Peter's Second Letter

1 Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ,¹ to those who have obtained like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ: ² Grace to you and peace be the multiplied in the knowledge of God and Jesus our Lord,³ seeing that his divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and virtue,⁴ by which he granted his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of divine nature, having escaped from the corruption of the world by lust.⁵ Yes, and for this very cause adding on your diligence, in your

⁶ + 2:22 Proverbs 26:11

² that you should remember which were spoken before by the holy prophets and the commandment of us, the Lord and Savior first, that the last days mockers will come, walking after their own lusts and saying, “Where is his coming day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were beginning creation.”⁵ For they willfully forget that there were heavens from old, and an earth formed out of water and water by the word of God, which means the world then, being overflowed with water, perished.⁷ But the exist now and the earth, by the same word have been stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

8But don't forget this thing, beloved, that one is with Lord thousand a thousand as a thousand years ago, and a thousand years ago as one day. ⁹ The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, as some count he is with us, not wishing should that all come to repentance. ¹⁰ But the day will a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements dissolved with fervent heat; and the earth and the works are will be burned up. ¹¹ Therefore, since all these things will be destroyed like this, what kind of people ought you to be in holy living and godliness, ¹² looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, which will cause the burning heavens to be dissolved, and
