First Timothy

1 This letter comes from Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus appointed by the authority of God our Savior and Christ Jesus, who is our hope. ² I'm sending it to you Timothy. You are my true son ¹ because of your trust in God. May you have grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 When I was on my way to Macedonia I asked you to stay behind in Ephesus, so that you could speak with those who teach false ideas and insist that they stop. ⁴ They shouldn't concern themselves with legends and never-ending obsessions about ancestry. ² Such ideas only lead to pointless debates, instead of understanding God as we trust in him.

5 The reason why I insist on this is so we may have love that comes from a pure heart, from a clear conscience and sincere trust in God.

6 Some have deviated from these things, and have ended up talking nonsense. ⁷ They have ambitions to be teachers of the law, but they have no idea what they're talking about or what they're so boldly announcing!

8 Now we recognize that the law is good if people use it properly. ⁹ We also know that law isn't laid down for those who do what is right, but for those who are rebellious and ignore the law. It applies to people who have no use for God, who are sinful, who treat nothing as holy and are completely irreligious. It's for those who kill fathers and mothers, for murderers, ¹⁰ for those who are sexually immoral, homosexuals, kidnappers, liars, false witnesses—and anything else that's opposed to good teachings ¹¹ as determined by the wonderful good news of our blessed God which he entrusted to me.

12 I'm just so grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord for the strength he's given me, and that he considered me trustworthy, appointing me to work for him. ¹³ Even though I used to insult God, and persecuted and abused God's people, God showed me mercy because of my ignorance and unbelief. ¹⁴ Our Lord in his grace filled me to overflowing with trust and love that comes from Christ Jesus.

²+ 1:4. Or "endless genealogies"—a situation that is not clear from the context.
