan-the-immerser," they answered, "while others say Eliyah (Elijah), and others say that some other ancient prophet came back to life."[104]

20 "And so who do you guys say I am?" he asked.

"You're the messiah from God,"[105] Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) answered.

Yeshua tells about his coming suffering and death[106]

21 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) warned them—instructing them not to tell this to anyone else, 22 saying, "The son of humanity is destined to suffer many things and to be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the religious teachers, and then to be executed and to be brought back to life on the third day."

The cost of following Yeshua[107]

23 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) said, "If anyone wants to become my follower, then that person needs to renounce their own desires and follow me, even in suffering and death,[108] 24 because anyone who wants to save their own life will lose it, but anyone who is prepared to lose their life on account of me, they'll be saving their life.[109] 25 How would it benefit a person if they gained the wealth of the whole world, but then ended up lost or destroyed? 26 Because anyone who's ashamed of me and my teachings, the son of humanity will be ashamed of that person when he comes in his splendour and with the splendour of the father and of God's messengers. 27 But I can certainly tell you that some of those who are standing here won't die until they see God's kingdom.

Yeshua talks with Mosheh and Eliyah[110]

28 It was about eight days later that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) took Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) and Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos), and climbed a hill to pray. 29 While he was praying, the appearance of his face changed and his clothes turned brilliant white. 30 Then, look, there were two men talking with him—Mosheh (Moses) and Eliyah (Elijah)! 31 Those two who'd been in heaven were talking about the end of his time here which was about to be actioned in Yerushalem (Jerusalem). 32 Kefa and the others had been exhausted and fallen asleep, but when they woke up they saw the radiance of Yeshua and the other two standing there with him, 33 but when it was time for the two to leave, Kefa said to Yeshua, "Master, it's good that we're here. We could make three shelters: one for you, one for Mosheh, and one for Eliyah." (But he didn't really know what he was saying.)

34 While he was still speaking, a cloud appeared and enveloped them and they were afraid as they entered the fog. 35 Then a voice came out of the cloud that said, "This is my son, the one that has been chosen. Listen to him."[111]

36 By the time that the voice had spoken, they could only see Yeshua in front of them. After this event, they kept what had happened to themselves and didn't tell anyone else about what they'd seen.

Yeshua heals a demon-possessed boy[112]

37 When they came back down the hill the next day, a big crowd was waiting for them. 38 Then, look, a man in the crowd shouted out, "Teacher, I implore you to come and look at my son, because he's my only child. 39 A spirit takes control of him and suddenly he cries out and it makes him convulse and foam at the mouth, and only leaves him after a long time when he's bruised and battered. 40 I tried to get your apprentices to drive it out, but they couldn't."

41 "Oh you unbelieving and perverted generation," Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) answered, "how much longer do I have to be with you and put up with all of you? Bring your son here."

42 While they were still approaching, the demon attacked the boy and threw him in a convulsion, but Yeshua rebuked the evil spirit and healed the boy and led him back to his father. 43 Everyone there was astounded at God's power.

Yeshua talks again about his death[113]

While all the people were still amazed at what he'd done, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) turned and said to his apprentices, 44 "Remember everything that's been said, because the son of humanity is going to be turned in and placed into the hands of these people." 45 But the apprentices didn't know what he meant as it was hidden from them so they couldn't comprehend it, plus they were afraid to ask him to explain further.

Who is the greatest?[114]

46 Then the apprentices got themselves into a discussion about which of them might hopefully be considered the greatest.[115] 47 But Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) knew what was going on, so he took a young child and stood the child there next to him 48 and told them, "Anyone who accepts a young child in my name is accepting me, and anyone who accepts me is accepted by the one who sent me here.[116] Because it's the person who is the least among you who's at the top."

Anyone who's not against you is for you[117]

49 "Master," Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) answered, "we saw someone driving out demons using your name, and we told him to stop because he's not one of us."
50 "Don't forbid people like him," Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) replied, "because anyone who's not against you all, is on your side."

Yeshua gets snubbed by a village in Shomron/Samaria

51 It was now coming to the time when the events leading to his ascension would start happening, and Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was completely set in his decision to head to Yerushalem (Jerusalem).

52 He sent some of his apprentices ahead of him, and when they arrived at a Shomroni (Samaritan) village, they went to get ready for his arrival. 53 However, the people there didn't welcome them because it was clear that Yeshua was heading to Yerushalem. 54 Seeing this, his apprentices Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) asked, "Master, will you let us call fire down from the sky to burn them up?"[118]

55 However, Yeshua turned around and told them off, 56 so they headed off to another village.

Those who would have liked to follow Yeshua[119]

57 As they headed down the road, someone told Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), "I'll follow you wherever you go to."

58 "Foxes have their burrows," he responded, "and the birds have their nests, but the son of humanity has no home where he can lie down and relax."

59 Later he told a different person, "Follow me."

But the man replied, "Master, just let me go and bury my father first."

60 "Leave those who are dead to bury the dead by themselves," Yeshua said, "but you go and tell people about God's kingdom."

61 Also, another person said, "I'll follow after you, master, but first let me go back and say goodbye to everyone at home."[120]

62 But Yeshua responded, "No one who starts ploughing a field and then starts looking backwards is suitable for God's kingdom."

Yeshua sends out 72 people

10:1 After all this, the master appointed seventy-two others and he sent them out in pairs to go ahead of him to every town and village that he would pass through. 2 He told them, "There's a large har-

The return of the 72

17 In time, the seventy-two that had been sent out came back excited, saying, "Master, even the demons listened to us when we used your name and authority."

18 "I saw Satan," Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) replied, "when he fell out of heaven like lightning. 19 Listen, I've given you all the authority to tread on snakes and scorpions[133] and to overcome the enemy's power, and nothing at all will be able to injure you. 20 However, don't get excited that the evil spirits obeyed you, but rather be happy that your names have been written down in the heavens."

Yeshua's happiness[134]

21 At the same time, the holy spirit got Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) excited and he said, "I'm aware father, master of heaven and earth, that you've hidden these things away from those who are intelligent and well-educated, and instead revealed them to infants. Yes, father, that was what you decided.

22 Everything has been handed over to me by my father,[135] and no one knows who the son is except for the father, and who the father is except for the son and those who the son decides to reveal him to."[136]

23 Then he turned to his apprentices and said discreetly, "Blessed are those who get to see what you all are seeing 24 because I can tell you that

How to be a neighbour

25 Then look, a lawyer stood up to test him, asking, "Teacher, what do I need to do to inherit eternal life?"[137]

26 "Well, what's written in the scriptures?" responded Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus). "How do you understand them?"

27 "You must love your God Yahweh with all your heart and all your soul, and all your strength and all your mind,"[138] he replied. "Also, you must love your neighbour as yourself."[139]

28 "You've answered correctly," answered Yeshua, "so do that and you'll live forever."[140]

29 But the lawyer wanted to justify his lifestyle, so he asked, "And who's my neighbour?"

30 Yeshua replied with this: "Once a Jewish man was walking downhill from Yerushalem (Jerusalem) to Yeriho (Jericho) when a group of robbers grabbed him and took everything including his clothes, then took off leaving him there wounded and half-dead. 31 Then it so happened that a priest came down that same road, but when he saw him he continued past on the other side of the road. 32 Similarly, a priestly worker (a Levite) arrived at that place and when he saw him he too passed by on the other side. 33 Then a man from Shomron (Samaria)[141] who was on a trip came across him, and when he saw him he felt sorry for him 34 and went up to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring olive oil and wine on them, then put him on his own animal and took him to a roadhouse and looked after him.[142] 35 The next day he took out two coins and gave them to their host, instructing, 'Look after this guy and if it costs more than this, I'll reimburse you on my way back.'

36 "So which of those three do you think acted like the neighbour of the one attacked by robbers?"

37 "The one who cared for him," replied the lawyer.

"Then you go and do the same," Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) told him.

Yeshua visits Marta and Miryam

38 When it was time to leave, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went into a village and there was a woman there named Marta[143] who welcomed him in. 39 She had a sister named Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) who was also sitting there on the floor by Yeshua's feet listening to his teaching. 40 But Marta kept getting pulled away to keep the household running, and after a while approached Yeshua and asked, "Master, doesn't it bother you that my sister has left all the housework to me? Tell her to come and help me."

41 "Marta, Marta," Yeshua answered, "you are worried and concerned about many things, 42 but only one thing really matters. Miryam chose the best thing, and it won't be taken away from her."

Yeshua teaches about prayer[144]

11:1 One time Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was at a place praying, and when he finished some of his followers asked him, "Master, Yohan-the-immerser taught his apprentices how to pray. You teach us as well."

2 So Yeshua told them, "Whenever you all pray, say this:

Father, may all people honour you as their holy God.

May you reign as king over the earth.

3 Every day give us the food that we need.

4 Forgive us for our sins because we've forgiven those who owed something to us.

Don't bring us into situations where we're tempted."

5 Then he told them, "Imagine you had a friend and went to them at midnight and asked, 'Friend, lend me some bread 6 because a travelling friend of mine arrived at my place, and I haven't got anything to give him to eat.' 7 And the one in the other house might reply, 'Don't bother me now because the house is locked and the kids are asleep beside me here in the bed. I can't get up and get anything for you.' 8 I'm telling all of you that even if that friend wouldn't get up and give them anything because of their friendship, then the friend will certainly get up and give them some food if they persist in knocking. 9 So this is what I'm telling you: Keep submitting your requests and it'll be given to you all, keep searching and you'll all find what you're looking for, keep knocking and the door will be opened for you all, 10 because everyone who requests will receive, and everyone who searches will find, and everyone who knocks will find opened doors. 11 How many of you fathers, if your child asked you for some fish, you'd give them a snake instead? 12 Or the child would ask for an egg and you'd pass them a scorpion? 13 So if you all know how to give good things to your children despite your being evil, how much more the father in heaven will give the holy spirit to those who ask him."

Yeshua is accused of being demon-possessed[145]

14 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) drove out a demon that caused muteness, and after the demon departed, the man was able to speak. The crowds were amazed, 15 but yet some of them said, "He's driving out demons because he's Beelzeboul the leader of the demons."[146]

16 Others who wanted to test who he was, asked Yeshua to send a sign from heaven,[147] 17 but he knew their thoughts and told them, "Any kingdom that's divided against itself is doomed, and any household that's divided will self-destruct. 18 So if Satan was fighting against himself, how could his kingdom even remain? Yes, I know that you're all saying that I must be Beelzeboul in order to drive out demons, 19 but if I have Beelzeboul's power over demons, then whose power do your apprentices use to drive out demons? 20 However if I'm

23 "Anyone who doesn't follow me is against me, and anyone who doesn't gather with us, wants to scatter us.[148]

The return of demons[149]

24 "Whenever an evil spirit leaves a person, it roams through inhospitable places looking for somewhere to rest, and when it doesn't find a home, it says, 'Ah, I'll return to the home that I recently left.' 25 Then when it gets back there, it finds the home swept out and tidied up, 26 so it goes and finds seven other spirits more evil than itself. They all move in and live there, so the result is that the person ends up worse in the end than they were at the beginning."

God's true reward

27 While Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was teaching these things, a woman in the crowd shouted out, "Blessed is the mother who bore you and the one who raised you."

28 "Actually," Yeshua replied, "the ones who will be blessed are all those who listen to God's message and put it into practice."

The crowd requests a miracle[150]

29 The crowds had grown even larger, but Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) told them, "This generation is evil because they're requesting a miracle and the only miracle that will be given to them will be the miracle of Yonah (Jonah).[151] 30 In the same way that Yonah became a sign to the citizens of Nineveh, so too the son of humanity will also be to this generation.[152] 31 The queen from the south will come back to life on judgement day along with the peo-

The eye is the body's lamp[155]

33 "No one lights a lamp and then hides it somewhere or puts it under a basket, but rather they put it on a lampstand so that everyone entering the room can see the light from it.[156] 34 Your eyes are like the lamp for your body. Whenever your eyes are healthy, your entire body will be bright, but when your eyes are evil, your body is also dark, 35 so take care in case the light in you has gone dark. 36 Therefore if your whole body is bright without any dark areas, it will be bright all over, like when a lamp shines on you to illuminate you."

Yeshua's warning about the religious teachers[157]

37 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had a break from speaking, a member of the Farisaios party invited him over for breakfast, so he went into the house and sat down, 38 and the man was very surprised that he didn't observe the handwashing ceremony before he ate. 39 But the master said to his host, "Yes, all of you in the Farisaios party clean the outside of the cup and the plate, but your insides are full of theft and wickedness. 40 How stupid! Didn't God who made the outside part, also make what's inside? 41 However, if you sacrificially give what's inside, then everything would then become clean for you.

45 One of the experts in religious rules there answered him back, "Teacher, you're insulting us as well when you say that."

46 "Well, you law experts won't end well," Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) responded, "because you put unbearably heavy burdens onto the shoulders of the people, yet you wouldn't move your little fingers to touch those burdens yourselves. 47 You all won't end well, because you all build fancy tombs for the prophets that your own ancestors executed. 48 Because of that, you're all actually admitting and agreeing to what your ancestors did, because they killed them and then you build their tombs. 49 That's why God in his wisdom said, 'I'll send prophets and missionaries to them, which they will then persecute and kill' 50 so that the blood of those prophets which was spilt from the creation of the world onwards would then be charged to this generation. 51 This goes all the way back to the blood of Hevel (Abel),[159] right up to the blood of Zekaryah (Zechariah; Grk. 52 "You religious law experts won't end well, because you took away the key to knowledge—not only did you not enter yourselves, but you also forbade others from entering."

The parable about accumulating wealth

13 Then someone in the crowd said, "Teacher, tell my brother to give me a share of our father's estate." 14 "Man," Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) responded, "who said that I'm the judge or arbitrator over you all?" 15 Then he told them, "Keep alert to avoid all greediness, because a person's life is not about gaining lots of possessions." 16 Then he told them all this parable, "One time a rich man's farm produced a really good harvest.
17 So he started figuring out what to do, 'What should I do? I don't have anywhere to store my harvest.' 18 'Ah,' he said, 'I know what I'll do. I'll knock down my barns and build bigger ones, and then I'll store all my grain and other produce in there. 19 Then I'll be able to tell my soul: Soul, you've got enough good things now to be able to relax for many years of resting, eating, drinking, and being happy.' 20 But God said to him, 'How foolish! Tonight I'll be demanding your soul and then who will everything you stored up go to?'
21 "So that's the end of someone who accumulated so much for himself, but wasn't rich in God's eyes."

Priorities and trusting God[168]

22 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk.
Yesus) told his followers,
"That's why I'm telling you all not to worry about your lifestyle: what to eat or what to wear, 23 because your life is more than food and your body is more than clothing. 24 Look at the ravens. They don't plant seeds or harvest crops and they have no storerooms or barns, yet God keeps them fed, and humans are worth a lot more than birds.
25 Which of you can add even an hour to your life by spending more time worrying? 26 So if you can't even do something small like that, why worry about bigger things? 27 Look at how the lilies grow. They don't go to work or make fabric, yet even King Shelomoh (Solomon) at the height of his fame wasn't dressed as well as one of them.[169] 28 So if God dresses the weeds in the paddock that are here today and incinerated tomorrow, how much more would he look after you all—you with little faith?

29 "So don't all be looking for what to eat or to drink, and don't waste time by worrying 30 because people in every country in the world are looking for that, but your father already knows that you need those things. 31 Rather you should be striving to enter his kingdom, and then all these things will come as a bonus.

Focus on heavenly wealth[170]

32 "Don't be afraid, little flock, because actually your father takes pleasure in giving you the entire kingdom. 33 Sell what you own and give to the poor and so store your wealth in heaven where it won't deteriorate or get lost or stolen from you, 34 because where your wealth is stored, that's where your mind will be focused.

The well-prepared slave

35 "Get up and get dressed and get the lamps burning[171] 36 like someone who's waiting for their master. When he leaves the wedding celebrations and comes and knocks, you'll be ready to immediately open the door.[172] 37 The master would bless the slaves that are ready, watching for when he arrives. I can assure you that he'll dress himself and then he'll seat them on couches and come and serve them there himself. 38 If he arrives around midnight or even in the small hours of the morning, he'll find them ready. Yes, they'll be blessed. 39 But you should also know this: if the home-owner knew what time the thief would arrive, he'd be ready watching and not allow his house to be burgled.[173] 40 So you all need to be ready because you don't know when I, the son of humanity, am going to arrive."

Good and bad slaves[174]

41 Then Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) asked, "Master, is that parable just for us, or is it for everyone?"
42 The master answered, "So what would a faithful and wise slave be like, that the master might make into a manager over all his slaves, the one to give them their rations? 43 That slave will be blessed when his master arrives and finds him doing everything he should. 44 I can assure you all that the master will put him in charge of everything he owns. 45 In contrast, if that slave thought to himself that the master might be away for a long time, he might start beating the slave boys and slave girls, and start ordering feasts, and drinking and getting drunk, 46 then his master is sure to arrive when he's not expecting him, and the master will give him a gruesome execution and he'll be in hell with the unbelievers.
47 "Any slave who knows what their master wants, yet doesn't get anything ready or start doing what's wanted, they'll get a good beating,
48 yet a slave that didn't know what was expected, even if they might have done things worthy of a beating, they'll just get a couple of blows. Everyone who's given much is expected to do much, and everyone who's entrusted with many things, will have much more expected back from them.

Yeshua will be the source of conflict[175]

49 "I came to throw fire onto the earth, and how I wish that it was already kindled, 50 but I have to undergo an immersion into suffering, and until it's achieved, the weight of it coming crushes my soul.[176] 51 You all probably expect that I came to bring peace to the earth. No, I'm telling you, not peace but conflict, 52 because from now on, if there's five people in one house, they'll be split with three against two and two against three.
53 Fathers will be in conflict with their sons, and sons with fathers, mothers against daughters and daughters against mothers, mothers-in-law against their daughters-in-law and daughters-in-law against mothers-in-law."[177]

Understanding the times[178]

54 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) also told the crowds, "Whenever you see a cloud coming from the west, you all say that it's going to rain, and sure enough it does. 55 Likewise if there's a wind from the south, you all say that it's going to be a scorcher, and sure enough it is. 56 Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the sky and the ground, but you all don't know how to scrutinise this time period.

Facing up to your obligations[179]

57 "Even for yourselves, can't you judge what is right and wrong? 58 Because as you're on the way with your opponent to an arbitrator, think hard about how to resolve the case, because if you don't, he might drag you off to the judge, and the judge will hand you over to the constable, and the constable will toss you into a prison cell. 59 I'm telling you that you won't get out of there until every last penny has been repaid."

Turn from your sins so you won't perish

13:1 There were some people there at the time who'd reported to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) that Governor Pilatos (Pilate) had killed some Galilim when they were sacrificing. 2 Yeshua asked the people, "Do you think that these Galilim were the most disobedient to God in all Galil that they were made to suffer so much? 3 No, I'm telling you all, but on the other hand if you don't turn from your own disobedience and request forgiveness, you all will perish likewise. 4 What about those eighteen who were killed when the Siloam tower collapsed on them? Do you think they had bigger debts than all the people living in Yerushalem (Jerusalem)? 5 No, I'm telling you all that if you don't turn from your own disobedience and request forgiveness, you all will perish likewise."

Yeshua heals a bent-over woman

10 On the Rest Days, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was teaching in one of the Jewish meeting halls 11 and, look, a woman who'd had a spirit of sickness for eighteen years was there. She was bent over and unable to stand up straight 12 and when Yeshua saw her, he called out, "Woman, your disease has been sent away." 13 Then he placed his hands on her and she was immediately restored and started praising God.

14 But the hall leader was angry because it was the Rest Day when Yeshua had healed her and started telling the crowd, "There's six days when it's fine to work, so come then to be healed—not on the Rest Day!"[180]

15 "You hypocrites!" Yeshua responded. "Doesn't every one of you untie his ox on the Rest Day, or untie the donkey from the feeding trough and lead it away for a drink? 16 This woman is a descendant of Avraham who's been handicapped by Satan for eighteen years, and yet you say that it's wrong to break that bond on the Rest Day!" 17 When he said that, the people opposing him were disgraced and all the crowd was excited about the wonderful things he was doing.

Entering God's kingdom[183]

22 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) started on his journey towards Yerushalem (Jerusalem), and as he passed through each town or village, he would teach the people there, 23 and one day someone asked him, "Master, will only a few people be saved?"

Yeshua replied, 24 Make an effort to get in through the narrow door, because I'm telling you that many people want to come in but they won't be able to. 25 Once the home-owner gets up and locks the door, even if you get there now and stand outside knocking and calling out, 'Master, open up for us,' he'll answer, 'I don't know you or where you're from.' 26 'You saw us eating and drinking,' you'll start saying, and, 'You taught along our roads.' 27 But he'll reply to you all, 'I've got no idea where you're all from, so go away you who do evil things.'[184] 28 There'll be crying and much anguish when you all see Avraham and Yitshak (Isaac) and Ya'akov (Jacob) and all the prophets in God's kingdom, but all of you will be being thrown out.[185] 29 Others will come from the east and the west, and from the north and the south, and they will be comfortably seated in God's kingdom, 30 so listen: the last people will be the first ones, and the first ones will end up last."[186]

Yeshua heals a man on a Rest Day

14:1 One day, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went to the house of one of the Farisaios party leaders for a meal on a Rest Day, and they were watching him closely. 2 Then, look, there was a man there with badly swollen limbs. 3 Yeshua responded to the thoughts of the lawyers and Farisaios by asking, "Is it allowable to heal on the Rest Day or not?"

4 However, they just stayed silent, so he took hold of the man and healed him and sent him away. 5 Then he asked them, "Which of you if your child or your animal fell into a pit wouldn't immediately pull them out, even if it was a Rest Day?"[189]

6 But they didn't have any answer for that.

Demonstrating humility

7 Then he told a parable to all the invited guests after he'd noticed them choosing the best places around the table, telling them, 8 "Whenever you're invited to a wedding celebration, don't go and sit in the best place, in case someone more important than you might be called over by the host,[190] 9 and then your host might come over to you and ask you to let the other guest sit where you were, and then you might end up humiliated at the bottom of the table. 10 Rather, when you're invited, sit down at the end so that the host might come and tell you, 'Friend, move up here to a better spot.' Then you'll be honoured in front of all the other guests, 11 because the person who thinks a lot of themself will be humbled, and the person who humbles themself will be honoured."[191]

12 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) also spoke to the man who had invited him, "Whenever you host a brunch or dinner, don't invite your friends or siblings, or your other relatives or your wealthy neighbours, because they can invite you back and so repay you. 13 Instead when you're celebrating, invite the poor and the crippled, the lame and the blind, 14 and then you'll be rewarded by God because those people won't be able to repay you, hence you'll be repaid instead when those who please God come back to life."

The parable about the reluctant dinner guests[192]

15 Now one of the people at the meal heard all this and commented, "Blessed is anyone who gets to have a meal in God's kingdom."

16 But Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) responded,
"There was a home-owner who was putting on a large dinner and invited many people. 17 When the meal was ready, he sent out his slave to go and tell everyone who'd been invited, 'Come over now because the food is ready.' 18 However they all started giving excuses. The first one said, 'I bought a field and I need to go and inspect it. Please excuse me.' 19 Another one said, 'I've bought five pairs of oxen and I need to check them out. Please excuse me.' 20 Yet another said, 'I just got married so I can't really come.' 21 So when the slave got back, he reported all this to his master. The home-owner got angry and told the slave, 'Well then, hurry out into the roads and streets of the city and bring back the poor and crippled and blind and lame people.' 22 When he'd done that, the slave said, 'Master, I've done what you instructed and there's still room at the table.' 23 So the master instructed him, 'Well go along the roads and fences and force them to come so that my house will fill up, 24 because I'm telling you that none of those invited guests will get a taste of this meal of mine.' "

Count the cost of following Yeshua[193]

25 Large crowds were following Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) when he turned and spoke to them, 26 "If anyone comes to me but doesn't love me more than they love their parents and their siblings, and their spouse and children, and even their own life, then that person is unable to become my apprentice.[194] 27 Anyone who doesn't give up everything in this life and come after me is unable to become my apprentice,[195] 28 because none of you would want to build a tower without first counting the cost and figuring out if you'll have enough to complete it. 29 Otherwise you might lay the foundation and not be able to finish it. Then everyone watching might begin to mock 30 and say, 'This person started a building project but wasn't able to finish it.' 31 Or what king would go off to war against another king, if he hadn't previously sat down with his generals to figure out if their ten thousand soldiers are powerful enough to battle the other king bringing twenty thousand against him? 32 If they can't, then while the other army is still far away, the king will send ahead a delegation to try to make peace. 33 So too for every one of you who doesn't leave behind everything they own, you won't be able to become an apprentice of mine.

Worthless followers likened to salt[196]

34 "Salt is good, but if it became tasteless, what could you use to make it salty again? 35 It would be no use on the soil or for fertiliser—they'd just have to throw it away. Let any person who wants to hear, listen carefully."

The lost sheep that was found[197]

4 "If you had a hundred sheep and one of them went missing, which of you wouldn't leave the ninety-nine there in the wilderness and go and search for the missing sheep until you found it? 5 And once you found it, you would carry it home on your shoulders feeling very happy. 6 When you got back to the house, surely you'd call your friends and neighbours and tell them, 'Come and celebrate with me because I found my lost sheep.' 7 I'm telling you all that there's similar celebration in heaven when one person turns from their disobedience and obeys God—more than over ninety-nine guiltless people who have no need to change.

The lost coin that was found

8 "Or what woman who had ten silver coins and lost one, wouldn't light a lamp and sweep the house and search thoroughly until she found it? 9 Then she'd invite her friends and neighbours saying, 'Come and celebrate with me because I found the money that I'd lost.' 10 I'm telling you all that there's similar celebration by God's messengers in heaven over one person who turns from their disobedience and obeys God."

The parable about the returning son

11 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) told them, "Once there was a man with two sons. 12 The younger son asked his father to give him his inheritance in advance, so the father divided everything up. 13 Then a few days later, that younger son went off to a distant country where he used his inheritance to enjoy an affluent and carefree lifestyle. 14 However after he'd used up all his funds, a terrible famine hit that country, and he started to become needy, 15 so he went and signed up to work for one of the local farmers who assigned him to feed the pigs out in the fields. 16 As the pigs were eating their carob pods, their food started to look desirable to him, but he wasn't given any. 17 But he eventually came to his senses and said to himself, 'Even my father's workers have plenty of food, but here I am in this place dying of starvation. 18 I'm going to leave and go back to my father to tell him, "Father, I've disobeyed God and dishonoured

The parable about the shrewd manager

16:1 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk.
Yesus) also told this to his followers, "Once there was a rich man who had a manager who worked for him. A whistle-blower reported that the manager had been abusing the owner's possessions 2 so the owner called him and asked, 'What's this I'm hearing about you? Give back the ledgers because I don't want you as a manager any more.' 3 Then the manager thought to himself, 'Oh dear, what will I do now that I'm losing this management job? I'm not strong enough to be out digging and I'd be too ashamed to beg. 4 I know what I'll do so that when I lose my job, I'll still be popular with everyone else.' 5 So he called in each person who owed money to his master. He asked the first one, 'How much do you owe my master?' 6 'A hundred jugs of olive oil,' he replied. 'Well, bring the contract here and change it quickly to fifty,' the manager said. 7 Then he asked the next one, 'How much do you owe?' 'A hundred containers of wheat,' the man replied. 'Get the contract form and change it to eighty,' said the manager. 8 When he heard, the landowner praised the dishonest manager for his shrewdness because the modern generation are better at working the system than the children of light in their generation.

9 "So I'm telling you all to use worldly money to make friends for yourselves, so that whenever it runs out, they'll accept you all into the eternal homes.[199] 10 Anyone who's faithful with a little is also faithful with much, and the person who's dishonest with a little is also dishonest with a lot. 11 Because of that, if you aren't faithful with worldly money, who would entrust true wealth to you all? 12 If you're not faithful in your treatment of strangers, who would give you anything for yourselves?

13 "No household servant can serve two masters, because either they'll hate the one and love the other, or they'll support the one and despise the other."[200]

The dogs even came and licked his ulcers, 22 and eventually he died and was carried away by God's messengers to recline at the table next to Avraham. Then the rich man also died and was buried 23 and was tormented in hell. However, when he looked up, he saw Avraham in the distance and Eleazar reclining next to him, 24 so he called out, 'Father Avraham, be merciful to me and send Eleazar here to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool down my tongue, because I'm very distressed here in this flame.' 25 But Avraham replied, 'Son, don't forget that you enjoyed the good life while you were alive, whereas Eleazar had it bad, but now he's here being comforted and you're suffering.
26 Anyway, there's a deep chasm that's been established between us, so that anyone here who wanted to go to you can't, nor can anyone from there cross over here to us.' 27 'I have one request then,' said the man who'd been rich. 'Send Eleazar

29 'They have the scriptures,' answered Avraham, 'so they can find out what they say.' 30 But the man insisted, 'No, father Avraham, but if someone from the dead went to them, then they'd turn from their sins.' 31 'Well, if they ignore the scriptures,' he answered, 'even if someone from the dead went to them, they still wouldn't be persuaded.' Forgiving sin[206]

17:1 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) told his followers, "It's impossible that temptations will disappear, but a bad future awaits whoever brings them. 2 It would be better if that person had a heavy weight tied to them and got thrown into the sea than if they cause a younger one to stumble. 3 Take great care.

If a fellow-believer disobeys God, scold them,[207] and then if they stop and request forgiveness, forgive them. 4 Even if they wrong you seven times in a day and then seven times come and tell you that they're turning away from it, forgive them."

Growing faith

5 Then the apprentices requested the master, "Give us more faith." 6 "If you all had faith like a small mustard seed," the master replied, "you would be able to order a mulberry bush, 'Get out of the ground and plant yourself in the sea,' and it would obey you all.

The work of a slave

7 "Imagine that you had a slave that was out in the field ploughing or looking after the sheep. When he came back to the house, which of you would tell him, 'The meal's ready so come in now and sit down to eat.' 8 No, you'd be saying, 'Get the meal ready for me and then after you've changed, come and wait on me as I eat and drink, then after that you can eat and drink.' 9 And no, slaves don't get thanked for just doing what they've been told to do. 10 So too when you all do what you've been told to do, just say, 'We're useless slaves—we've just done what we were told.' "

Yeshua heals ten men with skin diseases

11 Soon it was time to continue on towards Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and so they walked through Galil and Shomron (Samaria). 12 In one village, they came across ten men with leprosy, who stood back at a distance 13 and called out, "Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), master, show mercy to us."

14 When he saw them, Yeshua called back, "Go and ask the priests to inspect you."[208] So they went off, and as they were walking, they were healed. 15 One of them, seeing that his skin was healed, came back and could be heard loudly praising God, 16 and he knelt down in front of Yeshua and thanked him. This man was from Shomron. 17 "Weren't there ten of you that were healed?" Yeshua asked. "Where's the other nine? 18 Have none of them returned to praise God—only this foreigner?" 19 Then he told him, "Get up and go now. Your faith has healed you."

God's kingdom[209]

20 One time Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was approached by some from the Farisaios party and asked when God's kingdom is coming, and he answered, "The arrival of God's kingdom is not some visible thing, 21 and they won't be shouting, 'Look, here it is!' or 'There it is!', because you see, God's kingdom is inside you all."

22 Then he told his followers, "The time will come when you'll be wanting to see the son of humanity again even for a day, but you won't see him. 23 Some people will tell you all, 'Look, there he is!' or 'Hey, here he is!' but don't go looking or following them, 24 because when the son of humanity returns, it'll be like lightning that flashes from one side of the sky and shines right across to the other side. 25 However, before that, he needs to suffer many things and to be rejected by this generation. 26 The time of the return of the son of humanity will be just like it was in Noah's time:[210] 27 people were eating and drinking, and getting engaged and married right until that day when Noah went into the barge and the flood came and destroyed everything.[211] 28 It was similar in Lot's time: people were eating and drinking, and buying and selling, and planting and building,[212] 29 but on the day that Lot walked out of Sedom, fire and sulfur rained down from the sky and destroyed everything. 30 So that's how it will be when the son of humanity is revealed.

31 "On that day, anyone who's just outside the house should not go back in to get their valuables.
Similarly, anyone who's out on the farm shouldn't return to the house to get their possessions.[213] 32 Don't forget the disaster that happened to Lot's wife.[214] 33 Anyone who tries to save their live will lose it, and anyone who's sacrificed their lifestyle, will retain life.[215] 34 I'm telling you, two people will be in one bed on that night and one will be taken and the other one will be left behind. 35 Two people will be preparing food at the same place and one will be taken and the other one will be left behind."

36 ◘ 37 "Where will this happen, master?" they asked.

the vultures will be gathering."

Persistence in prayer

18:1 Then he told them another parable about how it's good to always be praying and not to become discouraged: 2 "Once there was a city judge who didn't revere God and nor did he allow anyone to sway him. 3 Now there was a widow in that city, and she kept going to him saying, 'Get me justice against my rival.' 4 At first, he wasn't interested in the case, but eventually he said to himself, 'Even if I don't fear God and I'm not easily pushed around by anyone, 5 this widow is making trouble for me.
I'll fight her case for her so she'll stop harassing me.' "

He'll patiently listen to them. 8 I'm telling you that he'll quickly bring justice to the situation. However, when the son of humanity comes, will he find faith on the earth?"

Humility in prayer

9 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) also told this parable to some who felt that they were guiltless before God because of their own goodness, and so they scorned others:
10 "Once two men went into the temple to pray—one was a Farisaios party member and the other was a tax-collector. 11 The Farisaios stood there praying quietly, 'I thank you, God, that I'm not like the rest of the people: swindlers, sinners, adulterers, and even that tax-collector. 12 I fast twice a week and I give a tenth of everything I get.' 13 But the tax-collector stood at a distance, not even willing to raise his head, instead beating his chest and saying, 'God, I'm a sinner, take away my guilt.' 14 I'm telling you all that this man went home after being declared guiltless, not the other one, because all those who praise themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be praised."[216]

Yeshua blesses small children[217]

15 The people also brought their babies to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) so that he would touch them and bless them, but his apprentices scolded them when they saw it. 16 However, Yeshua called out to them, "Let the little children come to me. Don't stop them, because God's kingdom consists of those like them. 17 I can assure you that anyone who doesn't accept God's kingdom like a little child certainly won't be able to enter it."

The wealthy leader[218]

18 One time a local leader asked Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), "Good teacher, what do I need to do to gain eternal life?"
19 "Why do you call me good?" Yeshua re-

20 You know God's commands: Don't commit adultery,[219] don't murder,[220] don't steal,[221] don't lie in court,[222] and honour your parents."[223]
21 "I've obeyed all of those since I was young," the leader replied.
22 "Then you're lacking only one more thing," Yeshua added. "Sell everything you own and distribute the money to the poor, then you'll have treasure in the heavens. Then come and follow me." 23 But when he heard this, the man was very upset, because he was extremely wealthy.
24 As Yeshua looked at him, he said, "It's so difficult for those who are wealthy to enter into God's kingdom— 25 it's easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a wealthy person to enter God's kingdom."
26 Those around who heard asked, "Then who's able to be saved?"
27 "What's humanly impossible," he replied, "is quite possible with God."
28 Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) spoke up, "Hey, we left everything and followed you!"
29 "I can assure you all," Yeshua responded, "that no one who left their home or spouse or siblings, or parents or children on account of God's kingdom 30 will not be repaid many times over in this age, as well as gaining eternal life in the coming age."

Yeshua predicts his execution a third time[224]

31 Then taking the twelve aside, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) told them, "Listen, we're about to go down to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and everything that the prophets wrote about the son of humanity will soon happen. 32 He'll be handed over to non-Jews and will be mocked and insulted and spat on, 33 then they'll flog him and kill him, but he'll come back to life on the third day."

Yeshua heals a blind man[225]

35 As Yeshua (Jesus; Grk.
Yesus) got close to Yeriho (Jericho) city, there was a blind man sitting beside the road begging. 36 When he heard a crowd passing through, he started asking what was going on, 37 and they told him that Yeshua from Nazaret was passing by, 38 so he started shouting, "Yeshua, David's descendant, be merciful to me!"

39 Some of the people walking past him told him to be quiet, but he just shouted louder, "David's descendant, be merciful to me!"

40 Then Yeshua stopped and ordered that the man be brought across to him. When he came, he asked him, 41 "What do you want me to do for you?"

He answered, "Master, I want to be able to see!"

42 "Then receive your sight," Yeshua said, "because your faith has healed you."

43 Immediately he was able to see, and followed along after Yeshua praising God, and the people that saw it happen also praised God.

Zakay hosts Yeshua

19:1 After that, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) entered Yeriho (Jericho) and continued walking through it. 2 Then, look, there was a man named Zakay (Zacchaeus; Grk. Zakkaios) and he was a chief tax-collector and pretty wealthy. 3 He wanted to see who this Yeshua was, but couldn't see over the crowd because he[226] was rather short, 4 so he ran along ahead of the crowd and climbed a sycamore tree so that he could see Yeshua as he walked past. 5 However, as Yeshua came to that place, he looked up and said, "Zakay, hurry up and get down because I think it would be good to stay at your place." 6 So he hurried down the tree and happily welcomed him.

7 But everyone who had observed it was grumbling, "Hoy, he's going to stay with a sinful man."

8 At dinner, Zakay stood and said to the master,
"Listen, master, I'm giving half of everything I own to the poor, and anyone that I defrauded, I'll pay them back four times over."

9 "Salvation came to this home today," responded Yeshua, "as this man has also shown that he's Avraham's offspring, 10 because the son of humanity came to look for those who are lost, and save them."[227]

The parable about three servants[228]

11 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went on to tell a parable to those who heard all that, because he was getting near to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and they had assumed that God's kingdom was going appear straight away. 12 Because of that, he told them, "Once a man of high status was going to a distant country to inherit a kingdom, and then to return after that. 13 So he called his ten slaves and gave them ten silver coins and told them to put them to work until he got back. 14 But his citizens hated him and sent a delegation out to him to say, 'We don't want this man to reign over us.'

15 "But he received his kingdom and then he headed back and sent for those slaves that he had given the silver to, to find out how well they'd traded. 16 The first slave arrived and said, 'Master, I used your silver coin to earn ten more coins.' 17 'Well done good slave,' he said, 'and because you were faithful with a little, I'll put you in charge of ten cities.' 18 Then the second slave came and said, 'Your silver master, gained five more coins.' 19 'You too,' the master said, 'will be put in charge of five cities.' 20 Then another slave came and said, 'Master, look, here's your silver that I kept hidden away wrapped in a handkerchief 21 because I was scared of you, knowing that you're a hard man—picking up what you didn't put down, and harvesting where you didn't sow.' 22 'I'll judge you by your own words,' the master said, 'you evil slave! You knew that I'm a hard man, picking up what I didn't put down, and harvesting what I didn't sow. 23 So why didn't you take my silver to the bank? Then went I returned, at least I would have been able to collect some interest.' 24 Then the master told the others who were standing there, 'Take the silver

Yeshua rides an unbroken colt into Yerushalem[231]

28 After he'd said that, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) continued on towards Yerushalem (Jerusalem), 29 and as he got near to Beyt-Fagey (Bethphage) and Beyt-Ania (Bethany) going towards the Mt. of Olives, he sent two of his apprentices ahead, 30 telling them, "Go on to the next village, and when you enter it, you'll see a colt that's never been ridden tied up there. Untie it and bring it here. 31 But if anyone asks you why you're untying it, tell them that the master needs it."

32 So they went off and found it just like he'd told them, 33 and when they were untying the colt, the owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?"

34 "The master needs it," they answered. 35 So they led it back to Yeshua, and after throwing some of their clothes over it, they mounted him on it. 36 Then as the colt moved along, they spread more of their clothes on the road.

37 As he was about to descend down the slope of the Mt. of Olives, the whole crowd of followers started celebrating and loudly praising God for all the miracles they'd seen, 38 saying, "The coming king has been blessed in the name of Yahweh.[232] May there be peace in heaven and brilliant splendour up high there."

39 There were some members of the Farisaios party in the crowd and they suggested to him, "Teacher, tell your followers to stop!"

Yeshua cries over Yerushalem

41 As Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) got closer to Yerushalem (Jerusalem), he cried over it, 42 saying, "If only you knew how to obtain peace today, but it's been hidden from your eyes, 43 because in the future, your enemies will surround you and build a palisade around you and attack you from every side. 44 Then they'll level you and your children along with you, and they'll topple the stone walls and buildings, because you didn't realise the importance of who was visiting you."

Yeshua throws the traders out of the temple[233]

45 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went into the temple and started throwing out the traders, 46 telling them, "It's been written that 'my house will be a place of prayer,' but you've made it into a den for robbers."[234]

47 After that, he taught in the temple every day,[235] but the chief priests and the religious teachers were looking for a way to execute him, 48 but they didn't come up with a plan, because all the people loved to listen to him.

The leaders challenge Yeshua's authority[236]

20:1 One day when Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the good message, the chief priests and religious teachers and the local elders came to him 2 and demanded, "Tell us what authority you have to do those things, and who gave it to you!"

3 "Well, I'll also ask you people a question," he responded. 4 "When Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) immersed people, was he instructed from heaven or was it just some person's idea?"

5 They discussed this among themselves, reasoning, "If we say 'from heaven', then he'll ask us why we didn't believe that God sent him. 6 But if we say

8 "Well, then," Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) told them, "nor will I tell you where I get the authority to do these things."

The parable about killing the owner's son[237]

9 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) started telling this parable to the people: "Once a man planted a vineyard[238] and rented it out to tenant farmers before heading off on his trips. 10 At the appropriate time of the year, he sent a slave to the tenants to collect his percentage of the profits, but they beat up the slave and sent him back empty-handed. 11 So he sent another slave, but they also beat that one and dishonoured him, then sent him back empty-handed. 12 So the man sent a third slave, and they also wounded this one and threw him off the property. 13 So the master of the vineyard asked himself, 'What will I do now? Ah, I'll send my dear son—perhaps they'll be swayed by him.' 14 But when the tenants saw the son, they reasoned among themselves, 'This is the heir. If we kill him, then his inheritance will become ours.' 15 So they threw him off the property and killed him.

So then, what will the master of the vineyard do to them? 16 He'll go to the vineyard and destroy those tenant farmers, and will lease the vineyard out to others."

The people listening looked at Yeshua and said, "Surely that could never happen."

17 But he looked them in the eyes and asked, "Then what is this statement that was written in the scriptures?

'The stone which the builders rejected, that one became the most important stone.'[239]

18 Everyone who falls onto that stone will be shattered,[240] and anyone who that stone falls on will be pulverised."[241]

The question about paying tax[242]

19 Then because the religious teachers and the chief priests knew that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) had used that parable to speak about them, they tried at the time to capture him, but couldn't, because they were afraid of the number of people around. 20 So after watching Yeshua closely, they sent agents who pretended to be genuine inquirers so that they could catch him out on some careless statement, and then they could hand him over to the rule and authority of the Romaios governor. 21 They asked him, "Teacher, we know that you say what is right, and that you teach the truth about God's way without being influenced by people. 22 So tell us, should we pay tax to the Romaios emperor or not?"

23 But having observed their craftiness, he said to them, 24 "Show me a coin. Whose image and inscription is on it?"

"The emperor's," they replied. 25 "So then," Yeshua continued, "Give the emperor what belongs to him, and what belongs to God, give to God."

26 So they weren't able to catch him out by making a treasonable statement in front of the people—in fact they were stunned by his answer and didn't ask anything else.

The question about the resurrection[243]

27 Then some from the Saddoukaios (Sadducee) sect came. They claim there's no resurrection,[244] and they asked Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), 28 "Teacher, Mosheh (Moses) wrote for us that if anyone's married brother should die childless, then the surviving brother should take in the widow so they can produce children in the deceased brother's name.[245] 29 Once there were seven brothers, and the first one had a wife, but died without having children. 30 Then the second brother 31 and the third took her, right through to the seventh, and without leaving any children, they all eventually died. 32 Finally, the woman also died. 33 So when they're resurrected, which brother will she be the wife of? After all, all seven had her as their wife."

34 Yeshua answered them, "This generation get engaged and married, 35 but in the next age, those who are considered worthy to be brought back to life from the dead won't get engaged or marry, 36 because they can't die again, but rather they're like God's messengers and are God's children, being children of the resurrection. 37 But about the dead being raised, Mosheh (Moses) revealed it at the burning thorn bush when he called Yahweh the god of Avraham and of Yitshak (Isaac) and of Ya'akov (Jacob),[246] 38 and God is not the god of the dead, but of the living, because to him, everyone is living."

39 "Teacher, you answered well," some of the religious teachers affirmed, 40 and no one dared to ask him anything else after that.

How can the messiah be David's descendant?[247]

41 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) asked them, "How can the experts say that the messiah is a descendant of King David? 42 Because David said in his songs:

'Yahweh said to my master,
Sit here on my right
43 until I cause your enemies to be defeated.'[248]

44 So if David calls the messiah his master, how can he also be his descendant?"

Yeshua warns about the religious teachers[249]

45 While all the people were still listening, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) told his followers, 46 "Watch out for the religious teachers who enjoy walking around in their robes and love the greetings they get in the marketplaces and the best seats in the Jewish meeting halls and the best places at the dinners, 47 but they take advantage of widows' homes and they make their prayers long to impress others. These people will receive a harsher judgement."

The widow's sacrificial offering[250]

21:1 When Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) looked up, he saw some wealthy people throwing their gifts into the temple treasury basket. 2 He also noticed a poor widow who threw in two small copper coins. 3 "I can assure you all," he said, "that this poor widow threw more in than all the others, 4 because they all donated out of their plentiful wealth, but she in her poverty, gave her food budget."

Yeshua predicts the destruction of the temple[251]

5 Meanwhile, some were talking about the temple building that had been constructed with beautifully cut stones and dedicated with promises to God, but Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) said, 6 "In the future, all of this that you're all looking at, will be torn down in such a way that not one of those stones will be left sitting on top of another."

Yeshua foretells signs and persecution[252]

7 Then they asked Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), "Teacher, when will those things all happen, and what will be the sign that they're about to happen?"

8 "Be careful," he answered, "in case you all get deceived, because lots of people will come using my name and saying, 'I'm him,' or 'The time has come.' Don't follow after them, 9 and whenever you all hear about wars and disturbances, don't be terrified, because all these things do need to happen first, but they don't mean that the end will be right then."

10 Then he told them, "Various countries and kingdoms will attack each other 11 and there'll be huge earthquakes, and famines and diseases and other frightening events, as well as widespread signs from the sky.

12 "But before all that happens, they'll be arresting you all, and persecuting you. You'll be handed over to the Jewish meeting halls and prisons. Some of you will be stood in front of kings and governors because of my name 13 but it will turn

Yeshua foretells Yerushalem's destruction[254]

20 "However, when you all see Yerushalem (Jerusalem) being surrounded by armies, then you'll know that the time of her abandonment is close. 21 Then those who are in Yehudah (Judea) should flee to the hills and those time of vengeance when what's been written will come to pass.[255] 23 It'll be so hard for pregnant and there'll be incredible distress in the country and severe anger towards the Jewish people. 24 They'll be cut down with swords and taken to many other countries as slaves, then Yerushalem will be overrun by non-Jews until the times given to the non-Jews will be fulfilled.

The return of the son of humanity[256]

Recognising the end by the season[260]

29 Then he told them a parable: "Watch the fig tree and all the trees. 30 Whenever you see shoots start appearing, you know that summer is not far away. 31 Similarly when you all see those things starting to happen, you will know that God's kingdom is close.

32 "I can assure you all that that generation certainly won't pass away until all those events come to an end. 33 The sky and the earth will pass away, but my statements will certainly not pass away.

Stay alert and pray

34 Watch your own lives in case you end up focused on partying and drunkenness and day-to-day living, because then that sudden end might snap on you 35 like an animal trap, because it will hit everyone all over the planet. 36 No matter what the season, stay alert, asking God that you'll all have the strength to escape all those things going to happen, and at the end to be able to stand in front of the son of humanity."

37 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was teaching in the temple during the day,[261] but he'd leave in the evening and go and stay on the Mt. of Olives, 38 but all the people would return to the temple again the next day at dawn to listen to him again.

The plan to kill Yeshua[262]

22:1 By then the Flat Bread Celebration was getting closer—part of the Passover celebrations,[263] 2 and the chief priests and the religious teachers were trying to find a way to kill Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) without causing the people to riot.

Iskariot, one of the twelve apprentices. 4 He left the others and went to the chief priests and their officers to discuss a way that he could turn Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) over to them. 5 They were very pleased and decided to give him some silver, 6 so agreeing to that, he started looking for an opportunity to turn Yeshua over to them sometime when he wasn't surrounded by a crowd.

Yeshua organises their Passover dinner[265]

7 Then the day of the flat bread dinner arrived when the Passover celebration is observed. 8 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) sent Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), telling them, "Go on ahead and prepare our Passover meal ready for us to eat."

9 "Where should we prepare it?" they asked. 10 "Listen," he said, "go ahead and when you enter the city you'll meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him into the house that he goes into. 11 Then tell the home-owner that the teacher wants to know where the guest room is so that he can eat the Passover meal with his apprentices 12 and he'll show you a large upper room that's already set up. That's where you should prepare the meal." 13 So the two of them went on ahead and found it exactly like he'd told them, and so they prepared the Passover dinner.

The cups and the bread at dinner[266]

14 When it was time to eat, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and his apprentices sat down together 15 and he told them, "I've been really looking forward to eating this pass-over dinner with you all before my time of suffering begins, 16 because I'm telling you that I certainly won't eat it again until it's fulfilled in God's kingdom."

17 Then when the wine cup was passed to him, he gave thanks and said, "Take this and share it among yourselves, 18 because I'm telling you that after this, I won't drink the product of the vines again until God's kingdom comes.

19 Then picking up some bread and giving thanks, he broke the bread apart and gave it to them saying, "This is my body which is being

21 "However, the one who will turn me in is sitting with me at the table.[269] 22 Now, the son of humanity has to endure what's been previously designated, but on the other hand, it won't end well for the man who turns him in."

The apprentices argue about being the greatest

23 This got them debating among themselves about which one of them it might be who was going to do that 24 and it soon turned into a dispute between them about which one of them was the greatest,[270] 25 so Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) said, "In other countries, the kings are the masters over the people and they call themselves 'benefactors' of those they have authority over. 26 But all of you shouldn't be like that, but rather the greatest one of you should become like the youngest, and the one who leads you all should become like the servant.[271] 27 Because who is greater: the one on the couch, or the one who's serving? Isn't it the one on the couch? But among all of you, I'm like the one serving[272] 28 and you all are the ones who have stuck with me even in my trials.

29 "And I'm making an agreement with you (just like my father agreed that the kingdom would be mine), 30 so that you all will be able to eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and you'll sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Yisrael (Israel).[273]

35 Then Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) told them, "When I sent you all out without a wallet or backpack or spare sandals, did you have to go without anything?"[275]

"Nothing," they answered.

36 "But now," Yeshua continued, "if you have a wallet, take it and same with a backpack. If you don't have a sword, sell your coat and buy one, 37 because it was written that 'he was considered to be a lawbreaker'[276] and I'm telling you all that everything that was written about me, will be fulfilled and my time here is soon about to end."

Yeshua prays in the garden[277]

39 Then leaving the upper room, he went to the Mt. of Olives as usual and his apprentices followed him. 40 When they got to the place, he told them, "You all pray that you won't give in to temptation."

41 Then he went on several metres, and kneeling on the ground, he prayed, 42 "Father, if you want, allow me to avoid this suffering, however, I want to do what you want—not just what I want." 43 ◘ 44 ◘

45 Then standing again after praying, he went back to the apprentices and found that they'd fallen asleep from the sorrow 46 and he asked them, "Why are you all sleeping? Sit up and pray that you won't give in to temptation."

Yeshua is arrested at night[278]

47 While he was still speaking, wow, a crowd turned up with Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas) Iskariot in the front, and he went up to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) to kiss him. 48 But Yeshua asked him, "Yehudah, are you turning in the son of humanity with a kiss?"

49 When the other apprentices around Yeshua saw what was about to happen, they asked, "Master, should we attack with our swords?" 50 Then one of them slashed at the chief priest's slave and sliced off his right ear.

51 "That's gone far enough!" countered Yeshua, and touching the side of the man's head, he healed him.

52 Then Yeshua spoke to those who had come to capture him—the chief priests and temple officers and the local elders, "So you all came out here with swords and clubs as if I was a robber? 53 I was there in the temple with you all everyday[279] and yet you didn't arrest me there. Yes, because this is your time: with the power of the darkness."

Kefa denies knowing Yeshua[280]

54 Then after capturing Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), they led him along to the chief priest's house, but Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) followed them from a distance. 55 The staff at the chief priest's place had lit a fire to sit around in the middle of the courtyard, and Kefa slipped in with them. 56 Then a servant girl noticed him in the light, and peering at him she said, "This man was with him as well."

57 But Kefa disowned him, saying, "Woman, I don't even know him."

58 A little while later, someone else noticed him and said, "You're also one of them!"

"Man, I'm not!" Kefa retorted.

59 About an hour later, someone else insisted on saying, "This fellow was definitely with him because he's also a Galili!"

60 "Man, I don't know what you're talking about!" Kefa responded, and while he was still speaking, the rooster crowed.

Yeshua is mocked and beaten[281]

63 Meanwhile the officers who were holding Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) started mocking him and beating him. 64 They blindfolded him and then challenged him, "Prophesy and tell us who just slapped you!" 65 as well as saying many other things to insult him.

Yeshua's brief interrogation by the Jewish council[282]

66 As the daylight came, the council of local elders including both the chief priests and the religious teachers, gathered together and Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was led in to the council 67 who demanded, "If you're the messiah, tell us so."

"Even if I told you," he replied, "you certainly wouldn't believe me, 68 and if I asked you all anything, you certainly wouldn't answer. 69 But from now on, the son of humanity will be sitting in the seat of power at God's right hand."

70 "So then, you are God's son!" they all reacted.

"Well, you're all saying that I am," he said.

71 "Why would we need any more witnesses than this?" they asked, "because we heard it ourselves straight out of his mouth."

Yeshua is taken to Pilatos[283]

23:1 Then the whole group of Jewish leaders stood up and led him to Pilatos (Pilate) 2 where they started to bring their accusations, "We found this man perverting our nation and telling the people not to pay taxes to Kaisar. He calls himself the messiah and claims to be a king."

3 "Are you the king of the Yehudim (Jews)?" Pi-latos asked him.

"You're the one saying it," Yeshua (Jesus; Grk.

crowds, "I can't find anything that this man is guilty of."

5 But they kept insisting, "He's been stirring up the people, teaching throughout all Yehudah (Judea). He started in Galil then worked his way all the way down here."

Yeshua is taken to Herodes

6 When Pilatos (Pilate) heard that, he asked if the prisoner was a Galili, 7 and when he discovered that he was from King Herodes's (Herod's) jurisdiction, he sent him across to Herodes as he also happened to be in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) at that time. 8 Herodes was very pleased when he saw Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) being brought in because he'd been wanting to see him for quite some time because of everything he'd heard about him. He was hoping to see Yeshua do a miracle in front of his eyes 9 and asked him lots of questions, but Yeshua didn't answer any of them. 10 Meanwhile the chief priests and the religious teachers were standing there loudly making many accusations against him. 11 Then Herodes and his soldiers also insulted and mocked Yeshua, and dressing him in posh clothes, Herodes sent him back to Pilatos. 12 After that day, Herodes and Pilatos became friends with each other. (Before then they'd opposed each other.)

The innocent prisoner sentenced to death[284]

13 So Pilatos (Pilate) called together the chief priests and the local leaders and the people 14 and told them, "You brought this man to me for stirring up the people, but listen, I've examined him in front of you all and I find him to be not guilty of anything that you're all accusing him of, 15 and Herodes (Herod) didn't either, because he just sent him back to us. Now listen, he's done nothing worthy of a death sentence 16 so I'll have him disciplined and then discharged. 17 ◘ 18 But they all yelled out in unison, "Take him away and release Bar-Aba (Grk. Barabbas) instead!" 19 (Bar-Aba had been thrown into prison for murder after an uprising that had occurred in the city.)

23 But they kept loudly insisting that he be executed on a post, and the yelling of the crowd was strong enough to convince Pilatos, 24 so he conceded to their request 25 and released the one thrown into prison for murder and rebellion, but he conceded to sentence Yeshua as they had wanted.

Yeshua is hung on a pole[285]

26 As the Romaios soldiers led Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) out of the city, they grabbed a man that was coming in from the countryside. He was Shim'on (Simon) from Kurainai (Cyrene), and they forced him to carry the post and follow along behind Yeshua.

27 Following along behind them, was a large crowd of people including women who were wailing for Yeshua and chanting sad songs, 28 but he turned to them and spoke, "Women of Yerushalem (Jerusalem), don't weep for me. Weep for yourselves and for your children, 29 because the time is coming when they'll say, 'Blessed are the childless couples and the women who never bore or raised a child.' 30 Then they'll start begging the mountains to fall on top of them and begging the hills to smother them,[286] 31 because if this is what happens while we're still a nation, what will happen when the country is gone?"

32 There were also two other criminals being led along to be executed with Yeshua.

36 The soldiers also mocked him, going up and offering cheap wine to him, 37 saying, "If you're the king of the Yehudim (Jews), then save yourself," 38 as an inscription had been placed above him that said, "This is the king of the Yehudim."

39 One of the criminals that was hanging there insulted him, saying, "Aren't you the messiah? Save yourself and us too."

40 But the other criminal told him off, saying, "Don't you even respect God when you too have been sentenced to death? 41 At least we deserve our punishment that fits what we've done, but in contrast, this man did nothing wrong." 42 Then he said, "Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. 50 Then, look, there was a man named Yosef (Joseph) on the local council. (He was a good man and godly, 51 and hadn't agreed with what the council had decided and done. He was from the Jewish city of Arimathaia and was waiting for God's kingdom to come.) 52 He went in to see Pilatos (Pilate) and requested Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. life on the third day.' "[298] 8 Then indeed they remembered his words.

9 Then they left the tomb and went back into the city and reported all this to the eleven apprentices and all the others. 10 (The women who told this to the missionaries were Miryam (Grk. Maria/Mariam) from Magdala, Yohanah, Miryam the mother of Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos), and the other women who were with them.) 11 However those who heard it, thought it was all just nonsense and didn't believe them. 12 But Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) stood up and ran off to the tomb, and when he stooped down to look in, he could only see the linen cloths, so he wandered off by himself, wondering what could have happened.

Yeshua joins the walkers to Emmaous[299]

13 Then, wow, two of Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') followers were walking to the village of Emmaous about eleven kilometres away from Yerushalem (Jerusalem), 14 and they were discussing with each other about all the recent events. 15 After talking and debating for a while, Yeshua caught up with them and joined them, 16 but their eyes were restricted from being able to recognise him. 17 He asked them, "What's all this that you two are talking about while you walk?"

They stopped suddenly and looked at him with sad faces, 18 and the one called Kleopas asked him, "Are you the only visitor staying in Yerushalem who doesn't know what just happened in the last few days?"

19 "What happened?" he asked.

"What happened to the man, Yeshua from Nazaret (Nazareth)," they answered. "He was a prophet who did powerful miracles and delivered a powerful message in front of God and all the people. 20 The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and he was executed on a post. 21 We were hoping that he was going to be the one who would release Yisrael (Israel) from the grip of the Romaios, but all that happened three days ago now. 22 Then some of our women also surprised us, because they went to his tomb very early this morning 23 but they couldn't find his body. Then they came back and told us about some vision about messengers from God who apparently said that he's alive. 24 Some of our companions went out to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they didn't see anyone."

25 "Oh, you're so foolish," he told them, "and your hearts are so reluctant to believe everything that the prophets wrote. 26 Didn't the messiah need to suffer all of that in order to be able to enter into all his greatness?" 27 Then starting with Mosheh (Moses) and going through all the prophets, he explained the scriptures to them concerning what had been written about him there.

28 As they got close to the village they were going to, he seemed to be going on further 29 but they urged him, "Come and stay with us because it's almost evening and there's not much daylight left." 30 Then when they were ready to eat, he picked up the bread and blessed it, and then he broke it and handed it out to them, 31 and then their eyes were opened and they recognised him. Just then he vanished, 32 and they said to each other, "Weren't our hearts burning when he was speaking to us on the road and explaining the scriptures to us?"

33 That very hour they packed up and headed back to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) where they found that the eleven and the others with them had gathered together 34 saying, "The master really has come back to life—he was seen by Shim'on (Simon) Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros)!"

35 Then the two explained what had happened on the road and how they'd recognised them when he broke the bread.

Yeshua appears to his followers[300]

40 Then he showed them his hands and his feet. 41 Some of them, still not believing, had a mixture of happiness and doubt, and he asked them, "Have you got anything here to eat?" 42 They handed him a piece of broiled fish, 43 and he took it and ate it in front of them.

44 Then he told them, "While I was still with you all, I told you those messages of mine, and how that everything written about me by Mosheh (Moses) and the prophets and in the songs, it's all going to be fulfilled." 45 Then he opened their minds to be able to understand the scriptures, and he told them, 46 "It was written that the messiah would suffer and come back to life on the third day, 47 and that his name will be proclaimed as the authority to forgive the sins of the people when they repent—people from every country beginning here in Yerushalem (Jerusalem). 48 You all are witnesses of all that. 49 Soon I'll be sending out the one that my father promised to you all, but meanwhile you must remain here in the city until you all get clothed in power that comes from heaven."[301]

Acts

Introduction

Author

This account commonly known as The acts of the missionaries of Yeshua the Messiah, is the continuation of The Good Message according to Lukas, and unlike most other Bibles, the Open English Translation places these two accounts one after the other.

This account

The main purpose of this account is to tell about the actions of the first followers of Yeshua (Jesus) the messiah. God's spirit helped them to proclaim good message about him "in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and all across the provinces of Yudea (Judaea) and Shomron (Samaria), and all the way to the furthest parts of the planet" (1:8).

This document has three divisions related to the expanding circles as the good message from Yeshua the messiah spread wider and wider: (1) In Yerushalem where the believers start to get organised after Yeshua ascended up into the clouds; (2) the work and the message spreads wider out to all of the district of Yehudah; and (3) spreading more widely again around the Mediterranean Ocean and all the way to Romai.

It's also documented here about how God's spirit came to the believers as they were together in a room in Yerushalem at the Festival of Pentecost (fifty days after The Passover). The spirit helps and gives wisdom and strength to the believers and teachers of believers.

Main components of Lukas's second account

The believers start to get organised 1:1-26
- a. The final command of Yeshua and his promise 1:1-14
- b. The replacing of Yehudah/Judas 1:15-26

Witnessing in Yerushalem/Jerusalem 2:1–8:3

Expanding out to Yehudah/Judaea and Shomron/Samaria 8:4–12:25

Paulos's activities 13:1–28:31

Introduction

1:1 Dear Theofilos, I wrote my first account[1] about all the things that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) began to do and to teach 2 until the day when he was taken up into the sky[2] after, with the help of the holy spirit, having commanded the missionaries that he had chosen.

Yeshua, alive, tells them to wait

3 After the time of his suffering, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) presented himself to them in ways that were infallible proofs that he was alive again—appearing to them and telling them about God's kingdom. 4 Once when they were together, he told them, "Don't leave Yerushalem (Jerusalem), but wait there for what was promised by the father, as you all have already heard me say.[3] 5 Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) immersed people in water, but you'll all be immersed in the holy spirit in just a few days."[4]

Yeshua's ascension

6 So when they were next gathered together, they asked him, "Master, is this now the time when you'll be restoring the kingdom to Yisrael (Israel)?"[5]

7 But Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) responded to them, "You don't need to know the times or seasons when future events will happen—it's the father who decides all that. 8 However, you all will be receiving power when the holy spirit lands on you. Then you'll tell people about me in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and all across the provinces of Yehudah (Judea) and Shomron (Samaria), and all the way to the furthest parts of the planet."[6] 9 After he'd said that and while they were still looking at him, he was lifted up into the sky until they could no longer see him because of the clouds.[7]

10 As they stood there staring into the sky after he'd gone, suddenly two men in white clothes were standing beside them 11 and said, "You men from Galil! Why are you still standing there look-

Matiyah replaces Yehudah Iskariot

12 Then they walked down the Mt. of Olives and returned to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) which was less than a kilometre away. 13 They went into the upstairs room where they were staying—Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and Andreas, Filippos (Philip) and Toma (Thomas), Bar-Talmay (Bartholomew; Grk. Bartholomaios) and Matay (Matthew; Grk. 15 Then one day, Kefa stood up in the meeting of the believers (about 120 of them) and said, 16 "Brothers, it was necessary for the scripture to be fulfilled, where the holy spirit had spoken previously through David about Yehudah, the one who guided those that arrested Yeshua 17 because Yehudah was one of us and took his part in our work.

master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) was interacting with us, 22 from Yeshua's immersion by Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes)[12] until the day that he was lifted up from us into the clouds[13]—a witness of the resurrection—to fill this position.

23 So they selected two men: Yosef (Joseph) Bar-Saba (nicknamed Yustos) and Matiyah (Grk. Matthias). 24 Then they requested, "Master, you know everyone's inner thoughts, so reveal to us which of these two that you have chosen 25 to take this position of service and being a missionary—the position that Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas) deserted to go to his own place." 26 So they drew straws and Matiyah was marked so he was chosen to join the eleven missionaries.

God's spirit arrives and many get saved

2:1 When the Day of Pentecost[14] actually arrived, the believers met together in the same room. 2 Suddenly there was a noise in the sky that sounded like a strong wind, then it filled the entire house where they were sitting. 3 They saw what looked like tongues of fire that kept dividing[15] and then settling down on each one of them. 4 In this way they were all filled with the holy spirit and began speaking in other languages as the spirit enabled them.

5 At the time, there were godly Yehudim (Jews) staying in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) that had come from other countries all around the world. 6 When they heard this noise, lots of people came to investigate but they were confused because they heard the believers talking in their own languages from around the world. 7 They were astounded and marvelled, asking, "Wow, aren't these people talking all Galilim? 8 So how come we're hearing them speak the languages of the countries where we were born? 9 There's people here from Parthia, Maday (Media), Eylam, Mesopotamia, Yehudah (Judea), Kappadokia, Pontos, Asia Minor, 10 Frugia, Pamfulia, Mitsrayim (Egypt), Libya (near Kurainai

Kefa's sermon

14 So the twelve stood up and Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) told the crowd in a loud voice, "People of Yehudah (Judea) and everyone staying in Yerushalem (Jerusalem). Listen to me so that I can explain this to you. 15 This group isn't drunk like you're all thinking, because it's still mid-morning, 16 but you're seeing what the prophet Yoel (Joel) wrote about:

17 God said, 'In the last days I'll pour out my spirit on all humanity—your children will tell of future events, your young men will see visions, and your old men will have dreams from God. 18 I'll pour my spirit out on my male and female slaves and they'll tell of future events. 19 I'll do unusual things with the stars and planets, and also down on the earth below: blood, fire, and clouds of smoke. 20 I'll make the sun go dark and the moon go blood red. This will happen before the great victorious day of the coming of Yahweh. 21 Then everyone who relies on the name and authority of Yahweh will be saved.'[16]

22 "Fellow Israelis, listen to this account: You yourselves know that God did miracles through Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) from Nazaret, and he fulfilled signs from the scriptures—in fact God did this right in front of you. 23 Then as part of God's plan and foreknowledge, this Yeshua was taken to the authorities by those who didn't follow their own laws, and you all killed him by having him nailed to a post.[17][18] 24 But God released him from the agonies of death and brought him back to life—death couldn't restrain him.[19] 25 As David wrote,

'I foresaw Yahweh always being in front of me. I refuse to be afraid because he's there on my right.
26 Because of that, I was happy and spoke out my praises. My whole body lives in anticipation 27 because you'll never abandon my soul in Haidais, nor will you allow the godly one to decay. 28 You showed me the roads to life. You fill me with gladness because of your presence.'[20]

29 "Fellow Israelis, we can tell you all with confidence that our patriarch David both died and was buried, and his tomb is still here with us today. 30 So because he was a prophet, and knowing that God has promised him to seat one of his descendants on his throne,[21] 31 he was foretelling the resurrection of the messiah who was neither 'abandoned in Haidais nor did his body decay.' 32 Then God raised this Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) back to life and we're all witnesses of that. 33 Now he's sitting at God's right hand, and having received the promise of the holy spirit from the father, he poured this out which you're all seeing and hearing today. 34 You see, David never went up to the heavens, but he himself said,

'Yahweh said to my master: Sit down on my right
35 until I defeat your enemies.'[22]

36 "So let all Yisrael (Israel) know that this Yeshua that you executed on a post, God made him both Yahweh and messiah."

37 When the people heard that, they were deeply troubled and asked Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and the other missionaries, "What should we do then, brothers?"

38 Kefa responded, "Turn away from your sins and each one of you needs to be immersed by the authority of Yeshua the messiah. Then your sins will be forgiven and you all will receive the gift of the holy spirit, 39 because that promise is to you all and your children and to their descendants—to anyone who will call out to our God Yahweh."

and encouraged them to save themselves out from this corrupt generation. 41 Because of that, those who welcomed his teaching were immersed and about three thousand people were added to their numbers that day. 42 They continued listening to the teaching of the missionaries, and building their relationships with each other, and breaking bread and praying together.

The lifestyle of the early believers

43 They were serious in their learning about God, and the missionaries did many miracles and signs of God's power in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and all the people wanted to be right with God. 44 All those who did believe were united in purpose and had shared use of many things.[23] 45 Some sold their properties and possessions and divided them among the group so that everyone had everything they needed. 46 Each day they worshipped together at the temple and also went to various homes to break bread together. They talked about Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) at their mealtimes without sophistication, 47 praising God and being popular with the people, and every day Yahweh was adding more that were being saved.

A lame man starts bouncing around

3:1 One afternoon around 3pm, Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) were going to the prayer meeting in the temple. 2 Now there was a man who had been lame from birth, and every day he was placed beside a door into the temple—an entry named 'Beautiful Door'. From there he could beg from the people entering the temple. 3 He saw Kefa and Yohan about to enter into the temple, so he asked them for a donation, 4 but Kefa and Yohan, looking closely at him said, "Look at us!" 5 So the man grabbed onto them, expecting to get given something by them. 6 But Kefa said, "I don't have any silver or gold, but I'll give you what I do have. With the authority of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah from Nazaret, I command you to walk." 7 Then Kefa grabbed the man by the right hand and pulled him upwards. Immediately the man's feet and ankles were strengthened 8 and he jumped up and stood and started walking and went into the temple with them, walking and skipping and praising God. 9 All the people there saw him walking and praising God, 10 and recognising that he was the man who usually sat outside begging at the 'Beautiful Door' of the temple, they were astonished and astounded at what had happened to him.

Kefa's sermon in the temple

11 As the man clung onto Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), all the people ran to see them in Shelomoh's Porch and they were really astounded. 12 But when Kefa saw the crowd, he answered their thoughts, "Fellow Israelis, why are you all puzzled about this, and why are you staring at us as if this man is walking because of our power or closeness to God." 13 The god of Avraham, Yitshak (Isaac), and Ya'akov (Jacob)—the god of our fathers[24]—gave honour to his servant, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), who you handed over to be killed and then you rejected him when Pilatos (Pilate) had judged him and wanted to release him. 14 You disowned this man who was innocent and sinless, and instead you requested that a murderer be released to you.[25] 15 However in doing so, you killed the creator of life, who God then raised from the dead as we can attest. 16 Now it's our faith in the authority of Yeshua that has strengthened the legs of this man that you have seen and that you already knew—this authority and faith that comes from Yeshua completely healed this man right in front of you all.

