John's Second Letter

1 I, a ruler in the church, send word to the noble sister who is of God's selection, and to her children, for whom I have true love; and I, but all who have knowledge of what is true; ² Because of this true knowledge which is in us, and will be with us for ever: ³ May grace, mercy, and peace be from God the Father, Jesus Christ the Son of Father, in all true love. ⁴ It gave me great joy to see some of your children walking in the way, even as we were by the Father. ⁵ And now, my sister, I request you, not new law, but the law which from that first, that we have love for one another. ⁶ And love is
