The First Book of Samuel Otherwise Called The First Book of the Kings

1 There was a man of one of the two Ramathaim Zophim, of mount Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah the sonne of Ieroham, the sonne of Elihu, the sonne of Tohu, the sonne of Zuph, an Ephrathite: <sup>2</sup> And he had two wiues: the name of one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. <sup>3</sup> And this man went vp out of his citie euery yeere, to worship and to sacrifice vnto the Lord of hostes in Shiloh, where were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas Priests of the Lord. <sup>4</sup> And on a day, when Elkanah sacrificed, he gaue to Peninnah his wife and to all her sonnes and daughters portions, <sup>5</sup> But vnto Hannah he gaue a worthy portion: for he loued Hannah, and the Lord had made her barren. <sup>6</sup> And her aduersarie vexed her sore, forasmuch as she vpbraided her, because the Lord had made her barren. <sup>7</sup> (And so did he yeere by yeere) and as oft as she went vp to the house of the Lord, thus she vexed her, that she wept and did not eate. <sup>8</sup> Then sayd Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thine heart troubled? am not I better to thee then ten sonnes? <sup>9</sup> So Hannah rose vp after that they had eaten and drunke in Shiloh (and Eli the Priest sate vpon a stoole by one of the postes of the Temple of the Lord) <sup>10</sup> And she was troubled in her minde, and prayed vnto the Lord, and wept sore: <sup>11</sup> Also she vowed a vowe, and sayd, O Lord of hostes, if thou wilt looke on the trouble of thine handmaide, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaide, but giue vnto thine handmaide a manchild, then I will giue him vnto the Lord all the dayes of his life, and there shall no razor come vpon his head. <sup>12</sup> And as she continued praying before the Lord, Eli marked her mouth. <sup>13</sup> For Hannah spake in her heart: her lips did moue onely, but her voyce was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had bene drunken. <sup>14</sup> And Eli sayde vnto her, Howe long wilt thou be drunken? Put away thy drunkenesse from thee. <sup>15</sup> Then Hannah answered and sayd, Nay my lord, but I am a woman troubled in spirit: I haue drunke neither wine nor strong drinke, but haue powred out my soule before the Lord. <sup>16</sup> Count not thine handmaide for a wicked woman: for of the abundance of my complaint and my grieffe haue I spoken hitherto. <sup>17</sup> Then Eli answered, and sayd, Go in peace, and the God of Israel graunt thy petition that thou hast asked of him. <sup>18</sup> She sayd againe, Let thine handmayd finde grace in thy sight: so the woman went her way, and did eate, and looked no more sad. <sup>19</sup> Then they rose vp early, and worshipped before the Lord, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah. Nowe Elkanah knewe Hannah his wife, and the Lord remembered her. <sup>20</sup> For in processe of time Hannah conceiued, and bare a sonne, and she called his name Samuel, Because, said she, I haue asked him of the Lord. <sup>21</sup> So the man Elkanah and all his house went vp to offer vnto the Lord the yeerely sacrifice, and his vowe: <sup>22</sup> But Hannah went not vp: for she sayd vnto her husband, I will tarie vntill the childe be weined, then I will bring him that hee may appeare before the Lord, and there abide for euer. <sup>23</sup> And Elkanah her husband sayd vnto her, Do what seemeth thee best: tarie vntill thou hast weined him: only the Lord accomplish his word. So the woman abode, and gaue her sonne sucke vntill she weined him. <sup>24</sup> And when she had weined him, she tooke him with her with three bullockes and an Ephah of floure and a bottell of wine, and brought him vnto the house of the Lord in Shiloh, and the childe was yong. <sup>25</sup> And they slewe a bullocke, and brought the childe to Eli. <sup>26</sup> And she said, Oh my Lord, as thy soule liueth, my lord, I am the woman that stode with thee here praying vnto the Lord. <sup>27</sup> I prayed for this childe, and the Lord hath giuen me my desire which I asked of him. <sup>28</sup> Therefore also I haue giuen him vnto the Lord: as long as he liueth hee shalbe giuen vnto the Lord: and he worshipped the Lord there.

2And Hannah prayed, and said, Mine heart reioyceth in the Lord, mine horne is exalted in the Lord: my mouth is enlarged ouer mine enemies, because I reioyce in thy saluation. <sup>2</sup> There is none holy as the Lord: yea, there is none besides thee, and there is no god like our God. <sup>3</sup> Speake no more presumptuously: let not arrogancie come out of your mouth: for the Lord is a God of knowledge, and by him enterprises are established. <sup>4</sup> The bow and the mightie men are broken, and the weake haue girded themselues with strength. <sup>5</sup> They that were full, are hired foorth for bread, and the hungrie are no more hired, so that the barren hath borne seuen: and shee that had many children, is feeble. <sup>6</sup> The Lord killeth and maketh aliue: bringeth downe to the graue and raiseth vp. <sup>7</sup> The Lord maketh poore and maketh rich: bringeth lowe, and exalteth. <sup>8</sup> He raiseth vp ye poore out of the dust, and lifteth vp the begger from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherite the seate of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lordes, and he hath set the world vpon them. <sup>9</sup> Hee will keepe the feete of his Saintes, and the wicked shall keepe silence in darkenes: for in his owne might shall no man be strong. <sup>10</sup> The Lordes aduersaries shall be destroyed, and out of heauen shall he thunder vpon them: the Lord shall iudge the endes of the worlde, and shall giue power vnto his King, and exalt the horne of his Anoynted. <sup>11</sup> And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house, and the childe did minister vnto the Lord before Eli the Priest. <sup>12</sup> Now the sonnes of Eli were wicked men, and knewe not the Lord. <sup>13</sup> For the Priestes custome toward the people was this: when any man offered sacrifice, the Priestes boy came, while the flesh was seething, and a fleshhooke with three teeth, in his hand, <sup>14</sup> And thrust it into the kettle, or into the caldron, or into the panne, or into the potte: all that the fleshhooke brought vp, the Priest tooke for himselfe: thus they did vnto all the Israelites, that came thither to Shiloh. <sup>15</sup> Yea, before they burnt the fat, the priests boy came and saide to the man that offered, Giue me flesh to rost for the priest: for he wil not haue sodden flesh of thee, but rawe. <sup>16</sup> And if any man saide vnto him, Let them burne the fatte according to the custome, then take as much as thine heart desireth: then hee would answer, No, but thou shalt giue it nowe: and if thou wilt not, I will take it by force. <sup>17</sup> Therefore the sinne of the yong men was very great before the Lord: for men abhorred the offering of the Lord. <sup>18</sup> Now Samuel being a yong childe ministred before the Lord, girded with a linen Ephod. <sup>19</sup> And his mother made him a litle coat, and brought it to him from yeere to yeere, when she came vp with her husband, to offer the yerely sacrifice. <sup>20</sup> And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The Lord giue thee seede of this woman, for the petition that she asked of the Lord: and they departed vnto their place. <sup>21</sup> And the Lord visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sonnes, and two daughters. And the childe Samuel grewe before the Lord. <sup>22</sup> So Eli was very olde, and heard all that his sonnes did vnto all Israel, and howe they laye with the women that assembled at the doore of the tabernacle of the Congregation. <sup>23</sup> And hee saide vnto them, Why doe ye such things? for of all this people I heare euill reportes of you. <sup>24</sup> Do no more, my sonnes, for it is no good report that I heare, which is, that ye make the Lords people to trespasse. <sup>25</sup> If one man sinne against another, the Iudge shall iudge it: but if a man sinne against the Lord, who will pleade for him? Notwithstanding they obeyed not the voyce of their father, because the Lord would slay them. <sup>26</sup> (Nowe the childe Samuel profited and grewe, and was in fauour both with the Lord and also with men) <sup>27</sup> And there came a man of God vnto Eli, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Did not I plainly appere vnto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaohs house? <sup>28</sup> And I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my Priest, to offer vpon mine altar, and to burne incense, and to weare an Ephod before me, and I gaue vnto the house of thy father all the offrings made by fire of the children of Israel. <sup>29</sup> Wherefore haue you kicked against my sacrifice and mine offering, which I commanded in my Tabernacle, and honourest thy children aboue mee, to make your selues fatte of the first fruites of all the offerings of Israel my people? <sup>30</sup> Wherefore the Lord God of Israel saith, I saide, that thine house and the house of thy father should walke before mee for euer: but nowe the Lord saith, It shall not be so: for them that honour me, I will honour, and they that despise me, shall be despised. <sup>31</sup> Beholde, the dayes come, that I will cut off thine arme, and the arme of thy fathers house, that there shall not be an olde man in thine house. <sup>32</sup> And thou shalt see thine enemie in the habitation of the Lord in all thinges wherewith God shall blesse Israel, and there shall not be an olde man in thine house for euer. <sup>33</sup> Neuerthelesse, I will not destroy euery one of thine from mine altar, to make thine eyes to faile, and to make thine heart sorowfull: and all ye multitude of thine house shall die when they be men. <sup>34</sup> And this shalbe a signe vnto thee, that shall come vpon thy two sonnes Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die both. <sup>35</sup> And I will stirre me vp a faithfull Priest, that shall do according to mine heart and according to my minde: and I wil build him a sure house, and he shall walke before mine Anointed for euer. <sup>36</sup> And all that are left in thine house, shall come and bowe downe to him for a piece of siluer and a morsell of bread, and shall say, Appoint me, I pray thee, to one of the priestes offices, that I may eate a morsell of bread.

3Nowe the childe Samuel ministred vnto the Lord before Eli: and the word of the Lord was precious in those dayes: for there was no manifest vision. <sup>2</sup> And at that time, as Eli lay in his place, his eyes began to waxe dimme that he could not see. <sup>3</sup> And yet the light of God went out, Samuel slept in the temple of the Lord, where the Arke of God was. <sup>4</sup> Then the Lord called Samuel: and hee said, Here I am. <sup>5</sup> And he ranne vnto Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou calledst me. But he said, I called thee not: goe againe and sleepe. And he went and slept. <sup>6</sup> And the Lord called once againe, Samuel. And Samuel arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here: for thou diddest call me. And he answered, I called thee not, my sonne: go againe and sleepe. <sup>7</sup> Thus did Samuel, before hee knewe the Lord, and before the word of the Lord was reueiled vnto him. <sup>8</sup> And the Lord called Samuel againe the thirde time: and he arose, and went to Eli, and said, I am here: for thou hast called me. Then Eli perceiued that the Lord had called the childe. <sup>9</sup> Therefore Eli saide vnto Samuel, Goe and sleepe: and if he call thee, then say, Speake Lord, for thy seruant heareth. So Samuel went, and slept in his place. <sup>10</sup> And the Lord came, and stode, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speake, for thy seruant heareth. <sup>11</sup> Then the Lord said to Samuel, Beholde, I wil doe a thing in Israel, whereof whosoouer shall heare, his two eares shall tingle. <sup>12</sup> In that day I will raise vp against Eli all things which I haue spoken concerning his house: when I begin, I will also make an ende. <sup>13</sup> And I haue tolde him that I will iudge his house for euer, for the iniquitie which hee knoweth, because his sonnes ranne into a slaunder, and he stayed them not. <sup>14</sup> Nowe therefore I haue sworne vnto the house of Eli, that the wickednes of Elis house, shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offring for euer. <sup>15</sup> Afterward Samuel slept vntil the morning, and opened the doores of the house of the Lord, and Samuel feared to shewe Eli the vision. <sup>16</sup> Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel my sonne. And he answered, Here I am. <sup>17</sup> Then he said, What is it, that the Lord said vnto thee? I pray thee, hide it not from mee. God doe so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me, of all that he said vnto thee. <sup>18</sup> So Samuel tolde him euery whit, and hid nothing from him. Then hee said, It is the Lord: let him do what seemeth him good. <sup>19</sup> And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him, and let none of his words fall to the ground. <sup>20</sup> And all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew that faithfull Samuel was the Lordes Prophet. <sup>21</sup> And the Lord appeared againe in Shiloh: for the Lord reueiled himselfe to Samuel in Shiloh by his word.

4And Samuel spake vnto all Israel: and Israel went out against the Philistims to battel and pitched beside Eben-ezer: and the Philistims pitched in Apek. <sup>2</sup> And the Philistims put themselues in aray against Israel: and when they ioyned the battell, Israel was smitten downe before the Philistims: who slewe of the armie in the field about foure thousand men. <sup>3</sup> So when the people were come into the campe, the Elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the Lord smitten vs this day before ye Philistims? let vs bring the Arke of the couenant of the Lord out of Shiloh vnto vs, that when it commeth among vs, it may saue vs out of the hande of our enemies. <sup>4</sup> Then the people sent to Shiloh, and brought from thence the Arke of the couenant of the Lord of hostes, who dwelleth betweene the Cherubims: and there were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni, and Phinehas, with the Arke of the couenant of God. <sup>5</sup> And when the Arke of the couenant of the Lord came into the hoste, all Israel shouted a mightie shoute, so that the earth rang againe. <sup>6</sup> And when the Philistims heard the noyse of the shoute, they said, What meaneth the sound of this mightie shoute in the host of the Ebrewes? and they vnderstoode, that the Arke of the Lord was come into the hoste. <sup>7</sup> And the Philistims were afraide, and saide, God is come into the hoste: therefore saide they, Wo vnto vs: for it hath not bene so heretofore. <sup>8</sup> Wo vnto vs, who shall deliuer vs out of the hande of these mightie Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wildernes. <sup>9</sup> Be strong and play the men, O Philistims, that ye be not seruants vnto the Ebrewes, as they haue serued you: be valiant therefore, and fight. <sup>10</sup> And the Philistims fought, and Israel was smitten downe, and fled euery man into his tent: and there was an exceeding great slaughter: for there fell of Israel thirtie thousand footemen. <sup>11</sup> And the Arke of God was taken, and the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas died. <sup>12</sup> And there ranne a man of Benjamin out of the armie, and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes rent, and earth vpon his head. <sup>13</sup> And when hee came, loe, Eli sate vpon a seate by the wayside, wayting: for his heart feared for the Arke of God and when the man came into the citie to tell it, all the citie cried out. <sup>14</sup> And when Eli heard the noyse of the crying, he sayd, What meaneth this noyse of the tumult? and the man came in hastily, and tolde Eli. <sup>15</sup> (Nowe Eli was fourescore and eightene yeere olde, and his eyes were dimme that hee could not see) <sup>16</sup> And the man sayd vnto Eli, I came from the armie, and I fled this day out of the hoste: and he sayd, What thing is done, my sonne? <sup>17</sup> Then the messenger answered and sayd, Israel is fled before the Philistims, and there hath bene also a great slaughter among the people: and moreouer thy two sonnes, Hophni and Phinehas are dead, and the Arke of God is taken. <sup>18</sup> And when he had made mention of the Arke of God, Eli fell from his seate backward by the side of the gate, and his necke was broken, and he dyed: for he was an olde man and heauie: and he had iudged Israel fourtie yeeres. <sup>19</sup> And his daughter in lawe Phinehas wife was with childe neere her trauell: and when she heard the report that the Arke of God was taken, and that her father in lawe and her husband were dead, she bowed her selfe, and trauailed: for her paines came vpon her. <sup>20</sup> And about the time of her death, the women that stode about her, sayd vnto her, Feare not: for thou hast borne a sonne: but she answered not, nor regarded it. <sup>21</sup> And she named the childe Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel, because the Arke of God was taken, and because of her father in lawe and her husband. <sup>22</sup> She sayde againe, The glory is departed from Israel: for the Arke of God is taken.