17 So now, friends, I know that you did all that in ignorance, just like your leaders, 18 but actually God was fulfilling what he'd had written by the prophets, that the messiah should suffer. 19 Be-

Kefa and Yohan are threatened by the religious leaders

4:1 While Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) were still talking to the people, the chief priests and a temple officer and some people from the Saddoukaios (Sadducee) sect approached them 2 because they were very upset about what they'd been teaching the people, including preaching that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) could give life to the dead. 3 So they arrested the two, and as it was already evening, they put them in jail overnight. 4 Despite this, many people who'd heard their message trusted in Yeshua and the number of families who were believers grew to around 5,000.

5 Then the next day, the religious leaders and the elders and the religious teachers gathered together in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) 6 along with those descended from high priests, including Hanan (Annas; Grk. Hannas) the current high priest and Kayafa (Caiaphas; Grk. Kaiafas) and Yohan and Alexandros (Alexander). 7 After having Kefa and Yohan brought in and standing them in the middle, they began to ask, "Under what authority did you do this?"

8 Then Kefa, having been filled with the holy spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, 9 if we're being questioned today about a good deed done to a man who couldn't walk and which resulted in his healing, 10 then you all need to know, and the people of Yisrael (Israel) should also know, that it was done under the authority and name of Yeshua the messiah. He was the man from Nazaret that you executed on a pole, but who God brought back to life. It was because of his authority that this man can now stand before you without deformity. 11 This Yeshua is:

'the stone which was rejected by you builders, has now become the vital cornerstone.'[29]

12 We can't be saved by anyone else, because there's no other name or authority that's been given in the entire world under which people can be saved.

13 The assembled leaders were amazed when they saw the boldness of Kefa and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) who they knew to be illiterate, working-class men Then they recognised that they'd been with Yeshua, 14 but since the man who was no longer deformed was standing there with them, there was nothing that they could really accuse them of. 15 So they had them removed from the room, and they asked each other,

16 "What should we do with these fellows? By now everyone in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) has heard about the miracle they did, and we have no way to rebuff it. 17 However, we have to stop it spreading even further, so maybe we should ban them from speaking about this name to anyone." 18 So they called them back in and decreed that they weren't allowed to preach or teach under the name of Yeshua anymore.

19 But Kefa and Yohan answered, "You judge for yourselves whether it's right in God's eyes to listen to you rather than to him? 20 As for us, we're not able to be silent about what we saw and heard." 21 So after making some further threats, the leaders sent them off. They hadn't been able to find anything to punish them for, because the people were all praising God for what had happened 22 and because the man who'd miraculously recovered was over forty years old.

The believers ask God for power

23 After Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) had been released, they went to their own group and told them what the chief priests and elders had said. 24 When they all heard this, they began to pray out loud to God, saying, "Yahweh, you created heaven and earth and the sea, and everything in them.[30] 25 You spoke long ago by the holy spirit through our ancestor who was your servant, David, when you said,

'Why are the other nations angry and why have their peoples tried new ideas?"

26 The earthly kings and rulers stood and worked together against Yahweh and against his messiah.'[31]

27 And indeed Herodes (Herod)[32] and Pontios Pilatos (Pilate)[33] met with the pagan Romaios and the peoples of Yisrael (Israel) to conspire against your holy servant Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) who you chose. 28 Then they did exactly what your power and plan had already decided would happen. 29 So now, Yahweh, see their threats and help us, your slaves, to be able to proclaim your message with boldness. 30 Let us experience your power to heal and do miracles and things that confirm the scriptures by means of the name and authority of your holy servant, Yeshua."

31 As they finished their requests, the place where they had met was shaken and all of them were filled with the holy spirit, and they went out and boldly proclaimed God's message.

The believers share their wealth and possessions

32 And so the group of believers were united in their will and attitude. No one claimed anything to be their own, but they shared everything they had.[34] 33 The missionaries of the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), experienced great power and proclaimed the truth about how he came back to life, and God's favour was with them. 34 None of them were lacking anything, because any of them who owned properties or houses would sell them and donate the proceeds. 35 They would lay them down in front of the missionaries, and from there it was distributed around according to what needs each person had.

36 Yosef (Joseph) (a Levite born in Kupros (Cyprus) who was nicknamed by the missionaries as 'Barnabas', meaning 'Encourager') was one who 37 owned a field which he sold, and brought the money and put it down in front of the missionaries.

The death of Hananyah and Sapfira

5:1 But in contrast, a couple named Hananyah (Ananias; Grk. Hananias) and Sapfira sold a property 2 but agreed together to hide some of the proceeds. So Hananyah brought a smaller amount and put it down in front of the missionaries. 3 Then Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) said, "Hananyah, why has Satan filled your mind such that you would lie to the holy spirit and keep aside some of the proceeds of the property? 4 Wasn't it yours before it was sold? And even when it was sold, the money was still yours. Why did you decide to handle it like this? It wasn't people that you're lying to, but God." 5 When Hananyah heard that, he fell down and stopped breathing. Everyone who heard about it felt very afraid, 6 and the young men there stood up and covered his body, carried it out, and buried him.

7 Three hours later, Hananyah' wife came in, not knowing anything about what had happened. 8 Kefa checked, "Is it true that you guys sold the property for such-and-such an amount?"

"Yes, for that amount," she replied.

Then the young men came in and found her dead, so they took her body out and buried her with her husband. 11 So the entire assembly of believers became very afraid, along with everyone else who heard about these events.

Ongoing miracles and healings

12 The missionaries went on to do many miracles and amazing things, and all the people who gathered in Shelomoh's Porch had a united vision, 13 but no one else dared to join them. However, the people were talking positively about them 14 and more were becoming believers in the master—big numbers of both men and women. 15 Some would even bring those who were sick out to the side of the road, lying them on beds and mats waiting for Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) to come past so that even his shadow might touch them. 16 More crowds were coming from the towns around Yerushalem (Jerusalem), bringing those who were sick and those tormented by demons, and they were all getting healed.

The preachers get arrested but released again

17 But the chief priest and his colleagues who were members of the sect of Sadoukaios (Sadducees) were filled with jealousy and took action 18 by having the missionaries arrested and thrown into the public jail. 19 But one of Yahweh's messengers opened the prison doors during the night and led them out again, saying, 20 "Now go and stand in the temple and keep telling the people all the teaching about new life." 21 So at dawn, having taken notice of the messenger, they went into the temple and started teaching the people there again.

When the chief priest arrived with his companions, they called together the religious council and also the political council of Yisrael (Israel), then called for the missionaries to be brought in from the prison. 22 But when their attendants got to the jail, they weren't there, so they returned to the gathering and told them, 23 "We found the prison all locked up with the guards in their positions at the doors, but when they opened it up, there was no one inside!" 24 When they heard this, the officer of the temple and the chief priests were totally puzzled as to what could have happened. 25 Just then someone came in and told them, "Hey, the men that you put in prison are in the temple—standing there teaching the people." 26 So the temple officer took the attendants and went and got them, but didn't use force because they were afraid that the people might start throwing rocks at them.

27 So they brought them in and stood them in front of the council, where the chief priest addressed them, 28 "We officially commanded you all not to be teaching in this name and authority. But see here, now you've filled Yerushalem (Jerusalem) with your teaching, and what's more, you're blaming us for the death of that man."[35] 29 But Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and the other missionaries answered, "It's better to obey God than people. 30 The god of our ancestors brought Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) back to life after you all handed him over to be hung up on a pole. 31 But God honoured this way-maker and saviour by placing him in the place of honour, to encourage Yisrael (Israel) to repent and then to forgive their sins. 32 We are witnesses of these messages, along with the holy spirit who God gave to the ones who obey him."

33 When the gathered councils heard this, they were enraged and wanted to kill them, 34 but a certain member of the Farisaios party named Gamliel stood up in the council chamber. He was a law teacher respected by all the community, and he ordered the guards to take them outside for a while, 35 then he said, "Fellow Israelis, think carefully about what you're planning to do with these men. 36 A while back, a man called Theudas became prominent, saying that he was someone important. ing. 37 A bit later on, a Galili man named Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas) became prominent at the time of the census and he attracted people to him. But he also died, and all those who'd been persuaded by him ended up being scattered. 38 So here's my advice to you all: pull back from killing these men and allow them to continue, because if this teaching and goings on is man-made, it'll be overthrown, 39 but if it's from God, you all won't be able to bring them down in case you find yourselves opposing God."

So they were persuaded by Gamliel, 40 and after calling in the missionaries and having them beaten, they commanded them not to speak using the name and authority of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and then sent them out. 41 So the missionaries left the councils, very excited that they were considered worthy to be disgraced because of Yeshua. 42 After that, they never stopped teaching and preaching the good message about Yeshua the messiah in the temple and in various homes.

Seven administrators appointed

6:1 However around that time when the number of Yeshua-followers were growing, some of the Greek converts starting grumbling about the Jewish believers because the Greek widows were being overlooked in the daily sharing of food and money. 2 So the twelve missionaries assembled the believers together and told them, "We're not pleased about having to take time off sharing the message of God to be serving here at the distribution tables. 3 So brothers, look around you for seven men who are well known to be full of God's spirit and wisdom, so we can appoint them to be in charge of this part of the work. 4 Then we ourselves can continue to pray and share the message."

5 This idea pleased the group, so they went ahead and chose Stefanos (a man full of faith and of the holy spirit), Filippos (Philip), Prokoros, Nikanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nikolaos (a non-Jew from Antiokeia who had previously converted to Youdaismos). 6 They stood these seven up in front of the missionaries, who prayed and then placed their hands on them.

7 God's message continued spreading and the number of followers in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) was rapidly increasing, and a large number of the priests became believers.

Stefanos gets arrested after teaching and doing miracles

8 Now Stefanos (one of the seven) was full of grace and power and was doing miracles and amazing demonstrations of God's power among the people. 9 But a group from the Freedmen Synagogue as well as Yehudim (Jews) from Kurainai (Cyrene), Alexandria, Kilikia, and Asia Minor rose up and started arguing against Stefanos, 10 but they weren't able to refute the wisdom that he spoke with the help of the pure spirit. 11 So they got some men to falsely accuse Stefanos saying, "We heard him denigrating Mosheh (Moses) and God." 12 So they stirred up the people and the elders and the law teachers and so they approached Stefanos and arrested him and brought him to the council chambers. 13 There they produced the false witnesses saying, "This man won't stop spreading messages against this holy temple and against the law 14 because we heard him saying that that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) from Nazaret will be tearing down this building and will be changing the traditions that Mosheh gave to us." 15 So then the council members looked across at Stefanos and saw that his face was shining like that of one of God's messengers.

Stefanos's history discourse and accusations

7:1 Then the chief priest asked Stefanos, "Is all this true?"

2 And he replied, "My brothers and fathers, please listen. Our honoured God was seen by our ancestor Avraham in Mesopotamia before he moved to Haran 3 and he told him, 'Leave your land and your relatives, and go to the place that I will show you.'[36] 4 So he left Kasdim and moved to Haran,[37] and then after his father died, he moved again to this land where we now live.[38] 5 Avraham hadn't received any land here as an inheritance, in fact he'd never been near this land and nor did he have any children, yet God promised to give this entire country to him and his descendants.[39] 6 And yet God also told him that his descendants would end up staying in another country where they would be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years. 7 However God promised to punish the nation that enslaved them, and told him that in the end they would leave that place and serve him here in this country.[40][41] 8 And he contracted with Avraham about being circumcised,[42] and so when Avraham had Yitshak (Isaac), he circumcised him on the eighth day,[43] and then Yitshak went on to have Ya'akov (Jacob),[44] and Ya'akov to have the twelve tribal leaders.[45]

9 Those brothers went on to become jealous of Yosef (Joseph)[46] and sent him back into Mitsrayim (Egypt) as a slave,[47] but God was with him[48] 10 and rescued him out of all his troubles there. Then God gave him wisdom and caused him to gain the favour of Par'oh (Pharaoh), the king of Mitsrayim, who then appointed him as the ruler of all Mitsrayim and over Par'oh's own household.[49]

11 Then a famine hit all Mitsrayim and Kena'an (Canaan) causing great distress and our ancestors were unable to find enough food.[50] 12 But Ya'akov heard that grain was available in Mitsrayim, so first, he sent off our tribal leaders. 13 On their second visit, Yosef revealed himself to them,[51] and so Par'oh became aware of Yosef's heritage.[52] 14 Then Yosef sent for his father Ya'akov and all the ex-

15 So Ya'akov went to Mitsrayim,[55] where he and the twelve tribal leaders eventually died,[56] 16 although their bodies were moved to Shekem where they were put into the tomb that Avraham had bought from the sons of Hamor.[57]

17 But as the time limit promised to Avraham by God was getting closer, our people multiplied in Mitsrayim[58] 18 until another Par'oh ended up ruling there who had never known Yosef. 19 He took advantage of us Yehudim (Jews) and mistreated our ancestors,[59] even forcing them apart from their own babies so they wouldn't live.[60]
20 Mosheh (Moses) was born during that time and God considered him beautiful. He spent three months in his own father's house[61] 21 before being placed outside, from where Par'oh's daughter took him and brought him up herself as her own son.[62]
22 So Mosheh was instructed in all the wisdom of the Mitsrim (Egyptians), and was a powerful speaker and project leader.

23 But when he hit forty, it entered his mind to visit his relatives, the Israelis.[63] 24 When he noticed one of them being mistreated, he retaliated and while defending the oppressed man, he struck and killed the Mitsri (Egyptian). 25 He thought his relatives would understand that God was bringing salvation to them via him, but they didn't see it that way. 26 So on the following day when he saw two of them quarrelling, he tried to resolve the situation by saying, 'Men, you're all brothers. Why are you injuring each other?' 27 But the bullying one pushed him away and said, 'Who made you the judge over us? 28 Do you want to kill me like you killed that Mitsri yesterday?' 29 When he heard that, Mosheh fled Mitsrayim (Egypt) and became an exile in Midyan where he eventually had two sons.[64]

30 After another forty years, he was in the wilderness around Mt. Sinay when he saw a messenger in the flame of a burning thorn bush.[65] 31 Mosheh was amazed at the vision when he saw it, so he approached the bush to look more closely when he heard Yahweh's voice saying, 32 'I am the god of your ancestors—the god of Avraham and of Yitshak (Isaac) and of Ya'akov (Jacob).' At that point, Mosheh started trembling and was scared to go any closer to look, 33 but Yahweh said, 'Take off your sandals, because the ground you're standing on is dedicated to God. 34 I have noticed the mistreatment of my people in Mitsrayim and heard their groaning and so I came down to rescue them, so now I'm going to send you back to Mitsrayim.'

35 This was the same Mosheh that they had previously rejected and asked who had made him ruler and judge over them.[66] Now God had indeed sent him as ruler and liberator by means of the messenger that he saw in the thorn bush. 36 So eventually Mosheh led them out of Mitsrayim after doing miracles and signs of God's power there,[67] and then also at the Red Sea[68] and during the forty years in the wilderness.[69] 37 This same Mosheh told Israelis that in the future God would raise up another prophet like him from among them.[70] 38 Now Mosheh was the person that led the assembly of people in the wilderness, was spoken to by one of God's messengers on Mt. Sinay, and one of our ancestors that received living messages to pass on to us.[71]

'It wasn't me that you Israelis sacrificed to for those forty years in the wilderness.

43 You turned to Molek's tent and Remfan's star as your gods by making images of them to bow down to. So for that, I'll send you all away into exile beyond Bavel (Babylon).'[74]

44 The tent of evidence was with our ancestors in the wilderness—made to the pattern that God had shown Mosheh.[75] 45 Our ancestors then carried that tent into the land, having inherited it along with Yehoshua (Joshua) from the possession of the pagans which God drove out ahead of them.[76] The tent remained there until the time of David 46 who found favour with God and requested to find a tent for the house of Ya'akov (Jacob),[77] 47 but it was Shelomoh (Solomon) who built the house for God to reside in.[78]

Filippos preaches in Shomron/Samaria

4 However, now the people who had fled began to proclaim the good message to others in other places. 5 Around the same time, Filippos (Philip) went to a city in Shomron (Samaria) and told them about the messiah. 6 Crowds gathered and listened carefully to Filippos and watched him do miracles— 7 many demon-possessed people shouted loudly as the demons left them, and many who were paralysed or lame were healed 8 so there were a lot of happy people there.

Shim'on the magician seeks power

9 One man in the city had been practicing magic and amazing the people, and he claimed that he was someone great. His name was Shim'on (Simon) 10 and the people there from the least to the most important said, "This power is from the great god." 11 They gave him a lot of attention because he'd been amazing them with magic for quite a long time. 12 However when Filippos (Philip) started preaching the good message about God's kingdom and the name and authority of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah, they believed the message, and many men and women asked to be immersed in water. 13 Shim'on himself also believed and was immersed, and then started accompanying Filippos around—marvelling as he observed the miracles and signs of God's power.
14 When the missionaries in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) heard that many people from Shomron (Samaria) had accepted God's message, they sent Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) out to them 15 so then they prayed for them to receive the holy spirit. 16 (The holy spirit hadn't fallen on any of them at that point, but they had only been immersed into the name and authority of the master Yeshua.) 17 So Kefa and Yohan placed their hands on the new believers and they received the holy spirit.

18 When Shim'on the magician saw that they received the spirit after having the hands of the missionaries placed on them, he offered money to Kefa and Yohan, saying, 19 "Give me this authority so that anyone who I place my hands on will receive the holy spirit."
20 But Kefa responded, "May your money join you in your destruction because you thought you could buy God's gift with it. 21 There's no role for you here and no part for you in our work because your heart isn't right with God. 22 You need to turn away from this evil desire and beg the master that maybe he'll forgive you for your wrong intentions 23 because I perceive that you have a bitter attitude and ungodly habits.
24 Shim'on answered, "Oh, please ask the master on my behalf that none of what you mentioned will happen to me."

Filippos immerses the Kushi official

25 After that, Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) continued to testify and proclaim the good message about the master in many villages around Shomron (Samaria) before they returned to Yerushalem (Jerusalem).
26 Then a messenger from Yahweh spoke to Filippos (Philip), "Start walking and head south on the road that goes downhill from Yerushalem to Azah (Gaza) through the wilderness." 27 So he headed off, and on the road he came across an important official of the Kushi (Ethiopian) queen[82] who was in charge of her treasury. This man had been in Yerushalem to worship God 28 and was returning home in his chariot. As he rode, he was reading the scroll of the prophet Yeshayah (Isaiah), 29 and the spirit told Filippos to approach him and stay by the chariot. 30 So Filippos ran up to the chariot and heard the man reading from the prophet Yeshayah and asked, "Do you know what it is that you're reading about?"
31 "How could I know when I don't have someone to guide me?" he answered, and so he invited

Filippos to climb up and sit with him. 32 Now the particular passage that he was reading was this:

'He was led away like a sheep being led to the slaughterhouse, and stayed as silent as a lamb being shorn
so he never opened his mouth.
33 He was humiliated by a lack of justice.
Who can name his descendants, because his life is being taken from the earth?'[83]

34 "Now tell me," said the official, "who was Yeshayah (Isaiah) talking about? Was he talking about himself or someone else?" 35 So Filippos started with that passage and explained the good message about Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) to him. 36 As they were going along the road, they came to some water, and the official asked, "Look, here's some water. What would stop me from being immersed here?"

37 ◘ 38 So he commanded the driver to stop the chariot and they both climbed down, and Filippos (Philip) immersed the official in the water. 39 But as they came out of the water, Yahweh's spirit snatched Filippos away and so the official never saw him again, but he continued on his journey very happy. 40 As for Filippos, he found himself at the town of Azotos, and as he passed through the coastal towns on the way to Kaisareia, he proclaimed the good message in each town.

Yeshua talks to Sha'ul[84]

9:1 Meanwhile Sha'ul (Saul; Grk. Saulos/Saul) was still spouting off murderous threats towards the followers of the master. He went to the chief priest 2 and obtained official letters to enable him to enter the Jewish meeting halls (Grk. synagogues) in Damesek (Damascus) so that if he found either male or female followers of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), he could arrest them and bring them to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) in chains.

dropped to his knees[85] and heard a voice calling, "Sha'ul, Sha'ul, why are you persecuting me?"

5 "Who are you, master?" he asked.

And the voice replied, "I'm Yeshua, the one that you're persecuting. 6 Now, stand up and go into the city, and you'll be told there what you need to do."

7 Meanwhile his travelling companions had stood there speechless, because they'd heard the voice but couldn't see anyone. 8 They helped Sha'ul up from the ground, but even when he opened his eyes, he couldn't see anything. So they had to lead him into Damesek by hand. 9 Sha'ul stayed there for three days, unable to see and not eating or drinking anything.

Hananyah restores Sha'ul's sight

10 Now there was a believer there in Damesek (Damascus) named Hananyah (Ananias; Grk. Hananias), and the master spoke to him in a vision, calling, "Hananyah."

"I'm here, master," he answered.

11 So the master told him, "Get up and go to Yehudah' (Judas'; Grk. Yudas') house in Straight Street where you'll find a man named Sha'ul (Saul; Grk. Saulos/Saul) from Tarsos. He's praying right now 12 and in his vision, he saw a man named Hananyah who comes in and places his hands on him so that he can receive his sight back."

13 But Hananyah resisted, "Master, I've heard a lot about that man, including all the evil things he's done to your dedicated people in Yerushalem (Jerusalem), 14 and the reason he's here in Damesek with the authority of the chief priests is to arrest everyone who trusts in you."

15 But the master said, "Go now, because I've chosen that man to be a bearer of my name and authority both in other countries, even to their kings, and to the descendants of Yisrael (Israel), 16 because I'll be showing him what he's going to have to suffer for bearing my name."

17 So Hananyah left and went into Yehudah' house where he placed his hands on Sha'ul and Yesus) the one you saw on the road when you were coming here—so that you'll be able to see again and also be filled with the holy spirit." 18 Immediately something like scales fell off Sha'ul's eyes and he was able to see again, and he got up and got immersed in water, 19 before getting something to eat to renew his strength.

Sha'ul starts preaching in Damesek

Then Sha'ul (Saul; Grk. Saulos/Saul) stayed several days with the believers in Damesek (Damascus). 20 He went straight into the Jewish meeting halls and started proclaiming that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) is God's son.

21 The hearers were all amazed, saying, "Isn't this the guy that persecuted the ones following that Yeshua in Yerushalem (Jerusalem), and even came to Damesek to arrest them here and take them back to the chief priests?"

22 But Sha'ul was growing stronger[86] and he was confounding the Yehudim (Jews) living in Damesek as he taught them that Yeshua is the promised messiah.

23 After several days, the religious Yehudim plotted together to kill him,[87] 24 but Sha'ul found out about their plan. Those Yehudim were also watching the city exits so they could kill him if he tried leaving, 25 but his supporters took him to the city wall at night time and lowered him down in a basket.

Sha'ul goes to Yerushalem but has to leave

26 When he got back to Yerushalem (Jerusalem), Sha'ul (Saul; Grk. Saulos/Saul) attempted to join in with the believers there but they were all scared of him, not believing that he was a true follower of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus). 27 However Barnabas took Sha'ul and brought him to the twelve, and Sha'ul told them how he had seen the master on the road, and been spoken to by him, and how he had spoken boldly in Damesek (Damascus) in the name and

Kefa heals Aineas

32 Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) travelled around the country and then went to visit the dedicated believers in Lod. 33 He saw a paralysed man named Aineas who'd spent eight years lying on his pallet, 34 and said to him, "Aineas, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah is healing you. Stand up and pack up your bed." And straight away Aineas stood up 35 and all the people living in Lod and Sharon who saw him became followers of the master.

Kefa brings Tabita back to life

36 Then in Yafo (Joppa) there was a believer named Tabita (or Dorkas if translated) and she did a lot of good things as well as being generous to the poor. 37 Around that time she got sick and died. After washing her body, they placed it in an upper room, 38 and since Yafo was near Lod and the believers had heard that Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) was there, they quickly sent two men to request, "Please come as soon as possible." 39 So Kefa went with them, and when they arrived in Yafo they took him up to the room. All the widows stood there, sobbing and showing him various clothes that Tabita had made for them. 40 But Kefa had them all removed from the room, and then kneeling down he prayed before turning back to the

Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Kefa there she sat up. 41 Kefa helped her to stand up, then he called the believers and the widows, and presented the live Tabita to them. 42 News of this spread throughout Yafo and many people there believed in the master. 43 So Kefa stayed on there for quite a few days, living with a tanner of hides named Shim'on (Simon).

Kefa and Kornelios each hear from God

10:1 Just up in Kaisareia there was a Romaios army commander named Kornelios (leader of the 'Italian Regiment') 2 who, along with all his household, worshipped God and obeyed his laws. He gave to the poor and regularly asked God for help. 3 One afternoon around 3pm he had a vision where he clearly saw one of God's messengers come into the house and call, "Kornelios."

4 Kornelios was scared and looked intently and asked, "What is it, master?"

"Your prayers and your helping the poor rose up to God's notice and attention," he said. 5 "Now, send some messengers to Yafo (Joppa) to go and find a man there named Shim'on (Simon) Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros). 6 He's staying with Shim'on the tanner whose house is by the sea." 7 So as soon as the messenger left, Kornelios called two of his house servants and a godly soldier from his bodyguard, 8 and after explaining the task to them, he sent them off to Yafo.

9 The next day as they were approaching the town, Kefa went up onto the flat roof of the house around midday to pray. 10 But he felt hungry and wanted something to eat, but while it was still being prepared he fell into a trance 11 and saw the sky open up. Something like a sheet was being lowered down to the earth by the four corners 12 and it held all kinds of animals and reptiles, as well as birds. 13 Then he heard a voice saying, "Get up Kefa, and slaughter these and eat them."

14 "I can't, master," Kefa responded, "because I've never eaten anything that's forbidden."

15 But the voice spoke a second time, "Don't you be treating anything as unclean that God has made clean." 16 This vision happened three times

17 Now Kefa was still there wondering what the vision was all about when the men sent by Kornelios had tracked down the tanner's house and arrived outside. 18 They called out to ask if Shim'on (Simon) Kefa was staying there.

19 Even as Kefa still continued to ponder about the vision, the spirit said, "Hey, there's three men here looking for you. 20 So get up and go downstairs to them. Believe everything they say because I sent them here." 21 So he went down and asked the men, "I'm the one you're looking for, so tell me what you came here for."

22 They answered, "We were sent by Kornelios who's an army commander who worships God and obeys his laws and has a good reputation with you Jewish people. A holy messenger told him to send for you to come to his house so they can listen to what you have to say." 23 So Kefa invited them in to stay the night.

The next day, Kefa and some of the believers from Yafo (Joppa) started out with them 24 and they arrived in Kaisareia the following day. Kornelios was expecting them and had also invited some relatives and close friends to join them. 25 Kefa entered the house and when they met, Kornelios knelt down and worshipped him 26 but Kefa pulled him up and said, "Stand up. I'm just a man like you." 27 After they greeted each other, Kefa went into the main room and found that quite a few people had gathered there. 28 Then he told them, "You all know that us Yehudim (Jews) are forbidden by our laws to associate with or to enter the house of a non-Jew. However, God showed me that it's not right to treat other people as being lesser or undesirable. 29 That's why I came without any reservations when you sent for me. But I'm still waiting to know what you all want from me?"

30 So Kornelios answered, "I was praying in my house three days ago in the middle of the afternoon when I suddenly saw a man in shining clothes standing in front of me 31 and he said, 'Your prayer has been heard, Kornelios, and God has noticed your gifts to the poor. 32 Now he wants you to send messengers to get Shim'on (Simon), the one called Kefa, from Yafo (Joppa) where he's living by the sea in Shim'on the tanner's house.' 33 I did that straight away and you kindly came here, so now we're all here in God's sight to find out everything that the master has commanded you to say."

Kefa's talk in Kaisareia

34 So Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) spoke up and said, "Honestly, I'm still just realising that God doesn't favour only certain people,[89] 35 but he accepts people from any nation as long as they honour and obey him. 36 He sent us a message through the descendants of Yisrael (Israel)—a good message that teaches that we can have peace through Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah—everyone's master. 37 And you all know the news that started in Galil and spread through all Yehudah (Judea) after the time of Yohan's (John's; Grk. Yoannes') teaching and ministry of immersion—38 how God filled Yeshua from Nazaret (Nazareth) with the holy spirit and with power, and who then went around doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, because God was with him. 39 We are witnesses of all the things he did in the Jewish provinces and in Yerushalem (Jerusalem), and then how they executed him by nailing him to a stake.[90] 40 Then God brought him back to life on the third day and sent him where he could be seen, 41 not by all the people, but to the witnesses that God had previously appointed—to us who ate with him and drank with him after he'd been raised from the dead. 42 He commanded us to tell the people, and to testify that he is the one who God has designated to be the judge of the living and the dead. 43 The writings of all the prophets point towards him, and everyone who believes that he's God can have their sins forgiven by his authority."

God's spirit enters non-Jews

44 While Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) was still speaking, the holy spirit came down onto everyone who was listening. 45 The Jewish believers who had come with Kefa were astonished that the gift of the holy

Kefa explains everything to those in Yerushalem

11:1 Soon the missionaries and other believers in Yehudah (Judea) heard that non-Jews had also accepted God's message, 2 but when Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) went to Yerushalem (Jerusalem), the strict Jewish believers were upset with him, 3 saying that he had gone into the home of uncircumcised pagans and even eaten with them.

4 But Kefa started explaining from the beginning, 5 "I was staying in Yafo (Joppa), and as I was praying I saw a vision of an object like a sheet coming down, as if it was being let down out of the sky by its four corners. As it came down to me 6 I looked at it and saw animals, even wild animals, and reptiles and birds. 7 I also heard a voice telling me, 'Kefa, get up and slaughter these and eat them.' 8 But I said, 'Master, I can't because I've never eaten anything that's forbidden.' 9 But the voice from the sky spoke again, 'Don't you be treating anything as unclean that God has made clean.' 10 This happened three times, and then it was pulled up again into the sky. 11 Next minute there were three men at the house where I was staying saying that they had been sent from Kaisareia to fetch me, 12 and the spirit told me to go with them without questioning anything they said. These six other believers went with me, and we arrived at the house of the man who had sent the three. 13 He told us how he'd seen one of God's messengers standing there in his house and who'd told him, 'Send someone to Yafo to fetch Shim'on (Simon), the one called Kefa, 14 and he will explain to you how you and all your household can be saved.' 15 Then when I started speaking to them, the holy spirit came down on them just like it had happened to us previously. 16 That reminded me of the words of the master when he told us, 'Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) immersed people in water, but you all will be immersed in the holy spirit. 17 Therefore if God gave the same gift to them that he'd given to us when we'd believed in the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah, what authority did I have to contradict God?' "

18 When the group heard all this, they had no objections and they praised God, saying, "It seems that God has also allowed the pagans to repent and live."

Many in Antiokeia become believers

19 Over time, due to the persecution that began with Stefanos's killing, the ones who had moved away went as far as Foinikai, Kupros (Cyprus), and Antiokeia, but they only shared Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') teaching with other Yehudim (Jews). 20 However, some of the believers were from Kupros and Kurainai (Cyrene), and when they got to Antiokeia they proclaimed the good news from the master Yeshua to the Hellains (Greeks). 21 Yahweh caused their efforts to prosper, so a large number of Hellains believed and decided to follow the master.

22 News about this reached the assembly in Yerushalem (Jerusalem), so they sent Barnabas to Antiokeia. 23 When he arrived and saw how God's grace was spreading, he was elated and encouraged them all to earnestly continue to follow the master. 24 Barnabas was good man and full of the holy spirit and full of faith in God, and a large number of people decided to follow Yeshua.

25 So Barnabas went to Tarsos to look for Sha'ul (Saul; Grk. Saulos/Saul), 26 and when he found him, he brought him back to Antiokeia. Then for a whole year they met with the assembly and regularly taught a large crowd. It was there in Antiokeia that the believers were first called Christians.

27 In those days, some prophets from Yerushalem went to Antiokeia, 28 and one of them named Agabos when he was prompted by the spirit, stood up and predicted that the world would experience a severe famine (and this happened later during the reign of Klaudios). 29 The believers decided to send assistance to their fellow believers who lived in Yehudah (Judea)—each one according to his means— 30 and so they did, sending their contributions with Barnabas and Sha'ul to take to the elders.

Persecution of believers restarts

12:1 Around that time, King Herodes (Herod) Agrippas used his power to mistreat some of the believers from the assembly, 2 and he had Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos), the brother of Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), executed by the sword. 3 Then when he saw that it pleased the Jewish religious leaders, he went on to seize Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) during the Flat Bread Celebration. 4 After being arrested, Kefa was put in prison where he was guarded by four squads of four soldiers each. After the Passover Feast, Herodes planned to display Kefa to the people, 5 but while he was being held in prison, those in the assembly were earnestly asking God to help him.

A messenger leads Kefa out of prison

6 Herodes (Herod) planned to send for Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) later that evening, but meanwhile Kefa had fallen asleep chained with two chains between two soldiers. There were also prison guards at the door 7 but one of Yahweh's messengers suddenly appeared standing by Kefa and light radiated through the prison cell. The messenger poked Kefa in the side to wake him up, saying, "Quickly, get up!" The chains fell off his wrists 8 and the messenger said, "Get dressed and put on your sandals," so he did. Then the messenger said, "Now put on your coat and follow me." 9 So Kefa followed the messenger out of the cell, not really knowing if it was real or if he was still dreaming. 10 They went past the first guard and then the second, and then came to the iron gate which led out of the prison into the city. The gate opened by itself and they went out onto the street, then at the end of the street the messenger suddenly left him.

11 By now Kefa was fully awake and said to himself, "Now I know that the master really did send his messenger to rescue me from Herodes and from the plans of the Jewish leaders."

12 Now that he realised this, he went to Miryam's (Grk. Maria's/Mariam's) house (the mother of Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) Markos / John Mark) where many believers had met to pray. 13 He knocked at the door in the fence and a servant girl named Rode came out to see who it was. 14 But when she recognised Kefa's voice, she was so excited that she forgot about opening the door, but ran back inside to tell everyone that Kefa was standing out there. 15 They told her that she must be raving mad, but she insisted it was true, but they said that it must be his messenger.

16 Meanwhile Kefa continued knocking, and when they eventually opened the outer door, they saw that it was him and they were amazed. 17 But Kefa signalled them with his hand to be quiet, and then he explained how the master had led him out of the prison, and instructed them, "Tell this to Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and the brothers." Then he left and went off to another place.

18 Once daylight came, there was pandemonium among the soldiers in the prison as they tried to figure out what had happened to Kefa. 19 Then when King Herodes sent for Kefa and he wasn't there, the prison guards were interrogated and then taken away to be executed.

After that, Herodes (Herod) left Yehudah (Judea) and went up to Kaisareia to stay.

The death of Herodes

20 Now King Herodes (Herod) was disputing with the people of Tsor (Tyre) and Tsidon (Sidon), and so they got together and persuaded Blastos, a close personal servant of the king, to be their spokesman in asking for peace because they were dependent on food from the king's provinces.

21 On the agreed day, Herodes, dressed in his royal garments and seated on his throne, started to address them. 22 The crowd shouted out, "This is the voice of a god, not of a man." 23 Because he didn't attribute the honour to God, one of the Yahweh's messengers immediately struck him down and he stopped breathing as a result of a worm infestation.

24 Meanwhile God's message continued to spread and multiply.

The spirit chooses Barnabas and Sha'ul

13:1 In the assembly at Antiokeia there were some prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Shim'on (Simeon; Grk. Sumeon) (called Niger), Lukios from Kurainai (Cyrene), Menahem (Grk. Manaen) (who grew up with Herodes (Herod) the tetrarch), and Sha'ul (Saul; Grk. Saulos/Saul). 2 One day when they were ministering to the master and fasting, the holy spirit said, Appoint Barnabas and Sha'ul to serve me and do the work that I have called them to." 3 So they fasted and prayed and placed their hands on the two, and then sent them off.

Barnabas and Sha'ul go to Kupros to preach

4 So Barnabas and Sha'ul (Saul; Grk. Saulos/Saul), having been sent by the holy spirit, went down to Seleukeia at the coast and from there sailed on to the island of Kupros (Cyprus). 5 When they arrived in the town of Salamis, they proclaimed God's message in the Jewish meeting halls. They also had Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) as their assistant.

Sergios believes after Bar-Yeshua is blinded

6 They travelled around the island and when they got to Pafos, they met a Jewish man named Bar-Yeshua (Grk. Bariesus).[92] He was a sorcerer and false prophet 7 who was with Sergios Paulos the proconsul, an intelligent man. Sergios sent for Barnabas and Sha'ul (Saul; Grk. Saulos/Saul) because he wanted to hear God's message from them, 8 but the sorcerer opposed them and tried to prevent Sergios from believing. 9 So then Sha'ul (the Romaios form of his name was Paulos), filled with the holy spirit looked intently at Bar-Yeshua 10 and said, "You're full of all kinds of deceit and fraud you child of the devil. Will you never stop twisting the truth about following the master? 11 Well, look here! Yahweh will extend his power against you and blind you—you'll go a season without seeing the sun!"

Paulos and Barnabas in Pisidia

13 After that, Paulos[93] and his companions sailed from Pafos to Pergai in Pamfulia, but Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) Markos (John Mark) left them and returned to Yerushalem (Jerusalem). 14 Paulos and his companions, went on from Pergai to Pisidian Antiokeia, where they entered the Jewish meeting hall on the Rest Day and sat down with the congregation. 15 After the readings from the Law and from the Prophets,[94] the leaders sent a messenger over to them to ask, "Men, brothers, if you bring any message of encouragement for the congregation, please share it."

16 So Paulos stood up and, motioning with his hand, started speaking, "Fellow Israelis and everyone who reveres God, listen to me. 17 The God of the people of Yisrael (Israel) chose our ancestors and helped the people to prosper when they were staying in Mitsrayim (Egypt). Then later he showed his power as he led them out 18 and endured them in the wilderness for around forty years. 19 Then having overthrown seven nations in Kena'an (Canaan),[95] he passed on that land as an inheritance[96] 20 after around 450 years.

"Then he gave them judges through until the time of the prophet Shmuel (Samuel) 21 when they requested a king, and God gave them Sha'ul (Saul; Grk. Saulos/Saul), the son of Kish from the tribe of Benyamin to reign for forty years. 22 After Sha'ul was removed, God chose David to be their king—the man of whom he said, 'I found David the son of Yishay (Jesse), a man who wants to obey me and do everything I ask.'[97] 23 Then eventually a descendant of David arrived in Yisrael as promised—the saviour Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus).

24 Before he arrived Yohan-the-immerser had publicly preached to all the people of Yisrael about being immersed as a sign of repentance.
25 As Yohan's (John's; Grk. Yoannes') ministry was nearing an end, he asked, 'Who do you suspect I am? I'm not the messiah, but he will come after me, and I'm not even worthy to undo his sandals.' 26 "Men, brothers, descendants of Avraham and others here who revere God, the teaching about this salvation has been sent to us. 27 The people of Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and their religious leaders didn't recognise this Yeshua, but by their judgement of him they fulfilled the words of the prophets that are read every Rest Day. 28 Despite not finding even one charge against him worthy of death, they requested Pilatos (Pilate) to execute him 29 and when they'd done all the things that the prophets had written about him, they took his body down from the post he'd been nailed to[98] and placed it in a burial chamber. 30 But God brought him back to life 31 and his followers who had come to Yerushalem from Galil saw him for several days and now testify about this to the people. 32 So now we're preaching this good message to you that what God promised to our ancestors 33 has now been fulfilled for our descendants, now that God brought Yeshua back to life just like it's written in the second psalm:

'You are my son;
today I have borne you.'[99]

34 God brought him back to life, and he's never going to return to the grave to decay. As God said,

'I will give David's faithful devout things??? to you all.'[100]

35 So in another psalm God said,

'You won't allow your devout one to experience decay.'[101]

36 This can't be David, because after he'd served his own generation as God led him, he indeed died and was buried with his ancestors and his body decayed. 37 On the contrary, the one who God raised from the dead never experienced decay.

38 So brothers, let it be known to you all that your sins can now be forgiven through this Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. 41 'Watch you scoffers, and be amazed and die because I'm doing something special during your time.
Even if someone described it clearly to you all, you still might not believe it.' "[102]
42 As they left the meeting hall after the service, the people invited them to speak again the following Rest Day. 43 But when they started walking away, many people followed after Paulos and Barnabas, who then addressed them and encouraged them to continue trusting in God's grace.
44 So on the following Rest Day, nearly everyone in the city had gathered there to hear the message from God. 45 But the Jewish religious leaders became very jealous when they saw the crowds and claimed that Paulos's words had slandered God.
46 But Paulos and Barnabas responded boldly, "It was necessary for God's message to be explained in the meeting hall to all of the Yehudim (Jews) first. But since you are rejecting that teaching, you are all judging yourselves to be unworthy of living forever, so instead, we will now share it with the non-Jews. 47 Because this is what the master commanded us:
'I have chosen you to be a light for the pagans;
You will take salvation to the end of the earth.'[103]
48 When the non-Jews heard that, they were very happy and were praising the master's message, and as many as were appointed to receive eternal life believed it.
49 So from there, the master's message spread throughout the entire region. 50 But the Jewish religious leaders incited some prominent women from the meeting halls and some from the local city government, and they then stirred up persecution against Paulos and Barnabas and had them expelled out of their region. 51 So Paulos and Barnabas just left that place to face their own consequences, and continued on to Ikonion. 52 Meanwhile the believers back in Pisidian Antiokeia were full of happiness and of the holy spirit.

Paulos and Barnabas in Ikonion

14:1 A similar thing happened in Ikonion. Paulos and Barnabas went into the Jewish meeting hall and spoke in such a way that a lot of both Yehudim (Jews) and Hellains (Greeks) believed. 2 But those Yehudim who didn't believe got the non-Jews emotionally stirred up to oppose the believers. 3 So Paulos and Barnabas ended up staying there for quite a while, and as they spoke boldly for the master, he himself confirmed his grace by enabling the two of them to be able to do miracles and amazing things. 4 Nevertheless, the people of the city were divided—some agreeing with the strict Yehudim, and others supporting the missionaries.

5 At one point, both the non-Jews and the strict Yehudim and their leaders got worked up enough to come in order to attack them and throw rocks to kill them. 6 However, Paulos and Barnabas found out about it and escaped to the Lukaonios cities of Lustra and Derbai and the surrounding region 7 and preached the good message there.

A miracle in Lustra following by a stoning

8 In Lustra there was a man sitting there who had been unable to use his legs since birth. 9 He was listening to Paulos speaking, when Paulos looked straight at him and realised that the man had the faith to be healed. 10 So in a loud voice, Paulos said, "Stand upright on your feet." And the man sprang up and was walking around. 11 The crowd of people who saw what Paulos had done began to shout out in Lukaonios, "These two look like men, but they're really gods who have come down to us!" 12 They called Barnabas 'Zeus' and called Paulos 'Hermas' since he was the main speaker. 13 And the priest of Zeus wanted to sacrifice with the crowds, so he brought bulls and garlands of flowers to the city gates from the temple on the path to the city.

Readers' Version

14 But when the missionaries Barnabas and Paulos heard what was going on, they tore their clothes in dismay as they rushed out into the crowd 15 shouting, "Men, why are you doing all these things? We are only humans just like all of you. We were bringing you the good message about abandoning these useless sacrifices and turning to the living God who made heaven and the earth and the sea and everything in them.[104] 16 In previous generations he allowed all the nations to go their own different ways, 17 but he never left himself without evidence of himself—sending good rains from heaven to give you all fruitful seasons with food to fill your stomachs and happiness to fill your hearts." 18 By saying these things, they were eventually just able to restrain the people from sacrificing to them.

19 But some strict Yehudim (Jews) came over from Pisidian Antiokeia and Ikonion and were able to persuade the crowds. They threw rocks at Paulos to kill him and dragged his body outside the city gates thinking that he was dead. 20 But as the believers were standing around him, Paulos got up and went back into the city, but he left again with Barnabas the next day and went to Derbai.

Paulos and Barnabas return to the sending assembly in Antiokeia

21 They preached the good message in Derbai, and after giving further training to many of them, they returned to Lustra and Ikonion and Antiokeia. 22 There they strengthened the faith of the believers—encouraging them to continue believing and to expect that it's normal to endure a lot of suffering on the path to God's kingdom. 23 They appointed some elders for each assembly, then they fasted and prayed for the elders—asking the master that they believed in to look after them.

24 After passing through Pisidia, they arrived at Pamfulia 25 and after teaching the master's message in Pergai, they went down to the coastal city of Atalia. 26 From there, they sailed back to Arami (Syrian) Antiokeia where the congregation had prayed for God's grace to be with them[105] for the work they had just fulfilled.

27 So when they arrived, they gathered the assembly together there and shared about what God had done with them and how he had opened up the door of faith to the non-Jews. 28 Then they stayed on with them there for quite a while.

The decision from the Yerushalem elders

15:1 Then some people came to Antiokeia from Yehudah (Judea) and were teaching the believers that according to Mosheh's (Moses') teachings, you can't be saved unless you've been circumcised. 2 This led to no end of argument and debate between them and Paulos and Barnabas until it was decided that the two of them and some other believers should go to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) to ask the missionaries and the elders there about this issue.

3 So indeed the assembly sent the group on their way, and as they passed through Foinikai and Shomron (Samaria), they described how non-Jews had become believers and this news made the believers there very happy.

4 When they arrived in Yerushalem, they were welcomed by the assembly and the missionaries and the elders, and they explained how God had used them. 5 But some of the believers who were also members of the Farisaios party stood up and said, "It's quite proper for them to be circumcised and to be commanded to keep the Jewish religious laws."

6 So the missionaries and the elders met separately in order to consider the matter further. 7 After a lot of debate, Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) stood up and said, "Men, brothers, all of you here know that some time back, God chose me to be a mouthpiece so that the non-Jews could hear the good message and believe. 8 And God who knows even people's inner thoughts, gave them the same holy spirit that he gave us, 9 and when he purified their minds by the faith, he didn't do anything different for them than he did for us. 10 So why are you all provoking God by putting a load on the shoulders of these believers that neither we, nor our ancestors, were ever able to bear? 11 But we ourselves have believed thanks to the grace of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the master, and they can be saved in just the same way."

12 The whole group sat in silence, and then they listened to Barnabas and Paulos as they described everything that God had done among the non-Jews through them, including miracles and amazing things. 13 Then while they were still silent, Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) responded, "Men, brothers, listen to me. 14 Shim'on (Simon) Kefa has told us how God first intervened in order to select a people for himself from among the non-Jews. 15 And this actually agrees with the message that the prophets recorded,

16 'After these things have happened I will return, and I will rebuild the worship tent from David's time that has collapsed,
Although it was overturned, I will rebuild and restore it, 17 so that the remaining people will want to find the master, and also the non-Jews who cried out to me.
Yahweh who's doing these things is saying this,
18 and planned it this way from eternity.'[106]

19 Because of this, my ruling is not to be troubling the non-Jews who are turning back to God, 20 but to write to them to keep away from anything polluted by idols, from sexual immorality, and from strangled animals and eating or drinking blood. 21 Mosheh's (Moses') writings have been preached in every city and are read in our meeting halls on every Rest Day.

The letter is carried to Antiokeia

22 So the missionaries and elders with all the assembly decided to choose some men to accompany Paulos and Barnabas to Antiokeia, so they chose Yehudah (Judas; Grk. Yudas) (nicknamed Bar-Saba) and Silas who were leaders among the believers, 23 This is what they wrote: This letter is from the missionaries and elders, your brothers here in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) to our non-Jewish fellow believers in Antiokeia and Aram (Syria) and Ki-

likia. 24 Since we heard that some people who weren't sent by us came from here and disturbed you all with their upsetting messages, 25 we unanimously agreed to select some men to accompany our dear friends Barnabas and Paulos back.
26 These are men who have dedicated their lives to our master, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah. 27 So we've sent Yehudah and Silas and they'll confirm in person what we are writing. 28 It seemed right to the holy spirit and to us to not burden you all with anything more than the following commands: 29 you all must keep away from anything sacrificed to idols, from eating or drinking blood or strangled animals, and from sexual immorality. You will do well if you avoid these things. Farewell.

30 So they were sent off and when they arrived at Antiokeia, they gathered the believers and handed across the letter, 31 and when they read it, they were very happy with the encouraging contents.

32 Yehudah and Barnabas were both prophets, and said a lot to encourage them and strengthen their faith. 33 After they'd stayed there for a while, the believers sent them home carrying greetings from them to the assembly back in Yerushalem (Jerusalem).

34 ◘ 35 But Paulos and Barnabas stayed on there in Antiokeia, teaching them and preaching the good message along with many others.

Paulos and Barnabas go separate ways

36 After a few days, Paulos suggested to Barnabas,
"Let's go back and visit the believers in each city where we proclaimed the master's message, and see how they're doing."
37 Barnabas agreed and wanted to take Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) Markos (John Mark) along with them as well, 38 but Paulos didn't want to take him because he had left them in Pamfulia instead of continuing with them in their work.
39 And so it turned into such a disagreement that the two of them each went their different ways.
Barnabas took Yohan Markos with him and sailed to Kupros (Cyprus) 40 while Paulos chose Silas and they left after being entrusted to the master's grace by the believers. 41 They went through Aram

(Syria) and Kilikia, strengthening the assemblies there.

Paulos and Silas also take Timotheos with them

16:1 Then Paulos went to Derbai and then on to Lustra where a believer named Timotheos lived. His mother was a Jewish believer, but his father was Greek. 2 The believers in Lustra and Ikonion spoke well of Timotheos 3 and Paulos wanted him to accompany them on his trip so he circumcised him in advance because of the Yehudim (Jews) in that region—everyone knew that his father was a Greek. 4 As they passed through various towns, they explained the decision of the missionaries and elders in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) about which commands they must adhere to. 5 So the assemblies were strengthened in this way and their numbers were increasing each day.

Paulos's vision in Troias

6 From there, they travelled through Frugia and the Galatia region, after the holy spirit prevented them from proclaiming the message in Asia Minor. 7 When they got to Musia, they planned to go on into Bithunia, but Yeshua's (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) spirit didn't let them, 8 so after leaving Musia they went to Troias. 9 During the night, Paulos had a vision of a Makedonian man standing there and imploring him, "Come on to Makedonia and help us here." 10 So as a result of the vision, we decided to go straight to Makedonia, concluding that God had called us to share the good message with them.

Ludia's enthusiasm at Filippou

11 From Troias we sailed directly to Samothrakai, and then on to Neapolis the following day. 12 From there we continued on to Filippou (Philippi) which is a Romaios colony and the capital city of the Makedonia district where we stayed for several days. 13 On the Rest Days, we went down to the river outside the city gate where we thought people might be praying, and we spoke to the women who had met there. 14 One of them was Ludia from 16:1 And he_arrived also to Derbaʸ and to Lustra. And see, a_ certain _apprentice/follower was there by_the_name Timotheos, the_son of_a_ believing _woman Youdaiōns, but his_father was of_a_Hellaʸn, 2 who was_being_attested by the brothers in Lustra and Ikonion. 3 ~~The~~ Paulos wanted this one to_come_out with him, and having_taken he_circumcised him, because_of the Youdaiōns ~~which~~ being in ~~the~~ those places, because/for all had_known that the father of_ _him he_was_being a_Hellaʸn. 4 And while they_ _were_passing_through the cities, they_were_ _giving_over to_them the decrees to_be_keeping ~~which~~ having_been_judged by of_the ambassadors and elders ~~which~~ in Hierousalaʸm/(Yərūshālayim). 5 Therefore indeed the assemblies were_being_ _strengthened in_the faith, and they_were_being_ _plentiful ~~the~~ in_number in_every day.

6 And they_passed_through ~~the~~ Frugia and the_ _Galatikos region, having_been_forbidden by the holy spirit to_speak the message in ~~the~~ Asia, 7 and having_come down ~~the~~ to_Musia, they_ _were_attempting to_be_gone into ~~the~~ Bithunia, and the spirit of_Yaʸsous/(Yəhōshūʿa) not allowed them, 8 and having_passed_by ~~the~~ Musia, they_came_down to Trōias. 9 And through the_ _night a_vision was_seen to_ ~~the~~ _Paulos, a_ Certain from_Makedonia _man was having_stood and imploring him and saying: Having_passed_ _through into Makedonia, give_help to_us. 10 And when he_saw the vision, immediately we_sought to_come_out to Makedonia, concluding that ~~the~~ god has_called_to us to_evangelize them.

11 therefore having_been_launched from Trōias, we_ran_straight to Samothrakaʸ, and on_the_ following _day to New City, 12 and_from_there to Filippou, which is the_leading city of_the district of_Makedonia, a_colony. And she_urged us.
16 And it_became, of_us going to the prayer place, a_ certain _servant_girl having a_ python _ _spirit, to_meet with_us, who fortune-telling was_bringing_about much business for_the masters of_her. 17 This woman following ~~the~~ after_Paulos and was_crying_out to_us saying: These ~~the~~ men are slaves of_ ~~The~~ the highest _god, who are_proclaiming to_you_all the_way of_ _salvation. 18 And she_was_doing this for many days. And it_came_out to_ the _ _same hour. 19 But the masters of_her having_ _seen that the hope of_the business of_them, going_out, having_taken_hold_of ~~the~~ Paulos and ~~the~~ Silas, they_dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers, 20 and having_ _brought_ them _forward to_the officers, they_ _said: These ~~the~~ men being Youdaiōns are_ _disturbing the city of_us, 21 and they_are_ _proclaiming customs that it_is_ not _permitting for_us to_be_accepting nor to_be_practicing, being Ῥōmaios. 22 And the a_crowd rose_up_ _together against them, and the officers having_ _torn_off of_them the robes, were_commanding to_be_beating_with_rods them. 23 And having_ _inflicted many blows on_them, they_throw them into prison, having_commanded to_the prison_ _guard to_be_keeping them securely, 24 who having_received such charge, throw them into the inner prison, and secured their feet of_them in the stocks. 25 But to ~~the~~ midnight, Paulos and Silas praying, were_singing_hymns ~~the~~ to_god, and the prisoners were_listening to_them. 26 And suddenly an_ great _earthquake became, so_that the foundations of_the prison to_be_shaken, and immediately all the doors were_opened_up, and

So she persuaded us.

Paulos and Silas get thrown into prison

16 One time as we were walking to the prayer meeting, we met a female slave who was possessed by a spirit that enabled her to tell fortunes, and thanks to that, to earn a lot of money for her masters. 17 She walked along behind us and shouted out, "These men are slaves of the highest god and they will be telling you all how to be saved." 18 After she'd done this for several days, Paulos was so frustrated that he turned around and spoke to the spirit in her, "I command you by the authority of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah to leave her."
19 But when her masters realised that their profitable business was about to come to an end, they grabbed Paulos and Silas and dragged them to the authorities at the marketplace. 20 They brought them forward to face the magistrates and said, "These Yehudim (Jews) are disturbing the peace in our city 21 and teaching behaviour that we as Romaios can neither accept nor practice." 22 An angry crowd gathered around and the magistrates ordered for Paulos and Silas to have their robes torn off and then to be beaten with rods. 23 They were severely beaten and then thrown into prison where the officer was commanded to keep them secure. 24 Because of that, he threw them into the inner cell and locked their feet in stocks.
25 Around midnight Paulos and Silas were praying and singing praises to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them. 26 Suddenly there was a strong earthquake that shook even the foundations of the prison, and immediately all the prison doors opened up and the chains of all the prisoners came loose. 27 The prison officer woke up, and when he saw that all the prison doors were open, he drew his sword to take his own life as he figured that all the prisoners must have escaped. 28 But Paulos shouted out, "Don't harm yourself! We're all still here!"

29 The officer called for torches, then rushed in and knelt down trembling in front of Paulos and Silas. 30 Then he escorted them out and asked, "Masters, what do I need to do to be saved?"

31 "Believe in the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus)," they replied, "then you and your household can all be saved." 32 Then they explained the message about the master to him and all those in his household. 33 Even though it was still the middle of the night, he sponged their wounds, and then him and his household were all immersed straight away. 34 He took Paulos and Silas up into his house and gave them a meal, and his whole household were happy because they now believed in God.

35 The next day the magistrates sent officials to tell the jailer to release Paulos and Silas.

36 So the officer told Paulos, "The magistrates sent these officials to order that you two be released."

37 But Paulos responded, "You mean that after publicly beating us Romaios men without a trial, they threw us into prison and now they want to just quietly release us."

38 So the officials reported this back to the magistrates, and they were quite afraid when they heard that Paulos and Silas were Romaios citizens. 39 So now they came to the prison in person, and appealed to them, and escorting them out of prison themselves, asked them to please leave the city. 40 So after Paulos and Silas left the prison, they went to see Ludia and after encouraging the believers there, they left.

the local meeting hall on the Rest Day, so he did that, and for three weekends in a row he discussed the scriptures with them, 3 showing them how that it had been written that the messiah would suffer and be killed and come back to life, and then explaining, "This Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) that I've been telling you about is the messiah." 4 Some of them were persuaded and joined with Paulos and Silas, along with a big group of godly Hellains (Greeks) and quite a few prominent women.

5 But some of the other Yehudim (Jews) were envious of them, and enlisted some of the trouble-makers from the marketplaces to form a mob. They stirred up all the people, and looking for Paulos and Silas so they could bring them out, arrived at the house of a man named Yason. 6 But when they realised that Paulos and Silas weren't there, they dragged Yason and some other believers off to the city leaders, shouting, "Those two men who've gone around upsetting the whole world have now come here as well 7 and Yason has welcomed them into his house. They rebel against Kaisar's decrees and claim that Yeshua is a rival king." 8 They stirred up the crowd and the city leaders with these accusations, 9 so the leaders collected a heavy fine from Yason and the others, and then released them.

Many new believers in Beroia

10 So the believers immediately sent Paulos and Silas off during the night to go to Beroia. In Beroia they also attended at the Jewish meeting hall 11 and this group were more upper-class than the congregation in Thessalonikai. They eagerly accepted the message and examined the scriptures every day to check if what was being taught matched what was written there. 12 Because it did, many of the people believed including quite a few of the prominent Hellains (Greeks). 13 But when the Yehudim (Jews) from Thessalonikai found out that God's message was also being proclaimed by Paulos there in Beroia, they soon turned up to agitate and stir the crowds. 14 So the believers immediately sent Paulos off to the coast, but Silas and Timotheos both stayed. 15 The ones guiding Paulos took him to Athainai before they headed back with his instructions for Silas and Timotheos to come and join him again as soon as possible.

People of Athainai like new ideas

16 While Paulos stayed in Athainai waiting for them, he was upset in his spirit as he observed how idolatrous the people were. 17 So while he stayed busy having discussions with the Yehudim (Jews) and other worshippers from the meeting hall, he also spent time every day with anyone who just happened to be around in the marketplace. 18 Some of the Epikoureios and Stoikos philosophers enjoyed discussing things with him, but others just mocked him, "What does this babbler want to talk about now?"

But others said, "Seems that he's talking about strange demons," because he was preaching the good message about Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and coming back to life. 19 So they grabbed him and brought him to the Areios Hill where the council sat and asked, "Are we allowed to know what this new teaching that you're bringing is about? 20 It seems that you have some surprising ideas for our ears, so we want to hear what it's all about." 21 (Everyone in Athainai and even visitors often took the opportunity either to explain or to listen to any new things.)

22 So Paulos stood up in the middle of the gathering on the hill and spoke, "Men of Athainai, I've noticed how you all are very religious, 23 because as I was looking around and observing your objects of worship, I even discovered an altar that was inscribed, 'To the unknown god.' So without knowing it, you already worship this God that I'm going to tell you about. 24 This God who created the earth and everything in it is Yahweh who's over heaven and earth. He doesn't live in man-made temples 25 nor can he be repaired by any human hands and he doesn't need to be fed. On the contrary, he's the one who gives life and breath and who gives us everything that we need. 26 From one man he made every nationality that lives across all the earth and designated their boundaries and their futures. 27 He made them so that they would try to discover God, and if they did search for him they might find him as he's not far from any one of us 28 because

29 So since we are God's offspring, we shouldn't be putting gold or silver or stone craftsmanship in the same class as the divine. 30 In fact God overlooked times of such ignorance in the past, but now he's informing everyone and requiring them to repent 31 because he's set a date for when he's going to be fairly judging the world. He's already appointed the judge who everyone can have faith in because he brought him back to life from the dead.

32 When they heard about a dead person coming back to life, some started mocking but others said, "We'd like to hear more about this from you another time." 33 So Paulos left at that stage 34 but some people joined with him and believed, including Dionusios who was a council member, a woman named Damaris, and others as well.

Paulos resides in Korinthos for some time

18:1 After this, Paulos left Athainai and travelled to Korinthos. 2 There he came across a Yehudi (Jew) named Akulas (Aquila) who had been born in Pontos but who had recently moved from Italia along with his wife Priskilla because Emperor Klaudios had ordered all Yehudim (Jews) to leave Romai. So Paulos approached them, 3 and since they worked in the same trade, he ended up staying with them and they worked together in their craft of tent-making. 4 On every Rest Day, Paulos debated in the Jewish meeting hall, and was persuading both Yehudim and Hellains (Greeks).

5 However when Silas and Timotheos arrived from Makedonia, Paulos was able to devote his full time to the message—demonstrating to the Yehudim that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) is the promised messiah. 6 But when they opposed the message and made false accusations, he publicly brushed the dust off his clothes[108] and said, "Your future deaths are your own problem. I'm innocent of your guilt. From now on, I'll going to the non-Jews." 7 So Paulos left there, and went to stay at the house of a man named Titos Yustos who worshipped God and whose house was next-door to the meeting hall. 8 Krispos the meeting hall leader and all his household decided to follow the master, and many of the Korinthios believed after they heard the message and were immersed.

9 Then the master spoke to Paulos one night in a vision, "Don't be afraid and stay silent, but keep speaking out 10 because I am with you and no one can mistreat you here because there are many of my people in this city." 11 So Paulos stayed on for eighteen months, teaching God's message to the people there.

12 Then at the time when Gallion was the proconsul of Akaia, the Yehudim united against Paulos and brought a case to the tribunal against him 13 saying, "This man is going against the law by persuading people to be worshipping his God."

14 But as Paulos opened his mouth to speak, Gallion said to the Yehudim, "I would have accepted this charge if it was a serious wrong or evil crime and would have listened to you Yehudim. 15 However, since it's a question about a message and names and your own law, you all can see to it yourselves because I don't want to get involved in judging things like that." 16 So he sent them away from the tribunal, 17 but they grabbed Sosthenes, the leader from the meeting hall, and beat him up right there in front of the tribunal. But Gallion took action to stop them.

Paulos returns to Arami Antiokeia

18 Paulos stayed on for quite a few days after that, then he farewelled the believers and went to Kegkreai where he had his hair cut as was the custom for someone making a vow. Then taking Priskilla and Akulas (Aquila) with him, he sailed towards Aram (Syria). 19 When they arrived at Efesos, he left the other two there while he went into the Jewish meeting hall and had a discussion with the Yehudim (Jews) there. 20 They asked him to remain longer, but he turned them down 21 although as he gave his farewells, he said, "I'll come back here again if God wills it," then he sailed on from Efesos.

Apollos teaches in Efesos and Korinthos

24 Meanwhile a Jewish man named Apollos (who had been born in the city of Alexandria) arrived in Efesos. He knew the Hebrew scriptures well 25 and had been taught about the master's way. Being a very enthusiastic person, he started teaching about Yeshua (Jesus; Grk.
Yesus), even though he didn't know about being filled with the spirit.[109] 26 So Apollos started speaking out boldly in the Jewish meeting hall.
Priskilla and Akulas (Aquila) listened to him, then asked to speak with him privately and explained God's way more accurately. 27 Now Apollos wanted to go to Akaia, so the believers encouraged him and sent a letter ahead of him to tell the believers there to welcome him, so when he arrived there, he was able to contribute a lot to those who through God's grace had also become believers.
28 Apollos was also able to thoroughly refute the arguments of the Yehudim (Jews) and used the scriptures to show that Yeshua is the messiah.

Many filled with the spirit in Efesos

19:1 So then while Apollos was at Korinthos, Paulos travelled through the interior regions before arriving at Efesos. He found some followers there, 2 and asked them if they had received the holy spirit when they had first believed in Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus).

They replied, "We hadn't even heard that there's a holy spirit."

3 "So then what were you immersed into?" asked Paulos.

"With Yohan's (John's; Grk. Yoannes') immersion," they answered.

4 Then Paulos said, "Yohan immersed people in water with an immersion that went with repentance from their sins, but he told them to believe in the one who would follow him, that is to believe in Yeshua."

5 When the followers heard this, they were immersed in water again, this time proclaiming their faith in Yeshua the master. 6 Then Paulos placed his hands on them and prayed and the holy spirit came down onto them and they started speaking in other languages and speaking messages from God. 7 There were about twelve men in the group.

8 So Paulos started going to the Jewish meeting hall and for the next three months he boldly discussed and persuaded them about God's kingdom. 9 But as some of them refused to believe and became hardened against his teaching and started telling everyone that the Yeshua way was evil, Paulos stopped teaching in the meeting hall and taught the followers at Turannos' school instead. 10 This went on for two years to the point that everyone in Asia Minor, whether Yehudim (Jews) or Hellains (Greeks), heard the message about Yeshua.

The power of the master's message

11 And God was doing incredible miracles through Paulos 12 such that even if handkerchiefs or aprons that had touched his skin were placed on top of any person who was sick or troubled with demons, then they would recover and the evil spirits would leave them. 13 But some of the Jewish exorcists going around attempted to use the name of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) to drive out evil spirits by telling them, "I am imploring you all by Yeshua that Paulos preaches about." 14 Seven sons of the Jewish chief priest, Skeuas were doing this.

15 But the evil spirit would answer them saying, "I know Yeshua and I recognise Paulos, but who are you?"

16 Then the man who had the evil spirit would jump on them and beat them up so they'd end up escaping out of the house naked and wounded.

17 When everyone in Efesos heard about this, both Yehudim (Jews) and Hellains (Greeks) were frightened, and the name of Yeshua the master was being honoured. 18 Many of the people who believed in Yeshua came and confessed their sins and wrong practices. 19 Lots of the people who'd practiced magic brought their scrolls and burnt them in front of the others. these were added up, it was huge—worth around 50,000 silver coins. 20 So that was how the master's message had a powerful effect and won over many people.

The silversmiths start a ruckus in Efesos

21 After all of this, Paulos decided in his spirit that he would need to travel through Makedonia and Akaia en route to Yerushalem (Jerusalem), saying, "After I've been there a while, I will also need to go to Romai." 22 He sent two of his workers, Timotheos and Erastos, to Makedonia while he stayed on a bit longer in Asia Minor.

23 But while he was still there, a major disturbance hit the Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) followers. 24 A silversmith named Demetrios made little silver shrines of Artemis and this business brought a tidy profit to the local craftsmen. 25 Demetrios gathered all the workers together and told them, "Men, you all know that our prosperity comes from this business of ours. 26 But you've seen yourselves and heard from others that not only Efesos, but almost our entire province of Asia Minor has become persuaded by this Paulos fellow, and now the crowds are saying that what we make are not real gods. 27 However it's not only us and our trade that is coming into disrepute, but the temple of the great goddess Artemis is considered to be useless. This could result in a loss of power for the great Artemis that all of Asia Minor and the inhabited world have been worshipping."

28 When the gathering heard this, they became very angry and yelled out, "Artemis of the people from Efesos is great!" 29 Then the whole city was filled with confusion and the people rushed to the theatre and grabbed Gaios and Aristarkos from Makedonia—travelling companions of Paulos's. 30 Now Paulos wanted to go there and speak to the crowd, but the believers wouldn't let him go. 31 Also some of the leaders from Asia Minor who were friendly towards him, sent messengers to him to implore him not to go to the theatre. 32 Some of the people gathered there were yelling out something, but overall it was just confusion, and the majority of the people couldn't even tell you the reason why they were there. 33 Some people in the crowd selected Alexandros (Alexander) the Yehudi (Jew) and sent him forward to speak, so he motioned with his hand ready to explain the situation to the people. 34 But as soon as they recognised that he was a Yehudi, people started yelling, "Artemis of the people from Efesos is great," and this continued for over two hours.

35 Eventually the city administrator was able to calm the crowd and tell them, "Men, fellow people from Efesos, what person from around here doesn't know that it's Efesos that's the temple keeper of the great Artemis and of this image that fell down from Zeus? 36 Since all of this is unquestionable, it makes sense for everyone to calm down and not do anything reckless. 37 These men that you presented here haven't stolen anything from the temple, nor have they slandered our goddess. 38 So if Demetrios and the silver craftsmen with him have a case against anyone, they should bring it to the courts and the proconsuls and register the charges. 39 But for the rest of you, if you have a grievance against others, it needs to be settled in a lawful assembly 40 because we're in danger of being charged with insurrection about what happened today. And we would have no defence that we could respond with concerning this disorderly gathering." 41 Then he told them all to go home.

Paulos travels to Makedonia and Akaia

20:1 After all the commotion had died down, Paulos sent for the believers, and after greeting and encouraging them, he left Efesos to go to Makedonia.[110] 2 As he travelled through the districts, he challenged the people there with a lot of messages, until he eventually arrived in Yavan (Greece). 3 He'd been there about three months when he heard about a plot by some Yehudim (Jews) to waylay him as he boarded a ship to return to Aram (Syria), so instead he decided to return through Makedonia 4 with Sopatros son of Puros from Beroia, Aristarkos and Sekundos from Thessalonikai, Gaios from Derbai, Tukikos and Trofimos from the province of Asia Minor, and Timotheos all accompanying him.

5 They went ahead and waited for us[111] at Troias. 6 So we sailed out from Filippou (Philippi) after the Flat Bread Celebration. We arrived and meet the others there at Troias after a five-day trip, and then stayed on there for seven days.

Paulos's all-night discussions in Troias

7 On the Sunday we had gathered together to break bread together and Paulos was discussing many things with them. As he was scheduled to leave the next day, the meeting went on towards midnight 8 and there were many lamps in the upper room where we had all gathered. 9 Now there was a young man named Eutukos who was sitting on the window sill, and as Paulos went on, he fell asleep and toppled down from the third storey. The ones who reached him first thought he was dead, 10 but Paulos had come downstairs and bent over Eutukos and held him in his arms and said to the crowd, "Don't worry, he's still alive." 11 Then Paulos went back up and broke the bread with the others, eating a little and continuing to talk with them until leaving at daybreak. 12 The locals took the young man home and were very relieved that he was alive.

Sailing from Troias to Milaitos

13 We went ahead to the ship and departed for Assos where it had been arranged that we'd pick up Paulos because he wanted to walk there. 14 So when we met him at Assos, he boarded the ship and we all sailed on to Mitulainai. 15 After we left Mitulainai, we were out from Kios the next day, in Samos the day after that, and then the following day we arrived at Milaitos. 16 Paulos had decided to sail past Efesos because he was hurrying to try to get to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) for the Day of Pentecost so he didn't want to spend time in Asia Minor.

Paulos's farewell to the Efesian elders

17 So while we were at Milaitos, he sent a message to Efesos for the elders of the assembly to come to him. 18 When they arrived, he told them, "You all know that from the very first day that I set foot in Asia Minor and for the entire time that I was there 19 I humbly served the master even through tears and trials when the Yehudim (Jews) plotted to destroy me. 20 But I didn't shrink back from teaching you everything that would help you, whether I was teaching in public or in individual homes. 21 I explained to both Yehudim and Hellains (Greeks) how they needed to turn their backs on their sins and towards God with faith in our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah.

22 However the spirit is now forcing me towards Yerushalem (Jerusalem) even though I don't know what will happen to me there. 23 I just know that recently in every city, the holy spirit tells me that chains and hardships are waiting for me. 24 But I've never regarded my own life as being valuable—I only want to reach the end of my life having served in the way that the master Yeshua instructed me to speak out the good message about God's grace.

