The First Book of Moses, Commonly Called Genesis

1 In the beginning God created heaven, and earth.<sup>2</sup> And the earth was void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep; and the spirit of God moved over the waters.<sup>3</sup> And God said: Be light made. And light was made.<sup>4</sup> And God saw that it was good; and he divided the light from the darkness.<sup>5</sup> And he called the light Day, and the darkness Night; and there was evening and morning one day.<sup>6</sup> And God said: Let there be a firmament made amidst the waters: and let it divide the waters from the waters.<sup>7</sup> And God made a firmament, and divided the waters that were under the firmament, from those that were above the firmament, and it was so called the firmament, Heaven; and evening were day. 8 And God called the first day the second day. 9 God also said: Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together into one place: and let the dry land appear. And it was so done. 10 And God called the dry land, Earth; and the gathering together of the waters, he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. 11 And he said: Let the earth bring forth the green herb, and may the tree yielding its fruit in itself upon the earth. And it was so done. 12 And the earth brought forth the green herb, and such as yieldeth seed according to its kind, and the tree that beareth fruit, having seed each one according to its kind. And

 Aaron the priest to take up the censers that lie in the burning, and to scatter the fire of one side and the other: because they are sanctified <sup>38</sup> In the deaths of the sinners: and let him beat them into plates, and fasten them to the altar, because incense hath been offered in them to the Lord, and they are sanctified, that the children of Israel may see them for a sign and a memorial.

<sup>39</sup> Then Eleazar the priest took the brazen censers, wherein they had offered, whom the burning fire had devoured, and beat them into plates, fastening them to the altar: <sup>40</sup> That the children of Israel might have for the time to come wherewith they should be admonished, that no stranger or any one that is not of seed of Aaron should come near to offer incense to the Lord, lest he should suffer as Core suffered, and all his congregation, according as the Lord spoke to Moses. <sup>41</sup> The following day all the multitude of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron, saying: You have killed the people of the Lord. <sup>42</sup> And when there arose a sedition, and the tumult increased, <sup>43</sup> Moses and Aaron fled to the tabernacle of the covenant. And when they were gone into it, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the Lord appeared. <sup>44</sup> And the Lord said to Moses: <sup>45</sup> Get you out from the midst of this multitude, this moment will I destroy them. And as they were lying on the ground, <sup>46</sup> Moses said to Aaron: Take the censer, and putting fire in it from the altar, put incense upon it, and go quickly to the people to pray for them: for already wrath is gone out from the Lord, and the plague rageth. <sup>47</sup> When Aaron had done this, and had run to the midst of the multitude which the burning fire was now destroying, he offered the incense: <sup>48</sup> And standing between the dead and the living, he prayed for the people, and the plague ceased. <sup>49</sup> And the number of them that were slain was fourteen thousand and seven hundred men, besides them that had perished in the sedition of Core. <sup>50</sup> And Aaron returned to Moses to the door of the tabernacle of the covenant after the destruction was over.