5Then the Philistims tooke the Arke of God and caried it from Eben-ezer vnto Ashdod, <sup>2</sup> Euen the Philistims tooke ye Arke of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. <sup>3</sup> And when they of Ashdod rose the next day in the morning, beholde, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the ground before the Arke of the Lord, and they tooke vp Dagon, and set him in his place againe. <sup>4</sup> Also they rose vp earely in the morning the next day, and beholde, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the ground before the Arke of the Lord, and the head of Dagon and the two palmes of his hands were cut off vpon the thresholde: onely the stumpe of Dagon was left to him. <sup>5</sup> Therefore the Priests of Dagon, and all that come into Dagon's house tread not on the thresholde of Dagon in Ashdod, vnto this day. <sup>6</sup> But the hand of the Lord was heauie vpon them of Ashdod, and destroyed them, and smote them with the emerods, both Ashdod, and the coastes thereof. <sup>7</sup> And when the men of Ashdod sawe this, they sayd, Let not the Arke of the God of Israel abide with vs: for his hand is sore vpon vs and vpon Dagon our god. <sup>8</sup> They sent therefore and gathered all the princes of the Philistims vnto them, and sayde, What shall we doe with the Arke of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the Arke of the God of Israel be caried about vnto Gath: and they caried the Arke of the God of Israel about. <sup>9</sup> And when they had caried it about, the hand of the Lord was against the citie with a very great destruction, and he smote the men of the citie both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret partes. <sup>10</sup> Therefore they sent the Arke of God to Ekron: and assoone as the Arke of God came to Ekron, the Ekronites cryed out, saying, They haue brought the Arke of the God of Israel to vs to slay vs and our people. <sup>11</sup> Therefore they sent, and gathered together all the princes of the Philistims and sayd, Sende away the Arke of the God of Israel, and let it returne to his owne place, that it slay vs not and our people: for there was a destruction and death throughout all the citie, and the hand of God was very sore there. <sup>12</sup> And the men that dyed not, were smitten with the emerods: and the cry of the citie went vp to heauen.

6So the Arke of the Lord was in the countrey of the Philistims seuen moneths. <sup>2</sup> And the Philistims called the priests and the soothsayers, saying, What shall we doe with the Arke of the Lord? tell vs wherewith we shall send it home againe. <sup>3</sup> And they sayd, If you send away the Arke of the God of Israel, send it not away emptie, but giue vnto it a sinne offering: then shall ye be healed, and it shall be knowen to you, why his hand departeth not from you. <sup>4</sup> Then sayd they, What shalbe the sinne offring, which we shall giue vnto it? And they answered, Fiue golden emerods and fiue golden mise, according to the number of the princes of the Philistims: for one plague was on you all, and on your princes. <sup>5</sup> Wherefore ye shall make the similitudes of your emerods, and the similitudes of your mise that destroy the land: so ye shall giue glory vnto the God of Israel, that he may take his hand from you, and from your gods, and from your land. <sup>6</sup> Wherefore then should ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when he wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let them goe, and they departed? <sup>7</sup> Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch kine, on whome there hath come no yoke: and tye the kine to the cart, and bring the calves home from them. <sup>8</sup> Then take the Arke of the Lord, and set it vpon the cart, and put the iewels of gold which ye giue it for a sinne offering in a coffer by the side thereof, and send it away, that it may go. <sup>9</sup> And take heede, if it goe vp by the way of his owne coast to Beth-shemesh, it is he that did vs this great euill: but if not, we shall know then, that it is not his hand that smote vs, but it was a chance that happened vs. <sup>10</sup> And the men did so: for they tooke two kine that gaue milke, and tied them to the cart, and shut the calves at home. <sup>11</sup> So they set the Arke of the Lord vpon the cart, and the coffer with the mise of golde, and with the similitudes of their emerods. <sup>12</sup> And the kine went the streight way to Beth-shemesh, and kept one path and lowed as they went, and turned neither to the right hand nor to the left: also the Princes of the Philistims went after them, vnto the borders of Beth-shemesh. <sup>13</sup> Nowe they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheate haruest in the valley, and they lift vp their eyes, and spied the Arke, and reioyced when they sawe it. <sup>14</sup> And the cart came into the felde of Ioshua a Beth-shemite, and stood still there. There was also a great stone, and they claue the wood of the cart, and offered the kine for a burnt offering vnto the Lord. <sup>15</sup> And the Leuites tooke downe the Arke of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the iewels of golde were, and put them on the great stone, and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offering, and sacrificed sacrifices that same day vnto the Lord. <sup>16</sup> And when the fiue Princes of ye Philistims had seene it, they returned to Ekron the same day. <sup>17</sup> So these are the golden emerods, which the Philistims gaue for a sinne offering to the Lord: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Askelon one, for Gath one, and for Ekron one, <sup>18</sup> And golden mise, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistims, belonging to the fiue princes, both of walled townes, and of townes vnwalled, vnto the great stone of Abel, whereon they set the Arke of the Lord: which stone remaineth vnto this day in the felde of Ioshua the Beth-shemite. <sup>19</sup> And hee smote of the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked in the Arke of the Lord: he slew euen among the people fiftie thousand men and three score and ten men. and the people lamented, because the Lord had slaine the people with so great a slaughter. <sup>20</sup> Wherefore the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy Lord God? and to whom shall he go from vs? <sup>21</sup> And they sent messengers to the inhabitans of Kiriath-earim, saying, The Philistims haue brought againe the Arke of the Lord: come ye downe and take it vp to you.

<sup>7</sup>Then the men of Kiriath-earim came, and tooke vp the Arke of the Lord, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill: and they sanctified Eleazar his sonne, to keepe the Arke of the Lord. <sup>2</sup> (For while the Arke abode in Kiriath-earim, the time was long, for it was twentie yeeres) and al the house of Israel lamented after ye Lord. <sup>3</sup> Then Samuel spake vnto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye be come againe vnto the Lord with all your heart, put away the strange gods from among you, and Ashtaroth, and direct your hearts vnto the Lord, and serue him only, and he shall deliuer you out of the hand of ye Philistims. <sup>4</sup> Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Ashtaroth, and serued the Lord onely. <sup>5</sup> And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you vnto the Lord. <sup>6</sup> And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drewe water and powred it out before the Lord, and fasted the same day, and sayd there, We haue sinned against the Lord. And Samuel iudged the children of Israel in Mizpeh. <sup>7</sup> When the Philistims heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the princes of the Philistims went vp against Israel: and when the children of Israel heard that, they were afraide of the Philistims. <sup>8</sup> And the children of Israel sayd to Samuel, Cease not to crie vnto the Lord our God for vs, that hee may saue vs out of the hand of the Philistims. <sup>9</sup> Then Samuel tooke a sucking lambe, and offered it all together for a burnt offering vnto the Lord, and Samuel cryed vnto the Lord for Israel, and the Lord heard him. <sup>10</sup> And as Samuel offered the burnt offering, the Philistims came to fight against Israel: but the Lord thundred with a great thunder that day vpon the Philistims, and scattered them: so they were slaine before Israel. <sup>11</sup> And the men of Israel went from Mizpeh and pursued the Philistims, and smote them vntill they came vnder Beth-car. <sup>12</sup> Then Samuel tooke a stone and pitched it betweene Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name thereof, Eben-ezer, and he sayd, Hitherto hath the Lord holpen vs. <sup>13</sup> So the Philistims were brought vnder, and they came no more againe into the coastes of Israel: and the hand of the Lord was against the Philistims all the dayes of Samuel. <sup>14</sup> Also the cities which the Philistims had taken from Israel, were restored to Israel, from Ekron euen to Gath: and Israel deliuered the coastes of the same out of the hands of the Philistims: and there was peace betweene Israel and the Amorites. <sup>15</sup> And Samuel iudged Israel all the dayes of his life, <sup>16</sup> And went about yeere by yeere to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and iudged Israel in all those places. <sup>17</sup> Afterward hee returned to Ramah: for there was his house, and there he iudged Israel: also he built an altar there vnto the Lord.

8When Samuel was nowe become olde, he made his sonnes Iudges ouer Israel. <sup>2</sup> (And the name of his eldest sonne was Ioel, and the name of the second Abiah) euen Iudges in Beer-sheba. <sup>3</sup> And his sonnes walked not in his wayes, but turned aside after lucre, and tooke rewards, and peruerted the iudgement. <sup>4</sup> Wherefore all the Elders of Israel gathered them together, and came to Samuel vnto Ramah, <sup>5</sup> And said vnto him, Beholde, thou art olde, and thy sonnes walke not in thy wayes: make vs nowe a King to iudge vs like all nations. <sup>6</sup> But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Giue vs a King to iudge vs: and Samuel prayed vnto the Lord. <sup>7</sup> And the Lord said vnto Samuel, Heare the voyce of the people in all that they shall say vnto thee: for they haue not cast thee away, but they haue cast me away, that I should not reigne ouer the. <sup>8</sup> As they haue euer done since I brought them out of Egypt euen vnto this day, (and haue forsaken me, and serued other gods) euen so doe they vnto thee. <sup>9</sup> Nowe therefore hearken vnto their voyce: howbeit yet testifie vnto them, and shewe them the maner of ye King that shall reigne ouer them. <sup>10</sup> So Samuel told all the wordes of the Lord vnto the people that asked a King of him. <sup>11</sup> And he saide, This shall be the maner of the King that shall reigne ouer you: he will take your sonnes, and appoint them to his charets, and to be his horsemen, and some shall runne before his charet. <sup>12</sup> Also he will make them his captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer fifties, and to eare his ground, and to reape his haruest, and to make instruments of warre, and the thinges that serue for his charets. <sup>13</sup> He will also take your daughters and make them apoticaries, and cookes, and bakers. <sup>14</sup> And he will take your fieldes, and your vineyardes, and your best Oliue trees, and giue them to his seruants. <sup>15</sup> And he will take the tenth of your seede, and of your vineyards, and giue it to his Eunuches, and to his seruants. <sup>16</sup> And he will take your men seruants, and your maide seruants, and the chiefe of your yong men, and your asses, and put them to his worke. <sup>17</sup> He will take the tenth of your sheepe, and ye shall be his seruants. <sup>18</sup> And ye shall crie out at that day, because of your King, whom ye haue chosen you, and the Lord will not heare you at that day. <sup>19</sup> But the people would not heare the voyce of Samuel, but did say, Nay, but there shall be a King ouer vs. <sup>20</sup> And we also will be like all other nations, and our King shall iudge vs, and goe out before vs, and fight our battels. <sup>21</sup> Therefore when Samuel heard all ye wordes of ye people, he rehearsed the in ye eares of ye Lord. <sup>22</sup> And the Lord saide to Samuel, Hearken vnto their voyce, and make them a King. And Samuel said vnto the men of Israel, Goe euery man vnto his citie.

<sup>9</sup>There was nowe a man of Beniamin, mightie in power named Kish, the sonne of Abiel, the sonne of Zeror, the sonne of Bechorath, the sonne of Aphiah, the sonne of a man of Iemini. <sup>2</sup> And he had a sonne called Saul, a goodly yong man and a faire: so that among the children of Israel there was none goodlier then he: from the shoulders vpwarde he was hier then any of the people. <sup>3</sup> And the asses of Kish Sauls father were lost: therefore Kish said to Saul his sonne, Take nowe one of the seruants with thee, and arise, goe, and seeke the asses. <sup>4</sup> So he passed through mount Ephraim, and went through the lande of Shalishah, but they found them not. Then they went through the land of Shalim, and there they were not: he went also through ye land of Iemini, but they found the not. <sup>5</sup> When they came to the lande of Zuph, Saul saide vnto his seruant that was with him, Come and let vs returne, lest my father leaue the care of asses, and take thought for vs. <sup>6</sup> And he said vnto him, Behold nowe, in this citie is a man of God, and he is an honorable man: all that he saith commeth to passe: let vs nowe goe thither, if so be that he can shewe vs what way we may goe. <sup>7</sup> Then saide Saul to his seruant, Well then, let vs goe: but what shall we bring vnto the man? For the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is no present to bring to the man of God: what haue we? <sup>8</sup> And the seruant answered Saul againe, and said, Beholde, I haue founde about me the fourth part of a shekell of siluer: that will I giue the man of God, to tell vs our way. <sup>9</sup> (Beforetime in Israel when a man went to seeke an answere of God, thus he spake, Come, and let vs goe to the Seer: for he that is called nowe a Prophet, was in the olde time called a Seer) <sup>10</sup> Then saide Saul to his seruant, Well saide, come, let vs goe: so they went into the citie where the man of God was. <sup>11</sup> And as they were going vp the hie way to the citie, they found maydes that came out to draw water, and said vnto them, Is there here a Seer? <sup>12</sup> And they answered them, and said, Yea, loe, he is before you: make haste nowe, for he came this day to the citie: for there is an offering of the people this day in the hie place. <sup>13</sup> When ye shall come into the citie, ye shall finde him straightway yet he come vp to the hie place to eate: for the people will not eate vntill he come, because he will blesse the sacrifice: and then eate they that be bidden to the feast: nowe therefore goe vp: for euen now shall ye find him. <sup>14</sup> Then they went vp into the citie, and when they were come into the middes of the citie, Samuel came out against them, to goe vp to the hie place. <sup>15</sup> But the Lord had reueiled to Samuel secretly (a day before Saul came) saying, <sup>16</sup> To morow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Beniamin: him shalt thou anoint to be gouernour ouer my people Israel, that he may saue my people out of the hands of the Philistims: for I haue looked vpon my people, and their crie is come vnto me. <sup>17</sup> When Samuel therefore sawe Saul, the Lord answered him, See, this is the man whom I spake to thee of, he shall rule my people. <sup>18</sup> Then went Saul to Samuel in the middes of the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the Seers house is. <sup>19</sup> And Samuel answered Saul, and saide, I am the Seer: goe vp before me vnto the hie place: for ye shall eate with me to day. and to morowe I will let thee goe, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart. <sup>20</sup> And as for thine asses that were lost three dayes ago, care not for them: for they are founde. and on whom is set all the desire of Israel? is it not vpon thee and on all thy fathers house? <sup>21</sup> But Saul answered, and said, Am not I the sonne of Iemini of the smallest tribe of Israel? and my familie is the least of all the families of the tribe of Beniamin. Wherefore then speakest thou so to me? <sup>22</sup> And Samuel tooke Saul and his seruant, and brought them into the chamber, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden: which were about thirtie persons. <sup>23</sup> And Samuel saide vnto the cooke, Bring foorth the portion which I gaue thee, and whereof I said vnto thee, Keepe it with thee. <sup>24</sup> And the cooke tooke vp the shoulder, and that which was vpon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Beholde, that which is left, set it before thee and eate: for hitherto hath it bene kept for thee, saying, Also I haue called the people. So Saul did eate with Samuel that day. <sup>25</sup> And when they were come downe from the hie place into the citie, he communed with Saul vpon the top of the house. <sup>26</sup> And when they arose early about ye spring of the day, Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Vp, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out, both he, and Samuel. <sup>27</sup> And when they were come downe to the ende of the citie, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the seruant goe before vs, (and he went) but stand thou still nowe, that I may shewe thee the worde of God.