25 So you see, I know that all of you from here where I passed through proclaiming God's kingdom, you will never see me again. 26 That's why I'm declaring to all of you today that I'm not guilty of your judgement 27 because I didn't avoid telling you anything that I had from God. 28 So now you elders look after your own lives and those of your flock because the holy spirit chose you as overseers to shepherd the assembly of God's people who he paid for with his very own blood. 29 I'm aware that after I leave, vicious wolves will come in amongst you and trying to steal the flock. 30 Even some of you will rise up and teach a message that's warped but which will draw some of the believers away to follow it, 31 so take great care. Remember that for three years, I never stopped warning each of you along with my tears 32 so now I'm leaving you all in God's hands and with the message of his grace which is quite capable of helping you grow to receive the inheritance that's for all those who've been purified.

33 I never envied anyone's gold or silver or fancy clothes 34 and you yourselves know that I laboured with my own hands to cover my expenses and for those with me. 35 Yes, I showed you all that it's good to work and to take care of the weaker ones and to remember the message of the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) when he said that it's better to be a giver than a taker."

36 When he'd finished speaking, Paulos knelt down and prayed with them all. 37 Everyone was sobbing as they hugged and kissed him 38 because what he'd said about never seeing him again had really distressed them. Then they accompanied him to his ship.

Paulos goes to Yerushalem

21:1 When it was time for us to sail, we left them and sailed directly across to Kos before going on to Rodos the next day and then on to Patara. 2 From there we found a ship heading to Foinikai, so we boarded that and set off. 3 After sighting Kupros (Cyprus) and then leaving it behind on our left, we sailed on to Aram (Syria) and docked there at the port of Tsor (Tyre) where the ship had cargo to be unloaded. 4 We searched for the believers there and then stayed on with them for seven days. They were inspired by the spirit to tell Paulos not to go to Yerushalem (Jerusalem). 5 Once our time was up there and everyone knew that we were leaving, even the wives and children accompanied us out of the city to the port. We all knelt on the beach and prayed 6 before we continued on and boarded our ship and they went back to their own homes.

7 So we sailed from Tsor down to Ptolemais where we were able to greet the brothers and sisters and stay overnight with them. 8 The next day we continued on to Kaisareia and ended up in Filippos's (Philip's) house. He was one of the original seven men who had been given the responsibility of distributing aid—a preacher of the good message, and we stayed with him. 9 Filippos had four unmarried daughters still at home, and they shared messages from God. 10 Several days later a man named Agabos came from Yehudah (Judea). He too shared messages from God 11 and when he arrived, he picked up Paulos's belt and tied it around his own feet and hands, telling them that the holy spirit had told him that this is how the owner of the belt would be treated by the Jewish leaders in Yerushalem before they would then hand him over to the non-Jews to be dealt with.

12 When we heard this described, both we and the locals begged Paulos not to go to Yerushalem 13 but he answered, "Oh come on, what's all this weeping and carrying on that's breaking my heart? Actually I'm quite ready not only to be tied up, but even to be killed in Yerushalem as a testimony to the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus)."

14 When we saw that we couldn't change his mind, we didn't say anything else, figuring out that whatever the master wills for the situation would happen, 15 and so after these several days, we had gotten everything ready and started off for Yerushalem. 16 Some of the believers from Kaisareia accompanied us and led us to the home of a man named Mnason to stay—he was an older believer from Kupros (Cyprus).

Paulos visits Ya'akov and makes a vow

17 When we arrived at Yerushalem (Jerusalem), the brothers and sisters there happily welcomed us, 18 and the next day, we accompanied Paulos to go and see Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos)[112] and the elders of the assembly there. 19 After greeting them, Paulos then described all the things that God had done among the non-Jews as he had served among them, 20 and when they'd heard all that they praised God and told Paulos, "Brother, you've noticed how many thousands of Yehudim (Jews) have believed in the messiah but they still strive to observe Mosheh's (Moses') laws. 21 But they've heard reports that you've been teaching the Yehudim that live outside our country that they don't have to obey what Mosheh wrote—telling them that they don't have to have their children circumcised and that they don't have to follow our Jewish customs. 22 What will happen now, because the leaders here will certainly hear that you have arrived? 23 So here's what we suggest that you do: Four of our men are making a public vow. 24 Why don't you join these four and join them in the purification ceremony at the temple and pay their expenses in getting your

For/Because I I_am_ _having ready not only to_be_bound, but also to_ _die_off in Hierousalaʸm, because/for the name of_the master Yaʸsous/(Yəhōshūʻa). 14 And him not being_persuaded, we_kept_quiet having_said: The will of_the master let_be_becoming. 15 And after ~~the~~ these days, having_made_preparations, we_were_going_up to Hierousalaʸm. 16 And also of_the apprentices/followers from Kaisareia came_together with us, bringing us to_Mnasōn a_ _certain ancient from_Kupros apprentice/follower with whom we_may_be_ _lodged.

17 And of_us having_become at Hierousalaʸm, the brothers gladly welcomed us. 18 and on_the day following, ~~the~~ Paulos was_entering with us to Yakōbos/(Yaʻaqov), and all the elders arrived. 19 And having_greeted them, he_was_explaining by each one, of_what ~~the~~ god did among the pagans by the service of_him. 20 And they having_heard were_glorifying ~~the~~ god, and they_ _said to_him: You_are_observing, brother, how_ _many tens_of_thousands are among the Youdaiōns ~~which~~ having_believed, and they_are_ all _being zealous for_the law. 21 And they_were_ _instructed concerning you, that you_are_ _teaching apostasy from Mōsaʸs/(Mosheh) all Youdaiōns the ones among the pagans, saying them not to_be_circumcising their children, nor to_be_walking in_the customs. 22 Therefore what is_it? Four Men are with_us, having a_ _vow for themselves. 24 Having_taken these men, be_purified with them and spend for them, in_ _order_that they_will_be_shaving his head, and all will_be_knowing that of_which they_have_ _been_instructed about you nothing is, but you_ _are_aligning also yourself, keeping the law. 25 But concerning the pagans having_believed, we sent_out having_judged them to_be_keeping,

27 And when the seven days were_going, to_be_ _being_completed, the Youdaiōns from ~~the~~ Asia, having_seen him in the temple, were_ _confounding all the crowd, and they_laid_on their hands on him 28 crying_out: Men, ones_ _from_Israaʸl/(Yisrā'ēl), be_giving_help. heads shaved. Then everyone will be able to see that it's false what they've heard about you, because you clearly still comply with Mosheh's instructions. 25 And as for the believers who are non-Jews, we've informed them of our recommendation that they should avoid anything that's been offered to an idol, avoid consuming blood and meat from strangled animals and birds, and avoid sexual immorality."

26 So the next day Paulos took the four men for the purification ceremony in the temple and there they announced the date when their vows would be fulfilled and their sacrifices made.

Paulos is captured inside the temple

27 When the seven days of the vow were almost over, some Yehudim (Jews) from the province of Asia Minor noticed Paulos in the temple. They stirred up the crowd and grabbed hold of him, 28 yelling out, "Men of Yisrael (Israel). Help us here. This is the man who's been teaching all around the world against Yisrael and against Mosheh's (Moses') law and against this temple. What's more he brought non-Jews here into the temple and so has defiled this holy place." 29 (They said this because they had previously seen Trofimos from Efesos in the city with Paulos and had assumed that he had brought him into the temple.)

30 So now the whole city was in an uproar, and the crowds rushed in, grabbed Paulos, and dragged him out of the temple and hurriedly closed the temple gates. 31 They were ready to kill Paulos, but the commander of the Romaios soldiers had heard that all Yerushalem (Jerusalem) was in an uproar. 32 Taking some soldiers and officers, he immediately ran down to the temple, and when the crowd saw the commander and the soldiers they stopped beating Paulos. 33 The commander came close and took hold of Paulos and ordered that he be tied up with a pair of chains while he tried to find out who he was and what he'd done wrong. 34 Various people in the crowd were shouting out different things, and not being able to make any sense of it because of all the commotion, the commander ordered that Paulos be taken into the barracks. 35 When they got to the stairs, the soldiers had to lift him up above their heads because of the frenzy of the crowd, 36 because most of the people were following and shouting out, "Do away with him!"

Paulos's defence

37 As they were able to carry him into the fortress, Paulos called down to the commander, "Can I say something to you?"

"You speak Greek!", replied the commander.
38 "Aren't you the Mitsri (Egyptian) who stirred up a group of assassins a while back and led them out into the wilderness?"

39 "No, I'm a Yehudi (Jew) from Tarsos in Kilikia—a citizen of an important city," said Paulos. "But please, let me speak to these people."

40 The commander nodded, so the soldiers stood Paulos on the stairs where he gestured to the people. The crowd quietened down, and so Paulos spoke loudly in his Hebrew language:

22:1 "Men, brothers, and fathers, listen to what I have to say for myself." 2 When they heard him speaking Hebrew, they became even more quiet as he continued, 3 "I am a Yehudi who grew up in this very city to study under Gamliel. I've been raised according to every part of our ancestral law, working hard to obey God like all of you here today. 4 I used to persecute the followers of 'The Path' even to death—tying up both men and women and handing them over to the prisons 5 as the Chief Priest and all the council of elders can tell you. I took letters from them to our Jewish brothers in Damesek (Damascus) when I went so that I could arrest the ones there and bring them back here to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) to be punished.

Paulos explains about his conversion[113]

6 "But one time as I was travelling and getting close to Damesek (Damascus) by the middle of the day, suddenly a bright light from the sky began to flash around me 7 and I fell to the ground. I heard a voice asking me, 'Sha'ul (Saul; Grk. Saulos/Saul), Sha'ul, why are you persecuting me?' 8 'Who are you, master?' I answered. And the voice said, 'I am Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus)—the one from Nazaret that you are persecuting.' 9 The other people with me saw the light but didn't hear the voice that spoke to me. 10 Then I asked, 'What do I need to do, master?' 'Get up and continue into Damesek,' the master said. 'When you get there, you'll be told everything that you've been assigned to do.' 11 But I couldn't see anything because the brightness of the light had affected my eyes, so my companions had to lead me by hand into Damesek.

12 "In Damesek there was a man named Hananyah (Ananias; Grk. Hananias)—a non-Jew but who was respected by the Yehudim (Jews) there because he strove to obey Mosheh's (Moses') instructions about living. 13 Hananyah came to where I was and standing by me said, "Brother Sha'ul, receive your sight!" That very hour I was able to see again and look at him 14 and he said, 'The god of our ancestors has decided in advance to reveal his plans to you, and for you to see the sinless one—to hear him speaking 15 because he wants you to inform people everywhere what you've seen and heard. 16 So what else are you waiting for? Get up and wash away your sins by getting immersed in water as you request his forgiveness.'

The crowd riots when Paulos mentions preaching to non-Jews

17 "Then when I returned to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance 18 and saw the master telling me, 'Get out of Yerushalem in a hurry because they won't accept what you're teaching them about me.' 19 'Master,' I replied, 'they know that previously I was the one imprisoning and beating the people who believed in you, 20 and when Stefanos was killed after teaching about you, it was me standing there and cheering on the ones executing him as I held their coats for them.' 21 Then the master told me, 'Get going now because I'm sending you away to the non-Jews.' "

22 Until this point in his message, the crowd had been listening to Paulos, but now they started shouting, "Do away with this man! He doesn't deserve to live in this world!" 23 Then they yelled and threw some of their clothes down onto the ground and threw dust up into the air. 24 So the commander ordered Paulos to be brought inside into barracks and ordered that he be flogged and interrogated to determine what he'd done that would make the crowd react like that. 25 But as they strapped him down and stretched him out for the flogging, Paulos asked the centurion standing there, "It is legal for you to flog a Romaios citizen who hasn't even been tried?"

26 When he heard that, the centurion went to the commander and reported, "How are we going to handle this, because this man is a Romaios citizen?"

27 So the commander went in to where Paulos was and asked him, "Tell me the truth. Are you a Romaios citizen?"

"Yes I am," said Paulos.

28 "Yeah, and I paid a lot for mine as well," mocked the commander.

"Actually mine is through birth," Paulos responded.

29 At this point, the soldiers who were about to interrogate Paulos left the room, and even the commander was now afraid after learning that he'd had a Romaios citizen tied down to be flogged.

Paulos faces the Jewish council

30 The next day, the Romaios commander still wanted to know what was behind the anger of the Yehudim (Jews), so he had Paulos released from the cell, but brought him down to a room where he'd ordered the chief priests and the Jewish council to convene. Paulos was given a seat 23:1 and looking directly at the council members said, "Men, brothers, all my life I have lived before God as a good citizen and with a clean conscience." 2 But Hananyah (Ananias; Grk. Hananias) the chief priest commanded one of his companions to whack Paulos on the mouth. 3 "God will strike you," said Paulos, "you grand show-off. You've been brought here to judge me as someone who knows the law and yet you violate the law by commanding that I be hit in the face."

4 But the others standing there said, "Are you insulting God's chief priest?"

5 "Brothers," said Paulos, "I didn't realise that he's the chief priest, because the scriptures teach us not to speak wrongly of our leaders."[114]

6 But then, knowing that the council consisted of some from the sect of the Saddoukaios (Sadducees) and some from the Farisaios' party, Paulos continued loudly, "Men, brothers, like my father, I'm a member of the Farisaios and I'm being tried today concerning the hope and the resurrection of the dead!"

7 Well, as soon as he said this, the council was split as the Farisaios and the Saddoukaios started arguing. 8 (Saddoukaios say that the dead don't come back to life, and there's no messengers and no spirits, but the Farisaios believe there is.) 9 So then there was a big kerfuffle because some of the teachers of the law spoke up for the Farisaios saying, "We don't see anything wrong with this man. Maybe it was a spirit or one of God's messengers that spoke to him."

10 But the Romaios commander was afraid that they might tear Paulos apart in the big argument, so he called for his soldiers to come down to uplift Paulos and return him to the barracks.

11 The following night, the master appeared to Paulos and told him, "Be brave because just like you testified about me here in Yerushalem (Jerusalem), so too you'll tell them about me in Romai."

The plan to kill Paulos

12 The next day, some of the Yehudim (Jews) gathered informally and pledged not to eat or drink until they'd killed Paulos. 13 There were more than forty of them in this conspiracy, 14 and they approached the chief priests and elders and told them, "We've made an oath to taste nothing until we've killed Paulos, otherwise we'll bring a curse on ourselves. 15 So you guys assemble the council and report to the commander so that he'll bring him down to you all as if you need more information about his actions, and then we'll have an opportunity to kill before he gets here.

ambush and went in to the barracks to inform Paulos. 17 Paulos then called one of the Romaios centurions and told him to take the young man to the commander because he had something to tell him. 18 So the centurion took him to the commander, explaining, "The prisoner Paulos, called me and asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to report to you."

19 The commander took the young man by the hand and led him into his private office and asked, "What do you have to tell me?"

20 "The Yehudim (Jews) have decided to ask you," he said, "that tomorrow you bring Paulos down to the council as if they wanted to question him further. 21 But don't listen to them because over forty of their men will be lying in wait for him, and they've sworn not to eat or drink until they've killed him. In fact, they're all set up already, just waiting for your consent."

22 The commander told the young man not to tell anyone else about the ambush and dismissed him.

Paulos is escorted away in the night

23 Then the commander called in two of his centurions and ordered them to prepare two-hundred soldiers to travel as far as Kaisareia, supported by seventy mounted soldiers and two-hundred more with spears. They were to be ready to leave by 9pm, 24 along with a horse for Paulos to ride, and were to get him safely to Governor Felix. 25 Then the commander wrote a letter ready to take:

26 "Greetings to the most excellent Governor Felix from Klaudios Lusias. 27 I'm writing to you about this man who had been captured by the Yehudim (Jews) here and they were about to kill him when I moved in with my soldiers because he is a Romaios citizen. 28 I wanted to know what they were accusing him of, so I took him down to their council meeting, 29 but I discovered that it was just some detail about their Jewish law and nothing that should result in death or imprisonment. 30 Then when I learnt that they have a plot

31 So the soldiers carried out their instructions and took Paulos as far as Antipatris during the night. 32 The next morning the foot soldiers returned to the barracks, leaving the mounted soldiers to take him on 33 to Kaisareia, where they presented Paulos to the governor along with the letter. 34 After reading the letter the governor asked Paulos what province that he's from and found out that he was from Kilikia. 35 Then he ordered Paulos to be kept under guard in the prison in Herodes's (Herod's) palace until he would hear from him in the future once his accusers got there.

The Yehudim accuse Paulos before Governor Felix

24:1 Five days later, Hananyah (Ananias; Grk. Hananias) the chief priest arrived along with some elders and an attorney named Tertullos, to bring the charges against Paulos before Governor Felix. 2 Once he was called to speak, Tertullos began his accusation of Paulos:

"We have seen peace under your rule and the helpful reforms that this nation has experienced through your provision, 3 most excellent Felix, and we gratefully welcome everything you've done and everywhere you've done it. 4 But in order not to oblige you longer than necessary, in your gentleness we request you to listen to our brief statement. 5 This man here has been found to be a troublemaker, stirring up riots among the Yehudim (Jews) throughout the inhabited world, and as a ring-leader of the Nazoraios sect 6 he even attempted to profane the temple where we were able to arrest him. 7 ◘ 8 When you examine him yourself you'll discover all these things that we're accusing him of." 9 The Yehudim who had come also affirmed all the accusations.

Paulos's defence against the accusations

10 So the governor nodded for Paulos to speak and he started,

"I happily defend myself today knowing that you have many years of experience ruling in this region. 11 You can quickly establish that it was less than twelve days ago that I arrived in Yerushalem

(Jerusalem) to worship there. 12 They never found me in the temple arguing with anyone or stirring up the crowd, and nor was I doing that in the Jewish meeting halls or anywhere in the city 13 and so they can't provide evidence to you to support any of their accusations. 14 However, I must confess that I follow 'The Path' that they call a sect which serves the God of our ancestors and believes everything in Mosheh's (Moses') law as well as the writings of the prophets. 15 We put our trust in the same God that they themselves follow, and we all anticipate a resurrection of those who serve God and those who don't. 16 Because of this, I also strive to maintain a clean conscience in everything, before God and the people.

17 After several years away, I arrived in Yerushalem bringing offerings to help my own people and before God. 18 That was when they found me in the temple after going through the purification ceremony, and without either a crowd or a commotion around me. 19 But there were some Yehudim (Jews) from the province of Asia Minor who are the ones who should be appearing here before you, and they should be the ones accusing me if they could find anything against me. 20 Even these ones here now should explain what their council found me guilty of, 21 other than my calling out that I was being judged because I believe in the resurrection of the dead.

22 But Felix who was already familiar with followers of 'The Path', announced that the trial would be adjourned until Commander Lusias arrived when he would investigate further. 23 He ordered the centurion to keep Paulos confined, but under relaxed conditions and allowing any of his friends to bring him anything he needed.

Paulos speaks to the governor and his wife

24 However, several days later Felix returned there, this time with his wife Drusilla who was Jewish. He sent for Paulos and listened to him explain about faith in the messiah. 25 But when the subject turned to righteousness and self-control and the coming judgement, Felix became very uncomfortable and told him, "That's enough for now. If I have time in the future, I'll send for you." 26 However he was also hoping that Paulos would give him money, so he often sent for him and spoke with him.

27 This went on for two years, until Felix was replaced as governor by Porkios Festos, but wanting to stay in the good books of the Yehudim (Jews), Felix left Paulos confined.

Tried yet again, Paulos appeals to Kaisar

25:1 After Festos had been in the area for three days, he made the uphill trip from Kaisareia to Yerushalem (Jerusalem). 2 There the chief priests and the Jewish leaders repeated their case against Paulos, and they implored Festos, 3 asking as a special favour, that he would order Paulos to be sent to Yerushalem (because they wanted to ambush and kill him on the way). 4 But Festos replied that he'd keep Paulos in Kaisareia and he was heading back there soon, 5 so he told them, "Some of your leaders can go there with me, and if the man has done anything wrong, they can explain their accusations there."

6 After staying seven or eight days in Yerushalem, Festos and company travelled back to Kaisareia, and the next day he sat at the judge's bench and ordered that Paulos be brought in. 7 When he arrived, the Yehudim (Jews) who'd come from Yerushalem stood facing Paulos and presented many heavy charges which they weren't able to prove. 8 Paulos defended himself, stating that he hadn't sinned against any Jewish law or against the temple, nor against any Romaios law.

9 However, Festos wanted to be able to grant a favour to the Yehudim, so in response to Paulos he asked, "Are you willing to be returned to Yerushalem so that I can judge you about these things there?"

10 "I'm here facing Kaisar's representative," Paulos replied. "and it's quite appropriate for me to be judged here. I've done nothing wrong to these Yehudim as you can no doubt see for yourself. 11 If I had done anything wrong, anything worthy of the death sentence, then I'm ready to accept death. On the other hand, if none of their accusations are true, no one can hand me over to them. I appeal to Kaisar."

12 So Festos conferred with his legal counsel and answered, "Well, you've appealed to Kaisar so you'll go to Kaisar!"

King Agrippas wants to hear from Paulos

13 Several days later, King Agrippas and his sister Bernike arrived in Kaisareia to meet Festos. 14 As they had planned to stay on for a few days, Festos mentioned about Paulos to the king, telling him, "There's a prisoner here that Felix left behind. 15 When I was in Yerushalem (Jerusalem), the chief priests and Jewish elders reported to me, wanting a conviction of this man. 16 I told them that it's not the Romaios way to convict someone until they've been able to face their accusers and make their defence against the accusations. 17 So as soon as they arrived here, on the very next day I sat on the judge's bench and ordered the man to be brought in 18 that they were accusing, but they didn't raise even one of the charges that I expected. 19 Instead they raised some issues about their own beliefs and about some dead person called Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) that Paulos reckoned was still living. 20 I was puzzled about this debate and asked him if he wanted to be judged about these things in Yerushalem. 21 But Paulos appealed to be kept safe from them until he could face the emperor, so I ordered him to be kept in prison until I can send him to Romai."

22 "I'd quite like to hear him myself," Agrippas said.

"Well, tomorrow," replied Festos, "you'll be able to hear from him."

23 So the next day, King Agrippas and Bernike formally arrived with all their attendants and entered the auditorium to greet the commanders and the prominent men of the city, and then Festos ordered for Paulos to be brought in. 24 Festos started, "King Agrippas and everyone present, observe the prisoner who a multitude of Yehudim (Jews) pleaded with me about both in Yerushalem and here, that he doesn't deserve to still be alive. 25 But I haven't discovered anything that he's done that's worthy of a death sentence, and since he himself appealed to the emperor, I judged that that's where he should be sent. 26 The problem is that I don't have any charge to write to my master and so I've brought the prisoner out in front of you so that after you examine him, I might have

Paulos's defence before Festos and Agrippas

26:1 So then Agrippas told Paulos, "Okay, you can give your side now then."
So Paulos gestured with his hand and began:
2 "Concerning all the charges which have been brought against me by the Yehudim (Jews), King Agrippas, I consider myself fortunate 3 because you're an expert on Jewish customs and issues, so I ask you to listen to me patiently.
4 "All the Yehudim know about my early life, from my upbringing in my own country and then in Yerushalem (Jerusalem). 5 They also know, and could even testify to you if they would admit it, that I followed our religious laws very closely as a member of the Farisaios party. 6 Yet now I stand judged for believing in the same hope as our ancestors—that hope promised by our God 7 who we twelve tribes diligently serve day and night in order to obtain—the hope, your majesty, for which I'm being indicted. 8 So why do you all find it unbelievable that God can raise the dead?
9 "I too originally thought it necessary to do many things to oppose the cause of this Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) from Nazaret. 10 So in Yerushalem I worked to have many of these innocent believers locked up in prison with the authority of the chief priests, or if they were to be killed, I would add my vote against them. 11 And in all the Jewish meeting halls, when I found believers I punished them and forced them to curse God and treated them with extreme anger, even travelling to further away towns.

Paulos tells about his commission

12 "So it was one time travelling to Damesek (Damascus) carrying permission letters from the chief priests 13 that in the middle of the day, your majesty, I saw a bright light from the sky—even brighter than the sun—and it shone on me and my companions. 14 All of us fell down to the ground and I heard a voice speaking to me in Hebrew saying, 'Sha'ul (Saul; Grk. Saulos/Saul), Sha'ul, why are you persecuting me? Life will be difficult for you if you resist me.'

15 'Who are you, master?', I asked.

"And the master responded, 'I am Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), the one you're persecuting. 16 Now get up, because I let you see me in order to appoint you as my servant and my witness—to tell the people what you've seen and what you will be shown. 17 I will rescue you from your own people and from the non-Jews that I'm sending you out to, 18 to open their minds and for them to turn back from darkness to light and from Satan's power to God, so that they can be forgiven for their sins and receive an inheritance among the ones who've been made guiltless by their faith in me.'

Paulos tells about his ministry

19 "So then, King Agrippas, I couldn't disobey that vision 20 so I preached first to those in Damesek (Damascus) and then in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and all of Yehudah (Judea), and then in the towns of the non-Jews. I preached about turning from their sins and turning back to God, and then actually living like people who had repented. 21 It was because of these things that the Yehudim (Jews) grabbed me in the temple and tried to do me in. 22 So it is that with God's help until this very day I have stood testifying to commoners and leaders, teaching nothing other than what Mosheh (Moses) and the prophets had already written that would happen— 23 that the messiah would come and suffer and as the first of the dead to come back to life, he is going to be proclaiming light to both Yehudim and non-Jews."

24 Then speaking about Paulos's defence, Governor Festos said, "Paulos, you're stark, raving mad! All your education has turned you into an idiot."

25 But Paulos said, "I haven't gone mad, most excellent Festos, but I'm speaking the truth in all seriousness. 26 The king knows what I'm talking about and that's why I'm speaking boldly, because none of these things were done in a corner and I'm sure that none of it has escaped his notice. 27 King Agrippas, do you believe what the prophets wrote? Yes, I'm sure you do."

28 But Agrippas answered Paulos, "Do you think you can talk me into becoming a follower of the messiah in just that short time?"

29 "I hope to God", said Paulos, "whether it takes a short time or a long time, that both you and the others listening today will become just like me except for these chains."

Paulos is escorted off overseas

27:1 So when it was considered the right season to sail to Italia, Paulos and some other prisoners were put under the guard of a centurion named Yulios (from the Augustan Regiment). 2 We all boarded on a ship from Adramuttainos that was about to sail to various places along the coast of Asia Minor. Aristarkos, a Makedonian man from Thessalonikai, was with us as we departed.

3 The next day we docked at Tsidon (Sidon) where Yulios very kindly allowed Paulos to visit some of his friends so they could provide for his needs. 4 When we left again, the ship stayed between Kupros (Cyprus) and the mainland because of the unfavourable winds, 5 then after sailing past Kilikia and Pamfulia, we docked at Mura in the province of Lukia. 6 There the centurion found a ship from Alexandria that was sailing to Italia, so he boarded us on that.

7 After many days of slow and difficult sailing, we came alongside Knidos but the wind wasn't helpful to us, so we sailed across to Kraitai (Crete) and along the cape of Salmone. 8 We sailed along it with difficulty until we came to a place called 'Fair Havens' which was near the city of Lasaia.

9 A lot of time had now elapsed and the voyage was starting to become dangerous because we were already heading into winter. Paulos advised those in charge, 10 telling them, "Men, I perceive that we're going to encounter a lot of damage on this voyage, with loss not only of the cargo and the ship, but also our lives." 11 But the centurion was persuaded by the ship owner and the captain, rather than by what Paulos had said. 12 They realised that this harbour wasn't suitable to winter in, so the majority suggested leaving there with the expectation of being able to get to Kraitai to winter in the harbour at Foinix (which was open to both the southwest and the northwest).

The severe storm at sea

13 When a south wind started blowing gently, they thought they could make it, so they pulled in the anchor and sailed along close to Kraitai (Crete). 14 However, a short while later the wind turned to a violent north-easter which forced us out to sea. 15 The ship was driven by the wind and unable to tack to face into it, so the sailors gave up and just let it be driven. 16 As we passed a small island called Klaudai, we got a brief break and were able to resecure the lifeboat 17 and then bring it up on board. Then ropes were used to wrap around the ship in case it were to run aground into the shallows at Surtis and the gear was lowered,[115] allowing the wind to drive the ship along. 18 We were violently tossed around by the storm, and the next day the crew started lightening the ship by tipping some of the cargo overboard. 19 By the third day, the sailors themselves in desperation were even throwing some of the ship's gear overboard. 20 We didn't see either the sun or the stars for several more days—it wasn't a minor storm by any means—and by then any remaining hope that we had of staying alive disappeared 21 and no one had eaten or drunk much at all.

28 And having_taken_soundings, they_found twenty fathoms, and shortly having_passed_by, and again having_taken_soundings, they_found fifteen fathoms. 29 And fearing lest we_may_run_ _aground somewhere on rough places, having_ _thrown_down four anchors from the_stern, they_were_hoping for_day to_become. 30 And ~~the~~ the_sailors seeking to_flee out_of the ship, and having_lowered the lifeboat into the sea, on_ _under_pretense as going to_be_stretching_out anchors from the_bow, 31 ~~the~~ Paulos said to_the centurion and to_the soldiers: If these may_ not _ _remain in the ship, you_all are_ not _being_able to_be_saved. 32 Then the soldiers cut_off the ropes of_the lifeboat, and they_allowed her to_ _run_aground. 33 And until of_which day was_ _going to_be_becoming, ~~the~~ Paulos was_exhorting all, to_partake of_food saying: Today the_ _fourteenth day is, you_all_are_continuing waiting foodless, having_taken nothing.

said, "Well, you should have listened to me after all and not left Kraitai, so now we have this damage and loss. 22 Nevertheless I think we can all cheer up because not a single life will be lost—only the ship— 23 because last night one of the messengers of the God that I serve came and stood beside me 24 and told me not to be afraid because I would indeed get to stand before Kaisar and that God has granted your lives to me as well.
25 So cheer up, fellows, because I'm certain that God will carry out what was told to me 26 even though we'll run aground onto an island first."
27 So it happened that in the middle of our fourteenth night of being blown across the Adrias Sea, the sailors suspected that we were nearing land.
28 They dropped a weighted line and measured the ocean depth at around 40 metres and then a bit later it was down to 30 metres. 29 Worrying that the ship might run aground on rough rocks, they threw out four anchors from the stern as they hoped that daylight would come quickly. 30 Then the sailors lowered the lifeboat as if planning to pull out some anchors from the bow, but really planning to desert the ship. 31 However Paulos told the centurion and the soldiers that if the sailors didn't remain with the ship, everybody couldn't be sure to be saved, 32 so the soldiers cut the ropes attaching the lifeboat and allowed it to run aground.
33 As they waited for the daylight, Paulos encouraged them all to eat something, saying, "Today is our fourteenth day and you've had nothing to eat. As we're waiting, 34 I urge you to eat something. This will help you to have strength because none of you are going to drown." 35 Having said that, he gave thanks to God in front of everyone, and breaking some bread, started eating it.
36 They all cheered up and also started eating.
37 There were two hundred and seventy-six of them on the ship, 38 and when they'd all eaten what they wanted, they lightened the ship more by throwing their wheat into the sea.

39 Once it became light, they saw that they were close to shore in a bay but didn't recognise the place. After some discussion, they decided to try to save the ship 40 so they cut away the anchors that were holding them in the sea and untied the rudder handles. Then raising the foresail, they let the wind blow them into the shore. 41 But they hit a bank with ocean on both sides of it and the ship ran aground. The bow of the ship was completely stuck but the stern was being broken up by the force of the ocean.

42 At this point the soldiers decided that they should kill the prisoners in case any of them decided to swim away and escape, 43 but the centurion wanted to keep Paulos safe so he vetoed that plan. He commanded those who could swim to jump off and swim in to shore, 44 and for the others to grab floating planks or something off the ship that would float, and so everyone got safely onto the beach.

On the island of Melitai

28:1 Once everyone was safe, we discovered that the island is called Melitai. 2 And the people there showed incredible kindness to us as they welcomed us and lit a fire, as it started raining again and was very cold. 3 However when Paulos was helping to pick up sticks and putting them on the fire, a viper was driven out by the heat and clamped its jaws down on his hand. 4 When the islanders saw the snake hanging from his hand they decided that he must be a murderer who had survived the shipwreck but now fate had finally decided his time was up. 5 However, Paulos just shook the snake off into the fire and wasn't harmed. 6 The locals were waiting for his arm to swell up or for him to fall down dead, but after a while when nothing happened they changed their minds and decided that instead, he must be a god.

7 The area that we had beached in belonged to the leader of the island named Poplios. He welcomed us and looked after us for three days, 8 but while we were there, his father got sick with dysentery and fever. Paulos went in and placing his hands on him, prayed for him and healed him. 9 As a result of that, anyone on the whole island who was sick came and was cured 10 and so the people brought us many gifts and when we left, they supplied us with provisions.

Sailing from Melitai to Romai

11 After three months we were able to leave on an Alexandrian ship that had wintered at the island. It was decorated with carvings of the twin 'gods'. 12 We stayed three days when we arrived at Surakousai 13 and then we sailed on to Raigion. The next day a south wind came so we sailed on to Potioloi 14 where we found some believers and they encouraged us to stay for seven days. Then we finally got to Romai. 15 The believers in Romai had heard about us, so they came to meet us at the Appios Market and the Three Taverns. Paulos was encouraged to see them and thanked God.

Paulos preaches in Romai

16 When we got into Romai proper, Paulos was allowed to live by himself, with just a soldier guarding him.

17 After three days, he called together the leaders of the Yehudim (Jews) in Romai, and when they'd all gathered he spoke to them, "Men, brothers, I have done nothing against my people or against our ancestral customs. I was taken prisoner in Yerushalem (Jerusalem) and handed over to the Romaios 18 who, after examining me, wanted to release me because I had done nothing worthy of execution. 19 But in defending myself against the Yehudim there, I felt compelled to appeal to Kaisar, although I myself had no complaint against the Yehudim. 20 So that was why I called for you and wanted to address you, because I am in chains for the sake of Yisrael's (Israel's) hope—the messiah."

21 "We haven't received any correspondence here about you," they answered. "Nor have any of our brothers from Yerushalem arrived here to report any crimes of yours. 22 But we would very much like to hear from you about your thinking, because we've certainly heard about this new sect because everyone is speaking out against it."

23 Then they set a day when they could visit him where he was staying and so that from morning to evening he could explain about God's kingdom and show them how Mosheh's (Moses') law and the prophets' writings spoke about Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus). 24 Afterwards some were persuaded while others didn't find it believable. 25 They argued back and forth, and as they were about to leave, Paulos shared this final message, "The holy spirit spoke rightly through Yeshayah (Isaiah) the prophet to your ancestors, saying:

26 Go to these people and tell them,
When you listen you will hear but not understand, and when you look you will see but not perceive it.
27 Because these people's minds have become dull and they can barely hear with their ears and they shut their eyes, just in case their eyes might actually see,
and their ears might actually hear,
and they might understand with their minds, and turn back to me and then I would heal them.[116]

28 So now let it be known to you all that the message of salvation from God has been sent out to non-Jews and they will listen."

29 ◘ 30 Paulos remained in his own rental accommodation in Romai for two whole years and welcomed everyone who went to see him, 31 telling them about God's kingdom and boldly teaching about the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) without any hindrance.

Ya'akov (James)

Introduction

Author

The author of this letter is commonly known as 'Ya'akov' in English translations, but most people don't realise that his English name should be Ya'akov (or Yakōbos if you wanted to be closer to the Koine Greek spelling). This translation error can be traced all the way back to Yohan Wycliffe's English translation from the Latin in the 1300's as he didn't have access to Greek New Testament manuscripts (although he did use Yacob in some parts of his New Testament when it referred to the son of Isaac). The confusion was probably due to changes in the way Latin was spoken over the centuries, and then translating the name from the historically-altered Latin instead of from the original Greek—see www.biblicalarchaeology.org/daily/biblical-topics/bible-versions-and-translations/james-or-jacob-in-the-bible for more details.

Note from the first sentence in the letter that Ya'akov addressed the letter to the twelve tribes who originated from the twelve sons of his namesake.

This letter

This Letter from Ya'akov is Ya'akov's collection of advice to those who believe there is a god in heaven. He wrote this to all people scattered all around the world. Ya'akov used examples in order to explain his advice, so that their behaviour would improve and also their daily work. He also taught on various topics like: faith, testing, suffering, showing, respect, good behaviour, watching what you say, true wisdom from God, and prayer.

He said that our faith is deficient if we don't also demonstrate it by our actions.

Main components of Ya'akov's letter

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos),[1] a slave for God and for the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah. It's written to the tribes who have ended up dispersed into many nations: Greetings.

Gaining endurance and requesting wisdom

2 Be cheerful my fellow believers, when you face a range of difficult situations, 3 knowing that you will learn endurance as your faith is tested. 4 Let that endurance do its perfect work so that you all might become perfect and mature—not lacking anything.

5 If anyone of you is lacking wisdom, then it should be requested from God who gives it generously and without disparagement, and so it will be given to you, 6 but the person who's asking should demonstrate their faith and not be doubting. That's because a person who doubts is like a wave on the sea that's just blown and tossed around 7 and a person like that shouldn't expect to get anything from the master 8 because that person is double-minded, and everything they attempt ends up in difficulty.

Behaviour of the poor and the wealthy

9 Those of humbler means can boast about their greatness 10 whereas the wealthy can boast about their weakness because they'll pass away just like the daisies in the grass.[2] 11 When the sun rises with its scorching heat and withers the grass, the flowers will drop and lose all their beauty. So too for rich people who'll fade away right in the middle of all their projects.

Testing and temptation

12 Any person who's enduring testing circumstances is fortunate, because once they've passed the test, they'll receive a crown of life that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) promised to those who love him. 13 No one should say 'It's God tempting me' when they're being tempted, because God can't be tempted to do evil and he doesn't tempt others, 14 but rather they're being tempted by their own lusts. They're being drawn away and enticed into what they know is wrong, 15 and after the desire is conceived it leads to sin, and once the sin is concluded it leads to death.

16 Don't be led astray, my dear brothers and sisters. 17 Every gift that's good and perfect comes from heaven. It comes down from the father of lights, none of which are changing or casting moving shadows. 18 Once he had decided it, he created us by his spoken commands so that we'd become a kind of special first 'harvest' out of all of his creatures.

Listening then doing

19 So my dear brothers and sisters, note this: Everyone should be quick to listen but slow to speak, and should be slow to get angry 20 because when people get very angry, it doesn't lead to the good behaviour that God expects. 21 So discard all moral filth and the evil that's plentiful, and humbly accept the message that's implanted in you all and which is capable of saving your souls.

22 Don't delude yourselves by just listening to the message, but put it into practice in your daily lives. 23 Anyone who is just a listener of the message and does nothing with it is like someone who looks at their face in a mirror 24 but goes away after having a look and then immediately forgets what they looked like. 25 However the person who investigates the perfect law that gives freedom, and then sticks with it, not being just an observer that forgets about it but rather a person who puts it into practice, this person will prosper in whatever they do.

26 If anyone supposes that they're religious but doesn't guard what comes out of their mouth, then that person's religion is only skin deep and hasn't affected their heart. 27 A person who wants to truly serve our God and father with a pure heart would be visiting orphans and widows in their difficulties and staying unstained by worldly ideas.

Avoiding favouritism

2:1 My dear brothers and sisters, as you live out your faith in our honoured master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah, don't show favouritism to others. 2 For example, if a man in nicely cut clothes and wearing an expensive gold ring came into to your meeting as well as a poor man in good, and every gift perfect from_above is, coming_down from the father of_ ~~the~~ _lights, with whom not there_is variation or of_shifting shadow. 18 Having_been_wished it, he_brought_ _forth us by_the_message of_truth, in_order that to_be us first-fruit a_certain of_the of_him creatures.

19 Be_having›_known, brothers of_me beloved. But let_be every person quick in_order that to_ _hear, slow in_order that to_speak, slow to anger, 20 for/because the_severe_anger of_a_human, the_righteousness of_god not is_producing. 21 Therefore having_put_away all filthiness and abundance of_evil, in gentleness receive the implanted message, the one being_able to_save the souls of_you_all. 22 And be_becoming doers of_the_message, and not only listeners deluding yourselves. 23 Because if anyone a_listener of_ _the_message is, and not a_doer, this one is_like to_man observing his face of_ ~~the~~ _existence of_ _him in a_mirror. 24 For/Because he_observed himself and has_gone_away, and immediately he_ _forgot what_kind he_was. 25 But the one having_ _investigated into the_law perfect, the law of_ ~~the~~ _freedom, and having_continued_with it, not a_ _listener of_forgetful having_become, but a_doer of_the_work, this one blessed in the doing of_him will_be. 26 If anyone is_supposing religious to_be, not bridling the_tongue of_himself, but seducing the_heart of_him, of_this one useless is his religion. 27 Religion pure and undefiled before our god and father this is: to_be_visiting orphans and widows in the tribulation of_them, spotless himself to_be_keeping from the world.

2:1 Brothers of_me, not with favouritism be_ _holding the faith of_the master of_us, Yaʸsous/(Yəhōshūʿa) chosen_one/messiah, of_ ~~the~~ _glory. 2 For/Because if may_come_in into the_synagogue of_you_all, a_man gold_ring, in clothing splendid, and may_come_in also a_poor man, in filthy clothing, 3 and you_all_may_look_ _at on the one wearing the clothing ~~the~~ splendid, and you_all_may_say: You be_sitting here good, and to_the poor you_all_may_say: You stand there, or: Be_sitting under the footstool of_me, 4 not you_all_were_distinguished among yourselves, and became judges with_speculations evil? 5 Hear, brothers of_me beloved: not ~~the~~ god chose the poor in_the world, rich in faith to_be, and heirs of_the kingdom which he_promised to_ _the ones loving him? 6 But you_all dishonoured the poor. Not the rich are_oppressing over_you_ _all, and they are_dragging you_all into courts? 7 Not they are_slandering the good name ~~which~~ having_been_called on you_all?

8 If however the_law you_all_are_accomplishing royal, according_to the scripture: You_will_be_ _loving the neighbour of_you as yourself, well you_all_are_doing. 9 But if you_all_are_showing_ _favouritism, sin you_all_are_doing, being_ _rebuked by the law as transgressors.
10 For/Because whoever all the law may_keep, but may_stumble in one thing, has_become of_all liable. 11 For/Because the one having_said: Not you_may_commit_adultery, said also: Not you_ _may_murder. And if not you_are_committing_ _adultery, but you_are_murdering you_have_ _become a_transgressor of_the_law. 12 Thus be_ _speaking, and thus be_doing, as by the_law of_ _freedom going to_be_being_judged.
13 For/Because the judgement merciless will_be to_the one not having_doing mercy. Is_ _triumphing mercy over_judgement.

14 What is profit, brothers of_me, if faith may_be_ _saying anyone, to_be_having but, works not may_be_having? Not is_able the faith to_save him? 15 If a_brother or a_sister naked may_be_ _being, and lacking of_ ~~the~~ _daily food, 16 and may_say anyone to_them from you_all: Be_going in peace, be_warming and be_satisfying, not but you_all_may_give to_them the necessary things for_their body, what is profit? 17 Thus also ~~the~~ faith, if not it_may_be_having works, dead it_is by itself. 18 But will_be_saying someone: You faith are_having, and_I works am_having. Show to_me the faith of_you without the works, and_I to_you will_be_showing by the works of_me ~~the~~ faith.

filthy clothes 3 and you told the well-dressed one, 'You sit here in this good chair,' while telling the poor man, 'You stand over here,' or 'You sit here on the mat,' 4 wouldn't that discrimination show that you have judged them with evil motives.
5 Listen my dear brothers and sisters, didn't God chose the poor in this world to be rich in faith and participants in the kingdom which he promises to those who love him? 6 But you dishonour the poor, even though it's the wealthier people who oppress you and bring court cases against you. 7 And aren't they the ones who slander the very God that you pray to?

Judgement and mercy

8 However if you are obeying the golden law, then when you love your neighbour as yourself,[3] you'll be doing well according to the scriptures. 9 But if you're showing favouritism, then you're all sinning by breaking the law. 10 Because anyone who tries to keep the law but slips up in one area, they're still guilty of breaking the law. 11 The same God who said, 'Don't commit adultery,'[4] also said, 'Don't murder,'[5] so if you're not committing adultery but you murder someone, then you've broken the law. 12 So speak and live your life knowing that you're going to be judged by the law that gives freedom, 13 because judgement will be dispensed without mercy to those who haven't been putting mercy into practice. Yes, mercy wins out over judgement.

Faith in action

14 My fellow believers, what would I gain if I said that someone had faith but it didn't alter how they live their life? Faith like that wouldn't be able to save them. 15 If a fellow believer is lacking clothes or food, 16 and one of you says to them, 'Go in peace and be warm and satisfied,' but don't help with their physical needs, what use would that be? 17 In other words, faith without the corresponding lifestyle is just dead.
18 No doubt someone will say, 'Well you have the faith and I do the good deeds.' So show me your faith without good deeds and I'll demonstrate my faith by my good deeds. 19 You believe that there's one God and you're right, but even the demons believe that and shudder. 20 But the vain person still wants to know if faith without good deeds is wasted? 21 Wasn't our ancestor Avraham considered right with God due to his actions when he offered up his son Yitshak (Isaac) on the altar?[6] 22 So his faith was working together with his actions, and it was by his actions that his faith was perfected. 23 This fulfilled the scripture that says, 'Avraham believed in God and so he was consider to be right with God,[7] and was called a friend of God.'[8] 24 So you can see that a person is considered right with God due to his actions, and not just by their 'faith'. 25 Similarly the prostitute Rahav was made right by her actions when she welcomed the Hebrew messengers and then helped them get away by a different route.[9] 26 Just like a body is dead once the spirit has departed, so too faith is dead if it's not demonstrated by good deeds.

3:1 My brothers and sisters, not everyone should desire to be a teacher because we know that us teachers will be judged more strictly. 2 We all stumble in many ways. If there was someone who never said anything wrong, this person would be perfect and also able to have self-control over their entire body. 3 With a horse, we can put a bridle into its mouth so we can make them do what we want, and so we can direct the whole animal. 4 Similarly, even huge ships that are being driven on by strong winds are controlled by a small rudder and can be steered wherever the captain desires. 5 So too the tongue is only small but can make extensive claims.

Yes, a tiny flame can ignite an entire forest 6 and the tongue is a fire producing a torrent of depravity. It's a part of our physical body but capable of staining us all over and setting our worlds on fire, because the tongue itself is set on fire from hell. 7 Every kind of wild animal and birds and reptiles and sea creature can be tamed and has been 19 You are_believing that one is ~~the~~ god. Well you_are_doing, even the demons are_believing and are_shuddering. 20 But you_are_wanting to_ _know, Oh person vain, that ~~the~~ faith apart_from ~~the~~ works idle is? 21 Abra'am/('Avrāhām) the father of_us not by works was_justified, having_ _offered_up Isa'ak/(Yitsḥāq) the son of_him on the altar? 22 You_are_seeing that his faith was_ _working_together with_the works of_him, and by his works his faith was_perfected. 23 And was_ _fulfilled the scripture ~~which~~ saying: And believed Abra'am in_- god, and it_was_counted to_him for righteousness, and a_friend of_god he_was_ _called. 24 You_all_are_seeing that by works is_ _being_justified a_person, and not by faith only. 25 And likewise also Ṛaḳab/(Rāḥāv) the prostitute not by works was_justified, having_ _welcomed the messengers and by_another way having_sent_forth? 26 For/Because as the body apart_from spirit dead is, thus also ~~the~~ faith apart_from works dead is.

3:1 Not many teachers be_becoming, brothers of_ _me, having_known that greater judgement we_ _will_be_receiving. 2 For/Because in_many ways we_are_stumbling all. If anyone in his_message not is_stumbling, this a_perfect man is, powerful to_bridle also all his body. 3 And, if of_the horses ~~the~~ bridles into the mouths we_are_putting, in_ _order that to_be_being_persuaded them to_us, also all the body of_them we_are_directing. 4 Behold, also the ships, so_great being, and by winds hard being_driven, is_being_directed by the_least rudder, wherever the impulse of_the one straightening is_wishing. 5 Thus also the tongue a_small member is, and great things is_ _boasting. Behold, how_much fire, how_much a_ _forest is_kindling. 6 And the tongue is a_fire, the world of_ ~~the~~ _unrighteousness, the tongue is_ _being_set_down among the members of_us, ~~which~~ staining all the body, and setting_on_fire the course of_ ~~the~~ _existence, and being_set_on_ _fire by ~~the~~ geenna. 7 For/Because every nature of_wild_beasts both and of_birds, of_reptiles both and of_sea creatures, is_being_tamed and has_ _been_tamed by_the nature ~~the~~ human, 8 but the 13 Who is wise and understanding among you_ _all? Him_let_show out_of his good conduct the works of_him in the_gentleness of_wisdom.

14 But if jealousy bitter you_all_are_having, and selfish_ambition in the heart of_you_all, not be_ _boasting and be_lying against the truth. 15 Not is this the wisdom from_above coming_down, but earthly, soulish, demonic. 16 For/Because where jealousy and selfish_ambition is, there is disturbance and every evil matter. 17 But the from_above wisdom, first indeed pure is, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of_mercy and of_fruits good, unceasing, unhypocritical. 18 And the_fruit of_righteousness in peace is_being_ _sown, by_the ones making peace.

4:1 From_where wars and from_where quarrels among you_all are? Not is_it from_here from the gratifications of_you_all, ~~which~~ warring in the members of_you_all? 2 You_all_are_desiring and not you_all_are_having, you_all_are_murdering and you_all_are_warring. Not you_all_are_having, because_of that not to_be_requesting you_all,

_requesting, in_order_that in the gratifications of_you_all you_all_may_spend it. 4 Adultresses.
Not you_all_have_known that ~~the~~ friendship with_ tamed by humankind 8 but no one is able to tame the tongue—it's an erratically evil body part that's full of deadly poison. 9 We use it to bless our mas- ter and father, yet we use it to curse our fellow humans who are made in God's image.[10] 10 Both blessings and curses come out of the same mouth!

My brothers and sisters, it shouldn't be like that.
11 Surely a spring flowing out of a single cavity can't produce both good-tasting and bitter water.
12 A fig tree can't produce olives and a grape vine can't produce figs, my brothers and sisters, just like a salty supply can't give fresh water.

Heavenly wisdom

13 Any of you that are wise and understanding should demonstrate their good deeds and wisdom by their godly living. 14 But if you are full of bitter jealousy or selfish ambition, don't be boasting or denying the truth 15 because none of that came down to you from heaven, but on the contrary it's earthly and soulish and demonic. 16 Wherever you find jealousy and selfish ambition, you'll also find disharmony and all kinds of evil. 17 In contrast, the wisdom that comes from God is pure, peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good behaviour, unceasing, and not hypocritical. 18 Those who desire peace sow the seeds that will produce godly behaviour.

Don't befriend the world

4:1 Where do you imagine that the fights and quarrels among you all originate? Isn't it because of the ambitions that surface inside you? 2 You all have wants that are not fulfilled so it leads to murder.
You're jealous and not able to get everything you want, so you quarrel and fight. You don't have, because you haven't asked God, 3 and when you all do ask, it doesn't get answered because you ask with wrong motives—trying get what you want to spend on your own wants. 4 You're just like prosti-tutes. Don't you realise that if you befriend the world then you're opposing God, so anyone who befriends the world makes themself an enemy of God. 5 Do you think that the scripture means nothing when it says, 'God's spirit jealously longs to live in us'? 6 However, he's good at giving grace so that's why it says, 'God opposes proud people but gives grace to humble ones.'[11] 7 So strive then to do what God wants of you. Resist the devil and he will flee away from you. 8 When you all approach God, he will move closer to you. So keep your hands clean you sinners, and keep your hearts pure you who can't make up your minds about God. 9 Be miserable, and mourn and weep. Change your laughing into crying and your happiness into sadness 10 because when you humble yourselves towards Yahweh, he will be the one to lift you up.

Avoid judging others

11 My fellow believers, don't make false accusations against each other because anyone who falsely accuses or judges a fellow believer, is slandering against the law and judging it. But if you're the ones judging the law, then you're not a follower of the law but a judge of it. 12 There's only one lawgiver and judge and that's the one who is able to save and to destroy. So who do you think you are to judge your neighbour!

Avoid boasting and presumption

13 Now you all might say, 'Today or tomorrow we'll go into the city to work there for a year and do some trading to make some money.'[12] 14 But you don't know what tomorrow will bring, because what are your lives? You're like a vapour that appears for a brief period and then it's gone. 15 So instead of saying that, you should say, 'If the master wants it, we will live and we'll do this or that.' 16 But as it is, you've all been boasting in your arrogance and that's an evil attitude. 17 Any person who knows that there's some good thing that they should be doing, but doesn't do it, is sinning.

The bad ending of wealthy prigs

5:1 So you wealthy people, come and cry about the miseries that are about to hit you all. 2 Your riches have rotted and your clothes have become moth-eaten.[13] 3 Your gold and silver has corroded, and that corrosion will speak out against you and will eat away your bodies like fire because you

But resist against_the devil, and he_will_be_fleeing from you_all. 8 Near to_ ~~the~~ _god, and he_will_be_nearing to_you_all. Cleanse your_hands, sinners, and purify your_ _hearts, double-minded. 9 Be_miserable, and mourn, and weep. The laughter of_you_all to mourning let_be_turned, and your joy to gloominess. 10 Be_humbled before the_master, and he_will_be_exalting you_all.

11 Not be_slandering against_one_another, brothers. The one slandering against_his_brother or judging the brother of_him, is_slandering against_the_law and is_judging the_law. But if the_law you_are_judging, not you_are a_doer of_ _the_law, but a_judge. 12 one there_is lawgiver and judge, the one being_able to_save and to_ _destroy. But you who are, the one judging your neighbour?

13 Be_come now, you_all saying: Today or tomorrow, we_will_be_going into this ~~the~~ city, and we_will_be_working there a_year, and we_will_ _be_merchandising, and we_will_be_profiting. 14 Who not are_knowing on_the day next will_be, because/for what is life of_you_all? For/Because a_vapour you_all_are, ~~which~~ for a_little time appearing, then also being_perishing. 15 Instead_ _of that to_be_saying you_all ought: If the master may_will, both we_will_be_living and we_will_be_ _doing, this or that. 16 But now you_all_are_ _boasting in the arrogance of_you_all. All boasting such evil is. 17 Therefore to_having_ _known one good to_be_doing, and not doing it, sin to_him it_is.

And you_all_ _lived_luxuriously, you_all_nourished the hearts of_you_all in the_day of_slaughter. 6 You_all_ _convicted, you_all_murdered the righteous, yet_ _not he_is_opposing against_you_all.

7 Therefore be_patient, brothers, until the coming of_the master. Behold, the judge before the doors has_stood. 10 An_ _example take, brothers, of_ ~~the~~ _misfortune, and of_ ~~the~~ _patience, the prophets, who spoke in name of_the_master. 11 Behold, we_are_ _counting_blessed the ones having_endured. The endurance of_Iōb/(ʾIyyōv) you_all_heard, and the outcome of_the_master you_all_saw, that much_ _compassionate is the master and compassionate. 12 Before but, all things, brothers of_me, not be_swearing, neither ~~the~~ by_heaven, nor the earth, nor other any oath, but let_be of_ _you_all your Yes be, yes, and your No be, no, in_ _order_that not under judgement you_all_may_ _fall.

stored up wealth in this final age. 4 The unpaid wages of the workers who harvested your fields are crying out[14] and the desperate requests of those harvesters have been heard by army commander Yahweh. 5 You have indulged yourselves and lived luxuriously but you've been fattening yourselves up as the time for your slaughter approaches. 6 You all convicted innocent people and had them executed, even when they weren't doing anything against you.

Wait patiently

7 So my fellow believers, be patient until the return of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) our master. You see how farmers look forward to the fruit to be ready—waiting patiently even while they monitor the early and the late rains. 8 All of you should be patient too, and encourage each other in your faith because the master's return is closer now.

9 And don't moan about each other, my fellow believers, so that you all won't be judged for it, because truly, the judge is just outside about to come in the doors. 10 Look at the prophets who spoke out the messages from Yahweh—they're good examples of suffering and patience for you to follow 11 and now we consider them as heroes for their endurance. You all heard about Iyov's (Job's) endurance[15] and then you yourselves witnessed what happened to Yeshua our master, and you saw his compassion and mercy.[16]

12 But most importantly, brothers and sisters, don't swear by heaven or earth or by any other kind of oath but simply be honest so that 'yes' means yes and 'no' means no,[17] then you won't end up getting judged.

The power of prayer and restoration

13 Is anyone among you going through hard times? If so, they should be praying. Is anyone feeling cheerful? If so, they should be singing praises. 14 Is anyone among you sick? If so, that person should call the leaders of the assembly and get them to anoint them with oil[18] and to pray for them in the name and authority of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) our master. 15 Then that declaration of faith will save the weak person and the master will lift him/her up, and if they've sinned, then their sins will also be forgiven. 16 So confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that all of you can be healed, because when an obedient believer prays, it has a real effect. 17 Eliyah (Elijah) was a person just similar to us, and when he prayed for the rain to stop, it stopped, and it didn't rain again for three and a half years.[19] 18 Then he prayed again, and the rain came down from the sky and the land sprouted and started to bear fruit again.[20]

19 My fellow believers, if any of you have wandered from the truth and someone helps them back, 20 then you should know that someone who helps a sinner to come back from their deceitful ways will be saving their soul from death, and their many sins can be forgiven.[21]

Paulos's letter to the assemblies in Galatia

Introduction

At the time when the preaching of the good message about Yeshua began to spread and it started being accepted by non-Jews, an important question arose: whether or not it's necessary for a person wanting to accept the message to also obey the Law of Mosheh. Paulos argues that it's not necessary because it's by faith that we can receive life from the messiah, and it's by faith that a person is considered guiltless in God's eyes. But there among the groups of believers in Galasya (a province of Rome in Asia Minor, now part of modern Turkey), there were people who disagreed with Paulos and believed that it's still necessary for a follower of Yeshua to obey all of Mosheh's laws in order to become righteous in God's sight.

In Paulos's letter to the assemblies in Galatia, he wrote so that people who had started to follow deviant teachings might return to the true faith. He began this by explaining the reasons that he himself became a missionary. He showed that his becoming a missionary wasn't because he was selected by the people, but that God himself spoke to him, and what's more, he was specifically sent by God to the non-Jews. As a result of that, he strove to ensure that people understood that there's only one way to restore our relationship with God, and that's through faith in God's son.

Nearer the end of his letter, he answered those who say that it's wrong not to obey Mosheh's law. Paulos stated that he would be afraid to leave behind God's goodness and mercy just to become a slave of Mosheh's rules. Again he advised that it's necessary for them to listen to God's spirit so that they're changed and don't follow the sinful desires of their own bodies.

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Paulos, one of Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') ambassadors, not chosen by people or any human desire, but chosen directly by Yeshua the messiah and God the father who raised Yeshua from the dead. 2 On behalf of all the believers here, I'm writing to the assemblies of believers in Galatia.

3 May you all experience the grace and peace that comes from God the father and our master Yeshua the messiah, 4 the one who gave himself for our sins to rescue us from this present, evil age, according to God our father's desire— 5 our father who'll be praised even through future ages. That's how it is.

There's only one good message

6 I'm astounded that you people have so quickly replaced the good message that you heard from the one who called you to the messiah's grace. You've replaced it with another narrative 7 which is not at all another good message, but rather comes from those who are confusing you and wanting to alter the actual good message about the messiah. 8 Even if either we ourselves or even a messenger from heaven were to preach a different 'good message' which disagrees with the good message that we first preached to you, then they should be cursed. 9 As we've previously said, and even now say it again: if anyone preaches a 'good message' to you that's different from what you already heard, let that person be cursed.

10 Am I trying to please and persuade people or God? If I was still trying to please people, I wouldn't be worthy to be one of the messiah's slaves.

Paulos was commissioned directly by God

11 I'm letting you know, brothers and sisters, that the good message I proclaimed didn't just come from human ideas. 12 It didn't come from my ideas, nor was I taught it by some other person, but it was revealed to me by Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah.

13 Brothers and sisters, you've heard about my previous behaviour, when as a strict Yehudi (Jew), I was extreme in persecuting the assembly of Truly.

6 I_am_marvelling that thus quickly, you_all_are_ _replacing from the one having_called you_all in the_grace of_chosen_one/messiah, to another good_message, 7 which is not another one, except ~~not/lest~~ some are who disturbing you_all, and wanting to_alter the good_message of_the chosen_one/messiah. 8 But even if we or a_ _messenger out_of heaven may_be_good_ _message_preaching you_all contrary_to what we_good_message_preached to_you_all, let_ him _ _be a_curse. 9 As we_have_previously_said, even now I_am_saying again, if anyone to_you_all is_ _good_message_preaching contrary_to what you_ _all_received, let_ him _be a_curse.
10 For/Because now I_am_persuading people or ~~the~~ god? Or I_am_seeking to_be_bringing_ _pleasure to_people? If I_was_ still _bringing_ _pleasure to_people, I_was not ~~wishfully~~ a_slave of_ _chosen_one/messiah.

God's people, and was trying to destroy them.[1] 14 I was progressing in Youdaismos quicker than many of my contemporaries, being so much more zealous in observing our ancient traditions.[2]

15 But God, who'd planned this from even before I was born, called me,[3] because of his grace, 16 so that he could reveal his son through me, and I could preach the good message to non-Jews. I didn't rush to get advice from others, 17 nor did I head to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) to consult with the ambassadors there that preceded me, but I went away to Arav and then later returned to Damesek (Damascus). 18 Then finally, after three years, I went to Yerushalem to get to know Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros), and stayed with him for just over two weeks.[4] 19 I didn't meet any of the other ambassadors, other than Yeshua's brother, Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos), 20 and what I'm writing to you, I'm writing with God watching, so I'm not lying.

21 Then I went into the regions of Aram (Syria) and Kilikia. 22 The assemblies back in Yehudah (Judea) that believe in the messiah didn't know me by sight, 23 but had only heard about me—that the person who'd once been persecuting them was now preaching the good message about the faith himself, 24 and they praised God because of what had happened to me.

The ambassadors accept Paulos and Barnabas

2:1 It was fourteen years later that I made the uphill trek to Yerushalem (Jerusalem)[5] with Barnabas, taking Titos along as well. 2 God had told me to go there, and I explained to the leaders there the good message that I'd been proclaiming to the non-Jews. I did it privately, to double-check that I wasn't somehow just acting vainly. 3 But not even Titos, who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised, even though he's a Greek. 4 However, some false brothers were sneaked in to monitor the freedoms that we have in the messiah, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), and they wanted us to be enslaved to their traditions. 5 But we didn't submit to them even for one hour, so that the truth of the good message could continue amongst you.

6 And those people who were supposed leaders (although what they were didn't mean much to me, because God doesn't go by appearances)[6] didn't really contribute anything useful, as far as I could tell. 7 Instead, they saw that I've been entrusted with taking the good message to the non-Jews, just like Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) was entrusted to take it to the Yehudim (Jews), 8 because the same God who worked in Kefa to assign him to the Yehudim also worked in me to assign me to the non-Jews. 9 So, seeing the grace that God had shown towards me, Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos) and Kefa and Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), the apparent pillars of the assemblies, accepted me and Barnabas as equals, so that we could go to the non-Jews and them to the Yehudim. 10 Also, they said that we need to keep helping the poor, but I was eager to do that anyway.

Paulos scolds Kefa

11 But when Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) came to Antiokeia, I had to oppose him to his face, because he'd messed up. 12 He'd been eating with non-Jews, but when Ya'akov (Jacob) and his companions arrived, he about-faced and started eating separately, because he was afraid of being criticised by the strict Yehudim (Jews). 13 The other Yehudim with him were also being hypocrites—so much so that even Barnabas joined their hypocrisy— 14 but when I saw that they weren't being honest with the truth of the good message, I had to say to Kefa in front of everybody, "If you Yehudim are living more like non-Jews, and not like strict Yehudim, how can you force non-Jews to obey all the Jewish traditions?"

That could never be so! 18 If I rebuild what I've already torn down, that would show me to be a law-breaker. 19 It was the law that showed me that I needed die to the idea of following the law, so that I could live to serve God instead. I was executed on a post along with the messiah,[9] 20 and I'm not living any more, but it's the messiah now living in me. The way that my body stays alive now is by living by faith in God's son—the one who loved me and allowed himself to be executed for me. 21 I'm not rejecting God's grace, because if the law could make me guiltless, that would mean that the messiah died unnecessarily.

3:1 You foolish Galatians, who tricked you into changing? You know that Yeshua the messiah was publicly known to have been executed by being nailed to a post.[10] 2 So I just want to ask you one thing: did you receive the spirit by obeying all the rules, or was it by faith when you heard? 3 So aren't you being foolish? Having begun in the spirit, now you people are focusing back on bodily discipline. 4 You vainly endured so many things—it was vain wasn't it? 5 So the one who gave the spirit to you and worked miracles among you, did all that come about from obeying the rules or by the faith that came from hearing the good message?

is a descendant of Avraham.[12] 8 The writers of the scriptures foresaw that God was going to make non-Jews guiltless through faith when he promised to Avraham that all the nations would be blessed through him,[13] 9 so those who have faith that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) is the messiah will be blessed just as Avraham was blessed for believing God.

10 All those who strive to be saved by obeying the law are under a curse, because it's written that 'everyone is cursed who doesn't live by and fulfil everything that's been written down in the law scroll'.[14] 11 It's clear that the law can't make anyone guiltless in God's view, because it's written that 'those who are guiltless will live by faith'.[15] 12 And the law doesn't produce faith, but 'the person who obeys these things is the one who will live'.[16]

13 The messiah saved us from the law's curse by becoming the curse for our sake, because it's written, 'anyone who's hung on a tree is cursed'.[17] 14 He paid the price for us so that the blessing for Avraham would also reach the non-Jews through the messiah Yeshua and we'd all be able to receive the spirit through faith.

The law didn't annul the promise

15 Brothers and sisters, consider our human ways: once an agreement has been accepted, one party can't just reject it or add conditions. 16 The promises were given to Avraham and to his offspring. It doesn't say 'offsprings (plural)' but is only referring to the one who's the messiah. 17 So what I'm telling you is that the agreement with Avraham that was previously ratified by God was not annulled 430 years later[18] when the law was given to Mosheh (Moses), and nor was the promise nullified, 18 because if the inheritance now came by obeying the law, then it could no longer be the result of the promise, but God had already granted it to Avraham via the promise.[19] 19 So what was the law for then? Because of sinfulness, it was added until the promised descendant would come. It was directed through messengers and entrusted to Mosheh as a mediator. 20 You don't need a mediator if there's only one party involved, and God is one.

Coming of age for the inheritance

21 So does the law oppose God's promises? Certainly not, because if the law was able to give life, you could become guiltless by obeying the law. 22 The scriptures explain that everyone is imprisoned by sin so that by faith in Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah, the promise could be granted to those who believe.

23 Before faith could come, we were guarded under the law—imprisoned so that faith could be revealed. 24 So the law was our tutor until the messiah came so that we could then be made guiltless by faith, 25 and now that we've come to faith, we're no longer under our tutor.

26 So you're all God's children through faith in the messiah, Yeshua, 27 because everyone who's been immersed to obey the messiah is now cloaked in the messiah. 28 So there's no Yehudi (Jew) or Greek, no slave or free person, no male or female, because you're all identified as being in the messiah, Yeshua. 29 And if you're in the messiah, then you're now Avraham's descendant, and so you're heirs of that promise.[20]

4:1 But as long as the heir is underage, he's no wealthier than a slave (even though he'll become the master), 2 but he's under guardians and managers until he reaches the age that his father specified. 3 That's how it is with us—when we were infants we were enslaved by this world's principles, 4 but at the appointed time, God sent his son down to be given birth to by a woman and to live under Mosheh's (Moses') law 5 so that he could buy back those enslaved under the law and they could now be adopted as children with an inheritance.[21]

6 So because you're now children, God sent his son's spirit down into our hearts as we call out, 'Father, father.' 7 Now you're no longer slaves, but children with full rights, and as children, heirs of God's promise.

Paulos's concerns about their faith

8 When you didn't know God, you served others who aren't really gods at all. 9 But now that you do know God, or rather now that God knows you, why would you turn back again to useless and inferior beliefs, to serve them all over again? 10 You people observe special holidays and certain months and seasons and years. 11 I worry that maybe I've wasted my time helping you.

12 I implore you to become like me, brothers and sisters, because I'm also just like you. You haven't wronged me in any way, 13 but you know that it was a result of my fleshly weakness that I originally preached the good message to you.[22] 14 Yet you didn't mock or despise me, brothers and sisters, for this trial of my flesh, but rather you received me as God's messenger like you might have received the messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) himself. 15 So where are your generous attitudes now? I know that back then, you would have almost dug your own eyes out to give them to me. 16 Have I now become your enemy just because I told you people the truth?

17 Those others have worked hard to try to win you over, but not for good reasons—they want to cut you off so that you'll be enthusiastic about them. 18 It's good to be enthusiastic about things that are always good, and not only at the times when I'm with you, brothers and sisters. 19 My dear ones, who I'm again labouring with in childbirth until the messiah becomes part of you, 20 I wanted to be there with you now, and to speak quite differently than this, because I'm puzzled about you.

that you're not even hearing what the law is? 22 It's written in the scriptures that Avraham had two sons: one son with the slave girl Hagar,[23] and one with the free woman.[24] 23 The slave girl's son was born because of human actions, but in contrast, the free woman's son was a result of God's promise. 24 So if we use this as an illustration, there are two agreements: one is from Mt. Sinay which relates to Hagar and gives birth to enslaved people. 25 Hagar's Mt. Sinay is in Arav and corresponds to the present earthly Yerushalem (Jerusalem) in slavery along with her children. 26 However, the heavenly Yerushalem, which is our mother, is free, 27 because it's been written in the scriptures:

'Be glad barren woman,
you who have never borne a child.
Be bold and shout,
you who have never been in labour,
because the lonely woman now has many children, even more than the woman with a husband.'[25]

28 And you, brothers and sisters, are children of the promise, like Yitshak (Isaac), 29 but back then the one born because of human actions persecuted the one born because of the spirit,[26] and that's how it continues now. 30 But what do the scriptures say? 'Send away the slave girl and her son, because the slave girl's son won't be getting the inheritance alongside the free woman's son.'[27] 31 So, brothers and sisters, we're not descendants of the slave girl, but of the free woman.

Don't let the law destroy your faith in debt to obeying all of the law. 4 You were released from the messiah when you moved to trusting in the law in order to be right with God—you fell away from grace at that point. 5 We who are in the spirit are eagerly waiting for the righteousness that we're expecting to receive by faith, 6 because in the messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), it's not circumcision that achieves anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith worked out through love.

7 You people were running the race so well—who held you back from believing the truth? 8 It wasn't the one who called you. 9 A little bit of yeast can make a whole loaf of bread rise.[28] 10 I'm trusting in Yahweh that you won't be thinking anything different from the truth. The one who'll bear the judgement is the one who's been confusing you, whoever that was.

11 But, brothers and sisters, if I was still preaching the Jewish rules, why would I still be being persecuted? If I was still preaching that, then talking about dying on a post wouldn't even be offensive. 12 I wish that the ones upsetting you people by suggesting cutting off bits would cut it all off.

13 Brothers and sisters, you were called into freedom. That doesn't mean that you should use the freedom to do whatever your minds desire, but rather, you should be serving each other in love, 14 because the entire law can be fulfilled by obeying one rule: Love your neighbour like yourself.[29] 15 But if you're snapping at and bullying each other, watch out, or else you'll destroy each other's faith.

