First Thessalonians

1 This letter comes from Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians who belong to God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. May you have grace and peace! <sup>2</sup> We are always thanking God for all of you, never forgetting you in our prayers. <sup>3</sup> We remember you before our God and Father—how you put your trust in him into practice, how you work hard in love, and how you patiently wait in the hope of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup> Brothers and sisters, we already know that you are loved by God and are very special to him. <sup>5</sup> The good news we brought to you wasn't just words, but had power too, for the Holy Spirit completely convinced you. In the same way you know what kind of men we are since we demonstrated to you that we were working for your benefit.

6 You were imitating us and the Lord when you received the message, for despite your troubles you experienced the joy the Holy Spirit gives. <sup>7</sup> So you have become an example to all the believers in Macedonia and Greece! <sup>1</sup> <sup>8</sup> You have broadcast the Lord's message, not only in Macedonia and Greece, but everywhere people have heard of your trust in God—so there's no need for us to tell anybody about it! <sup>9</sup> In fact they talk about what a marvelous welcome you gave us, how you abandoned idols and turned to God, how you serve the true and living God, <sup>10</sup> as you look forward to the coming of his Son from heaven—Jesus, the one God raised from the dead, who will save us from the judgment to come.

2 Brothers and sisters, you yourselves know what our visit meant to you, and that it wasn't wasted! <sup>2</sup> You'll recall that after having had much trouble and bad treatment at Philippi, with the help of God we still dared to share God's good news with you, despite the opposition we faced. <sup>3</sup> For what we speak about isn't deceptive, or worthless, or fraudulent.

4 On the contrary, we have God's approval for what we say—he's entrusted us with sharing the good news. We don't set out to please people, but God. He's the one who judges our motives. <sup>5</sup> As you know, we've never used flattering words. Nor were we covering up some greedy, selfish attitude—as God is our witness! <sup>6</sup> We weren't trying to win anybody's praise—not from you, nor anyone else. We could have become a “burden” to you as messengers of Christ, <sup>7</sup> but instead we acted kindly among you, like a mother caring for her own children. <sup>8</sup> We loved you so much that we were delighted to share with you not just God's good news, but also our very own selves, because you had become so dear to us.