10 Then Samuel tooke a viole of oyle and powred it vpon his head, and kissed him, and saide, Hath not the Lord anointed thee to be gouernour ouer his inheritance? <sup>2</sup> When thou shalt depart from me this day, thou shalt finde two men by Rahels sepulchre in the border of Beniamin, euen at Zelzah, and they will say vnto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seeke, are founde: and lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and soroweth for you, saying, What shall I doe for my sonne? <sup>3</sup> Then shalt thou go forth from thence and shalt come to the plaine of Tabor, and there shall meete thee three men going vp to God to Bethel: one carying three kiddes, and an other carying three loaves of bread, and another carying a bottle of wine: <sup>4</sup> And they will aske thee if all be well, and will giue thee the two loaves of bread, which thou shalt receiue of their handes. <sup>5</sup> After that shalt thou come to the hill of God, where is the garisons of the Philistims: and when thou art come thither to the citie, thou shalt meete a companie of Prophets comming downe from the hie place with a viole, and a tymbrell, and a pipe, and an harpe before them, and they shall prophecie. <sup>6</sup> Then the Spirit of the Lord will come vpon thee, and thou shalt prophecie with them, and shalt be turned into another man. <sup>7</sup> Therefore when these signes shall come vnto to thee, doe as occasion shall serue: for God is with thee. <sup>8</sup> And thou shalt goe downe before me to Gilgal: and I also will come downe vnto thee to offer burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace. Tary for me seuen dayes, till I come to thee and shewe thee what thou shalt doe. <sup>9</sup> And when he had turned his backe to goe from Samuel, God gaue him another heart: and all those tokens came to passe that same day. <sup>10</sup> And when they came thither to the hill, beholde, the companie of Prophets meete him, and the Spirit of God came vpon him, and he prophecied among them. <sup>11</sup> Therefore all the people that knewe him before, when they saw that he prophecied among the Prophets, saide eche to other, What is come vnto the sonne of Kish? is Saul also among the Prophets? <sup>12</sup> And one of the same place answered, and said, But who is their father? Therefore it was a prouerbe, Is Saul also among the Prophets? <sup>13</sup> And when he had made an ende of prophecying, he came to the hie place. <sup>14</sup> And Sauls vncler saide vnto him, and to his seruant, Whither went ye? And he saide, To seeke the asses: and when we sawe that they were no where, we came to Samuel. <sup>15</sup> And Sauls vncler saide, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said vnto you. <sup>16</sup> Then Saul saide to his vncler, He tolde vs plainely that the asses were founde: but concerning the kingdome whereof Samuel spake, tolde he him not. <sup>17</sup> And Samuel assembled the people vnto the Lord in Mizpeh, <sup>18</sup> And he saide vnto the children of Israel, Thus saith ye Lord God of Israel, I haue brought Israel out of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the handes of all kingdomes that troubled you. <sup>19</sup> But ye haue this day cast away your God, who onely deliuereth you out of all your aduersities and tribulations: and ye said vnto him, No, but appoint a King ouer vs. Nowe therefore stand ye before the Lord according to your tribes, and according to your thousands. <sup>20</sup> And when Samuel had gathered together all the tribes of Israel, the tribe of Beniamin was taken. <sup>21</sup> Afterwarde he assembled the tribe of Beniamin according to their families, and the familie of Matri was taken. So Saul the sonne of Kish was taken, and when they sought him, he coulede not be found. <sup>22</sup> Therefore they asked the Lord againe, if that man should yet come thither. And the Lord answered, Beholde, he hath hid himselfe among the stuffe. <sup>23</sup> And they ranne, and brought him thence: and when he stode among the people, he was hier then any of the people from the shoulders vpwarde. <sup>24</sup> And Samuel saide to all the people, See ye not him, whom the Lord hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? and all the people shouted and saide, God saue the King. <sup>25</sup> Then Samuel tolde the people the duetie of the kingdome, and wrote it in a booke, and laied it vp before the Lord, and Samuel sent all the people away euery man to his house. <sup>26</sup> Saul also went home to Gibeah, and there followed him a bande of men, whose heart God had touched, <sup>27</sup> But the wicked men saide, Howe shall hee saue vs? So they despised him, and brought him no presents: but he held his tongue.

<sup>11</sup> Then Nahash the Ammonite came vp, and besieged Iabesh Gilead: and all the men of Iabesh saide vnto Nahash, Make a couenant with vs, and we will be thy seruants. <sup>2</sup> And Nahash ye Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a couenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eies, and bring that shame vpon all Israel. <sup>3</sup> To whome the Elders of Iabesh said, Giue vs seuen daies respet, that we may sende messengers vnto all the coastes of Israel: and then if no man deliuer vs, we will come out to thee. <sup>4</sup> Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and tolde these tidings in the eares of the people: and all the people lift vp their voices and wept. <sup>5</sup> And behold, Saul came following the cattell out of the field, and Saul saide, What aileth this people, that they weepe? And they tolde him the tidings of the men of Iabesh. <sup>6</sup> Then the Spirit of God came vpon Saul, when he heard those tidings, and he was exceeding angrie, <sup>7</sup> And tooke a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coastes of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoever commeth not forth after Saul, and after Samuel, so shall his oxen be serued. And the feare of the Lord fell on the people, and they came out with one consent. <sup>8</sup> And when he nombred them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundreth thousande men: and the men of Iudah thirtie thousand. <sup>9</sup> Then they saide vnto the messengers that came, So say vnto the men of Iabesh Gilead, To morowe by then the sunne be hote, ye shall haue helpe. And the messengers came and shewed it to the men of Iabesh, which were glad. <sup>10</sup> Therefore the men of Iabesh sayde, To morowe we will come out vnto you, and yee shall doe with vs all that pleaseth you. <sup>11</sup> And when the morowe was come, Saul put the people in three bandes, and they came in vpon the hoste in the morning watche, and slewe the Ammonites vntill the heate of the day: and they that remained, were scattered, so that two of them were not left together. <sup>12</sup> Then the people said vnto Samuel, Who is he that saide, Shall Saul reigne ouer vs? bring those men that we may slaie them. <sup>13</sup> But Saul said, There shall no man die this day: for to day the Lord hath saued Israel. <sup>14</sup> Then saide Samuel vnto ye people, Come, that we may goe to Gilgal, and renue the kingdome there. <sup>15</sup> So all the people went to Gilgal, and made Saul King there before the Lord in Gilgal: and there they offered peace offerings before the Lord: and there Saul and all the men of Israel reioyced exceedingly.

12 Samuel then said vnto all Israel, Behold, I haue hearkened vnto your voyce in all that yee sayde vnto mee, and haue appoynted a King ouer you. <sup>2</sup> Now therefore behold, your King walketh before you, and I am old and graie headed, and beholde, my sonnes are with you: and I haue walked before you from my childehood vnto this day. <sup>3</sup> Beholde, here I am: beare recorde of me before the Lord and before his Anointed. Whose oxen haue I taken? or whose asse haue I taken? or whome haue I done wrong to? or whome haue I hurt? or of whose hande haue I receiued any bribe, to blinde mine eyes therewith, and I will restore it you? <sup>4</sup> Then they sayde, Thou hast done vs no wrong, nor hast hurt vs, neither hast thou taken ought of any mans hand. <sup>5</sup> And he saide vnto them, The Lord is witnesse against you, and his Anointed is witnesse this day, that yee haue founde nought in mine handes. And they answered, He is witnesse. <sup>6</sup> Then Samuel sayde vnto the people, It is the Lord that made Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers out of the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup> Nowe therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before the Lord according to all the righteousnesse of the Lord, which he shewed to you and to your fathers. <sup>8</sup> After that Iaakob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried vnto the Lord, then the Lord sent Moses and Aaron which brought your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place. <sup>9</sup> And when they forgate the Lord their God, he solde them into the hand of Sisera captaine of the hoste of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistims, and into the hande of the king of Moab, and they fought against them. <sup>10</sup> And they cried vnto the Lord, and saide, We haue sinned, because we haue forsaken the Lord, and haue serued Baalim and Ashtaroth. Nowe therefore deliuer vs out of the handes of our enemies, and we will serue thee. <sup>11</sup> Therefore the Lord sent Ierubbaal and Bedan and Iphtaph, and Samuel, and deliuered you out of the handes of your enemies on euery side, and yee dwelled safe. <sup>12</sup> Notwithstanding when you sawe, that Nahash the King of the children of Ammon came against you, ye sayde vnto me, No, but a King shall reigne ouer vs: when yet the Lord your God was your King. <sup>13</sup> Nowe therefore beholde the King whome yee haue chosen, and whome yee haue desired: loe therefore, the Lord hath set a King ouer you. <sup>14</sup> If ye wil feare the Lord and serue him, and heare his voyce, and not disobey the worde of the Lord, both yee, and the King that reigneth ouer you, shall follow the Lord your God. <sup>15</sup> But if yee will not obey the voyce of the Lord, but disobey the Lordes mouth, then shall the hand of the Lord be vpon you, and on your fathers. <sup>16</sup> Nowe also stande and see this great thing which the Lord will doe before your eyes. <sup>17</sup> Is it not nowe wheat haruest? I wil call vnto the Lord, and he shall send thunder and raine, that yee may perceiue and see, howe that your wickednesse is great, which ye haue done in the sight of the Lord in asking you a King. <sup>18</sup> Then Samuel called vnto the Lord, and the Lord sent thunder and raine the same day: and all the people feared the Lord and Samuel exceedingly. <sup>19</sup> And all the people said vnto Samuel, Pray for thy seruaunts vnto the Lord thy God, that we die not: for we haue sinned in asking vs a King, beside all our other sinnes. <sup>20</sup> And Samuel said vnto the people, Feare not. (ye haue indeede done all this wickednesse, yet depart not from following the Lord, but serue the Lord with all your heart, <sup>21</sup> Neither turne yee backe: for that shoulde be after vaine things which cannot profite you, nor deliuer you, for they are but vanitie) <sup>22</sup> For the Lord will not forsake his people for his great Names sake: because it hath pleased the Lord to make you his people. <sup>23</sup> Moreouer God forbid, that I should sinne against the Lord, and cease praying for you, but I will shewe you the good and right way. <sup>24</sup> Therefore feare you the Lord, and serue him in the trueth with all your hearts, and consider howe great things he hath done for you. <sup>25</sup> But if ye doe wickedly, ye shall perish, both yee, and your King.

<sup>13</sup> Saul nowe had beene King one yeere, and he reigned two yeeres ouer Israel. <sup>2</sup> Then Saul chose him three thousand of Israel: and two thousande were with Saul in Michmash, and in mount Beth-el, and a thousande were with Ionathan in Gibeah of Beniamin: and the rest of the people he sent euery one to his tent. <sup>3</sup> And Ionathan smote the garison of the Philistims, that was in the hill: and it came to the Philistims eares: and Saul blewe the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Heare, O yee Ebrewes. <sup>4</sup> And al Israel heard say, Saul hath destroyed a garison of the Philistims: wherefore Israel was had in abomination with the Philistims: and the people gathered together after Saul to Gilgal. <sup>5</sup> The Philistims also gathered themselues together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand charets, and sixe thousande horsemen: for the people was like the sand which is by the seas side in multitude, and came vp, and pitched in Michmash Eastward from Beth-auen. <sup>6</sup> And when the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were in distresse) the people hid themselues in caues, and in holdes, and in rockes, and in towres, and in pittes. <sup>7</sup> And some of the Ebrewes went ouer Iorden vnto the lande of Gad and Gilead: and Saul was yet in Gilgal, and al the people for feare followed him. <sup>8</sup> And he taried seuen daies, according vnto the time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal, therefore the people were scattered from him. <sup>9</sup> And Saul sayde, Bring a burnt offering to me and peace offrings: and he offered a burnt offering. <sup>10</sup> And assoone as hee had made an ende of offering the burnt offering, beholde, Samuel came: and Saul went forth to meete him, to salute him. <sup>11</sup> And Samuel saide, What hast thou done? Then Saul saide, Because I sawe that the people was scattred from me, and that thou camest not within the daies appoynted, and that the Philistims gathered themselues together to Michmash, <sup>12</sup> Therefore said I, The Philistims will come downe nowe vpon me to Gilgal, and I haue not made supplication vnto the Lord. I was bolde therefore and offred a burnt offering. <sup>13</sup> And Samuel saide to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of the Lord thy God, which he commanded thee: for the Lord had nowe stablished thy kingdome vpon Israel for euer. <sup>14</sup> But nowe thy kingdom shall not continue: the Lord hath sought him a man after his owne heart, and the Lord hath commanded him to be gouernour ouer his people, because thou hast not kept that which the Lord had commanded thee.

<sup>15</sup> And Samuel arose, and gate him vp from Gilgal in Gibeah of Benjamin: and Saul nombred the people that were found with him, about sixe hundreth men. <sup>16</sup> And Saul and Ionathan his sonne, and the people that were found with them, had their abiding in Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistims pitched in Michmash. <sup>17</sup> And there came out of the hoste of the Philistims three bandes to destroie, one bande turned vnto the way of Ophrah vnto the lande of Shual, <sup>18</sup> And another bad turned toward the way to Beth-horon, and the third band turned toward the way of the coast that looketh toward the valley of Zeboim, towarde the wildernesse. <sup>19</sup> Then there was no smith founde throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistims sayde, Lest the Ebrewes make them swordes or speares. <sup>20</sup> Wherefore all ye Israelites went downe to the Philistims, to sharpen euery man his share, his mattocke, and his axe, and his weeding hooke. <sup>21</sup> Yet they had a file for the shares, and for the mattockes, and for the picke forkes, and for the axes, and for to sharpen the goades. <sup>22</sup> So whe the day of battell was come, there was neither sworde nor speare founde in the handes of any of the people that were with Saul and with Ionathan: but onely with Saul and Ionathan his sonne was there founde. <sup>23</sup> And the garison of the Philistims came out to the passage of Michmash.