Being led by God's spirit

16 I'll tell you: allow yourselves to be led by the spirit, and then your earthly desires won't triumph, 17 because our earthly desires oppose the spirit, and the spirit opposes our earthly desires—they oppose each other, so that's why you end up doing things that you didn't really want to do.[30] 18 But if you're being led by the spirit then you're not trying to earn your way to God by obeying all of Mosheh's (Moses') rules.

19 The actions that come from our earthly desires include: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, 20 idolatry, sorcery, hostility, strife, jealousies, rages, selfish ambitions, arguing, divisions, 21 envy, drunkenness, carousing, and other similar things which I've mentioned previously. And as I also said previously, the people that do these things won't be inheriting God's kingdom.
22 But the end result of having God's spirit is to show love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faith, 23 gentleness, and self-control—none of Mosheh's laws are against any of these! 24 And for the messiah Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') apprentices, earthly desires need to be executed on a post, along with their passions and lusts. 25 If we're being led by God's spirit in our living, then we should also be aligning our values by the spirit. 26 We have to take care not to become conceited, not to provoke each other, and not to envy each other.

Helping each other

6:1 Brothers and sisters, if a person has been caught sinning, you spiritual people need to guide the person with a spirit of gentleness, at the same time looking at your own behaviour, in case you yourselves are also tempted. 2 Help those who are going through difficulties or pain, and in doing so you'll fulfil the messiah's law, 3 because anyone who supposes themself to be someone special, but isn't, is only deceiving themself. 4 Evaluate your own actions, but keep your boasts to yourself and don't tell others, 5 because each person must face up to their own issues.
6 Those who are being taught should share all their blessings with those who are teaching.
7 Don't be fooled—you can't get away with mocking God, because what you sow determines what you'll harvest. 8 Anyone who sows seed to feed their earthly desires will harvest earthly corruption, but anyone who sows spiritual seeds will harvest eternal life from the spirit. 9 Don't be discouraged from doing good things, because we'll have a good harvest in due course if we don't give up. 10 So then, as time allows it, we should be working towards good for everybody, and especially for fellow believers.

Paulos's final advice

11 Look how big these letters are when it's my own handwriting. 12 There's so many people that want to look good in earthly terms, and they're the ones trying to persuade you that you have to fulfil all of Mosheh's (Moses) rules—they don't want to be persecuted concerning the messiah dying on a post. 13 Even those who are circumcised don't obey all the rules, but they'd still like for your men to be circumcised so that they can claim them as followers. 14 As for me, may I never boast, except about our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah, whose life was cut off on the post. Through him, it's like the entire world has been cut off from me, and I've been cut off from the world, 15 because obeying Mosheh's law is nothing, and not needing to obey it is nothing, but being a new creation is everything. 16 And everyone who follows that principle, may peace and mercy be on them and on God's Yisrael (Israel).

17 As for the other troubles, don't bother me with them, because I carry the marks on my body of someone who follows Yeshua.

18 May the grace from our master Yeshua the messiah be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. That's how I want it to be.

Paulos's first letter to the believers in Thessalonikai

Introduction

Thessalonikai was the capital city of the Romaios province of Makedonia (and is now the large, modern city of Thessaloniki in Greece). Paulos taught God's message there in Thessalonikai after he left Filippou (Acts 17:1-4). Before long, there was disagreement from Yehudim upset about Paulos's preaching to non-Jews (Acts 17:5-9). So Paulos was forced to leave Thessalonikai and he went on to Beroia (Acts 17:10-13). Then after a while he went on to Athainai (Acts 17:14-15). Finally, he continued on to Korinthos (Acts 18:1-17). On his arrival there, he heard Timotheos's account of his other work. He had been told by Timotheos about the what the group of believers there in Thessalonikai had been facing. Paulos wrote this First letter of Paulos to the believers in Thessalonikai in order to encourage and strengthen the believers there. He gave thanks for the account about their faith and their love. He also reminded them about the lifestyle that he demonstrated to them while he was still there with them. He answered questions again from the believers concerning the return of the messiah, and if the deceased believers would come back to life before the messiah returns. Paulos used this letter to tell them it's necessary that they continue to work in their day-to-day jobs while they wait for the return of the messiah.

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Paulos, Silas, and Timotheos.

It's written to the assembly of believers in God the father and the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah there in Thessalonikai.[1]

May God give his grace and peace to all of you.

Paulos praises the believers

2 We here are always thanking God for all of you and remembering you in our prayers—always 3 remembering before our God and father about your striving for the faith and the labour of love and the endurance of the hope in our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah. 4 Brothers and sisters, we know that you're all loved by God—the one who chose you. 5 The good message that we brought wasn't just any old message, but also comes in the holy spirit with power and with full assurance of its truth. You know how we lived among you because of our concern for you all, 6 and then you all imitated both us and the master after receiving the message in tribulation with a lot of excitement about the holy spirit[2]— 7 so much so that you all became examples to all the believers in Makedonia and Akaia. 8 So now the message of the master has been heard not only in Makedonia and Akaia, but in every place where your faith towards God has been seen—so that now we don't even need to say anything. 9 They've been reporting back to us about kindly we were accepted by you all and how you all turned from idols to God, to serve the living and true God 10 and waiting for his son, Yeshua to return from the heavens. Yeshua is the one that he brought back to life and who rescues us from God's severe anger which is coming.

Paulos recalls his visit to Thessalonikai

2:1 Brothers and sisters, you yourselves know that our going to Thessalonikai wasn't wasted, 2 but after previously suffering and being mistreated in Filippou (Philippi),[3] we spoke boldly at your place with God's help, to tell you all the good message from God despite a lot of opposition there.[4] 3 As we recommend a change in your lifestyles, we don't do it with deception or impurity or deceit, 4 but since God has approved us and entrusted the good message to us, that's what we talk about. We don't aim to bring pleasure to people, but rather to bring them to God—the one who approves our inner motives. 5 As you all know, we never once came with a message of flattery, nor did we come under any pretenses (God is our witness) trying to get anything from you, 6 nor did we try to earn respect from people—neither from you all nor from anyone else 7 even though we could request support as ambassadors of Messiah. But we became unsophisticated among you, just like children, or like a breast-feeding mother who cherishes her own children. 8 So in longing for you all like that, we were happy to share with you all—not only the good message from God, but also exposing our own lives because you all became dear to us. 9 Brothers and sisters, you're remembering our work and the hardship that we endured, working day and night so that we wouldn't burden any of you as we proclaimed good message from God.

10 You're all witnesses, and God also, as to how devoutly and justly and blamelessly we were to the believers, 11 just as each one of you who's a father to his own children has known 12 how to encourage and to console them. We testified to you so that you all would live lives worthy of God—the one who invited you into his kingdom and to share his honour.

13 We also never stop thanking God that when you accepted God's message that you heard from us, it wasn't a message from humans, but truly was a message from God who is working in all of you who believed. 14 Brothers and sisters, you became imitators of the other assemblies of God in Yehudah (Judea) which are founded on Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus). You all suffered the same things from your own countrymen that the strict Yehudim (Jews) did to them.[5] 15 They executed their own prophets as well as the master

Yeshua. They drove us out,[6] displeasing God and contrary to all people— 16 forbidding us from telling non-Jews that they need to be saved so that they stay in their sins, but God's severe anger will finish them off.

Paulos's desire to visit Thessalonikai again

17 But we, brothers and sisters, have been cut off from you for a while, but only physically and not in our hearts, in fact we long to see you even more. 18 We wanted to come and see you all—I, Paulos, even tried twice to come—but Satan held us back. 19 Because who is it that encourages and pleases us and that we can brag about? Won't it be you all there in front of our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) when he returns, 20 because you all make us both happy and proud.

3:1 When we could endure it no longer, we were happy to be left alone in Athainai.[7] 2 We sent Timotheos, who's our brother and God's servant in the messiah's good message, so that he could strengthen you all and encourage you in your faith 3 so that no one will be upset by these difficulties because you all know that God has appointed us for those. 4 Also, when we were with you all previously, we told you that we were going to be oppressed, and then it happened as you know. 5 So again when I could no longer endure it, I sent Timotheos to find out about your faith, just in case you'd been tempted by the tempter and then our work there would have been wasted.

6 But now Timotheos's returned here to us,[8] telling us the good news about your faith and love, and how you're always mentioning good things about us and wanting to see us, just like we'd like to see all of you. 7 So even in our distress and sufferings, we're comforted by your faith, brothers and sisters 8 because now we can live happily since you're all standing firm in Yahweh. 9 We're not able to repay God for the thankfulness that we have about you, because we are certainly thrilled in God's presence because of you all.

_order that to_see of_you_all the face, and to_ _prepare the lacking things in_the faith of_you_ _all? 11 And himself the god and father of_us, and the master of_us, Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʹa), might_ _direct the way of_us to you_all. 12 And you_all the master might_be_plentiful and might_be_ _plentiful ~~the~~ in_love toward one_another, and toward all, just_as also we toward you_all, 13 in_ _order that to_strengthen of_you_all the hearts, blameless in holiness before the god and father of_us, at the coming of_the master of_us,
Ya^{y}sous, with all the holy ones of_him. Truly.

4:1 Therefore finally, brothers, we_are_asking you_all and we_are_exhorting in the_master Ya^{y}sous, as you_all_received from us, ~~which~~ how it_is_fitting you_all to_be_walking and to_be_ _bringing_pleasure to_god (as even you_all_are_ _walking), in_order_that you_all_may_be_being_ _plentiful more. 2 For/Because you_all_have_ _known what_all charges we_gave to_you_all through the master Ya^{y}sous. 3 For/Because this is the_will of_ ~~the~~ _god, the holiness of_you_all, to_be_keeping_away you_all from ~~the~~ sexual_ _immorality, 4 to_have_known each of_you_all the of_himself vessel, to_be_acquiring in holiness and honour, 5 not in the_passion of_lust, just_as also the pagans ~~which~~ not having_known ~~the~~ god, 6 ~~which~~ not to_be_going_beyond and to_be_ _exploiting in the matter the brother of_him, because avenging is the_master concerning all these things, as also we_previously_said to_you_ _all and we_testified. 7 For/Because not called us ~~the~~ god to impurity, but in holiness. 8 So_then the one rejecting this, not a_human is_rejecting, but ~~the~~ god, the one giving the spirit of_him ~~the~~ holy to you_all. 9 And concerning ~~the~~ brotherly_love, no need you_all_are_having for_me to_be_writing to_you_all, because/for yourselves you_all god-taught are, in_order that to_be_loving one_ _another. 10 For/Because also you_all_are_doing it toward all the brothers, who are in all ~~the~~ Makedonia. But we_are_exhorting you_all, brothers, to_be_being_plentiful more, 11 and to_ _be_being_ambitious to_be_living_quietly and to_ _be_doing your own things, and to_be_working with_your own hands of_you_all, as to_you_all we_commanded, 12 in_order_that you_all_may_ _be_walking properly toward the ones outside, and of_nothing need you_all_may_be_having.

Readers' Version

10 Day and night we're strongly requesting God that we'll be able to go and see you all again, and to teach anything that's lacking in your faith, 11 and that God our father himself and our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) might show us how we could get to you all.
12 May the master increase your numbers and give you all an excess of love towards each other and toward everyone, just like we also have toward all of you, 13 in order to strengthen your faith and make you blameless and spotless before our father God, when our master Yeshua comes with all his holy people. May it be so.
4:1 So finally, brothers and Living to please God sisters, you learnt from us about how to live in a way that pleases God as indeed you are. Now we are requesting you all, and we're instructing you from the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) to do this even more, 2 because you all know the instructions that we gave to you through the mas- ter Yeshua. 3 Because this is God's will: that you all stay holy, keeping away from all sexual immorality, 4 knowing that each of your bodies is like a container that you can fill with holiness and honour. 5 Don't fill them with lustful passions like those who don't know God, 6 nor going beyond lusts and exploiting your fellow believers, because Yahweh is the one who avenges all those things as we've told you before and testified to you all.
7 God has not called us to impurity but to holiness,
8 so anyone who rejects this is not rejecting a human but rejecting God—the one who gives his holy spirit to you all.
9 Then concerning brotherly love, you don't need me to write about that because you yourselves have been taught by God to be loving each other 10 and because you're all already doing it to the believers all over Makedonia. But we advise you, brothers and sisters to do it even more 11 and to make it your ambition to live quietly and to look after your own selves. Work with your own hands as we instructed you, 12 so that you have a good attitude towards non-believers and so that you don't have any outstanding needs.

Readers' Version

The master's return

13 But we don't want you to be ignorant, brothers and sisters, about those who've died so that you won't mourn like others who don't have any hope, 14 because if we believe that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) died and came back to life, then we can also believe that when he returns, Yeshua will be bringing with him those who have died. 15 So this is what we're saying in Yahweh's message: those who are still living when the master returns, we certainly won't precede those who've already died[9] 16 because there'll be an announcement from the archangel and God's trumpet will sound and then the master will come down from heaven with a loud shout. The dead believers in Messiah will come to life again first,[10] 17 then we who are still alive will be pulled up into the clouds together with them to meet the master in the air, and from then will always remain with Yahweh. 18 So when someone dies, comfort each other with those truths.

5:1 Concerning the times and seasons, brothers and sisters, you don't need anything to be written 2 because you already know that Yahweh's day will come like a thief comes at night.[11] 3 Just when they're saying there's peace and security, then they'll suddenly recognise the imminent destruction, like a pregnant woman having birth pains. They certainly won't be able to escape, 4 but you, brothers and sisters, aren't in darkness and likely to get surprised by a thief in the night 5 because you're all children of the light and of the day. No, we're not part of the night or of the darkness 6 so as a result, we won't be sleeping like the others, but we'll be alert and sober. 7 Those who sleep do it at night, and those who get drunk do it at night, 8 but we belong to the day. We'll be dressed in the armour of faith and love, and the helmet which is the hope of our salvation.[12] 9 God hasn't assigned us to his severe anger, but rather for obtaining salvation through our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah— 10 the one who was executed on

13 Not but we_are_wanting you_all to_be_not_ _knowing, brothers, concerning the ones being_ _fallen_asleep, in_order_that not you_all _may_ _be_being_sorrowed, as also the rest, the ones not having hope. 14 For/Because if we_are_believing that Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʻa) died_off and rose_up, thus also ~~the~~ god the ones having_been_fallen_ _asleep through ~~the~~ Ya^{y}sous will_be_bringing with him. 15 For/Because this to_you_all we_are_ _saying in the_message of_the_master, that we the ones living, ~~which~~ being_remaining to the coming of_the master, by_no_means not may_ _precede the ones having_been_fallen_asleep. 16 Because himself the master with a_loud_ _command, with the_voice of_an_archangel, and with the_trumpet of_god, will_be_coming_down from heaven, and the dead in chosen_ _one/messiah will_be_rising_up first, 17 then we the ones living, ~~which~~ being_remaining together with them, will_be_being_snatched in the_clouds for the_meeting of_the master in the_air, and thus always with the_master we_will_be. 18 So_ _then be_comforting one_another with ~~the~~ messages these.

5:1 And concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, no need you_all_are_having to_you_all to_be_being_written. 2 For/Because yourselves exactly you_all_have_known that the_day of_the_ _master, as a_thief by night thus is_coming. 3 Whenever they_may_be_saying: Peace and security, then sudden is_recognizing to_them destruction, as the birth_pains to_the woman in pregnant having a_child, and by_no_means not they_may_escape. 4 But you_all, brothers, not are in darkness, in_order_that the day you_all like thieves may_grasp. 5 For/Because all you_all sons of_light are, and sons of_day. Neither we_are of_ _night nor of_darkness. 6 Therefore consequently not we_may_be_sleeping as the rest, but we_may_ _be_watching and we_may_be_being_sober. 7 For/Because the ones sleeping, by_night are_ _sleeping, and the ones being_drunk, by_night are_being_drunk. 8 But we of_the_day being, may_be_being_sober, having_dressed_in the_ _breastplate of_faith and love, and the_helmet, the_hope of_salvation. 9 Because not appointed our behalf so that whether we might be alert and watching, or whether we're dead and 'sleeping', either way we'll all live together with him. 11 So comfort and encourage each other as you've all been doing already.

Final teaching and greetings

12 But we're asking you, brothers and sisters, to be aware of the people who are working among you all and the ones leading you in Yahweh and instructing you all, 13 and show them love over-and-beyond because of their work. Be at peace with each other.

14 We advise you, brothers and sisters, to scold those who are lazy, comfort those who are discouraged, help the weak up, and be patient towards everyone. 15 Don't let anyone repay evil for evil, but always be doing what is good towards each other and towards everyone else.

16 Always find something to be happy about. 17 Never stop praying, 18 thanking God about everything.

This is what God wants for you in Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus): 19 Don't smother the holy spirit. 20 Don't scorn prophesies. 21 Evaluate everything, holding on to what's good 22 but keeping away from everything that seems to be evil.

23 May the God of peace himself make you completely holy and may your entire spirits, souls, and bodies be kept irreproachable at the returning of our master Yeshua Messiah. 24 The one calling you all is faithful and he will also see it through.

25 Brothers and sisters, pray for us also.

26 Greet the brothers with a holy kiss for me.

27 I request you by the master to read my letter to all the believers there.

28 May you all experience the grace that comes from our master Yeshua Messiah. May it be so.

Paulos's second letter to the believers in Thessalonikai

Introduction

This letter, was written by Paulos and sent to the group of believers there in Thessalonikai (Acts 17:1-10). Paulos had been forced to leave Thessalonikai because there were Yehudim there who got upset about his preaching to non-Jews. So he went on to Korinthos and from there he wrote both of his letters to the believers in Thessalonikai.
At that time, the believers in Thessalonikai were confused because there was teaching that troubled them, because they were told that the master Yeshua, the messiah, had already returned. Because they were confused, Paulos blocked that teaching by explaining to them that wars and destruction would come before the messiah returns. The one who brings that destruction is the enemy of the messiah, a miracle-working teacher named the 'lawless man'.
Paulos taught the readers of this letter that it's necessary to stay alert about everyone teaching them, despite difficulties and sufferings. They need to continue to work for their living and to do good just as Paulos himself had done.

Main components of Paulos's letter

Introduction 1:1-2
Paulos thanks and prays for the Thessalonikai 1:3-12
Teaching concerning the return of the messiah 2:1-17
Encouragement about prayer and not being lazy 3:1-15
Conclusion 3:16-18

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Paulos, Silas, and Timotheos.

It's written to the assembly of believers in God our father and the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah there in Thessalonikai.[1]

2 May God our father and the master Yeshua Messiah give grace and peace to all of you.

Paulos's thanking and praying

3 We should be always thanking God for you brothers and sisters, and it's right that we do, because your faith is growing and you all display plenty of love towards each other. 4 That's why we boast about you all in God's assemblies, because of your endurance and faith despite the persecutions you encounter and the tribulations that you put up with.

The Judgement after Yeshua's return

5 This shows God's righteous judgement in that you're considered worthy to enter God's kingdom because of what you've had to suffer. 6 God is righteous, and he's the one who will repay those who oppress you and make life difficult for you all, 7 then all of you who've been oppressed will be able to relax when the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) comes back from heaven with his powerful army. 8 With a fiery flame he'll judge those who don't know God and those who haven't accepted the good message of our master Yeshua Messiah. 9 They'll be sentenced to eternal destruction—banished from Yahweh's presence and from the display of his strength[2] 10 when he's honoured by his righteous followers and admired by those who believe in him just as you believed our testimony to all of you.

11 We're also praying all the time for you all that you'll be considered worthy of our god's calling and will live out your good intentions and demonstrate your faith with power, 12 so that the reputation of our master Yeshua will be honoured in you all, and you in him, thanks to the grace of our God and of the master Yeshua Messiah.

Readers' Version

The false man-God

2:1 Now concerning the return of our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah and our being gathered together with him,[3] we are asking you all, brothers and sisters, 2 to not be alarmed or have your thinking jolted back-and-forth by any 'spirit' or message or letter that seems to come from us that tries to say that the master has already returned. 3 Don't let anyone deceive you in any way, because before that happens many people will turn away from the good message, and the lawless man will be revealed—the conveyor of destruction 4 who opposes every god or object of worship and puts himself above them all—seating himself in God's temple and (supposedly) demonstrating that he is God.[4]

5 Don't you remember how I told you people this when I was still with you? 6 Now you know what's restraining him so that he'll be revealed at the proper time, 7 because the mystery of lawlessness is already at work, except that it's being restrained until he's taken out of the middle, 8 and then the lawless man will be revealed. The master Yeshua will kill him with his breath[5] and neutralise him with the appearance of his coming. 9 The lawless man was coming and working under Satan with his power and signs and false miracles[6] 10 and with every unrighteous seduction. These deceive those who are perishing, because they never had the love for the truth that could have saved them. 11 That's why God is sending deceptive practices to them, so that they can continue to believe in the falsehood, 12 so that all of those who didn't believe in the truth, but took pleasure in wicked actions, will be judged and sentenced.

Keep hold of the truth

13 But brothers and sisters, we here should always be thanking God for you who were loved by Yahweh. From the beginning God chose you for salvation in the holiness of the spirit and faith in the truth

Literal Version

2:1 And we_are_asking you_all, brothers, concerning the coming of_the master of_us, Yaʸsous chosen_one/messiah, and of_us gathering_together to him, 2 in_order that not quickly to_be_shaken you_all in ~~the~~ mind, nor to_ _be_being_alarmed, neither by spirit, nor by message, nor by letter, as_though by us, as that has_presented the day of_the master. 3 Not someone you_all may_deceive in not_one manner, because if not may_come the apostasy first, and may_be_revealed the man of_ ~~the~~ _ _lawlessness, the son of_ ~~the~~ _destruction, 4 the one opposing and exalting himself over every being_called a_god or object_of_worship, so_as him in the temple of_ ~~the~~ _god to_sit_down, demonstrating himself that he_is god. 5 Not you_ _all_are_remembering that still being with you_ _all, these things I_was_saying to_you_all? 6 And now the thing restraining you_all_have_known, in_order that to_be_revealed him in the of_him time. 7 For/Because the mystery already is_ _working of_ ~~the~~ _lawlessness, only the one restraining it now there_is, until out_of the_midst it_may_become. 8 And then will_be_being_ _revealed the lawless one, whom the master Yaʸsous/(Yəhōshūʿa) will_be_killing with_the breath/spirit of_the mouth of_him, and will_be_ _nullifying by_the appearing of_the coming of_ _him, 9 of_whom is ~~the~~ coming, according_to the_ _working of_ ~~the~~ _Satan/(Sāṭān) in every power, and signs, and wonders of_falsehood, 10 and in every seduction of_unrighteousness, in_the ones perishing, because/for which the love of_the truth not they_received, in_order that to_be_ _saved them. 11 And because_of this, is_sending to_them ~~the~~ god a_working of_deception, in_ _order that to_believe them in_the falsehood, 12 in_order_that may_be_judged all the ones not having_believed in_the truth, but having_taken_ _pleasure ~~the~~ in_unrighteousness.
13 But we ought to_be_giving_thanks to_ ~~the~~ _god always concerning you_all, brothers having_ _been_loved by the_master, that chose you_all ~~the~~ god, from the_beginning to salvation in the_ _holiness of_the_spirit and faith of_the_truth, 14 to which he_called you_all, through the good_

14 which he called you to. That was through the good message that we brought so that you might obtain the power that comes from our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah. 15 So as a result, brothers and sisters, stand firm and keep hold of the practices that we taught you—whether it was spoken or written in our letters.

16 May our master Messiah Yeshua and God our father who loved us and gives us eternal comfort, and by his grace gives good hope, 17 comfort your minds and strengthen you all in everything you do and every good message you share.

Pray for us as well

3:1 The other thing, brothers and sisters, is to keep praying for us, so that the master's message will keep spreading and being honoured, just like it was among you, 2 and so that we might escape from the schemes of perverse and evil people, because not everyone believes this message. 3 But the master is faithful and will strengthen you all and will keep you from the evil one. 4 We are confident that with Yahweh's help, you are following all of our instructions and will continue to do so.

5 May the master direct your thoughts towards God's love and Messiah's endurance.

The warning against laziness

6 Brothers and sisters, we're instructing you to avoid those who are only lazily living out their faith, and not following the practices that they were taught by us. 7 You yourselves know that it's appropriate to be imitating us, because we didn't loaf when we were among you all, 8 nor did we eat food from anyone that we didn't deserve, but we worked even when it was hard—day and night, so that we wouldn't be a burden on anybody, 9 not that we didn't have the right, but in order to make ourselves a good example that you could emulate.
10 Even when we were there with you, brothers and sisters, we instructed you that anyone who's not willing to work doesn't deserve to eat.

11 Yes, we've heard that there are some who associate with you, brothers and sisters, who are lazy—not doing any work, but just meddling, 12 so we're instructing those people, and urging them by the authority of the master Yeshua (Jesus;

Readers' Version

Grk. Yesus) Messiah, to just quietly get down to work, and then they'll have food to eat. 13 But the rest of you, brothers and sisters, don't get discouraged from doing good.

14 And if there's anyone there who won't submit to the contents of this letter, then take note of that person and don't associate with them, in order that they might be persuaded. 15 Don't consider them as an enemy, but reprimand them like you would reprimand a brother or sister.

Farewell

16 May the master of peace himself give all of you peace through everyone and in every way. May the master be with all of you.

17 This farewell is in my own handwriting—I'm Paulos, and I do this with every letter I write.

18 May the grace from our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah be with all of you.

Paulos's first letter to the believers in Korinthos

Introduction

This is Paulos's first letter to the believers in Korinthos that we have in our Bibles, but could easily have been his second letter to them. We deduce this from his reference to other letters, e.g., see www.GotQuestions.org/how-many-letters-Corinthians.html, but we don't have copies of them.
In this letter from Paulos to the believers in Korinthos, he wrote about his time preaching in Efesos. He wrote this in order to help with problems experienced by various groups of believers that he founded there in Korinthos. Korinthos was the mother city of province of Akaia and Akaia was a province of Romai. At that time, Korinthos was a large city that Hellains, Romaios, and Yehudim all lived in, and because it was at the edge of the ocean, many buyers and sellers travelled there to board ships. So the city became famous because of its wealth, and many religions thrived there. There was also a lot of sexual immorality there as well as other ancient traditions. Paulos lived there for almost two years in order to preach, and many people believed (Acts 18).
After around three years had passed while Paulos was there in Efesos preaching, he received a letter from the believers in Korinthos (1 Cor. 7:1). Again he heard about the persecution of the believers and of other problems that faced the assembly of believers. In this letter, he advised them about those, and stressed to need to removal sexual offenders from their assembly. Then he answered questions concerning marriage, widows, spiritual gifts, and the dead coming back to life.
In chapter 13, it tells how love is an amazing gift from God to his people, in fact that's the overall theme of this document.
It's helpful to understand that this letter (and most Biblical documents) were dictated to scribes (who didn't have word processors) so in terms of sentence structure, the discourses are often not edited or placed in their time sequences more correctly as we would do with modern documents, but rather we notice a lot of long, rambling, run-on sentences (like this one) which we sometimes break into shorter sentences to help our readers, but try not to do it too often as it tends to remove the connections between the thoughts and can even lead to the bad habit of people quoting verses out of the context in which they were written.

Main components of Paulos's letter

Introduction 1:1-9

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Paulos, a missionary of Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) by God's will, and from our brother, Sosthenes.
2 It's written to God's assembly there in Ko-rinthos[1]—to those believers in Messiah Yeshua who've been declared guiltless and who've been called to live holy lives, along with all those who appeal to the power of our and their master Yeshua Messiah, everywhere.
3 Grace and peace to you all from God our father and from the master Yeshua Messiah.

Paulos thanks God for what he's done

4 I always thank my God for you because of his grace that he's given you in Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk.
Yesus)— 5 thanking him that through him, you've all been enriched in every way: in all speech and in all knowledge 6 as our testimony about the messiah[2] was confirmed in you all 7 so that you all aren't missing out on any spiritual gift as you eagerly wait for our master Yeshua Messiah to be revealed. 8 He will sustain you to the end, so that you all will be blameless at the return of our mas- ter Yeshua Messiah. 9 The God who called you into fellowship with his son Yeshua Messiah, our master, is faithful.

Follow Yeshua, not your leaders

10 Now brothers and sisters, I appeal to you in the name of our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah, that you all agree together so that there'll be no divisions among you, but rather that you'll be united in your thinking and in your purpose, 11 because, my brothers and sisters, it's been made clear to me by some from Kloe's household, that you are quarrelling among yourselves.
12 What I am talking about is how many of you are claiming that you belong to Paulos's group, for example, or that you belong to Apollos' group,[3] or that you belong to Kefa' (Cephas'; Grk. Kefas') group, or that you belong to Messiah's group.
13 Has the messiah been divided? Was it Paulos who was executed for you? Or were you immersed in water in the Paulos's name?

14 I thank God that I didn't immerse any of you other than Krispos[4] and Gaios,[5] 15 so that no one can say that I had immersed you into my own name. 16 (Oh yes, I also immersed Stefanas and his household,[6] but I don't think I immersed anyone else.) 17 Because Messiah didn't send me to immerse people in water, but to preach the good message—but not with words of wisdom just in case the messiah's execution on the post gets deprived of importance.

The messiah is God's power and wisdom

18 Because the account about the execution on a post seems just stupid to non-believers, but on the contrary to us being saved, it's God's power, 19 because it was written:

'I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and I will nullify the understanding of the intelligent.'[7]

20 Where is the wise person? Where is the scholar? Where is the debater of this age?[8] Hasn't God turned the wisdom of the world into foolishness?[9]

21 Because since the world, in God's wisdom, didn't know about God through their wisdom, God was pleased to save those who believe through the 'foolish' message that was preached. 22 Yehudim (Jews) ask for miraculous signs and Hellains (Greeks) search for wisdom, 23 but we preach about how Messiah was executed—something the Yehudim can't logic out, and which the Hellains see as total foolishness. 24 Yet to those who God calls, whether Yehudim or Hellains, Messiah is both God's power and his wisdom, 25 because God's foolishness is better than humankind's wisdom, and God's weakness is greater than humankind's strength.

26 So brothers and sisters, think about how God called you. Not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, and not many were of noble birth, 27 but God chose the foolish things of the world to shame those considered to be wise, and he chose the weak things of the world to shame those considered to be strong. 28 He chose the lowly and despised things of the world, and the things that are not, to nullify the things that are, 29 so that no human can boast to God. 30 But because of him, you are in Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), who was made to become wisdom from God for us, and to become righteousness, and also sanctification and redemption, 31 so that, as per the scriptures: 'Let anyone who boasts, boast about Yahweh.'[10]

Paulos's preaching based on God's power

2:1 Brothers and sisters, when I visited you all, I didn't try to impress you with flowery words or great wisdom when I taught you about God's incredible plan, 2 because I had decided in advance to display knowledge about nothing else other than Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah and his execution. 3 And so I came to you all in weakness and fear and with a lot of trembling,[11] 4 and my message and my preaching wasn't delivered with persuasive words of wisdom, but rather demonstrating God's spirit and power, 5 so that your faith wouldn't be based on human wisdom, but on God's power.

Spiritual vs human wisdom

6 However, when we're with mature believers, we speak wisdom—not the wisdom of this age, and not the wisdom of the rulers of this age who will come to nothing. 7 Instead we speak about God's mysterious and hidden wisdom, which he had planned before creation to enable us to enter his kingdom. 8 None of the rulers of this present age understood it, because if they had, they wouldn't have crucified the master of that kingdom, 9 but as scripture says:

'No eye has seen and no ear has heard, and it's never entered any person's mind, all the things that God has prepared for those who love him.'[12]

10 But God has revealed it to us through his spirit, because his spirit strives to know the meaning of everything, even the deep things of God. 11 Yes, what person knows what other people are thinking. Only the spirit of the person themself knows that. So too, no one knows God's thoughts other than God's own spirit. 12 No, we haven't received the world's spirit, but rather God's spirit so that we can recognise everything that God has freely given to us.
13 We don't speak about these things from our human wisdom, but rather, saying what God's spirit teaches—teaching spiritual things from spiritual sources. 14 Secular people don't accept things about God's spirit because they seem foolish to them, and they can't understand them because it requires spiritual awareness, 15 but spiritual people can discern all these things, even though others can't correctly discern about them.
16 This was stated in scripture:
'Who can understand Yahweh's mind?
Who's able to instruct him?'[13]
But we do know the messiah's mind!

Build solidly with godly wisdom

3:1 So brothers and sisters, because you were baby Christians when I visited, I wasn't able to speak to you all like spiritual people, but only like worldly people. 2 I gave you all milk to drink, because you weren't ready for solid food, in fact, you still aren't[14] 3 because you're still worldly, because seeing the jealousy and dissension among you tells us that you're all still worldly and just living by human values. 4 Yes, when one person says, 'I follow Paulos,' and another person says, 'I follow Apollos',[15] doesn't that show that you're just worldly?
5 Indeed, who's Apollos? Who's Paulos? We're just servants who brought you all the message when you believed, each one as the master led them.[16] 6 I planted the seed[17] and Apollos watered it,[18] but God made it grow. 7 That means that neither the planter or the waterer counts for anything, only the grower, God. 8 The planter and the waterer work together, and each of them will be rewarded for their work, 9 because we are God's co-workers.

You all are God's field, or in a different image, his building. 10 Using the gifts that God has given me as a wise master-builder, I laid down a foundation and then someone else is building on it. But they need to take care about how they build on it 11 because no one can lay a different foundation than the one already laid down, and that foundation is Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah. 12 Now if anyone builds on top of the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw, 13 then their work will become obvious because it will be revealed on the day of judgement because it will be shown up by fire. The fire will expose what sort of building their work created: 14 if anyone's work that they built survives the fire, those people will be rewarded, 15 but if their work is incinerated, those people will lose out, although they themselves will be saved but as if they've been through the flames.

16 Don't you realise that you yourselves are God's temple, and that God's spirit lives inside you all?[19] 17 If anyone destroys God's temple, then God will destroy that person because his temple is sacred, as are all of you.

18 Don't let any of you fool yourselves. If anyone of you thinks they're wise by worldly standards, then let those people become 'foolish' so that they really can become wise 19 because this world's wisdom is foolishness with God, because as it's written: 'He catches out the wise in their craftiness.'[20] 20 And further: 'Yahweh knows that the don't let anyone boast about people, because everything already belongs to all of you. 22 Don't boast about Paulos or Apollos or Kefa (Cephas; Grk. Kefas), or the world or life or death, or the present or the future. All of them belong to you, 23 and you belong to Messiah, and Messiah belongs to God.

Status of the missionaries

4:1 So then, people should regard us as servants of Messiah and as stewards of God's mysteries.
2 What's more, stewards are expected to be trustworthy. 3 But it makes virtually no difference to me whether I'm being judged by you all, or by a human court, because I don't even judge myself.
4 Yes, my conscience is clear, but that won't mean that I'm declared 'not guilty', because it's Yahweh who'll be examining me. 5 So don't make judgements ahead of time, but wait until the master comes—the one who'll bring to light what's hidden in the darkness, and who will expose people's true motives. At that time, God will praise each person who's acted faithfully.
6 Now brothers and sisters, I applied these things to myself and Apollos for your sakes, so that through us you all might learn this: 'Not beyond what is written,' so that no one would be puffed up in favour of one against the other, 7 because who makes you better than others? What do you have that wasn't given to you? And if it was given to you, why would you boast as if it hadn't been given to you?
8 Are you all full already? Have you all already become rich? You think you're kings already, and don't need us—I wish you all were really reigning as kings, so we could reign with you, 9 because it seems that God has exhibited us missionaries last of all, as if sentenced to death—because we have become a spectacle to the world—both to God's messengers and to men. 10 We appear as fools for Messiah's sake, but you all are wise in Messiah.
We are weak, but you all are strong. You all are honoured, but we are dishonoured. 11 Right up to poorly clothed and brutally beaten, and we're homeless 12 and working hard—working with our own hands.[22] When people curse us, we bless them, and when they persecute us, we put up with it. 13 When people slander us, we answer gently. We've become like the scum of the world, the world's trash, even until now.

14 I'm not writing this to shame you all, but to correct you as if you were my own dear children, 15 because if you all would have thousands of guardians in Messiah, yet you wouldn't have many 'fathers', because I fathered you in Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) by means of the good message. 16 That's why I urge you all to imitate me,[23] 17 and that's why I sent Timotheos to visit you. He's like my own dear son in Yahweh, and he'll remind you all about my ways in Messiah Yeshua, just like I teach everywhere in every church.

18 Now some of you have become arrogant, as if I'm not able to come back to see you all, 19 but if the master allows it, I'll come and visit you all again soon. Then I won't just see what any puffed-up people are saying, but I'll also see what power they have, 20 because God's kingdom isn't just mere words, but it's a demonstration of power. 21 What would you all prefer: should I come to you all with a rod, or come with love and a gentle spirit?

Expelling the sexually immoral

5:1 Actually, we've been hearing that there's sexual immorality there among you all, and so bad that even non-believers don't do it: a man is sleeping with his step-mother![24] 2 Then instead of being upset, you all seem proud of it. This man should have been expelled out of your group, 3 because even though I'm not there physically, I am present in the spirit, and I've already made my judgement about the man who's doing this, as if I were present. 4 When you assemble together in the name of our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. power, 5 then you should hand this man over to Satan to punish his body, so that his spirit can be saved for when the master returns.

6 It isn't good how you all boast. Don't you realise that a little bit of yeast can raise a whole loaf of bread?[25] 7 Get rid of the old yeast so that you'll all become fresh dough, just as you are unleavened bread. Because Messiah, our Passover lamb, has also been sacrificed[26] 8 so that we can be feasting, not with old yeast or with yeast of evil and wickedness, but with unleavened bread of sincerity and of truth.[27]

9 I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people, 10 but certainly not meaning worldly people who are sexually immoral or swindlers or idolaters, because that would mean that you'd all have to leave this world. 11 No, I'm writing to tell you all not to associate with any so-called believer who's sexually immoral or greedy or an idolater or verbally abusive or a drunkard or a swindler. Don't even have a meal with such a person.

12 Why would it be my job to judge outsiders—no, shouldn't it be those inside the assemblies that you judge? 13 God will judge the outsiders, but: 'Expel evil people from among yourselves.'[28]

Lawsuits among believers

6:1 If anyone among you all has a case against another believer, how dare they go to a secular court in front of an unbelieving judge instead of to believers. 2 Don't you realise that in the future, believers will judge the world, and if the world's going to be judged by all of you, surely you're competent enough now to judge smaller cases? 3 Don't you realise that we'll judge God's messengers? So surely we can judge things of this life? 4 So then, if you have legal disputes about things of this life, why do you appoint people with no standing in the assembly as judges? 5 I say that to your shame. Don't you have anyone among you all who can arbitrate between believers? 6 But instead, one believer goes to court against another, and it's in front of unbelievers!

7 Actually, you're all disgraced already for having lawsuits among yourselves. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated? 8 But you're all wronging and cheating others, including fellow believers.

9 Or don't you all know that those who disobey God won't inherit his kingdom? Don't let yourselves be deceived: those who are sexually immoral or idolaters or adulterers, or men who submit to or perform homosexual acts, 10 or thieves or the greedy, or drunkards or slanderers or swindlers, will inherit God's kingdom. 11 Now some of you all were like that, but now you've been washed and declared guiltless, and been declared innocent by the authority of the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah, and by our god's spirit.

Avoid sexual immorality

12 Some might say, 'Everything is permissible for me,' but not everything is beneficial. Everything might be permissible for me, but I don't want those things to have control over me.[29] 13 You might say, 'Food is for the stomach, and the stomach for food,' but God will eventually abolish them both. Also, the body is not meant to be used for sexual immorality, but rather, for the master, and the master for the body. 14 Actually, God made the master come alive again, and by his power, he'll also do that for us.

15 Surely you all know that your bodies are parts of messiah's body? Because of that, you shouldn't take your body back and then join it to a prostitute's body. May it never happen! 16 Or don't you know that having sex with a prostitute is a joining together, because it says: 'The two will become one body.'[30] 17 But a person joining with the master, becomes one spirit with him.

18 Don't just walk away from sexual immorality, but run away from it, because other forms of disobeying God are outside the body, but sexual immorality is a sin against your own body. 19 Surely you all know that your body is a temple of the holy spirit who comes from God and lives within you.[31] No, you don't actually own yourselves 20 because a price was paid to buy you, so honour God with your bodies.

Advice concerning marriage

7:1 Now concerning what you all wrote to me: "It's good for a man not to touch a woman." 2 However, because there is so much sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife, and each woman her own husband. 3 Both husbands and wives have a marital duty to each other in terms of sexual needs: 4 wives' bodies belong to their husbands, not to themselves, and similarly, husbands' bodies belong to their wives, not to themselves. 5 Don't deprive each other, except by mutual agreement so that you may devote yourselves to prayer for an agreed time, and then be together again, so that Satan can't easily tempt you all because of your lack of self-control.

6 But that isn't a command—I'm only suggesting that it's good to do,[32] 7 and I wish everyone could be like me. But each person has their own gift from God—one has such-and-such a gift while someone else has a different one.

8 Now to the unmarried and to the widows I say that it's good if they remain like me,[33] 9 but if they don't have self-control, they should marry because it's better to marry than to burn with sexual desire.

10 Now I (well, not I, but the master) command married people that a wife is not to be separated from her husband[34] 11 (but even if she might be separated, let her remain unmarried, or let her be reconciled to the husband), and a husband is not to divorce a wife.

12 But to the rest I say (I, not the master) that if any believing husband has an unbelieving wife and she agrees to live with him, he shouldn't divorce her. 13 Similarly, if any woman has an unbelieving husband and he agrees to live with her, she shouldn't divorce him. 14 You see, the unbelieving husband is exposed to faith through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is exposed to faith through the believing husband, otherwise your children would be 'defiled', but now they are declared innocent. 15 But if the unbeliever departs, let that person go. In such cases, the believing spouse is not tied down to serving their departed spouse, but rather God has called us to peace. 16 You see, how do you know, woman, whether you will cause your husband to be saved? Or how do you know, man, whether you will cause your wife to be saved?

Sticking to your social position

17 Nevertheless, each person should live according to how the master has assigned them and how God has called them. That's what I teach in all the assemblies. 18 Anyone who was called and who was previously circumcised, shouldn't become 'uncircumcised'. Anyone who was called who was uncircumcised, shouldn't get circumcised. 19 Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing, but obeying God's commands is what counts. 20 Each person should maintain the position they were in when they were called: 21 Were you a slave when you were called? Don't be concerned about that (but indeed, if you're able to become free, then take the opportunity) 22 because anyone who was a slave when they were called by Yahweh is free in Yahweh's sight. Conversely, anyone who was free when they were called is the messiah's slave.
23 You all were bought by God for a price, so don't become slaves of people. 24 Again brothers and sisters, each person should remain in the position they were in when they were called, but now serving God.[35]

Suggestions about the unmarried and about widows

25 Now concerning unmarried women, I don't have instructions from Yahweh but I'll give my opinions as someone who's trustworthy thanks to Yahweh's mercy.

tress that's about to come, that people should stay as they are currently. 27 If you're married, then don't try to get out of it. If you're not committed, don't look for a spouse. 28 But if a single guy or single girl get married, that's not a sin, but they'll likely face difficult circumstances and I'm trying to spare you from that.

29 But brothers and sisters, I will say this: the time is short, so from now on, even those who are married should live as if they're not. 30 Those who are mourning should act as if they're not, those who are celebrating should act as if they're not, and those who are buying act as if they don't own anything, 31 and those who are using this world, as if they're not using it, because the present form of this world will soon pass away.

32 But I'd like you to be free from concern. Single men are concerned about things of the master—pleasing the master— 33 but married men are concerned about worldly affairs—wanting to please their wives—so they're divided. And unmarried or single women 34 are concerning about things of the master—so that both their bodies and their spirits can be separate from the world—but married women are concerned about worldly affairs—wanting to please their husbands.

35 Now I said all that for your benefit—not to load you all with rules, but to act in ways that are appropriate and devoted to the master without any distractions.

36 However, if a man thinks he's made the wrong decisions about his unmarried woman,[36] if she's reached the age of marriage and it should proceed, then he should do what he planned—he's not sinning—they should get married. 37 But if the man has made up his mind and isn't forced, but makes his own decision, and he's firmly decided to keep his own woman unmarried, then that would also be a good decision. 38 That way, anyone allowing his unmarried woman to marry does well, but anyone who doesn't, makes a better decision.

he lives, but if he passes away, she's free to marry anyone she wants to, as long as he's a believer.
40 However, in my opinion, she'd be happier if she didn't marry again, and I think it's God's spirit that wants me to say that.

Behaviour about food offered to idols

8:1 Now, concerning food that's been sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have 'knowledge'—knowledge breeds conceit but love gives inner strength. 2 Anyone who thinks they know something usually doesn't know what they don't know, 3 but anyone who loves God is known by God.

4 Now back to eating food that's been offered to idols, we know that there's only one God and so worldly idols are really nothing at all. 5 Even though there are many so-called 'gods' and 'masters' said to live in the heavens or earth, 6 we know there's only one God, who is the Father who created everything and we exist to honour him. And we only have one master, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah who created everything and is also the source of our existence.

7 But not everyone knows this. Some people have been so used to trusting idols that even now as believers when they eat food that's been sacrificed to idols, they still think it's wrong and so their weak consciences become defiled. 8 But food doesn't bring us closer to God—what we eat makes us no better or worse off spiritually.

9 However, be careful in case your freedom becomes a reason that weaker believers might get confused and stumble in their spiritual walk.
10 Yes, if someone with a weaker conscience sees you eating at a place with an idol, they might be encouraged to eat food that's offered to idols against their conscience, 11 thus this weaker believer who the messiah also died for, might end up being destroyed. 12 If you end up sinning against other believers and wounding their weak consciences, you sin against Messiah. 13 Therefore, if food might cause a fellow believer to stumble, I'll certainly never eat meat, so that I won't cause them to stumble.

4 Don't we have a right to eat and drink? 5 Don't we have a right to take along a believing wife like the rest of the missionaries and the master's brothers and Kefa (Peter; Grk. Or who shepherds a flock and isn't allowed to drink the milk they produce?

8 Am I just saying this from a human perspective? Doesn't Mosheh's (Moses') law also teach that? 9 He wrote in those laws: 'Don't prevent the ox from eating when it's working to thresh the grain.'[37] 10 Isn't he saying that on our behalf? Yes, it was written for our sake saying that anyone who's ploughing a field should expect to be paid, and anyone who threshes the grain should expect a share of the harvest. 11 If we sowed spiritual things among you, is it too much to expect a material 'harvest' from you?[38] 12 If other people have the right to this kind of support, don't we have a greater right?

But we never took advantage of that right—instead we endured everything so that we wouldn't do anything to hinder the messiah's good message from spreading. 13 Don't you know that the temple workers eat from the temple budget, and those who work at the altar receive a portion of what's offered?[39] 14 Similarly, the master even instructed that anyone who preaches the good message should be able to make their living off it.[40]

boasting. 16 And yet, when I preach the good message, it doesn't give me any good reason to boast because I'm actually obligated to do it—I wouldn't end well if I didn't preach the good message 17 because if I do it willingly, I'll have a reward, but if it's done unwillingly, I'd be shirking the responsibility entrusted to me. 18 So, what's my reward? It's preaching the good message and the privilege of doing it free of charge, so as not to take advantage of the right that the good message gives me.

19 Although I have no obligation to any person, I made myself a slave of everyone in order to win over as many as possible. 20 To the Yehudim (Jews), I behave like the Yehudi (Jew) that I am in order to win them. To those under the traditional rules, I behave like one of them (although I myself am not under those rules) in order to win them over. 21 To those outside our religious rules, I behave like them (although not so far as to disobey God's law, because I'm under Messiah's law) in order to win them over. 22 To the weak, I become weak to win them over. Yes, I've become all things to all people so[41] that I might be certain of saving some.

23 I do all that for the sake of the good message, so that I'll share in its blessings. 24 Surely you all know that all the participants in a race run, but only one of them gets the prize? Run in such a way that you get the prize. 25 But everyone who competes has to exercise self-control in every aspect. They do it in order to win a wreath that'll quickly wilt, but we work towards one that never deteriorates. 26 That's why I don't run aimlessly and don't box like someone punching the air, 27 but I discipline my body and make it serve me, because after preaching to others, I don't want to end up disqualified myself.

they were all immersed 'into Mosheh' (Moses) in both the cloud and the sea. 3 They all ate the same supernatural food[44] 4 and they all drank the same supernatural drink, because they drank from a supernatural rock that followed them,[45] and that rock was the messiah. 5 Despite that, God wasn't very happy with most of them, and they ended up dying in the wilderness.[46]

6 Those things back then became examples for us, so that we wouldn't be desiring evil things like they did.[47] 7 Don't worship idols like some of them did, as it's written: 'The people sat down to eat and drink and then stood up to dance to the golden calf.'[48] 8 Nor should we commit sexual immorality like many of them did, and 23,000 people died in one day.[49] 9 And nor should we challenge the master like some of our Jewish ancestors did, and then they were killed by the snakes.[50] 10 Don't grumble like many of them did, and then they were killed by the death angel.[51]

11 All of those things happened to them as examples and were written down as warnings for us who are living at the ends of the ages.

just one loaf that we all eat pieces of, thus we who are many, are one body together.

18 Consider the people of Yisrael (Israel) from a physical perspective: Aren't those who eat portions of the sacrifices, joining to the altar?[53] RECHECK 19 So what am I saying? That whether or not food is sacrificed to idols means anything? Or that an idol is anything? 20 No, but the sacrifices of the pagans are offered to demons, not to God,[54] and I don't want you all to be partners with demons. 21 You can't drink Yahweh's cup as well as the cup of demons, nor can you partake at Yahweh's table as well as the table of demons. 22 Or are we trying to make Yahweh envious?[55] No, he's more powerful than us.

23 Everything might seem to be allowable, but not everything is beneficial. Everything might seem to be allowable, but not everything builds up character.[56] 24 No one should aim to satisfy themselves, but work for the good of others.

25 You can eat anything that's sold at the meat market without even raising questions of conscience, 26 because:[57] 'the earth and everything in it belongs to Yahweh.'

27 If an unbeliever invites you to a meal and you plan to go, eat anything that's set before you without raising questions of conscience, 28 but if someone tells you, "That has been offered as a sacrifice," for the sake of the person who told you and for the sake of conscience, don't eat it. 29 Now when I said 'for the sake of conscience', I didn't mean your conscience, but that of the other person, because why does my freedom need to be judged by someone else's conscience? 30 As long as I've thanked God for what I eat, why should I then criticise it?

31 So whether you're eating or drinking or doing whatever, always ensure that God gets honoured. 32 Try not to offend the Yehudim (Jews) or the Hellains (Greeks) or the people in God's assembly,

Men's and women's head coverings

2 Now I commend you all because you always think of what I teach and do, and because you carefully believe and do what I taught you all, 3 but I want you all to know that the messiah is the head of every man, and the man is the head of his wife, and God is the head of the messiah.[59] 4 Any man who prays or speaks out a prophecy with his head covered is dishonouring his head, 5 but any woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonours her head, because it's just as if her head had been shaved. 6 In fact if a woman doesn't cover her head, then she should cut her hair off, but if it is shameful for a woman to have her hair cut or shaved off, then she should cover her head. 7 On one side, a man shouldn't cover his head because men present God's image and his honour,[60] but on the other side, women present their husbands' honour, 8 because man wasn't made from the woman, but the first woman was made out of man.[61] 9 Indeed, men weren't created for women, but women for men. 10 Because of that, women should have authority on their heads, because of the messengers.[62] 11 Nevertheless, in Messiah, women are not independent from men, nor are men independent from women, 12 because just as the first woman came out of the man, so too men are born from women, but everything comes from God.

13 So judge for yourselves: is it proper for women to pray to God with their heads uncovered?
14 Doesn't nature itself teach you all that if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace for him, 15 but if a woman has long hair, it's part of her beauty because long hair has been given to women as a cov-

Conduct when celebrating the master's dinner[63]

17 But I'm not complimenting you all in giving the following instructions, because your gatherings have been doing more harm than good. 18 Firstly, I hear that when you gather together in the assembly, there are divisions among you all, and I partly believe it 19 because there must be differences among you to show who out of all of you are approved. 20 So then, when you gather together in one place, it's not to celebrate by eating the master's dinner 21 because during the meal, everyone grabs their own food without considering others. So some people remain hungry while others have too much to drink. 22 For eating and drinking, don't you all have your own houses to do that in? Why are you showing contempt for God's assembly and humiliating those left with nothing? What should I say about that? Should I praise you for that? No, I can't!
23 I've already passed on to all of you everything that I received from the master: that on the night when he was betrayed, he took some bread 24 and after giving thanks, he broke off a piece and said,
"This represents my body which will be broken for your sakes. Keep doing this in memory of me." 25 Similarly, after the dinner he took the cup and said, "This cup represents the new agreement[64] which will be sealed by my blood.[65] As often as you all celebrate, drink it in memory of me." 26 Because as often as you all celebrate by eating bread and drinking from the cup, you'll continue to announce the master's death until he returns.

27 Therefore, anyone who eats that bread or drinks from the master's cup in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the master. 28 So everyone must first examine themself as part of eating that bread and drinking from that cup, 29 because anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body,[66] eats and drinks judgement onto themself. 30 Because of that, many among you are weak and sick, and many have passed away, 31 but if we were examining ourselves, we wouldn't be judged.
32 However, when we're judged by Yahweh, we're being disciplined so that we won't be condemned along with the unbelievers.
33 So brothers and sisters, when you come together to celebrate this, wait for each other. 34 If anyone's hungry, they should eat at home beforehand, so that your meetings won't lead to judgement. I'll give instructions about other matters when I get there.

The various abilities given by God's spirit

12:1 Now brothers and sisters, I don't want you all to be ignorant about spiritual matters. 2 You all know that when you were still pagans, you were enticed and led astray in front of idols that can't even speak. 3 So now I'm informing you all that a person who curses Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), doesn't speak with the power of God's spirit. On the other hand, a person who says that Yeshua is Yahweh must be speaking with the power of the holy spirit.
4 Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same spirit,[67] 5 and there are varieties of ministries, but the same master. 6 There are varieties of activities, but the same God works all things in everyone. 7 Now the display of the spirit's power is given to each person in order to benefit everyone. 8 One person might be given a wise message through the spirit, and someone else given certain knowledge by the same spirit. 9 Another person might be given faith by the same spirit, and someone else given gifts of healings from that one spirit. 10 Another might be given the ability to do miracles, and someone else given prophecy. Another might be given ability to distinguish spirits, and someone else given the ability to speak other languages, and to yet another the ability to translate languages. 11 However it's the one and the same spirit behind all those things—distributing them individually to each person as the spirit decides.

One body with many parts

12 Just like a human body is a unit but has many parts which are all components, no matter how many, making up that one body, so too is the messiah.[68]
13 Yes, in one spirit we were all immersed into one body, whether we were Yehudim (Jews) or Hellains (Greeks), whether slaves or free, and we all were given one spirit to drink. MEANING?
14 Yes, indeed the body is not one part, but many. 15 If your foot said, "Since I'm not a hand, I'm not part of the body," that wouldn't make it any less a part of the body, 16 and if your ear said, "Since I'm not an eye, I'm not part of the body," that wouldn't make it any less a part of the body.
17 If your whole body was an eye, how could you hear? But then, if your whole body was an ear, how could you smell anything? 18 Actually, God has placed every part in our bodies exactly where he wanted to put them. 19 If it was all just one part, how could it be a body? 20 Yes, there's many parts, but only one body.
21 Your eye can't tell your hand, "I don't need you," and your head can't tell your feet, "I don't need you." 22 On the contrary, the body parts that seem to be weaker are very vital, 23 and those body parts that seem less honourable, we give them greater honour and hence our unpresentable body parts are treated with more modesty. 24 Our presentable parts don't have any need for that, but rather God has put the body together and he gave greater honour to the lesser parts 25 so that there won't be any division in the body, but its members should care equally for each other. 26 So if one body part is hurting, all the parts hurt as well. If one body part is honoured, then all the parts are happy together.

27 Now you all are the body of Christ, and each of you is a part of it. 28 And indeed, God has appointed: 1/ missionaries, 2/ prophets, 3/ teachers,[69] then doing miracles, healing others, helping others, guiding others, and speaking various languages 29 Are everyone missionaries, or everyone prophets or teachers, or doing miracles? 30 Does everyone have the gifts of healing, or speaking in other languages, or translating?
31 But strive for the better gifts.
And now I'll demonstrate Love expounded
a better way to you all:
13:1 Even if I could speak in human languages as well as the languages of God's messengers, but didn't love others, then I'd just be like a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. 2 And if have the ability of being able to prophesy and could understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I had total faith so I could tell mountains to move,[70] but I didn't love others, then I'm of no use to anyone. 3 Even if I gave everything I have to the poor, and even sacrifice my body so that I could boast, but didn't love others, it wouldn't be any use to me.
4 Love is patient and kind. It doesn't envy others, it doesn't boast, and it isn't arrogant. 5 It isn't crude, it doesn't just care about itself, it doesn't get angry quickly, and it doesn't keep records about who wrongs us. 6 Love isn't happy with disobeying God, but is happy about the truth. 7 It tolerates everything, believes everything, is always hopeful about everything, and always perseveres.
8 Love never fails, unlike prophecies that will come to nothing, languages that will die out, and knowledge that also will come to nothing, 9 because we only have partial knowledge and partial understanding of prophecy. 10 So when perfection comes, partial things will disappear.
11 When I was a child, I spoke like a child, thought like a child, and reasoned like a child, but then when I became an adult, I set childish things aside. 12 In this present age, we see like fuzzy reflections in a mirror, but in the future, we'll see brothers, if I_may_come to you_all with_tongues speaking, what you_all I_will_be_benefiting, if not to_you_all I_may_speak, either in revelation, or in knowledge, or in prophecy, or in teaching?

7 Likewise ~~the~~ soulless things a_sound giving, whether flute, or harp, if distinction to_the sounds not may_give, how will_be_being_known what is being_playing_the_flute or ~~which~~ being_ _playing_the_harp? 8 For/Because also if an_ _uncertain a_trumpet sound may_give, who will_ _be_preparing himself for war? 9 Thus also you_ _all through the tongue, if not easily_recognised speech you_all_may_give, how will_be_being_ _known what is being_spoken? For/Because you_ _all_will_be into the_air speaking. 10 So_many if it_might_happen, kinds of_languages are in the_ _world, and not_one kind silent is. 11 Therefore if not I_may_have_known the power of_the sound,
I_will_be to_the one speaking a_foreigner, and the one speaking with me a_foreigner. 12 Thus also you_all, because zealous you_all_are of_ _spirits, because/for the building of_the assembly, be_seeking that you_all_may_be_being_ _plentiful. 13 Therefore the one speaking in_a_ _tongue, let_be_praying that he_may_be_

God face to face. In this age, I have partial knowledge, but then it'll be complete, just like we'll be known completely.

13 But for now, these three continue: faith, hope, and love, but love is the greatest one of those.

Comparing prophesying with speaking in other languages

14:1 Aim to show love, and eagerly strive for spiritual things—especially the ability to prophesy, 2 because anyone speaking another language isn't speaking to the people, but to God, because no one understands it, but they're speaking about spiritual mysteries. 3 However, anyone who's prophesying, speaks to the people for their instruction and encouragement and comfort. 4 Anyone who's speaking in another language instructs themself, but when people prophesy, they're instructing the whole assembly.

5 Now I'd like it if you all spoke in other languages, but I'd like it better if you could all be prophesying. The person prophesying is more helpful than someone speaking in other languages, unless they translate so that the assembly can be instructed. 6 But now brothers and sisters, if I come to you speaking in other languages, how can I be of benefit to you all? Only if I share a revelation with you all, or some knowledge, or a prophecy or teaching.

7 Even the tune coming from non-living things like musical instruments can't be recognised unless the distinct notes can be distinguished, 8 because if the trumpet produces an unclear sound, how will the soldiers know to prepare for battle.
9 Similarly with all of you—unless your words are intelligible, how will anyone know what you're saying? You'll just be talking to the wind.
10 There's certainly many different languages in the world, but none of them are without meaning,
11 so if I don't know the meaning of someone's language, I'm a foreigner to that person, and that person will be a foreigner to me 12 and it's the same with all of you. Because you all want spiritual things in order to help grow the assembly, then strive to have many of them.

13 So then, let anyone who's speaking in another language, pray that they will be able to translate

Readers' Version

it. 14 When I pray in another language, my spirit prays but my mind is unproductive, 15 so what should I do? Well, I'll pray with my spirit, but I'll also pray with my mind. I'll sing with my spirit, but I'll also sing with my mind. 16 Otherwise, if you speak out a blessing in the spirit, how can the ordinary listeners say 'May it be so' after you give thanks, since they wouldn't know what you've been saying. 17 Yes, you'd certainly give thanks well, but the other people wouldn't be encouraged.

18 I thank God that I speak in other language more than all of you, 19 but with the assembly, I'd prefer to speak five words with my mind so that I can instruct others, rather than thousands of words in another language.

20 Brothers and sisters, don't be childish in your thinking. You all can be like infants with respect to evil, but in everything else, be mature in your thinking. 21 The prophet Yeshayah (Isaiah) wrote:

'I'll speak to this nation through foreign languages and strangers' lips, but even then they won't listen to me,'

says Yahweh.[71] 22 So then, speaking in other languages is a sign, not for believers, but for unbelievers. However in contrast, prophecy is not for unbelievers, but for believers.

23 So if the whole assembly gathered together at the same place and they all spoke in other languages, and then some inquirers or unbelievers came in, wouldn't they say that you're all crazy?
24 But if they were all prophesying instead and some inquirers or unbelievers came in, they'd be convicted of their sinfulness and called to account by them all. 25 The prophecies would expose the secrets of their hearts, so then they'd bow down and worship God, and exclaim, "God is really here among you all!"

The correct means of worshipping

26 So brothers and sisters, what should we say then?
When you all gather together, each one of you brings a song or a teaching, or explains a revelation, or has a message in another language or has the translation. Let everything you do be aimed at 23 Therefore if may_come_together the assembly and one let_be_interpreting. 28 But if not may_be an_interpreter, him _let_be_keeping_silent in the_assembly, and to_himself him _let_be_ _speaking and to_ ~~the~~ _god. 29 Prophets two and or three let_be_speaking, and the others let_be_ _distinguishing. 30 But if to_another may_be_ _revealed something sitting, the first let_be_ _keeping_silent. 31 For/Because you_all_are_ _being_able one_by one all to_be_prophesying, in_order_that all may_be_learning, and all may_ _be_being_exhorted. 32 And spirits of_prophets, to_prophets is_being_subjected. 33 For/Because not is of_disturbance ~~the~~ god, but of_peace. As in all the assemblies of_the holy ones, 34 the women in the assemblies let_be_keeping_silent, because/for not it_is_being_permitted to_them to_be_speaking, but them _let_be_being_ _subjected, as also the law is_saying. 35 And if anything to_learn they_are_wanting, at home their own husbands them _let_be_asking, because/for shameful it_is for_a_woman to_be_ _speaking in the_assembly. 36 Either from you_all the message of_ ~~the~~ _god came_out, or to you_all only it_arrived? 37 If anyone is_supposing a_ _prophet to_be or spiritual, him _let_be_ _recognizing what I_am_writing to_you_all that of_the_master it_is a_command. 38 But if anyone is_not_knowing, him _let_be_not_knowing. 39 So_ _as, brothers, be_being_zealous ~~which~~ to_be_ _prophesying, and ~~which~~ to_be_speaking not be_ _forbidding with with_tongues. 40 But all things properly and with order let_be_becoming.

growing the faith of the hearers. 27 If there's any speaking in other languages, it should be two or three people at most, taking turns and someone should translate. 28 But if there's no translator, they should be silent in the assembly, and save it for between themselves and God. 29 But let two or three people prophesy, and then the others should evaluate what was said. 30 However if something is revealed to someone still seated, then the first person should stop speaking, 31 because you can all prophesy in turn so that everyone can be instructed and encouraged. 32 The prophet's spirits are under the control of the prophets, 33 because God isn't a god of disorder, but of peace.

As in all the assemblies of believers, 34 the women should stay silent in the assemblies, because they're not permitted to speak, but must be in submission as Mosheh's (Moses') law says. 35 But if they want to know more about anything, they should ask their own husbands at home, because it's shameful for a woman to speak in the assembly.

36 Did God's message originate from you all, or did it only come to you? 37 If anyone thinks they're a prophet or a spiritual person, then they should readily acknowledge that what I'm writing to you all is Yahweh's command, 38 but if anyone's ignorant, then let them stay ignorant.

39 So brothers and sisters, strive to be able to prophesy, and don't forbid the speaking of other languages, 40 but let everything be done properly and orderly.

The messiah's resurrection

15:1 Now brothers and sisters, I want to remind you all about the good message that I preached to you, which you then received and now base your faith on. 2 You're all saved by that good message if you hold firmly to what I preached to you, assuming that you didn't just 'say that' you believe.

3 Yes, first of all, I passed onto you all what I myself had received: that Messiah died for our sins as the scriptures had predicted,[72] 4 and that he was buried and then brought back to life on the third day as per the scriptures again,[73] 5 and that he was seen by Kefa (Cephas; Grk. Kefas)[74] and then by the twelve.[75] 6 Then he was seen by more than 500 believers at once—most of whom are still living, although some have already passed away. 7 Then he was seen by Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos), and then by all the ambassadors.

8 Then last of all, as if I'd been born at the wrong time, he appeared to me also,[76] 9 because I'm the least of the ambassadors—quite unworthy of that title because I persecuted God's assembly.[77] 10 But I am what I am thanks to God's grace, as his grace towards me hasn't been wasted. Actually, I worked harder than all the others, although of course it wasn't really me, but God's grace with me. 11 Anyway, whether it was me or them, we all preach that same good message, and that's how you all came to belief.

Life after death

12 Now if the message declares that Messiah was killed and then raised back to life, how come some of you are saying that no one comes back to life? 13 If no one who's dead comes back to life, then Messiah couldn't have come back to life, 14 and if Messiah hasn't come back to life, then our preaching is meaningless and so is your faith! 15 Not only that, it would make us into fraudsters lying about God, because we've testified that God brought Messiah back to life, but that can't be true if the dead can't come back to life. 16 Because if the dead don't come back to life, then Messiah can't have come back to life, 17 but if Messiah didn't come back to life, then your faith is wasted and you're all still just unforgiven sinners. 18 Again, if that's the case, those believers who've passed away simply perished. 19 If our hope in Messiah only applies to this life, then we should be pitied more than anyone else.

20 But Messiah has indeed come back to life from the dead, leading the way for those who have passed away, 21 because since death came through a man (Adam), then the resurrection of the dead also comes through a man (Yeshua). 22 Just as everyone who's in Adam will die, so everyone who's in Messiah will come back to life, 23 but each in his own turn: first Messiah will be leading, then when he returns, those who belong to him.

24 Then the end will come when he hands over the kingship to God the Father after he's destroyed all rule, and all authority and power, 25 because he must reign until he's defeated all his enemies.[78]
26 The final enemy to be abolished will be death itself 27 because (as David wrote), 'God has made everything subject to him.'[79] (Now when it says 'everything', of course that doesn't include God who's the one that made it happen.) 28 And when everything has been put under his control, then the son himself will submit to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God will be in total control.

29 Otherwise, what will the people do who are being immersed in water for the dead? If the dead don't come back to life, why would they get immersed for them? TODO: WHAT'S THIS ABOUT?
30 As for us, why do we place ourselves in danger all the time? 31 I'm dying every day by your boasting brothers and sisters, which I have in Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) our master. TODO: WHAT DOES THIS MEAN? 32 If I fought with wild animals at Efesos for human purposes, what did I gain? If the dead aren't brought back to life, then 'Let's eat and drink, because tomorrow we'll die anyway.'[80]

33 Don't be fooled: 'Evil conversations corrupt good character.' 34 Sober up as you should, and stop sinning, because some of you are quite ignorant about God. (I say that to your shame.)

unless the seed dies first. 37 And you don't sow the plants, but you sow the bare seeds—perhaps of wheat or something else— 38 then God gives it a body just like he wants, so each seed gets its own new body.
39 Not all bodies are the same: humans have one kind of body, animals have different ones, birds different again, and fish also different.
40 There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the beauty of heavenly bodies and of earthly bodies are quite different. 41 The sun, the moon, and the stars all have their own different types of beauty, and even the beauty of stars differs from one to another.
42 So too it is with the resurrection of the dead.
The decaying body is 'sown' into the ground, but the raised body is immortal. 43 It's 'sown' in dishonour but it's raised in splendour. It's 'sown' in weakness but it's raised in power. 44 It's 'sown' a natural body but it's raised as a spiritual body. (If there's a natural body, there's also a spiritual body.) 45 As it's also written: 'The first Adam became a living being.'[81] The last 'Adam' is a life-giving spirit, 46 but the spiritual doesn't come first—it's first the natural and then the spiritual.
47 The first man was made of dust from the earth—the second man came from heaven.
48 Earthly people are like that earthly man, and heavenly people are like that heavenly man.
49 And just like we carry the image of that earthly man, we should also bear the image of that heavenly man. 50 Now brothers and sisters, I can tell you all that our present physical bodies can't inherit God's kingdom, and nor can corrupt things inherit immortality.
51 Listen, I'm explaining a mystery to you all. Not all of us will pass away, but we will all be changed[82] 52 in an instant, a millisecond, at the last trumpet because the trumpet will sound and the dead will come back to living as immortals, and we'll be changed. 53 Yes, it's essential for this perishable body to become incorruptible and for this mortal to become immortal. 54 But when this _me beloved, firm be_becoming, immovable, being_plentiful in the work of_the master always, having_known that the labour of_you_all not is vain in the_master.

16:1 And concerning the collection which is for the holy ones, as I_directed to_the assemblies of_ ~~the~~ _Galatia, thus also you_all do. 2 In_every first perishable body becomes incorruptible and this will come true: 'Death is replaced by victory.'[83] 55 'Death, where is your victory?

Yes death, where is your sting?'[84]
56 Sin is the sting of death, and sin's power is The Law, 57 but be thankful to God because it's him who gives us the victory through our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah.
58 Therefore my dear brothers and sisters, be strong and stand firm, always doing the master's work enthusiastically, knowing that your work for Yahweh isn't wasted.

Aid for God's people

16:1 Now concerning the fund-raising for the believers:[85] You all must do the same as what I got the assemblies in Galatia to do. 2 Every Sunday, each one of you should put something aside from whatever you've earnt, so that when I come we won't need any collections then. 3 Then, when I arrive, I'll write letters to send with those you recommend to take to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) with your gift, 4 but if it's appropriate for me to go as well, then they can travel with me.

Instructions for travellers

5 After I've been to Makedonia I'll come there. Yes, I'm going through Makedonia,[86] 6 but perhaps I'll spend some time with you—maybe even the whole winter. That way, you all could help me on my way wherever I decide to go next, 7 because I don't want to see you all now just in passing, but I'd like to stay with you all for a some time if the master permits.
8 But I'll stay here at Efesos until the Pentecost celebrations[87] 9 because a wide door has opened for me to be effective here, even though many are opposing me.

10 Now if Timotheos[88] arrives, make sure that he has nothing for him to be afraid of there, because he's doing Yahweh's work just like me. 11 So don't let anyone despise him, but help him on his way in peace, so that he can come to me because I'm expecting him along with the brothers.

12 And then concerning the brother Apollos, I strongly urged him to go to you with the brothers. He didn't want to go at the present time, but he'll go when he has another opportunity.