<sup>14</sup> Then on a day Ionathan the sonne of Saul sayde vnto the yong man that bare his armour, Come and let vs goe ouer towarde the Philistims garison, that is yonder on the other side, but he tolde not his father. <sup>2</sup> And Saul taried in the border of Gibeah vnder a pomegranate tree, which was in Migron, and the people that were with him, were about sixe hundreth men. <sup>3</sup> And Ahiah the sonne of Ahitub, Ichabods brother, the sonne of Phinehas, the sonne of Eli, was the Lordes Priest in Shiloh, and ware an Ephod: and the people knewe not that Ionathan was gone. <sup>4</sup> Nowe in the way whereby Ionathan sought to go ouer to the Philistims garison, there was a sharpe rocke on the one side, and a sharpe rocke on the other side: the name of the one was called Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. <sup>5</sup> The one rocke stretched from the North towarde Michmash, and the other was from the South toward Gibeah. <sup>6</sup> And Ionathan saide to the yong man that bare his armour, Come, and let vs goe ouer vnto the garison of these vncircumcised: it may be that the Lord will worke with vs: for it is not hard to the Lord to saue with many, or with fewe. <sup>7</sup> And he that bare his armour, saide vnto him, Doe all that is in thine heart: goe where it pleaseth thee: beholde, I am with thee as thine heart desireth. <sup>8</sup> Then said Ionathan, Beholde, we goe ouer vnto those men, and will shewe our selues vnto them. <sup>9</sup> If they say on this wise to vs, Tarie vntill we come to you, then we will stand still in our place, and not goe vp to them. <sup>10</sup> But if they say, Come vp vnto vs, then we will

goe vp: for the Lord hath deliuered them into our hande: and this shall be a signe vnto vs. <sup>11</sup> So they both shewed themselues vnto the garison of the Philistims: and the Philistims said, See, the Ebrewes come out of the holes wherein they had hid themselues. <sup>12</sup> And the men of the garison answered Ionathan, and his armour bearer, and said, Come vp to vs: for we will shewe you a thing. Then Ionathan said vnto his armour bearer, Come vp after me: for the Lord hath deliuered them into the hand of Israel. <sup>13</sup> So Ionathan went vp vpon his hands and vpon his feete, and his armour bearer after him: and some fell before Ionathan, and his armour bearer slewe others after him. <sup>14</sup> So the first slaughter which Ionathan and his armour bearer made, was about twentie men, as it were within halfe an acre of land which two oxen plowe. <sup>15</sup> And there was a feare in the hoste, and in the field, and among all the people: the garison also, and they that went out to spoyle, were afraid themselues: and the earth trembled: for it was stricken with feare by God. <sup>16</sup> Then the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin sawe: and beholde, the multitude was discomfited, and smitten as they went. <sup>17</sup> Therefore saide Saul vnto the people that were with him, Search nowe and see, who is gone from vs. And when they had nombred, beholde, Ionathan and his armour bearer were not there. <sup>18</sup> And Saul said vnto Ahiah, Bring hither the Arke of God (for the Arke of God was at that time with the children of Israel) <sup>19</sup> And while Saul talked vnto the Priest, the noyse that was in the hoste of the Philistims, spred farther abroade, and encreased: therefore Saul said vnto the Priest, Withdraw thine hand. <sup>20</sup> And Saul was assembled with all the people that were with him, and they came to the battell: and behold, euery mans sworde was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture. <sup>21</sup> Moreouer, the Ebrewes that were with the Philistims beforetime, and were come with them into all partes of the hoste, euen they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Ionathan. <sup>22</sup> Also all the men of Israel which had hid themselues in mount Ephraim, when they heard, that the Philistims were fled, they followed after them in the battell. <sup>23</sup> And so the Lord saued Israel that day: and the battell continued vnto Beth-auen. <sup>24</sup> And at that time the men of Israel were pressed with hunger: for Saul charged the people with an othe, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth foode till night, that I may be auenged of mine enemies: so none of the people tasted any sustenance. <sup>25</sup> And all they of the land came to a wood, where hony lay vpon the ground. <sup>26</sup> And the people came into the wood, and beholde, the hony dropped, and no man mooued his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the othe. <sup>27</sup> But Ionathan heard not when his father charged the people with the othe: wherefore he put forth the ende of the rod that was in his hand, and dipt it in an hony combe, and put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes receiued sight. <sup>28</sup> Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father made the people to sweare, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth sustenance this day: and the people were faint. <sup>29</sup> Then said Ionathan, My father hath troubled the land: see nowe howe mine eyes are made cleare, because I haue tasted a litle of this honie: <sup>30</sup> Howe much more, if the people had eaten to day of the spoyle of their enemies which they found? for had there not bene nowe a greater slaughter among the Philistims? <sup>31</sup> And they smote the Philistims that day, from Michmash to Aiialon: and the people were exceeding faint. <sup>32</sup> So the people turned to the spoile, and tooke sheepe, and oxen, and calues, and slewe them on the ground, and the people did eate them with the blood. <sup>33</sup> Then men tolde Saul, saying, Beholde, the people sinne against the Lord, in that they eate with the blood. And he saide, Ye haue trespassed: roule a great stone vnto me this day. <sup>34</sup> Againe Saul said, Goe abroade among the people, and bid them bring me euery man his oxe, and euery man his sheepe, and slay them here, and eate and sinne not against the Lord in eating with the blood. And ye people brought euery man his oxe in his hand that night, and slew them there. <sup>35</sup> Then Saul made an altar vnto the Lord, and that was the first altar that he made vnto the Lord. <sup>36</sup> And Saul saide, Let vs goe downe after the Philistims by night, and spoyle them vntill the morning shine, and let vs not leaue a man of them. And they saide, Doe whatsoever thou thinkest best. Then saide the Priest, Let vs drawe neere hither vnto God. <sup>37</sup> So Saul asked of God, saying, Shall I goe downe after ye Philistims? wilt thou deliuer them into the hands of Israel? But he answered him not at that time. <sup>38</sup> And Saul said, All ye chiefe of the people, come ye hither, and knowe, and see by whom this sinne is done this day. <sup>39</sup> For as the Lord liueth, which saueth Israel, though it be done by Ionathan my sonne, he shall dye the death. But none of all the people answered him. <sup>40</sup> Then he saide vnto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Ionathan my sonne will be on the other side. And the people saide vnto Saul, Doe what thou thinkest best. <sup>41</sup> Then Saul said vnto the Lord God of Israel, Giue a perfitte lot. And Ionathan and Saul were taken, but the people escaped. <sup>42</sup> And Saul saide, Cast lot betweene me and Ionathan my sonne. And Ionathan was taken. <sup>43</sup> Then Saul said to Ionathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Ionathan tolde him, and said, I tasted a litle hony with the ende of the rod, that was in mine hand, and loe, I must die. <sup>44</sup> Againe Saul answered, God doe so and more also, vnlesse thou die the death, Ionathan. <sup>45</sup> And the people said vnto Saul, Shall Ionathan die, who hath so mightily deliuered Israel? God forbid. As the Lord liueth, there shall not one heare of his head fall to the ground: for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people deliuered Ionathan that he dyed not. <sup>46</sup> Then Saul came vp from the Philistims: and the Philistims went to their owne place. <sup>47</sup> So Saul helde the kingdome ouer Israel, and fought against all his enemies on euery side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the Kings of Zobah, and against the Philistims: and whithersoever he went, he handled them as wicked men. <sup>48</sup> He gathered also an hoste and smote Amalek, and deliuered Israel out of the handes of them that spoyled them. <sup>49</sup> Nowe the sonnes of Saul were Ionathan, and Ishui, and Malchishua: and the names of his two daughters, the elder was called Merab, and the yonger was named Michal. <sup>50</sup> And the name of Sauls wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of his chiefe captaine was Abner the sonne of Ner, Sauls vncler. <sup>51</sup> And Kish was Sauls father: and Ner the father of Abner was the sonne of Abiel. <sup>52</sup> And there was sore warre against the Philistims all the dayes of Saul: and whomsoever Saul sawe to be a strong man, and meete for the warre, he tooke him vnto him.

15 Afterward Samuel said vnto Saul, The Lord sent me to anoint thee King ouer his people, ouer Israel: nowe therefore obey the voyce of the wordes of the Lord. <sup>2</sup> Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I remember what Amalek did to Israel, howe they laide waite for the in ye way, as they came vp from Egypt. <sup>3</sup> Nowe therefore goe, and sinite Amalek, and destroy ye all that pertyneth vnto them, and haue no compassion on them, but slay both man and woman, both infant and suckling, both oxe, and sheepe, both camell, and asse. <sup>4</sup> And Saul assembled ye people, and nombred them in Telaim, two hundreth thousande footemen, and ten thousand men of Iudah. <sup>5</sup> And Saul came to a citie of Amalek, and set watch at the riuier. <sup>6</sup> And Saul said vnto the Kenites, Goe, depart, and get you downe from among the Amalekites, least I destroy you with them: for ye shewed mercie to all the children of Israel, when they came vp from Egypt: and the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. <sup>7</sup> So Saul smote the Amalekites from Hauilah as thou comdest to Shur, that is before Egypt, <sup>8</sup> And tooke Agag the King of the Amalekites aliue, and destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. <sup>9</sup> But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the better sheepe, and the oxen, and the fat beasts, and the lambes, and all that was good, and they would not destroy them: but euery thing that was vile and nought worth, that they destroyed. <sup>10</sup> Then came the worde of the Lord vnto Samuel, saying, <sup>11</sup> It repenteth me that I haue made Saul King: for he is turned from me, and hath not performed my commandements. And Samuel was mooued, and cryed vnto the Lord all night. <sup>12</sup> And when Samuel arose early to meete Saul in the morning, one tolde Samuel, saying, Saul is gone to Carmel: and beholde, he hath made him there a place, from whence he returned, and departed, and is gone downe to Gilgal. <sup>13</sup> Then Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said vnto him. Blessed be thou of the Lord, I haue fulfilled the commandement of the Lord. <sup>14</sup> But Samuel saide, What meaneth then the bleating of the sheepe in mine eares, and the lowing of the oxen which I heare? <sup>15</sup> And Saul answered, They haue brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheepe, and of the oxen to sacrifice them vnto the Lord thy God, and the remnant haue we destroyed. <sup>16</sup> Againe Samuel saide to Saul, Let me tell thee what the Lord hath saide to me this night. And he said vnto him, Say on. <sup>17</sup> Then Samuel saide, When thou wast litle in thine owne sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel? for the Lord anointed thee King ouer Israel. <sup>18</sup> And the Lord sent thee on a iourney, and saide, Goe, and destroy those sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them, vntill thou destroy them. <sup>19</sup> Nowe wherefore hast thou not obeyed the voyce of the Lord, but hast turned to the pray, and hast done wickedly in the sight of the Lord? <sup>20</sup> And Saul saide vnto Samuel, Yea, I haue obeyed the voyce of the Lord, and haue gone the way which the Lord sent me, and haue brought Agag the King of Amalek, and haue destroyed the Amalekites. <sup>21</sup> But the people tooke of the spoyle, sheepe, and oxen, and the chiefest of the things which shoulde haue bene destroyed, to offer vnto the Lord thy God in Gilgal. <sup>22</sup> And Samuel saide, Hath the Lord as great pleasure in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as when the voyce of the Lord is obeyed? beholde, to obey is better then sacrifice, and to hearken is better then the fatte of rammes. <sup>23</sup> For rebellion is as the sinne of withcraft, and transgression is wickednesse and idolatrie. Because thou hast cast away the worde of the Lord, therefore hee hath cast away thee from being King. <sup>24</sup> Then Saul sayde vnto Samuel, I haue sinned: for I haue transgressed the commandement of the Lord, and thy wordes, because I feared the people, and obeyed their voyce. <sup>25</sup> Nowe therefore I pray thee, take away my sinne, and turne againe with mee, that I may worship the Lord. <sup>26</sup> But Samuel saide vnto Saul, I will not returne with thee: for thou hast cast away the word of the Lord, and the Lord hath cast away thee, that thou shalt not be King ouer Israel. <sup>27</sup> And as Samuel turned himselfe to goe away, he caught the lappe of his coate, and it rent. <sup>28</sup> Then Samuel saide vnto him, The Lord hath rent the kingdome of Israel from thee this day, and hath giuen it to thy neighbour, that is better then thou. <sup>29</sup> For in deede the strength of Israel will not lye nor repent: for hee is not a man that hee should repent. <sup>30</sup> Then he saide, I haue sinned: but honour mee, I pray thee, before the Elders of my people, and before Israel, and turne againe with mee, that I may worship the Lord thy God. <sup>31</sup> So Samuel turned againe, and followed Saul: and Saul worshipped the Lord. <sup>32</sup> Then saide Samuel, Bring yee hither to me Agag ye King of the Amalekites: and Agag came vnto him pleasantly, and Agag saide, Truly the bitterness of death is passed. <sup>33</sup> And Samuel sayde, As thy sworde hath made women childlesse, so shall thy mother bee childlesse among other women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the Lord in Gilgal. <sup>34</sup> So Samuel departed to Ramah, and Saul went vp to his house to Gibeah of Saul. <sup>35</sup> And Samuel came no more to see Saul vntill the day of his death: but Samuel mourned for Saul, and the Lord repented that hee made Saul King ouer Israel.

16The Lord then saide vnto Samuel, Howe long wilt thou mourne for Saul, seeing I haue cast him away from reigning ouer Israel? fill thine horne with oyle and come, I will sende thee to Ishai the Bethlehemite: for I haue prouided mee a King among his sonnes. <sup>2</sup> And Samuel sayde, Howe can I goe? for if Saul shall heare it, he will kill me. Then the Lord answered, Take an heifer with thee, and say, I am come to doe sacrifice to the Lord. <sup>3</sup> And call Ishai to the sacrifice, and I will shewe thee what thou shalt doe, and thou shalt anoynt vnto me him whom I name vnto thee. <sup>4</sup> So Samuel did that the Lord bade him, and came to Beth-lehem, and the Elders of the towne were astonied at his comming, and sayd, Comcest thou peaceablie? <sup>5</sup> And he answered, Yea: I am come to doe sacrifice vnto the Lord: sanctifie your selues, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Ishai and his sonnes, and called them to the sacrifice. <sup>6</sup> And when they were come, hee looked on Eliab, and saide, Surely the Lordes Anointed is before him. <sup>7</sup> But the Lord said vnto Samuel, Looke not on his countenance, nor on the height of his stature, because I haue refused him: for God seeth not as man seeth: for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord beholdeth the heart.

<sup>8</sup> Then Ishai called Abinadab, and made him come before Samuel. And he saide, Neither hath the Lord chosen this. <sup>9</sup> Then Ishai made Shammah come. And he said, Neither yet hath the Lord chosen him. <sup>10</sup> Againe Ishai made his seue sonnes to come before Samuel: and Samuel saide vnto Ishai, The Lord hath chosen none of these. <sup>11</sup> Finally, Samuel said vnto Ishai, Are there no more children but these? And hee sayde, There remaineth yet a litle one behinde, that keepeth the sheepe. Then Samuel saide vnto Ishai, Sende and set him: for we will not sit downe, till he be come hither. <sup>12</sup> And he sent, and brought him in: and he was ruddie, and of a good countenance, and comely visage. And the Lord saide, Arise, and anoynt him: for this is he. <sup>13</sup>

Then Samuel tooke the horne of oyle, and anoynted him in the middes of his brethren. And the Spirit of the Lord came vpon Dauid, from that day forwarde: then Samuel rose vp, and went to Ramah. <sup>14</sup> But the Spirite of the Lord departed from Saul, and an euill spirite sent of the Lord vexed him. <sup>15</sup>

And Sauls seruants said vnto him, Beholde nowe, the euill spirite of God vexeth thee. <sup>16</sup> Let our Lord therefore command thy seruants, that are before thee, to seeke a man that is a cunning plaier vpon the harpe: that when the euil spirit of God commeth vpon thee, hee may play with his hand, and thou maiest be eased. <sup>17</sup> Saul then saide vnto his seruantes, Prouide me a man, I pray you, that can play well, and bring him to me. <sup>18</sup> Then answered one of his seruautes, and sayde, Beholde, I haue seene a sonne of Ishai, a Bethlehemite, that can plaie, and is strong, valiant and a man of warre and wise in matters, and a comely person, and the Lord is with him. <sup>19</sup> Wherefore Saul sent messengers vnto Ishai, and said, Send me Dauid thy sonne which is with the sheepe. <sup>20</sup> And Ishai tooke an asse laden with breade and a flagon of wine and a kidde, and sent them by the hand of Dauid his sonne vnto Saul. <sup>21</sup> And Dauid came to Saul, and stode before him: and he loued him verie well, and he was his armour bearer. <sup>22</sup> And Saul sent to

Ishai, saying, Let Dauid nowe remaine with me: for he hath found fauour in my sight. <sup>23</sup> And so when the euil spirite of God came vpon Saul, Dauid tooke an harpe and plaied with his hande, and Saul was refreshed, and was eased: for the euill spirit departed from him.

<sup>17</sup> Nowe the Philistims gathered their armies to battell, and came together to Shochoh, which is in Iudah, and pitched betweene Shochoh and Azekah, in the coast of Dammim. <sup>2</sup> And Saul, and the men of Israel assembled, and pitched in the valley of Elah, and put themselues in battell araiie to meete the

Philistims. <sup>3</sup> And the Philistims stode on a mountaine on the one side, and Israel stode on a mountaine on the other side: so a valley was betweene them. <sup>4</sup> Then came a man betweene them both out of the tents of the Philistims, named Goliath of Gath: his height was sixe cubites and an hande breadth, <sup>5</sup> And had an helmet of brasse vpon his head, and a brigandine

vpon him: and the weight of his brigandine was fiue thousand shekels of brasse. <sup>6</sup> And he had bootes of brasse vpon his legs, and a shield of brasse vpon his shoulders. <sup>7</sup> And the shaft of his speare was like a weauers beame: and his speare head weyed sixe hundreth shekels of yron: and one bearing a shielde went before him. <sup>8</sup> And he stode, and cried against the hoste of Israel, and saide vnto them, Why are yee come to set your battell in aray? am not I a Philistim, and you seruants to Saul? chuse you a man for you, and let him come downe to me. <sup>9</sup> If he be able to fight with me, and kill me, then wil we be your seruants: but if I ouercome him, and kill him, then shall yee be our seruants, and serue vs. <sup>10</sup> Also the Philistim saide, I defie the hoste of Israel this day: giue mee a man, that we may fight together. <sup>11</sup> When Saul and all Israel heard those wordes of the Philistim, they were discouraged, and greatly afraide. <sup>12</sup> Nowe this Dauid was the sonne of an Ephrathite of Beth-lehem Iudah, named Ishai, which had eight sonnes: and this man was taken for an olde man in the daies of Saul. <sup>13</sup> And the three eldest sonnes of Ishai went and followed Saul to the battel: and the names of his three sonnes that went to battell, were Eliab the Eldest, and the next Abinadab, and the thirde Shammah. <sup>14</sup> So Dauid was the least: and the three eldest went after Saul. <sup>15</sup> Dauid also went, but hee returned from Saul to feede his fathers sheepe in Beth-lehem. <sup>16</sup> And the Philistim drew neere in the morning, and euening, and continued fourtie daies. <sup>17</sup> And Ishai said vnto Dauid his sone, Take nowe for thy brethren an Ephah of this parched corne, and these ten cakes, and runne to the hoste to thy brethren. <sup>18</sup> Also carie these ten fresh cheeses vnto the captaine, and looke howe thy brethren fare, and receiue their pledge. <sup>19</sup> (Then Saul and they, and all the men of Israel were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistims) <sup>20</sup> So Dauid rose vp earely in the morning, and left the sheepe with a keeper, and tooke and went as Ishai had commanded him, and came within the compasse of the hoste: and the hoste went out in araië, and shouted in the battell. <sup>21</sup> For Israel and the Philistims had put themselues in araië, armie against armie. <sup>22</sup> And Dauid left the things, which hee bare, vnder the handes of the keeper of the cariage, and ranne into the hoste, and came, and asked his brethren howe they did. <sup>23</sup> And as hee talked with them, beholde, the man that was betweene the two armies, came vp, (whose name was Goliath ye Philistim of Gath) out of the armie of the Philistims, and spake such woordes, and Dauid heard them. <sup>24</sup> And all the men of Israel, when they sawe the man, ranne away from him, and were sore afraied. <sup>25</sup> For euery man of Israel saide, Sawe yee not this man that commeth vp? euen to reuile Israel is he come vp: and to him that killeth him, wil the king giue great riches, and will giue him his daughter, yea, and make his fathers house free in Israel. <sup>26</sup> Then Dauid spake to the men that stode with him, and sayde, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistim, and taketh away the shame from Israel? for who is this vncircumcised Philistim, that he shoulde reuile the hoste of the liuing God? <sup>27</sup> And the people answered him after this maner, saying, Thus shall it be done to the man that killeth him. <sup>28</sup> And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake vnto the men, and Eliab was verie angrie with Dauid, and sayde, Why camest thou downe hither? and with whome hast thou left those fewe sheepe in the wildernesse? I knowe thy pride and the malice of thine heart, that thou art come downe to see the battell. <sup>29</sup> Then Daud sayde, What haue I nowe done? Is there not a cause? <sup>30</sup> And hee departed from him into the presence of another, and spake of the same maner, and the people answered him according to the former woordes. <sup>31</sup> And they that heard the wordes which Daud spake, rehearsed them before Saul, which caused him to be brought. <sup>32</sup> So Daud saide to Saul, Let no mans heart faile him, because of him: thy seruaut wil goe, and fight with this Philistim. <sup>33</sup> And Saul sayde to Daud, Thou art not able to goe against this Philistim to fight with him: for thou art a boye, and he is a man of warre from his youth. <sup>34</sup> And Daud answered vnto Saul, Thy seruaut kept his fathers sheepe, and there came a lyon, and likewise a beare, and tooke a sheepe out of the flocke, <sup>35</sup> And I went out after him and smote him, and tooke it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by the beard, and smote him, and slue him. <sup>36</sup> So thy seruaut slue both the lyon, and the beare: therefore this vncircumcised Philistim shall be as one of them, seeing hee hath railed on the hoste of the liuing God. <sup>37</sup> Moreouer Daud sayd, The Lord that deliuered me out of the pawe of the lyon, and out of the paw of the beare, he wil deliuer me out of the hand of this Philistim. Then Saul sayd vnto Daud, Go, and the Lord be with thee. <sup>38</sup> And Saul put his rayment vpon Daud, and put an helmet of brasse vpon his head, and put a brigandine vpon him. <sup>39</sup> Then girded Daud his sword vpon his rayment, and began to go: for he neuer proued it: and Daud sayde vnto Saul, I can not goe with these: for I am not accustomed. wherefore Daud put them off him. <sup>40</sup> Then tooke he his staffe in his hand, and chose him fiew smoothe stones out of a brooke, and put them in his shepherds bagge or skrippe, and his sling was in his hand, and he drewe neere to the Philistim. <sup>41</sup> And the Philistim came and drew neere vnto Daud, and the man that bare the shilde went before him. <sup>42</sup> Now when the Philistim looked about and saw Daud, he disdeined him: for he was but yong, ruddie, and of a comely face. <sup>43</sup> And the Philistim sayde vnto Daud, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staues? And the Philistim cursed Daud by his gods. <sup>44</sup> And the Philistim sayd to Daud, Come to me, and I will giue thy flesh vnto the foules of the heauen, and to the beastes of the field. <sup>45</sup> Then sayd Daud to the Philistim, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a speare, and with a shield, but I come to thee in the Name of the Lord of hostes, the God of the hoste of Israel, whom thou hast rayled vpon. <sup>46</sup> This day shall the Lord close thee in mine hand, and I shall smite thee, and take thine head from thee, and I wil giue the carkeises of the hoste of the Philistims this daye vnto the foules of the heauen, and to the beastes of the earth, that all the world may know that Israel hath a God, <sup>47</sup> And that all this assembly may know, that the Lord saueth not with sworde nor with speare (for the battel is the Lords) and he will giue you into our handes. <sup>48</sup> And when the Philistim arose to come and drawe neere vnto Daud, Daud hasted and ran to fight against the Philistim. <sup>49</sup> And Daud put his hande in his bagge, and tooke out a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistim in his forehead, that the stone sticked in his forehead, and he fell groueling to the earth. <sup>50</sup> So Daud ouercame the Philistim with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistim, and slew him, when Daud had no sword in his hand. <sup>51</sup>

Then Daud ranne, and stood vpon the Philistim, and tooke his sword and drew it out of his sheath, and slewe him, and cut off his head therewith. So whe the Philistims saw, that their champion was dead, they fled. <sup>52</sup> And the men of Israel and Iudah arose, and shouted, and followed after the Philistims, vntill they came to the valley, and vnto the gates of Ekron: and the Philistims fell downe wounded by the way of Shaaraim, euen to Gath and to Ekron. <sup>53</sup> And the children of Israel returned from pursuing the Philistims, and spoyled their tents. <sup>54</sup> And Daud tooke the head of ye Philistim, and brought it to Ierusalem, and put his armour in his tent. <sup>55</sup> When Saul sawe Daud go forth against the Philistim, he sayd vnto Abner the captaine of his hoste, Abner, whose sonne is this yong man? and Abner answered, As thy soule liueth, O King, I can not tell. <sup>56</sup> Then the King sayde, Enquire thou whose sonne this yong man is. <sup>57</sup> And when Daud was returned from the slaughter of the Philistim, then Abner tooke him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistim in his hand. <sup>58</sup> And Saul sayde to him, Whose sonne art thou, thou yong man? And Daud answered, I am the sonne of thy seruant Ishai the Bethlehemite.

18And when he had made an ende of speaking vnto Saul, the soule of Ionathan was knit with the soule of Daud, and Ionathan loued him, as his owne soule. <sup>2</sup> And Saul tooke him that day, and woulde not let him returne to his fathers house. <sup>3</sup> Then Ionathan and Daud made a couenant: for he loued him as his owne soule. <sup>4</sup> And Ionathan put off the robe that was vpon him, and gaue it Daud, and his garments, euen to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle. <sup>5</sup> And Daud went out whithersoouer Saul sent him, and behaued himselfe wisely: so that Saul set him ouer the men of warre, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Sauls seruants. <sup>6</sup> When they came againe, and Daud returned from the slaughter of the Philistim, the women came out of all cities of Israel singing and dauncing to meete king Saul, with timbrels, with instruments of ioy, and with rebeckes. <sup>7</sup> And the women sang by course in their play, and sayd, Saul hath slayne his thousand, and Daud his ten thousand. <sup>8</sup> Therefore Saul was exceeding wroth, and the saying displeased him, and he sayde, They haue ascribed vnto Daud ten thousand, and to me they haue ascribed but a thousand, and what can he haue more saue the kingdome? <sup>9</sup> Wherefore Saul had an eye on Daud from that day forward. <sup>10</sup> And on the morowe, the euill spirite of God came vpon Saul, and he prophecied in the middes of the house: and Daud played with his hand like as at other times, and there was a speare in Sauls hand. <sup>11</sup> And Saul tooke the speare, and sayd, I will smite Daud through to the wall. But Daud auoyded twise out of his presence. <sup>12</sup> And Saul was afrayd of Daud, because the Lord was with him, and was departed from Saul. <sup>13</sup> Therefore Saul put him from him, and made him a captaine ouer a thousand, and he went out and in before the people. <sup>14</sup> And Daudid behaued himselfe wisely in all his wayes: for the Lord was with him. <sup>15</sup> Wherefore when Saul saw that he was very wise, he was afrayde of him. <sup>16</sup> For all Israel and Iudah loued Daudid, because he went out and in before them. <sup>17</sup> Then Saul sayd to Daudid, Beholde mine eldest daughter Merab, her I will giue thee to wife: onely be a valiant sonne vnto me, and fight the Lordes battels: for Saul thought, Mine hand shall not be vpon him, but the hand of the Philistims shalbe vpon him. <sup>18</sup> And Daudid answered Saul, What am I? and what is my life, or the family of my father in Israel, that I should be sonne in law to the King? <sup>19</sup> Howbeit when Merab Sauls daughter should haue bene giuen to Daudid, she was giuen vnto Adriel a Meholathite to wife. <sup>20</sup> Then Michal Sauls daughter loued Daudid: and they shewed Saul, and the thing pleased him. <sup>21</sup> Therefore Saul said, I wil giue him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistims may bee against him. Wherefore Saul sayde to Daudid, Thou shalt this day be my sonne in law in the one of the twayne. <sup>22</sup> And Saul commanded his seruants, Speake with Daudid secretly, and say, Behold, ye King hath a fauour to thee, and all his seruants loue thee: be now therefore the Kings sonne in law. <sup>23</sup> And Sauls seruantes spake these wordes in the eares of Daudid. And Daudid sayd, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a Kings sonne in lawe, seeing that I am a poore man and of small reputation? <sup>24</sup> And then Sauls seruats brought him word againe, saying, Such wordes spake Daudid. <sup>25</sup> And Saul sayd, This wise shall ye say to Daudid, The King desireth no dowrie, but an hundred foreskinnes of the Philistims, to bee auenged of the Kings enemies: for Saul thought to make Daudid fall into the handes of the Philistims. <sup>26</sup> And when his seruantes tolde Daudid these wordes, it pleased Daudid well, to be the Kings sonne in law: and the dayes were not expired. <sup>27</sup> Afterwarde Daudid arose with his men, and went and slewe of the Philistims two hundreth men: and Daudid brought their foreskinnes, and they gaue them wholly to the King that hee might be the Kings sonne in lawe: therefore Saul gaue him Michal his daughter to wife. <sup>28</sup> Then Saul sawe, and vnderstoode that the Lord was with Daudid, and that Michal the daughter of Saul loued him. <sup>29</sup> Then Saul was more and more afrayde of Daudid, and Saul became alway Daudids enemy. <sup>30</sup> And when the Princes of the Philistims went forth, at their going forth Daudid behaued himselfe more wisely then all the seruants of Saul, so that his name was much set by.

<sup>19</sup>Then Saul spake to Ionathan his sonne, and to all his seruantes, that they shoulde kill Daudid: but Ionathan Sauls sonne had a great fauour to Daudid. <sup>2</sup>

And Ionathan told Daudid, saying, Saul my father goeth about to slay thee: nowe therefore, I pray thee, take heede vnto thy selfe vnto the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thy selfe. <sup>3</sup> And I will go out, and stand by my father in the field where thou art, and will commune with my father of thee, and I will see what he sayth, and will tell thee. <sup>4</sup> And Ionathan spake good of Daudid vnto Saul his father, and said vnto him, Let not the King sinne against his seruat, against Daid: for he hath not sinned against thee, but his works haue bene to thee very good. <sup>5</sup> For he did put his life in daunger, and slew the Philistim, and the Lord wrought a great saluation for al Israel: thou sawest it, and thou reioycedst: wherefore then wilt thou sinne against innocent blood, and slay Daid without a cause? <sup>6</sup> Then Saul hearkened vnto the voyce of Ionathan, and Saul sware, As the Lord liueth, he shall not dye. <sup>7</sup> So Ionathan called Daid, and Ionathan shewed him all those words, and Ionathan brought Daid to Saul, and hee was in his presence as in times past. <sup>8</sup> Againe the warre began, and Daid went out and fought with the Philistims, and slew them with a great slaughter, and they fled from him. <sup>9</sup> And the euill spirit of the Lord was vpon Saul, as hee sate in his house hauing his speare in his hand, and Daid played with his hand. <sup>10</sup> And Saul intended to smite Daid to the wall with the speare: but hee turned aside out of Sauls presence, and he smote the speare against the wall: but Daid fled, and escaped the same night. <sup>11</sup> Saul also sent messengers vnto Daidis house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal Daidis wife told it him, saying, If thou saue not thy selfe this night, to morowe thou shalt be slayne. <sup>12</sup> So Michal let Daid downe through a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped. <sup>13</sup> Then Michal tooke an image, and layde it in the bed, and put a pillow stuffed with goates heare vnder the head of it, and couered it with a cloth. <sup>14</sup> And when Saul sent messengers to take Daid, she sayd, He is sicke. <sup>15</sup> And Saul sent the messengers againe to see Daid, saying, Bring him to me in the bed, that I may slay him. <sup>16</sup> And when the messengers were come in, behold, an image was in the bed, with a pillow of goates heare vnder the head of it. <sup>17</sup> And Saul said vnto Michal, Why hast thou mocked me so, and sent away mine enemie, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said vnto me, Let me go, or els I will kill thee. <sup>18</sup> So Daid fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him: and he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth. <sup>19</sup> But one tolde Saul, saying, Beholde, Daid is at Naioth in Ramah. <sup>20</sup> And Saul sent messengers to take Daid: and when they sawe a company of Prophets prophecying, and Samuel standing as appoynted ouer them, the Spirit of God fell vpon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophecied. <sup>21</sup> And when it was tolde Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophecied likewise: againe Saul sent the third messengers, and they prophecied also. <sup>22</sup> Then went he himselfe to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in Sechu, and he asked, and sayd, Where are Samuel and Daid? and one sayd, Behold, they be at Naioth in Ramah. <sup>23</sup> And he went thither, euen to Naioth in Ramah, and the Spirit of God came vpon him also, and he went prophecying vntill hee came to Naioth in Ramah. <sup>24</sup> And he stript off his clothes, and he prophesied also before Samuel, and fell downe naked all that day and all that night: therefore they say, Is Saul also among the Prophets?