Final messages and greetings

13 Stay alert and stay grounded in the faith. Be strong and courageous. 14 Everything you do, do in love.

15 Now brothers and sisters, you all know that Stefanas' family[89] were the first ones in Akaia to believe, and since then they've devoted themselves to serving the believers, so I urge you all 16 to submit yourselves to people like them, in fact to everyone who works and cooperates.

17 I'm pleased that Stefanas, Fortunatos, and Akaikos came because they've given what you all couldn't, 18 because they refreshed my spirit and yours also, so you should show appreciation to such people.

19 The assemblies in the province of Asia Minor send their greetings.[90] 20 All the brothers and sisters here send their greetings.

Greet each other with an innocent kiss.

21 I, Paulos, am sending this greeting in my own handwriting.

22 If there's anyone there who doesn't love the master, let him be cursed.

Come, master!

23 May the grace from our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) be with all of you.

24 My love to all of you in Messiah Yeshua. May it be so.

Paulos's second known letter to the believers in

Korinthos

Introduction

This is Paulos's second letter written to the believers in Korinthos that we have in our Bibles, but could easily have been his third or fourth letter to them. We deduce this from his reference to other letters (e.g., see www.GotQuestions.org/how-many-letters-Corinthians.html), but we don't have copies of them.

This letter from Paulos to the believers in Korinthos was written from Makedonia at a time when his relationship with the believers there wasn't very good.

In first part of this letter, Paulos tells about his relationship with the believers there in Korinthos. He explains his sadness concerning the shame of the believers and their disobedience of him. Then he tells again about his happiness that his anger faded after the believers repented of their sin and then their good relationship was restored. He urged the believers to continue to collect a gift of aid for poor believers in Yerushalem.

In the final four chapters, Paulos justifies his missionary status to them. (Those that accused Paul said that he's not a true ambassador of Messiah.)

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Paulos, a missionary of Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) by God's will, and from our brother, Timotheos.

It's written to God's assembly in Korinthos,[1] along with all the believers throughout the province of Akaia.

2 May God our father and master Yeshua Messiah give you all grace and peace.

Suffering and comfort

3 May the god and father of our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah be blessed. He is the father of compassion and God of all comfort 4 who comforts us through all our trials so that we can comfort others through all their trials with the same comfort that God comforts us with. 5 In the same way that Messiah's many sufferings are expected of us, so too the Messiah's plentiful comfort also reaches us. 6 If we're being oppressed, it's for your comfort and salvation, and if we're being comforted, it's for your comfort which enables you all to endure the same sufferings that we're suffering. 7 We have confident expectations for you all because we know that you are partners in suffering, and hence also in comfort.

8 Brothers and sisters, we don't want you to miss out on knowing about our difficulties in the province of Asia Minor. We were weighed down with a situation totally beyond our power, so much so that we thought we wouldn't live through it.[2] 9 We were resigned in ourselves to the death sentence so that we wouldn't trust in ourselves but in God who brings the dead back to life— 10 the one who rescued us from that death and will rescue us again. He's the one we put our hope in that he will continue to rescue us 11 as you also cooperated with us through your requests to him. Through this, many people will give thanks on our behalf for the gift that was granted to us in answer to the prayers of many.

The changes to Paulos's plans

12 So this is our boast: Our consciences testify that we have conducted ourselves in the world (and even more so towards all of you) with purity and godly

Literal Version

1:1 Paulos, an_ambassador of_chosen_one/messiah Yaʸsous/(Yəhōshūʿa) by the_will of_god, and Timotheos the brother, to_the assembly of_ ~~the~~ _god ~~which~~ being in Korinthos, with the holy ones all ~~which~~ being in all ~~the~~ Akaia: 2 grace to_you_all and peace, from god the_father of_us and the_master Yaʸsous chosen_one/messiah.

3 Blessed is the god and father of_the master of_us Yaʸsous chosen_one/messiah, the father of_~~the~~ _compassions and god of_all comfort, 4 the one comforting us in all the tribulation of_us, in_order that to_be_able us to_be_comforting the ones in every tribulation, through the comfort with_which we_are_being_comforted ourselves by ~~the~~ god. 5 Because as is_being_plentiful the sufferings of_the chosen_one/messiah toward us, thus through the chosen_one/messiah is_being_plentiful also the comfort of_us. 6 But whether we_are_being_oppressed, because/for the of_you_all comfort and salvation it_is, or we_are_being_comforted, because/for the of_you_all comfort it_is, ~~which~~ working in the_endurance of_the same sufferings, which also we are_suffering. 7 And the hope of_us confirmed for you_all, having_known that as partners you_all_are of_the sufferings, thus also of_the comfort. 8 For/Because not we_are_wanting you_all to_be_not_knowing, brothers, about the tribulation of_us ~~which~~ having_become in ~~the~~ Asia, that against excess beyond our_power we_were_weighed_down, so_as to_be_despairing us even ~~which~~ to_be_living. 9 But ourselves in ourselves the sentence of_ ~~the~~ _death we_have_had, in_order_that not having_trusted we_may_be in ourselves, but in ~~the~~ god, the one raising the dead, 10 who from so_great a_death rescued us, and will_be_rescuing us, in whom we_have_hoped that also still he_will_be_rescuing us, 11 cooperating_with also you_all for us ~~the~~ in_petition, in_order_that by many people, the toward us gift, through many, may_be_given_thanks for us.

12 For/Because the boasting of_us this is: the testimony of_the conscience of_us, that in holiness and sincerity of_ ~~the~~ _god, and not in wisdom fleshly, but in grace of_god, we_were_conducted in the world, and more_abundantly toward you_all. 13 For/Because no other things we_are_writing to_you_all, but than what you_ _all_are_reading or even you_all_are_ _understanding, and I_am_hoping that to the_ _end you_all_will_be_understanding, 14 as also you_all_understood us in part, that the_boast of_ _you_all we_are, just_as also you_all are of_us, in the day of_the master Yaʸsous/(Yəhōshūʻa).

15 And with_this ~~the~~ confidence I_was_wishing previously, to you_all to_come, in_order_that a_ _second grace you_all_may_have, 16 and by you_ _all to_pass_through to Makedonia, and back from Makedonia to_come to you_all, and by you_ _all to_be_sent_forward to ~~the~~ Youdaia.
17 Therefore this wishing, surely_not consequently to_ ~~the~~ _lightness I_resorted? Or what I_am_counselling, according_to flesh I_am_ _counselling, in_order_that may_be with me ~~the~~ Yes, yes, and ~~which~~ No, no? 18 But faithful ~~the~~ god is, that the message of_us ~~which~~ to you_all, not is Yes and No. 19 The ~~the~~ For/Because of_god son, Yaʸsous chosen_one/messiah, who among you_ _all by us having_been_proclaimed, by me, and Silouanos, and Timotheos, not became Yes and No, but Yes in him has_become. 20 For/Because as_many_as promises of_god, in him is the Yes.
Therefore also through him, the amen, to_ ~~the~~ _ _god for the_glory by us. 21 And the one confirming us with you_all to chosen_ _one/messiah and having_anointed us is god, 22 who also having_sealed us and having_given the deposit of_the spirit in the hearts of_us.
23 But I as_witness ~~the~~ god am_calling on ~~the~~ my soul that sparing from_you_all no_longer I_came to Korinthos. 24 Not that we_are_mastering of_ _you_all over_the faith, but fellow-workers we_ _are of_the joy with_you_all, because/for in_the faith you_all_have_stood.
2:1 I_judged for by_myself this, ~~which~~ not again in sorrow to you_all to_come. 2 For/Because if I am_ _sorrowing you_all, also who is ~~which~~ gladdening me, except ~~not/lest~~ the one being_sorrowed by me? 3 And I_wrote this same thing, in_order_that not having_come, sorrow I_may_have from of_ _whom it_was_fitting me to_be_rejoicing, having_ _trusted in all you_all that ~~the~~ my joy of_all of_ _you is. 4 For/Because out_of much tribulation and anguish of_heart, I_wrote to_you_all through sincerity, not with worldly wisdom, but relying on God's grace. 13 We're not writing other ideas to you other than what you're all reading. You're also understanding it and I'm hoping that you'll be able to understand it all the way through to the end 14 as you initially partially understood us.

Then on the day when Master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk.
Yesus) returns, you'll be able to boast about us just as we do about all of you.
15 Because of my confidence in that, I had wanted to visit you all so that you'd have a second taste of grace, 16 and to continue on to Makedonia and to stay again on the way back, and then to have you all help send me on my way to Yehudah (Judea).[3] 17 Was I just being light-headed when I hoped for that? Or what was I thinking? Was I just thinking in worldly ways where yes, I might, and at the same time, no, I might not? 18 But our message to you all hasn't been both 'yes' and 'no', because God is faithful. 19 His son Yeshua Messiah who I've preached about to you all, as well as hearing it from Silas and Timotheos,[4] didn't become 'yes' and 'no', but in him it's become 'yes'.
20 Concerning the many promises made by God, in Messiah they're 'yes', and therefore through him the 'Let it be so', resulting in honour for God through us. 21 It's God who commissioned us and who confirms you and us to Messiah, 22 and God also places his seal on us and places his spirit in our hearts.
23 I call on God as a witness for my soul that it was to spare you all that I didn't come to Ko-rinthos. 24 Not that we are in any way the masters of your faith, but rather we are fellow-workers sharing in your happiness because you all stand in the faith.
2:1 So I made the decision myself not to make a sad visit to you, 2 because if I'm making you all upset, who would be left to cheer me up except for the people that I would've just upset? 3 So I wrote this same thing, so that when I came, I wouldn't get your upsets when I should be being happy, having trusted in you all that my happiness is in

you. 4 I wrote to you much difficulty and anguish in my heart and through many tears, not wanted to make you all upset, but rather so that you'd know how much love toward you all is much greater than all that.

Forgiveness for the offender

5 If someone has caused grief, he hasn't upset me, well not much, because I don't want to be burdening you all. 6 The punishment imposed on him by most of you is appropriate, 7 so now you should forgive and comfort him in case excess pain should drive him out. 8 That's why I'm urging all of you to reaffirm him now with your love. 9 Another reason that I wrote to you was to find out if you would stand strong and be obedient in everything. 10 But anyone that you forgive for anything, I also forgive, because what I've also forgiven (if I have forgiven anything), it was for you all in the presence of Messiah 11 so that we can't be exploited by Satan (because we're not ignorant about his intentions).

Paulos's brief ministry in Troias

12 When I went to Troias to preach the good message of the messiah and an opportunity presented itself to me in the messiah, 13 my spirit couldn't relax because I found out that my brother Titos wasn't there, so I said my goodbyes to them and continued on to Makedonia.[5]

Victory through Messiah

14 But we're thankful to God who displays us as victors in the messiah, and reveals the aroma of the knowledge of the messiah, through us in every place. 15 Because of Messiah, we who are being saved are a sweet fragrance to God, and also the ones perishing. 16 On one hand we're an aroma of death to those choosing death, and on the other hand, an aroma of life to those choosing life. Wow, who's worthy enough for that? 17 We're not like the many others who are peddling God's message to make a profit, but we speak in front of God in sincerity. As followers of God, we speak about Messiah.

Literal Version

many tears, not in_order_that you_all_may_be_ _sorrowed, but the love in_order_that you_all_ _may_know that I_am_having more_abundantly toward you_all.

5 But if anyone has_sorrowed, not me he_has_ _sorrowed, but in part, in_order_that not I_may_ _be_burdening all you_all. 6 Worthy is to_ ~~the~~ _ _such one ~~the~~ punishment this, which is by the more, 7 so_that instead rather you_all are to_ _forgive and to_comfort him, lest somehow with_ _the more_abundant sorrow, may_be_swallowed_ _up ~~the~~ such one. 8 Therefore I_am_exhorting you_all, to_confirm toward him love.
9 For/Because for this also I_wrote, in_order_that I_may_know the provenness of_you_all, whether to all things obedient you_all_are. 10 But to_ _whomever anything you_all_are_forgiving, also_ _I forgive, because/for also I what have_forgiven, if anything I_have_forgiven, because_of you_all it_is in the_presence of_chosen_one/messiah, 11 in_order_that not we_may_be_exploited by ~~the~~ Satan/(Sāṭān), because/for not of_him the thinking we_are_not_knowing.

12 And having_come to ~~the~~ Trōias for the good_ _message of_the chosen_one/messiah, and a_ _door to_me having_been_opened_up in the_ _master, 13 not I_have_had relaxation in_the spirit of_me, ~~which~~ not to_find me Titos the brother of_me, but having_bid_goodbye to_them, I_came_out to Makedonia.

14 But ~~the~~ to_god thankfulness be, to_the one always triumphing us in the chosen_ _one/messiah, and the aroma of_the knowledge of_him, revealing through us in every place.
15 Because of_chosen_one/messiah a_sweet_ _fragrance we_are to_ ~~the~~ _god, in the ones being_ _saved and in the ones perishing, 16 to_one on_ _one_hand an_aroma from death to death, on_ _the_other_hand to_one an_aroma from life to life. And for these things who is worthy?
17 For/Because not we_are like the many peddling the message of_ ~~the~~ _god, but as of sincerity, but as of god, in_front_of god in chosen_one/messiah we_are_speaking.

Following the new agreement by the spirit

3:1 Oh, are we beginning to pat ourselves on the back again? Don't we need written references for you all, or from you all, like some others do? 2 It's all of you who are our references, and having been written in our hearts, it's known about and being read by all people. 3 It shows that you who were served by us, are now Messiah's letter that wasn't written with ink but with God's living spirit—not written on stone tablets[6] but on people's hearts.[7]

4 We have such confidence towards God through the messiah, 5 not that we ourselves are worthy to consider ourselves anything special, but our qualifications come from God. 6 He qualified us as servants of a new agreement[8]—not following it by the letter, but by the spirit, because following by the letter leads to death whereas following by the spirit gives life.

7 The system which was inscribed on stone tablets and which results in death was so incredible when it was given that the Israelis couldn't even bring themselves to look at Mosheh's (Moses') face because it shone so brightly.[9] But if that system is being nullified, 8 won't this system via the spirit be even greater? 9 If the system that brought condemnation was incredible, how much greater is the system that leads to righteousness, 10 because that earlier system seems ordinary now when compared with the more incredible greatness of the new system, 11 and if what ended up being replaced was incredible, how much more incredible is the system that lasts.

12 So then, since that's our expectation, we can be very bold, 13 not just like Mosheh putting a veil over his face[10] because the Israelis couldn't even look at him when introducing a system that would be replaced. 14 But their thinking was inflexible because even until this very day, the same veil remains during the public reading of the Hebrew scriptures—it's not opened up because it's only Messiah that nullifies it. 15 So these days whenever Mosheh's writings are being read, a veil lies across their hearts, 16 but whenever that heart might turn towards Yahweh, the veil will be removed.[11] 17 Now Yahweh is the spirit, and there's freedom wherever Yahweh's spirit is. 18 All of us who've had our faces unveiled are reflecting Yahweh's greatness, and that same image transforms us from greatness to greatness. This comes from Yahweh who is the spirit.

The treasure placed in human containers

4:1 So because we have this ministry as a result of God's mercy, we're not discouraged 2 but rather, we have renounced any shameful things that were hidden and continue our spiritual journey. Avoiding deception and taking care not to distort God's message, we present the truth clearly even as we commend ourselves to everyone's conscience before God. 3 But even if our good message is concealed, it's concealed from those who are perishing. 4 The god of this age has blinded the thinking of the unbelievers so that the light of the good message about the greatness of the messiah who's God's image, doesn't radiate out to them, 5 because it's not us ourselves that we're proclaiming, but the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah. We serve as your slaves because of him, 6 because the god who said, 'Light will be shining out of the darkness',[12] shined in our hearts so that we could experience God's greatness in the face of Yeshua Messiah.

7 So we have this treasure stored in containers made from the dirt, so that the excellence of the power will be from God and not from us ourselves. 8 We might be oppressed but we won't be crushed, perplexed but we won't despair, 9 persecuted but we won't be abandoned, and struck down but we won't perish. 10 We always carry around in our bodies the death of Yeshua, so that the life of Yeshua may also be revealed in our bodies, 11 because we who are alive are always being given over to death for Yeshua's sake, so that his life

16 Therefore not we_are_losing_heart, but if also the outside of_us person is_being_ruined, but the person inside of_us is_being_renewed by_day and day. 17 For/Because the momentary light of_ ~~the~~ _ _tribulation as excess to excess an_eternal burden of_glory, is_producing for_us, 18 not observing of_us the things being_seen, but the things not being_seen, because/for the things being_seen are temporary, but the things not being_seen are eternal.

may also be revealed in our mortal bodies. 12 So then, death is working in us, but life is working in all of you.

13 We have the same spirit of faith as what's written: 'I believed, therefore I talked about it.'[13] We also believe so we also talk about it, 14 knowing that the one who brought Yeshua back to life, will also bring us back to life along with Yeshua, and will be presenting us along with all of you. 15 All of this is for you, so that after experiencing much grace, you all will be even more thankful and thus honour God.

Valuing what's actually important

16 Because of that we're not discouraged because even if our outer person is being ruined, our inner person is being renewed day by day 17 because our small, temporary troubles will produce an excess of great honour for us. 18 We don't just look at what we can see, but include the things that can't be seen, because visible things are temporary, but the things that last forever are invisible to our eyes.

Our future bodies

5:1 We know that when the temporary, earthly home (our body) that we live in is demolished, we will have a building from God that's not built by human hands—an eternal house in the heavens. 2 Actually, that's also why we groan—wanting to be clothed in our heavenly bodies. 3 Yes, once we're properly dressed we won't feel naked 4 because while we live in these temporary homes we are groaning. It's not that we want to dispose of these temporary homes, but we want to be permanently clothed so that our mortal parts might be enveloped by life. 5 It's God who prepared us for this reason—yes, the one who deposited the spirit into us.

6 Because of that, we're always confident and known that while we're at home in our bodies, we are distanced from the master, 7 but we walk by faith and not by how things look. 8 And we do have confidence and look forward to being absent out of these bodies and being at home with the master, 9 so that's why we're ambitious to please the master, whether we're still in these bodily

homes or absent from them. 10 Yes, we must all stand at our court hearing in front of the messiah, so that each of us may receive justice for what we did while in these bodies, whether it was good or evil.[14]

11 Because of that, having known the fear of Yahweh, we are persuading people, but God sees what we're doing, and I'm hoping that your consciences also see the same. It's time to get saved

12 Again, we're not trying to promote ourselves to you, but we're giving you all an opportunity to take pride in us, so that you can respond to those who take pride in outside appearances rather than in what's in the heart. 13 If we're being crazy, it's to serve God, or if we're being sensible, it's for all of you, 14 because the messiah's love controls us since we are convinced that he died for everyone. Hence we've all died 15 and he died for everyone, so that anyone who's living, won't be living for themselves any more, but for the one who died for them and then came back to life from the dead.

16 So from now on, we don't just know people in the physical dimension, and even if we have known Messiah physically, that's no longer how we know him. 17 So then if anyone is in Messiah, they're a new creation—the old has gone, and wow, it's now become new! 18 Everything is from God, the one who reconciled us to himself by Messiah and who has given the ministry of reconciliation to us. 19 God was in Messiah reconciling the world to himself, not listing their sins against them, and having given the message of reconciliation to us.

20 Because of that, we are ambassadors for Messiah, as though God is encouraging others through us, so we implore you for Messiah: Make your peace with God. 21 God took the one who hadn't experienced sin and made him into sin for us so that in him, we could become not guilty in God's sight.

6:1 Since we're working together, we want to encourage you all not to accept God's grace wastefully 2 because he said,

'I listened to you at the right time, and I helped you on the day when you were obeying and disobeying God, or in other words, how can light socialise with darkness? 15 So what harmony can Messiah have with Satan, or what regrets, but the world's sorrow leads to death.

11 See how this sorrow according to God's values has produced earnestness in you all, but also eagerness to clear yourselves, resentment, fear, longing, zeal, and vengeance. You have proved yourselves innocent in the matter in every area.
12 So if I also wrote to you all, not on account of the one having done wrong, nor on account of the one having been wronged, but on account of your earnestness that would be revealed to us all before God, 13 then we've been comforted because of this.

And talking about our comfort, we were quite thrilled at Titos' happiness because his spirit has been refreshed by all of you.
14 Yes, if I've boasted anything about you all to him, I wasn't disgraced, but as we spoke the truth to you all about everything, so also did our boasting to Titos become true 15 and his affection towards you all increased when he's reminded about your obedience and how you accepted him with fear and trembling. 16 I'm thrilled that I can have confidence in you all about everything.

Encouragement to be generous

8:1 And then, brothers and sisters, we want you to know about how God showed kindness to the assemblies in Makedonia[23] 2 in that as they proved themselves in a time of persecution, they continued to show great positivity and from the depth of their poverty, their generosity resulted in plentiful riches. 3 So I'm testifying about their ability, and besides that, they voluntarily 4 and enthusiastically begged us to allow them the grace and fellowship that would come from their service to other believers. 5 It wasn't something that we expected of them, but they gave themselves—firstly to the master, and also to us by God's will. 6 So we encouraged Titos that just as he began to do previously, that he would go on to cultivate this generosity in you. 7 But since you're all prolific in everything—in faith and speech and knowledge and all earnestness and in the love from us to you all—make sure that you're all prolific in this grace of giving.

8 I'm not saying this as a command, but approving the genuineness of your love through the earnestness of others. 9 because you have all experienced the grace of our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah: that although he was rich, he became poor so that all of you in your poverty might become rich.

10 And I'm giving my opinion on this because it's beneficial for you all not only to do what began last year, but to do it willingly. 11 Now you should see this through so that you're all not just ready to be willing, but also to actually accomplish that from what you have, 12 because if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what they do not have.

13 Of course, it's not that others should be relaxing while you all endure difficulty, but with an aim of equality. 14 At the present time, your excess will help those who are in need—another time their excess might meet your need to bring about equality. 15 As the scriptures say:

'The person who gathered much didn't have too much, and the person who gathered little didn't have any lack.'[24]

Concerning Titos and his companions

16 But may God be thanked for putting the same earnestness for you all into Titos' mind 17 because indeed he accepted our appeal, but being so earnest he volunteered to visit you all. 18 And we sent another brother along with him, who is praised by all the assemblies for his good message, 19 and not only that, he was also chosen by the assemblies as our travelling companion as we bring this gift as our service for the master's honour and for our readiness. 20 We want to avoid the possibility of being criticised in our excitement in serving this way, 21 because we are providing good, not only towards Yahweh, but also for people.[25]

22 We also sent with them another brother who we approved of in many ways—often being diligent, but now much more diligent because of his _all I_am_boasting to_the_ones_from_Makedonia, that Akaia has_prepared from last_year, and the

of_you_all zeal provoked ~~the~~ more of_them. 3 But I_sent the brothers, in_order_that not the boast high confidence in you all. 23 Concerning Titos, he is my partner and your fellow-worker, and the accompanying brothers are ambassadors of the as-semblies which are Messiah's splendour, 24 so show them signs of your love and fulfil what we boasted about you all in the various assemblies.

Preparing the aid for the believers

9:1 It's unnecessary for me to write to you all about this ministry to the believers 2 because I know about your readiness to help and I've been boasting about it to those from Makedonia—that you all in Akaia were ready last year—and your zeal provoked more of them to act. 3 But I sent the brothers so that our boasting about you all won't be invalidated in this regard, so that you'll be prepared just as I had told them. 4 Otherwise if somehow some might come with me from Makedonia and find you unprepared, then we (or might we say you all as well) might be disgraced by our confidence. 5 That's why I considered it necessary to encourage the brothers to go ahead to you all there so they could prearrange the gift that you'd previously promised so that it would be ready as a blessing and not appear as our greediness.

Showing generosity

6 Also this: the person who plants sparingly will also harvest sparingly, and the person sowing generously will also have a generous harvest. 7 Let each person do what their own heart tells them—not out of sorrow or from pressure, but because God loves those who are cheerful givers. 8 And God is able to shower generosity onto you all so that you'll be content having everything you need, thus able to be prolific in doing good to others. 9 As it's written in the scriptures:

'He distributed his gifts and gave to the poor, now his righteousness will remain to the end of the age.'[26]

10 Thus God who supplies the seed to the person sowing and supplies our food,[27] will be supplying and multiplying your seeds as you sow in others and will increase the harvest resulting from your righteousness. 11 You will be enriched towards generosity in every way, which will lead us all to give thanks to God. 12 Serving in this kind of ministry meets the needs of the believers, but also leads to plenty of occasions to give thanks to God. 13 In proving yourselves by this ministry, they will honour God as it displays your commitment to the good message of the messiah, and your generosity toward them and towards everyone, 14 and they will wish the best for you all and pray for you because of God's overflowing goodness to you all. 15 Yes, we thank God for his incredible gift.

Paulos's defence of his authority

10:1 Now I myself, Paulos, am indeed humble when I'm with you all, but when I'm absent I'm bolder. I implore you all by the humility and gentleness of the messiah 2 and I beg you so that when I come I won't have to be as bold as I'm expecting to counter those who consider us to be motivated by worldly desires. 3 We might be living in this world, but it's not people that we're at war with, 4 because the weapons that we use in war are not physical but come with God's power for tearing down anti-God institutions and nullifying their arguments. 5 We attack every theory that's used to argue against the possibility of knowing God, and capturing all thinking so it becomes obedient to the messiah, 6 and being ready to stand against all disobedience for whenever your obedience might be complete.

7 You all are looking at the outside appearance of things. Anyone who has personally decided to follow Messiah needs to take this into account: just as they belong to Messiah, so also do we. 8 So if I boast too often about our authority (which the master gave us for building you up rather than for tearing you down), I won't be ashamed of it 9 so that hopefully I won't be terrifying you all with my letters. 10 Some are saying, "His letters are heavy and strongly-worded, but when he's actually here, he's weak and his words get mocked." 11 Those people should reconsider and realise that as we are in our letters when we're absent, that's also how we'll work when we're present.

13 But we won't boast about immeasurable things—only those domains where God allotted a measure to us which was to reach all of you. 14 In not reaching you we don't overextend ourselves, because we came your way with the good message about the messiah. 15 We don't boast of things we can't measure like other peoples' work, but we have hope that as your faith grows, you'll see us as more important in more areas 16 so we can preach the good message to the areas beyond you—not boasting about things already done in others' areas.

17 But 'if anyone does boast, they should boast in Yahweh',[28] 18 because it's not the people who commend themselves that are approved, but those who the master commends.

Paulos and the fake missionaries

11:1 I wish you all could tolerate a bit of foolishness from me, but yes, you do tolerate me, 2 because I'm jealous of you all with godly jealousy as I had committed you to your future husband—a pure bride to present to the messiah. 3 But I'm afraid that just as the crafty serpent somehow deceived Havah (Eve),[29] your thinking might get corrupted from its sincerity and purity in the messiah. 4 Indeed even if another Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) came and proclaimed something different from what we proclaimed, or if you receive another spirit that you hadn't received already, or a good message different from what you've already heard, you might tolerate it.

5 I reckon that I wasn't deficient compared to the 'super missionaries', 6 but even if my speaking is just ordinary, my knowledge isn't and I've made everything clear to you all in every way.

7 Or did I disobey God when I humbled myself so that all of you might be elevated, because I shared the good message with you all without any personal gain? 8 I've 'robbed' other assemblies in order to support my ministry to all of you, 9 and when I was with you and needed something, I wasn't a burden to anyone, because the believers who came from Makedonia supplied what I needed.[30] Thus I have kept myself from being a burden to you in any way, and will keep doing so. 10 The messiah's truth is in me such that my boasting in the regions of Akaia won't be stopped. 11 Why's that? Because I don't love you all? God knows that I do.

12 But what I'm doing, I'll keep on doing, so that I can deny the opportunity to those people who are looking for an opportunity so that what they boast about, we'll already be doing, 13 because they are false ambassadors and deceitful workers—masquerading themselves as Messiah's missionaries, 14 and that's no surprise because Satan himself masquerades as a messenger of light. 15 So then it's no great surprise if his servants are masquerading as God's servants, but their end will be the consequence of their actions.

Paulos's boasting about his sufferings

16 I'll say it again: no one should suppose that I'm foolish, but if they do, at least accept me as foolish so that I can also boast a little. 17 When I say that, I'm not talking words from Yahweh, but like a fool confidently boasting. 18 Many boast like worldly people, so I'll boast as well, 19 because you prudent ones happily tolerate foolish people. 20 Yes, you tolerate those who'll enslave you all, those who'll exploit you, those who'll take advantage of you all, those who promote themselves, and anyone whacks you in the face. 21 I'm talking about dishonour as if we were weak, but (speaking foolishly again), anything that anyone else is brave enough to do, then I will also be brave enough to match. 22 Are they Ivrim (Hebrews)? What God showed Paulos

12:1 It's not appropriate or beneficial to be boasting, so I'll come to the visions and revelations from Yahweh.[38] 2 Fourteen years ago I observed a man who was a believer in Messiah who was pulled up to it was in the physical or just the spiritual realm) 4 was pulled up into paradise and heard messages which can't be put into words (because living people aren't allow to speak them). 5 I'm prepared to boast about that man, but I won't boast about myself because I won't boast at all except about my weaknesses, 6 because even if I did want to boast, I wouldn't be being foolish, because I would be speaking the truth. But I'll refrain in case anyone reckons that I'm more than what they can see or hear about me.

7 So to keep my head from getting too big because of those incredible revelations, I was given a 'thorn' in my body—Satan's messenger to harass me and keep me from becoming conceited. 8 Three times I begged the master that it might leave me 9 and he told me, "Is my grace good enough for you? My power reaches its conclusion through weakness." Therefore I'll quite gladly boast about my weaknesses so that the messiah's power can take residence in me. 10 So then I take pleasure in weaknesses, in insults and hardships, in persecutions and distresses for Messiah because whenever I might be faltering, that's when I'm powerful.

Paulos's concerns about the believers there

11 You have forced me to become foolish, because I should have been commended by you all because I'm no less than those 'super missionaries' even if I am just 'nothing'. 12 Indeed, I persevered to deliver missionary results among you all, as well as signs, wonders, and miracles. 13 In what way were you all treated less than the rest of the assemblies, except that I didn't load you with any burdens? Forgive me for this mistake.

14 Now listen, I'm ready to visit you all for the third time and I won't be aiming to burden you down because I'm not after what you have, but rather my interest is in you yourselves. The children shouldn't be saving to support the parents, but the parents should support the children. 15 I'm happy to invest everything I have, including all of myself, for the sake of your souls. Am I being loved

16 So that's that. I'm didn't burden you all, but

17 Did any of those that I sent to you exploit you all? 18 I urged Titos to go there along with another believer. Surely Titos must have exploited you all?
No, didn't we all do the same things as guided by the same spirit.
19 Now you're already supposing that we're defending ourselves? Actually, we're speaking as followers of Messiah knowing that God is watching, and dear friends, everything has been with the aim of building you up. 20 You see, I'm worried that when I come, I might not find you living how I'd want, and you all might not find me how you'd want. I'm worried that I might find strife and jealousy, anger and selfish ambition, slander and gossip, and conceit and disturbances. 21 I'm worried that when I come, God will humble me there with you all, and I might be upset about many who've sinned in the past and haven't repented from the impurity and sexual immorality and self-centred living that they practiced.

Testing yourselves

13:1 This is the third time that I'll be coming there to you all. 'Every account must be confirmed by at least two, preferably three, witnesses.'[39] 2 I said previously on my second visit and while I'm absent I'll say it again to those who sinned previously and to all the rest as well: if I come back to find the same again, I won't be sparing anyone, 3 because you're all wanting proof that I speak from Messiah who isn't incapable of handling you all but is quite able to do what he wants. 4 Although he was executed in weakness, now he's living by God's power. We also falter in him, but will be living with him by God's power towards you all.
5 Test yourselves to check if you're living in the faith—you yourselves can decide that. Or can't you all recognise whether or not Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) is living in you? Surely you're not that unqualified? 6 But I'm hoping that you all will know that we're not unqualified. 7 And we're asking God that you won't do evil—not so that we'll be seen to be approved, but so that you all will be doing good, even if we may seem unqualified, 8 because we're not able to do anything against the truth—only for the truth. 9 So we're glad whenever we falter, but you all might be quite capable as we also desire that you all grow to perfection. 10 I'm writing these things while I'm absent, so that when I'm present I won't have to treat you all severely according to the authority that the master gave me for building and not for tearing down.

Paulos's final greetings and prayer

11 Finally, brothers and sisters, stay happy, be prepared and be comforted, be united with each other and at peace. May God who's the source of love and peace be with all of you.

12 Greet each other with an innocent kiss.

The believers here send their greetings to all of you.[40]

13 May the grace of the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah and God's love and the holy spirit's companionship be with all of you.

Paulos's letter to the believers in

Romai

Introduction

Paulos's letter to the believers in Romai was sent to both Yehudim and non-Jews who believe in, and trust, Yeshua (Jesus) the messiah. He wrote to them so that they could be prepared for when he could visit them there. Paulos planned to work there with other Christians for a while, then with their help, he would travel to Spania. He wrote in order to explain his understanding of Christian faith and of day-to-day living as Christians.

Paulos greets the believers there in Romai and he tells them about his prayers for them. Then he tells them the theme of his letter, "how God makes us guiltless—by faith." (1:17a). All people, Jewish or not, need to become guiltless in God's sight by means of faith in Yeshua Messiah.

Next Paulos tells them about new life by means of unity with the messiah thereby forming a new relationship with God. Believers will have peace from God and the power of Spirit of God will save them from the power of sin and of death. In chapters 5-8, Paulos explains about the purpose of God's law and about the power of God's spirit working through believers.

Paulos answers the question about how Yehudim and non-Jews fit into God's plan for of all people. Paulos explains that the unbelief of Yehudim is part of God's plan for a time so that the good message can be proclaimed to non-Jews. But concerning God's choosing of Yehudim, he loved them very much due to his promise to their ancestors, and it's as a result of them that all people can receive the love and mercy of God through the messiah Yeshua.

In the ending, Paulos explains how to live as a Christian, with the main need being to accept and love each other. He also includes themes like serving God, the responsibility of Christians the government, and for each individual, questions concerning the conscience. Paulos ends his letter and greeting others, and by his praising God.

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Paulos, a slave of Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and a chosen ambassador who's been set apart for God's good message, 2 which God had previously promised through the messages of his prophets in the holy scriptures.

3 This good message is about his son, who was conceived as a descendant of David, 4 and became known as God's son according to the spirit of holiness—demonstrating power by coming back to life from the dead. Yes, he's our master, Yeshua Messiah, 5 and it's through him that we received generous gifts, and also the assignment to faithfully, obediently take his name to all the non-Jews, 6 which also includes you non-Jews there who Yeshua Messiah invited.

7 This letter is written to all those in Romai that God loves and considers as holy. May you all experience generosity and peace from God our father and from the master Yeshua Messiah.

Paulos's wish to visit Romai

8 I'll start by thanking my God through Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah for all of you, because the story about your faith has been told in many countries. 9 Yes, the God that I serve in my spirit, in the good message about his son, is my witness about how I never stop mentioning you Romaios 10 in my prayers—asking that somehow God will favour me by allowing me to come and visit you, 11 because I'm longing to see you so that I can share a particular spiritual gift with you in order to strengthen you. 12 I want all of us to be encouraged together by each other's faith—both me and you Romaios.

13 Brothers and sisters, I don't want you to be unaware that I'd planned several times to come to you,[1] but I was vetoed until recently so that I'd also have a harvest among you similar to those among the other non-Jews. 14 Whether it's Hellains (Greeks) or other foreigners, wise people or foolish, I have an obligation, 15 and so I'm also eager to talk about the good message to all of you there in Romai.

16 I'm not ashamed to talk about the good message,[2] because it conveys God's power to save everyone who believes it—first Yehudim (Jews) and then non-Jews. 17 It explains how God makes us guiltless—by faith leading to more faith—as it's been written: Godly people will live by faith.[3]

God's anger towards those who deny his existence

18 God's severe anger is being revealed from heaven on the ungodliness and disobedience of people who limit the truth by their disobedience, 19 because the fact that there is a god has been shown to them, because God himself has revealed it. 20 Ever since the creation of the world, God's invisible attributes have been clearly seen through his workmanship—both his eternal power and his divinity—so people have no excuse. 21 Even though they know about God, they didn't honour or thank him, but their theories made them incompetent and their minds turned from perception towards darkness.[4] 22 They claimed to be scientific, but instead they believed foolishness, 23 and so they changed the greatness of the eternal God into the likeness of an image of a mortal human, or birds or animals or reptiles.[5]

24 Therefore God reluctantly let their lusts lead to impurity and the dishonouring of their bodies among themselves, 25 as they exchanged God's truth for a lie, and worshipped and served the creation, instead of the creator, who should be praised throughout all time. May it be so.

26 Because of that, God reluctantly let them exercise their dishonourable passions, and their women exchanged natural behaviours for unnatural ones, 27 and similarly their men deserted the natural behaviours towards women, and stoked their lusts towards each other—man with man, and the shame that it produces, and then received back in themselves the payment which is appropriate for such deception.

28 They didn't want to know about God, and so he reluctantly let their depraved minds be filled with unhelpful thoughts, 29 and so they were filled with disobedience, wickedness, greed, and malice, and full of envy, murder, strife, and deceit, becoming malicious people, gossips, 30 slanderers, god-haters, abusers, proud people, braggers, and inventors of evil, unable to be persuaded by their parents, 31 unintelligent, untrustworthy, unloving, and unmerciful. 32 They know that God must exercise justice towards people doing such things, yet they not only practice those things which will lead to a death sentence, but they also approve when others do them.

Judgement even for those without the written law

2:1 So there's no excuse for anyone who judges others,[6] because you're condemning yourselves if you're doing those same things that you're judging others for, 2 because we know that God's judgement is based on the factual accounts of what each person is doing. 3 But maybe you're thinking that you can judge others doing these things and yet somehow escape God's judgement when you do them yourself? 4 Or maybe you're taking advantage of God's kindness and patience, without realising that his kindness was meant to lead you to turn away from your wrongdoing? 5 But it's your hardness and failure to turn away from wrongdoing that's causing severe anger to be stored up for God's judgement day, when all will be revealed, including his severe anger, 6 as each person will be judged by their actions.[7] 7 Those who've persistently done good, expecting praise and honour, and to escape destruction, will be given eternal life, 8 but those who've lived out their selfish ambition and refused to believe the truth, but let themselves get persuaded by disobedience, will meet with severe anger and rage. 9 For every person doing evil, there'll be trouble and distress—to Yehudim (Jews) first and then to non-Jews, 10 but for those who do good, there'll be praise and honour and peace—to Yehudim first and then to non-Jews, 11 because God doesn't indulge in favouritism.[8]

12 Those who weren't under the Jewish laws and yet sinned, they'll be judged without the law, and those who knew the laws and sinned will be judged by the law, 13 because listening to the law doesn't make people right with God, but rather it's those who obey the law who'll be declared guiltless. 14 Whenever other nations don't have the Jewish laws, but naturally obey what's in the laws, they show that even without our laws, they have their own law. 15 They demonstrate that they effectively have God's law written in their minds and agreeing with their consciences, and between the two they'll be either accused or defended 16 on the day when God, through Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), judges people's private lives, as I've shared as part of the good message.

Yehudim who disobey their laws

17 But if you're a Yehudi (Jew), and trusting in the law, and boasting about being chosen by God 18 and knowing his will and knowing what's important because of familiarity with the law, 19 and if you've persuaded yourself that you're a guide for blind people and a light to people who are in darkness, 20 and that you're an instructor to foolish people and a teacher of children, and you appear to be knowledgeable about the truth of the law, 21 then why do you teach others when you haven't even taught yourself? You announce that stealing is wrong, but you're a thief. 22 You teach about not messing with other people's spouses, yet you do it yourself. You detest idols, but you sneak money out of the temple. 23 You boast about being a student of the law, but you dishonour God by breaking the laws. 24 Yes, it's been written: 'God's name is slandered among the nations because of you people.'[9]

25 Circumcision is of value if you're keeping the law, but if you're breaking the laws, then your circumcision means just the same as if you're uncircumcised, 26 so if uncircumcised people groups behave justly according to the law, even though they're not physically circumcised, God will consider them as his people. 27 Yes, those people groups who aren't circumcised, but keep the law, will be judging you who were given the law in writing and are circumcised, yet break those laws.

28 A true Yehudi isn't just a Yehudi on the outside, and their circumcision isn't just on the outside of their body, 29 but they're a Yehudi even in their private life and through circumcision of their heart[10]—by the spirit and not by the letter of the law—earning praise not from people, but from God.

3:1 So what advantage is there in being a Yehudi (Jew), and what's the benefit of circumcision? 2 A lot, in every way. Firstly, Yehudim (Jews) were entrusted with the writing down of God's messages.
3 But what if some didn't believe? Wouldn't the unbelief of Yehudim make faith that comes from God worthless? 4 Absolutely not. Even if every person was a liar, God is truthful, just like it's been written about him:

'You will be proved right about what you say, and you'll prevail when you're judged in court.'[11]

5 But if our sinfulness highlights God's sinlessness, what can we say about that? Isn't God, the one inflicting the severe anger, wrong to punish us? (Of course, this is reasoning from a human perspective.) 6 Of course not, otherwise how could God be able to judge the world?

7 But if my lie exposes God's truth and so brings him honour, why would he still judge me as a sinner? 8 Some people falsely accuse us of saying,
'Let's do evil things so that good might follow.'
Those who say that deserve their punishment.

No person is guiltless

9 What then? Do Yehudim (Jews) have any advantage?
Definitely not, because we showed earlier that both Yehudim and other nationalities are all under sin's shadow, 10 just like it was written long ago:

'No one is guiltless,
not even one person.
11 No one understands,

there's not even one person trying to find God.
12 Everyone has turned away, it was a waste of time.

13 'Their words lead to death, their tongues are deceptive.'[13]
'Their lips spray out poison.'[14]
14 'Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness.'[15]
15 'They rush off to go and shed blood.
16 They leave trails of destruction and misery—
17 they don't know the path that leads to peace.'[16]
18 Revering God isn't at the front of their minds.[17]
19 We know that whatever the law says, it's for everyone that the law applies to, so that no one can speak against it, and the whole world will be bound by God's judgement. 20 No human will be declared guiltless in front of God by their keeping the law,[18] because it's the law that teaches what sin is.

Removing the guilt from sin

21 But now God has revealed a way to remove guilt that's not by rules—a way that Mosheh (Moses) and the prophets wrote about. 22 We can be made right with God through faith in Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah.[19] This is for everyone who believes, because there's no distinction between Yehudim (Jews) and others, 23 because everyone has sinned and is unable to be honoured by God. 24 But even without deserving it, we can be declared guiltless by God's generosity, by being bought out of slavery to sin by Messiah Yeshua, 25 who God placed on the altar as a sacrifice for sin. This happens through faith in his blood,

4:1 Therefore what we_will_be_saying, to_have_ _found Abra'am/('Avrāhām) the forefather of_us according_to the_flesh? 2 For/Because if Abra'am by works was_justified, he_is_having a_boast, but not toward god. 3 For/Because what the scripture is_saying? which was a sign of his sinlessness.
(God hasn't yet judged those who sinned in the past, 26 because of his patience, waiting for the present time to show his righteousness and to be fair, and to remove the guilt of those with faith in Yeshua.)
27 So where does that leave boasting? It's not in the picture. How come? Through obeying Mosheh's laws? No, through a law about faith.
28 So now we should expect that a person will be made guiltless by faith—not by obeying Mosheh's laws. 29 Or is God only god of the Yehudim? Isn't he also the god of others? Yes, he is the god of others. 30 Indeed, there's only one God,[20] and he declares people guiltless by faith whether they're circumcised Yehudim, or non-Jews. 31 So does this 'faith' cancel the law? Not on your life. In fact, it upholds the law.

Avraham's faith

4:1 So what did our physical ancestor, Avraham, discover about all this? 2 Because if Avraham was declared guiltless because of his actions, maybe he could boast? But not towards God, 3 because the scriptures say: 'Avraham believed in God, so he was considered guiltless.'[21] 4 Now for someone who's working, their wages are considered 'owed', not a gift.
5 However, someone who's not working, but having faith that God will declare disobedient people as guiltless, that person's faith is considered to make them guiltless. 6 It's just like what David said about blessing a person who God declares as guiltless despite their actions:
7 'Those who've been forgiven for their lawlessness will be happy, whose sins have been covered over.
8 Anyone who Yahweh declares to have no sin will be happy.'[22]
9 Is this favour shown only to circumcised Yehudim (Jews), or is it also for non-Jews? After all, we were saying that Avraham was considered guiltless because of his faith. 10 So how did that happen? Because he was circumcised, or when he was still uncircumcised? No, it was before he was circumcised. 11 He received circumcision as a sign[23]—proof of the righteousness that he gained from his faith while he was still uncircumcised—becoming the father of everyone who's uncircumcised but believes so that they'll be declared guiltless. 12 So our ancestor Avraham is the ancestor of us as a circumcised people group, not just because we're circumcised, but also as we follow the steps of faith he took while uncircumcised.

God's promise is attained through faith

13 It wasn't because of his obeying the law that it was promised that Avraham or his descendants would inherit the world, but because of his righteousness that came from his faith,[24] 14 because if the ones obeying the law can become heirs, then faith would be declared as useless, and the promise would be invalidated,[25] 15 because the law produces severe anger, and where there's no law, there's nothing to break.

16 Because of this, the promise to the descendants is by faith—given not only to the 'descendants of the law', but also to the 'descendants of Avraham's faith'.[26] This promise is given as a gift, and has been confirmed, 17 as it's been written, 'I've appointed you as a father of many nations.'[27] He was appointed in front of the god he believed in—the god who brings the dead back to life, and who creates by speaking things into being that didn't previously exist. 18 Without any other evidence, he believed in hope itself, and thus he became the father of many nations, just like he'd been told: 'Your descendants will be like the sand and the stars.'[28] 19 He didn't falter in his faith, seeing that his body was already infertile, being about a hundred years old, and with Sarah being past menopause.[29] 20 He didn't show unbelief and doubt God's promise when it was given, but rather he was strengthened in his faith and praised God, 21 being quite certain that what God promises, he's also able to do. 22 Therefore his faith was credited to him and he was declared guiltless. 23 However, that statement wasn't written about Avraham only, 24 but about us, too, who are also going to receive the same credit, because of our faith in the God who brought our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) back to life from the dead 25 after he was handed over to the executioners because of our sins, and he was brought back to life to make us guiltless.[30]

God showed his love to sinners

5:1 So now because we've been declared guiltless by our faith, we can have peace with God through our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah. 2 Through him we also have access by faith into this generosity that we depend on, and we're boasting in hope of God's glory. WHAT DOES THIS MEAN? 3 Not only that, but we're also boasting even though we're still being persecuted, because we know that difficulties produce endurance, 4 and endurance shows who we really are, and knowing that produces hope, 5 and we're not disgraced by that hope, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the holy spirit who's been given to us.

6 While we were still weak, and at the right time for ungodly people, the messiah died for us. 7 Now it's rare for someone to offer to die to save a guiltless person, although perhaps someone might offer for the greater good, 8 but God demonstrated his love towards us in that the messiah died for us while we were still sinners!

9 So now that we've been declared guiltless because of his blood, we'll certainly be spared from his severe anger, 10 because if we were reconciled to God through the death of his son while we were still enemies, now that we've been reconciled, how much more certain that we'll be saved by Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') life! 11 And not only that, because of what our master Yeshua Messiah has done so that we might receive that reconciliation, we can now boast in God about it.

Death through Adam but life through Yeshua

12 Sin came into the world through one man,[31] and death came as a result of sin, so death spread to everyone because everyone has disobeyed God. 13 Sin was in the world before Mosheh's (Moses') law, but it wasn't being charged against them, because the law had not yet been given. 14 But death reigned from Adam's time until Mosheh's time, even over those who didn't sin in the way that Adam did—Adam[32] who was a pattern of the messiah who would eventually come.

15 But the gift is not like the disobedience, because if the disobedience of one man introduced death for many, God's generosity and the gift that comes from that generosity is much more. That gift is the one man Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah, who's been given to very many people. 16 It only took one man who disobeyed to lead to condemnation, and one act of disobedience to lead to judgement, but the gift is to bring guiltlessness despite many acts of disobedience. 17 Because if the disobedience of one man led to death reigning over us through that one man, how much more will the ones receiving an abundance of generosity and the gift of righteousness be reigning in life through the one man Yeshua Messiah.

18 So just as one act of disobedience led all people to condemnation, so also one action brought all people to guiltlessness and hence to life. 19 The disobedience of one man caused many people to be made sinners, so also the obedience of one man caused many people to be made guiltless.

20 The law was introduced so that acts of disobedience would be plentiful, but where sin has been plentiful, generosity has overflowed, 21 so that just as sin reigned in death, so also generosity now reigns through righteousness, leading to eternal life through our master Yeshua Messiah.

12 Because_of this, as by one man ~~the~~ sin into the world came_in, and by ~~the~~ sin ~~the~~ death, also thus to all people ~~the~~ death passed_through, because/for that all sinned, 13 for/because until the_law, sin was in world, but sin not is_being_ _imputed, not being the_law. 14 But reigned ~~the~~ death from Adam/('Ādām) until Mōsa^{y}s/(Mosheh), even over the ones not having_sinned in the likeness of_the transgression of_Adam, who is a_pattern of_the one coming. 15 But not like the transgression, thus also is the gift. For/Because if by_the of_the one man transgression, the many died_off, by_ _much more the grace of_ ~~the~~ _god and the gift in grace, which is of_the one man, Ya^{y}sous chosen_ _one/messiah, to the many been_plentiful. 16 And not as by one man having_sinned, the gift, the for on_one_hand judgement of one transgression, to condemnation, on_the_other_ _hand the the_gift of many transgressions, to just_act. 17 For/Because if by_the of_the one man transgression, ~~the~~ death reigned by the one man, by_much more the ones the abundance ~~the~~ of_ _grace and of_the gift of_ ~~the~~ _righteousness receiving, in life will_be_reigning, by the one man, Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʻa) chosen_ _one/messiah. 18 Therefore consequently as by one transgression, to all people to condemnation, thus also by one just_act, to all people for justification of_life. 19 For/Because as by the one disobedience of_the man, sinners were_ _appointed the many, thus also by the obedience of_the one man, righteous will_be_being_ _appointed the many. 20 And the_law slipped_in, in_order_that may_be_plentiful the transgression, but where been_plentiful ~~the~~ sin, overflowed ~~the~~ grace, 21 in_order_that as reigned ~~the~~ sin in ~~the~~ death, thus also ~~the~~ grace may_reign through righteousness, to life eternal through Ya^{y}sous chosen_one/messiah the master of_us.

6:1 Therefore what we_will_be_saying? We_may_ _be_continuing_on ~~the~~ in_sin, in_order_that ~~the~~ grace may_be_plentiful? 2 Never it_might_ _become. Who we_died_off to_ ~~the~~ _sin, how still we_will_be_living in it? 3 Or you_all_are_not_ _knowing, that as_many_as we_were_immersed into chosen_one/messiah Ya^{y}sous, into the death of_him we_were_immersed? 4 Therefore we_were_buried_with with_him through ~~the~~ immersion into ~~the~~ death, in_order_that as was_ _raised chosen_one/messiah from dead by the glory of_the father, thus also we in newness of_ _life may_walk. 5 For/Because if grown_together we_have_become in_the likeness of_the death of_ _him, but also of_the resurrection we_will_be, 6 this knowing that the old of_us person was_ _executed_on_a_stake_with him, in_order_that may_be_nullified the body of_ ~~the~~ _sin, that no_ _longer to_be_serving us ~~the~~ for_sin. 7 For/Because the one having_died_off, has_ _been_justified from ~~the~~ sin. 8 And if we_died_off with chosen_one/messiah, we_are_believing that also we_will_be_living_together with_him, 9 having_known that chosen_one/messiah having_been_raised from dead, no_longer is_ _dying_off, death of_him no_longer is_mastering. 10 For/Because what he_died_off, to_ ~~the~~ _sin died_off once_for_all, but what he_is_living, he_ _is_living to_ ~~the~~ _god. 11 Thus also you_all, be_ _counting yourselves to_be dead on_one_hand to_ ~~the~~ _sin, on_the_other_hand living to_ ~~the~~ _god in chosen_one/messiah Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʹa). 12 Therefore not let_be_reigning ~~the~~ sin in the mortal of_you_all body, in_order that to_be_ _submitting in_the lusts of_it. 13 Not be_ _presenting the members of_you_all, as_weapons of_unrighteousness to_ ~~the~~ _sin, but present yourselves to_ ~~the~~ _god, as_if from the_dead living, and the members of_you_all, as_weapons of_righteousness to_ ~~the~~ _god. 14 For/Because sin over_you_all not will_be_mastering, because/for not you_all_are under law, but under grace.

15 Therefore what? We_may_sin because not we_ _are under law, but under grace? Never it_might_ _become. 16 Not you_all_have_known that to_ _whom you_all_are_presenting yourselves as_ _slaves for obedience, slaves you_all_are to_whom you_all_are_submitting, whether of_sin to death, or of_obedience to righteousness? 17 But thankfulness be to_ ~~the~~ _god, that you_all_were slaves of_ ~~the~~ _sin, and you_all_submitted from the_heart, to which you_all_were_given_over the_ _pattern of_teaching. 18 And having_been_freed from ~~the~~ sin, you_all_were_enslaved to_ ~~the~~ _ _righteousness. 19 In_human terms I_am_ you realise that when we were immersed into Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), we were immersed into his death? 4 Therefore we were buried with him through the immersion into death, so that just as Messiah was brought back to life by the father's power, so too we can live a new life.[33] 5 If we've taken part in the likeness of his death, then we'll also take part in the resurrection, 6 knowing that the old personality was executed with him so that sin would have no more power over our bodies, and hence we no longer need to serve it, 7 because the personality that's died has been declared free from sin. 8 So if we died with Messiah, we also believe that we'll live with him, 9 knowing that now that Messiah has come back to life from the dead, he won't die again—death has no more power over him. 10 When he died, he died to sin once and for all, but now that he lives, he lives to please God. 11 So too, you should consider yourselves dead to sin, and at the same time, alive to God in Messiah Yeshua.

12 So therefore don't let sin rule over your mortal bodies in such a way that you're submitting to its lusts. 13 Don't use any parts of your bodies to sin, as if they're weapons of disobedience, but instead present yourselves to God as if you came back to life from the dead, and use all your body parts for God, as if they're weapons of righteousness, 14 so that sin won't take control of you—because you're not under law, but under generosity.

Now we are slaves to righteousness

15 What could that mean? That we can sin freely because we're not under law but under generosity? Not on your life! 16 Don't you know who you're presenting yourselves to as obedient slaves? Yes, whoever you submit to, you're their slaves—either slaves of sin that leads to death, or slaves of obedience that leads to righteousness. 17 But be thankful to God that although you were slaves to sin, your hearts submitted to what was taught, 18 and so, having been freed from sin, you became slaves of righteousness. 19 I'm speaking from a human perspective because of your human weakness. Just as you previously used parts of your bodies as slaves to impurity and lawlessness, leading down to further lawlessness, so now present your body parts as slaves to righteousness, leading up to holiness.

20 When you were slaves of sin, you were immune to righteousness, 21 and so what was the fruit you had back then which you're now ashamed of? The end result of that lifestyle is death. 22 But now that you're free from slavery to sin, and are God's slaves instead, you bear the fruit of holiness, and the end result of that is living forever, 23 because the wages of sin are death, but God gives eternal life as a gift through our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah.

Becoming dead to the Law

7:1 Brothers and sisters, you know the Law well that I'm talking about, so surely you realise that the law acts as a person's master for as long as they live? 2 For example, a woman who's married to her husband is bound by the law, but if her husband dies then she's released from the law concerning her husband. 3 So while her husband was still living, he'd call her an adulteress if she slept with another man, but after her husband is deceased, she's free from the law and doesn't become an adulteress if she marries another man. 4 So, my brothers and sisters, you, too, were made dead to the law through the body of the messiah so that you could join to another—to the one who came back to life from the dead—so that we can bear fruit for God. 5 When we were still focused on the physical, the passions aroused by sinning against the law were working in our body parts so that the fruit would be death, 6 but now that we're released from the law which held us—released by dying to it—we can serve in new ways guided by the spirit instead of by the letter of the law.

God's Law reveals our sin

7 So what will we say then? That the law is sin? Not on your life! I wouldn't have known what sin was if it wasn't for the Law. For example, I wouldn't have known what coveting was if the _speaking, because_of the weakness of_the flesh of_you_all. For/Because as you_all_presented the members of_you_all as_slaves to_ ~~the~~ _impurity, and to_ ~~the~~ _lawlessness further to ~~the~~ lawlessness, thus now present the members of_ _you_all, as_slaves to_ ~~the~~ _righteousness to holiness. 20 For/Because when slaves you_all_ _were of_ ~~the~~ _sin, free you_all_were ~~the~~ from_ _righteousness. 21 Therefore what fruit you_all_ _were_having then, in which now you_all_are_ _being_ashamed? For/Because the end of_those things death is. 22 But right_now, having_been_ _freed from ~~the~~ sin, and having_been_enslaved to_ ~~the~~ _god, you_all_are_having the fruit of_you_all to holiness, and the end is life eternal.

23 For/Because the wages of_ ~~the~~ _sin is death, but the the_gift of_ ~~the~~ _god is life eternal in chosen_ _one/messiah Yaʸsous/(Yəhōshūʻa), the master of_us.

7:1 Or you_all_are_not_knowing, brothers (for to_ _knowing the_law I_am_speaking), that the law is_mastering over_the person for as_long_as the_ _time he_is_living? 2 For/Because the married woman to_the living husband has_been_bound by_law, but if may_die_off the husband, she_has_ _been_released from the law of_the husband.
3 Therefore consequently living the husband, an_ _adulteress he_will_be_calling her, if she_may_ _become joined to_man another, but if may_die_ _off the husband, free she_is from the law, ~~which~~ not to_be she an_adulteress having_become to_ _man another. 4 So_that, brothers of_me, also you_all were_put_to_death to_the law by the body of_the chosen_one/messiah, in_order that to_become you_all to_another, to_the one from the_dead having_been_raised, in_order_that we_ _may_bear_fruit to_ ~~the~~ _god. 5 For/Because when we_were in the flesh, the passions of_ ~~the~~ _sins ~~which~~ through the law was_working in the members of_us in_order that to_bear_fruit to_ ~~the~~ _death. 6 But right_now we_were_released from the law, having_died_off in which we_were_ _being_kept, so_that to_be_serving us in newness of_spirit, and not in_oldness of_letter.

not I_am_wanting, this I_am_practicing, I_am_ _agreeing_with to_the law that it_is good. 17 And right_now no_longer I am_producing it, but the Law hadn't told me not to covet.[34] 8 But sin took the opportunity from that command to produce covetousness in me, because sin would be dead without the Law. 9 For a time I was living without the Law, but once God's command came, sin revived 10 and I died, and I discovered that the command, which should lead to life, led to death.

11 Sin deceived me[35] when the command gave it an opportunity, and in doing so, it killed me.
12 Now the Law is indeed holy, and God's command is holy and righteous and good, 13 so did what's good turn into death? Not on your life!
Rather, it was the good Law that allowed me to see sin as sin and a producer of death, and the command showed me how completely sinful sin really is.

Doing what we know is wrong

14 We know that God's law is spiritual, but I am physical, having been born[36] into sin. 15 I don't know what's going on, because I do what I don't want to do, and I end up doing what I hate.[37] 16 So if I do something that I didn't want to do, then I'm agreeing with the Law that it's good, 17 and it's no longer me that's doing it, but the sin that's in me.
18 I'm aware that good isn't in my physical body, because I want to do good but I can't. 19 I don't do the good that I want to do, but rather I do the evil that I don't want to do, 20 so if I'm doing what I don't want to do, then it's not me doing it, but it's the sin in me that does it.
21 As a result, I've discovered the principle that when I want to do good, actually there's evil in me, 22 because I'm happily accepting God's Law on the inside, 23 but I'm observing another law in my body parts, fighting against my mind and keeping me imprisoned in sin's law, which is in my body parts. 24 I'm a miserable person. Who'll rescue me from this body that's full of death? 25 Thankfully, it's God, through our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk.
Yesus) Messiah. So I end up with my mind wanting to serve God's Law, but on the other hand, my body wants to serve sin's law.

Being spiritually aware

8:1 So now those who are in Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) cannot be condemned,[38] 2 because the law of the spirit of life in him freed you from the law of sin and death. 3 The law was powerless in that it was faltering through our bodies. God sent his son in a body just like our sinful bodies, and concerning sin, he condemned sin itself in the body, 4 so that for those of us who are no longer governed by physical desires, but by the spirit, the law's just action will be fulfilled in us. 5 People who are governed by their physical desires think about physical things, but those who are governed by the spirit think about spiritual things. 6 The worldly mindset leads to death, but the spiritual mindset leads to life and peace. 7 The worldly mindset is making God your enemy because it's not being subjected to God's law, in fact it's not even able to, 8 and those who are worldly aren't able to do what pleases God.

9 And you, brothers and sisters, aren't worldly, but are in the spirit, if indeed God's spirit is living in you, but anyone who doesn't have Messiah's spirit doesn't belong to him. 10 But if Messiah is in you, while your body is dead because of sin, your spirit has life because it's been declared guiltless. 11 Yes, if the spirit of the one who brought Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) back to life is living in you, then the one who brought Messiah Yeshua back to life will also give life to your mortal bodies by means of his spirit living inside you.[39]

12 So then, brothers and sisters, we don't owe anything to our sinful natures, nor do we need to live in worldly ways. 13 If your lives, brothers and sisters, are governed by your sinful natures, you'll die, but if you put bodily practices to death with the help of the spirit, you'll live, 14 because everyone who's led by God's spirit becomes one of God's children. 15 You didn't receive a spirit of slavery to fear again, but rather it was the spirit of adoption as children that you received, and with his help we call out, 'Dad, dad!'[40] 16 God's spirit himself agrees together with our spirit that we are God's children, 17 and if we're his children, then we're also heirs, so we'll receive an inheritance from God. That makes us fellow-heirs along with Messiah—if we're suffering with him then we'll also be honoured along with him.

Even creation itself is waiting

18 I'm sure that any sufferings we experience in this age are nothing in comparison with the coming splendour that's going to be revealed to us, 19 because all of creation is eagerly expecting and waiting for God's children to be revealed. 20 Yes, all of creation has been subjected to lack of purpose, not willingly, but because it was decided by the one who subjected it, but it remains with the hope[41] 21 that it too will be freed from the slavery of corruption, and then released into the freedom of the splendour of God's children, 22 because we're aware that all of creation is groaning and suffering[42] along with us right through to the present time. 23 And not only that, but we ourselves who have the initial tastes of the spirit life, we're also groaning and waiting like children for our bodies to be set free from slavery,[43] 24 because we were saved, having hope, but if you can see it then it's not hope, because you don't need to hope for something you can already see. 25 So we hope for what we can't yet see, and so we have to patiently keep waiting.

26 Similarly, the spirit also helps us with our weaknesses, because we don't even know what to pray for, but the spirit intercedes with groanings that we can't put into words. 27 The one who searches our hearts knows the mindset of the spirit, because the spirit intercedes for the believers as God desires.

28 We know that God makes all things work together for good for everyone who loves him—those who are being invited according to his purpose. 29 After all, those he knew in advance, he also determined in advance to be similar to his son's image, so that his son would become the eldest of many siblings. 30 The ones he'd determined in advance he also invited, and the ones he'd invited, he also declared guiltless, and the ones he declared guiltless, he also honoured in heaven.

Nothing can separate us from God's love

31 So then, what can we say about all this? If God is for us, who's against us? 32 If he didn't spare his own son, but gave him to be executed for us, won't they together also give us everything else? 33 Who'll bring charges against people chosen by God? God is the one declaring us guiltless. 34 So who's the one condemning us? Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) (the one who died but came back to life and who's now sitting beside God) is also pleading for us.[44] 35 Who will separate us from Messiah's love? Troubles or distress or persecution or famine or poverty or danger or execution? 36 As it's been written:

'We are being put to death all day on your account.
We were counted like sheep ready to be slaughtered.'[45]

37 But in all that, we're more than conquerors through the one who loved us. 38 Yes, I've been persuaded that neither death or life, angels or rulers, present or future events, powers, 39 height or depth, or anything else in creation, will be able to separate us from God's love that's revealed in our master Messiah Yeshua.

God's right to choose

9:1 I'm not lying—I'm speaking truthfully in Messiah, and both my conscience and the holy spirit agree 2 that my sorrow is extensive, and the sorrow in my heart just won't stop, 3 because I was hoping that I myself would be a sacrifice from the messiah for my brothers and sisters, my fellow-citizens in this world. 4 They're the descendants of Yisrael (Israel) who've been adopted as God's children,[46] and who God revealed his power to, as well as the agreements, the Law, the temple worship, and the promises. 5 The patriarchs are Jewish, and the messiah, who has authority over everything, physically came from them. May God be blessed throughout the ages. May it be so.

6 But it's not that God's message has failed. Yisrael doesn't include all of Yisrael's descendants, 7 nor are all of Avraham's descendants his children, but, 'It's through Yitshak (Isaac) that your descendants will be counted.'[47] 8 That isn't talking about biological children—these are God's children, but the children of the promise are being counted as descendants. 9 After all, this message is the promise: 'I'll come back, and Sarah will have a son.'[48]

10 And not only that, but also Rivkah (Rebecca), from one pregnancy to our ancestor Yitshak, delivered twins. 11 Before they were born, and so before they could do anything good or bad, in order that God's deliberate choice would stand 12 (not as a result of effort, but by God's announcement), she was told, 'The older child will serve the younger one.'[49] 13 As it was written: 'I loved Ya'akov (Jacob) but I hated Esav (Esau).'[50]

14 So what should we say then? Is God unfair? Of course not, 15 because he said to Mosheh (Moses): 'I'll be merciful to whoever I want to, and I'll have pity on anyone I want to.'[51] 16 In other words, it doesn't depend on the willingness or activities of the person, but on God's mercy. 17 After all, in the scriptures, God says to the king of Mitsrayim (Egypt): 'I chose you as king so that I can demonstrate my power through you, and so that my name will be talked about all over the world.'[52] 18 In other words, God will be merciful to whoever he wants to, but he hardens whoever he wants to.

God's anger and his mercy

19 So now you'll ask me: Then how can God blame us, because how could anyone resist whatever he wants to do? 20 Oh human, are you talking back to God? Can the creature that was made talk back to the maker and ask: 'Why did you make me like this?'[53] 21 Doesn't the potter have the right to split the lump of clay and make a beautiful bowl out of half and a chamber pot out of the other half?

22 What if God wanted to display his severe anger and to demonstrate his power, but then showed great patience to the objects of his severe anger that he'd prepared for destruction? 23 What if he did that in order to make the riches of his greatness known to the objects of his mercy that he'd prepared for honour? 24 Yes, he even called us, not only from among the Yehudim (Jews) but also from non-Jews. 25 The prophet Hoshea (Hosea) even wrote:

"Those who aren't my people is the one I'll call 'my love'.[54]

The Yehudim' failure to believe

30 So then, what should we say? That non-Jews who weren't godly reached out by faith to achieve righteousness, 31 but Yehudim (Jews) who chased after righteousness by obeying The Law didn't achieve it? 32 How come? Because they tried to reach it by actions and not by faith. They tripped over the stumbling stone, 33 as it's written:

'Look, I'm laying down a stumbling stone in Tsiyon (Zion), a rock that causes offence.
Anyone who believes in him won't be disgraced.'[58]

10:1 Brothers and sisters, my heart would be very pleased indeed if Israelis would get rescued, and that's what I request from God. 2 I keep telling them that they're very zealous for God, yet they lack know-how. 3 Because they didn't know what God's righteousness is, and they tried to establish their own system, they weren't covered by his righteousness. 4 The fulfilment of The Law is Messiah, leading to righteousness for everyone who believes.

Salvation is for all peoples

5 Mosheh (Moses) wrote this about the Law's righteousness: 'The person who practices it will live because of it.'[59] 6 But the righteousness based on faith says: 'Don't speculate in your mind about who'll go up to heaven in order to bring Messiah down, 7 and don't ask about who'll go down to the pit in order to bring Messiah up.' 8 So what does the righteousness based on faith say? It says: 'The message is close to you—it's in your mouth and heart.'[60] That's the message of faith that we've been preaching: 9 That if you speak out and acknowledge that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) is Yahweh, and you believe in your heart that God brought him back to life from the dead, you will be rescued, 10 because it's the belief in your mind that leads to righteousness, and it's the acknowledgement from your mouth that leads to rescue. 11 As the scriptures say: 'Anyone who believes in him won't end up disgraced.'[61] 12 There's no distinction between Yehudi (Jew) and non-Jew, because we all have the same master who gives generously to everyone who makes an appeal to him, 13 because everyone who appeals to Yahweh's authority will be rescued.[62]

14 But how could they appeal to a god that they don't even believe in? And how could they believe if they haven't even heard about him? And how would they hear if no one told them? 15 And who would be there telling them if no one was sent out? Compare what was written: 'It's so wonderful that these people came and announced the good message.'[63] 16 But not everyone accepted the good message, just like the prophet Yeshayah (Isaiah) wrote: 'Yahweh, who believed our report?'[64] 17 And so faith comes by hearing—listening to Messiah's message.

18 But then I'd ask: Haven't they heard it? Indeed they have. It's written:

'Their voice went out into all the earth, and their messages went across all the world.'[65]

19 But again I'd ask: Didn't the Israelis know? Well, firstly Mosheh (Moses) wrote:

'I'll be making you all jealous using people who are not even a nation.
Then using a foolish nation,
I'll be making you all angry.'[66]

20 And Yeshayah (Isaiah) dared to write:

'The ones who weren't looking for me found me.
I showed myself to the ones not asking about me.'[67]

Readers' Version

21 But to Yisrael (Israel) he wrote: 'All day I stretched out my hands to a people who won't believe and who speak against me.'[68]

God's mercy on the Yehudim

11:1 Therefore I'm asking: Did God push his chosen people away? Not at all, because I'm an Israeli, too, a descendant of Avraham in the tribe of Benyamin.[69] 2 No, God didn't push away his people, who he knew before he chose them. Or don't you know what scripture says about Eliyah (Elijah) pleading with God to deal with Yisrael (Israel)? He said: 3 'Yahweh, they killed your prophets and tore down your altars, and I was left alone, and now they want to kill me!'[70] 4 But what was revealed to him? God said: 'I've kept aside seven thousand others who haven't worshipped Ba'al.'[71] 5 So too, at the present time, there's a small proportion who've been chosen by God's generosity. 6 So if it's by generosity, then it's no longer by their actions, otherwise the generosity wouldn't be generosity at all.

7 What's the conclusion then? The Israelis didn't find what they were looking for. Only the chosen ones reached it, and the rest were hardened, 8 just like it was written:

'God gave them a lethargic spirit:
Eyes which can't see and ears which can't hear, even to this very day.'[72]

9 And as David wrote:

'Let their table become a trap for them—
a temptation that will pay them back.
10 Let their eyes be darkened so they can't see,
and their backs be bent through all time.'[73]

11 So now I ask: didn't they stumble so that they would fall? Not at all. But because of their disobedience, salvation came to non-Jews in order to make Yehudim (Jews) envious. 12 But if their disobedience led to gain for the rest of the world, and if their loss led to gain for the non-Jews, how much more their fullness?

The grafting in of non-Jews

13 But now I'm speaking to you non-Jews. Since I am indeed an ambassador to the non-Jews, I take pride in my service, 14 hoping that somehow I might make my fellow Yehudim (Jews) envious and might save some of them. 15 After all, if their rejection of the messiah meant that the rest of the world would be reconciled, what else could their acceptance bring other than coming back to life from the dead?

16 If the first portion of dough is holy, so is the lump, and if the root is holy, so are the branches. 17 But if some of the branches were broken off, and you non-Jews, who are like a wild olive tree, were grafted into them, and so you too were able to share in the olive tree's growth, which came from the root, 18 then don't brag that you're better than the branches. If you must boast, remember that you're not supporting the root, but the root is supporting you.

19 Ah, but then you'll say, 'Branches were broken off so that we could be grafted in.' 20 Well you're right. They were broken off because of their disbelief, and it's true that you're there because of your faith. But don't get a big head—maintain your reverence for God, 21 because if he didn't spare the natural branches when they showed disbelief, then he won't spare you either. 22 So you can see both God's kindness and his severity—those who disobeyed experienced his severity, but you experienced his kindness. Otherwise you'll be pruned off, too, 23 and also, if they turn away from their disbelief, they'll be grafted back in, because God has the power to do that. 24 If you were cut off an olive tree that's wild by nature, and contrary to normal practice were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more easily would those who naturally belong be grafted into their own olive tree!

God's mercy is for everyone

25 Brothers and sisters, I don't want you to be ignorant of this mystery, otherwise you might end up becoming proud: There's a partial hardening coming to the Yehudim (Jews) until the fullness of the non-Jews comes, 26 and then all the Yehudim will be saved, as it's been written:

'The rescuer will be coming out of Tsiyon (Zion).

13 To_you_all but I_am_speaking, the pagans. For/Because as_much_as therefore indeed am I of_the_pagans an_ambassador, the service of_me I_am_glorifying, 14 if somehow I_may_make_ _jealous of_me the flesh, and I_may_save some from them. 15 For/Because if the rejection of_ _them is reconciliation of_the_world, what is the acceptance except not/lest life from the_dead? 16 And if the first-fruit is holy, also the lump, and if the root is holy, also the branches. 17 But if some of_the branches were_broken_off, and you a_wild_olive_tree being were_engrafted among them, and a_fellow-partaker of_the root of_the fatness of_the olive_tree you_became, 18 not be_ _boasting over_the branches. But if you_are_ _boasting, not you the root are_bearing, but the root is_bearing you. 19 Therefore you_will_be_ _saying: ‹Were›_broken_off branches, in_order_ _that I may_be_engrafted. 20 Rightly, by_their unbelief they_were_broken_off, but you the by_ _faith have_stood. Not high be_thinking, but be_ _fearing. 21 For/Because if the god from_the according_to nature branches not spared, neither from_you he_will_be_sparing. 22 Therefore see, the_kindness and severity of_god, on on_one_ _hand the ones having_fallen, severity, on_the_ _other_hand to you, kindness of_god, if you_may_ _continue_on in_the kindness, otherwise also you will_be_being_cut_off. 23 And also_those if not they_may_be_continuing_on the in_unbelief, they_will_be_being_engrafted, because/for powerful is the god again to_engraft them. 24 For/Because if you out_of the according_to nature were_cut_off wild_olive_tree, and contrary_to nature were_engrafted into a_ _cultivated_olive_tree, by_how_much more these, who according_to nature will_be_being_ _engrafted in_their own olive_tree?

25 For/Because not I_am_wanting you_all to_be_ _not_knowing, brothers, the mystery this, in_ _order_that not you_all_may_be in yourselves prudent, that a_hardening in part to_ the _ _Israa^{y}l/(Yisrā$\bar{e}$l) has_become, until of_which the fullness of_the pagans may_come_in, 26 and thus all Israa^{y}l/(Yisrā$\bar{e}$l) will_be_being_saved, as it_ _has_been_written: Will_be_coming out_of Siōn/(Tsiyyōn) the one rescuing, he_will_be_

28 Concerning the good message, the Yehudim are enemies for your sake, but concerning being chosen, they're loved because of their ancestors, 29 because God's gifts and his invitation are irrevocable. 30 You non-Jews didn't originally believe in God, but now you've been shown mercy because of the disbelief of these Yehudim. 31 Those Yehudim disbelieved so that as you receive mercy, they can also now be shown mercy, 32 because God imprisoned them all in disbelief so that he could show mercy to everyone.

Everything comes from God

33 Yes, God's wisdom and knowledge are both so richly deep. His judgements can't be understood and his paths can't be mapped,[76] 34 because:

'Who can know Yahweh's mind or become his counsellor?'[77] 35 'Who has been able to give him something, so that God now needs to repay them?'[78]

36 Yes, because everything comes from God, and everything comes through him and to him.[79] May he be honoured throughout the ages. May it be so.

Different ways to serve 'the body'

12:1 So then, brothers and sisters, with compassion from God I urge you to present your bodies as a living sacrifice—holy and pleasing to God—your logical and sacred service. 2 Don't conform to the norms of this age, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, then you'll be able to accept and approve God's good, pleasing, and perfect intentions.

3 Because of the generosity which has been shown to me, I'm saying that none of you should think of yourself more highly than what's appropriate, but rather you should be sensible about what you think of yourselves according to how much faith God's allotted to each of you. 4 Just like one body has many components, and each individual component works differently,[80] 5 so too we're all part of one body in Messiah and we're all parts of each other. 6 We have gifts according to the special generosity that was shown to us:[81] if it's prophecy, then do it in proportion to your faith, 7 or if it's service, then serve, or teaching, then teach, 8 or encouraging, then encourage, or sharing, then be generous, or leading, then do it earnestly, or showing mercy, then do it cheerfully.

9 Your love is to be free from hypocrisy. Deplore evil, and be united in doing good. 10 Be devoted to one another in brotherly love, preferring to honour one another above yourselves. 11 Be diligent, rather than reluctant, with a spirit that's zealous to serve the master. 12 Be cheerful about your hope, enduring persecution and consistently praying. 13 Contribute to the needs of the believers and practice hospitality.

14 Bless anyone who persecutes you—be a blesser and not a curser.[82] 15 Be cheerful along with others who are happy, but weep along with those who are weeping. 16 Treat others equally—not treating some as higher, and being condescending to those who are poorer. Don't act in a calculating way.[83]

17 Don't pay back anyone's evil with evil, but do good to everyone. 18 If it's possible for you, brothers and sisters, be at peace with everyone. 19 Dear friends, don't take revenge on others, but leave it to God's severe anger, because it's written: 'Yahweh says, Vengeance belongs to me—I'll be the one to repay.'[84] 20 But if your enemies are hungry, then feed them, and if they're thirsty, then give them a drink, because you'll be leaving them to their own shame and judgement.[85] 21 Don't be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Readers' Version

Respect authorities and pay tax

13:1 Everyone should be subject to the authorities who are over them, because there's no authority except through God, and they're appointed by God. 2 So anyone opposing authority has rebelled against what God has instituted, and everyone who rebels is bringing judgement on themselves, 3 because rulers don't evoke fear in people doing good, just those doing evil. Oh, so you don't want to be afraid of the authorities? Then do good, and you'll receive praise from them instead, 4 because they're God's servants for your good. But if you're doing evil, then you should rightly be afraid, because the authorities aren't armed without reason—they're God's servants to dispense severe anger to people doing evil. 5 Hence it's necessary to be subject to them, not only to avoid their severe anger, but also because of your consciences.

6 That's also why you believers should pay the taxes that you owe,[86] because the authorities are God's servants, and they work hard at it. 7 So fulfil all of your obligations: if it's tax then pay it, or revenue then give it, or if it's respect then show it, or giving honour then do it.

Love and obedience

8 Don't be in debt to anyone, other than the debt of love to each other, because people who love each other have fulfilled God's law, 9 which is: Don't commit adultery.[87] Don't murder.[88] Don't steal.[89] Don't covet what others have.[90] All of those, plus any other commands, can be summarised as: Love your neighbour like you love yourself.[91] 10 If you love people near to you, you won't do evil to them, thus love fulfills God's law.

11 And since you believers understand current events, it's now time to get up from your sleep, because the time for our rescue is nearer now than it was when we first believed. 12 The night has progressed and the day is getting closer, so turn away from actions done in darkness and put on the armour of the light. 13 In the daytime we have to walk decently—not carousing on the street and being drunk, not having sex and acting lustfully, and not causing strife and acting jealously. 14 Instead, dress yourselves in the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah, and don't give in to physical lusts and desires.

Don't condemn each other

14:1 Accept others who are faltering in their faith, without highlighting their wrong ideas.[92] 2 Some people think it's ok to eat anything, while others who are faltering will only eat vegetables. 3 The one who eats anything shouldn't despise the other, and the one who doesn't eat meat shouldn't condemn the other, because both are accepted by God. 4 Who are you to judge someone else's house servants? Their own master will judge if they stand or fall, and they'll stand because the master is able to help them.

5 Similarly, some people consider one day to be more important than some other day, yet others consider every day to be alike. Each person should be fully convinced in their own mind. 6 Anyone who considers a certain day to be special is thinking about Yahweh. Likewise, anyone who's eating meat is eating to serve Yahweh, and gives thanks to God. The person who doesn't eat meat is declining it in order to serve Yahweh, and gives thanks to God. 7 After all, we don't live for ourselves, and we don't die for ourselves. 8 If we keep living, then we're living for the master, and if we die, then we're dying for the master, so whether we live or die, we belong to the master, 9 because Messiah died and came back to life in order to be master of both the dead and the living. 10 So why are you judging fellow believers? And why are you also scorning them? After all, we'll all end up standing in God's court of judgement.[93] 11 As it's been written:

"Yahweh is telling me, 'I am alive and every person will bow to me, and each one will confess to God.' "[94] 12 So consequently, each of us will need to give an account of ourselves to God.

Taking care not to make others fall

13 So we shouldn't be judging each other, but instead we should be judging ourselves—that we're not causing another believer to stumble or fall into temptation. 14 I know (and I'm totally persuaded) that in master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) there's no object that's 'immoral'[95] in itself, but it only becomes 'immoral' to the person who evaluates it as such. 15 If a fellow believer is upset because of the food you eat, then you're no longer acting in love.
Don't destroy the faith of someone that Messiah died for, just for the sake of food. 16 Don't let anyone slander the good that you do. 17 God's kingdom doesn't consist of food and drink, but of righteousness, peace, and happiness in the holy spirit, 18 so anyone serving the messiah in those ways pleases God and is approved by the people.
19 So then, we should be pursuing actions that lead to peace and things that build each other up— 20 don't tear down God's work just on account of food. Indeed, all foods are 'clean,'[96] but it's wrong for a person to eat anything that causes someone else to stumble. 21 It's good to avoid eating meat or drinking wine or doing anything else that might cause your fellow believer to stumble or be offended or fall. 22 That way, you keep your faith privately, between yourself and God. God will bless anyone who doesn't bring guilt on themselves by doing something that they've determined to be right. 23 But for anyone who doubts that it's ok, if they eat it, then they've condemned themselves, because they're not acting in faith, and everything that's not done in faith is sin.

Living to please others

15:1 We who are powerful should be carrying the weaknesses of the powerless, rather than just trying to please ourselves. 2 Each one of us should be pleasing those near us—displaying goodness and building them up, 3 because even the messiah

didn't please himself, but, as it was written: 'Those who were insulting you, their insults landed on me.'[97] 4 Everything that was written in the past was written for teaching us, so that through endurance and through encouragement from the scriptures, we would have hope. 5 May the God of endurance and encouragement help you all to think likewise, just like Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah did, 6 so that you'll be united in your purpose and your teaching, thus honouring the God and father of our master, Yeshua Messiah.

The good message for non-Jews

7 So then, accept each other just as the messiah accepted you, so that God will be honoured. 8 I can tell you that Messiah became a servant of the circumcised Yehudim (Jews) so that God's truth will be seen by the confirmation of the promises that were made to our ancestors, 9 and also a servant for the non-Jews so that they'll honour God for his mercy, as it was written:

'Because of this I'll be telling the pagans about you, and I'll be singing praises to your name.'[98]

10 In a different place it's written:

'You non-Jews, be happy along with his people.'[99]

11 And again:

'Praise Yahweh you non-Jews, and let all the peoples of the world praise him.'[100]

12 Also Yeshayah (Isaiah) wrote:

'There will be a descendant of Yishay (Jesse), and the one coming to rule over non-Jews—
the non-Jews will put their hope in him.'[101]

13 May the God of hope that you believe in fill you believers with happiness and peace, so that your hope in the power of the holy spirit will grow to be plentiful.

about you myself, that having been filled with knowledge, you're also full of goodness and able to rebuke each other. 15 But I wrote to you more boldly, partly to remind you, brothers and sisters, because of the generosity God showed me 16 so that I'd serve the non-Jews for Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), sharing God's good message so that the offering of the non-Jews would be acceptable to him, having been purified by the holy spirit. WHAT DOES THIS MEAN? 17 Therefore I'm boasting in Messiah Yeshua about things to do with God. 18 I wouldn't dare to speak about anything except what Messiah did through me, which led to the obedience of non-Jews through my message and through my doing 19 powerful miracles and amazing things in the power of God's spirit, so that from Yerushalem (Jerusalem) all the way around to Illurikon, I've obeyed the Messiah's good message. 20 I was eager to be preaching the good message wherever Messiah wasn't known about, so that I wouldn't be building on someone else's foundations, 21 but as it was written:

'Anyone who hasn't been told about him, they will be seeing,
and anyone who hasn't heard about him, they will be understanding.'[102]

Paulos's desire to visit Romai

22 That's also why I wasn't able to come to see you Romaios,[103] 23 but now I no longer have a role in those regions. I've been wanting to come there for many years now— 24 whenever I'm able to go to Spania next, I'm hoping to see you on my way, and then after spending time with you Romaios, you'll be able to send me on to my destination. 25 But for now, I'm going to Yerushalem (Jerusalem) to serve the believers there.[104] 26 The believers in Makedonia and Akaia took pleasure in making a contribution for the poor people among the believers there in Yerushalem. 27 They took pleasure, but they're also in debt to them, because if the non-Jews have shared in Jewish spiritual things, then they should also support them with material things.[105] 28 So then, having done that, and having guaranteed heavenly rewards for them, I'll go to Spania by way of your place, 29 and I know that when I come, I'll come bearing Messiah's full blessing.

30 So brothers and sisters, I'm urging you by our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah and by the spirit's love, to strive along with me in praying to God for me— 31 that I'll escape from the schemes of those in Yehudah (Judea) who refuse to believe. Also pray that my service in Yerushalem would be acceptable to the believers there 32 so that by God's will, I can happily come to your place and be refreshed there with you, brothers and sisters. 33 May the God of peace be with all of you. May it be so.

Various personal greetings

16:1 I'm commending our sister Foibe (Phoebe) to you, brothers and sisters—she's a servant in the assembly at Kegkreai. 2 You can accept her in the master as worthy among godly people, and help her with anything she needs, because she's been a supporter of many of us, including myself.

3 Greet Priskilla and Akulas (Aquila),[106] my workmates in Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), 4 who risked their lives to save mine. It's not just me who's thankful for them, but also all the assemblies of the non-Jews 5 and the assembly that meets in their house.

16 Greet each other with a traditional kiss. All the messiah's assemblies here send their greetings to you, brothers and sisters.

The ending warnings

17 Brothers and sisters, I urge you to beware of those who are always talking about faults and tempting you with things that are against what you've been taught. Turn away from them, 18 because such people are serving their own bellies instead of our master Messiah, and they're deceiving innocent people with their smooth speech and 'blessings'.
19 I'm excited because the story of your obedience has travelled far, but I want you believers to remain wise about what's good, and innocent about evil, 20 then the God of peace will quickly crush Satan under your feet.[108]

Final greetings

May our master Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') generosity be with you believers.

21 My co-worker Timotheos[109] sends his greetings, as do my fellow citizens Lukas (Luke), Yason, and Sosipatros.

22 I, Tertios, the one writing down this letter, greet you believers in the master.

Paulos's letter to the believers in Kolossai

Introduction

This letter of Paulos was written to the believers in Kolossai, a town in Asia Minor (also called Anatolia, now part of modern Turkey) that's almost 500km overland east of Efesos. Paulos had not yet visited Kolossai, but he was very concerned for them and he had sent helpers from Efesos.
Paulos had heard that there were false teachers influencing the believers there in Kolossai. They taught that if a person wants to be saved and wants to deepen their faith in God, it's not sufficient to have faith in the messiah because they said that it's necessary to obey other restrictions and customs as well as worshipping angels.
So Paulos wrote to the believers there in Kolossai and explained the truth concerning Yeshua the messiah. He told them that it's Yeshua who made everything around us, therefore he's greater than the angels and other unseen powers. He also saw the godliness of his father, and there's no other source of life for believers other than him. So then it's necessary that the believers don't follow human customs and traditions, but rather, it's necessary that they simply follow the messiah.
It should be noted here that this letter, like most of the scriptures, was dictated to a scribe (See 2 Thess 3:17), so it was an oral letter, quite different from our modern letters which we edit with word-processing software, adding a word back in a previous sentence, combining two short sentences, or breaking an over-long sentence. Oral letters tend to contain a lot of run-on sentences where the thoughts keep flowing without a break, thus 1:3-8 and 1:9-16 are considered by most Greek experts to be long sentences (like this one is 😀), however for us as readers, sentences with around a hundred words in them are very difficult for us to absorb, hence this Readers' Version breaks those long Greek sentences into a number of smaller sentences, in fact, this kind of adjustment is regularly done throughout the Bible by all major English translations in order to make them easier for us to read, but the disadvantage is that we can sometimes lose whatever the connection was between the consecutive thoughts. The OET tries to be more transparent about such adjustments by placing the Literal Version right beside this text so that the serious student can compare the two.

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Paulos, a missionary of Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) by God's will, and from our brother Timotheos.

2 To the people there in Kolossai (Colossae) who are godly and faithful brothers and sisters in Messiah.

Grace and peace to you all from God our father and the master Yeshua Messiah.

Paulos's thanks and prayers

3 We thank God, the father of our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah as we continually pray for you all, 4 after having heard about your faith in Messiah Yeshua and the love that you have for all godly people 5 which arose because of your hope in a heavenly reward. You all previously heard about that in the message of the truth—the good message 6 that's in you and that's bearing fruit in the world and growing, just like it did among all of you from the day that you heard it and knew about the grace of God in truth. 7 You all learnt that from Epafras (Epaphras),[1] our dearly loved fellow slave who's our faithful servant of the messiah, 8 and he's the one who made your love in the spirit evident to us.

9 It's because of that that we haven't stopped praying from the time that we heard it, and requesting that you all would be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual insight, 10 to live worthily of the master—pleasing him in every kind of good and productive work. We pray that you all will grow in the knowledge of God 11 and be strengthened with all power, according to his great power, leading to endurance and patience with contentment. 12 Then you'll all be thanking the father, the one who qualified you all for a part of the inheritance of godly people who live in the light. 13 The father rescued us from the power of darkness and redirected us into the kingdom of his dear son— 14 the one who buys us out of slavery and forgives our sins.[2]

Yeshua is both the first and the highest

15 The son is the visible image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation 16 because it was him who created everything in the heavens and on the earth, both visible and invisible, including all authorities such as kingdoms and governments. Yes, everything was created by him and for him.[3] 17 He came before everything and everything still only exists because of him. 18 He is the head of the body which is the assembly.[4] He is the beginning, the first of the dead to come back to life, so that he would be the first in everything, 19 because God was pleased to live in him in all totality 20 and to reconcile everything to himself through him—both things on earth and things in the heavens. God made peace through him by means of the blood at the execution post.[5] 21 Once all of you were alienated from God—your thinking was that of an enemy and your actions were evil, 22 but now you all have been reconciled by means of the death of Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') physical body. He's able to present you as pure and blameless in front of God—unable to be charged for any infraction 23 if indeed you continue on in your established and firm faith. Don't let anyone drive away the hope that comes from the good message that you all heard and which has been proclaimed throughout the whole world—it's that good message that I've become a servant of.

Paulos's work for believers

24 So now I'm happy to be suffering for you all, and I'm catching up in my body to the tribulations of the messiah in his body, which is the assembly. 25 I became a servant of the assembly under God's supervision when he gave me the work of fulfilling God's message— 26 the mystery which had been hidden away from the generations over the ages, but which was recently revealed to his chosen people. 27 God wanted them to explain the riches of this incredible mystery among the pagans: the messiah in you all bringing the hope of reaching God. 28 Yes, Messiah who we are telling everyone about as we teach and recommend to everyone, so that we might present every person made perfect present every person perfect in chosen _one/messiah. 29 To which also I_am_labouring, striving according_to the working of_him, ~~which~~ working in me in power.

2:1 For/Because I_am_wanting you_all to_have_ _known how_much a_struggle I_am_having for you_all and the ones in Laodikeia, and as_many_ _as have_ not _seen the face of_me in the_flesh, 2 in_order_that the hearts of_them may_be_ _comforted, having_been_held_together in love, and to all the_riches of_the full_assurance of_ ~~the~~ _insight, to the_knowledge of_the mystery of_ ~~the~~ _god, chosen_one/messiah, 3 in whom all the treasures of_ ~~the~~ _wisdom and of_knowledge are secret. 4 This I_am_saying in_order_that no_one may_be_deluding you_all by persuade_speech. 5 For/Because if also I_am_being_absent in_the flesh, but ~~the~~ in_spirit I_am with you_all, rejoicing and seeing the order of_you_all and the firmness of_the faith of_you_all in chosen_one/messiah.

6 Therefore as you_all_received ~~the~~ chosen_ _one/messiah Yaʸsous/(Yəhōshūʻa) the master, be_walking in him, 7 having_been_rooted and being_built_up in him, and being_confirmed in_ _the faith, as you_all_were_taught, being_ _plentiful in thanksgiving. 8 Be_watching_out, lest anyone will_be ~~which~~ taking_ you_all _captive through ~~the~~ philosophy and empty seduction, according_to the tradition of_ ~~the~~ _humans, according_to the principles of_the world, and not according_to chosen_one/messiah. 9 Because in him all the fullness of_the deity is_dwelling bodily, 10 and you_all_are having_been_fulfilled in him, who is the head of_all rule and authority, 11 in whom also you_all_were_circumcised with_ _circumcision not_hand_made, in the disarmament of_the body of_the flesh by the circumcision of_the chosen_one/messiah, 12 having_been_buried_with with_him in ~~the~~ washing, in which also you_all_were_raised_up_ _with him, through the faith in_the working of_ ~~the~~ _god, ~~which~~ having_raised him from the_dead. 13 And you_all being dead in the transgressions and in_the uncircumcision of_the flesh of_you_ _all, he_made_ us _alive_together with him, having_forgiven all our transgressions to_us, 14 having_wiped_out the handwriting against us in Messiah. 29 That's what I'm working hard towards according to his work as well—working in me with power.

2:1 I want you all to know how much I struggle for you and for those in Laodikeia and for those who've never actually set eyes on me. 2 By knowing that, their hearts may be comforted, having been held together in love and to all the riches of the full assurance of the insight, to the knowledge of the mystery of God, Messiah. WHAT DOES THIS MEAN? 3 He holds all the treasures of wisdom and secret knowledge.

4 I'm telling you all this so that none of you will be deceived by persuasive talk, 5 because even though I'm physically far way, I'm with you all in the spirit. I'm pleased to see the sensibleness and firmness of your faith in Messiah.

Living in Messiah

6 So in the same way that you all received the messiah, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the master, keep living in him. 7 You've already been rooted in him and then built up and confirmed in the faith just as all of you were taught, and been very thankful.

8 Be careful in case anyone captures your minds with fancy ideas or theories without proof that come from human traditions or from worldly thinking, and not from Messiah. 9 Every component of the greatness of God lives in his human body, 10 and you also have been completed and are in him. He is the head of all rule and authority.

11 It wasn't just human hands that circumcised you by cutting off part of the body, but Messiah circumcised you all by cutting you away from your sinful acts. 12 You all were buried with him when you were immersed in water, and you came back to life with him when you came up from the water, through faith in God's working which gave him life after death.[6] 13 You all were dead in your disobedience and because your bodies were 'uncircumcised'. Then he made us alive together with him after he forgave us for all our disobedience.[7]

Readers' Version

14 He erased the writing that listed the charges against us and so it was removed—nailed to the execution post.[8] 15 He had disarmed the rulers and authorities and publicly exposed them, because he had won the victory over them on the post.[9] 16 Don't let anyone judge you all about what you eat or drink, or about observing feasts or holidays or days of rest.[10] 17 They're just shadows of what's coming, but the body causing the shadow is that of the messiah. 18 Don't let anyone be disqualifying you all with their apparent humility and worshipping the messengers, telling you what they've seen and being arrogant and vain about their earthly minds. 19 They're not listening to the head which controls all the joints and ligaments of the body and holds it all together as God causes it to grow.[11]

From death to life with the messiah

20 If you've died to worldly principles, then why are you letting yourselves be indoctrinated with worldly living: 21 'Don't hold this. Don't taste that. Don't touch this.' 22 No, All those rules lead to corruption when they're used as the commands and teaching of humans. 23 They seem to be wise and make you more religious or humble as you strictly obey them, but don't honour the realities of our worldly desires.
3:1 So if you all were brought back to life along with the messiah, then be concerned with discovering the things from above where the messiah is sitting on God's right.[12] 2 Yes, be thinking about things from above, not earthly things 3 because you've all 'died' and your lives have been hidden in God with the messiah. 4 When he's revealed on his return, then your lives will also be revealed with him in GLORY.

The old and new lives

5 So put your earthly natures to death: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desires, and greediness which is idolatry, 6 because those things invoke God's severe anger. 7 You all used to do those things when you lived in them.

8 But now, don't let any of these things come out of your mouth: severe anger, rage, malice, slander, or profanity. 9 Don't lie to each other, because you've gotten rid of the 'old person' and their habits.[13] 10 So 'dress' in the 'new person'[14] who's renewed with the knowledge of being in the image of the creator,[15] 11 where there's no distinctions between ethnicities or religion, locals and foreigners, slaves or free, but Messiah is everything and in all of us.

12 So as holy people chosen and loved by God, 'dress' in: compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience,[16] 13 tolerating each other, and forgiving anyone who has a complaint about another person. The master forgave all of you, so you also should forgive others.[17] 14 Then over all of those, 'dress' in love which is the perfect connection to others. 15 Let the peace of the messiah rule in your hearts. That's what you were called to as parts of one body. Make sure that you're thankful 16 and that the messiah's message is a rich part of you with all its wisdom as you teach and give advice to each other. Sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs to God with thankfulness in your hearts.[18] 17 Then give thanks to God the father through the name of Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) in everything—whatever you're all saying or doing.

ting in Yahweh.[19]

19 You husbands should love your wives[20]—don't become bitter towards them.

20 You children should obey your parents in everything,[21] because that pleases Yahweh.

21 You fathers shouldn't be exasperating your children otherwise they may become discouraged.[22]

22 You slaves should submit to your human masters in everything, not just when they're watching like others do, but sincerely, and so honouring the master.[23]

23 Whatever you all might be doing, consider in your hearts that you're working for the master and not for people, 24 knowing that Yahweh will repay you with an inheritance because you've been serving the master messiah. 25 Anyone who's doing wrong will be repaid for that wrongness, and there won't be any favouritism.[24]

4:1 You masters, ensure that you're treating your slaves with goodness and equality, knowing that you all also have a master of your own in heaven.[25]

Further teaching for believers

2 Persevere in prayer, keeping watch and being thankful. 3 Pray together for us as well that God would open a door for us to share the message—to tell about the mystery of the messiah. That's also why I'm in chains— 4 so that I can explain the mystery whenever I have an opportunity to speak.

5 Use wisdom as you all walk towards non-believers, using the time wisely.[26] 6 Always show grace in your conversations, like a meal that's seasoned with salt, so you'll know how to answer each person in their situation.

Final greetings

7 My dear brother and faithful servant and fellow slave, Tukikos,[27] will tell you all about me. 8 I'm sending him to all of you there so you'll find out the news that concerns you all and so that he can comfort you there. 9 The faithful and dear brother, Onesimos,[28] who's from your place will also be with him.

10 My fellow prisoner, Aristarkos,[29] sends his greetings along with Barnabas' cousin, Markos.[30] You've already received instructions about that, so accept him if he arrives there. 11 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) who's nicknamed Yustos also sends his greetings. These guys are from strict Jewish backgrounds, but they're my only fellow-workers for God's kingdom who became an encouragement to me.

12 Epafras (Epaphras)[31] sends his greetings. He's another one from your place and a slave of messiah Yeshua who always prays for you that you will stand mature and fully confident in all of God's will. 13 I can assure you that he has strong concerns for you all, as well as those in Laodikeia and in Hierapolis. 14 The dear doctor Lukas (Luke)[32] greets you all, as does Demas.[33]

15 Give my greetings to the brothers and sisters in Laodikeia, and to Numfa and the assembly that meets in her house, 16 and whenever my letter gets read to you all, make sure that it's also read to those from the assembly in Laodikeia, and that you all also read their letter. 17 Tell Arkippos[34] to make sure to fulfil the duties that Yahweh gave him to do.

18 I, Paulos, am writing this final greeting in my own handwriting. Remember me here in chains.

Paulos's letter to Filemon

Introduction

Filemon was known to be a follower of Yeshua and he was a member of a group of believers in the city of Kolossai. He was the owner of a slave named Onesimos. Onesimos had fled from his master and eventually met Paulos the missionary in prison in Romai. It was there that Onesimos became a believer in Yeshua because of Paulos's sharing of the good message. Here in Paulos's letter to Filemon, Paulos requests that the good relationship be restored between Filemon and his slave, Onesimos. Because Paulos sent Onesimos back to Filemon, he wanted Filemon to take his slave back in, not just because he'd forgiven his slave, but also because his slave was now a fellow believer and hence his brother.

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Paulos, a prisoner of messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), and our brother Timotheos. I'm writing to our dear co-worker Filemon (Philemon), 2 as well as our sister Apfia and our fellow-soldier Arkippos,[1] and to the assembly that meets in your home. 3 May you all experience grace and peace from our father God and from the master Yeshua the messiah.

Paulos's prayer and gratefulness

4 Filemon (Philemon) , I'm always thanking my God and mentioning you in my prayers 5 after hearing your faith and about your love for the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and for all the believers. 6 I pray that the fellowship of your faith may become active in the knowledge of every good thing in us toward the messiah, [WHAT DOES THAT MEAN???] 7 because I was very happy and encouraged by your love, because the hearts of the believers have been refreshed by you, brother.

Paulos's request to Filemon concerning Onesimos

8 Therefore, with the help of the messiah, I would be brave enough to tell you what you need to do, 9 but because of love as Paulos, an older man and now also a prisoner for Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah, I'm just going to encourage you to do it. 10 So I'm going to encourage you concerning Onesimos[2] who became my spiritual 'son' since I've been imprisoned. 11 Before, he was useless to you, but now he's useful to both of us.

12 I sent him to you (even though in my heart 13 I wanted to keep him here) so that he might be serving me here due to the bonds of the good message, 14 but I didn't want to do anything without hearing your opinion, so that you're not doing good because you have to, but rather because you want to.

15 It was possibly because of that that he was separated from you for a while, so that on the eternal scale you could fully accept him, 16 no longer as a slave, but better than a slave—a dear brother to me most of all, but preferably also to you—a brother in the body and in Yahweh.

17 Therefore, if you consider me as your partner, accept him like you'd accept me, 18 but if he did anything wrong to you or owes you anything, charge it to me. 19 I, Paulos, wrote this bit in my own handwriting. I will pay back anything he owes you, then I won't need to be reminding you that you pretty much owe yourself to me. 20 Yes, brother, with both of us being in Yahweh, I might hopefully benefit from you—refresh my heart in the messiah.

21 I wrote to you because I was sure that you'd obey my request, in fact knowing that you'd do even more than what I ask.

Paulos's final greetings

22 Go ahead and prepare somewhere for me to stay, because I'm hoping that I'll be able to visit, thanks to you all praying for me. 23 Epafras (Epaphras),[3] my fellow prisoner in Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah, sends his greetings, 24 as do my fellow-workers Markos,[4] Aristarkos,[5] Demas,[6] and Lukas (Luke).[7]

25 May the grace of our master Yeshua the messiah be with the spirit of you all there. May it be so.

Paulos's letter to the believers in

Efesos

Introduction

The author

This Letter to the believers in Efesos was written by Paulos from prison in Romai.

This letter

This letter wasn't just written for the assembly of believers there in Efesos, but also for other assemblies of believers.

Paulos's main theme is about God's plan that 'at the right time he will gather everything, whether in heaven or here on earth, for the messiah' (1:10).

In the first part of letter, he wrote about unity. Paulos carefully explained about how God the father chooses his people, about forgiving and saving them from their sins through his son, Yeshua the messiah.

In the second part of letter, Paulos urges the reader that the believers need to be united in the messiah by means of their unity with each other.

Paulos uses many allegories about the unity of people with God via the messiah: the believers are the body of the messiah, he is the head; it's like a house, with the messiah as the foundation stone; the believers are also like a bride with the messiah as the groom.

It's also explained here about the correct behaviour for couples, of parents and children, and for slaves and masters. Then in concluding his letter, it's explained about the armour that's given to believers for them to use to stand against Satan's attacks.

It should be noted here that this letter, like most of the scriptures, was dictated to a scribe (See 2 Thess 3:17), so it was an oral letter, quite different from our modern letters which we edit with word-processing software, adding a word back in a previous sentence, combining two short sentences, or breaking an over-long sentence. Oral letters tend to contain a lot of run-on sentences where the thoughts keep flowing without a break, thus 1:3-14 is considered by most Greek experts to be one long sentence (like this one is 😀), however for us as readers, a sentence with some two hundred words is very difficult for us to absorb, hence this Readers' Version breaks that single Greek sentence into a number of smaller sentences, in fact, this kind of adjustment is regularly done throughout the Bible by all major English translations in order to make them easier for us to read, but the disadvantage is that we can sometimes lose whatever the connection was between the consecutive thoughts. The OET tries to be more transparent about such adjustments by placing the Literal Version right beside this text so that the serious student can compare the two.

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Paulos, a missionary of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah by the will of God.

To the godly people there in Efesos[1] who are faithful to Yeshua the messiah.

2 May our father God and our master Yeshua the messiah give grace and peace to you all.

Spiritual blessings

3 We praise God, the father of our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah.[2] He is the one who's blessed us with every spiritual blessing in heavenly places—blessings that come from the messiah. 4 He chose us to follow him even before the creation of the world, so that we could become pure and blameless in front of him. Because of his love 5 he decided in advance to adopt us as his children through Yeshua the messiah. His decision gave him great pleasure 6 and now he's praised for the greatness of his grace which favoured us, as the one he loved 7 redeemed us by means of his blood and forgave our sins.[3] It was from the riches of his grace 8 that was poured onto us that we gain wisdom and understanding 9 as he revealed the mystery of his will to us according to his great pleasure as he himself planned. 10 He planned for the orchestration of the times, and at the right time he will gather everything, whether in heaven or here on earth, for the messiah 11 and we also have been assigned an inheritance in him. This was also predetermined according to God's plan and the decisions of his will 12 so that we, the ones who first put our trust in the messiah, would praise his greatness. 13 And you people also, after hearing the message of truth, the good message about being saved, were confirmed by receiving the spirit of pure promise after you believed. 14 This spirit is the deposit on our inheritance until we procure the freedom which has been bought for us, leading us to praise God's greatness.

2 RV 1:3 · Note Verses 3-14 seem to be just one long, rambling sentence in the Greek, and it's not totally clear what each part means, or how they all connect logically together in sequence. We have split it into smaller sentence chunks to try to help our readers extract some meaning out of it.

Paulos's prayer for them

15 Because of that, and because I heard about your faith in the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and your acceptance of all the pure believers, 16 I don't stop giving thanks for all of you, mentioning you in my prayers, 17 asking the God of our master Yeshua the messiah to give you spiritual wisdom and to reveal the knowledge about him. 18 I ask that your inner thoughts will be enlightened so that you'll all know the expectation of what he's calling you to—the riches of the greatness of his inheritance for the believers 19 and the exceeding greatness of his power to help us who believe, according to the working of the power of his strength. 20 He worked this power in the messiah when he brought him back to life and seated him in the place of honour in heavenly places[4]— 21 giving him authority over every law and government, and over every powerful group and organisation, and over every earthly title, not only in the present age but also in the age to come. 22 Everything in existence will be under his authority[5] and God set him in charge of all matters concerning the assembly, 23 which is his body—the completeness of the messiah who completes everything.

God's mercy, grace, and plans for us

2:1 You all were dead due to your disobedience and the path of sinning[6] 2 that you once walked along when you followed the trends of this world which in turn come from the ruler of the invisible powers—he's the spirit that works in the children of disobedience. 3 In the past, we also lived like them inside our fleshly lusts and then living out those desires and fantasies, and so we were children deserving strong anger just like everyone else.

4 But God was generous with his mercy because of the great love that he loved us with, 5 so although we were dead as a result of our disobedience, he make us alive along with the messiah. Yes, we have been saved by God's grace. 6 And God lifted us up and sat us together with Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah in the heavenly domains 7 so that for the ages to come, he could display the overflowing riches of his grace through his kindness to us via Yeshua the messiah. 8 It's God's grace that allows you all to be saved through faith. That grace doesn't come from you, but rather it's a gift from God— 9 it doesn't originate from your actions so no one can brag about it. 10 We are God's workmanship and he's created us to do good things by following Yeshua the messiah. God has already planned these things for us to do.

Yehudim and non-Jews can be united 11 Because of that, don't forget that you all were once fleshly unbelievers (nicknamed 'the uncircumcised ones' by circumcised Yehudim (Jews) who mark the bodies of their males with human hands). 12 At that time you were separated from the citizens of Yisrael (Israel) and were strangers to the agreements involving God's promise. You didn't have any future hope as you lived in the world without knowing God.

13 But now thanks to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah, you all who were once far from God have become close by means of the messiah's blood. 14 He is the source of peace between Yehudim and non-Jews, having broken the dividing wall that fenced them apart and making the two into one. He took the hostility onto himself, 15 having declared the old commands to be now void so that Yehudim and non-Jews can now be peaceably united.[7] 16 By his death on the pole, any hostility is destroyed and both groups now become just one body in God's sight.[8] 17 When the messiah came, he announced the good message: peace to you all who were far from God, and peace also to the ones who were near,[9] 18 so now both groups have access to the father by means of one spirit through the work of the messiah.

19 As a result, you all are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens of the believers and part of God's household 20 which has been founded on the teaching of the missionaries and prophets. The cornerstone of this building is Yeshua the messiah. 21 He joins the entire building together, growing us all into a dedicated temple for Yahweh. 22 You all are being built together by following him, becoming a place for God's spirit to live in.

Paulos's assignment to non-Jews

3:1 That's the reason that I, Paulos, am a prisoner due to my serving Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah for you non-Jews. 2 Certainly you have heard that God assigned me the task of passing on God's grace to you. 3 He revealed his incredible plan as I wrote briefly previously 4 and which you are all able to read to understand my insight into the incredible plan about the messiah.[10] 5 This plan wasn't explained to humans in previous generations but now God's spirit has revealed it to his worthy missionaries and prophets. 6 Now non-Jews can have the same inheritance and become members of the same body and can share in the same promise that was the positive message of Yeshua the messiah.

7 I have become a servant of that message as a result of the gift of God's grace that was given to me by means of the working of his power. 8 Although I was the least of the ones dedicated to this message, I was given the grace to preach this positive message to the non-Jews, to tell them about the endless riches of the messiah 9 and to enlighten everyone about the assignment of God's incredible plan. God, the one who created everything, hid this plan away over the ages 10 so that the wide-ranging wisdom of God could be revealed now through the church to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms. 11 God did this according to his plan for the ages which he established in our master Yeshua the messiah. 12 It's through our faith in Yeshua that we can have boldness and confident access to God. 13 Because of that, I'm asking you not to become discouraged over my current difficulties as I serve you all, in fact you are honoured by them.

Paulos prays for those in Efesos

14 That's why I'm kneeling to ask the father 15 (the one that every father in the heavens and on earth is named after) 16 that he would cause you to be strengthened inside your minds by the power of his spirit and from the riches of his greatness. 17 Through your faith, the messiah can live in your hearts so that love will become your root and foundation 18 so that just like the dedicated ones, you all will also be strong enough to understand the width and length and height and depth of 19 the messiah's love, and to know that having this love exceeds having knowledge so that you all can be filled with God's completeness.

20–21 Now we offer praise to God in the church and for all the generations to come and to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah—God who, through the power that works in us, is able to do far more than we can ask for or even understand. May it be so.

Many parts and gifts but one body

4:1 Because of that, I, a prisoner for Yahweh, am urging you all to walk worthily of the calling to which you were called 2 with all humility, gentleness, and patience, putting up with one another because of your love for them,[11] 3 being serious about keeping the unity of God's spirit in the bond of peace. 4 There is one body and one spirit, just as you all were called to one hope when you were called. 5 There's one master, one system of faith, one immersion, 6 one God and father of all who is over all and through all and in all.

7 Yet each one of us has been given a measure of grace as a gift from the messiah, 8 just as it was written,

"When he ascended to heaven,
he eliminated captivity and gave gifts to people."[12]

9 Of course, he couldn't ascend if he hadn't first descended down to earth. 10 So the one who de-good_message_preachers, on_the_other_hand the shepherds and teachers, 12 with the completing of_the holy ones for the_work of_service, because/for the_building of_the body of_the chosen_one/messiah, 13 until we_may_ ~~which~~ all _attain to the oneness of_the faith, and of_the knowledge of_the son of_ ~~the~~ _god, to a_ mature _ _man, to the_measure of_the_stature of_the fullness of_the chosen_one/messiah, 14 in_ _order_that no_longer we_may_be infants, being_ _tossed_by_waves and being_carried_about by_ _every wind of_ ~~the~~ _teaching in the trickery of_ ~~the~~ _people, in craftiness with the scheming of_ ~~the~~ _deception, 15 but being_truthful in love, we_ _may_grow into him in_ all _the things, who is the head chosen_one/messiah, 16 from whom all the body, being_joined_together and being_ _held_together by every joint of_its supply according_to the_working in the_measure of_one each part, the growth of_the body is_making to the_building of_itself in love.

17 Therefore I_am_saying this and I_am_ _testifying in the_master, you_all to_be_walking no_longer as also the pagans is_walking in the_ _uselessness of_the mind of_them. 18 Having_ _been_darkened in_their mind, being having_ _been_estranged from_the life of_ ~~the~~ _god, because_of the ignorance ~~which~~ being in them, because_of the hardening of_the heart of_them, 19 who having_languished, gave_ themselves _ _over to_ ~~the~~ _wantonness for the_working of_ _impurity all with greediness. 20 But you_all not learned thus the chosen_one/messiah, 21 if surely you_all_heard him and you_all_were_ _taught in him, as the_truth is in ~~the~~ Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʻa), 22 you_all to_put_away according_to your earlier conduct the old person, which being_corrupted according_to the desires of_ ~~the~~ _seduction, 23 and to_be_being_renewed in_the spirit of_the mind of_you_all, 24 and to_ _dress_in the new person ~~which~~ according_to god, having_been_created in righteousness and devoutness of_ ~~the~~ _truth. 25 Therefore having_ scended is the very one who also ascended above all the heavens so that he could fill all locations. 11 Then he gave some as missionaries, some as prophets, some as announcers of the good message, some as pastors and teachers 12 so as to complete the dedicated ones for the work of service—for building the body of the messiah 13 until we can reach the unity of our faith and of our knowledge about God's son—becoming mature people measured against the stature of the fullness of the messiah. 14 Then we'll no longer be like children in our faith, tossed around by waves and being blown by every wind of teaching used to trick us or by crafty people who scheme how to deceive us. 15 Instead, by lovingly speaking the truth, we will grow up into every aspect of him—the messiah who is the head 16 that integrates the entire body together and holds it together by every one of its joints. When each component does its work, the body grows and builds itself up with love.[13]

Proper behaviour for godly people

17 So I'll say this with Yahweh's direction: you all are no longer to walk like unbelieving pagans who trust in their own futile thinking. 18 Their minds have been darkened because their ignorance has drawn them away from the life of God due to the hardening of their hearts. 19 They stopped caring about what's right and wrong, and then greedily indulged themselves in their own impure lusts.

20 But you all didn't learn that about the messiah. 21 If you had heard him and listened to his teaching, you would have heard the truth from Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus): 22 that you reject the former conduct of the old corrupted you, those seductive desires,[14] 23 and allow the spirit driving your thoughts to be renewed 24 and so to remodel yourself[15] as a godly person[16] created to obey God and follow the pure truth.

25 So steer clear of lies—always speak the truth to those around you[17] because we are members of each other. 26 Even when you're angry, don't sin,[18] and don't carry your anger through to the next day— 27 don't let the devil get his foot in. 28 If you've been stealing, then stop it. Instead you should be a hard worker, doing good things with your hands, so that you'll earn enough to be able to help those who are in need. 29 Don't let any bad talk come out of your mouths, but rather words that are helpful to encourage others and to show grace to them. 30 And don't sadden God's holy spirit, because he is the one who recorded your names for the day when the price will be paid to buy you all back. 31 So get rid of all bitterness, and rage and severe anger, uproars and slander, and any kind of malice. 32 Instead, be kind to each other, tender-hearted, forgiving each other just like God forgave you all through the work of the messiah.[19]

Living in God's light

5:1 So imitate God like valued children would imitate their father 2 and immerse yourselves in love just as the messiah loves you all and allowed himself to suffer for us as an offering and sacrifice which is like a pleasant fragrance to God.[20]

3 It's fitting for dedicated believers to not even entertain thoughts of sexual immorality or impurity or greed. 4 Nor is dirty or foolish talk or crude joking fitting, but rather thankfulness. 5 You should realise that anyone who is sexually immoral or impure or is a covetous or idolatrous person won't have an inheritance in the kingdom of the messiah and of God.

6 Don't let anyone seduce you with empty talk, because this is exactly what will induce God's strong anger on those who are disobedient. 7 So don't get caught up with them 8 because you yourselves were once in the darkness but now that you are in Yahweh's light, you should behave like children of light. 9 The results of this light should be goodness and doing what is right and being honest 10 as you aim to please Yahweh. 11 Don't join in with the works of darkness which don't lead to positive results, but instead you all should expose them 12 because the things that unbelievers do in secret are disgraceful to even talk about. 13 But everything will eventually have the light shone on it and all these things will then be exposed. 14 That's why it says:

You who are asleep get up,
You who are dead come back to life,
The messiah will shine his light on you.

15 Because of that, take great care in exactly how you're living. Don't live like fools, but like wise people, 16 making good use of your time,[21] because there's lot of evil these days. 17 So don't be foolish, but rather strive to discover what Yahweh wants for you.

18 And don't get drunk on alcohol because that's excessive. Instead, be filled with God's spirit, 19 sharing scriptures with each other and singing hymns and songs to praise Yahweh,[22] 20 always expressing thanks for everything to our father
God in the authority and name of our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah. 21 And show your honour of the messiah by placing yourselves under each other's authority.

Married couples

22 Wives should place themselves under their own husbands,[23] just like they're under the master, 23 because the husband is the leader of the wife just like the messiah is the head and saviour of his body, the church.
24 Wives should place themselves under their husbands in everything just like the church should place itself under the messiah.

25 You husbands must love your wives,[24] just like the messiah loved the church and gave himself completely for it, 26 so that he could separate the church from the world and wash it clean with the water of the good message 27 in order to present the splendid church to himself—without any stains or wrinkles or anything like that—just pure and unblemished. 28 So husbands should love their wives just like their own bodies—anyone who loves his wife is loving himself. 29 No one hates their own body, but they feed and look after it, just like the messiah does for the church 30 and we are parts of his body. 31 That's the reason why a man leaves his father and mother and becomes joined with his wife and the two of them become one unit.[25] 32 This is an amazing mystery but I'm talking about the messiah and the church. 33 But it applies to you all: each one of you should love your wife like yourself and the wife should respect her husband.

Parents and children

6:1 It's right for children following Yahweh to obey your parents.[26] 2 Honour your father and mother (that's the first command that's followed by a promise) 3 so that things will go well for you and you'll have a long life on the earth.[27]

4 Fathers, don't provoke your children to anger,[28] but bring them up caringly and teach them disciplines and instructions from Yahweh.

Slaves and masters

5 Slaves, submit to your human masters with respect and fear, being sincere in your hearts as if serving the messiah.[29] 6 Don't just please them when they're watching, but work as slaves of the messiah, genuinely wanting to obey God 7 by serving with good will. When you serve as if serving the master and not people, 8 whether you're a slave or free, it's him who will reward you.

9 Masters, do the same towards your slaves.[30] You know that both the slaves and you have the same master in the heavens, so don't threaten them because our master has no favourites.[31]

The one loving the wife of_himself, is_loving himself. 29 For/Because no_one once hated the flesh of_ _himself, but is_nurturing and is_cherishing it, as the chosen_one/messiah also does for_the assembly, 30 because we_are members of_the body of_him. 31 For/Because this a_man will_be_ _leaving his father and ~~the~~ mother, and will_be_ _being_joined to_the wife of_him, and the two will_be into one flesh 32 This ~~the~~ mystery is great, but I am_speaking for chosen_one/messiah and for the assembly. 33 However you_all also, ~~which~~ each one_by one, let_him_be_loving the wife of_ _himself thus as himself, and the wife, in_order_ _that she_may_be_revering the husband.

Wear God's armour

10 Concluding then, be enabled by Yahweh and from the power which comes from his strength. 11 Wear God's complete armour because it will enable you to stand up against the devil's schemes. 12 Our struggle isn't against people, but against rulers, authorities, the powers of this world's darkness, and the spiritual forces of wickedness in heavenly places. 13 Because of that, make use of every piece of God's armour so that you'll be able to resist those powers in the evil day and having done everything, to remain standing.

14 So then, stand with the belt of truth around your waist,[32] wearing the breastplate of righteousness,[33] 15 and ready your feet with the good message of peace.[34] 16 Whatever arises, hold up the shield of faith which you all will be able to use to extinguish all the fiery arrows of the evil one.
17 Take the helmet of salvation[35] and the sword of God's spirit which is the message from God.

Praying for fellow believers

18 Make your requests as you pray in the spirit at every occasion and similarly staying alert and persevering as you make requests on behalf of all the dedicated believers 19 and also ask on my behalf for God to give me words to say as I open my mouth to boldly teach the good message about God's incredible plan 20 that's led me as a missionary to now be in prison. Ask that I would speak boldly as I should.

Update

21 Now Tukikos,[36] a dear brother and faithful servant of Yahweh, will let you know about me and how I'm doing. 22 I've sent him to you for that reason—so that you all will know about us here and that he would comfort your hearts.

Paulos's letter to the believers in Filippou

Introduction

Paulos wrote this letter to the believers in Filippou, a province of Makedonia (Acts 16:6-40). That group of believers was the first group planted by Paulos in the Romaios empire in Europe, and this letter was written while he was imprisoned in Romai for his preaching of the good message about Yeshua Messiah.
The main reason for Paulos's writing this letter was because he wanted to thank the believers there in Filippou for the gift that they had sent to help him in prison. His second reason for writing was so that he could encourage them and strengthen their faith despite difficulties that they would face, as well as his own difficulties. Paulos advised them that they need to humble themselves like Yeshua had humbled himself when he was here on the earth. He reminds them again about the goodness and mercy of God, and how their faith in Messiah saves them. It's no longer necessary for them to be constrained by the Law of Mosheh and human beliefs. Then he wrote about the peace and happiness that God gives to those united in Messiah.
Note that Paulos (or his scribe) regularly refer to the 'messiah' (Greek 'Χριστὸς') in this letter without a preceding article, i.e., no preceding 'the', thus he uses the word (which originally meant 'chosen or anointed one') as another name for Yeshua (rather than as a title—for example, compare 'Governor' with 'the governor'), hence we capitalise it here as 'Messiah'.

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Paulos and Timotheos, slaves of Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus). To all the believers in Messiah Yeshua in Filippou (Philippi),[1] along with your overseers and servants.

2 May our father God and our master Yeshua Messiah grant grace to you all and fill you with peace.

Paulos's thanking and praying

3 I thank my God every time that I hear you mentioned 4 and every time that I pray for you all, I'm always glad when I make my requests 5 because the good message united us in fellowship from the first day until now. 6 I'm sure of this: that the one who started a good work in you all will ensure that it's continued through to the day of the return of Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus). 7 It's right for me to be thinking this about you because I have you all in my heart. You received grace along with me so whether I'm in chains or defending and confirming the good message, we are fellow recipients. 8 God is my witness that I long for you with all the compassions of Messiah Yeshua.

9 And this is what I'm praying: that your love would grow more and more with knowledge and all insight 10 so that you all will approve what's of value and so remain sincere and blameless until Messiah returns, 11 having been filled with the fruit of righteousness through Yeshua Messiah, honouring and praising God.

Paulos's happiness that Messiah is proclaimed

12 Brothers and sisters, I want you to know that the good message has progressed more because of what's happened to me, 13 in that my being in chains because of Messiah, has become known in the governor's residence and to all the rest.[2] 14 Now, because of my imprisonment, more of the brothers and sisters in Yahweh have become much more daring to fearlessly tell others God's message.

15 Some do proclaim Messiah because of envy and strife, but others do it from their good will.
16 The ones proclaiming Messiah out of selfish ambition don't do it sincerely, but expect that it will add to my troubles while I'm here in chains.
17 The ones who do it out of love, know that I was appointed to defend the good message.
18 What then? I will be happy, excited even, as long as Messiah is being proclaimed in any manner, whether their reason for doing it is suspect or in truth. 19 I know that this will turn out to be my SALVATION/DELIVERANCE due to your prayers and from the resources of the spirit of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah, 20 as my eager expectation and hope is that I won't be ashamed of anything, but that Messiah will be magnified by my life, always in boldness and even now whether I go on to live or to die, 21 because to me, to live is to serve Messiah, and to die is to also gain. 22 If I continue to live in this body, I can continue in productive work, but I don't really know which is my preference. 23 I feel squeezed between the two: the desire to depart from here and be with Messiah which would be much better, 24 or to remain on in this body, which is maybe more necessary because of all of you. 25 Yes, I'm convinced: I know that I should remain in this world and continue with you all to assist in the progress of your faith and the happiness that comes from that, 26 so that when I come to visit you again, I'll hear your pride in how you are all growing in Messiah Yeshua.
27 Live as citizen who are worthy of the good message of Messiah, so that whether I'm able to come and see you all, or even if I'm absent, I'll be able to hear everything about you all: that you're standing firm in one spirit, with one heart contending together for the faith of the good message 28 and not being frightened about anything because of those in opposition. That will be a sign to them that they will face destruction but you all will receive salvation from God, 29 because it's been granted to you on Messiah's behalf for you to believe in him, yet also to suffer because of him— 30 the same struggle that you all saw in me,

Messiah's humility

2:1 So if you all feel that Messiah is encouraging you on and if his love brings comfort and the spirit brings fellowship, if anyone feels compassion, 2 then complete my happiness by being in agreement in your thinking and being united in the same love.[4] 3 Don't do anything from selfish ambition or in vain conceit, but show humility and consider others to be more important than yourselves, 4 not just looking out for your own advantage, but for what others need. 5 This is how you all who are also in Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) should be thinking: 6 Yeshua, though he was in the form of God, didn't take advantage of being considered equal with God, 7 but emptied himself and becoming like a human, took on the form of a slave. Then in that human form, 8 he humbled himself and became obedient all the way to death, even death on the stake. 9 That's why God highly praised him and gave him authority over every other authority, 10 so that every being in heaven and earthly and underwater realms will bow when Yeshua is announced[5] 11 and will honour God the father by testifying that Yeshua Messiah is Yahweh.

Shining like lights in the world

12 So then, my dear friends, work towards your salvation with fear and trembling—you always did this in my presence, so now do it much more in my absence— 13 because God is the one who works in you all to both desire and to be living out his good pleasure.

14 Do everything without grumbling and arguing 15 so that you'll all be blameless and innocent—blameless children of God among a genera-

19 But I_am_hoping in the_master Yaʸsous/(Yəhōshūʻa), Timotheos quickly to_ _send to_you_all, in_order_that also_I may_be_ _encouraging, having_known the things concerning you_all. 20 For/Because no_one I_am_ _having kindred-spirit, who genuinely the things concerning you_all will_be_caring_for. 21 The ones for all the things of_themselves are_seeking, not the things of_Yaʸsous chosen_one/messiah. 22 But the provenness of_him you_all_are_ _knowing, that as unto_a_father a_child serves, with me he_served in the good_message. 23 This one therefore on_one_hand I_am_hoping to_send, when ~~wishfully~~ I_may_look_out the things concerning me immediately, 24 on_the_other_ _hand I_have_persuaded in the_master that also myself quickly I_will_be_coming. 25 But necessary I_considered, Epafroditos, the brother and fellow-worker and fellow-soldier of_me, and of_you_all ambassador and minister of_the need of_me, to_send to you_all, 26 since longing_for he_was for_all for_you_all, and distressing because you_all_heard that he_ailed. 27 For/Because also he_ailed nearly to_death, but ~~the~~ god showed_mercy_to him, not and him only, but also me, in_order_that not sorrow on sorrow I_may_have. 28 Therefore more_earnestly I_sent him, in_order_that having_seen him again, you_ _all_may_be_elated and_I less_anxious may_be. 29 Therefore be_accepting him in the_master with all joy, and ~~the~~ such honoured ones be_ _having, 30 because because_of the work of_ _chosen_one/messiah unto death he_neared, having_risked with_his life, in_order_that he_ _may_fulfill_up the of_you_all lacking, of_the toward me ministry.

tion that's crooked and perverted.[6] Then you'll shine like lights in the world, 16 as you live out the message of life, and then I'll be able to boast when Messiah returns because I didn't waste my time or work for nothing, 17 but even if I'm to lose my life by being poured out like wine on your sacrifice and on the ministry of your faith, I'll be happy and celebrate along with all of you. 18 You all should also be happy and celebrating along with me.

Timotheos and Epafroditos

19 I'm hoping in the master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) to be able to send Timotheos to you all soon, so that I can be encouraged when I learn what you're all up to, 20 because I have no one else so similar to me in spirit who will be genuinely caring for how you're all doing. 21 (There's plenty who search out what they themselves need instead of the things of Yeshua Messiah. 22 But you all know that Timotheos has proven himself and has served with me in the good message like a son serving his father.) 23 So I'll send him as soon as I can sort out what's happening to me, 24 but I'm confident in the master that I myself will also be coming soon.

25 Meanwhile I thought it was necessary to send Epafroditos to you all. He's my brother and fellow-worker and fellow-soldier, and your ambassador and minister to my needs. 26 He's been longing to see you all again and was upset that you heard that he'd been sick 27 because he nearly died from it, but God showed mercy to him, and not only to him but also to me that I wouldn't have yet another hardship to go through. 28 So I sent him willingly so that when you all see him again, you'll all be very happy and I'll be less anxious here. 29 So accept him in the master with gratefulness and treat him with honour, 30 because he nearly died after risking his life doing the work of Messiah, but he was able to minister to me in a way that all of you there couldn't.

Truly knowing Messiah

3:1 So continuing, dear brothers and sisters, be happy in the master. I'm not against writing the same things to you all again because it will keep you safe. 2 Watch out for those dogs, those evil workers, those who say you must be circumcised,[7] 3 because we are the 'circumcised' ones—those of us with God's spirit and who worship and boast in Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus). We don't trust in the physical dimension, 4 although I do have confidence even in the physical. If anyone thinks they are more qualified in terms of physical attributes, I am more so: 5 I was circumcised as a baby on the eighth day, I'm a descendent of Yisrael (Israel) from the tribe of Benyamin,[8] I'm more 'Hebrew' than most Ivrim (Hebrews), obeyed the law as member of the Farisaios party,[9] 6 zealously persecuted assembled believers,[10] and without fault in terms of obeying the law. 7 However, all of those things which were considered advantages, now because of Messiah I consider them disadvantages. 8 In fact, I consider everything to be a loss to me because knowing Messiah Yeshua, my master, is superior. It's because of him that I discard everything else, considering it all to be rubbish so that I can gain Messiah 9 and will be found in him. I don't gain my own righteousness by means of the law, but the righteousness that comes through faith in Messiah—God's righteousness which depends on faith. 10 I want to know him and the power that brought him back to life, and to join with him in his sufferings, even to be conformed to his death, 11 if somehow I can also be given life after death.

Striving for the prize

12 I haven't already received that, or already reached perfection, but I'm running hard to try to grab it, in the same way that I was grabbed by Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus). 13 Brothers and sisters, I'm not under the illusion that I've already grabbed it, but I do do this one thing: forgetting what's behind me, and taking long strides towards what's ahead of me, 14 I'm running hard toward the prize of being called up to heaven by God through Messiah Yeshua.

15 Those of us who are mature should think that way, and if you don't yet, then God will reveal everything to you, 16 however, whatever we've already attained, that should be held onto.
17 Brothers and sisters, become imitators of me,[11] as well as watching others that have walked a similar path and can be examples for all of you.
18 As I've often told you before and now say it again with tears, there are many who are against the stake of the messiah 19 and their end is destruction. Their god is their belly, and they take pride in their shame—they're only thinking about earthly things. 20 For us, our citizenship is in heaven and we're waiting for our saviour to return from there—the master Yeshua Messiah— 21 who will take these embarrassing bodies of ours and make them similar to his resurrected body—he's capable of doing that and to put everything under his control.

Paulos's final teaching

4:1 So then, my dear brothers and sisters, my delight and my crown, I miss you all, so guard your faith in the master, dear ones. 2 Euodia and Suntuke, you both need to be thinking the same way in the master, 3 and yes, I'm asking you, my true companion, to help those two women who worked hard with me to share the good message, along with Klemes and the others who also worked with me and whose names are written in the book of life.
4 Always be happy in the master. I'll say that again: be happy. 5 Let your gentleness be visible to everyone. The master is close. 6 Don't worry about anything, but handle all situations by letting God know your requests—praying and telling God your needs, and also thanking him. 7 Then God's peace which is above human understanding will guard your hearts and your thinking in Mes- siah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus).

8 Brothers and sisters, here's the rest of what you all should be considering: anything that's true or dignified, anything that's right or pure, anything that's lovely or admirable, and anything that's virtuous or praiseworthy. 9 Continue to do everything you all learnt or received from me, and everything you heard or saw in me, and the God of peace will be with you all.

Paulos's appreciation of their practical help

10 I was extremely happy in Yahweh once you all reestablished your consideration for my situation. Well, you were thinking about it, but lacked any opportunity to act, 11 not that I'm talking about being in poverty, because I've learnt to be content in any situation. 12 I've experienced being humbled with little, and I've experienced having plenty, but I've grown through every one of those experiences, sometimes being satisfied and sometimes hungry, sometimes having plenty and other times not enough. 13 In every situation I stay strong because of the one who strengthens me.

14 However, you all did well to participate in my hardships. 15 I've know all you Filippaisios (Philippians), that when I left Makedonia to begin preaching the good message, no other assembly shared with me in giving and receiving—only you there. 16 Even when I was in Thessalonikai,[12] once you sent me what I needed—actually twice— 17 not that I was looking for a gift from my perspective, but because I was thrilled to see you all accumulating heavenly rewards. 18 But now I've received everything I need. I have plenty now that Epafroditos arrived with what you all sent. It was like a fragrant sacrifice that's acceptable to God and which pleases him.[13] 19 My God will meet all of your needs from his riches in heaven in Messiah Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus)— 20 may our God and father be honoured throughout all the ages.

Paulos's first letter to Timotheos

Introduction

Timotheos was a Christian from Asia Minor. His mother was a Yehudi but his father was a Greek. When Paulos (Heb. Shaul) saw Timotheos's genuine faith, he accepted him as one of his companions and helpers at preaching and teaching the good message (Acts 16:1-3) and they had ended up in Efesos together, where Paulos left Timotheos behind in order to look after the new believers there. After Timotheos had been in Efesos for some time, Paulos sent this letter to him. Timotheos's age was likely around thirty at that time.
There seem to be three main purposes in this letter of Paulos to Timotheos:
1. Firstly Paulos warned him about false teaching that was affecting the assembly of believers there. This teaching contained the philosophies of both Yehudim and non-Jews, because according to them, this world that we live in is evil but a person can be saved if they have the correct wisdom or knowledge and doesn't eat certain types of food and doesn't marry. Paulos writes that that's not right.
2. This letter also teaches about the behaviour of the assembly of believers and about worship. Paulos writes about the desired behaviour of teachers of the message, of helpers in the assembly, and of other believers including widows and slaves.
3. Finally he advised Timotheos how to become good servant of Yeshua the messiah, and concerning his responsibility to believers.

Main components of Paulos's letter

Introduction 1:1-2
Teaching concerning the group of believers and of teachers 1:3–3:16
Teaching to Timotheos about his work 4:1–6:21

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Paulos, a missionary of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah, appointed by our saviour god's command and by Yeshua the messiah, who is our hope. 2 I'm writing to Timotheos,[1] my true child in the faith: may you receive grace, mercy, and peace from God the father and from our master Yeshua the messiah.

Staying on-track in faith and doctrine

3 When I was going to Makedonia, I urged you to remain there in Efesos, so that you could speak against those preaching a different message, 4 and advise the believers not to worry about myths and endless genealogies, which just result in useless speculations, rather than them using their faith to advance God's plans. 5 The outcome of such teaching should be demonstrating love coming from a pure heart, a clean conscience, and selfless faith.
6 Some others have deviated from that, which then results in useless talk— 7 they want to be religious teachers but they don't understand what they're talking about or what they're agreeing to.
8 But we know that the religious law can be good if someone is using it lawfully, 9 but other than that, we know that the law isn't made for those who've been forgiven by God. The law was made for those who are disobedient and out of control, those who ignore and disobey God, who don't honour him but rather profane him, for those who would murder their parents or other people, 10 the sexually immoral, homosexuals, kidnappers, liars, those who falsely accuse others in court, and those doing anything else that is against the sound teaching 11 that's part of the good message that honours the wonderful God, and which was entrusted to me.

Paulos thanks God for showing mercy

12 I'm thankful for our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk.
Yesus) the messiah, for considering me faithful and strengthening me, and then appointing me to serve him, 13 even though I used to be a slanderer and persecutor and abuser,[2] but I was shown mercy because I did it in unbelief due to my ignorance. 14 The grace of our master was so generous in giving me faith in and love for Yeshua the mes- siah. 15 This saying is trustworthy and worth being accepted by everyone: Yeshua the messiah came into this world to save sinners, of which I was the worst. 16 And this is why I was shown mercy: so that Yeshua the messiah can demonstrate his great patience in me first, as a pattern to all the others who will believe in him and obtain eternal life. 17 May the king of the ages, the indestructible, invisible, only God have all the honour and praise throughout all the ages. May it be so.

18 In line with previous prophecies, I'm entrust-ing you, young Timotheos, with this: fight in this battle for good, 19 maintaining your faith and your clear conscience, even though others have turned back and shipwrecked their faith, 20 including Humenaios and Alexandros (Alexander), who I put Satan in charge of, so that they'd be disciplined to stop slandering.

Expectations for behaviour

2:1 Then first of all I urge you all to pray for all people—petitioning to God while also expressing thanks for them. 2 So too for national leaders and other prominent officials so that we can live a quiet and tranquil life with all devoutness and dignity. 3 This is good and pleasing to God our saviour 4 who wants everyone to be saved and to know the truth.[3] 5 There's only one God and also one mediator between God and humankind and that's the man Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah 6 who gave himself as a ransom for all people and as a testimony of God's love for all time. 7 I was appointed to proclaim that message and as a missionary—no lies, I'm telling you the truth here in the messiah—and also as a teacher of knowledge and the truth to non-Jews.[4]

8 That's why I long to see men praying in every country, lifting up their morally-clean hands and not harbouring anger or disunity.

9 Similarly women should wear respectable clothes that are sensible and modest, not with hair extensions or gold or pearls or expensive cloth-_being_made, because/for all people, 2 for kings and all who being in prominence, in_order_that we_may_be_going_by a_tranquil and quiet living acceptable before god the saviour of_us, 4 who is_wanting all people to_be_saved, and to_come _may_remain in faith, and love, and holiness, with sobriety.

3:1 The saying is trustworthy: If anyone is_ _aspiring to_overseeing, he_is_desiring of_a_good work. 2 Therefore it_is_fitting the overseer to_be irreproachable, the_husband of_one wife, sober, sensible, respectable, hospitable, teaching, 3 not winebibbing, nor a_bully, but gentle, peaceable, ungreedy, 4 leading of_his own house well, having children in submission, with all dignity 5 (but if someone has_ not _known to_lead of_his own ing,[5] 10 but with what is fitting for women who do good things, having declared that they honour god. 11 Women should be learning quietly and submissively, 12 but I don't permit women to be teaching or domineering men. They should remain quiet 13 because Adam was created first,[6] then Havah (Eve),[7] 14 and it wasn't Adam that was seduced but rather it was the woman that was deceived and disobeyed.[8] 15 But women will be saved through childbearing if they continue in faith and love and purity and self-control.

Qualities of assembly overseers

3:1 This is a trustworthy saying: 'If anyone is aspiring to be an overseer, then it's a good task that he's desiring.' 2 So it's fitting that an overseer be above reproach, be the husband of one wife, sober, sensible, respectable, hospitable, a good teacher, 3 not dependent on alcohol or greedy or a bully, but rather gentle, peace-loving, 4 a good, dignified leader in his own home and in disciplining his children. 5 (If someone doesn't know how to lead his own household, how could he take care of God's assembly?) 6 He mustn't be a new believer, because that might lead him to becoming proud,
and from there to fall into the devil's judgement.
7 It's also fitting for him to have a good reputation with those outside the assembly, so that he doesn't end up getting mocked, and from there falling into the devil's trap.[9]

Qualities of assembly helpers (or deacons/ministers)

8 Similarly helpers in the assembly should also be dignified, should only speak
the truth, shouldn't be greedy or addicted to wine, 9 and should cling to the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience. 10 Once they've proven themselves to be without any misconduct, then let them be working in the assembly. 11 Their wives, too, should be dignified, should only speak the truth, and should be sober and faithful in everything they do. 12 These helpers in the assembly should be husbands of one wife, and should lead their children and their households well. 13 Those helpers who serve well will earn a good reputation for themselves and increase in confidence in their faith in Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah.

The announcement of God of truth

14 I am writing all this to you in the hope that I can come soon, 15 but if I get delayed, at least you'll know how to organise God's household—that is the assembly of the living God—which is the pillar and foundation of the truth. 16 But yes, this godliness is quite a mystery: he appeared in a body, was declared innocent by the spirit, was seen by messengers, was preached among the nations, was believed in around the world, and then was taken up to heaven to be honoured.

False teachings, including what not to eat

4:1 But the spirit is expressly saying that in later times, some will pull back from their faith, listening instead to deceiving spirits and teachings of demons. 2 After suppressing their own consciences, they'll become hypocritical liars, 3 telling people not to get married and to keep away from foods that God created for faithful people who know the truth to be able to eat with thankfulness. 4 Every creature made by God is good and nothing should be rejected but rather be received with thanksgiving 5 because it's made acceptable by God's declaration and by prayer.

The good servant of the messiah Yeshua

6 If you explain these things to the believers then you'll be a good servant of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah, growing in the messages of faith and of the good teachings that you have followed. 7 Refuse to listen to rude jokes and conspiracy theories. Instead train yourself to be godly, 8 because keeping fit is of some benefit, but being godly benefits every part of life, from the present life right through to life in the next age.

9 Here is a trustworthy saying that's worthy of acceptance by everyone 10 and it's what we work and strive for: we have put our hope in the living God who is the saviour of all people and particularly of all believers, 11 so command and teach these things.