20And Daid fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and sayd before Ionathan, What haue I done? what is mine iniquitie? and what sinne haue I committed before thy father, that he seeketh my life? <sup>2</sup> And he sayde vnto him, God forbid, thou shalt not die: beholde, my father will do nothing great nor small, but he will shewe it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? he will not doe it. <sup>3</sup> And Daud sware againe and sayd, Thy father knoweth that I haue found grace in thine eyes: therefore he thinketh, Ionathan shall not knowe it, lest he be sorie: but in deede, as the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, there is but a step betweene me and death. <sup>4</sup> Then said Ionathan vnto Daud, Whatsoeuer thy soule requireth, that I wil do vnto thee. <sup>5</sup> And Daud said vnto Ionathan, Behold, to morowe is the first day of the moneth, and I shoulde sit with the King at meate: but let me goe, that I may hide my selfe in the fieldes vnto the third day at euen. <sup>6</sup> If thy father make mention of me, then say, Daud asked leaue of me, that he might goe to Beth-lehem to his owne citie: for there is a yeerely sacrifice for all that familie. <sup>7</sup> And if he say thus, It is well, thy seruant shall haue peace: but if he be angrie, be sure that wickednesse is concluded of him. <sup>8</sup> So shalt thou shew mercy vnto thy seruant: for thou hast ioyned thy seruant into a couenant of the Lord with thee, and if there be in me iniquitie, slay thou me: for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father? <sup>9</sup> And Ionathan answered, God keepe that from thee: for if I knewe that wickednesse were concluded of my father to come vpon thee, would not I tell it thee? <sup>10</sup> Then said Daud to Ionathan, Who shall tell me? how shall I knowe, if thy father answeere thee cruelly? <sup>11</sup> And Ionathan sayde to Daud, Come and let vs goe out into the fielde: and they twaine went out into the fielde. <sup>12</sup> Then Ionathan sayde to Daud, O Lord God of Israel, when I haue groped my fathers minde to morow at this time, or within this three dayes, and if it be well with Daud, and I then send not vnto thee, and shewe it thee, <sup>13</sup> The Lord doe so and much more vnto Ionathan: but if my father haue minde to doe thee euill, I will shew thee also, and sende thee away, that thou mayest goe in peace: and the Lord be with thee as he hath bene with my father. <sup>14</sup> Likewise I require not whiles I liue: for I dout not but thou wilt shew me the mercy of the Lord, that I die not. <sup>15</sup> But I require that thou cut not off thy mercie from mine house for euer: no, not when the Lord hath destroyed the enemies of Daud, euery one from the earth. <sup>16</sup> So Ionathan made a bond with the house of Daud, saying, Let the Lord require it at the hands of Dauids enemies. <sup>17</sup> And againe Ionathan sware vnto Daud, because he loued him (for he loued him as his owne soule) <sup>18</sup> Then said Ionathan to him, To morowe is the first day of the moneth: and thou shalt be looked for, for thy place shalbe emptie. <sup>19</sup> Therefore thou shalt hide thy selfe three dayes, then thou shalt goe downe quickly and come to the place where thou diddest hide thy selfe, when this matter was in hand, and shalt remayne by the stone Ezel. <sup>20</sup> And I will shoote three arrowes on the side thereof, as though I shot at a marke. <sup>21</sup> And after I wil sende a boy, saying, Goe, seeke the arrowes. If I say vnto the boy, See, the arrowes are on this side thee, bring them, and come thou: for it is well with thee and no hurt, as the Lord liueth. <sup>22</sup> But if I say thus vnto the boy, Behold, the arrowes are beyonde thee, goe thy way: for the Lord hath sent thee away. <sup>23</sup> As touching the thing which thou and I haue spoken of, beholde, the Lord be betweene thee and me for euer. <sup>24</sup> So Daud hid him selfe in the field: and when the first day of the moneth came, the King sate to eate meate. <sup>25</sup> And the King sate, as at other times vpon his seate, euen vpon his seate by the wall: and Ionathan arose, and Abner sate by Sauls side, but Dauds place was emptie. <sup>26</sup> And Saul sayde nothing that day: for hee thought, Some thing hath befallen him, though he were cleane, or els becaus he was not purified. <sup>27</sup> But on the morowe which was the second day of the moneth, Dauds place was emptie againe: and Saul sayde vnto Ionathan his sonne, Wherefore commeth not the sonne of Ishai to meate, neither yesterday nor to day? <sup>28</sup> And Ionathan answered vnto Saul, Daud required of me, that he might goe to Beth-lehem. <sup>29</sup> For he sayde, Let me goe, I pray thee: for our familie offreth a sacrifice in the citie, and my brother hath sent for me: therefore now if I haue found fauour in thine eyes, let me goe, I pray thee, and see my brethren: this is the cause that he commeth not vnto the Kings table. <sup>30</sup> Then was Saul angrie with Ionathan, and sayde vnto him, Thou sonne of the wicked rebellious woman, doe not I know, that thou hast chosen the sonne of Ishai to thy confusion, and to the confusion and shame of thy mother? <sup>31</sup> For as long as the sonne of Ishai liueth vpon the earth, thou shalt not be stablished, nor thy kingdome: wherefore now send and fet him vnto me, for he shall surely die. <sup>32</sup> And Ionathan answered vnto Saul his father, and said vnto him, Wherefore shall he die? what hath he done? <sup>33</sup> And Saul cast a speare at him to hit him, whereby Ionathan knew, that it was determined of his father to slay Daud. <sup>34</sup> So Ionathan arose from the table in a great anger, and did eate no meate the seconde day of the moneth: for he was sorie for Daud, and because his father had reuiled him. <sup>35</sup> On the next morning therefore Ionathan than went out into the fiede, at the time appoynted with Daud, and a litle boy with him. <sup>36</sup> And he saide vnto his boy, Runne now, seeke the arrowes which I shoote, and as the boy ran, he shot an arrowe beyond him. <sup>37</sup> And when the boy was come to the place where the arrowe was that Ionathan had shot, Ionathan cryed after the boy, and sayde, Is not the arrowe beyond thee? <sup>38</sup> And Ionathan cryed after the boy, Make speede, haste and stand not still: and Ionathans boy gathered vp the arrowes, and came to his master, <sup>39</sup> But the boy knewe nothing: onely Ionathan and Daud knew the matter. <sup>40</sup> Then Ionathan gaue his bowe and arrowes vnto the boy that was with him, and sayd vnto him, Goe, carrie them into the citie. <sup>41</sup> Assoone as the boy was gone, Daud arose out of a place that was towarde the South, and fel on his face to the ground, and bowed him selfe three times: and they kissed one another, and wept both twaine, till Daud exceeded. <sup>42</sup> Therefore Ionathan said to Daud, Goe in peace: that which we haue sworne both of vs in the Name of the Lord, saying, The Lord be betweene me and thee, and betweene my seede and betweene thy seede, let it stand for euer. <sup>43</sup> And he arose and departed, and Ionathan went into the citie.

21 Then came Daud to Nob, to Ahimelech the Priest, and Ahimelech was astonied at the meeting of Daud, and saide vnto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee? <sup>2</sup> And Dauid saide to Ahimelech the Priest, The King hath commanded mee a certaine thing, and hath sayd vnto me, Let no man know whereabout I sende thee, and what I haue commanded thee: and I haue appointed my seruants to such and such places. <sup>3</sup> Nowe therefore if thou hast ought vnder thine hande, giue me fiue cakes of bread, or what commeth to hand. <sup>4</sup> And the Priest answered Dauid, and saide, There is no common bread vnder mine hande, but here is halowed bread, if the yong men haue kept themselues, at least from women. <sup>5</sup> Dauid then answered the Priest, and sayde vnto him, Certainly women haue bene separarate from vs these two or three dayes since I came out: and the vessels of the yong men were holy, though the way were prophane, and how much more then shall euery one be sanctified this day in the vessell? <sup>6</sup> So the Priest gaue him halowed bread: for there was no bread there, saue the shewe bread that was taken from before the Lord, to put hote bread there, the day that it was taken away. <sup>7</sup> (And there was the same day one of the seruants of Saul abiding before the Lord, named Doeg the Edomite, the chiefest of Sauls heardmen) <sup>8</sup> And Dauid said vnto Ahimelech, Is there not here vnder thine hand a speare or a sworde? for I haue neither brought my sworde nor mine harnesse with me, because the Kings businesse required haste. <sup>9</sup> And the Priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistim, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it is wrapt in a cloth behinde the Ephod: if thou wilt take that to thee, take it: for there is none other saue that here: And Dauid sayd, There is none to that, giue it me. <sup>10</sup> And Dauid arose and fled the same day from the presence of Saul, and went to Achish the King of Gath. <sup>11</sup> And the seruants of Achish said vnto him, Is not this Dauid the King of the land? did they not sing vnto him in daunces, saying, Saul hath slayne his thousand, and Dauid his ten thousande? <sup>12</sup> And Dauid considered these wordes, and was sore afraide of Achish the King of Gath. <sup>13</sup> And hee changed his behaiour before them, and fayned him selfe mad in their handes, and scabbed on the doores of the gate, and let his spettel fall downe vpon his beard. <sup>14</sup> Then said Achish vnto his seruants, Lo, ye see the man is beside him selfe, wherefore haue ye brought him to me? <sup>15</sup> Haue I neede of mad men, that ye haue brought this fellowe to play the mad man in my presence? shall he come into mine house?

22Dauid therefore departed thence, and saued him selfe in the caue of Adullam: and when his brethren and all his fathers house heard it, they went downe thither to him. <sup>2</sup> And there gathered vnto him all men that were in trouble and all men that were in dette, and all those that were vexed in minde, and he was their prince, and there were with him about foure hundreth men. <sup>3</sup> And Dauid went thence to Mizpeh in Moab, and said vnto the King of Moab, I pray thee, let my father and my mother come and abide with you, till I knowe what God wil doe for me. <sup>4</sup> And he brought them before the King of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the while that Dauid was in the holde. <sup>5</sup> And the Prophet Gad sayde vnto Dauid, Abide not in the holde, but depart and goe into the land of Iudah. Then Dauid departed and came into the forest of Hareth. <sup>6</sup> And Saul heard that Dauid was discouered, and the men that were with him, and Saul remayned in Gibeah vnder a tree in Ramah, hauing his speare in his hande, and all his seruants stode about him. <sup>7</sup> And Saul said vnto his seruants that stood about him, Heare now, ye sonnes of Iemini, wil the sonne of Ishai giue euery one of you fields and vineyardes: will he make you all captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer hundreths: <sup>8</sup> That all ye haue conspired against me, and there is none that tellerh mee that my sonne hath made a couenant with the sonne of Ishai? and there is none of you that is sory for me, or sheweth mee, that my sonne hath stirred vp my seruant to lie in wayte against me, as appeareth this day? <sup>9</sup> Then answered Doeg the Edomite (who was appoynted ouer the seruants of Saul) and sayd, I saw the sonne of Ishai when he came to Nob, to Ahimelech the sonne of Ahitub, <sup>10</sup> Who asked counsell of the Lord for him and gaue him vitales, and he gaue him also the sword of Goliath the Philistim. <sup>11</sup> Then the King sent to call Ahimelech the Priest the sonne of Ahitub, and all his fathers house, to wit, the Priests that were in Nob: and they came all to the King. <sup>12</sup> And Saul said, Heare now thou sonne of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my lord. <sup>13</sup> Then Saul sayde vnto him, Why haue yee conspired against me, thou and the sonne of Ishai, in that thou hast giuen him vitale, and a sworde, and hast asked counsell of God for him, that he should rise against me, and lye in wayte as appeareth this day? <sup>14</sup> And Ahimelech answered the King, and sayde, Who is so faithfull among all thy seruants as Dauid, being also the Kings sonne in lawe, and goeth at thy commandement, and is honourable in thine house? <sup>15</sup> Haue I this day first begun to aske counsell of God for him? be it farre from mee, let not the King impute any thing vnto his seruant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy seruant knew nothing of all this, lesse nor more. <sup>16</sup> Then the King sayd, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy fathers house. <sup>17</sup> And the King sayde vnto the sergeantes that stode about him, Turne, and slay the Priestes of the Lord, because their hand also is with Dauid, and because they knewe when he fled, and shewed it not vnto mee. But the seruantes of the King would not moue their hands to fall vpon the Priests of the Lord. <sup>18</sup> Then the King sayde to Doeg, Turne thou and fall vpon the Priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and ran vpon the Priestes, and slewe that same daye foure score and fiue persons that did weare a linen Ephod. <sup>19</sup> Also Nob the citie of the Priestes smote he with the edge of the sword, both man and woman, both childe and suckling, both ox and asse, and sheepe with the edge of the sword. <sup>20</sup> But one of the sonnes of Ahimelech the sonne of Ahitub (whose name was Abiathar) escaped and fled after Dauid. <sup>21</sup> And Abiathar shewed Dauid, that Saul had slayne the Lords Priestes. <sup>22</sup> And Dauid sayd vnto Abiathar, I knewe it the same day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would tell Saul. I am the cause of the death of all the persons of thy fathers house. <sup>23</sup> Abide thou with me, and feare not: for he that seeketh my life, shall seeke thy life also: for with me thou shalt be in safegard.