Literal Version

chosen_one/messiah Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʹa).

14 I_am_writing these things to_you, hoping to_ _come to you in quickness, 15 but if I_may_be_ _slowing, in_order_that you_may_have_known how it_is_fitting to_be_being_conducted in the_ _household of_god, which is the_assembly of_god the_living, the_pillar and foundation of_the truth. 16 And confessedly great is the of_ ~~the~~ _ _devoutness mystery: Who was_revealed in the_ _flesh, was_justified in the_spirit, was_seen by_ _messengers, was_proclaimed among the_ _nations, was_believed in the_world, was_taken_ _up in glory.

4:1 But the spirit is_speaking expressly that in later times, some will_be_withdrawing from_the faith, giving_heed to_ deceitful _spirits and teachings of_demons, 2 in hypocrisy of_liars, having_been_seared their own conscience, 3 forbidding to_be_marrying, to_be_keeping_ _away from_foods that ~~the~~ god created for partaking with thanksgiving by_the faithful ones and having_known the truth. 4 Because every creature of_god is good, and nothing being_ _received with thanksgiving is rejected, 5 for/because it_is_being_sanctified by the_ _message of_god and petition.

6 These things laying_down to_the brothers, you_ _will_be a_ good _servant of_chosen_ _one/messiah Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʹa), being_ _nourished in_the messages of_the faith, and of_ _the good teaching with_which you_have_ _followed. 7 But be_refusing the profane and granny myths. And be_training yourself to devoutness, 8 For/Because ~~the~~ bodily training for is a_little beneficial, but the devoutness is beneficial for all things, the_promise holding of_ _the_ ~~which~~ present _life, and of_the_ coming _life. 9 The saying is trustworthy, and worthy of_all acceptance. 10 For/Because we_are_labouring and we_are_striving for this, because we_have_ _hoped in a_ living _god, who is the_saviour of_ _all people, most_of_all of_believers. 11 Be_ _commanding these things and be_teaching. 12 let_ no_one of_you _be_Despising the youth, but be_becoming an_example for_the believing ones, in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. 13 Until I_am_coming, be_giving_heed to_ _the public_reading, to_ ~~the~~ _exhortation, to_ ~~the~~ _ _teaching. 14 Not be_neglecting of_the gift in you, which was_given to_you through prophecy, with the_laying_on of_the hands of_the council_of_ _elders. 15 Be_pondering these things, be in these things, in_order_that the progress of_you may_be manifest to_all. 16 Be_holding_on to_yourself and to_the teaching. Be_continuing_on in_them, because/for doing this, you_will_be_saving both yourself and the ones hearing from_you.

5:1 You_may_ not _harshly_give_rebuke to_an_ _elder, but be_exhorting him as a_father, younger men as brothers, 2 eldresses as mothers, younger as sisters, in all purity. 3 Be_honouring widows, who are really widows. 4 But if any widow is_ _having children or grandchildren, let_them_be_ _learning to_be_devout first to_their own household, and to_be_giving_back recompense to_the parents, because/for this is acceptable before ~~the~~ god. 5 And the woman really a_widow and having_been_isolated has_hoped in god, and is_remaining ~~the~~ in_petitions and ~~the~~ prayers, night and day. 6 But the woman living_ _luxuriously, while_living has_died. 7 Also be_ _commanding these things, in_order_that they_ _may_be irreproachable. 8 But if anyone is_ not _ _providing of_their own and most_of_all household, he_has_disowned the faith, and is worse than an_unbeliever. 9 ‹Let›_ a_widow _be_ _being_enrolled having_become not lessor than sixty years, the_wife of_one husband, 10 being_ _attested in good works: if she_raised_children, if she_lodged_strangers, if she_washed the_feet of_ _holy ones, if she_assisted being_oppressed ones, if she_followed_after to_every work good. 11 But be_refusing younger widows, because/for whenever they_may_become_sensual against_the chosen_one/messiah, they_are_willing to_be_ _marrying, 12 having judgement because they_ _rejecting their first faith. 13 But also together they_are_learning to_be idle, going_around ~~the~~ houses, and not only idle, but also gossips and meddling, speaking the things not fitting.

Readers' Version

12 Don't let anyone despise you just because you're young, but be an example for the believers in your speech and conduct, and in love, faith, and purity. 13 Prioritise the public reading of the scriptures as well as encouraging and teaching others until I come. 14 Don't neglect the gift that you have in you which was given to you when the council of elders placed their hands on you and prophesied over you. 15 Keep these things in your thoughts so that everyone will be able to see your progress. 16 Hold on to your own integrity and to this teaching, and stay faithful to them, because as you do, you'll be saving both yourself and the people listening to you.

Advice about widows, teachers of believers, and slaves

5:1 Don't scold an elder harshly, but encourage him as a father. Encourage younger men as brothers, 2 female elders as mothers and younger ones as sisters in all purity.

3 Show honour to widows—the real widows that is 4 because if a widow has children or grandchildren, then they should be learning to show their godliness to their own relatives first, and to be repaying their parents and grandparents because this is what God expects. 5 A woman who is a real widow and has been left by herself but puts her hope in God, she is then able to spend her days and nights in prayer and requesting God's response. 6 But a widow who just lives for pleasure is dead inside even though she's still living. 7 You should teach these things, Timotheos, so that the people don't anger God, 8 because if someone is not providing for their own household, then they've rejected their faith in God and they're acting worse than an unbeliever.

9 The assembly should enrol[10] a widow if she's at least sixty years old and was the wife of a single husband. 10 She should be known for her good undertakings, for example if she raised children, if she was hospitable to strangers, if she washed the feet of believers, if she helped those who were oppressed, and if she always tried to do what was right.

10 RV 5:9 · Note It's not specified in the text what they were being enrolled for or into. It's likely that it was a list of widows visited and/or helped by the assembly.

Readers' Version

11 But don't enrol younger widows because their emotional needs might drive them to want to marry again rather than to serve the messiah 12 and we don't want them to be judged because they couldn't fulfil their faith commitment. 13 Plus they often follow others in idly going around houses, and not just being idle but also gossipping and meddling and chatting about things they shouldn't. 14 That's why I prefer younger women to be getting married and having children, to keep house, and to avoid all situations where others could accuse them. 15 In fact, some have already turned away to follow Satan.

16 If any believing woman has widowed relatives, they should continue to help them and not burden the assembly, so then the assembly can assist the really needy widows.

17 An elder who has led well should be considered worthy of double honour, especially those who work hard in studying and teaching the message, 18 because the scriptures say, "Don't muzzle the ox working on the threshing floor,"[11] and "A worker deserves their wages."[12] 19 Don't entertain an accusation against an elder unless there are two or three witnesses,[13] 20 but the ones that are sinning need to be scolded publicly so that others will be reluctant to do the same.

21 I am telling you these things in the sight of God and Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah and the chosen messengers so that you can put them into practice without any favouritism or partiality. 22 Don't rush to lay hands on anyone[14] and don't join in other people's sinful schemes, but strive to keep yourself pure.

23 Don't carry on just drinking only water, because a little bit of wine might be good for your stomach and help with your frequent bouts of sickness.

Readers' Version

24 The sins of some people are quite easy to see, being known ahead of them going to face judgement, but other people's sins will only become known later. 25 It's the same with people's good deeds—some are quite easy to see and others aren't, but nothing will be hidden in the end.

6:1 Those who are bonded into slavery should consider their masters to be worthy of honour, so that God's name and message won't be slandered, 2 and the ones having masters who are also believers shouldn't despise their masters because we're all brothers. On the contrary, let them serve well because the ones benefitting from their good work are beloved believers.

Proper teaching and true contentment

Those principles are what you should be teaching and encouraging the believers to do. 3 If anyone is teaching different things and their living is far from the message of our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah and from godly teaching, 4 that person is conceited. They don't know anything, but instead obsess about debates and quibble about messages, and this leads to strife, slander, evil suspicions, 5 and constant friction. People like this have ruined their minds and been robbed of the truth, thinking that they can gain financially by appearing godly.

6 But genuine godly living does lead to contentment which is a big advantage, 7 because we brought nothing with us into this world and we can't take anything out of it either. 8 As long as we have shelter and sustenance, then we'll be content. 9 Those who desire wealth fall into temptation. It's a trap which leads to many foolish and harmful desires, resulting in people sinking into ruin and destruction 10 because that desire for wealth is the root of all evil. Some who aspired to becoming wealthy wandered away from faith in Yeshua and wounded themselves with many disappointments.

The teaching of Paulos to Timotheos

11 But you, Timotheos, as a godly person, flee from those things and instead pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, and gentleness. 12 Fight the good fight of the faith in order to take hold of the eternal life which you were called to when you confessed wanting to follow Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) in front of many witnesses. 13 I am commanding you in front of God who gave life to everything, and in front of Yeshua the messiah who testified the good confession to Pontios Pilatos (Pilate),[15] 14 to obey that command faultlessly until the return of our master Yeshua the messiah. 15 He will be revealed in his own time—the blessed and only God, the ruler over all rulers and master over all masters, 16 the only immortal one who lives in unapproachable brightness which no person has ever seen or is capable of looking at. He will be honoured for his eternal power. May it be so.

17 Command those who are rich in this present age to not be proud and not to put their hope in uncertain wealth, but in God who richly blesses us with all that we need to be happy. 18 They should live out goodness, doing good deeds, helping others and being generous, 19 thus they will be building themselves a good foundation for the coming age so that they may experience true life.

20 So Timotheos, guard what has been invested in you. Avoid useless and godless babbling and what others call knowledge but which opposes the true message 21 and which some who were believers have turned away to.

May God's grace be with you all there.

Titos (Titus)

Introduction

The author

Paulos

The recipient

Titos, often spelt (wrongly) as 'Titos' in English translations, wasn't a Yehudi and didn't originally believe in God. However, in later times he became a believer and from there, he became a helper in Paulos's work. This letter was sent by Paulos there to Titos in Kraitai where he had been left to look after a group of believers. (Crete is an island that was a part of Greece.)

This letter

There are three main things contained in this letter: Firstly Titos is reminded about what is appropriate behaviour for teachers of believers. It was important that he understand this because those from Kraitai had many undesirable customs and there were many teachers of false doctrines that would confuse believers.
Secondly Titos was advised Titos how to teach the various groups of believers there, including young men and slaves, along with older men and women. (Then those older women were to teach the younger women.)
Finally Paulos advised Titos about how believers should live, including avoiding attacking others, arguing, and splitting the believers into opposing groups. Paulos reminded Titos again to follow the teachings of Yeshua the messiah and obey what he commanded us.
Paulos wanted it to be known that it's very important for believers to behave well (1:6; 2:7,14; 3:1,8-9,14) even though doing good things can't earn their salvation (3:5).

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Paulos, a slave of God and a missionary of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah and follower of the faith of the ones that God has chosen.

I share the knowledge of the truth which leads to godliness 2 and the expectation of living forever which God promised before time began. And God can't lie 3 but revealed his message in his own time, and I've been entrusted to proclaim this by the command of God our saviour.

4 To Titos,[1] my true son due to our common faith. May God the father and our saviour Yeshua the messiah give you grace and peace.

Qualifications for leaders

5 The reason that I asked you to stay behind in Kraitai (Crete) was so that you would find what needed to be reorganised and so that you would appoint elders in every city just as I had directed you. 6 Each elder must have a clean record, be the husband of one wife, and have believing children who are not wild or disobedient. 7 Any overseer in the assembly as a manager working for God must have a clean record, not be self-centred, not be quick to get angry, not addicted to wine, not a bully, and not greedy, 8 but rather hospitable, someone who loves what is good, sensible, honest, loves God, and self-controlled. 9 He must hold faithfully to the message that was taught, so that he will be effective in encouraging others with sound teaching and to be rebuking those who speak against the message.[2]

Handling those who go off the track

10 There's plenty of people who don't want to be told what to do, empty talkers and outright deceivers, especially those that push the letter of the law. 11 These people need to be silenced because they mess up whole families when they teach them things that they shouldn't—all for the sake of shameful game. 12 One of their own prophets said that the people from Kraitai (Crete) are liars, evil beasts, and lazy gluttons, 13 and that's right. For those reasons, you need to sternly tell them they're wrong, so that they can become sound in

Literal Version

1:1 Paulos, a_slave of_god, and an_ambassador of__Yaʸsous/(Yəhōshūʻa) chosen_one/messiah, according_to the_faith of_the_chosen ones of__god, and knowledge of_the_truth, which is according_to devoutness, 2 in the_hope of_life eternal, which the unlying god promised before times eternal, 3 but revealed the message of_him in_ his_own _seasons in the_proclamation, which I was_entrusted according_to the_command of__god, the saviour of_us 4 to_Titos, my_genuine child, according_to our_common faith: grace and peace from god the_father and chosen__one/messiah Yaʸsous, the saviour of_us.

5 For/Because_reason_of this, I_left_ you _behind in Kraʸtaʸ, in_order_that you_may_set_in_order the things lacking, and may_appoint elders in ‹every›_city as I directed to_you, 6 if anyone is unindictable, the_husband of_one wife, having believing children, not in accusation of_ _intemperance or insubordinate. 7 For/Because it_is_fitting the overseer to_be unindictable as a_ _manager of_god, not self-willed, not easily_ _angered, not winebibbing, not a_bully, not greedy, 8 but hospitable, a_lover_of_good, sensible, righteous, devout, self-controlled, 9 upholding of_the faithful message according_to the teaching, in_order_that he_may_be powerful both to_be_exhorting with ~~the~~ teaching ~~which~~ being_sound, and to_be_rebuking the ones speaking_against it.

to_the pure, but to_the ones having_been_defiled and unbelievers, nothing is pure, but both the mind, and ~~the~~ conscience of_them has_been_ _defiled. 16 They_are_confessing to_have_known god, but by_their works they_are_disowning him, being detestable and unpersuadable, and unqualified for any good work.

2:1 But you be_speaking the things it_is_befitting ~~which~~ to_being_sound teaching. 2 The_older_men to_be sober, dignified, sensible, being_sound ~~the~~ in_faith, ~~the~~ in_love, ~~the~~ in_endurance. 3 The_ _older_women likewise reverent in behavior, not diabolical, not having_been_enslaved to_ much _ _wine, good_teaching, 4 in_order_that they_are_ _making_ the new women _sensible to_be husband-loving, children-loving, 5 sensible, pure, homemakers, good, being_subjected to_their own husbands, in_order_that the message of_ ~~the~~ _god may_ not _be_being_slandered. 6 The younger men likewise be_exhorting to_be_being_sensible, 7 about all things yourself bringing_about an_ _example of_good works, in your teaching, incorruption, dignity, 8 healthy speech, irreproachable, in_order_that the man of contrary may_be_swayed, having nothing bad to_ _be_saying concerning us. 9 Slaves to_be_being_ _subjected to_their_own masters in all things, to_ _be well_pleasing, not speaking_against, 10 not embezzling, but displaying all good faith, in_ _order_that in all things they_may_be_adorning the teaching ~~which~~ of_the saviour of_us, god. 11 For/Because the grace of_ ~~the~~ _god has_ _appeared, salvation to_all people, 12 instructing us that having_disowned ~~the~~ ungodliness and ~~the~~ worldly lusts, we_may_live sensibly and justly and devoutly in the present age, 13 waiting_for the blessed hope, and the_appearing of_the glory of_the great god and saviour of_us, Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʻa), chosen_one/messiah 14 who gave himself for us, in_order_that he_ _may_redeem us from all lawlessness, and may_ _purify to_himself a_people chosen, zealous of_ _good works. 15 Be_speaking these things, and be_exhorting, and be_rebuking, with all command. let_ no_one of_you _be_disregarding.

Readers' Version

their faith, 14 and not pay attention to Jewish myths or human rules which turn people away from the truth. 15 For someone who's pure in their thinking, everything is pure to them, but for unbelievers and those who've strayed from the truth, nothing is pure because their minds and consciences have already been damaged— 16 they say that they know God, but their actions show that they don't, and so they're detestable. They can no longer accept teaching so they're unsuitable for any good work.

Proper behaviour for believers

2:1 But you, Titos, only teach what's consistent with sound doctrine. 2 Older men should be sober, dignified, sensible, and sound in their faith, their love, and their endurance. 3 Likewise older women should honour god by their behaviour, not making false accusations, not addicted to a lot of wine. They should teach what is good 4 so that they can train the younger women to love their husbands and children, 5 and to be sensible and pure, homemakers that do good for others, living under the authority of their husbands so that others don't speak evil of God's message because of them.

6 Also encourage younger men to be sensible. 7 Be a good example in everything you do and in your teaching. Don't be led astray, maintain your dignity, 8 watch every word that comes out of your lips, stay above reproach—all this so that those who oppose us can be reached because there's nothing bad they can say about us.

9 Slaves need to conform to their master's commands, aiming to please. They shouldn't speak against their masters 10 or be pilfering from them, rather they should display their good faith so that their actions add to the teachings of God our saviour.

11 This is because God's grace which offers salvation to all people has appeared 12 and teaches us that when we distance ourselves from ungodliness and worldly lusts, we can live sensibly and justly and devoutly in the present age. 13 Then we can look forward to the blessing of the majestic appearance of our great God and saviour, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah 14 who gave himself for us in order to redeem us from all lawlessness[3] and to purify us into his chosen people,[4] eager to do good things.

Readers' Version

15 Teach these things as you encourage some and scold others, but don't let anyone disrespect you.

Expected behaviour

3:1 Remind people to conform to their rulers and authorities, being obedient and ready to do anything that's good. 2 Don't slander others, be peaceable. Don't be strong-willed, but rather show gentleness to all people. 3 We were also foolish and stubborn at one time, straying from the good and giving in to various lusts and pleasures, being mean and envious, even full of hate and hating one another. 4 But when God our saviour revealed his kindness and love for humankind, 5 he saved us, not because of the 'good deeds' that we did, but out of his mercy. He regenerated us through washing and renewed us by his holy spirit 6 which he lavishly poured on us through Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah 7 so that we might become heirs with the expectation of living forever, having been declared that we have no outstanding legal charges thanks to his grace. 8 That statement can be trusted. I want you to confirm those things so that those who have believed in God will be leading in wanting to do good things. These things are good and benefit everyone.

9 But avoid foolish debates, arguments about ancestry, other strife, and quarrels about God's commands because they all achieve nothing and waste time. 10 Refuse to listen to a divisive person after you've given them two warnings 11 knowing that such people condemn themselves by their corruption and sinful attitude.

Closing

12 Whenever I send Artemas or Tukikos[5] to you, you should try to meet me at Nikopolis, because I've decided to spend the winter there. 13 Help by sending Zenas the lawyer and Apollos[6] on their way so that they won't be needing anything. 14 Our people must also be learning to be leading in doing good things

Literal Version

3:1 Be_reminding them to_be_being_subjected to_ _rulers, to_authorities, to_be_yielding, to_be ready for every good work, 2 no_one to_be_ _slandering, to_be peaceable, gentle, all displaying gentleness toward all people. 3 For/Because once we also were foolish, unpersuadable, being_strayed, serving in_lusts and various gratifications, going_by in malice and envy, hateful, hating one_another. 4 But when the kindness and the love_of_mankind of_ god _the saviour of_us has_appeared, 5 not by works ~~which~~ in righteousness, that we practiced, but according_to the mercy, of_him he_saved us, through the_washing of_regeneration and renewal of_the_ holy _spirit, 6 whom he_poured_ _out on us richly, through Ya^{y}sous chosen_ _one/messiah, the saviour of_us, 7 in_order_that having_been_justified by_the grace of_that one, we_may_be_become heirs, according_to the_hope of_ eternal _life. 8 Trustworthy is the saying, and I_am_wishing you to_be_confirming concerning these things: In_order_that the ones having_ _believed in_god may_be_caring to_be_leading of_good works. These things is good and beneficial to_ ~~the~~ _people. 9 But be_avoiding foolish debates, and genealogies, and strifes, and legal quarrels, they_are for unprofitable and useless. 10 Be_refusing a_sectarian person after one and a_second admonition, 11 having_known that ~~the~~ such person has_been_perverted and is_ _sinning, being self-condemned.

12 Whenever I_may_send Artemis or Tukikos to you, be_earnest to_come to me into Nikopolis, because/for I_have_judged to_winter there. 13 Earnestly send_forward Za^{y}nas the lawyer and Apollōs, in_order_that nothing may_be_lacking to_them. 14 And also let_ ~~the~~ our people _be_ _learning of_good works to_be_leading for the necessary needs, in_order_that they_may_ not _

The first letter from Shim'on 'the Rock' (Peter)

Introduction

The first letter from Shim'on 'Kefa' was written to believers scattered throughout Asia Minor (also called Anatolia, now part of modern Turkey). Kefa wrote to encourage the believers that it's necessary for them to be strong even in the middle of much persecution that comes because of their faith in the messiah. He reminds them about their salvation, the death of Yeshua the messiah, and of his coming back to life. Because Kefa told them that there must always remember their hope in heaven, then they can persevere even through all the difficulties here on earth. He also reminds them that if their faith holds strong through their suffering of difficulties and persecutions, they will receive a gift at "The time when Yeshua the messiah is revealed." (1:7,13)
He also warns them that it's necessary to watch their behaviour as followers of the messiah and it's necessary that they follow the guidance of their elders.

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros), an ambassador for Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah.

It's written to those people who've been chosen by God and dispersed by persecution throughout the provinces of Pontos, Galatia, Kappadokia, Asia Minor, and Bithunia. 2 They were chosen in advance by God the father by his pure spirit, thanks to the obedience of Yeshua the messiah and the sprinkling of his blood.

May God give you grace and abundant peace.

The future hope of life without ending

3 May God, the father of our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah be blessed. He's the one who, because of his incredible mercy, births us into living hope through the death and coming back to life of Yeshua the messiah. 4 Now we have an inheritance that can't be destroyed or ruined and never diminishes. It's kept in the heavens for you chosen people, 5 who are guarded through faith by God's power, because the rescue is ready to be revealed in the final age.

6 This rescue brings some happiness now, although offset by the sorrow of various trials that you go through 7 in order that your faith will be purified by fire, like gold, but even more precious, because gold corrodes. Then your faith will lead to praise and glory and honour when Yeshua the messiah is revealed, 8 the one you chosen people love, even though you've never seen him. Yet you believe, and because of that, you're happier than you can even show, AND HAVING BEEN GLORIFIED, 9 you'll receive the result of your faith, which is that your souls are rescued.

10 The prophets wanted that rescue and searched for it, even while speaking about the grace which you chosen people would experience. 11 They tried to discover which person or what time the messiah's spirit within them was telling them about, having previously testified that the messiah would suffer but afterwards would be GLORIOUS. 12 It was shown to them that they weren't just serving themselves, but were serving you as they declared all the same things that have been preached to you by the holy spirit who was sent from heaven. Even God's messengers in heaven wanted to know more about those things.

The holy behaviour of believers

13 So take this seriously and get your minds prepared, putting your full hope in the grace that'll be brought to you by Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah being revealed. 14 As people who want to obey, don't conform to your earlier desires that came from your ignorance, 15 but just as God who called you is holy, your yourselves need to be holy in all your conduct, 16 because it's been written that 'you'll be holy people because I am holy.'[1]

17 And since you call on the father who impartially judges each person according to their actions, continue to obey him even as you live as foreigners, 18 knowing that when you were in slavery due to your poor conduct that you inherited from your ancestors, you weren't bought out of that by payment of things that decay like silver or gold, 19 but by the precious blood of the messiah—the unblemished and spotless lamb.[2] 20 He'd been known before the world was created, yet he was only recently revealed for the sake of you chosen people 21 who believe in God through him. God was the one who raised him from the dead and honoured him, so that your faith and hope would be in God.

22 Since your souls have been purified by obeying the truth, now you should love each other from your hearts and without hypocrisy. 23 You've been born again, not growing from some physical thing that'll decay, but from indestructible material—God's message that's alive and lives on, 24 because it's written:

'All flesh is like grass,
and the beauty of our bodies like its flower.
The grass will wither and its flower will drop,
25 but Yahweh's message will last till the end of the age.'[3]

And that's the good message that's been preached to you chosen people.

2:1 So then, get rid of all malice and deceit, and hypocrisy and envy, and slandering others. 2 Just like newborn babies long for pure milk so they'll

The vital building-stone and the believers

4 As you chosen people approach the living building-stone (which was rejected by humans yet chosen and honoured by God), 5 you're being built into a temple and joining a holy group of priests to offer up spiritual sacrifices that are acceptable to God through Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah, 6 because it's written in the scriptures:

'Look, I'm placing a building-stone in Tsiyon (Zion),
the vital cornerstone that's chosen and honoured, and anyone who believes in him certainly won't be disgraced.'[5]

7 To all of you who believe, this cornerstone is valuable, but to those who don't believe:

'The building-stone which the builders rejected ended up becoming the vital cornerstone.'[6]

8 and he'll be:

'A stone that people stumble over and a rock that upsets people.'[7]

They stumble because they won't believe in the message—this is what was appointed for them.

9 But you believers are a chosen tribe, a group of royal priests, a holy nation,[8] a people group that God has procured,[9] so that you can tell others about the virtues of the one[10] who called you out of darkness and into his marvellous light.[11] 10 Previously you weren't a people group, but now you're God's people—previously you hadn't been shown mercy, but now you have been.[12]

Battling worldly desires

11 Dear friends, I'm urging you as travellers and foreigners to keep away from the world's temptations, which are in a battle against your soul.
12 Even as you, friends, live among the world's people, maintain your good conduct so that when they slander you by calling you 'evil', at the time of God's judgement they'll have to honour god when they see your good behaviour.
13 Submit yourselves to every human authority, because you obey the master, whether it's to the king who rules, 14 or the governors he sends to punish those who do evil and to praise those who do good. 15 God wants you chosen people to silence the ignorant talk of foolish people by doing good. 16 Live like free people, but don't use that freedom to cover up evil—use it as God's slaves.
17 Honour others and be loving towards your fellow believers. Revere God as well as honouring the king.

Doing good despite suffering

18 You who are house-servants should respectfully obey your masters—not only the good and gentle ones, but also the crooked ones, 19 because God favours those who endure unjust hardships because of their godly consciences. 20 What good would it do if you were enduring being beaten because of doing evil? But if you endure suffering for doing good, then God will be pleased with your behaviour, 21 because that's what we're called to, because the messiah also suffered for you chosen people. He left an example for you, so that you can follow in his steps: 22 he didn't do evil or say anything that wasn't true,[13] 23 when he was insulted he didn't retaliate, when he was persecuted he didn't threaten,[14] but put his trust in the one who'll judge everyone with true justice. 24 He sacrificed his own body on the wooden post for our sins, so that when we die to sin we can live for righteousness. By his wounds, you chosen people were healed.[15] 25 He did all that because you were like lost sheep, but now you've returned to your souls' shepherd and overseer.

Advice to married couples

3:1 Similarly, women should be subject to their husbands,[16] so that if any of them don't believe the message, they'll be won by their wives' behaviour even without hearing the message, 2 because they'll be able to observe their wives' pure behaviour. 3 These women shouldn't focus on outward appearances like elaborate hairstyles, or gold jewellery or expensive clothes,[17] 4 but on the inner person with a gentle and quiet spirit that's indestructible and which God considers precious. 5 That was how holy women in the past adorned themselves—those whose hope was in God, 6 like Sarah, who submitted to Avraham who you've become descendants of. She called him 'master',[18] doing good and without any worries.

7 Similarly, men should live with their wives with understanding, like how you'd handle something more fragile. They should display honour to their fellow recipients of life-giving grace[19] so that their prayers won't be hindered.

Suffering for doing good

8 Finally, everyone should be agreeable and sympathetic to others, kind and caring towards those around you, humble 9 and not repaying evil with evil or insult with insult, but rather be a blessing to others. You were called to do that so that you chosen people can receive a blessing, 10 because it's written:

'The person wanting to enjoy life and see good days, let their tongue cease from evil,
and their lips not speak deceit.
11 Let them turn away from evil and do good,
let them look for peace and chase after it, 12 because Yahweh looks kindly on the righteous, and his ears listen to their petition, but Yahweh turns his face away from those who do evil.'[20]

13 Who's going to mistreat you if you chosen people start actively doing good? 14 But even if some of you do suffer because of your godliness, you will be blessed.[21] Don't be scared or disturbed because of your fear of them, 15 but revere the messiah as the master of your hearts. Always be ready to explain the hope that you chosen people have if anyone asks, 16 but do it with gentleness and respect, keeping a clear conscience, so that if you're falsely accused of doing evil, then the ones who'll be disgraced will be the ones who mistreat you chosen people, because of the good way you live because of the message. 17 After all, it's better to do good, and then, if God intends it, to suffer, than to do evil, 18 because the messiah also died once for sin, that is, the sinless one died for sinful people, so that he can bring you chosen people past death onward to God. Although he experienced physical death, he'd been given life in the spirit, 19 and with that life he also went to the spirits in prison and preached to them— 20 those who'd refused to believe. God had waited patiently in Noah's time when the barge was being built, yet only a few were saved. Eight of them were brought safely through the waters,[22] 21 which also represents how being immersed saved you chosen people. It doesn't remove the filth from your bodies, but cleans the conscience as you make a pledge to God based on the coming back to life of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah, 22 who went to heaven and sat at God's right, with God's messengers and authorities and powers all under his authority.

Leaving worldly desires behind

4:1 Since the messiah suffered physically, you chosen people should also cultivate the same intention, because anyone who suffers physically stops sinning 2 so that they can live their remaining physical lives obeying God's intentions instead of this world's lusts, 3 because enough time has been spent listening to this world's advice and pursuing

7 The end of everything is getting close, so make good decisions and be serious in prayer, 8 and more than anything, display genuine love to each other, because love triumphs over many sins.[23] 9 Show hospitality to each other without grumbling. 10 Whatever gift each person has received, they should use it to serve the others as good managers of the various forms of grace God's given us. 11 Anyone who shares wisdom that came from God or uses the strength that God's given them to serve others needs to be honouring God through Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. The suffering of believers

12 Dear friends, don't be surprised about the fiery trials that you'll have to face as a test, as though it's something unusual that's happening to you, 13 but rather, as you, friends, share in the messiah's sufferings, stay positive so that you'll be happy, just as you're glad to see his honour revealed. 14 You, friends, will be blessed if you're derided in the messiah's name, because God's spirit rests on you—the spirit that honours him. 15 None of you should suffer persecution because you're a murderer or a thief or a troublemaker or nosey-parker, 16 but if you suffer for being one of the messiah's people, then there's no need to feel ashamed, but instead praise God in that name.

17 It's time for the judgement to begin—and to begin with God's people—and if we're judged first, what will the outcome be for those who refuse to

Advice to believers

5:1 Because of that, I'm encouraging your elders, as a fellow elder, and a witness of the messiah's sufferings, and also a partner in the GLORY that's going to be revealed:
2 Carefully shepherd God's people that you care for,[25] not out of compulsion, but willingly, listening to God, not greedily, but enthusiastically, 3 not exercising dominance over them, but being examples for them. 4 Then when the chief shepherd returns, you elders will receive the unfading crown of honour.
5 Similarly, you younger ones, take your elders' advice, and all of you, show humility to each other, because 'God opposes those who are proud, but displays grace to those who are humble.'[26] 6 So humble yourselves under God's mighty hand so that he might honour you at the right time.[27]
7 Give all your concerns to him because he cares about you all.
8 Stay alert and keep watch. Your opponent, the devil, walks around like a roaring lion, wanting to swallow up you chosen people, 9 but you should remain firmly in the faith and resist him, knowing that fellow believers all around the world experiencing similar suffering are doing the same.
10 Then God, the source of all grace, and the one who called you to his eternal GLORY in the messiah, will prepare you chosen people as you suffer a little, and will then strengthen you as you're established. 11 May his authority be powerful throughout all time. May it be so.

The first letter from Shim'on 'the Rock' (Peter)

Introduction

The second letter from Shim'on 'the rock Kefa' was sent to believers in various towns of Asia Minor (also called Anatolia, now part of modern Turkey) (1 Peter 1:1, 2 Peter 3:1). His purpose of writing this was to contradict the work of false teachers, and to scold the people for their bad behaviour as a result of following that teaching. Therefore he encouraged them to not believe that teaching because they should only believe the teaching concerning the messiah. They also need to be adding the following to their faith: good behaviour, wisdom/knowledge, self-control, patience, obeying God, and loving others.

Those people taught that the messiah would not return since it had already been quite a while and he hadn't yet returned. But Shim'on answered by saying that the messiah would certainly return, but God doesn't want to punish everyone, but desires that people would turn away from their sins.

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Shim'on (Simon) Kefa (Peter; Grk. Petros) , a slave and messenger of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah (Grk. Christos), writing to those who have faith in the sinlessness of our God and saviour Yeshua Messiah that's just as precious as our faith.

2 May you experience much grace and peace through your knowledge of God and Yeshua our master.

God's calling

3 He has given us everything necessary for life and godliness through his divine power as we know the one who called us to his own glory and moral excellence. 4 Through these things, he has given us precious and very great promises that you will become participants of the divine nature after escaping the corruption in the world of lust. 5 For this same reason, work hard to apply your faith adding moral excellence, and to that excellence add knowledge; 6 to that knowledge add self-control; to that self-control add endurance; to that endurance add godliness; 7 to that godliness add brotherly concern; and to the brotherly concern add selfless love. 8 Because if these things are part of you and continually increasing, your knowledge of our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah won't become useless or unproductive. 9 But if these things aren't part of someone, that person is shortsighted as if they've forgotten that prior cleansing of their sins.

10 So then fellow Christians, work hard to make your calling and election certain—that way you will never fall away— 11 and so you will be richly provided entry into the eternal kingdom of our master and saviour Yeshua Messiah.

12 Therefore I intend to always remind you about these things, even though you know them and are already established in the truth that you know. 13 But I consider it right, as long as I live in this tent, to get you stirred up with a reminder, 14 since I know that this tent of mine will soon be left behind as our master Yeshua Messiah himself told me. 15 And I will also make every effort to make sure that you will always remember these things after my departure.

16 We didn't follow cleverly crafted fables, but rather having been eyewitnesses of the majesty of our master Yeshua Messiah, we made his power and forthcoming return known to you. 17 Because he received the honour and glory from God the Father when a voice spoke to him with magnificent glory saying, "This is my son that I dearly love and who has pleased me greatly."[1] 18 Indeed we heard this voice from heaven ourselves as we had been taken with him to the holy mountain.

19 In addition there are the words of the prophets that were fulfilled which you would do well to pay attention to—like a light that shines in the dark places—until the day dawns and the one who is the morning star rises in your hearts. 20 And know this foundational truth: all of the prophecy in Scripture doesn't just come from our own interpretations 21 or from the ideas of man, but from God speaking via men being guided by the Holy Spirit.

2:1 But just like there were False teachers also false prophets among the people, so also there will be false teachers among you who will sneakily bring in destructive heresies—even denying the master who bought them, and thus bringing swift destruction onto themselves. 2 Many people will follow their gross immorality causing evil to be spoken of about the true way. 3 They will exploit you with greed and made-up words but the judgement of old won't be idle and their destroyer won't be sleeping.

4 Because if God didn't spare the messengers when they sinned, but chained them in darkness and kept them to be delivered to judgement in due course,[2] 5 and if he didn't spare the ancient world but only preserved the eight including Noah the proclaimer of righteousness when the flood came thousand years with the master, and a thousand years is like one day.[11] 9 The master isn't slow in fulfilling his promise as some consider slowness, but is patient toward you—not wanting anyone to perish but rather wanting everyone to come to repentance.

10 But the day of the master will come like a thief,[12] when the universe will suddenly pass away, its components will burn up and be destroyed, and the earth and what happened on it will be examined. 11 Since all these things will be destroyed, what kind of people should you be? Holy and godly in conduct, 12 waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God when the universe will be set alight and destroyed and its components will melt as they burn up. 13 But we await a new universe and a new earth filled with righteousness according to his promise.[13]

14 And so dear friends, while you await these events be eager and found to be at peace with him—spotless and blameless. 15 And consider the patience of our master as leading to salvation as our dear brother Paulos wrote to you using the wisdom that has been given to him. 16 He speaks in all his letters concerning these things, some of which are hard to understand and which ignorant and unstable people twist just like they twist the other scriptures to their own destruction.

17 So knowing this in advance dear friends, guard yourselves in case you fall from your own stable position with the same errors as the lawless ones. 18 Rather grow in the grace and knowledge of our master and saviour Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Paulos's second letter to

Introduction

This is the second letter of Paulos that we have that's written to Timotheos. He wrote it from Romai when he was imprisoned there as a result of his preaching about Yeshua the messiah. Timotheos was still teaching the believers in Efesos, so here Paulos requests him to come to see him before he gets sentenced to death.
In this letter, Paulos advised Timotheos to be strong so that he can persevere in his preaching and doing God's work even in the middle of suffering and when others oppose him. He also warns Timotheos about the coming evil of teachers of false doctrines because these can destroy the faith of the listeners.
Most of all, Paulos reminds Timotheos about his life so that Paulos's faith and endurance would be an example for Timotheos to follow: his humility, his love, and his enduring suffering from those who persecuted him.

3 I_am_having thankfulness to_ ~~the~~ _god, unto_ _whom I_am_serving from my_parents with a_ _pure conscience, as I_am_having the unceasing mentioning for you in the petitions of_me, night and day, 4 longing to_see you, having_ _remembered of_the tears of_you, in_order_that I_may_be_filled with_joy, 5 having_taken remembrance of_the unhypocritical faith in you, which dwelt first in the grandmother of_you, Lōis, and in_the mother of_you, Eunikaʸ, and I_ _have_been_persuaded that also in you it_is. 6 For/Because that cause I_am_reminding you to_ _be_rekindling the gift of_ ~~the~~ _god, which is in you by the laying_on of_the hands of_me. 7 For/Because ~~the~~ god not gave to_us a_spirit of_ _fear, but of_power, and of_love, and of_ _sensibility. 8 Therefore may_ not _be_ashamed the testimony of_the master of_us, nor me, the prisoner of_him, but suffer_together for_the good_message, according_to the_power of_god, 9 the one having_saved us, and having_called with_a_calling holy, not according_to the works of_us, but according_to his_own purpose and grace, ~~which~~ having_been_given to_us in chosen_ _one/messiah Yaʸsous/(Yəhōshūʻa) before eternal times, 10 but having_been_revealed now, by the appearing of_the saviour of_us, chosen_ _one/messiah Yaʸsous, having_nullified on_one_ _hand ~~the~~ death, on_the_other_hand having_ _illuminated life and indestructibility through the good_message, 11 to which I was_appointed a_proclaimer, and an_ambassador, and a_teacher. 12 For/Because that cause I_am_ also _suffering these things, but I_am_ not _being_ashamed, because/for I_have_known in_whom I_have_ _believed, and I_have_been_persuaded that he_is powerful to_guard the deposit of_me for that ~~the~~ day. 13 Be_having the_pattern of_being_sound messages, which you_heard from me, in faith and

1:1 This letter is from Paulos, a missionary of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah according to God's will and with the promise of life in Yeshua the messiah. 2 It's written to my dear child, Timotheos.[1] May you experience grace, mercy, and peace from God the father and our master Yeshua the messiah.

Advice and encouragement

3 I've been serving God with a clean conscience since my childhood and I'm thankful to him that night and day I haven't stopped praying for you— 4 remembering your tears and longing to see you again, which will fill me with happiness. 5 I recall your faith without hypocrisy, which I first noticed in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunike,[2] and which I'm sure is also in you. 6 So that's why I'm reminding you to rekindle God's gift which you received when I placed my hands on you and prayed for you, 7 because God didn't give us a fearful spirit, but gave us power, love, and wisdom.

8 So because of that, don't be ashamed of our master's testimony, and nor of mine, even though I'm a prisoner for him, but let the two of us suffer together for the sake of the good message with the help of God's power. 9 It's God that saved us and called us to live a godly life. His selection of us had nothing to do with anything good we might have done, but rather he has his own purposes and had given us grace via Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah even before time began. 10 That grace has been revealed now that our saviour Yeshua the messiah appeared and obliterated death, while at the same time illuminating life and immortality through the good message 11 that I was appointed to proclaim, as well as being a missionary and teacher.[3]

12 It's for that cause that I'm suffering here in prison, but I'm not ashamed, because I know who it is that I trust, and I'm convinced that he's powerful enough to guard my deposit of hope in him until the end of this age. 13 The style of sound messages that you heard from me, you need to retain in faith in Yeshua the messiah, and with your love for him. 14 Keep that good deposit with the help of the holy spirit who lives in us.

15 You've already heard that those in Asia Minor all turned their backs on me, including Fugelos and Hermogenes. 16 May the master show mercy to Onesiforos and his family, because he often cheered me up and he wasn't ashamed of my chains. 17 When he came to Romai he actively searched for me and found me. 18 May the master help him find mercy from Yahweh on the judgement day, but anyway, you well know how much Onesiforos helped us in Efesos.

Yeshua's followers obey and endure

2:1 So my 'son', may the grace from Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah make you strong 2 along with everything you heard from me through many witnesses. Entrust those things to faithful people who will also be capable of teaching others.

3 Suffer together with me as a good soldier of Yeshua the messiah. 4 Soldiers stay unentangled from the affairs of daily living so that they will be dedicated to pleasing their commanding officer. 5 Similarly the athlete won't win the competition if they don't follow the rules. 6 It's fair for the farmer working in the orchard to be allowed to eat the fruit. 7 You should easily understand what I'm saying, because the master will be giving you insight into everything.

8 Always remember the promised descendant of King David, Yeshua the messiah who came back from the dead, which is what I preach 9 and why I'm here in chains suffering hardship as a criminal. But God's message hasn't been chained. 10 So I will endure everything so that the ones that God has chosen will also be able to receive their salvation in Yeshua the messiah and live with him forever. 11 There's a reliable saying that goes,

If we died along with him,
we will live together with him.
12 If we endure with him,
we will be able to reign with him.
If we disown him,

love ~~which~~ in chosen_one/messiah Yaʸsous.
14 Keep the good deposit, by the_ holy _spirit ~~which~~ dwelling in us. 15 You_have_known this, that all who are in ~~the~~ Asia were_turned_away from_me, of_whom is Fugelos and Hermogenaʸs.
16 The master might_give mercy to_the household of_Onaʸsiforos, because he_ often _ _refreshed me, and was_ not _ashamed the chain of_me, 17 but having_become in Ῥōmaʸ, he_ earnestly _sought me and found 18 (the master might_give to_him to_find mercy from the_ _master in that ~~the~~ day), and as_much_as he_ _served in Efesos, you are_knowing better.

But the message of_ ~~the~~ _god has_ not _ _‹been›_bound. 10 Because_of this, I_am_enduring all things because_of the chosen ones, in_order_ _that they also may_obtain of_salvation ~~which~~ in chosen_one/messiah Yaʸsous/(Yəhōshūʿa) with eternal glory. 11 The saying is trustworthy: For/Because if we_died_together with_him, we_ _‹will›_ also _be_living_together with_him, 12 if we_are_enduring, we_‹will›_ also _be_reigning_ _with him, if we_will_be_disowning him, also_ _that one will_be_disowning us, 13 if we_are_ _disbelieving, that one is_remaining faithful, because/for he_is_ not _able to_disown himself.

14 Be_reminding them these things, testifying before ~~the~~ god, to_ not _be_quibbling_about_ _messages against nothing useful, to the_ruin of_ _the ones hearing.

15 Be_earnest to_present yourself approved to_ ~~the~~ _god, a_worker unashamed, cutting_straight the message of_ ~~the~~ _truth. 16 And be_avoiding ~~the~~ profane empty_babblings, because/for they_will_ _be_progressing on more of_ungodliness, 17 and the message of_them will_be_having spreading as gangrene, of_whom is Humenaios, and Filaʸtos, 18 who deviated concerning the truth, saying the the_resurrection already to_have_become, and are_overturning the faith of_some. 19 However the solid foundation of_ ~~the~~ _god has_stood, having ~~the~~ this seal: The_master knew the ones being of_him, and, let_ everyone - naming the name of_the_master _Withdraw from unrighteousness. 20 And in a_great house, there_ _is not only golden and silver vessels, but also wooden and earthen, and some on_one_hand for honour, on_the_other_hand some to dishonour. 21 Therefore if anyone may_clean_out himself from these things, he_will_be a_vessel for honour, having_been_sanctified, useful to_the master, because/for every work good having_been_ _prepared. 22 And be_fleeing ~~the~~ youthful lusts, but be_pursuing righteousness, faith, love, peace, with the ones calling_on the master out_of a_ pure _heart. 23 And be_refusing ~~the~~ foolish and uneducated debates, having_known that they_ _are_bearing quarrels. 24 And it_is_ not _fitting the_slave of_the_master to_be_quarrelling, but to_be gentle toward all, teaching, bearing_evil, 25 in gentleness disciplining the ones opposing, perhaps ~~the~~ god might_give to_them repentance to a_knowledge of_the_truth, 26 and they_may_ _recover_sobriety out_of the snare of_the devil, having_been_caught by him, in_order that the_ _will of_that one.

he will also disown us.[4] 13 If we refuse to believe him, he will remain faithful to us, because he isn't able to go against his nature.
14 Keep reminding them of all that. Tell them in front of God not to quibble[5] about the intricacies of words, as it's not helpful and can lead the listeners to ruin.

Being God's honourable slave

15 Work hard so that God will see you as someone he approves of—not ashamed of the good message but straight-talking the truth. 16 Avoid chatter about unimportant or crude topics because it will eventually led to godlessness. 17 Those kinds of talk are like rot that spreads, as happened when Humenaios and Filetos 18 deviated from the truth by claiming that the resurrection has already happened and have drawn some away from the faith. 19 However God's solid foundation has stood with this inscription on it: 'Yahweh knew his own ones,'[6] and 'Let everyone who claims to follow Yahweh avoid disobedience.'

20 An expensive home doesn't just have gold and silver bowls, but there are wooden and pottery bowls as well. Some will contain valuable things, but others contain dishonourable things that we prefer not to display. 21 So those people who rid themselves of dishonourable thoughts and actions will become a container for honourable things, being reserved to do the special work that the master has prepared for them. 22 And run far from youthful lusts—chase instead after obedience, faith, love, and peace like all the others who follow the master with a pure heart. 23 Refuse to enter foolish and uneducated debates, because they'll just end in an argument. 24 It's not fitting for one of Yahweh's slaves to be argumentative, but rather to be polite to everyone and to be teaching the truth, yet be tolerant of other people's bad behaviour. 25 We should politely point out the wrongs of those opposing us and perhaps God might bring them to repentance and the knowledge of the truth. 26 After being caught in the devil's trap just as he wanted, maybe they'll escape and come to their senses.

Loss of standards in the end times

3:1 It's important to know that dangerous times will be coming in the last days of this era. 2 People will become selfish, greedy for money, braggers, proud, slanderous, refusing to listen to sense from their parents, ungrateful, ungodly, 3 unloving, unwilling to reconcile, diabolical, angry, wild, and without morals. 4 They will be betrayers, reckless and conceited, loving pleasure instead of loving God, 5 appearing to be godly on the surface yet denying that God is real, and turning from the truth. 6 Some of these will quietly enter houses and captivate gullible women. Despite being known for their sins, they're led by various lusts— 7 always 'learning' yet never actually confronting the reality of the truth. 8 This is just like how Yannes and Yambres opposed Mosheh (Moses),[7] and similarly these people, having depraved minds and who are unqualified concerning the faith, oppose the truth. 9 But they won't be advancing in the faith because their foolishness will eventually become evident to everyone, just as happened with Yannes and Yambres.

Living your faith even at a cost

10 However Timotheos, you followed me in your teaching, your conduct, your purpose and your faith, in patience, love, endurance, 11 and even through persecution and suffering like I endured in Antiokeia,[8] Ikonion,[9] and Lustra[10]—yet the master rescued me in each case. 12 Anyway, everyone who wants to seriously follow Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah should expect to be persecuted.

13 Meanwhile evil people and scammers will get worse and worse—deceiving others and then being deceived themselves. 14 Hold on to the things that you learnt and were convinced are true, because you know you can trust those who taught them to you. 15 You've known the sacred scriptures since you were a young child, and the wisdom contained in them is able to lead you to salvation through faith in Yeshua the messiah. 16 All scripture is inspired by God and useful for teaching, for scolding and correction, and for teaching discipline and obedience 17 so that the person following God can be trained in doing every kind of good deed.

4:1-2 I am proclaiming these truths before God and before Yeshua the messiah who will judge both the living and the dead. Proclaim his appearance on earth[11] and his kingdom, stand by the message whether it's convenient or seems out of place, rebuke and scold those who need it, but also encourage with complete patience and teaching. 3 A time will come when people will no longer be tolerating scriptural teaching, but will prefer their own doctrines, so they'll find teachers to teach what they want to hear, 4 so not only will they avoid hearing the truth, they'll be following myths instead. 5 However Timotheos, you stay sensible about everything, endure hardship, tell people the good message, and do all your duties well.

6 As for me, I've already done all I can, and the time of my departure is approaching. 7 I've fought the fight for goodness. I've finished the race. I've kept the faith. 8 I know that a crown has been reserved for me due to my obedience, and the master serving as the impartial judge will award it to me, and not just to me, but will also award them to others who appreciated his coming.[12]

Final bits and pieces

9 Try to come to me as soon as possible, 10 because Demas[13] was attracted back to worldly things, and so he left me and went to Thessalonikai. Kreskes has gone to Galatia, and Titos[14] went to Dalmatia. 11 Only Lukas (Luke)[15]

The letter to the Ivrim

Introduction

It's not known who wrote this letter, but it was sent to a group of Jewish believers. It was written so that their faith would be strengthened because they were in danger of losing their faith due to their sufferings. So then, the writer encouraged them concerning their faith and taught them that Yeshua is the true messiah and God's final revelation.
These three truth were carefully taught: (1) Yeshua/Jesus who had no beginning and has no ending is God's son and he's greater than any or all of the prophets, or messengers, or even Mosheh/Moses. (2) Yeshua has been revealed by God as the final priest, greater than any priest in the Hebrew scriptures. (3) By means of Yeshua, those who believe in him can be saved from sin and death.
The faith of famous Ivrim from long ago is written about in chapter 11. So then, the writer encourages the believers to strengthen of their faith. And in chapter 12, he encourages them again to continue their walk until the end when we all see Yeshua. They need to continue despite any persecution and discouragements that come to them. But it's necessary to know that God disciplines them all as his own children. He finishes this letter with his advice and his warning.

The son represents God's splendour

1:1 Long ago, God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets in many different circumstances and in many different ways, 2 but in these last days he spoke to us through his son who he appointed to inherit everything. It was also through him that he made the different eras— 3 through the son who radiates the father's splendour and represents his reality. The son bears everything by the message of his power, and after having made a way to be purified from our sins, he sat down in heaven next to God in the seat of the second-in-command.

The son is greater than the angels

4 By having become so much better than God's messengers, he inherited a greater reputation than them, 5 because which of the messengers was told even once by God:

'You are my son;
I gave birth to you today.'[1]

And again:

'I will be a father to him,
And he will be a son to me.'[2]

6 Then when God again brings his firstborn son into the world he said:

'Let all of God's messengers bow down to him.'[3]

7 On one hand he said to his messengers:

'The one making his messengers winds, and making his ministers a fiery flame.'[4]

8 And on the other hand to his son he said:

'God, your throne will last to the end of the ages;
The ruler of his kingdom is a ruler of justice.
9 You loved righteousness and hated lawlessness, because of this, God, your god, honoured you with gladness beyond what your companions received.'[5]

10 He also said to his son:

'Yahweh, at the beginning you established the earth, and you made the heavens with your hands.

11 They will perish but you will continue;
They will wear out like clothes do.
12 You will roll them up like a discarded dressing gown;
they'll be changed like we change our clothes.
But you remain the same,
and you won't get old and fragile.'[6] 13 To which of his messengers did God say even once:
'Sit in the seat of honour on my right, until I can defeat your enemies and use them as a stool for my feet'?[7] 14 See, those messengers are just ministering spirits sent out to serve those people who will inherit salvation.

The truth about salvation

2:1 Because of that, it's much more appropriate for us to listen carefully to the message so we don't drift away. 2 Because if the message that was brought by the messengers is confirmed and so every transgression and act of disobedience received the appropriate penalty, 3 how will we escape punishment if we neglect such a great offer of salvation. This salvation was first heard when spoken about by the master and then others who heard confirmed it to us 4 and God testified it by means of sign and wonders and various miracles and by gifts of the holy spirit whenever he wanted.

Salvation through Yeshua

5 It's not his messengers that God put in charge of the future world that we're talking about, 6 but someone testified somewhere saying:
'What is humankind that you think about him, or humanity's son that you notice him?
7 You made him a little less than your messengers.
You crowned him with splendour and honour.
8 You put everything under his authority.'[8]
By putting everything under his authority, nothing is left that he doesn't control, although right now we don't see everything being under his authority yet. 9 But although he was made a little lower than God's messengers, we see Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) have suffered death, now crowned with splendour and honour, so that by God's grace, he experienced death for everyone. 10 It was appropriate for him, the one who everything was made for and who made everything, having brought many children to be with God and being the originator of their salvation, to become perfect through what he suffered.

11 Both the person who is making people holy and the ones being made holy are part of one family because he's not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters 12 saying:

'I will announce your name to my brothers,
I will sing praise songs to you from the middle of the assembly.'[9]

13 And also:

'I will trust myself to him.'[10]

And:

'Look, it's me with the little children that God gave me.'[11]

14 So because the 'little children' are all made of flesh and blood, he also became a man to be just like them, so that through his death, he could nullify the power of death (which comes from the devil) 15 and set free all those who in a lifetime 'slavery' controlled by the fear of death. 16 You can be certain that it's not God's messengers that he's helped, but rather Avraham's descendants.[12] 17 That's why he had to be just like his brothers and sisters, so that he could become the merciful and faithful chief priest representing God, in order to pay the price for the people's sins. 18 Because he also suffered when he was tempted to sin, he's able to help others who are tempted.

Yeshua is greater than Mosheh appointed him, just as Mosheh (Moses) was faithful in God's house.[13] 3 Yeshua was considered worthy of more honour than Mosheh, just like the builder of a house is honoured more than the house itself, 4 because every house is made by someone, but the one who made everything is God. 5 On one hand, Mosheh was faithful in all of his house, thus serving as a testimony for what was yet to be told, 6 and on the other hand, Messiah was the son over his house, which is us if we retain our confidence and the expectation of our hope.

Warning against unbelief

7 Therefore the holy spirit says:

'Today if you hear his voice,
8 don't harden your hearts as you did in the rebellion, in the time of testing in the wilderness 9 where your ancestors tested me through trials, although they saw my actions 10 over forty years.
That's why I was angry with that generation and I said:
'They're always straying in their hearts and they don't really know my ways.'
11 As I decided in my severe anger:
'They will never be entering into my peace.'[14]

12 Brothers and sisters, watch out in case any of you has an evil heart with unbelief which leads you to withdraw from the living God. 13 Instead urge yourselves on throughout each day (while it's still called 'today') so that some of you won't become hardened by the sin's seduction 14 because we are now partakers of the messiah if we can retain until the end the assurance that we had at the beginning. 15 As it's been said:

'Today if you all hear his voice, don't harden your hearts as you did when you rebelled.'[15]

srayim (Egypt)? 17 Who was he angry with for forty years? Wasn't it the people who disobeyed God and who died there in the wilderness? 18 And who did God promise that they wouldn't enter his rest, if it wasn't the people who disbelieved? 19 So we can now see that they weren't able to enter the promised land because of their unbelief.

Entering God's rest/peace

4:1 That's why we might be afraid: because although we had a promise to enter his rest, some of you might fail to achieve it, 2 because we've already had the good message preached to us just like them, but the message they heard didn't benefit them because they weren't united in faith with the others who listened. 3 So those of us who believed are entering that rest, as he said:

'As I promised in my severe anger,
They will never enter into my rest.'[17]

And yet he's had it ready since the creation of the world. 4 Because somewhere he's spoken about the seventh day saying:

'And on the seventh day God rested from all his works.'[18]

5 And also:

'They will never enter my rest.'[19]

6 Therefore because it's being retained for some people to still come into it, and those who previously had the good message preached to them didn't come in because of their disbelief, 7 God designated a certain day saying:

'Today if you all hear his voice,
Don't harden your hearts.'[20]

8 Because if Yehoshua (Joshua) had given them rest,[21] God wouldn't be speaking afterwards about another day. 9 So then, a time of rest is being retained for God's people, 10 because anyone having come into their rest, also rests from their works, just as God rested from his own works.[22] 11 Therefore we should be earnest about entering that rest, in case someone else falls by following our example of disbelief, 12 because God's message is living and active and sharper than any high-quality sword, even penetrating to divide the soul and spirit—like separating the bone from sinews—and able to judge a person's inner thoughts and intentions. 13 There isn't anything in all of creation that's hidden from him, but everything is naked and exposed to his sight as he's the one we have to give an account to.

Yeshua is our high priest

14 So then, having Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the son of God who came from and returned to the heavens as our high priest, we need to hold firmly to what we say we believe, 15 because we don't have a high priest who's not able to sympathise with our weakness, but rather who's been tempted just like we are, yet he didn't sin. 16 Therefore we can boldly approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and find grace to help us when we need it.

5:1 Every high priest is just a person who was selected from the people to work with godly things both by offering gifts to God and sacrificing because of our sins. 2 He's able to be patient with those who don't understand and stray from the truth because he also is subject to weakness 3 and because of that, he has to make offerings for his own sins as well as for the people.[23]

4 No one takes that honour onto themself, but they're called by God like just Aharon (Aaron) was.[24] 5 Similarly the messiah didn't take the honour of being chief priest onto himself, but the one who spoke to him said:

'You're my son;
today I have given birth to you.'[25]

6 And in another place he said:

'You are a priest of the order of Malki-Tsedek (Melchizedek).'[26]

7 During the time when Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) lived in a human body, he offered up prayers and petitions with a mighty clamour and 14 Therefore having a_chief_priest great, having_ _passed_through the heavens, Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʻa), the son of_ ~~the~~ _god, we_ _may_be_taking_hold of_our confession. 15 For/Because not we_are_having a_chief_priest not being_able to_sympathize with_the weaknesses of_us, but having_been_tempted in all things by likeness without sin. 16 Therefore we_may_be_approaching with boldness to_the throne of_ ~~the~~ _grace, in_order_that we_may_ _receive mercy, and grace we_may_find, because/for opportune help.

5:1 For/Because every chief_priest from people being_taken for people is_being_appointed in_the things for ~~the~~ god, in_order_that he_may_be_ _offering gifts both and sacrifices for sins, 2 to_ _be_forbearing being_able with_the ones not_ _knowing and being_strayed, because also he is_ _being_encompassed with_weakness, 3 and because_of it he_ought, as for the people thus also for himself, to_be_offering for sins. 4 And not on_himself anyone is_taking the honour, but being_called by ~~the~~ god, just_as also A'arōn/('Ah$_{a}$ron). 5 Thus also the chosen_ _one/messiah not himself glorified to_be_ _become a_chief_priest, but the one having_ _spoken to him: son of_me are you, I today have_ _bore you. 6 As also in another he_is_saying: You are a_priest to the age according_to the order of_ _Melḳisedek/(Malkī-ṣedeq). 7 Who in the days of_the flesh of_him, petitions both and supplications, to the one being_able to_be_saving him from death, with clamour mighty and tears having_offered, and having_been_listened_to from ~~the~~ reverence. 8 Although being a_son, he_

Becoming mature believers

11 We have a lot to say about that, but it's hard to explain because you've all become lazy at listening. 12 Yes, because you all ought to be teachers by now, yet you still need to have someone teaching you the basics of God's ways and you've become like those who need milk instead of solid food.[28] 13 Everyone who drinks milk doesn't really understand the message about righteousness, because they're still infants, 14 but mature people have solid food meaning that their senses have been trained and they can distinguish good from evil.

6:1 So then, having left the basics of the messiah's message, we should move on towards maturity—not repeating the foundations of repenting from useless religious actions and faith in God, 2 of teachings about immersion in water and prayerfully placing your hands on people, and the resurrection of the dead followed by eternal judgement. 3 And we'll be moving on from all that if God permits.

4 It's impossible for those who've understood this and who've tasted the heavenly gift and become partakers of the holy spirit 5 and who've tasted God's message and the powers of the coming age 6 and who've fallen away, to be brought back to repentance. It's like they themselves are executing God's son again and publicly shaming him.

7 The land that soaks in the frequent rains and grows crops suitable for those who are cultivating it, is receiving a blessing from God, 8 but if it's producing thorns and thistles,[29] then it's useless and a liability and will end up being burnt off.

9 But dear friends, even though we speak like this, we've been convinced to expect better things from you—things that accompany salvation. 10 Yes, God isn't unjust such that he'd forget about your work and the love that you all displayed towards him, having ministered to other believers as you still do. 11 And our desire is for each of you to be displaying the same earnestness and the full assurance of hope until the end 12 so that you all won't become sluggish, but become imitators of those who through their faith and patience will be inheriting what God has promised.

God's certain promise and oath

13 When God made promises to Avraham, because he didn't have anyone more powerful to take an oath in front of, he did it in his own name 14 saying: 'I will certainly bless you and will cause you to have many descendants.'[30] 15 And then after being patient, Avraham received what was promised. 16 Yes, people make oaths in front of someone more powerful and then there's no controversy, because the oath is the confirmation. 17 In order for God to make the unchanging nature of his purpose very clear to the heirs of what was promised, he guaranteed it with an oath 18 so that by two things that God can't even change (his promise and his oath), we who have fled to him for refuge can have great confidence as we hold to the hope that lies before us. 19 That hope is an anchor for our souls, being both certain and confirmed, and it will bring us inside the temple curtain[31] 20 where Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) went ahead of us according to the order of Malki-Tsedek (Melchizedek)—becoming the high priest for this age.[32]

The special priest Malki-Tsedek

7:1 This Malki-Tsedek (Melchizedek) was the king of the city of Shalem and a priest of God, the highest one. He met Avraham who was returning from slaughtering several kings and Malki-Tsedek blessed him,[33] 2 and Avraham gave him a tenth of all the captured goods. The name Malki-Tsedek means 'king of righteousness' and then king of Shalem also means 'king of peace'. 3 There's no record of his father or mother, no genealogical background, and no record of his being born or dying, but he's likened to God's son in that he continually remains as a priest.

4 Notice how great this Malki-Tsedek was, because the patriarch Avraham gave him a tenth of the best of the captured goods. 5 On one hand, the tithing command from Mosheh's (Moses') law makes the people give a tenth to Levi's descendants who inherit the priestly office, even though they're their brothers as fellow descendants of Avraham.[34] 6 On the other hand, Avraham tithed to Malki-Tsedek who can't be traced as one of them, and he blessed Avraham who had received God's promises. 7 There's no doubt that it's the lessor person that gets blessed by someone greater. 8 So in the first case, the tenth is received by people who die, but in the second case by someone who it's only testified that he lives. 9 You could even say that even Levi (whose descendants receive the tenths) gave a tenth to Malki-Tsedek through Avraham 10 because Levi's sperm was still part of his father's body when Malki-Tsedek met Avraham.

Yeshua, the priest like Malki-Tsedek

11 Indeed if perfection came from the priesthood from Levi's tribe which was legislated to help the people, why would there have still been a need for another to rise up as a priest in the order of Malki-Tsedek (Melchizedek) and not just from the order of Aharon (Aaron)? 12 Because if the priesthood is changed, then that law would also need to be changed. 13 The one that we're talking about here is from another tribe, and no one from that tribe has ever served as a priest at the altar.

14 So it's quite evident that our master came from Yehudah's (Judah's) tribe but Mosheh (Moses) never mentioned priests coming from that tribe, 15 and it's even more clear if another priest like Malki-Tsedek rose up 16 who didn't live by the physical law (of death) but according to the power of indestructible life! 17 Because it's been testified:

'You are priest to this age, according to the order of Malki-Tsedek.'[35] 18 In the first case, the command is annulled because it's weak and unprofitable 19 (because the law made nothing perfect), and in the second case we have the introduction of a better hope by means of which we can approach God.
20 And it wasn't done without an oath, because although men become priests without an oath, 21 but Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) became a priest by an oath from the one that said:
'Yahweh made an oath and won't rescind it.
You are priest for this age.'[36]
22 Because of that oath, Yeshua became the guarantor of a better agreement.
23 in the first case, there have been many of those priests because death doesn't allow them to continue on, 24 but in the second case, because Yeshua stays alive for all the age, he can hold the office of priest permanently 25 and thus he's able to save those who approach God through him—save them to the full extent because he always lives to intercede of their behalf.
26 Such a high priest exactly meets our needs:
one who is godly, innocent, pure, set apart from sinners, and honoured above the heavens. 27 Unlike the other high priests, it's not necessary for him to first make a sacrifice for his own sins before doing it for the sins of the people,[37] because he offered himself—once for everyone. 28 The law appoints those with weaknesses as high priests, but the message from the oath which followed after the law, appointed the son who has been perfected for the age.

oured seat beside the majesty's throne in the heavens[38] 2 and ministers in the holy places and in the true tent of worship which Yahweh set up, not people. 3 Every high priest is appointed to be offering both gifts and sacrifices, and so it's necessary for this one to also have something to offer. 4 If he was here on earth, he wouldn't even be a priest because there are others offering gifts according to Mosheh's (Moses') law. 5 They serve a copy or shadow of the heavenly realms just as Mosheh was warned when he was about to start making the tent of worship:

'Make everything according to the pattern that I showed you on the mountain.'[39]

6 But on the contrary, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) has obtained a more special ministry because he's the mediator of a better agreement which has been legislated with better promises.

7 If the first agreement had been faultless, then there wouldn't have been any need to find a second one to replace it, 8 but God blamed the people and said:

"Listen, Yahweh declares that the time is coming when I will make a new agreement with Yisrael (Israel) and Yehudah (Judah),

9 not like the agreement that I made with their ancestors when they held my hand for me to lead them out of Mitsrayim (Egypt), because they didn't stay inside my agreement and so I didn't take any notice of them, says Yahweh.'

10 So this is the agreement that I make with Yisrael after those times, says Yahweh, putting my laws into their minds and writing them onto their hearts, and I will be their God and they will be my people.

11 Then they certainly won't teach each citizen and their neighbours, saying 'Know Yahweh,' because all of them from the smallest to the greatest will all know me.

13 In calling that 'new', he's made the first agreement out-of-date, and what's out-of-date and getting old is about to disappear.

Worshipping under the first agreement

9:1 The first agreement had sacred rites and a holy place here on earth, 2 because the tent of worship was set up with a outer room called 'the holy place'[41] where both the lampstand[42] and the table were placed and the 'bread of the presence'.[43] 3 Then past the second curtain was a room called 'the most holy place'[44] 4 having the golden incense altar[45] and the box of the agreement which was completely gold-plated[46] and which contained a golden jar of manna[47] and Aharon's (Aaron's) staff which had sprouted[48] and the stone tablets inscribed with the commands.[49] 5 On the top of the box were the cherubs OF GLORY with their wings stretched out over the mercy seat[50] which we won't talk about right now.
6 And then with all of that having been prepared, the priests entered past everything in the first room of the tent to carry out their sacred services.[51] 7 However, only the high priest enters the second room, and then only once a year. He can't go with taking in blood which he offers for the sins of ignorance done by both himself and by the people.[52] 8 By that, the holy spirit was making it clear that the way into that holy place was not yet open to the public as long as that first tent of worship was still standing. 9 This was an illustration intended for the present time when gifts and sacrifices are still being offered, but are not able to make the conscience of the one serving perfect— 10 only just physical matters of food and drinks and ritual washings—until the reformed system is instigated.

The messiah's blood sealed a new agreement

11 But when Messiah came as high priest over what had now become good through the greater and more perfect tent of worship which wasn't put together by people and isn't part of this world, 12 he went once-for-all into the holy places—not by the blood of goats and calves but through his own blood—obtaining eternal redemption for us. 13 Because if the blood of goats and bulls,[53] and the sprinkling of defiled people with the ashes of a young cow[54] could make them holy by physical purification, 14 how much more the blood of the messiah who offered himself blameless to God, through the eternal spirit, will then purify your conscience from all useless activities in order that we can serve the living God!

15 So because of that, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) is the mediator of a new agreement, so that his death leads to the ransom payment for those who've disobeyed the first agreement, so that now those who are called can receive the eternal inheritance.

16 Where there's an agreement like a will, it's necessary for the death of the one who made it, 17 because this type of agreement doesn't come into effect if the person who made it is still living, but only when they're confirmed as dead, 18 so even the first agreement wasn't valid without blood. 19 Hence after telling all the people all the commands according to the law, Mosheh (Moses) then took the blood of calves and goats, along with water and scarlet wool, and hyssop branches, and sprinkled both the scroll and all the people[55] 20 saying: 'This is the blood of the agreement which God commanded for you all.' 21 Similarly, he sprinkled both the tent itself and all the utensils for the ministry there with blood,[56] 22 and almost everything was declared 'clean' according to the law, because there couldn't be forgiveness without blood.[57]

23 So then it was necessary for these copies of things from the heavens to be purified, but in contrast, the heavenly things will be purified with better sacrifices than that, 24 because Messiah didn't enter human-made holy places that were only representatives of the true ones, but he entered into heaven where he now appears on our behalf in God's presence. 25 He didn't offer himself like the high priest does every year with different blood, 26 otherwise he would have needed to suffer over and over since the creation of the world. Instead he appeared just once throughout all the ages because sin has been annulled by his sacrifice. 27 Just as it's been determined that people will die once and then there'll be judgement, 28 so too the messiah was offered once as a sacrifice as an offering for the sins of many people,[58] but will be seen a second time (nothing to do with sin) by those who are eagerly waiting for him.

The messiah's sacrifice is once-for-all

10:1 The law is a shadow of the good things coming, not the exact image of them. Every year they offer the same sacrifices—over and over but never getting nearer to perfection, 2 otherwise they could have stopped offering them because once they were fully 'clean', they wouldn't have needed anymore sacrifices to appease the conscience of their sins. 3 But as it is, every year there's a reminder about their sins 4 because it's simply not possible for the blood of goats and bulls to take away sins.

5 That's why when Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) came into the world, he said:

"You don't want sacrifice and offering,
but you prepared a body for me.
6 You took no pleasure in whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin.

7 Then I said, 'Listen, it's been written about me in the scroll of the scriptures. I have come, God, to do whatever you want.' "[59]

8 Previously he had said, 'You don't want sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and offerings for sin, and you didn't take pleasure in them,' even though they're offered according to the law.

9 Then he said, 'Listen, I'm coming to do whatever you want.' So he was terminating the first agreement in order to be able to establish the second one. 10 By that agreement, we are made holy once-and-for-all through the offering of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah's body.

11 In fact, every priest has stood there every day ministering and often offering the same sacrifices,[60] all of which have never been able to remove sins, 12 but this one offered one sacrifice for sins for all time, then sat down on God's right 13 waiting even now until his enemies are overcome[61] 14 Yes, with one sacrifice, he's able to make people holy for all time.

15 The holy spirit also testifies to us, having said:

16 'Yahweh says: This is the agreement that I will make with them:

I will put my laws into their hearts and also I will write them into their minds.'[62]

17 And, 'I won't remember their disobedience and their lawlessness any more.'[63] 18 Once there's been forgiveness, then there's no longer a need for an offering for sin.