23 Then they tolde Dauid, saying, Beholde, the Philistims fight against Keilah, and spoyle the barnes. <sup>2</sup> Therefore Dauid asked counsel of the Lord, saying, Shal I goe and smite these Philistims? And the Lord answered Dauid, Go and smite the Philistims, and saue Keilah. <sup>3</sup> And Dauids men said vnto him, See, we be afrayde here in Iudah, howe much more if we come to Keilah against the hoste of ye Philistims? <sup>4</sup> Then Dauid asked counsell of the Lord againe. And the Lord answered him, and sayd, Arise, go downe to Keilah: for I wil deliuer the Philistims into thine hand. <sup>5</sup> So Dauid and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistims, and brought away their cattel, and smote them with a great slaughter: thus Dauid saued the inhabitants of Keilah. <sup>6</sup> (And when Abiathar the sonne of Ahimelech fled to Dauid to Keilah, he brought an Ephod with him) <sup>7</sup> And it was tolde Saul that Dauid was come to Keilah, and Saul sayd, God hath deliuered him into mine hand: for he is shut in, seeing he is come into a citie that hath gates and barres. <sup>8</sup> Then Saul called all the people together to warre, for to go downe to Keilah, and to besiege Dauid and his men. <sup>9</sup> And Dauid hauing knowledge that Saul imagined mischiefe against him, saide to Abiathar the Priest, Bring the Ephod. <sup>10</sup> Then sayde Dauid, O Lord God of Israel, thy seruat hath heard, that Saul is about to come to Keilah to destroy the citie for my sake. <sup>11</sup> Wil the lordes of Keilah deliuer me vp into his hand? and will Saul come downe, as thy seruant hath heard? O Lord God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy seruant. And the Lord sayde, He will come downe. <sup>12</sup> Then said Dauid, Will the lords of Keilah deliuer me vp, and the men that are with me, into the hand of Saul? And the Lord sayde, They will deliuer thee vp. <sup>13</sup> Then Dauid and his men, which were about sixe hundreth, arose, and departed out of Keilah, and went whither they coulde. And it was tolde Saul, that Dauid was fled from Keilah, and he left off his iourney. <sup>14</sup> And Dauid abode in the wildernesse in holdes, and remayned in a mountaine in the wildernes of Ziph. And Saul sought him euery day, but God deliuered him not into his hand. <sup>15</sup> And Dauid sawe that Saul was come out for to seeke his life: and Dauid was in the wildernes of Ziph in the wood. <sup>16</sup> And Ionathan Sauls sonne arose and went to Dauid into the wood, and comforted him in God, <sup>17</sup> And said vnto him, Feare not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not finde thee, and thou shalt be King ouer Israel, and I shalbe next vnto thee: and also Saul my father knoweth it. <sup>18</sup> So they twaine made a couenant before ye Lord: and Dauid did remaine in the wood: but Ionathan went to his house. <sup>19</sup> Then came vp the Ziphims to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doeth not Dauid hide himselfe by vs in holdes, in the wood in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the right side of Ieshimon? <sup>20</sup> Nowe therefore, O King, come downe according to all that thine heart can desire, and our part shall be to deliuer him into the Kinges handes. <sup>21</sup> Then Saul said, Be ye blessed of the Lord: for ye haue had compassion on mee. <sup>22</sup> Goe, I pray you, and prepare ye yet better: know and see his place where he haunteth, and who hath seene him there: for it is sayd to me, He is subtile, and craftie. <sup>23</sup> See therefore and know all the secret places where he hideth himselfe, and come ye againe to me with the certaintie, and I will goe with you: and if he be in the lande, I will searche him out throughout all the thousands of Iudah. <sup>24</sup> Then they arose and went to Ziph before Saul, but Daid and his men were in the wildernesse of Maon, in the playne on the right hande of Ieshimon. <sup>25</sup> Saul also and his men went to seeke him, and they told Daid: wherefore he came downe vnto a rocke, and abode in the wildernesse of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he folowed after Daid in the wildernes of Maon. <sup>26</sup> And Saul and his men went on the one side of the mountaine, and Daid and his men on the other side of the mountaine: and Daid made haste to get from the presence of Saul: for Saul and his men compassed Daid and his men round about, to take them. <sup>27</sup> But there came a messenger to Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come: for the Philistims haue inuaded the land. <sup>28</sup> Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing Daid, and went against the Philistims. Therefore they called that place, Sela-hammahlekoth.

24And Daid went thence, and dwelt in holdes at En-gedi. <sup>2</sup> When Saul was turned from ye Philistims, they told him, saying, Behold, Daid is in the wildernes of En-gedi. <sup>3</sup> Then Saul tooke three thousande chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seeke Daid and his men vpon the rocks among the wilde goates. <sup>4</sup> And hee came to the sheepecoates by the way where there was a caue, and Saul went in to do his easement: and Daid and his men sate in the inward parts of the caue. <sup>5</sup> And the men of Daid said vnto him, See, the day is come, whereof the Lord sayde vnto thee, Beholde, I will deliuer thine enemie into thine hande, and thou shalt doe to him as it shall seeme good to thee. Then Daid arose and cut off the lap of Sauls garment priuily. <sup>6</sup> And afterward Daid was touched in his heart, because he had cut off the lappe which was on Sauls garment. <sup>7</sup> And he said vnto his men, The Lord keepe mee from doing that thing vnto my master the Lords Anoynted, to lay mine hand vpon him: for he is the Anoynted of the Lord. <sup>8</sup> So Daid ouercame his seruants with these words, and suffered them not to arise against Saul: so Saul rose vp out of the caue and went away. <sup>9</sup> Daid also arose afterward, and went out of the caue, and cryed after Saul, saying, O my lorde the King. And when Saul looked behinde him, Daid inclined his face to the earth, and bowed himselfe. <sup>10</sup> And Daid saide to Saul, Wherefore giuest thou an eare to mens words, that say, Behold, Daid seeketh euill against thee? <sup>11</sup> Behold, this day thine eyes haue seene, that the Lord had deliuered thee this day into mine hand in the caue, and some bade me kill thee, but I had compassion on thee, and said, I will not lay mine hande on my master: for he is the Lordes Anoynted. <sup>12</sup> Moreouer my father, behold: behold, I say, the lappe of thy garment in mine hand: for when I cut off the lappe of thy garment, I killed thee not. Vnderstad and see, that there is neither euil nor wickednesse in mee, neither haue I sinned against thee, yet thou huntest after my soule to take it. <sup>13</sup> The Lord be iudge betweene thee and me, and the Lord auenge me of thee, and let not mine hand be vpon thee. <sup>14</sup> According as the olde prouerbe sayeth, Wickednesse proceedeth from the wicked, but mine hand be not vpon thee. <sup>15</sup> After whom is the King of Israel come out?

after whome doest thou pursue? after a dead dog, and after a flea? <sup>16</sup> The Lord therefore be iudge, and iudge betweene thee and me, and see, and pleade my cause, and deliuer me out of thine hand. <sup>17</sup> Whe Daudid had made an end of speaking these words to Saul, Saul sayd, Is this thy voyce, my sonne Daudid? and Saul lift vp his voice, and wept, <sup>18</sup> And sayd to Daudid, Thou art more righteous then I: for thou hast rendred me good, and I haue rendred thee euill. <sup>19</sup> And thou hast shewed this day, that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the Lord had closed me in thine hands, thou killedst me not. <sup>20</sup> For who shall finde his enemie, and let him depart free? wherefore the Lord render thee good for that thou hast done vnto me this day. <sup>21</sup> For now behold, I know that thou shalt be King, and that the kingdome of Israel shall be stablished in thine hand. <sup>22</sup> Swaere now therfore vnto me by the Lord, that thou wilt not destroy my seede after me, and that thou wilt not abolish my name out of my fathers house. <sup>23</sup> So Daudid swaere vnto Saul, and Saul went home: but Daudid and his men went vp vnto ye hold.

<sup>25</sup>Then Samuel dyed, and all Israel assembled, and mourned for him, and buried him in his owne house at Ramah. And Daudid arose and went downe to the wildernes of Paran. <sup>2</sup> Now in Maon was a man, who had his possessio in Carmel, and the man was exceeding mightie and had three thousand sheepe, and a thousand goates: and he was shering his sheepe in Carmel. <sup>3</sup> The name also of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail, and she was a woman of singular wisdome, and beautifull, but the man was churlish, and euil conditioned, and was of the familie of Caleb. <sup>4</sup> And Daudid heard in the wilderness, that Nabal did shere his sheepe. <sup>5</sup> Therefore Daudid sent tenne yong men, and Daudid said vnto the yong men, Go vp to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and aske him in my name how he doeth. <sup>6</sup> And thus shall ye say for salutation, Both thou, and thine house, and all that thou hast, be in peace, wealth and prosperitie. <sup>7</sup> Behold, I haue heard, that thou hast shersers: now thy shepherds were with vs, and we did the no hurt, neyther did they misse any thing all the while they were in Carmel. <sup>8</sup> Aske thy seruants and they wil shew thee. Wherefore let these yong men finde fauour in thine eyes: (for we come in a good season) giue, I pray thee, whatsoeuer commeth to thine hand vnto thy seruants, and to thy sonne Daudid. <sup>9</sup> And when Daudids yong men came, they tolde Nabal all those wordes in the name of Daudid, and helde their peace. <sup>10</sup> Then Nabal answered Daudids seruantes, and sayd, Who is Daudid? and who is the sonne of Ishai? there be many seruantes nowe a dayes, that breake away euery man from his master. <sup>11</sup> Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I haue killed for my shersers, and giue it vnto men, whom I know not whence they be? <sup>12</sup> So Daudids seruants turned their way, and went againe, and came, and tolde him all those things. <sup>13</sup> And Daudid said vnto his men, Girde euery man his sword about him. And they girded euery man his sworde: Daudid also girded his sworde. And about foure hundreth men went vp after Daudid, and two hundreth abode by the cariage. <sup>14</sup> Nowe one of the seruantes tolde Abigail Nabals wife, saying, Beholde, Dauid sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master, and he rayled on them. <sup>15</sup> Notwithstanding the men were very good vnto vs, and we had no displeasure, neither missed we any thing as long as we were conuersant with them, when we were in the fieldes. <sup>16</sup> They were as a wall vnto vs both by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping sheepe. <sup>17</sup> Nowe therefore take heede, and see what thou shalt doe: for euill will surely come vpon our master, and vpon all his familie: for he is so wicked that a man can not speake to him. <sup>18</sup> Then Abigail made haste, and tooke two hundreth cakes, and two bottels of wine, and fiue sheepe ready dressed, and fiue measures of parched corne, and an hundreth frailes of raisins, and two hundreth of figs, and laded them on asses. <sup>19</sup> Then she said vnto her seruants, Go ye before me: beholde, I will come after you: yet she tolde not her husband Nabal. <sup>20</sup> And as shee rode on her asse, shee came downe by a secret place of the mountaine, and beholde, Dauid and his men came downe against her, and she met them. <sup>21</sup> And Dauid said, In deede I haue kept all in vaine that this fellow had in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained vnto him: for he hath requited me euill for good. <sup>22</sup> So and more also doe God vnto the enemies of Dauid: for surely I will not leaue of all that he hath, by the dawning of the day, any that pisseth against the wall. <sup>23</sup> And when Abigail sawe Dauid, she hasted and lighted off her asse, and fell before Dauid on her face, and bowed her selfe to the ground, <sup>24</sup> And fel at his feete, and sayd, Oh, my lord, I haue committed the iniquitie, and I pray thee, let thine handmayde speake to thee, and heare thou the wordes of thine handmayde. <sup>25</sup> Let not my lorde, I pray thee, regard this wicked man Nabal: for as his name is, so is he: Nabal is his name, and follie is with him: but I thine handmayde sawe not the yong men of my lord whom thou sentest. <sup>26</sup> Now therefore my lord, as the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth (the Lord, I say, that hath withholden thee from comming to shedde blood, and that thine hand should not saue thee) so now thine enemies shall be as Nabal, and they that intend to doe my lord euill. <sup>27</sup> And now, this blessing which thine handmaid hath brought vnto my lorde, let it be giuen vnto the yong men, that follow my lord. <sup>28</sup> I pray thee, forgiue the trespasse of thine handmaide: for the Lord will make my lorde a sure house, because my lord fighteth the battels of the Lord, and none euill hath bene found in thee in all thy life. <sup>29</sup> Yet a man hath risen vp to persecute thee, and to seeke thy soule, but the soule of my lorde shall be bounde in the bundel of life with the Lord thy God: and the soule of thine enemies shall God cast out, as out of the middle of a sling. <sup>30</sup> And when the Lord shall haue done to my lord al the good that he hath promised thee, and shall haue made thee ruler ouer Israel, <sup>31</sup> Then shall it be no grieffe vnto thee, nor offence of minde vnto my lord, that he hath not shed blood causelesse, nor that my lorde hath not preserued him selfe: and when the Lord shall haue dealt well with my lorde, remember thine handmaide. <sup>32</sup> Then Dauid said to Abigail, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meete me. <sup>33</sup> And blessed be thy counsel, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from comming to shed blood, and that mine hand hath not saued me. <sup>34</sup> For in deede, as the Lord God of Israel liueth, who hath kept me backe from hurting thee, except thou haddest hasted and met mee, surely there had not bene left vnto Nabal by the dawning of the day, any that pisseth against the wall. <sup>35</sup> Then Daud receiued of her hande that which she had brought him, and said to her, Goe vp in peace to thine house: beholde, I haue heard thy voyce, and haue graunted thy petition. <sup>36</sup> So Abigail came to Nabal, and behold, he made a feast in his house, like the feast of a King, and Nabals heart was merie within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore shee tolde him nothing, neither lesse nor more, vntil the morning arose. <sup>37</sup> Then in the morning when the wine was gone out of Nabal, his wife tolde him those wordes, and his heart died within him, and he was like a stone. <sup>38</sup> And about ten dayes after, the Lord smote Nabal, that he dyed. <sup>39</sup> Now when Daud heard, that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord that hath iudged the cause of my rebuke of ye hand of Nabal, and hath kept his seruant from euil: for the Lord hath recompensed the wickednesse of Nabal vpon his owne head. Also Daud sent to commune with Abigail to take her to his wife. <sup>40</sup> And whe the seruants of Daud were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake vnto her, saying, Daud sent vs to thee, to take thee to his wife. <sup>41</sup> And she arose, and bowed her selfe on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmayde be a seruant to wash the feete of the seruants of my lord. <sup>42</sup> And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode vpon an asse, and her fiue maides folowed her, and she went after the messengers of Daud, and was his wife. <sup>43</sup> Daud also tooke Ahinoam of Izreel, and they were both his wiues. <sup>44</sup> Now Saul had giuen Michal his daughter Dauids wife to Phalti the sonne of Laish, which was of Gallim.

26 Againe the Ziphims came vnto Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doeth not Daud hide him selfe in the hill of Hachilah before Ieshimon? <sup>2</sup> Then Saul arose, and went downe to the wildernes of Ziph, hauing three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, for to seeke Daud in the wildernes of Ziph. <sup>3</sup> And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Ieshimon by the way side. Now Daud abode in the wildernes, and he sawe that Saul came after him into the wildernes. <sup>4</sup> (For Daud had sent out spies, and vnderstood, that Saul was come in very deede) <sup>5</sup> Then Daud arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched, and when Daud beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the sonne of Ner which was his chiefe captaine, (for Saul lay in the fort, and the people pitched round about him) <sup>6</sup> Then spake Daud, and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the sonne of Zeruah, brother to Ioab, saying, Who will go downe with me to Saul to the hoste? Then Abishai said, I will goe downe with thee. <sup>7</sup> So Daud and Abishai came downe to the people by night: and beholde, Saul lay sleeping within the fort, and his speare did sticke in the ground at his head: and Abner and the people lay round about him. <sup>8</sup> Then saide Abishai to Daud, God hath closed thine enemy into thine hande this day: now therefore, I pray thee, let me smite him once with a speare to the earth, and I will not smite him againe. <sup>9</sup> And Daud sayde to Abishai, Destroy him not: for who can lay his hand on the Lordes anoynted, and be giltlesse? <sup>10</sup> Moreouer Dauid said, As the Lord liueth, eyther the Lord shall smite him, or his day shall come to dye, or he shall descend into battel, and perish. <sup>11</sup> The Lord keepe mee from laying mine hand vpon the Lordes anointed: but, I pray thee, take now the speare that is at his head, and the pot of water, and let vs goe hence. <sup>12</sup> So Dauid tooke the speare and the pot of water from Sauls head, and they gate them away, and no man saw it, nor marked it, neither did any awake, but they were all asleepe: for the Lord sent a dead sleepe vpon them. <sup>13</sup> Then Dauid went vnto the other side, and stode on the toppe of an hill a farre off, a great space being betweene them. <sup>14</sup> And Dauid cryed to the people, and to Abner the sonne of Ner, saying, Hearest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered, and said, Who art thou that cryest to the King? <sup>15</sup> And Dauid said to Abner, Art not thou a man? and who is like thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lorde the King? for there came one of the folke in to destroy the King thy lord. <sup>16</sup> This is not well done of thee: as the Lord liueth, ye are worthy to dye, because ye haue not kept your master the Lordes Anointed: and now see where the Kings speare is, and the pot of water that was at his head. <sup>17</sup> And Saul knewe Dauids voyce, and sayde, Is this thy voyce, my sonne Dauid? And Dauid sayde, It is my voyce, my lorde O King. <sup>18</sup> And he sayde, Wherefore doeth my lorde thus persecute his seruant? for what haue I done? or what euill is in mine hand? <sup>19</sup> Now therefore, I beseech thee, let my lord the King heare the wordes of his seruant. If the Lord haue stirred thee vp against me, let him smell the sauour of a sacrifice: but if the children of men haue done it, cursed be they before the Lord: for they haue cast me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the Lord, saying, Goe, serue other gods. <sup>20</sup> Nowe therefore let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord: for the King of Israel is come out to seeke a flea, as one would hunt a partridge in the mountaines. <sup>21</sup> Then sayde Saul, I haue sinned: come againe, my sonne Dauid: for I will doe thee no more harme, because my soule was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I haue done foolishly, and haue erred exceedingly. <sup>22</sup> Then Dauid answered, and saide, Beholde the Kings speare, let one of the yong men come ouer and set it. <sup>23</sup> And let the Lord rewarde euery man according to his righteousnesse and faithfulnessse: for the Lord had deliuered thee into mine handes this day, but I woulde not lay mine hand vpon the Lords anointed. <sup>24</sup> And beholde, like as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes: so let my life be set by in the eyes of the Lord, that he may deliuer me out of all tribulation. <sup>25</sup> Then Saul said to Dauid, Blessed art thou, my sonne Dauid: for thou shalt doe great things, and also preuaile. So Dauid went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

27 And Dauid said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: is it not better for me that I saue my selfe in the lande of the Philistims, and that Saul may haue no hope of me to seeke me any more in all the coastes of Israel, and so escape out of his hand? <sup>2</sup> Dauid therefore arose, and he, and the six hundred men that were with him, went vnto Achish the sonne of Maach King of Gath. <sup>3</sup> And Dauid dwelt with Achish at Gath, he, and his men, euery man with his housholde, Dauid with his two wiues, Ahinoam the Izreelite, and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite. <sup>4</sup> And it was tolde Saul that Dauid was fled to Gath: so he sought no more for him. <sup>5</sup> And Dauid saide vnto Achish, If I haue nowe founde peace in thine eyes, let them giue me a place in some other citie of the countrey, that I may dwell there: for why should thy seruant dwell in ye head citie of the kingdome with thee? <sup>6</sup> Then Achish gaue him Ziklag that same day: therefore Ziklag pertaineth vnto the kings of Iudah vnto this day. <sup>7</sup> And the time that Dauid dwelt in the countrey of the Philistims, was foure moneths and certaine dayes. <sup>8</sup>

Then Dauid and his men went vp, and inuaded the Geshurites, and the Girzites, and the Amalekites: for they inhabited the lande from the beginning, from the way, as thou goest to Shur, euen vnto the lande of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> And Dauid smote the lande, and left neither man nor woman aliue, and tooke sheepe, and oxen, and asses, and camels, and apparell, and returned and came to Achish. <sup>10</sup> And Achish said, Where haue ye bene a rouing this day? And Dauid answered, Against the South of Iudah, and against the South of the Ierahmeelites, and against the South of ye Kenites. <sup>11</sup> And Dauid saued neither man nor woman aliue, to bring them to Gath, saying, Lest they should tel on vs, and say, So did Dauid, and so will be his maner all the while that he dwelleth in the countrey of the Philistims. <sup>12</sup> And Achish beleued Dauid, saying, He hath made his people of Israel vtterly to abhorre him: therefore he shall be my seruant for euer.

28 Nowe at that time the Philistims assembled their bandes and armie to fight with Israel: therefore Achish said to Dauid, Be sure, thou shalt go out with me to the battel, thou, and thy men. <sup>2</sup> And Dauid said to Achish, Surely thou shalt knowe, what thy seruant can doe. And Achish sayde to Dauid, Surely I will make thee keeper of mine head for euer. <sup>3</sup> (Samuel was then dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah his owne citie: and Saul had put away the sorcerers, and the soothsayers out of the land) <sup>4</sup> Then the Philistims assembled themselues, and came, and pitched in Shunem: and Saul assembled all Israel, and they pitched in Gilboa. <sup>5</sup> And when Saul saw the hoste of the Philistims, he was afraid, and his heart was sore astonied. <sup>6</sup> Therefore Saul asked counsel of the Lord, and the Lord answered him not, neither by dreames, nor by Vrim, nor yet by Prophets. <sup>7</sup>

Then saide Saul vnto his seruants, Seeke me a woman that hath a familiar spirite, that I may goe to her, and aske of her. And his seruants said to him, Beholde, there is a woman at En-dor that hath a familiar spirit. <sup>8</sup> Then Saul changed him selfe, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he saide, I pray thee, coniecture vnto me by the familiar spirite, and bring me him vp whome I shall name vnto thee. <sup>9</sup> And the woman saide vnto him, Beholde, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath destroyed the sorcerers, and the southsayers out of the land: wherefore then seekest thou to take me in a snare to cause me to die? <sup>10</sup> And Saul sware to her by the Lord, saying, As the Lord liueth, no harme shall come to thee for this thing. <sup>11</sup> Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring vp vnto thee? And he answered, Bring me vp Samuel. <sup>12</sup> And when the woman sawe Samuel, she cryed with a loude voyce, and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceiued me? for thou art Saul. <sup>13</sup> And the King said vnto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said vnto Saul, I saw gods ascending vp out of the earth. <sup>14</sup> Then he said vnto her, What facion is hee of? And she answered, An olde man commeth vp lapped in a mantel: and Saul knewe that it was Samuel, and he enclined his face to the grounde, and bowed him selfe. <sup>15</sup> And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me vp? Then Saul answered, I am in great distresse: for the Philistims make warre against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by Prophetes, neither by dreames: therefore I haue called thee, that thou mayest tell me, what I shall doe. <sup>16</sup> Then said Samuel, Wherefore then doest thou aske of me, seeing the Lord is gone from thee, and is thine enemy? <sup>17</sup> Euen the Lord hath done to him, as hee spake by mine hande: for the Lord will rent the kingdome out of thine hande, and giue it thy neighbour Daud. <sup>18</sup> Because thou obeyedst not the voyce of the Lord, nor executedst his fierce wrath vpon the Amalekites, therefore hath the Lord done this vnto thee this day. <sup>19</sup> Moreouer the Lord wil deliuer Israel with thee into the handes of the Philistims: and to morowe shalt thou and thy sonnes be with me, and the Lord shall giue the hoste of Israel into the handes of the Philistims. <sup>20</sup> Then Saul fell streight way all along on the earth, and was sore afraide because of the wordes of Samuel, so that there was no strength in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day nor all the night. <sup>21</sup> Then the woman came vnto Saul, and sawe that he was sore troubled, and said vnto him, See, thine handmaide hath obeyed thy voyce, and I haue put my soule in mine hande, and haue obeyed thy wordes which thou saydest vnto me. <sup>22</sup> Now therefore, I pray thee, hearke thou also vnto ye voyce of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsell of bread before thee, that thou mayest eat and get thee strength, and go on thy iourney. <sup>23</sup> But he refused, and said, I will not eate: but his seruants and the woman together compelled him, and he obeyed their voyce: so he arose from the earth, and sate on the bed. <sup>24</sup> Nowe the woman had a fat calfe in the house, and she hasted, and killed it, and tooke floure and kneaded it, and baked of it vnleauened bread. <sup>25</sup> Then she brought them before Saul, and before his seruants: and when they had eaten, they stode, and went away the same night.

<sup>29</sup>So the Philistims were gathered together with all their armies in Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by the fountaine, which is in Izreel. <sup>2</sup> And the princes of the Philistims went forth by hundreths and thousandes, but Daud and his men came behinde with Achish. <sup>3</sup> Then saide the princes of the Philistims, What doe these Ebrewes here? And Achish said vnto the princes of the Philistims, Is not this Daid the seruant of Saul the King of Israel, who hath bene with me these dayes, or these yeeres, and I haue found nothing in him, since he dwelt with me vnto this day? <sup>4</sup> But the princes of the Philistims were wroth with him, and the princes of the Philistims said vnto him, Sende this fellow backe, that he may goe againe to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not goe downe with vs to battell, least that in the battell he be an aduersarie to vs: for wherewith should he obtaine the fauour of his master? shoulde it not be with the heades of these men? <sup>5</sup> Is not this Daid, of whome they sang in daunces, saying, Saul slewe his thousande, and Daid his ten thousande? <sup>6</sup> Then Achish called Daid, and said vnto him, As the Lord liueth, thou hast bene vpright and good in my sight, when thou wentest out and in with mee in the hoste, neither haue I founde euill with thee, since thou camest to me vnto this day, but the princes doe not fauour thee. <sup>7</sup> Wherefore nowe returne, and go in peace, that thou displease not the princes of the Philistims. <sup>8</sup> And Daid said vnto Achish, But what haue I done? and what hast thou founde in thy seruant as long as I haue bene with thee vnto this day, that I may not goe and fight against the enemies of my lorde the King? <sup>9</sup> Achish then answered, and said to Daid, I knowe thou pleasest mee, as an Angell of God: but the princes of the Philistims haue saide, Let him not goe vp with vs to battell. <sup>10</sup> Wherefore now rise vp earely in the morning with thy masters seruants that are come with thee: and when ye be vp earely, assoone as ye haue light, depart. <sup>11</sup> So Daid and his men rose vp earely to depart in the morning, and to returne into the lande of the Philistims: and the Philistims went vp to Izreel.

30Bvt when Daid and his men were come to Ziklag the thirde day, the Amalekites had inuaded vpon the South, euen vnto Ziklag, and had smitten Ziklag, and burnt it with fire, <sup>2</sup> And had taken the women that were therein, prisoners, both small and great, and slewe not a man, but caryed them away, and went their wayes. <sup>3</sup> So Daid and his men came to the city, and beholde, it was burnt with fire, and their wiues, and their sonnes, and their daughters were taken prisoners. <sup>4</sup> Then Daid and the people that was with him, lift vp their voyces and wept, vntill they could weepe no more. <sup>5</sup> Daid's two wiues were taken prisoners also, Ahinoam the Izreelite, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. <sup>6</sup> And Daid was in great sorowe: for the people entended to stone him, because the heartes of all the people were vexed euery man for his sonnes and for his daughters: but Daid comforted him selfe in the Lord his God. <sup>7</sup> And Daid saide to Abiathar the Priest Ahimelechs sonne, I pray thee, bring me the Ephod. And Abiathar brought the Ephod to Daid. <sup>8</sup> Then Daid asked counsell at the Lord, saying, Shall I follow after this companie? shall I ouertake them? And he answered him, Followe: for thou shalt surely ouertake them, and recouer all. <sup>9</sup> So Daid and the sixe hundreth men that were with him, went, and came to the riuer Besor, where a part of them abode: <sup>10</sup> But Daid and foure hundreth men followed (for two hundreth abode behinde, being too wearie to goe ouer the riuer Besor) <sup>11</sup> And they found an Egyptian in the felde, and brought him to Dauid, and gaue him bread and he did eat, and they gaue him water to drinke. <sup>12</sup> Also they gaue him a fewe figges, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his spirite came againe to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunke any water in three dayes, and three nightes. <sup>13</sup> And Dauid saide vnto him, To whome belongest thou? and whence art thou? And he saide, I am a yong man of Egypt, and seruant to an Amalekite: and my master left me three dayes agoe, because I fell sicke. <sup>14</sup> We roued vpon the South of Chereth, and vpon the coast belonging to Iudah, and vpon the South of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fire. <sup>15</sup> And Dauid saide vnto him, Canst thou bring me to this companie? And he said, Swear vnto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliuer me into the handes of my master, and I will bring thee to this companie. <sup>16</sup> And when he had brought him thither, beholde, they lay scattered abroad vpon all the earth, eating and drinking, and dauncing, because of all the great pray that they had taken out of the lande of the Philistims, and out of the land of Iudah. <sup>17</sup> And Dauid smote them from the twilight, euen vnto the euening of the next morowe, so that there escaped not a man of them, saue foure hundreth yong men, which rode vpon camels, and fled. <sup>18</sup> And Dauid recouered all that the Amalekites had taken: also Dauid rescued his two wiues. <sup>19</sup> And they lacked nothing, small or great, sonne or daughter, or of the spoyle of all that they had taken away: Dauid recouered them all. <sup>20</sup> Dauid also tooke all the sheepe, and the oxen, and they draue them before his cattell, and said, This is Dauids pray. <sup>21</sup> And Dauid came to the two hundreth men that were too wearie for to follow Dauid: whome they had made also to abide at the riuer Besor: and they came to meete Dauid, and to meete the people that were with him: so when Dauid came neere to the people, hee saluted them. <sup>22</sup> Then answered all the euill and wicked of the men that went with Dauid, and saide, Because they went not with vs, therefore will wee giue them none of the pray that wee haue recouered, saue to euery man his wife and his children: therefore let them carie them away and depart. <sup>23</sup> Then saide Dauid, Yee shall not doe so, my brethren, with that which the Lord hath giuen vs, who hath preserued vs, and deliuered the companie that came against vs, into our handes. <sup>24</sup> For who will obey you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth downe to the battel, so shall his part be, that tarieth by the stuffe: they shall part alike. <sup>25</sup> So from that day forward hee made it a statute and a lawe in Israel, vntill this day. <sup>26</sup> When Dauid therefore came to Ziklag, he sent of the pray vnto the Elders of Iudah and to his friends, saying, See there is a blessing for you of the spoyle of the enemies of the Lord. <sup>27</sup> Hee sent to them of Beth-el, and to them of South Ramoth, and to them of Iattir, <sup>28</sup> And to them of Aroer, and to them of Siphmoth, and to them of Eshtemoa, <sup>29</sup> And to them of Rachal, and to them of the cities of the Ierahmeelites, and to them of the cities of the Kenites, <sup>30</sup> And to them of Hormah, and to them of Chor-ashan, and to them of Athach, <sup>31</sup> And to them of Hebron, and to all the places where Dauid and his men had hanted.