Don't give up on your faith

19 Therefore brothers and sisters, we have confidence to enter the holy place by Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') blood— 20 a new and life-giving path that he initiated for us to go through the curtain, which is his flesh. 21 Since we have an incredible priest presiding over God's house, 22 we can approach God with sincere hearts in full assurance due to our faith, having our hearts sprinkled to clean us from our guilty consciences and with our bodies having been washed in clean water.[64] 23 We can hold onto the confession of our unwavering hope because the one who made the promise is faithful, 24 and we can be considering how to provoke each other to show love and to do good things— 25 not giving up meeting together as some have, but rather encouraging each other even more as you all see the day of judgement coming closer.

26 If we keep on sinning after learning about the truth, then there's no sacrifice left for our sins, 27 but the certain expectation of fearful judgement and of a fiery anger that will consume the god-haters.[65] 28 Anyone who rejected Mosheh's (Moses') law would receive the death sentence without mercy by the strength of two or three witnesses,[66] 29 so how much more severe punishment do you all expect might be considered appropriate for someone who trampled God's son underfoot and who has considered the blood of the agreement as cheap[67] and who has insulted the spirit of grace? 30 Yes, we know who said, 'Vengeance is mine—I'm the one who'll repay them,'[68] and again, 'Yahweh will be judging his people.'[69] 31 It's a scary thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 Remember those earlier days when you first learnt about Messiah and how you endured a lot of suffering— 33 sometimes being publicly displayed with derision and persecution, and at other times helping others who were being treated like that. 34 You all sympathised with those who were imprisoned and cheerfully accepted the confiscation of your possessions because you knew that you have a better possession that will endure on. 35 So then, don't toss away your boldness, because it'll lead to a sizeable reward. 36 Rather you need to endure so that when you've done what God wants,

Faith definition and examples

11:1 Now faith is the assurance that the things we hope for will come to pass and the conviction that even what we can't see is real, 2 because those are what our predecessors were commended for. 3 By faith we understand that time was formed by God's command because the visible universe was not made from visible materials.[71]

4 By faith Hevel (Abel) offered a more satisfactory sacrifice to God than Kayin (Cain),[72] and as a result, he was declared to be righteous when God testified about his gifts, and through his faith, he still speaks despite being long dead.

5 By faith Hanok (Enoch) was transported directly to heaven without dying. 'His body was never found because God transported him,'[73] because before he was transported, it was testified that he pleased God, 6 and without faith it's impossible to please him. Because it's necessary for anyone who approaches God to believe that he exists, and that he rewards those who search for him.

7 By faith godly Noah built a box to save his family after he was warned about things that had never been seen before,[74] thus condemning the world and becoming an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

8 By faith, Avraham submitted when he was called and travelled to the place that he was going to receive as an inheritance—departing without even knowing where he was going.[75] 9 By faith he camped as a stranger in the promised land, living in tents with Yitshak (Isaac) and Ya'akov (Jacob)[76]—fellow heirs of the same promise— 10 because he was waiting for a city with proper foundations—the city with God as its craftsman and builder.

11 By faith even Sarah herself received the power to conceive a child when she was past that age,[77] because she considered that the one who had made the promise would be faithful to his word. 12 So it was that descendants came from that one man in his old age and they became as numerous as the stars in the sky and uncountable like grains of sand on the beach.[78]

13 All of those people went on to die, not having received everything that was promised but only seeing and welcoming it all from a distance, having admitted that they were strangers and foreigners here on the earth.[79] 14 People who talk like that make it clear that they're looking for a new place to make their home— 15 if they'd been meaning the place that they left, they would have already had time to go back there— 16 so now they're aspiring to a better place, i.e., a heavenly home. Therefore God isn't ashamed of them or of being called their god, because he has prepared a city for them.

17 By faith, Avraham when he was tested offered up Yitshak (Isaac).[80] He had received the promises and offered his only son— 18 the one about which it had been said: 'Your descendants will be named through Yitshak.' 19 Avraham had reckoned that God was powerful enough to bring him back to life from the dead, and in a manner of speaking, that's what happened.

ways so near to us. We should run the race that's ahead of us with endurance, 2 with our eyes on Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), the originator and perfecter of our faith, who endured execution on a stake and disregarded the shame of that event for the satisfaction that he'd gain. Now he's seated there in the seat of honour beside God's throne.

3 You all need to think about Yeshua and how he persevered when sinners quarrelled with him (although they only hurt themselves) so that you can be strong on the inside and persevere. 4 So far, you all haven't had to resist to the point of sweating or shedding blood in the struggle against sin.

5 What's more, you've failed to remember what Shelomoh (Solomon) encouraged his children to do, which also applies to all of you:

"My child, learn carefully when Yahweh trains you.

Indeed, you shouldn't become despondent when he corrects you.

6 Because it's the people that Yahweh loves that he disciplines,

Indeed he punishes every child that he calls his own."[104]

7 It's for your own discipline that you all have to endure. God is treating you as his children, and what sort of father wouldn't discipline them? 8 If you all weren't disciplined (which all children experience), then you wouldn't be true children, but rather illegitimate ones. 9 What's more, our human parents trained us when we were children and we changed our behaviour, so, we should accept it even more when our spiritual father, God, trains us so that we can have life. 10 Indeed, they were disciplining us for a few days according to what seemed best to them, but God our father does it for our benefit so that we can also distance ourselves from sin. 11 No discipline seems pleasant at the time, but painful, however later it produces peace in those who've been trained in this way so they do what's good and right.

12 So then, straighten your drooping arms and paralysed legs, and be strong.[105] 13 Make your paths straight[106] so that those who are lame won't be discouraged, but rather come and be healed.

Don't just take God's message lightly

14 Strive to live peacefully with everyone and to distance yourselves from sin, because no one will get to see Yahweh without doing that. 15 Watch carefully to make sure that no one misses out on God's grace, and to make sure that no bitterness grows up among you that could mess up many people's lives,[107] 16 and watch also that none of you are sexually immoral or godless like Esav (Esau) who sold his own inheritance for a single meal.[108] 17 As you all know, even afterwards when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected because he couldn't find a way to undo what he'd done despite looking for it along with his many tears.[109]

18 You all haven't come to what can be touched and to a blazing fire and to darkness and to gloom and to a storm (like Israelis encountered at Mt. Sinay)[110] 19 and to a trumpet blast and then God speaking a message. But when they heard him speaking, they pleaded for him not to say anything else to them, 20 because they could not bear what was commanded: "If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be killed."[111] 21 Even Mosheh (Moses), when he saw how frightening everything was, he said, "I'm trembling because I'm afraid!"[112]

22 But in contrast, you've all come to the city of the living God (Mt. Tsiyon (Zion)), to the heavenly Yerushalem (Jerusalem), and to myriads of God's messengers to the assembly, 23 and to the assembly of the eldest sons who have been registered in the heavens, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the people who've been declared innocent and who've been made perfect, 24 and to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. agreement, and to the sprinkled blood that says even more than Hevel's (Abel's) blood did.[113]

25 Make sure that you all obey God who's speaking to you, because if the ancient Yehudim (Jews) were punished when they were warned on earth (at Mt. Sinay),[114] how much more God will punish any of us who don't obey what he reveals to us now (from Mt. Tsiyon). 26 When God spoke back then (from Mt. Sinay), it made the earth quake. However, at this time he promises, "I'll make the earth and also heaven quake one more time."[115] 27 The words 'one more time' mean that God will take away everything that he shakes, since it was him who created all those things. So everything that he doesn't shake and take will last forever.

28 So then, since we now live in a kingdom that can't be shaken, we should be thankful, and so offer acceptable worship to God, with awe and the deepest respect 29 because 'the God we worship is a fire that burns things up'.[116]

Leave religion and embrace godliness

13:1 Continue to love your fellow believers. 2 Don't be lax in showing hospitality to others, because some people who've been hospitable have actually hosted God's messengers without even realising.[117] 3 Don't forget about those who are in prison—help them as if you all were in prison with them. Also, help those who are being mistreated because you, yourselves are human.

4 Marriage needs to be honoured by everyone and the marriage relationship kept pure, because God will judge adulterers and those who are sexually immoral.

5 Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have, because God has said:

"I'll never leave you;
Indeed I'll never abandon you."[118]

"Yahweh is my helper,
so I won't be afraid.
What can mere people do to me?"[119]
7 Don't forget about your leaders who taught you all God's message. Reflect on the outcome of their behaviour and imitate their faith. 8 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) Messiah hasn't changed in the past and will never change in the future. 9 Don't be carried away by all sorts of new and novel teachings—God's grace strengthens your faith, but beware of other teachings which won't strengthen you all because the teachers don't even practise what they preach. 10 We benefit from what Yeshua offered, but which others cannot benefit from despite their religious positions. 11 Although the high priest brings the blood of animals into the sacred chambers as a sacrifice for sin, the bodies of the animals are burnt outside the camp.[120] 12 So too, Yeshua also suffered outside the city gate[121] so that he could declare the people innocent by means of the price of his own blood, 13 therefore we should leave our religious sacrifices and rituals and share in his shame outside the system. 14 Yes, we don't belong to any earthly city, but we wait for the new city that's coming.
15 With Yeshua's help, we should always be praising God as if we were presenting offerings to him. We do that when we say that we believe that Yeshua is God. 16 But on top of faith, we need to continue to do good and share what we have with others, because those are the kinds of sacrifices that please God.
17 Your leaders keep watch over your spiritual lives, knowing that they will have to give account to God for you, so obey them and yield to them so that they can fulfil their ministry cheerfully and without groaning, because that wouldn't help you all either.
18 Also, please pray for us, because we believe that we have clear consciences and have conducted ourselves honourably in everything we've done, 19 and I especially urge you to pray that I might be able to return to be with you all soon.

Final words and blessing

20 Now may the God of peace, the one who brought the wonderful shepherd of the sheep back to life from the dead (by the blood that's specified in the eternal agreement), our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus), 21 equip you all with everything good so that you can do what he desires—doing what will please him greatly through Yeshua Messiah, who will be honoured through all the ages. May it be so.

22 But brothers and sisters, I'm urging you all to tolerate my message of encouragement because I haven't made it too long. 23 You all know our brother Timotheos was released and if he comes here soon, I'll be seeing you all.[122]

24 Greet all your leaders for us, and all the believers. The Italians here also send their greetings.

25 May God's grace be with all of you. May it be so.

Yehudah (Jude)

Introduction

Author

This letter was written by Yehudah the younger brother of Ya'akov. (Note that he wasn't the Yudas who handed Yeshua over to the Jewish religious leaders. Note also that Yudas is mistakenly called Yude in most English Bibles, and Yacob is quite wrongly called James in most English Bibles.)

This letter

We don't know which group of believers that this letter was sent to. Here in this letter, Yehudah warns the believers about teachers of false doctrines who teach that it's okay for believers to continue sinning since they'll just be forgiven due to God's mercy. That's the reason Yehudah wrote this, to warn the believers so that they won't fall for false beliefs, but instead will continue to follow the true teaching that came from God. He also encourages the readers that it's necessary to strive to continue in their faith in God along with turning away from evil actions.

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Yehudah (Jude; Grk. Yudas), a slave of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah, and brother of Ya'akov (James; Grk. Yakobos).[1] It's written to all those who have been called and loved by God the father and who have kept believing in Yeshua the messiah.

2 I pray that you all will experience God's mercy and peace, and a bountiful supply of love.

The judgement of false-teachers and god-rejecters

3 Friends, I was so enthusiastic to write to you concerning our salvation that we have in common, but I needed to write to you all, encouraging you to stand strong for the teaching that was entrusted to the believers at a certain point in time. 4 Because some people have quietly come into our groups who think they can take advantage of God's grace to bring in immoral lifestyles and disowning the only master, and our boss who's Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah. But they are destined for judgement.

5 Now I want to remind you that although you all know how Yeshua rescued our people out of Mitsrayim (Egypt),[2] yet at the same time he destroyed the ones who didn't believe.[3] 6 Even the messengers who broke their own rules and left their own domain have been held in eternal chains in the darkness until the time of judgement in the great day.[4] 7 Similarly Sedom and Amorah (Gomorrah) and the towns around them stay in our minds as an example of the judgement of eternal fire due to similar sexual perversions.[5]

8 in the same way these dreamers defile their own bodies while rejecting authority and dishonouring those who should be honoured. 9 Even Mika'el (Michael), one of the top messengers,[6] when he was arguing with the devil about Mosheh's (Moses') body,[7] he didn't belittle him, but left it to Yahweh to punish him.[8] 10 But these people mock what they don't even grasp, but they'll be destroyed by what their animal instincts do understand. 11 Oh dear! Because they've followed the actions of Kayin (Cain)[9] and have embraced the deception of Bil'am (Balaam) for monetary gain,[10] so too they'll perish like Korah's destruction.[11] 12 These are the people who ruin your love feasts when they eat without shame and only look after themselves. They're like clouds that are blown away by the wind without bringing the needed rain or trees that don't produce any fruit then are doubly useless by falling over; 13 like wild waves in the ocean that foam in their own shame or like unreliable wandering stars that are already doomed to the darkest darkness in the next age.

14 Hanok (Enoch) (the seventh generation from Adam)[12] prophesied way back then about these people, "Look, Yahweh, surrounded by tens of thousands of his holy messengers, came 15 to sentence everybody and to punish everyone who rejected God for everything they did that demonstrated this rejection and everything they said against him." 16 This includes their grumbling and complaining, the fulfilling of their own lustful desires, the arrogant way that they spoke, and their flattering of others in order to gain from them.

Keep your faith and keep ministering to others

17 But you, friends, always be thinking about how the missionaries of our master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah 18 told you that mockers near the end of time would come out following their own god-rejecting lusts.[13] 19 These people will cause division as they just demonstrate sensuality since they don't know God's spirit. 20 But you, friends, work to increase your faith in God, praying as the holy spirit helps

May it be so.

The first letter that we have, written by Yohan

(John)

Introduction

This First letter of Yohan (John) had two purposes: 1. encouraging the readers about God and his son Yeshua (Jesus) the messiah, and 2. warning them that it's important to not follow false or incorrect teachings that can destroy their unity with the messiah. These false teachers stated that Yeshua didn't become a person like us. They also taught that salvation doesn't include godly living and the love of others.
So in refuting those false doctrines, Yohan carefully explained that Yeshua the messiah came to this world as a real person, and he also explained that all who believe in Yeshua and love God, must also demonstrate their love to each other.

Main components of Yohan's letter

Introduction 1:1-4
The darkness and the light 1:5–2:29
The children of God and the children of Satan 3:1-24
The truth and the lies 4:1-6
About love 4:7-21
Faith in Yeshua the messiah 5:1-21

1:1 What was from the_beginning, what we_have_ _heard, what we_have_seen with_the eyes of_us, what we_saw, and the hands of_us touched, concerning the message of_ ~~the~~ _life, 2 and the life was_revealed, and we_have_seen, and we_are_ _testifying, and we_are_reporting to_you_all, the life ~~the~~ eternal, which was with the father, and was_revealed to_us, 3 what we_have_seen, and we_have_heard, we_are_reporting also to_you_all, in_order_that also you_all may_be_having fellowship with us, and also ~~the~~ ~~the~~ our_ fellowship _is with the father, and with the son of_him, Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʻa) chosen_ _one/messiah. 4 And we are_writing these things, in_order_that the joy of_us may_be having_been_fulfilled.

5 And this is the message which we_have_heard from him and we_are_declaring to_you_all, that ~~the~~ god is light, and darkness is not in him, not_ _one. 6 If we_may_say that we_are_having fellowship with him, and_yet we_may_be_walking in the darkness, we_are_lying and we_are_ not _ _practicing the truth. 7 But if we_may_be_ _walking in the light as he is in the light, we_are_ _having fellowship with one_another, and the blood of_Ya^{y}sous the son of_him, is_cleansing us from all sin. 8 If we_may_say that we_are_ not _ _having sin, we_are_deceiving ourselves and the truth is not. in us. 9 If we_may_be_confessing the sins of_us, he_is faithful and righteous, in_order_ _that he_may_forgive our sins to_us, and may_ _cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we_ _may_say that we_have_ not _sinned, we_are_ _making him a_liar, and the message of_him is not in us.

2:1 Little_children of_me, I_am_writing these things to_you_all, in_order_that you_may_ not _ _sin. And if anyone may_sin, we_are_having an_ _advocate with the father, Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʻa) chosen_one/messiah the_righteous, 2 and he is the_atonement for the sins of_us, and not for ~~the~~ our sins only, but also for all the world. 3 And by this we_are_knowing that we_have_known him, if we_may_be_keeping the commands of_him. 4 The one saying, ~~that~~ I_have_known him, and not

The message that is life

1:1–3 We are reporting to you and testifying about what existed from the beginning:[1] Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah and son of God.* We heard him, we saw him with our own eyes, and we touched him with our own hands. Concerning the message of life, we can also report and testify to you that that life was revealed[2]—he is the eternal life that was with the father and was revealed to us. We report what we've seen and what we've heard so that you all also can have fellowship with us, and our fellowship is with the father and with his son. 4 We're writing all this so that our joy may be extended to you also.

We're all sinners

5 This is the message that we heard from him and which we are declaring to you all: God is light and there is no darkness in him—none at all. 6 If we say that we and him are relating well together and yet we're walking in the darkness, then we're lying and not living the truth. 7 But if we're walking in the light, just like he walks in the light, then we'll get along well with each other, and his son Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') blood is removing the consequences of all our sins.

8 If we say that we don't have any sin, then we're just fooling ourselves and haven't embraced the truth. 9 But if we admit our sins, Yeshua is trustworthy and totally sinless, and he will forgive us for our sins and remove all of our guilt and consequences. 10 If we say that we haven't sinned, then we're making a liar out of Yeshua and we haven't internalised his message.

The messiah is our advocate

2:1 I am writing to you all, my treasured new believers, so that you might avoid sinning. If anyone should sin, we have an advocate to help us relate to the father: Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the sinless messiah, 2 and it's him who is the atonement for our sins—not just our sins, but also the sins of the entire world.

3 We will know if we really know Yeshua if we obey his teachings. 4 If someone says that they know Yeshua but don't do what he taught, that person is a liar and hasn't internalised the truth. 5 However the person who obeys Yeshua's teaching demonstrates that God's love has truly been planted in them. We know that we are alive in Yeshua if 6 we claim to live in him and then live our lives like he lived.

Love not hate to be in the light

7 Dear friends, I'm not writing a new rule for you all, but reminding you of an old rule that you had from the beginning. This old rule is the message that you all heard.[3] 8 Then again I am writing a new rule to you—a rule which is true in Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) and in you all, because the darkness is already disappearing and the true light is already shining.

9 Anyone who says they're in the light but hates a fellow believer,[4] is still in the darkness. 10 It's the person that loves their fellow believers who is living in the light and doesn't offend anyone. 11 But the person who hates a fellow believer is living and walking in the darkness and doesn't know where they're going because they're blinded.

Don't love the things of this world

12 I'm writing to you new believers because your sins have been forgiven because of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) authority. 13 I'm writing to you fathers because you have known the messiah from the beginning.[5] 14 I wrote to you new believers because you have know the father. I wrote to you fathers because you have known the messiah from the beginning.[6] I wrote to you young men because you are strong and God's message lives in you and you have overcome the evil one.

15 Don't be loving the world nor the things in the world. The father's love does not live in anyone

4 RV 2:9 · Note Literally 'our brothers'. In this letter that term could refer to 'siblings', 'fellow believers', or 'fellow citizens' (or Yohan could be alternating between two or three of them in his mind as he wrote). After considering all the uses of the term in chapters 2–5, we have taken 'fellow believers' as being more likely, i.e., the context would often seem to be focusing on believers (even though most of us would want to apply 3:16–17 to also include 'fellow citizens').

may_be_loving the world, the love of_the father is not in him. 16 Because all which is in the world, the desire of_the flesh, and the desire of_the eyes, and the arrogance of_the living, is not from the father, but is from the world. 17 And the world and the desire of_it is_being_passed_away, but the one doing the will of_ ~~the~~ _god is_remaining for the age.

18 Little_children, it_is the_last hour, and as you_ _all_heard that the_anti-messiah is_coming, even now many false_messiahs have_become, whence we_are_knowing that it_is the_last hour. 19 They_ _came_out from us, but they_were not of us, because/for if they_were of us, they_ would _had_ _remained with us, but in_order_that they_may_ _be_revealed that they_are all not of us. 20 And you_all are_having the_anointing from the holy one, and you_all_have_known all. 21 I_ not _wrote to_you_all because you_all_have_ not _known the truth, but because you_all_have_known it, and because any falsehood is not of the truth. 22 Who is the liar, except ~~not/lest~~ the one disowning that Ya^{y}sous/(Yəhōshūʻa) is not the chosen_ _one/messiah? This one is the anti-messiah, the one disowning the father and the son. 23 Everyone ~~which~~ disowning the son, neither is_ _having the father. The one confessing the son, also is_having the father. 24 You_all, what you_ _all_heard from the_beginning, let_it_be_ _remaining in you_all. If it_may_remain in you_all what you_all_heard from the_beginning, you_all also will_be_remaining in the son and in the father. 25 And this is the promise which he promised to_us, ~~the~~ eternal ~~the~~ life. 26 I_wrote these things to_you_all concerning the ones misleading you_all. 27 And you_all, the anointing that you_all_received from him, is_remaining in you_all, and you_all_are_ not _having need that anyone may_be_teaching you_all, but as the anointing of_him is_teaching you_all concerning all things, and is true and is not a_falsehood, and as it_taught you_all, you_all_are_remaining in him. 28 And now, little_children, be_remaining in him, in_order_that if he_may_be_revealed, we_ _may_have boldness, and we_may_ not _be_ who loves the world 16 because everything that's in the world, bodily desires and lusts and arrogant living, is not from the father but from the world. 17 And the world will come to an end along with the desire for it, but the person obeying God's desires will continue to live.

Beware of 'new' teaching

18 New believers, it's now the last times and what you heard about the false messiah coming is now happening. Many false messiahs have already been around and that confirms that it's now the last times. 19 They came from our group, but they were never truly part of us because if they were, they would have stayed with us. But they left us so it would be revealed that they're not part of us.

20 But you all have received the spirit[7] from the chosen messiah[8] and you all know all about it.[9] 21 I didn't write to you all because you don't know the truth, but because you have known the truth and any falsehood is not part of it.

22 Anyone who teaches that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) is not the messiah is a liar. And anyone who disowns the father and the son is a false messiah. 23 Anyone who disowns the son, doesn't know the father either—only those who confess the son know the father

24 What you all heard from the beginning, that's what you should hold to. If the message that you heard from the beginning remains in you, then you also will remain in the son and in the father, 25 and in that case, what he promised us is to live forever.

26 I wrote these things to you all concerning those who would mislead you. 27 But for you, the spirit that you received from Yeshua remains in you all and so you don't need anyone else to teach you because his spirit teaches you about everything. The spirit teaches truth and not lies, and since you were taught by the spirit then you are remaining in Yeshua.

28 So now you new believers, remain in him so that when he is revealed, we can have boldness and not be ashamed of him when he comes back.
29 Because you know that he is sinless, you also know that anyone faithfully obeying his teaching has been reborn in him.

Living as God's children

3:1 Consider the amazing love that the father has given to us in order that we can be called God's children,[10] and indeed we are.[11] 2 Dear friends we are God's children now, but it's not yet revealed what we will become. We know that when Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) is revealed, we will be similar to him because then we'll be seeing him exactly as he is. 3 Everyone who trusts their future to him needs to purify themself just like he is pure.
4 Everyone who regularly sins is demonstrating lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness. 5 You all know that Yeshua was revealed in order to take away sins,[12] and there's no sin in him. 6 Everyone who remains in him doesn't sin—everyone who keeps sinning has neither really seen Yeshua nor known him.
7 So new believers, don't let anyone deceive you:
the person faithfully obeying Yeshua's teaching will be declared not guilty just as he is not guilty.
8 Anyone who regularly sins belongs to the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the beginning.
9 Everyone who's been reborn in God, doesn't regularly sin because God's seed of life remains in them and that person isn't able to sin because they have been reborn in God. 10 You can distinguish God's children and the devil's children like this: everyone who doesn't faithfully obey Yeshua's teaching or doesn't love their fellow believers, that person doesn't belong to God.

Demonstrate your love for each other is a murderer, and you all know that murderers don't have eternal life in them. 16 We know about real love because we saw that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk.

Yesus) gave up his life for us, and we should give up our lives for our fellow believers. 17 But anyone who's enjoying being alive and notices that a fellow believer is in need yet shuts that other believer's needs out of their conscience, how can God's love be living in that person? 18 So you new believers, don't just proclaim that you're loving people, but actually demonstrate it in actions and in fact. 19 That's how we'll know that the truth really is in us.

At the same time, we need to tell ourselves 20 that if we are feeling condemned, God is greater than our feelings and he knows everything.
21 Then dear friends, if we're not feeling condemned, we have confidence in God 22 and confidence that whatever we are requesting from him, we will receive it because we are following his instructions and doing the things that please him.
23 And this is his command: We need to believe in the authority of his son, Yeshua the messiah, and we should love each other as per the command that Yeshua gave to us.[16] 24 Anyone who follows his commands is living in him, and he is living in them and we have confirmation that he is living in us, because we have the spirit that he gave to us.

True and false spirits

every spirit, but test them to determine whether or not it's from God, because many false prophets go around the world. 2 You all can find out whether or not a spirit is from God: If the spirit confesses that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah has come as a person, then it's from God 3 but if the spirit won't confess Yeshua, then it's not from God but rather it's the spirit of the false messiah, whom you've heard is coming, and is now already in the world.

4 You new believers are in God and you have defeated the false prophets, because the one in you is more powerful than the one in the world. 5 They belong to the world hence they are speaking from the world, and the world is listening to them. 6 However we belong to God, and anyone who knows God listens to us, but anyone who doesn't belong to God can't accept what we're saying. That's how we can distinguish the spirit of truth from deceptive spirits.

Loving God means loving others

7 Dear friends, we need to be loving each other, because love is from God and everyone who truly loves has been reborn into God and knows God. 8 Those who don't love, don't love God because God is love. 9 God's love was revealed to us when he sent his only son to be born into the world so that we can live through him. 10 So this is real love, not us loving God, but God loving us and sending his son to be the sacrifice to clear us of the sentence from our sins.

11 Dear friends, if God loves us like that, we ought to be loving each other. 12 No one has ever seen God,[17] but when we are loving each other then God is living in us, and his love is being perfected in us.

13 We can know that we are living in him and him in us because he has given to us from his spirit. 14 And we have seen and are testifying that the father sent the son—the saviour of the world. 15 Anyone who confesses that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) is God's son, God lives in that person and they live in God. 16 We have known and experienced the love that God has in us.

God is love, and anyone who lives in love, lives in

Readers' Version

God, and God lives in them. 17 This is how love will be perfected in us so that we can live with confidence about the coming judgement day: we live like Yeshua in this world. 18 There's no fear in love, but rather perfect love drives away fear, because our fear is that of being punished but the one fearing has not been perfected in love.

19 We love others because he loved us first. 20 Anyone who says that they are loving God but hates a fellow believer, that person is liar because if someone can't love a fellow believer that they've seen, they can't love God who they've never seen. 21 So we have this command from Yeshua that anyone who loves God must also love their fellow believers.

Faith and love overcome the world

5:1 Everyone who believes that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) is the messiah has been reborn in God, and everyone who loves the father who gave birth to us, also loves the son that he gave birth to. 2 We can know when we love God's children: whenever we love God and obey his commands, 3 because the definition of loving God is obeying his commands[18] and his commands are not a big strain on us 4 because everyone who's been reborn in God is overcoming the world. 5 So who can overcome the world? Only the person who believes that Yeshua is God's son.

God's testimony about Yeshua

6 Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah is the one who was born by water and blood and spirit—not by water only, but by water and by blood[19] 7 because there are three that testify: 8 the spirit, the water, and the blood, and these three come together into one. 9 If we accept testimonies from people, then God's testimony is better, because God's testimony is about his son. 10 Any person that believes that Yeshua is God's son has internalised God's testimony, but anyone who doesn't believe in God calls him a liar because 18 RV 5:3 · Cross-ref. Yhn 14:15.

Readers' Version

they have not believed the testimony of God himself about his son. 11 And this is the testimony: that God gave eternal life to us and this life is in his son.[20] 12 Anyone who has the son has life, but anyone who doesn't have the god's son, doesn't have eternal life.

Living without ending

13 I wrote these things to you so that you all could know that you have eternal life, that is the ones believed in the name and authority of God's son. 14 And so we have confidence in God that if we request anything according to his will, he hears us 15 whatever we're requesting, and we know that we'll receive what we requested.

16 If anyone sees a fellow believer committing a forgivable sin, then that person should ask God on their behalf and God will give life to that fellow believer. (But there is a sin that always results in death and I'm not suggesting that we should ask in that case.) 17 All disobedience is sin, but there are sins that don't necessarily lead to death.

18 We know that everyone who's been reborn into God doesn't keep sinning, but the messiah who was born from God watches over them and so the evil one can't touch them.

19 We know that we belong to God and that the whole word is under the control of the evil one.

20 We know that God's son has come and helped our minds so that we could know the true one, and we are in the true one and also in his son, Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah—the true God and eternal life itself.

21 You new believers, don't honour idols.

The second letter that we have written by Yohan (John)

Introduction

This is the second letter that we have by Yohan one of the earliest followers of Yeshua and who became an apprentice to him. He sent this letter to a chosen woman and her children—presumably meaning 'chosen by God'. Some think this might be referring to a group of believers (in which case, the 'chosen sister' of the closing sentence might also be a congregation). This short letter reminds the recipients that it's necessary to keep following the truth of Yeshua's original teaching and to love each other. It also warns about those who teach that Yeshua was not the messiah (or was not God).

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) the elder to the chosen lady and her children who I genuinely love (as do all the other believers)
2 because of the truth that lives in us and will be with us forever.
3 We will have grace, mercy, and peace in truth and love from God the father and from his son Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah.

Stick to the original message

4 I was so happy that I found some of your children living out the truth as per the command that the father gave us. 5 So now I'm requesting you, lady, (not making some new command, but one that we've had since the beginning) that we all need to love each other[1] 6 where the definition of love is obeying God's commands. This is the command about walking in love that you all heard from the beginning 7 because many false preachers have entered the world who don't believe that Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) is the messiah who came as a human. Any person like that is a deceiver and against the messiah.
8 So make sure that you all don't lose what you've worked for, but rather go on to receive a full reward.
9 Anyone who doesn't stay with the messiah's teaching or adds more to it doesn't have God—it's the person who continues in the teaching that has both the father and the son with them. 10 If anyone comes to you all and doesn't bring this same message, don't accept that person into your house, and don't tell them that it's good 11 because anyone who encourages those people is participating in the evil that they're spreading.

Closing off

12 I've got many things that I wanted to write to you about, but paper and ink aren't working for me so I'll try to come and then we can talk directly because I want you all to experience genuine happiness.
13 Your sister's children (and she's also a chosen

Yohan (John)

Introduction

The author

This the third letter we have that was written by Yohan, one of the twelve apprentices who spent the most time with Yeshua.

This letter

This letter was sent to one of Yohan's friends named Gaios. Yohan praises Gaios for the way he'd looked after other believers and for his living out God's truth. Yohan also warns Gaios about a person named Diotrefes who was opposing the believers.

Readers' Version

1:1 This letter is from Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) the elder to my dear friend Gaios[1] who I love because we both follow the truth.
2 My dear friend, I trust that you are healthy and doing well in everything just as you are also doing well spiritually. 3 I was very happy when some of our spiritual brothers came and told us about your faithfulness to the truth and how you are living it out. 4 Nothing makes me more happy than hearing that other believers that I've helped are living out the truth.

Praising Gaios

5 My dear friend, you are faithful in what you do for other believers. Even strangers 6 have told the assembly about your caring for them before sending them on. Your actions will be praised by God 7 because they went out to serve God, not getting any help from the unbelievers. 8 We should be supporting believers like them so that we may also become their workmates in sharing the truth.

Diotrefes and Demetrios

9 I wrote something to the assembly, but Diotrefes won't listen to us—he always wants the limelight for himself. 10 Because of that, if I do end up coming, I will be reminding him about what he's been doing—rambling on against us with evil talks, and then, not being happy with that, he doesn't accept other believers and expels them from the assembly then forbids others from accepting them either.
11 My dear friend, don't copy the evil things that others do, just the good things. Anyone who does what is good belongs to God—anyone who does evil things has not seen God.
12 Demetrios has been talked about by everyone and even the truth itself speaks. We have also spoken about him, and you know that what we say is true.

Closing

13 I had many things I wanted to write about, but won't do it by means of ink and pen, 14 but instead I hope to see you soon and then we can speak face to face.
15 Wishing all peace and happiness for you. Your friends here also greet you. Please greet our

Yohan's Revelation

of Yeshua the messiah

Introduction

Yohan's (John's) revelation of Yeshua (Jesus) the messiah concerns events that will happen in the future. This was written long ago in a time when the believers were persecuted due to their faith in the master Yeshua, the messiah, and Yohan himself had been forcibly exiled to Patmos Island by the Romaios authorities and held there. Yohan's main purpose for writing this was to give hope to the believers and to encourage them to persevere in their faith despite their persecution.
A major portion of what's written in this document is the revelation by Yeshua the messiah to Yohan about incredible signs and all those symbols have a meaning and interpretation. At the time of writing, some were likely understood by the Christians of the time, but now, some of the symbols are very hard to interpret, and there's been a large range of interpretations from different people. But even though it's like that, there are also some signs that are easier to understand like 'horns' which denote power and authority, and 'sword' which denotes war. The themes are repeated throughout this document in various different forms. But it's important to just understand the main points of what's written here: God will indeed destroy all of his enemies through the messiah Yeshua, and also, he will reward all his people who persevere in serving him, and then he'll bring them to live with him. The final major them concerns the new sky and earth that God will create, and concerning the new Yerushalem that will descend from heaven.

Readers' Version

1:1 This is the revelation that God gave to Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah to show to his slaves to explain what must happen soon. He communicated it by sending it via his messenger to his slave, Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) 2 who then faithfully passed on everything he saw of God's message and the testimony of Yeshua the messiah. 3 God will bless anyone who reads or listens to the messages of this prophecy and obeys what's written in it, because the time of these events happening is close.

The greetings to seven assemblies of believers

4 This letter is from Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes) to the seven assemblies in Asia Minor:

Grace and peace to you all from the God who is and was and will be,[1] and from the seven spirits who are in front of his throne,[2] 5 and from Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) the messiah, the faithful witness,[3] the first to come back to life, and the ruler of all the leaders of the nations of the world.[4]

Yeshua loves us and he has released us from our sins by his blood, 6 and made us into a kingdom of priests to God his father,[5] and he is deserving of honour and power throughout the ages. May it be so.

7 Look, he's going to come back in the clouds,[6] and everyone will see him—the one who they speared[7]—and all the tribes on the earth will be mourning over him.[8] REWORK OT QUOTES

8 "I am the A and the Z,"[9] says Yahweh God, the one who is and was and will be[10]—the most powerful one.

Yohan sees the messiah

9 I, Yohan (John; Grk. Yoannes), am your brother and partner in the suffering that's typical of those who follow Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus). I've been exiled to Patmos Island where I endure because I believe God's message and Yeshua's testimony and look forward to his kingdom. 10 One Sunday while I was meditating, God's spirit gave me a vision, and I heard a voice behind me that seemed as loud as a trumpet blast 11 that said, "Write down what you see here on a scroll and send it to the seven assemblies of believers—to the cities of Efesos, Smurna, Pergamos, Thuateira, Sardeis, Filadelfeia, and to Laodikeia."

12 Then I turned to see who was talking to me, and I saw seven golden lamp holders, 13 and standing among them was a man who looked like the son of humanity,[11][12] wearing a long robe with a golden sash around His chest.[13] 14 His hair was gleaming white like wool or snow[14] and his eyes were bright like a fiery flame. 15 His feet shone like bronze that had been refined in a furnace, and his voice was like the sound of a river of rushing water.[15] 16 He was holding seven stars in his right hand and a sharp sword was extending from his mouth, and his face was like the sun shining at its brightest. 17 And when I saw him, I quickly lay at his feet, breathless like a dead man, but he placed his right hand on me, and told me, "Don't be afraid. I am the first and the last.[16] 18 I lived and died here on the earth, but look, now I'm alive again and will live for all eternity, and I control the keys over death and over hell. 19 So record what you're seeing now as well as what I'll show you about current and future events. 20 This is the meaning of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and of the seven golden lamp holders:[17] The seven stars represent God's messengers watching over those seven groups of believers,[18]

The message to the assembly in Efesos

2:1 To the assembly's messenger in Efesos write:

The one holding the seven stars in his right hand, the one walking among the seven golden lampstands, says these things: 2 "I know about your activities and work, and your endurance and that you can't tolerate evil people, and that you've investigated the ones who call themselves missionaries but are not, and you've found them to be frauds. 3 I'm aware that you've endured and even suffered persecution because you've believed in me, but you've never given up. 4 However, I do have something against you: you've abandoned the love that you first had. 5 So now, you need to remember where you've fallen from, and repent and repeat how you behaved at the beginning, but if you don't, I'll come to you and if you don't repent, I'll remove your lampstand from its place. 6 But you do have this going for you: you hate what the disciples of Nikolaos are doing,[19] just like I do.

7 Everyone who wants to understand needs to listen to what God's spirit is saying to the assemblies.

I will grant the right to eat from the tree that gives life[20] in God's paradise[21] to everyone who overcomes."

The message to the assembly in Smurna

8 To the assembly's messenger in Smurna write:

The one who's the first and the last,[22] who died but lived again, says these things: 9 "I know about your suffering and your poverty, but you're actually rich! I also know how about the slander of those who consider themselves to be Yehudim (Jews), but they're not true Yehudim because their master is Satan. 10 Don't be afraid about what you're going to suffer. Yes, the devil will throw some of you into prison where your faith will be tested, and you'll experience persecution for ten 11 Everyone who wants to understand needs to listen to what God's spirit is saying to the assemblies.

Anyone who stays true won't be affected by the second death."[23]

The message to the assembly in Pergamos

12 To the assembly's messenger in Pergamos write:

The one with the sharp sword says these things: 13 "I know where you live: where Satan's throne is. Despite that, you firmly believe in me and you haven't denied your faith in me, even when Antipas, the faithful man who told others about me was killed in your city, where Satan lives. 14 But I do have a few things against you: you have some people there who hold to the ancient prophet Bil'am's (Balaam's) teaching.[24] He taught Moav's (Moab's) king, Balak, how to tempt the Israelis and to eat food that had been sacrificed to idols, and to be sexually immoral.[25] 15 In the same way, some of you also follow the teachings of Nikolaos' disciples.[26] 16 So turn away from all that, otherwise I'll come soon and battle against them with the word of my mouth.

17 Everyone who wants to understand needs to listen to what God's spirit is saying to the assemblies.

Anyone who stays true will be given hidden food from heaven,[27] and I'll give each of them a white stone with a new name written on it[28] that no one knows apart from the person receiving it."

The message to the assembly in Thuateira

18 To the assembly's messenger in Thuateira write:

The message to the assembly in Laodikeia

14 To the assembly's messenger in Laodikeia write:

The truth, the faithful and true witness, the originator of God's creation,[41] says: 15 "I'm aware of what you've been doing and that you're neither hot nor cold. (You'd benefit[42] if you were hot or cold.) 16 So because you're lukewarm, neither hot nor cold, I'll spit you out of my mouth. 17 You brag, 'I'm rich, yes I've grown rich and don't have any needs,' but you don't realise that you're actually miserable and pitiable, and poor and blind and naked. 18 I advise you to buy gold from me that's been refined by fire so that you might get rich, and buy white clothes so that you can dress yourself so that the shame of your nakedness might not be displayed, and buy ointment to rub on your eyes so that you'll be able to see. 19 I tell off and discipline those that I love,[43] so be earnest and turn away from your disobedience. 20 Yes, I stand at the door and knock—if anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he'll eat with me. 21 Anyone who overcomes, I'll give the right to sit with me on my throne, just like when I conquered and sat with my father on his throne.

22 Everyone who wants to understand needs to listen to what God's spirit is saying to the assemblies.

sounded like a trumpet told me, "Come up here and I'll show you what must happen after those things." 2 Immediately I was in the spirit and wow, a throne was appearing in heaven with someone sitting on it.[44] 3 The one sitting there sparkled like jewels, and an emerald-looking rainbow encircled the throne. 4 Surrounding that throne were twenty-four other thrones, and on them sat twenty-four elders dressed in white and with golden crowns on their heads. 5 From the centre throne came lightning flashes and thunderous sounds and voices.[45] In front of it, seven torches were burning,[46] which are God's seven spirits.[47] 6 In front of the throne was something like a sea of glass that was as clear as crystal.[48]

Around the throne were four living creatures, covered both front and back with eyes. 7 This first living creature resembled a lion, the second resembled a bull, the third had a face like a man, and the fourth one resembled a flying eagle. 8 Each of the four living creatures had six wings with eyes all around and underneath them.[49] Day and night they never stop saying:

'Holy, holy, holy,
is Yahweh, almighty God, who was and is and is to come.'[50]

9 Whenever the living creatures praise the one sitting on the throne and honour him and thank him (the one who lives through all the ages), 10 the twenty-four elders drop to their knees with their faces to the ground in front of the one sitting on the throne and worship the one who lives through all the ages. They place their crowns down in front of the throne and say:

11 "You, our God and master, are worthy to receive praise and honour and power, because you created everything.
Everything exists just as you determined to create it."

The scroll and the lamb

5:1 Then I saw a scroll in the right-hand of the one sitting on the throne. It had writing on both sides, and had been sealed with seven wax seals.[51] 2 I also saw a powerful messenger who was asking in a loud voice, "Who's worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?" 3 But there wasn't any person on earth or in the place of the dead who was permitted to open the scroll and read it. 4 I began to cry loudly, because no one could be found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside it. 5 Then one of the elders said to me, "Stop crying. Look, here's the lion from the tribe of Yehudah (Judah).[52] He's the descendant of King David[53] who's a conqueror who's competent to break the seals and open the scroll."

6 Then I saw a lamb standing there between the throne and the four living creatures and the elders. The lamb looked like it had been slaughtered,[54] and it had seven horns and seven eyes which are God's seven spirits that had been sent throughout the world.[55] 7 The lamb went up to the throne and accepted the scroll from the right hand of the one sitting on the throne. 8 When he'd taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders knelt down in front of the lamb. Each elder held a harp and a bowl that was full of incense (which symbolised the prayers of the believers).[56] 9 They sung a new song like this:[57]

"It's you who's worthy to take the scroll and break its seals, because you were slaughtered and with your blood you purchased people for God from every tribe and language and people group and nation.
10 You've made them to be a kingdom and to be priests to serve our God,[58]

and they will reign on the earth."

11 Then I looked and I heard the voices of the living creatures and elders that were around the throne along with millions of God's messengers[59] 12 saying with loud voices:

"The lamb that was slaughtered is worthy to receive power and riches, and wisdom and strength and honour and praise and blessing."

13 Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth, and under the earth and in the sea—everything everywhere—saying,

"To the one sitting on the throne and to the lamb, be praise and honour and GLORY and power forever and ever."

14 Then the four living creatures said, "May it be so," and the elders knelt down and worshipped.

The lamb breaks the first six seals

6:1 Then I saw the lamb breaking the first of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say, "Come," in a thunderous voice. 2 So I looked, and wow, there was a white horse[60] with someone sitting on it holding a bow and arrow. A crown was given to him, and then he went out as a conqueror to conquer. 3 And when the lamb broke the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, "Come," 4 and another horse came out. It was a red horse,[61] and the one sitting on it was given permission to withdraw peace from the earth so that people would slaughter each other, and a large sword was given to him. 5 Then the lamb broke the third seal and I heard the third living creature say, "Come." I looked, and wow, there was a black horse,[62] and the one sitting on it held balancing scales in his hand. 6 Then I heard something like a voice from among the four living creatures that said, "A kilo of wheat for a day's pay, or three kilos of barley for the same price. But don't harm the oil and wine supplies."

7 When the lamb broke the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come." 8 Then I looked, and wow, there was a green horse. The one sitting on it was named 'Death', and Haidais was sitting behind him. They were given authority over a quarter of the earth: to execute people with the sword, with famine, with death, and with the wild animals on the earth.[63]

9 When the lamb broke the fifth seal, under the altar I saw the souls of everyone who had been killed because of God's word and because of the testimony that they had upheld. 10 These souls called out loudly, "You, master, always do what is right and decide what is right! So please condemn and punish the people on the earth who killed us." 11 Then each of them was given a white robe, and told to wait a little longer until the full number was reached of their fellow servants and brothers and sisters who would also be killed like they were.

12 When the lamb broke the sixth seal, there was a violent earthquake[64] and the sun went black like black cloth, and the moon which was full, went red like blood.[65] 13 Also the stars fell out of the sky, just like how a fig tree out of season drops its fruit when it gets shaken by a strong wind.[66] 14 The sky was split apart like a scroll being rolled up, and all the mountains and islands were moved out of their places.[67] 15 Then the kings on the earth, and high-ranking officials, military officers, rich people and influential individuals, all slaves and free people hid in caves and among rocks on the mountains.[68] 16 They told the mountains and rocks, "Fall down on us and hide us[69] so that the one sitting on the throne can't see us, and also from the lamb's anger 17 because today is the terrible day when their anger has eventuated, and who can stand up to that?"[70]

The 144,000 marked Israelis

7:1 After that I saw four messengers standing around the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth[71] so that no wind would blow on land or sea or on any tree. 2 Then I saw another messenger coming up from the direction of the rising sun, and he was holding the living God's seal. He called out loudly to the four messengers that God had permitted to damage the earth and the sea, 3 saying, "Don't harm the earth or the sea or the trees until we can mark the seal on the foreheads of God's servants."[72] 4 Then I heard the count of those who were marked with the seal. There were 144,000 from all of Yisrael's (Israel's) tribes. 5 There were 12,000 from the tribes of Yehudah (Judah), Re'uven, Gad, 6 Asher, Naftali (Naphtali), Menasheh (Manasseh), 7 Shim'on (Simeon; Grk. Sumeon), Levi, Yisakar (Issachar), 8 Zevulun, Yosef (Joseph), and Benyamin.

The huge crowd dressed in white

9 After that, I looked and wow, there was a huge crowd too large to count, from every nation and tribe and people and language, standing in front of the throne and the lamb, having been dressed in white robes and holding palm branches, 10 and they were shouting loudly, "Our God who's sitting on the throne has saved us! The lamb has saved us!" 11 Then all the messengers stood around the throne, and around the elders and the four living beings. 13 Then one of the elders asked me, "Who are those people in white robes and where have they come from?"

14 "Sir, you are the one who knows," I answered.

And then he told me, "Those are the ones who've come through the terrible tribulation,[73] and they've washed their robes in the blood of the lamb and made them white. 15 That's why they're here in front of God's throne, and they worship him day and night in his temple, and the one sitting on the throne will extend his protection over them. 16 They won't be hungry or thirsty any longer, and the sun won't burn them with its scorching heat,[74] 17 because the lamb that's there at the throne will shepherd them.[75] The lamb will guide them to the springs of living water,[76] and God will ensure that every tear is wiped away from their eyes."[77] SHOULD THIS BE IN POETIC FORMAT?

The lamb of seventh seal

8:1 Then the lamb broke the seventh seal and there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. 2 And I saw the seven messengers who stand in front of God and they were each given a trumpet.

3 Then another messenger came and stood at the altar[78] holding a golden bowl for burning incense. He was given a lot of incense to offer which was to be mingled with the prayers of all the believers on the golden altar[79] in front of the throne. 4 So the smoke of the incense from the bowl in the messenger's hand, together with the prayers of the believers, drifted upwards in front of God. 5 Then the messenger took the bowl and filled it with coals of fire from the altar,[80] and threw them[81] onto the earth and that caused peals of thunder and roaring, and lightning bolts and an earthquake.[82]

The first four trumpets

6 Then the seven messengers who had the seven trumpets, got ready to blow them.

7 Then the first messenger blew his trumpet and then hail and fire mixed together with blood was thrown down on the earth[83] and a third of the earth was burnt up along with a third of the trees, and all the green grass got burnt up.

8 Then the second messenger blew his trumpet, and something was thrown into the ocean that was like a huge, burning mountains, and a third of the sea turned into blood. 9 One third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

10 Then the third messenger blew his trumpet and a huge star, burning like a torch, fell down from the sky[84] and landed on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. 11 That star is named 'Bitterness' and a third of those waters turned bitter. Many people died from the waters, because they became poisonous.[85]

12 Then the fourth messenger blew his trumpet and a third of the sun and the moon were struck and the sun didn't shine for a third of the day, nor the moon for a third of the night. One third of the stars were struck and went dark.[86]

13 Then as I watched, I heard an eagle that was flying high in the sky, shouting loudly, "Three terrible things will happen to the people who are living on the earth when the three remaining messengers blow their trumpets."

from the sky to the earth, and he/it[87] was given the key to the deep, dark pit. 2 When he/it unlocked and opened that pit, smoke came up out of it like the smoke of a large furnace,[88] and the smoke darkened the sun and the air. 3 Then locusts came out of the smoke and descended on the land,[89] and they were given stinging power like the large scorpions of the earth. 4 However the locusts were told that they shouldn’t harm the grass or any green plants or trees, but only those people who didn’t have God’s mark on their foreheads.[90] 5 They weren’t given power to kill them, but only to torment them for five months, and their torment was like that of a scorpion when it strikes a person. 6 People in those days will try to die, but won’t be able to—they will long to die, but death will run away from them.[91]

7 The locusts looked like horses that had been prepared for battle,[92] with something on their heads that were similar to golden crowns and their faces being like human faces. 8 Their hair was like women’s hair and their teeth were like lions’ teeth.[93] 9 They wore chestplates that seemed to be made of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the roar of many horses rushing into battle pulling chariots.[94] 10 They had tails with stingers like scorpions which had the power to harm people for five months. 11 They had a king in charge of them who’s the messenger of the deep pit—his name is ‘Destroyer’. (‘Avadon’ in Hebrew and ‘Apolluon’ in Greek.)

The sixth trumpet brings the second terror

13 Then the sixth messenger blew his trumpet and I heard a voice coming from the corners of the golden altar in front of God,[95] 14 that was telling the sixth messenger (with the trumpet), "Release the four messengers that are tied up by the large Perat (Euphrates) River." 15 So the four messengers who had been prepared for this exact time were released to kill a third of humankind. 16 I heard someone say how many mounted soldiers there were—there were 200 million of them, 17 and this is what the horses and their riders looked like in my vision: the soldiers wore chestplates that were red like fire, blue like sapphire, and yellow like sulfur. The heads of the horses were like lions' heads, and fire, smoke, and fumes from burning sulfur came out of their mouths. 18 These three disasters (fire, smoke, and burning sulfur coming out of their mouths) killed one third of humankind 19 because the horses' power is in their mouths and in their tails, because their tails are like snakes, having heads that injure people.

20 However, the rest of humankind that hadn't been killed by those disasters, didn't repent of their actions and didn't stop worshipping demons and idols made of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood—idols that can't see, can't hear, and can't walk.[96] 21 They also didn't repent of their murdering or of their sorcery, nor of their sexual immorality or of their stealing.

The messenger and the small scroll

10:1 Then in the vision I saw another powerful messenger coming down from heaven wrapped in a cloud and with a rainbow above his head. His face was like the sun and his feet were like pillars of fire, 2 and he was holding a small opened scroll. He set his right foot down on the ocean and his left foot down on the land 3 and shouted in a loud voice like a lion roaring, and when he shouted, the

4 When the seven thunders spoke, I was going to write down what they said but I heard a voice from heaven that said, "Keep what the seven thunders have said secret, and don't write it down."

5 Then the messenger that I'd seen straddling the ocean and the land raised his right hand 6 and made an oath by the one living through all the ages and who created heaven and everything in it and the earth and everything in it, and the sea and everything in it, saying, "There won't be any more delay, 7 but at the time when the seventh messenger will speak and blow his trumpet, then the hidden purposes of God will come to be, just like he told his slaves the prophets long ago."[97]

8 Then the one whom I had heard speak from heaven spoke to me again, saying, "Go and get the open scroll from the hand of the messenger who is straddling the ocean and the land." 9 So I went to the messenger and asked him to give me the little scroll, and he answered, "Take it and eat it. At first it'll taste sweet like honey, but afterwards it'll be uncomfortable in your stomach." 10 So I took that little scroll from the messenger's hand and ate it, and it tasted sweet like honey,[98] but my stomach hurt afterwards 11 and they told me, "You have to speak out God's message about many nations and people groups and language groups and kings."

The seventh trumpet brings the third terror

15 Then the seventh messenger blew his trumpet, and voices in heaven shouted loudly, "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our master and of his messiah, and he will reign through all the ages."[112]
16 The twenty-four elders sitting on their thrones in front of God knelt down with their faces to the ground and worshipped God, 17 saying,
"Yahweh, God, ruler of everything, we thank you,
the one who always existed,
and who exists now.
You have taken your incredible power and have started to reign.
18 The nations were enraged, but your anger has arrived.[113]
It's the time to judge the dead and to give a reward to your slaves, the prophets, and to those who obey you and those who respect you, both the lowly ones and the powerful,[114] and to destroy those who are destroying the earth."
19 Then God's temple in heaven was opened, and the wooden chest containing his agreement appeared in his temple. And there were flashes of lightning, and rumblings, and peals of thunder, and an earthquake,[115] and a large hailstorm.[116]

3 Another miraculous sign appeared in heaven, and wow, a huge, red dinosaur with seven heads, ten horns,[117] and seven crowns on his heads. 4 His tail swept a third of the stars out of the sky and hurled them down to earth,[118] then he stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that when the child was delivered, he could devour it. 5 The woman gave birth to a son[119] who's going to rule all the nations with an iron scepter,[120] and he was snatched away to God and to his throne, 6 and the woman fled into the wilderness where God had prepared a place for her so that they might nourish her there for three and a half years.

7 Then a battle began in heaven, with Mika'el (Michael)[121] and his messengers making war on the dinosaur. But the dinosaur and his messengers fought back, 8 but couldn't win, so after that they weren't able to stay in heaven anymore. 9 Thus the huge dinosaur was thrown out—that ancient snake[122] called 'the devil' and 'Satan'—the one who deceived the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth[123] and his messengers were thrown down with him.

10 Then I heard a loud voice in heaven saying, "Now our god's salvation and power and kingdom have come, and the authority of his messiah, because the accuser of the believers has been thrown out—the one who spent day and night in front of God accusing them.[124] 11 They conquered him by means of the lamb's blood and by the message in their testimony. Indeed, they were prepared to die if necessary. 12 So, be glad you heavens and those who shelter in them. The earth and the sea won't have a good ending because the devil has gone down to you and he's very angry

13 When the dinosaur realised that God had thrown him down to the earth, he tried to attack the woman who had given birth to the son. 14 But two large, eagle wings were given to the woman so that she could fly away to the wilderness, to her place where she'll be nourished away from the snake for three and a half years.[125] 15 Then the snake poured water out of his mouth like a river towards the woman so that the current would sweep her away, 16 but the ground helped the woman by opening up a big hole, and so the flood that the dinosaur poured out from his mouth disappeared into it. 17 The dinosaur was furious with the woman and went away to battle against the rest of her children, the ones obeying God's commands and believing Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') testimony.

The two wild animals

13:1 and I saw a wild creature coming up out of the water.[126] It had ten horns and seven heads, and on its horns were ten crowns, and anti-God names were written on each of its heads.[127] 2 The sea creature that I saw was like a leopard with feet like a bear and a mouth like a lion,[128] and the dinosaur gave it his power and his throne and wide-ranging authority. 3 One of the heads of the sea creature looked as if someone had wounded it so that it had died, but that wound had healed and as a result, all the people of the earth marvelled at the sea creature and obeyed it. 4 They worshipped the dinosaur because he had given authority to the sea creature, and they worshipped the sea creature, saying, "Who is like this sea creature and who is able to battle against it?"
5 The sea creature was given a mouth so it could speak out arrogant and anti-God statements, and it was given authority to act for three and a half years.[129] 6 So it started speaking out anti-God

7 It was given permission to battle against the believers and to conquer them,[130] and it was given authority over every tribe and people and language and nation. 8 All the people living on the earth will worship it—all of those whose names have never been written in the lamb's book of life since the creation of the world[131]—the lamb who was slaughtered.[132]

9 Everyone who wants to understand needs to listen. 10 If anyone's enemies are going to capture them, they will capture them and if anyone's enemies are going to kill them with a sword, they'll kill them with a sword.[133] So God's people must endure suffering and remain faithful.

11 Then I saw a second wild animal come up from the earth. It had two small horns on its head like a lamb, but it spoke like a dinosaur. 12 This land animal carries out all the orders of the sea creature and insists that the people who live on the earth worship the sea creature—the one that almost died except its wound healed. 13 The land animal also did amazing miracles and it even caused fire to fall from the sky down to the earth that people could see. 14 The dinosaur gave the land animal the power to do these miracles on behalf of the sea creature. The land animal used the miracles to deceive the people who live on the earth, telling them to make an idol that looked like the sea creature that had survived a sword wound that seemed to kill it. 15 The dinosaur also gave the land animal the power to make that idol live and so the idol that looked like the sea creature was able to speak. The land animal was able to execute anyone who refused to worship the idol 16 and it also required each person, whether important or not, and whether rich or poor, free or slave, to have a mark on their right hand or on

18 This calls for wisdom: Let anyone who has understanding calculate the number of the creature, because it's the number of a man and his number is 666.[134]

The lamb and the 144,000

14:1 Then I looked and wow, the lamb was standing on Mt. Tsiyon (Zion), and with him were 144,000 people with his name and the name of his father written on their foreheads.[135] 2 I heard a sound from heaven like the sound of lots of water and like the sound of great thunder, and the sound that I heard was like lots of people playing their harps. 3 They sang a new song in front of throne and the four living creatures and the elders, and no one was able to learn the song except the 144,000 who had been bought from the earth. 4 They are all virgins and they follow the lamb wherever he goes. Out of all people, these ones have been purchased as a first fruits offering for God and for the lamb, 5 and they tell no lies because they are innocent.[136]

The three messengers

6 Then I saw another messenger flying through the air, having the good message that's eternal to proclaim to those living on the earth, even to every nation and tribe and language and people, 7 saying in a loud voice, "Honour God and praise him, because his judgement time has come. 9 Then a third messenger followed them, saying in a loud voice, "Those who worship the sea creature and its image, and receive a mark on their forehead or on their hand, 10 they'll be on the receiving end of God's anger which he'll pour out undiluted,[138] so they'll be tormented with fire and burning sulfur[139] in front of God's messengers and of the lamb. 11 The smoke from their torment will continue through all the ages,[140] yes, the ones worshipping the sea creature and its image and anyone who receives the mark of its name will have no rest, day or night. 12 So the believers who obey God's commands and have faith in Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. 13 Then I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write, 'Blessed are the those who die trusting in the master from now on.' "

"Yes," says the spirit, "so they will rest from their work, because the record of their activities will follow with them."

The harvest of the world

14 Then I looked and wow, there was a white cloud, and someone who looked like a human was sitting on the cloud[141] with a golden crown on his head and a sharp sickle (harvesting tool) in his hand. 15 Another messenger came out of the temple, calling out in a loud voice to the one sitting on the cloud: "Extend your sickle and cut the grain because it's harvest time—the harvest of the earth is ripe now."[142] 16 So the one sitting on the cloud swung his sickle across the earth, and the earth was harvested.

17 Then another messenger came out from the temple in heaven, also holding a sharp sickle.

18 And another messenger came from the altar, the one who had authority over the fire, and he shouted in a loud voice to the one with the sharp sickle, saying, "Extend your sharp sickle out and gather the clusters of the grapevine of the earth, because their grapes are ripe." 19 So the messenger swung his sickle across the earth and harvested the grapevine of the earth, and he threw the grapes into the great wine-pressing pit which is God's anger. 20 Then the grapes were trampled in the wine-pressing pit outside the city,[143] and blood came out of it and flowed up to the height of a horse's bridle for 300 kilometres.

2 I saw something that was like a sea of glass that had been mixed with fire. The people who had been victorious over the sea creature and over its image and over the number of its name were standing on that sea of glass. They were holding harps from God 3 and singing this song that came from God's slave Mosheh (Moses),[144] and from the lamb, which went:

5 Then after that, I saw that the temple doors—the tent that's a testimony—were open[148] 6 and the seven messengers holding the seven disasters came out of the temple. They were dressed in clean, bright linen, with golden sashes wrapped around their chests. 7 Then one of the four living creatures gave the seven messengers seven golden bowls that were full of the anger of God who lives through all the ages, 8 and the temple was filled with smoke from God's glory and from his power, and no one was able to enter the temple until the seven disasters from the seven messengers were completed.[149]

The pouring out of God's anger

16:1 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple telling the seven messengers, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of God's anger onto the earth."

2 So the first messenger went and poured out his bowl on the earth, all the people with the sea creature's mark and the ones worshipping its image.[150]

3 The second messenger poured out his bowl into the ocean and it went thick like a corpse's blood, and every living creature in it died.

4 The third messenger poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water, and it became blood.[151] 5 Then I heard the messenger who was in charge of those waters say to God, "You are righteous, the one who exists now and in the past, the HOLY one, because you have judged these. 6 Because they killed those who obeyed God and killed the prophets and poured out their blood, you have also given blood to them to drink. It's what they deserve." 7 Then I heard (someone at?) the altar say, "Yes, Yahweh God, ruler of all, you judge people with truth and fairness."

8 The fourth messenger poured out his bowl onto the sun and it was permitted to scorch people with fire. 9 So people were scorched with incredithority over those disasters, but they did not turn from their disobedience and honour him.

10 The fifth messenger poured out his bowl on the throne of the sea creature and its kingdom went dark.[152] The people there were biting their tongues from the pain, 11 and they swore at the God of heaven because of their pain and their sores, but they didn't turn from their evil actions.

12 The sixth messenger poured out his bowl onto the large River Perat (Euphrates) and its water was dried up[153] in order to prepare the path of the kings from the east. 13 I saw three evil spirits like frogs come out from the dinosaur's mouth and out from the sea creature's mouth and out from the false prophet's mouth, 14 because they are demons' spirits that are able to do miraculous signs. They went out to the rulers all over the world to gather them together for battle on the great day of God, the ruler of all.

15 ("Listen, I am coming unexpectedly like a thief![154] It'll be good for the ones who are alert and with their clothes ready so they won't have to walk around naked and exposed.")

16 Then the demons' spirits gathered the rulers at the place called Harmagedon in Hebrew.[155]

17 The seventh messenger poured out his bowl onto the air and a loud voice came out from the throne in the temple saying, "It's now done." 18 Then there was lightning and thunder and other sounds, and a terrible earthquake, such as had not happened since people had been on the earth. Such a powerful earthquake, so massive![156] 19 The huge city split into three parts and cities collapsed all over the world. The famous city of Bavel (Babylon) the Great was remembered in God's sight that she should be given her share of the results of his severe anger.[157] 20 All the islands vanished, and mountains could no longer be seen.[158] 21 Then thirty kilogram hailstones

The immoral woman drunk with blood

17:1 Then one of the seven messengers holding the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come, I'll show you the judgement of the famous prostitute sitting on many waters,[160] 2 that the rulers of the earth committed sexual immorality with, and those living on the earth were intoxicated from the wine of her sexual immorality."[161]

3 Then in the spirit I was carried away to a wilderness and I saw a woman sitting on a wild animal that was scarlet and had anti-God names written all over it. It had seven heads and ten horns.[162] 4 The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stone and pearls. In her hand she was holding a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of her sexual immorality,[163] 5 and a name was written on her forehead. The name was a mystery: 'Bavel (Babylon) the Great, the Mother of Prostitutes and the Abominations of the Earth.' 6 I noticed that the woman was drunk from the blood of the believers and from the blood of the witnesses of Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus). and, having seen her, I wondered a great wonder.

When I saw her, I was incredibly amazed 7 but the messenger asked me, "Why are you astounded? The rider on the white horse

11 Then I saw heaven open up[193] and wow, a white horse and its rider was named 'Faithful and true', and he judges and battles righteously.[194] 12 His eyes shone like a flame of fire,[195] and he had many crowns on his head, with a name written (on him? See v16) that no one knows except himself, 13 He's wearing a robe that's been dipped in blood, and his name is 'God's message', 14 and the armies in heaven were following him on white horses, all dressed in fine linen—white and clean. 15 A sharp sword comes out of his mouth so he can strike the nations and he'll rule them with an iron scepter.[196] He'll destroy his enemies like trampling grapes in a wine-pressing pit, with the resultant juice representing the anger of the all-powerful God's fury.[197] 16 He has a name written on his robe and on his thigh: 'King of kings and master of masters'.

17 Then I saw a messenger standing in the sun, and he yelled out in a loud voice to all the birds flying high in the sky, "Come and join God's big feast, 18 so you can eat the flesh of kings and commanders and warriors and horses and their riders, and the flesh of others, both free and slaves, lowly

19 Then I saw the wild animal and the worldly kings and their armies who had joined together to battle against the rider of the white horse and his army. 20 But then the animal was captured along with the false prophet who had done miracles in front of him. (That was how he'd deceived the ones who had accepted the mark of the animal and the ones worshipping his image.)[199] The two of them were thrown alive into the lake of fire burning with sulfur. 21 The rest were killed by the rider of the white horse with the sword coming out from his mouth, and all the birds were gorged with the flesh of the dead.

The thousand years

20:1 Then I saw a messenger coming down from heaven holding the key to the pit as well as a heavy chain 2 and he seized the dinosaur, that ancient snake,[200] who is the devil and Satan, and chained him up for a thousand years. 3 The messenger threw him into the pit and shut it and sealed it over him so that he wouldn't deceive the nations anymore until the thousand years were ended. After that, it will be necessary for him to be released for a short time.

4 I saw thrones with people sitting on them and they were given the responsibility of judging both the souls of the ones who'd been beheaded for believing Yeshua's (Jesus'; Grk. Yesus') and God's message, and those who didn't worship the animal or his image and didn't receive the mark on their hand or forehead. And they lived and reigned with the messiah for a thousand years.[201] 5 The rest of the dead didn't come back to life until the thousand years were up. That's the first resurrection. 6 Those who have a part in that first resurrection will be blessed and (considered?) holy. The second death has no power over them—they'll be priests of God and of the messiah and they'll reign with

Satan's defeat

7 At the end of the thousand years, Satan will be released from his prison, 8 and he'll go out to deceive the nations right around the earth[202]—Gog and Magog[203]—to gather them together to battle. They'll be too many to count like the sand on the beach. 9 They'll cover the whole world and surround the camp of the believers and the beloved city, but fire will come down from heaven and burn them up. 10 Then the devil who'd deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur where the animal and the false prophet were, and they'll be tormented day and night throughout the ages.

The dead are revived for judgement

11 Then I saw a large white throne with someone sitting on it.[204] Earth and sky fled from his presence but they couldn't find where to go. 12 Then I saw the dead—both prominent people and the lowly—standing before the throne, and some books were opened and then another book was opened—the book of life.[205] Then the dead were judged from the things written in the books according to what they'd done. 13 The sea gave up the dead in it, and 'death' and Haidais gave up the dead in them, and then every one of them was judged according to what they'd done.
14 Then 'death' and Haidais were thrown into the lake of fire. That's the second death—the lake of fire, 15 and anyone whose name couldn't be found in the book of life was thrown into that lake of fire.

The new sky and the new earth

21:1 Then I saw a new sky and a new earth,[206] because the first sky and the first earth had gone away, and there weren't any more oceans. 2 Then I saw the chosen city[207]—the new Yerushalem (Jerusalem)—coming down out of heaven from God,[208] prepared like a bride all dressed up for her husband,[209] 3 and I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Listen, God will now live here with the people—he'll live with them and they'll be his people, and God himself will be with them.[210] 4 He'll wipe all their tears away from their eyes,[211] and there won't be any more death or grieving, or crying or pain.[212] They won't even exist any longer—the original world is gone."

5 Then the one sitting on the throne said, "Listen, I'm remaking everything." And he told me, "Write that down because these words are trustworthy and true." 6 And he told me, "Everything's done. I'm the A and the Z—the beginning and the end. I'll freely give from the spring of the water of life to anyone who's thirsty.[213] 7 All of those who conquer will inherit those things, and I will be their God and they will be my children.[214] 8 But as for the cowardly and the unbelieving, the abhorred and murderers, fornicators and sorcerers, and idolaters and all liars, their place will be in the lake burning with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

The new Yerushalem

9 Then one of the seven messengers holding the seven bowls full of the seven last disasters came and spoke to me, saying, "Come, I'll show you the bride—the lamb's wife." 10 Then in the spirit, he carried me away to a very large, high mountain[215] and he showed me the HOLY city, Yerushalem (Jerusalem), coming down from God out of heaven, 11 shining like God's splendour—its bril-

15 The messenger speaking to me had a golden measuring rod so that he could measure the city and its gates and wall.[217] 16 The city was laid out square with the length equalling the width. Using the rod, the messenger measured the city at 2.2km on each edge, with the length, width, and height all being equal. 17 He also measured the wall to be 70m using normal measurements.[218] 18 The wall was made of green jasper stone[219] and the city itself was pure gold but as clear as glass. 19 The foundations of the city's wall were adorned with many different kinds of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, 20 the fifth sardonyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst. 21 The twelve gates were twelve pearls—each one of the gates individually was from one pearl—and the city street was pure gold—transparent like glass.

city.[221] 25 It'll never get dark there, so the city gates will never need to be closed[222] 26 and they will bring the prestige and the honour of the nations into it. 27 However, nothing that's 'unclean' will ever enter the city,[223] and nor will those with shameful or dishonest behaviour—only those whose names have been written in the lamb's book of life.

22:1 Then he showed me the river of the water of life that sparkled like crystal. It flowed out of the throne of God and the lamb.[224] 2 In the middle of its path and in the middle of the river reaching from one side to the other was the tree of life[225] that produces twelve fruits—a different one each month—and the leaves of the tree are for healing the nations[226] 3 and there won't be a curse any more.[227]

The throne for God and the lamb will be in the city, and his slaves will be serving him. 4 They will see his face, and his name on their foreheads. 5 Nights won't exist any more and they won't need the light from a lamp or from the sun because Yahweh God will illuminate them,[228] and they will reign through the ages.[229]

Readers' Version

he told me, Hey, no! I'm a fellow slave of you and of your brothers the prophets and of the ones who obey the words of this book. Worship God."
10 Then he continued, "Don't seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, because the time is near. 11 Those who disobey God can continue to do so and those who are filthy can continue to be so, but those who obey God should continue to obey, and those who are godly should continue to be godly."[230]
12 (Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus) says,) "Listen, I'm coming back soon, bringing my reward[231] to distribute to each person according to their behaviour.[232] 13 I'm the A and the Z[233]—the first and the last[234]—the beginning and the end.
14 "Blessed are those who are washing their robes so that they'll have authority over the tree of life[235] (MEANING???) and so that they'll be able to enter the city through the gates. 15 On the contrary, those outside the city are dogs and sorcerers, the sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and everyone loving and exhibiting dishonesty.
16 "I, Yeshua, have sent my messenger to explain these things to you concerning the churches. I am both David's source and his descendant[236]—the bright morning star."
17 The spirit and the bride say, 'Come.'
Anyone who hears this should also say, 'Come.'
Anyone who's thirsty to live forever should come. Anyone who wants it can take the water that gives life free of charge.[237]
18 I am testifying to every- Farewell one who hears the prophecies written in this document: If anyone adds to these words, then God will add to them the disasters written in this document.[238] 19 And if anyone takes away any of this prophetic document, then God will take away their share in the tree of life and in the holy city that's written about in this document.

20 The one who testified about these things says: 'Yes, I'm coming quickly.'

May it be so. Come, master Yeshua (Jesus; Grk. Yesus).

21 May the grace from the master Yeshua be with the godly people.
